3 full of resonance: his voice is a resonant baritone resonate vb -nating, -nated to resound or cause to resound > resonator n

resort vb

1 resort to to have recourse to for help, use, etc.: some people have resorted to begging for food

2 to go, esp. often or habitually: to resort to the beach

► n

3 a place to which many people go for holidays

◇ SYNONYMS: holiday centre, spot, retreat, haunt, tourist centre

4 the use of something as a means or aid

5 last resort the last possible course of action open to a person resound (riz-zownd) vb

1 to ring or echo with sound

◇ SYNONYMS: ring

2 (of sounds) to echo or ring

◇ SYNONYMS: ring

3 to be widely known: his fame resounded throughout India resounding adj

1 echoing

◇ SYNONYMS: echoing, full, ringing, powerful, booming, reverberating, resonant, sonorous

2 clear and emphatic: he won a resounding victory > resoundingly adv

resource n

1 resources sources of economic wealth, esp. of a country or business enterprise: mineral resources

◇ SYNONYMS: reserves, supplies, stocks

2 resources money available for use

◇ SYNONYMS: funds, holdings, money, capital, riches, assets, wealth

3 something resorted to for aid or support: he saw the university as a resource for the community

◇ SYNONYMS: facility

4 the ability to deal with problems: a man of resource

5 a means of doing something: resistance was their only resource

◇ SYNONYMS: means, course, resort, device, expedient resourceful adj capable and full of initiative > resourcefulness n

respect n

1 consideration: respect for my feelings

◇ SYNONYMS: consideration, kindness, deference, tact, thoughtfulness, considerateness

2 an attitude of deference or esteem

◇ SYNONYMS: regard, honour, recognition, esteem, admiration, estimation

3 the state of being honoured or esteemed

4 a detail or characteristic: in virtually all respects boys develop more slowly than girls

◇ SYNONYMS: particular, way, point, matter, sense, detail, feature, aspect

5 in respect of or with respect to in reference or relation to 6 respects polite greetings: he paid his respects to her and left

► vb

7 to have an attitude of esteem towards: she is the person I most respect and wish to emulate

◇ SYNONYMS: think highly of, value, honour, admire, esteem, look up to, defer to, have a good or high opinion of

8 to pay proper attention or consideration to: he called on rebel groups to respect a cease-fire

◇ SYNONYMS: abide by, follow, observe, comply with, obey, heed, keep to, adhere to > respector n

respectable adj

1 worthy of respect

◇ SYNONYMS: honourable, good, decent, worthy, upright, honest, reputable, estimable

2 having good social standing or reputation

◇ SYNONYMS: honourable, good, decent, worthy, upright, honest, reputable, estimable

3 relatively or fairly good: they obtained respectable results

◇ SYNONYMS: reasonable, considerable, substantial, fair, ample, appreciable, sizable or sizeable

4 fit to be seen by other people

◇ SYNONYMS: decent, neat, spruce > respectability n

> respectably adv

respectful adj full of or showing respect > respectfully adv respecting prep on the subject of respective adj relating separately to each of several people or things: the culprits will be repatriated to their respective countries

◇ SYNONYMS: specific, own, individual, particular, relevant respectively adv (in listing things that refer to another list) separately in the order given: Diotema and Mantinea were tutors to Pythagoras and Socrates respectively

respiration (ress-per-ray-shun) n

1 breathing

2 the process in living organisms of taking in oxygen and giving out carbon dioxide

3 the breakdown of complex organic substances that takes place in the cells of animals and plants, producing energy and carbon dioxide > respiratory adj

respirator n

1 a device worn over the mouth and nose to prevent the breathing in of poisonous fumes

2 an apparatus for providing artificial respiration respire vb -spiring, -spired

1 to breathe

2 to undergo respiration respite n

1 an interval of rest: I allowed myself a six month respite to enjoy my family

◇ SYNONYMS: pause, break, rest, relief, halt, interval, recess, lull

2 a temporary delay resplendent adj

1 brilliant or splendid in appearance

2 shining > resplendence n

respond vb

1 to state or utter (something) in reply

◇ SYNONYMS: answer, return, reply, counter, retort, rejoin

2 to act in reply: the government must respond accordingly to our recommendations

◇ SYNONYMS: react, retaliate, reciprocate

3 to react favourably: most headaches will respond to the use of relaxants respondent n (law) a person against whom a petition is brought response n

1 the act of responding

◇ SYNONYMS: answer, return, reply, reaction, feedback, retort, counterattack, rejoinder

2 a reply or reaction

◇ SYNONYMS: answer, return, reply, reaction, feedback, retort, counterattack, rejoinder

3 a reaction to stimulation of the nervous system

4 responses (Christianity) the words recited or sung in reply to the priest at a church service responsibility n, pl -ties

1 the state of being responsible

◇ SYNONYMS: fault, blame, liability, guilt, culpability

2 a person or thing for which one is responsible

◇ SYNONYMS: job, task, function, role responsible adj

1 responsible for having control or authority over

◇ SYNONYMS: in charge, in control, in authority

2 being the agent or cause (of some action): only a small number of students were responsible for the disturbances

◇ SYNONYMS: to blame, guilty, at fault, culpable

3 responsible to being accountable for one's actions and decisions to: management should be made more responsible to shareholders

◇ SYNONYMS: accountable, liable, answerable

4 rational and accountable for one's own actions

◇ SYNONYMS: sensible, reliable, rational, dependable, trustworthy, level-headed

5 (of a position or duty) involving decision and accountability > responsibly adv

responsive adj reacting quickly or favourably to something ◇ SYNONYMS: sensitive, open, alive, susceptible, receptive, reactive, impressionable > responsiveness n

rest¹ n

1 relaxation from exertion or labour

◇ SYNONYMS: relaxation, repose, leisure, me-time

2 a period of inactivity

3 relief or refreshment

◇ SYNONYMS: refreshment, release, relief, ease, comfort, cure, remedy, solace

4 calm

◇ SYNONYMS: calm, tranquillity, stillness

5 death regarded as repose: now he has gone to his eternal rest

6 at rest

A not moving

B calm

C dead

D asleep

7 a pause or interval

◇ SYNONYMS: pause, break, stop, halt, interval, respite, lull, interlude

8 a mark in a musical score indicating a pause lasting a specific time

9 a thing or place on which to put something for support or to steady it

◇ SYNONYMS: calm, tranquillity, stillness

10 lay to rest to bury (a dead person)

► vb

11 to become or make refreshed

◇ SYNONYMS: relax, take it easy, sit down, be at ease, put your feet up, outspan (S African)

12 to position (oneself, etc.) for rest or relaxation

13 to place for support or steadying: he slumped forward to rest his head on his forearms

◇ SYNONYMS: place, repose, sit, lean, prop

14 to depend or rely: his presidency rested on the outcome of the crisis

15 to direct (one's eyes) or (of one's eyes) to be directed: she rested her gaze on the face of the statue

16 to be at ease

◇ SYNONYMS: relax, take it easy, sit down, be at ease, put your feet up, outspan (S African)

17 to cease or cause to cease from motion or exertion

◇ SYNONYMS: stop, have a break, break off, take a breather (informal), halt, cease

18 to remain without further attention or action: she refused to let the matter rest

19 (law) to finish the introduction of evidence in (a case)

20 to put (pastry) in a cool place to allow the gluten to contract rest² n

1 the rest

A something left; remainder

◇ SYNONYMS: remainder, remains, excess, remnants, others, balance, surplus, residue

B the others: the rest of the world

► vb

2 to continue to be (as specified): your conscience can rest easy restaurant n a place where meals are prepared and served to customers ◇ SYNONYMS: café, diner (chiefly US & Canad), bistro, cafeteria, tearoom, eatery or eaterie restaurateur (rest-er-a-tur) n a person who owns or runs a restaurant restful adj relaxing or soothing restitution n

- 1 the act of giving back something that has been lost or stolen
- 2 (law) compensation for loss or injury restive adj

- 1 restless or uneasy
- 2 impatient of control or authority restless adj

- 1 bored or dissatisfied
 - 2 unable to stay still or quiet
- ◇ SYNONYMS: unsettled, nervous, edgy, fidgeting, on edge, restive, jumpy, fidgety
- 3 not restful: a restless sleep
- > restlessly adv
> restlessness n

restoration n

- 1 the act of restoring to a former or original condition, place, etc.
- ◇ SYNONYMS: repair, reconstruction, renewal, renovation, revitalization
- 2 the giving back of something lost or stolen
 - 3 something restored, replaced, or reconstructed
 - 4 a model or representation of a ruin or extinct animal
 - 5 the Restoration (Brit) the re-establishment of the monarchy in 1660 or the reign of Charles II (1660–85)

restorative (rist-or-a-tiv) adj

- 1 giving back health or good spirits
- n

2 a food or medicine that gives back health or good spirits restore vb -storing, -stored

1 to return (something) to its original or former condition

◇ SYNONYMS: repair, refurbish, renovate, reconstruct, fix (up), renew, rebuild, mend

2 to bring back to health or good spirits

◇ SYNONYMS: revive, build up, strengthen, refresh, revitalize

3 to return (something lost or stolen) to its owner

◇ SYNONYMS: return, replace, recover, bring back, send back, hand back

4 to re-enforce or re-establish: he must restore confidence in himself and his government; they worked to restore the monarchy

◇ SYNONYMS: reinstate, re-establish, reintroduce

5 to reconstruct (a ruin, extinct animal, etc.)

◇ SYNONYMS: repair, refurbish, renovate, reconstruct, fix (up), renew, rebuild, mend

> restorer n

restrain vb

1 to hold (someone) back from some action

◇ SYNONYMS: hold back, control, check, contain, restrict, curb, hamper, hinder

2 to limit or restrict: restrain any tendency to impulse-buy

◇ SYNONYMS: control, inhibit

3 to deprive (someone) of liberty restrained adj not displaying emotion

◇ SYNONYMS: controlled, moderate, self-controlled, calm, mild, undemonstrative restraint n

1 something that restrains

◇ SYNONYMS: limitation, limit, check, ban, embargo, curb, rein, interdict, restraining order (US, law)

2 the ability to control one's impulses or passions

◇ SYNONYMS: self-control, self-discipline, self-restraint, self-possession

3 a restraining or being restrained

◇ SYNONYMS: constraint, limitation, inhibition, control, restriction restrict vb to confine or keep within certain limits

◇ SYNONYMS: limit, regulate, curb, ration > restrictive adj

restriction n a rule or situation that limits or controls something or someone:

operating under severe financial restrictions

◇ SYNONYMS: control, rule, regulation, curb, restraint, confinement restructure vb -turing, -tured to organize in a different way: to restructure the world economy

result n

1 the outcome or consequence of an action, policy, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: outcome, end

2 the final score of a sporting contest

3 a number or value obtained by solving a mathematical problem

4 a favourable result, esp. a victory or success: the best chance of a result is at Cheltenham

5 results the marks or grades obtained in an examination

► vb

6 result from to be the outcome or consequence of: poverty resulting from high unemployment

◇ SYNONYMS: arise, follow, issue, happen, appear, develop, spring, derive

7 result in to end in (a specified way): negotiations which resulted in the Treaty of Paris

resultant adj

1 arising as a result: the resultant publicity

► n

2 (maths, physics) a single vector that is the vector sum of two or more other vectors, such as a force which results from two other forces acting on a single point

resume vb -suming, -sumed

1 to begin again or go on with (something interrupted)

◇ SYNONYMS: begin again, continue, go on with, proceed with, carry on, reopen, restart

2 to occupy again or recover: he will resume his party post today

résumé (rezz-yew-may) n

1 a short descriptive summary

◇ SYNONYMS: summary, synopsis, précis, rundown, recapitulation

2 (US & Canad & Austral) a curriculum vitae resumption n the act of resuming or beginning again

◇ SYNONYMS: continuation, carrying on, reopening, renewal, restart, resurgence, re-establishment resurgence n a rising again to vigour: worldwide religious resurgence

◇ SYNONYMS: revival, return, renaissance, resurrection, resumption, rebirth, re-emergence > resurgent adj

resurrect vb

1 to bring or be brought back to life from death

◇ SYNONYMS: restore to life, raise from the dead

2 to bring back into use or activity

◇ SYNONYMS: revive, renew, bring back, reintroduce resurrection n

1 a return to life by a dead person

◇ SYNONYMS: raising or rising from the dead, return from the dead

2 revival or renewal

◇ SYNONYMS: revival, restoration, renewal, resurgence, return, renaissance, rebirth, reappearance

3 the Resurrection (Christian theol)

A the rising again of Christ from the tomb three days after his death

◇ SYNONYMS: raising or rising from the dead, return from the dead

B the rising again from the dead of all people at the Last Judgment

◇ SYNONYMS: raising or rising from the dead, return from the dead

resuscitate (ris-suss-it-tate) vb -tating, -tated to restore to consciousness > resuscitation n

retail n

1 the sale of goods individually or in small quantities to the public

► adj

2 of or engaged in such selling: auctioneers have been successful in cornering the retail market

► adv

3 in small amounts or at a retail price

► vb

4 to sell or be sold in small quantities to the public

5 to relate (gossip or scandal) in detail: he gleefully retailed the story > retailer n retain vb

1 to keep in one's possession

◇ SYNONYMS: keep, save

2 to be able to hold or contain: with this method the salmon retains its flavour and texture

3 (law) to engage the services of (a barrister) by payment of a preliminary fee

4 (of a person) to be able to remember (something) without difficulty

5 to hold in position retainer n

1 a fee paid in advance to engage someone's services

2 (Brit & Austral & NZ) a reduced rent paid for a room or flat to reserve it for future use

3 a servant who has been with a family for a long time retaliate vb -ating, -ated

1 to repay some injury or wrong in kind ◇ SYNONYMS: pay someone back, hit back, strike back, reciprocate, take revenge, get even with (informal), get your own back (informal)

2 to cast (accusations) back upon a person > retaliation n

> retaliatory adj

retard vb to delay or slow down (the progress or development) of (something) ◇ SYNONYMS: slow down, check, arrest, delay, handicap, hinder, impede, set back > retardant n, adj

> retardation n

retarded adj (old-fashioned, offensive) having learning difficulties retch vb

1 to undergo spasms of the stomach as if one is vomiting

► n

2 an involuntary spasm of the stomach retention n

1 the act of retaining or state of being retained

2 the capacity to remember

3 (pathol) the abnormal holding of something within the body, esp. fluid > retentive adj rethink vb -thinking, -thought

1 to think about (something) again with a view to changing one's tactics

► n

2 the act or an instance of thinking again reticent adj not willing to say or tell much > reticence n retina n, pl -nas or -nae the light-sensitive inner lining of the back of the eyeball > retinal adj

retinue n a band of attendants accompanying an important person retire vb -tiring, -tired

1 to give up or to cause (a person) to give up work, esp. on reaching pensionable age

◇ SYNONYMS: stop working, give up work

2 to go away into seclusion

◇ SYNONYMS: withdraw, leave, exit, go away, depart

3 to go to bed

◇ SYNONYMS: go to bed, turn in (informal), hit the sack (slang), hit the hay (slang)

4 to withdraw from a sporting contest, esp. because of injury

5 to pull back (troops) from battle or (of troops) to fall back > retired adj > retirement n

retiring adj very shy

◇ SYNONYMS: shy, reserved, quiet, timid, unassuming, self-effacing, bashful, unassertive retort¹ vb

1 to reply quickly, wittily, or angrily

◇ SYNONYMS: reply, return, answer, respond, counter, come back with, riposte

2 to use (an argument) against its originator

◇ SYNONYMS: reply, return, answer, respond, counter, come back with, riposte

► n

3 a sharp, angry, or witty reply

- ◇ SYNONYMS: reply, answer, response, comeback, riposte, rejoinder 4 an argument used against its originator retort² n

- 1 a glass vessel with a long tapering neck that is bent down, used for distillation 2 a vessel used for heating ores in the production of metals or heating coal to produce gas retouch vb to restore or improve (a painting or photograph) with new touches retrace vb -tracing, -traced

- 1 to go back over (one's steps or a route) 2 to go over (a story) from the beginning retract vb

- 1 to withdraw (a statement, charge, etc.) as invalid or unjustified 2 to go back on (a promise or agreement) 3 to draw in (a part or appendage): the rear wheels are retracted for tight spaces > retractable adj > retraction n

retread vb -treading, -treaded

- 1 to bond a new tread onto (a worn tyre)
► n
2 a remoulded tyre retreat vb

- 1 (military) to withdraw or retire in the face of or from action with an enemy ◇ SYNONYMS: withdraw, back off, draw back, leave, go back, depart, fall back, pull back 2 to retire or withdraw to seclusion or shelter

3 to alter one's opinion about something

► n

4 the act of retreating or withdrawing

◇ SYNONYMS: flight, retirement, departure, withdrawal, evacuation

5 (military)

A a withdrawal or retirement in the face of the enemy

◇ SYNONYMS: flight, retirement, departure, withdrawal, evacuation

B a bugle call signifying withdrawal or retirement

6 a place to which one may retire, esp. for religious contemplation

◇ SYNONYMS: refuge, haven, shelter, sanctuary, hideaway, seclusion

7 a period of seclusion, esp. for religious contemplation

8 the act of altering one's opinion about something retrench vb to reduce expenditure > retrenchment n

retrial n a second trial of a defendant in a court of law retribution n punishment or vengeance for evil deeds > retributive adj

retrieve vb -trieving, -trieved

1 to get or fetch back again

◇ SYNONYMS: get back, regain, recover, restore, recapture

2 to bring back to a more satisfactory state: his attempt to retrieve the situation

◇ SYNONYMS: redeem, save, win back, recoup

3 to rescue or save

◇ SYNONYMS: redeem, save, win back, recoup

4 to recover (stored information) from a computer system

5 (of dogs) to find and fetch (shot birds and animals)

6 to remember

► n

7 the chance of being retrieved: beyond retrieve > retrievable adj

> retrieval n

retriever n a dog trained to retrieve shot birds and animals retro adj associated with or revived from the past: swap sandals for heeled mules to complete the retro look retroactive adj effective from a date in the past: justice through retroactive legislation is never justice

retrograde adj

1 tending towards an earlier worse condition

2 moving or bending backwards

3 (esp. of order) reverse or inverse

► vb -grading, -graded

4 to go backwards or deteriorate retrorocket n a small rocket on a larger rocket or a spacecraft, that produces thrust in the opposite direction to the direction of flight in order to slow down retrospect n in retrospect when looking back on the past

◇ SYNONYMS: hindsight, review, re-examination retrospective adj

1 looking back in time

2 applying from a date in the past: retrospective legislation

► n

3 an exhibition of an artist's life's work retroussé (rit-troo-say) adj (of a nose) turned upwards retsina n a Greek wine flavoured with resin return vb

1 to come back to a former place or state

◇ SYNONYMS: come back, go back, retreat, turn back, revert, reappear

2 to give, put, or send back

◇ SYNONYMS: put back, replace, restore, reinstate

3 to repay with something of equivalent value: she returned the compliment

4 to hit, throw, or play (a ball) back

◇ SYNONYMS: come back, go back, retreat, turn back, revert, reappear

5 to recur or reappear: as he relaxed his appetite returned

◇ SYNONYMS: recur, repeat, persist, revert, happen again, reappear, come again

6 to come back or revert in thought or speech: let's return to what he said

◇ SYNONYMS: come back, go back, retreat, turn back, revert, reappear

7 to earn or yield (profit or interest)

8 to answer or reply

9 to vote into office

◇ SYNONYMS: elect, choose, vote in 10 (law) (of a jury) to deliver (a verdict)

► n

11 the act or an instance of coming back

◇ SYNONYMS: reappearance

12 the act of being returned

◇ SYNONYMS: restoration, reinstatement, re-establishment

13 replacement or restoration: the return of law and order

◇ SYNONYMS: restoration, reinstatement, re-establishment

14 something that is given or sent back

15 (sport) the act of playing or throwing a ball back

16 a recurrence or reappearance: the return of tuberculosis

◇ SYNONYMS: recurrence, repetition, reappearance, reversion, persistence

17 the yield or profit from an investment or venture

◇ SYNONYMS: profit, interest, gain, income, revenue, yield, proceeds, takings

18 a statement of one's taxable income (a tax return)

◇ SYNONYMS: statement, report, form, list, account, summary

19 an answer or reply

20 (Brit & Austral & NZ) short for return ticket

21 in return in exchange

22 returns statement of the votes counted at an election

23 by return (of post) (Brit) by the next post back to the sender

24 many happy returns (of the day) a conventional birthday greeting

► adj

25 of or being a return: the team is keen on a return match

> returnable adj

returning officer n an official in charge of conducting an election in a constituency return ticket n a ticket allowing a passenger to travel to a place and back reunion n

1 a gathering of people who have been apart

2 the act of coming together again reunite vb -niting, -nited to bring or come together again after a separation reuse n

1 the act of using something again

► vb -using, -used

2 to use again > reusable adj

rev (informal) n

1 revolution per minute (of an engine)

► vb revving, revved

2 to increase the speed of revolution of (an engine)

Rev. Reverend

revalue vb -valuing, -valued to adjust the exchange value of (a currency) upwards > revaluation n

revamp vb to patch up or renovate ◇ SYNONYMS: renovate, restore, overhaul, refurbish, do up (informal), recondition

Revd. Reverend

reveal vb

1 to disclose or divulge (a secret)

◇ SYNONYMS: make known, disclose, give away, make public, tell, announce, proclaim, let out

2 to expose to view or show (something concealed)

◇ SYNONYMS: show, display, exhibit, unveil, uncover, manifest, unearth, unmask

3 (of God) to disclose (divine truths) reveille (riv-val-ee) n a signal given by a bugle or drum to awaken soldiers or sailors in the morning revel vb -velling, -velled (US) -veling, -veled

1 revel in to take pleasure or wallow in: he would revel in his victory

2 to take part in noisy festivities

◇ SYNONYMS: celebrate, carouse, live it up (informal), make merry

► n

3 revels noisy merrymaking

◇ SYNONYMS: merrymaking, party, celebration, spree (old-fashioned), festivity, carousal > reveller n revelation n

- 1 the act of making known a truth which was previously secret ◇ SYNONYMS: exhibition, publication, exposure, unveiling, uncovering, unearthing, proclamation 2 a fact newly made known 3 a person or experience that proves to be different from expectations: New York State could prove a revelation to first-time visitors
4 (Christianity) God's disclosure of his own nature and his purpose for mankind revelry n, pl -ries noisy or unrestrained merrymaking revenge n

- 1 vengeance for wrongs or injury received ◇ SYNONYMS: retaliation, vengeance, reprisal, retribution, an eye for an eye 2 something done as a means of vengeance ► vb -venying, -venged
3 to inflict equivalent injury or damage for (injury received) ◇ SYNONYMS: avenge, repay, take revenge for, get your own back for (informal) 4 to take vengeance for (oneself or another) > revengeful adj

revenue n

- 1 income, esp. that obtained by a government from taxation ◇ SYNONYMS: income, returns, profits, gain, yield, proceeds, receipts, takings 2 a government department responsible for collecting taxes reverberate vb -rating, -rated

- 1 to resound or re-echo 2 to reflect or be reflected many times > reverberation n

revere vb -vering, -vered to be in awe of and respect deeply

- ◇ SYNONYMS: be in awe of, respect, honour, worship, reverence, exalt, look up to, venerate reverence n profound respect > reverential adj

Reverend adj a title of respect for a member of the clergy reverent adj feeling or expressing reverence reverie n an absent-minded daydream revers (riv-veer) n, pl -vers the turned-back lining of part of a garment, such as the lapel or cuff reverse vb -versing, -versed

1 to turn or set in an opposite direction, order, or position

◇ SYNONYMS: turn round, turn over, turn upside down, upend

2 to change into something different or contrary: the cabinet intends to reverse the trend of recent polls

◇ SYNONYMS: transpose, change, move, exchange, transfer, switch, shift, alter

3 to move backwards or in an opposite direction: as he started to reverse the car, the bomb exploded

◇ SYNONYMS: go backwards, retreat, back up, turn back, move backwards, back

4 to run (machinery) in the opposite direction to normal

5 to turn inside out

6 (law) to revoke or set aside (a judgment or decree)

◇ SYNONYMS: change, cancel, overturn, overthrow, undo, repeal, quash, revoke

7 reverse the charges (Brit) to make a telephone call at the recipient's expense

► n

8 the opposite or contrary of something

◇ SYNONYMS: opposite, contrary, converse, inverse

9 the back or rear side of something

◇ SYNONYMS: back, rear, other side, wrong side, underside

10 a change to an opposite position, state, or direction

11 a change for the worse

◇ SYNONYMS: misfortune, blow, failure, disappointment, setback, hardship, reversal, adversity

12 the gear by which a motor vehicle can be made to go backwards

13 the side of a coin bearing a secondary design

◇ SYNONYMS: back, rear, other side, wrong side, underside

14 in reverse in an opposite or backward direction

15 the reverse of not at all: the result was the reverse of his expectations

► adj

16 opposite or contrary in direction, position, etc.

17 denoting the gear by which a motor vehicle can be made to go backwards > reversal n

reversible adj

1 capable of being reversed: the effect of the operation may not be reversible

2 (of a garment) made so that either side may be used as the outer side reversion n

1 a return to an earlier condition, practice, or belief

2 (biol) the return of individuals or organs to a more primitive condition or type

3 the rightful passing of property to the owner or designated heir revert vb

1 to go back to a former state

◇ SYNONYMS: go back, return, come back, resume

2 (biol) (of individuals or organs) to return to a more primitive, earlier, or simpler condition or type

3 to come back to a subject

4 (property law) (of an estate) to return to its former owner

◇ SYNONYMS: return

review n

1 a critical assessment of a book, film, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: critique, commentary, evaluation, notice, criticism, judgment

2 a publication containing such articles

◇ SYNONYMS: magazine, journal, periodical, zine (informal)

3 a general survey or report: the new curriculum is to be set up a year after the conclusions of the review are due

◇ SYNONYMS: survey, study, analysis, examination, scrutiny

4 a formal or official inspection

◇ SYNONYMS: inspection, parade, march past

5 the act or an instance of reviewing 6 a second consideration; re-examination

7 a retrospective survey

8 (law) a re-examination of a case

► vb

9 to hold or write a review of ◇ SYNONYMS: assess, study, judge, evaluate, criticize

10 to examine again: the committee will review the ban in the summer

◇ SYNONYMS: reconsider, revise, rethink, reassess, re-examine, re-evaluate, think over

11 to look back upon (a period of time or sequence of events): he reviewed his achievements with pride

◇ SYNONYMS: look back on, remember, recall, reflect on, recollect

12 to inspect formally or officially: when he reviewed the troops they cheered him

◇ SYNONYMS: inspect, check, survey, examine, vet

13 (law) to re-examine (a decision) judicially reviewer n a person who writes reviews of books, films, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: critic, judge, commentator revile vb -viling, -viled to be abusively scornful of: his works were reviled and admired in equal measure

revise vb -vising, -vised

1 to change or alter: he grudgingly revised his opinion

◇ SYNONYMS: change, review

2 to prepare a new edition of (a previously printed work)

◇ SYNONYMS: edit, correct, alter, update, amend, rework, redo, emend

3 to read (something) several times in order to learn it in preparation for an examination

◇ SYNONYMS: study, go over, run through, cram (informal), swot up on (Brit informal) revision n

1 the act or process of revising

◇ SYNONYMS: studying, cramming (informal), swotting (Brit informal), homework

2 a corrected or new version of a book, article, etc.

revival n

1 a reviving or being revived

◇ SYNONYMS: reawakening, renaissance, renewal, resurrection, rebirth, revitalization

2 a reawakening of religious faith

3 a new production of a play that has not been recently performed

4 a renewed use or interest in: there has been an Art Deco revival

◇ SYNONYMS: reawakening, renaissance, renewal, resurrection, rebirth, revitalization

revivalism n a movement that seeks to revive religious faith > revivalist n, adj revive vb -viving, -vived

1 to make or become lively or active again

◇ SYNONYMS: refresh

2 to bring or be brought back to life, consciousness, or strength: revived by a drop of whisky

◇ SYNONYMS: come round, recover

3 (theatre) to put on a new production of (an old play) revoke vb -voking, -voked

1 to take back or cancel (an agreement, will, etc.)

2 (cards) to break a rule by failing to follow suit when able to do so

► n

3 (cards) the act of revoking > revocation n

revolt n

1 a rebellion or uprising against authority

◇ SYNONYMS: uprising, rising, revolution, rebellion, mutiny, insurrection, insurgency

2 in revolt in the state of rebelling

► vb

3 to rise up in rebellion against authority

◇ SYNONYMS: rebel, rise up, resist, mutiny

4 to cause to feel disgust

◇ SYNONYMS: disgust, sicken, repel, repulse, nauseate, gross out (slang), turn your stomach, make your flesh creep revolting adj horrible and disgusting

◇ SYNONYMS: disgusting, foul, horrible, sickening, horrid (informal), repellent, repulsive, nauseating, yucko (Austral slang)

revolution n

1 the overthrow of a regime or political system by the governed

◇ SYNONYMS: revolt, rising, coup, rebellion, uprising, mutiny, insurgency

2 (in Marxist theory) the transition from one system of production in a society to the next

3 a far-reaching and drastic change

◇ SYNONYMS: transformation, shift, innovation, upheaval, reformation, sea change

4

A movement in or as if in a circle

◇ SYNONYMS: rotation, turn, cycle, circle, spin, lap, circuit, orbit

B one complete turn in a circle: 33 revolutions per minute

◇ SYNONYMS: rotation, turn, cycle, circle, spin, lap, circuit, orbit

revolutionary adj

1 of or like a revolution

◇ SYNONYMS: rebel, radical, extremist, subversive, insurgent

2 advocating or engaged in revolution

◇ SYNONYMS: rebel, radical, extremist, subversive, insurgent

3 radically new or different: they have designed revolutionary new materials to build power stations

◇ SYNONYMS: innovative, new, different, novel, radical, progressive, drastic, ground-breaking

► n, pl -aries

4 a person who advocates or engages in revolution

◇ SYNONYMS: rebel, insurgent, revolutionist revolutionize or -nise vb -nizing, -nized or -nising, -nised to bring about a radical change in revolve vb -volving, -volved

1 to move or cause to move around a centre

◇ SYNONYMS: rotate, turn, wheel, spin, twist, whirl

2 revolve around to be centred or focused upon: the campaign revolves around one man

3 to occur periodically or in cycles

4 to consider or be considered > revolvable adj

revolver n a pistol with a revolving cylinder that allows several shots to be fired without reloading revue n a theatrical entertainment with topical sketches and songs revulsion n a violent feeling of disgust reward n

1 something given in return for a service

2 a sum of money offered for finding a criminal or missing property

◇ SYNONYMS: payment, return, prize, wages, compensation, bonus, premium, repayment

3 something received in return for good or evil: sacrifice provided its own reward

◇ SYNONYMS: punishment, retribution, comeuppance (slang), just deserts

► vb

4 to give something to (someone) for a service rendered ◇ SYNONYMS: compensate, pay, repay, recompense, remunerate (formal) rewarding adj giving personal satisfaction: my most professionally rewarding experience

◇ SYNONYMS: satisfying, fulfilling, valuable, profitable, productive, worthwhile, beneficial, enriching rewind vb -winding, -wound to run (a tape or film) back to an earlier point in order to replay rewire vb -wiring, -wired to provide (a house, engine, etc.) with new wiring rewrite vb -writing, -wrote, -written

1 to write again in a different way

► n

2 something rewritten rhapsodize or -dise vb -dizing, -dized or -dising, -dised to speak or write with extravagant enthusiasm rhapsody n, pl -dies

1 (music) a freely structured and emotional piece of music

2 an expression of ecstatic enthusiasm > rhapsodic adj

rhea (ree-a) n a large fast-running flightless bird of South America, similar to the ostrich rhodium (ree-nee-um) n (chem) a silvery-white metallic element with a high melting point. SYMBOL: Re rheostat n a variable resistor in an electrical circuit, such as one used to dim lights > rheostatic adj rhesus factor (ree-suss) n See Rh factor rhesus monkey n a small long-tailed monkey of S Asia rhetoric (ret-a-rik) n

1 the art of using speech or writing to persuade or influence

◇ SYNONYMS: oratory, eloquence, public speaking, speech-making, elocution, declamation, grandiloquence, whaikorero (NZ)

2 artificial or exaggerated language: there's been no shortage of soaring rhetoric at this summit

◇ SYNONYMS: hyperbole, bombast, wordiness, verbosity, grandiloquence, magniloquence > rhetorical (rit-tor-ik-kl) adj

rheumatic adj

1 caused by or affected by rheumatism

► n

2 a person with rheumatism > rheumatically adv

rheumatism n any painful disorder of joints, muscles, or connective tissue rheumatoid adj (of symptoms) resembling rheumatism

Rh factor n an antigen commonly found in human blood: the terms Rh positive and Rh negative are used to indicate its presence or absence rhinestone n an imitation diamond made of glass rhino n, pl -nos or -no a rhinoceros rhinoceros n, pl -roses or -ros a large plant-eating mammal of SE Asia and Africa with one or two horns on the nose and a very thick skin rhizome n a thick horizontal underground stem whose buds develop into new plants rhodium n (chem) a hard silvery-white metallic element, used to harden platinum and palladium. SYMBOL: Rh

rhododendron n an evergreen shrub with clusters of showy flowers rhomboid n

1 a parallelogram with adjacent sides of unequal length. It resembles a rectangle but does not have 90° angles

► adj also rhomboidal

2 having such a shape rhombus (rom-buss) n, pl -buses or -bi (-bye) a parallelogram with sides of equal length but no right angles > rhombic adj

rhubarb n

1 a large-leaved plant with long green and red stalks which can be cooked and eaten

2 a related plant of central Asia, whose root can be dried and used as a laxative or astringent

► interj, n

3 the noise made by actors to simulate conversation, esp. by repeating the word rhubarb rhyme n

1 sameness of the final sounds in lines of verse or in words

2 a word that is identical to another in its final sound: 'while' is a rhyme for 'mile'

3 a piece of poetry with corresponding sounds at the ends of the lines

◇ SYNONYMS: poem, song, verse, ode

4 rhyme or reason sense or meaning

► vb rhyming, rhymed

5 (of a word) to form a rhyme with another word

6 to compose (verse) in a metrical structure rhythm n

1 any regular movement or beat: the side-effects can cause changes in the rhythm of the heart beat

◇ SYNONYMS: beat, swing, accent, pulse, tempo, cadence, lilt

2 any regular pattern that occurs over a period of time: the seasonal rhythm of the agricultural year

3

A the arrangement of the durations of and stress on the notes of a piece of music, usually laid out in regular groups (bars) of beats

◇ SYNONYMS: beat, swing, accent, pulse, tempo, cadence, lilt

B any specific arrangement of such groupings: waltz rhythm

4 (in poetry) the arrangement of words to form a regular pattern of stresses

◇ SYNONYMS: metre, time > rhythmic or rhythmical adj

> rhythmically adv

rhythm and blues n a kind of popular music derived from and influenced by the blues rib¹ n

1 one of the curved bones forming the framework of the upper part of the body and attached to the spinal column

2 a cut of meat including one or more ribs

3 a curved supporting part, such as in the hull of a boat

4 one of a series of raised rows in knitted fabric

► vb ribbing, ribbed

5 to provide or support with ribs

6 to knit to form a rib pattern > ribbed adj

rib² vb ribbing, ribbed (informal) to tease or ridicule

> ribbing n

ribald adj coarse or obscene in a humorous or mocking way > ribaldry n

riband or ribband n a ribbon awarded for some achievement

ribbing n

- 1 a pattern of ribs in knitted material
- 2 a framework or structure of ribs ribbon n

- 1 a narrow strip of fine material used for trimming, tying, etc.
- 2 a long narrow strip of inked cloth or plastic used to produce print in a typewriter
- 3 a small strip of coloured cloth worn as a badge or as a symbol of an award
- 4 a long thin strip: a ribbon of white water
- 5 ribbons ragged strips or shreds: his clothes were torn to ribbons; his credibility was shot to ribbons

ribcage n the bony structure formed by the ribs that encloses the lungs riboflavin (rye-boe-flay-vin) n a vitamin of the B complex that occurs in green vegetables, milk, fish, eggs, liver, and kidney: used as a yellow or orange food colouring (E101). Also called: vitamin B₂

rice n

- 1 the edible grain of an erect grass that grows on wet ground in warm climates
- vb ricing, riced
- 2 (US & Canad) to sieve (potatoes or other vegetables) to a coarse mashed consistency rich adj

- 1 owning a lot of money or property ◇ SYNONYMS: wealthy, affluent, well-off, loaded (slang), prosperous, well-heeled (informal), well-to-do, moneyed, minted (Brit slang)
- 2 well supplied (with a desirable substance or quality): a country rich with cultural interest ◇ SYNONYMS: well-stocked, full, productive, ample, abundant, plentiful, copious, well-supplied
- 3 having an abundance of natural resources, minerals, etc.: a land rich in unexploited minerals

4 producing abundantly: the island is a blend of hilly moorland and rich farmland

◇ SYNONYMS: fruitful, productive, fertile, prolific

5 luxuriant or prolific: the meadows rich with corn

◇ SYNONYMS: abounding, luxurious, lush, abundant

6 (of food) containing much fat or sugar

◇ SYNONYMS: full-bodied, sweet, fatty, tasty, creamy, luscious, succulent

7 having a full-bodied flavour: a gloriously rich Cabernet-dominated wine

◇ SYNONYMS: full-bodied, sweet, fatty, tasty, creamy, luscious, succulent

8 (of colour) intense or vivid: her hair had a rich auburn tint

9 (of sound or a voice) full or resonant

10 very amusing or ridiculous: a rich joke

11 (of a fuel-air mixture) containing a relatively high proportion of fuel > richness n

riches pl n valuable possessions or desirable substances: the unexpected riches of Georgian culture

◇ SYNONYMS: wealth, assets, plenty, fortune, substance, treasure, affluence, top whack (informal)

richly adv

1 in a rich or elaborate manner: the rooms are richly decorated with a variety of classical motifs

◇ SYNONYMS: elaborately, lavishly, elegantly, splendidly, exquisitely, expensively, luxuriously, gorgeously

2 fully and appropriately: he left the field to a richly deserved standing ovation

◇ SYNONYMS: fully, well, thoroughly, amply, appropriately, properly, suitably

Richter scale n a scale for expressing the intensity of an earthquake, ranging from 0 to over 8 rick¹ n a large stack of hay or straw rick² vb

1 to wrench or sprain (a joint)

► n

2 a wrench or sprain of a joint rickets n a disease of children, caused by a deficiency of vitamin D and characterized by softening of developing bone, and hence bow legs

rickety adj

1 likely to collapse or break: a rickety wooden table

2 resembling or having rickets > ricktiness n

rickshaw or ricksha n

1 a small two-wheeled passenger vehicle pulled by one or two people, used in parts of Asia

2 a similar vehicle with three wheels, propelled by a person pedalling ricochet (rik-osh-ay) vb -cheting, -cheted or -chetting, -chatted

1 (of a bullet) to rebound from a surface

► n

2 the motion or sound of a rebounding bullet rid vb ridding, rid or ridded

1 rid of to relieve (oneself) or make a place free of (something undesirable)

◇ SYNONYMS: free, clear, deliver, relieve, purge, unburden, make free, disencumber

2 get rid of to relieve or free oneself of (something undesirable)

◇ SYNONYMS get rid of something or someone: dispose of, throw away or out, dump, remove, eliminate, expel, eject ridden vb

1 the past participle of ride

► adj

2 afflicted or affected by the thing specified: the police found three bullet-ridden bodies

riddle¹ n

1 a question, puzzle, or verse phrased so that ingenuity is required to find the answer or meaning

◇ SYNONYMS: puzzle, problem, conundrum, poser

2 a puzzling person or thing

◇ SYNONYMS: enigma, question, secret, mystery, puzzle, conundrum, teaser, problem

► vb -dling, -dled

3 to speak in riddles riddle² vb -dling, -dled

1 to pierce with many holes

◇ SYNONYMS: pierce, pepper, puncture, perforate, honeycomb

2 to put through a sieve

► n

3 a coarse sieve ride vb riding, rode, ridden

1 to sit on and control the movements of (a horse or other animal)

◇ SYNONYMS: control, handle, manage

2 to sit on and propel (a bicycle or motorcycle)

3 to travel on or in a vehicle: he rides around in a chauffeur-driven Rolls-Royce

◇ SYNONYMS: travel, be carried, go, move

4 to travel over: they rode the countryside in search of shelter

5 to travel through or be carried across (sea, sky, etc.): the moon was riding high

6 (US & Canad) to cause to be carried: to ride someone out of town

7 (of a vessel) to lie at anchor

8 to tyrannize over or dominate: she was ridden by fear

9 be riding on to be dependent on (something) for success: a lot is riding on the profits of the film

10 (informal) to continue undisturbed: let it ride

11 riding high popular and successful

► n

12 a journey on a bicycle, on horseback, or in a vehicle

◇ SYNONYMS: journey, drive, trip, lift, outing, jaunt

13 transport in a vehicle: most of us have been told not to accept rides from strangers

◇ SYNONYMS: journey, drive, trip, lift, outing, jaunt

14 the type of movement experienced in a vehicle: a bumpy ride

15 a path for riding on horseback

16 take for a ride (informal) to cheat or deceive rider n

1 a person who rides

2 an extra clause or condition added to a document ride up vb (of a garment) to move up from the proper position ridge n

1 a long narrow raised land formation with sloping sides

2 a long narrow raised strip on a flat surface

3 the top of a roof where the two sloping sides meet

4 (meteorol) an elongated area of high pressure > ridged adj

> ridgy adj

ridicule n

1 language or behaviour intended to humiliate or mock ◇ SYNONYMS: mockery, scorn, derision, laughter, jeer, chaff, gibe, raillery

► vb -culing, -culed

2 to make fun of or mock

◇ SYNONYMS: laugh at, mock, make fun of, sneer at, jeer at, deride, poke fun at, chaff ridiculous adj worthy of or causing ridicule ◇ SYNONYMS: laughable, stupid, silly, absurd, ludicrous, farcical, comical, risible (formal) riding¹ n the art or practice of horsemanship riding² n

1 Riding any of the three former administrative divisions of Yorkshire: North Riding, East Riding, and West Riding

2 (Canad) an electoral constituency riesling n a medium-dry white wine rife adj

1 widespread or common

◇ SYNONYMS: widespread, rampant, general, common, universal, frequent, prevalent, ubiquitous

2 rife with full of: the media is rife with speculation riff n (jazz, rock) a short series of chords riffle vb -fling, -fled

1 to flick through (papers or pages) quickly: I riffled through the rest of the memos

► n

2 (US & Canad)

A a rapid in a stream

B a rocky shoal causing a rapid

C a ripple on water

3 a riffing riffraff n worthless or disreputable people rifle¹ n

1 a firearm having a long barrel with a spirally grooved interior, which gives the bullet a spinning motion and thus greater accuracy over a longer range

2 Rifles a unit of soldiers equipped with rifles: the Burma Rifles

► vb -fling, -fled

3 to cut spiral grooves inside the barrel of (a gun) > rifled adj

rifle² vb -fling, -fled

1 to search (a house or safe) and steal from it

2 to steal and carry off: he rifled whatever valuables he could lay his hands on

◇ SYNONYMS: ransack, rob, burgle, loot, strip, sack, plunder, pillage rift n

1 a break in friendly relations between people or groups of people

◇ SYNONYMS: breach, division, split, separation, falling out (informal), disagreement, quarrel

2 a gap or space made by splitting

◇ SYNONYMS: split, opening, crack, gap, break, fault, flaw, cleft rift valley n a long narrow valley resulting from the subsidence of land between two faults rig vb rigging, rigged

1 to arrange in a dishonest way, for profit or advantage: he claimed that the poll was rigged

◇ SYNONYMS: fix (informal), engineer (informal), arrange, manipulate, tamper with, gerrymander

2 to set up or prepare (something) hastily ready for use

3 (naut) to equip (a vessel or mast) with (sails or rigging)

◇ SYNONYMS: equip, fit out, kit out, outfit, supply, furnish

► n

4 an apparatus for drilling for oil and gas

5 (naut) the arrangement of the sails and masts of a vessel

6 apparatus or equipment

7 (informal) an outfit of clothes

8 (US & Canad & Austral) an articulated lorry

► See also rig up rigging n the ropes and cables supporting a ship's masts and sails right adj

1 morally or legally acceptable or correct: his conduct seemed reasonable, even right

◇ SYNONYMS: just, good, fair, moral, proper, ethical, honest, equitable

2 correct or true: the customer is always right

◇ SYNONYMS: correct, true, genuine, accurate, exact, precise, valid, factual, dinkum (Austral & NZ informal)

3 appropriate, suitable, or proper: there were problems involved in finding the right candidate

◇ SYNONYMS: proper, done, becoming, seemingly, fitting, fit, appropriate, suitable

4 most favourable or convenient: she waited until the right moment to broach the subject

5 in a satisfactory condition: things are right again now

6 accurate: is that clock right?

7 correct in opinion or judgment

◇ SYNONYMS: correct, true, genuine, accurate, exact, precise, valid, factual, dinkum (Austral & NZ informal)

8 sound in mind or body

9 of or on the side of something or someone that faces east when the front is turned towards the north

10 conservative or reactionary: it was alleged he was an agent of the right wing

11 (geom) formed by or containing a line or plane perpendicular to another line or plane: a right angle

12 of or on the side of cloth worn or facing outwards

13 in one's right mind sane

14 she'll be right (Austral & NZ informal) that's all right; not to worry

15 the right side of

A in favour with: you'd better stay on the right side of him

B younger than: he's still on the right side of fifty 16 too right (informal) an exclamation of agreement

► adv

17 correctly: if we change the structure of local government we must do it right

◇ SYNONYMS: correctly, truly, precisely, exactly, genuinely, accurately 18 in the appropriate manner: do it right next time!

◇ SYNONYMS: suitably, fittingly, appropriately, properly, aptly

19 straight or directly: let's go right to bed

◇ SYNONYMS: straight, directly, quickly, promptly, straight away

20 in the direction of the east from the point of view of a person or thing facing north

21 all the way: he drove right up to the gate

22 without delay: I'll be right over

◇ SYNONYMS: straight, directly, quickly, promptly, straight away

23 exactly or precisely: right here

◇ SYNONYMS: exactly, squarely, precisely

24 fittingly: it serves him right

25 to good or favourable advantage: it all came out right in the end

► n

26 a freedom or power that is morally or legally due to a person: the defendant had an absolute right to a fair trial

◇ SYNONYMS: prerogative, business, power, claim, authority, due, freedom, licence

27 anything that accords with the principles of legal or moral justice

◇ SYNONYMS: justice, truth, fairness, legality, righteousness, lawfulness

28 in the right the state of being in accordance with reason or truth

29 the right side, direction, or part: the right of the army

30 the Right the supporters or advocates of conservatism or reaction: the rise of the far Right

31 (boxing) a punch with the right hand

32 rights (finance) the privilege of a company's shareholders to subscribe for new issues of the company's shares on advantageous terms

33 by right or rights properly: by rights he should have won

34 in one's own right having a claim or title oneself rather than through marriage or other connection

35 to rights consistent with justice or orderly arrangement: he put the matter to rights

► vb

36 to bring or come back to a normal or correct state

37 to bring or come back to a vertical position: he slipped and righted himself at once

38 to compensate for or redress: there is a wrong to be righted

◇ SYNONYMS: rectify, settle, fix, correct, sort out, straighten, redress, put right

39 to make (something) accord with truth or facts

► interj

40 an expression of agreement or compliance right angle n

1 an angle of 90° or $\pi/2$ radians

2 at right angles perpendicular or perpendicularly > right-angled adj

right away adv without delay

◇ SYNONYMS: immediately, now, directly, instantly, at once, straight away, forthwith, pronto (informal) righteous (rye-chuss) adj

1 moral, just, or virtuous: the lieutenant was a righteous cop

◇ SYNONYMS: virtuous, good, just, fair, moral, pure, ethical, upright

2 morally justifiable or right: her eyes were blazing with righteous indignation > righteousness n

rightful adj

1 in accordance with what is right

2 having a legally or morally just claim: he is the rightful heir to her fortune

3 held by virtue of a legal or just claim: these moves will restore them to their rightful homes > rightfully adv

> rightfulness n

right-handed adj

1 more adept with the right hand than with the left

2 made for or by the right hand

3 turning from left to right rightist adj

1 of the political right or its principles

► n

2 a supporter of the political right > rightism n

rightly adv

1 in accordance with the true facts or justice

2 with good reason: he was rightly praised for his constancy right of way n, pl rights of way

1 the right of one vehicle or ship to go before another

2

A the legal right of someone to pass over someone else's land

B the path used by this right right-wing adj

1 conservative or reactionary: there's a very fast-growing right-wing feeling in our country

2 belonging to the more conservative part of a political party: a group of right-wing Labour MPs

► n right wing

3 the more conservative or reactionary section, esp. of a political party: the right wing of the Conservative Party

4 (sport)

A the right-hand side of the field of play

B a player positioned in this area in certain games > right-winger n

rigid adj

1 inflexible or strict: the talks will be general, without a rigid agenda

◇ SYNONYMS: inflexible, uncompromising, unbending

2 physically unyielding or stiff: use only rigid plastic containers

◇ SYNONYMS: stiff, inflexible, inelastic > rigidity n > rigidly adv

rigmarole n

1 a long complicated procedure

2 a set of incoherent or pointless statements rigor mortis n the stiffness of joints and muscles of a dead body rigorous adj

1 harsh, strict, or severe: rigorous enforcement of the libel laws

◇ SYNONYMS: strict, hard, demanding, tough, severe, exacting, harsh, stern

2 severely accurate: rigorous scientific testing

rigour or (US) rigor n

1 a severe or cruel circumstance: the rigours of forced labour

2 strictness in judgment or conduct

3 harsh but just treatment rig up vb to set up or build temporarily: they rigged up a loudspeaker system

◇ SYNONYMS rig something up: set up, build, construct, put up, arrange, assemble, put together, erect rile vb riling, riled

1 to annoy or anger

2 (US & Canad) to stir up (a liquid) rill n a small stream rim n

1 the raised edge of an object

◇ SYNONYMS: edge, lip, brim

2 the outer part of a wheel to which the tyre is attached > rimless adj

rime (literary) n

1 frost formed by the freezing of water droplets in fog onto solid objects

► vb riming, rimed

2 to cover with rime or something resembling it > rimy adj

rind n a hard outer layer on fruits, bacon, or cheese ring¹ vb ringing, rang, rung

1 to give out a clear resonant sound, like that of a bell

◇ SYNONYMS: chime, sound, toll, reverberate, clang, peal

2 to cause (a bell) to give out a ringing sound or (of a bell) to give out such a sound

◇ SYNONYMS: chime, sound, toll, reverberate, clang, peal

3 (chiefly Brit & NZ) to call (a person) by telephone ◇ SYNONYMS: phone, call, telephone, buzz (informal, chiefly Brit)

4 ring for to call by means of a bell: ring for the maid

5 (of a building or place) to be filled with sound: the church rang with singing

◇ SYNONYMS: reverberate

6 (of the ears) to have the sensation of humming or ringing

7 (slang) to change the identity of (a stolen vehicle) by using the licence plate or serial number of another, usually disused, vehicle

8 ring a bell to bring something to the mind or memory: the name doesn't ring a bell

9 ring down the curtain

A to lower the curtain at the end of a theatrical performance

B ring down the curtain on to put an end to 10 ring true or false to give the impression of being true or false

► n

11 the act of or a sound made by ringing

◇ SYNONYMS: chime, knell, peal

12 a sound produced by or sounding like a bell

◇ SYNONYMS: chime, knell, peal

13 (informal, chiefly Brit & NZ) a telephone call

◇ SYNONYMS: call, phone call, buzz (informal, chiefly Brit)

14 an inherent quality: it has the ring of possibility to it

► See also ring off etc ring² n

1 a circular band of a precious metal worn on the finger

2 any object or mark that is circular in shape

◇ SYNONYMS: circle, round, band, circuit, loop, hoop, halo

3 a group of people or things standing or arranged in a circle: a ring of standing stones

◇ SYNONYMS: circle, round, band, circuit, loop, hoop, halo

4 a circular path or course: crowds of people walking round in a ring

5 a circular enclosure where circus acts perform or livestock is sold at a market

◇ SYNONYMS: arena, enclosure, circus, rink

6 a square raised platform, marked off by ropes, in which contestants box or wrestle

◇ SYNONYMS: arena, enclosure, circus, rink

7 a group of people, usually illegal, who control a specified market: a drugs ring

◇ SYNONYMS: gang, group, association, band, circle, mob, syndicate, cartel

8 (chem) a closed loop of atoms in a molecule

9 one of the systems of circular bands orbiting the planets Saturn, Uranus, and Jupiter

10 the ring the sport of boxing

11 throw one's hat in the ring to announce one's intention to be a candidate or contestant

12 run rings around (informal) to outclass completely

► vb ringing, ringed

13 to put a ring round

◇ SYNONYMS: encircle, surround, enclose, girdle, gird

14 to mark (a bird) with a ring or clip for subsequent identification

15 to kill (a tree) by cutting the bark round the trunk

16 to fit a ring in the nose of (a bull, etc.) so that it can be led easily > ringed adj

ringer n (informal)

- 1 Also called: dead ringer a person or thing that is almost identical to another
- 2 a person or thing that is presented under a false identity ringleader n a person who leads others in illegal or mischievous actions ringlet n a lock of hair hanging down in a spiral curl > ringleted adj ring off vb (chiefly Brit & NZ) to end a telephone conversation by replacing the receiver ring road n (chiefly Brit) a main road that bypasses a town or town centre ringside n

- 1 the row of seats nearest a boxing or wrestling ring
- adj
- 2 providing a close uninterrupted view: a ringside seat for the election

ringtail n (Austral) a possum with a curling tail used to grip branches while climbing ringtone n a tune or sound played by a mobile phone when it receives a call ring up vb

- 1 (chiefly Brit) to make a telephone call to
- 2 to record on a cash register
- 3 ring up the curtain

A to begin a theatrical performance

B ring up the curtain on to make a start on ringworm n a fungal infection of the skin producing itchy patches rink n

1 a sheet of ice for skating on, usually indoors

2 an area for roller-skating on 3 a building for ice-skating or roller-skating

4

A a strip of grass or ice on which a game of bowls or curling is played

B the players on one side in a game of bowls or curling rinkhals (rink-hals) n, pl -hals or -halses a highly venomous snake of Southern Africa capable of spitting its venom accurately at its victim's eyes

rinse vb rinsing, rinsed

1 to remove soap or shampoo from (clothes, dishes, or hair) by washing it out with clean water

◇ SYNONYMS: wash, clean, dip, splash, cleanse, bathe

2 to wash lightly, esp. without using soap

◇ SYNONYMS: wash, clean, dip, splash, cleanse, bathe

3 to cleanse (the mouth) by swirling water or mouthwash in it and then spitting the liquid out

4 to give a light tint to (hair)

► n

5 the act or an instance of rinsing

◇ SYNONYMS: wash, dip, splash, bath

6 (hairdressing) a liquid to tint hair: a blue rinse riot n

1 a disturbance made by an unruly mob

◇ SYNONYMS: disturbance, disorder, confusion, turmoil, upheaval, strife, turbulence, lawlessness

2 (Brit & Austral & NZ) an occasion of lively enjoyment

3 a dazzling display: the pansies provided the essential riot of colour

◇ SYNONYMS: display, show, splash, extravaganza, profusion

4 (slang) a very amusing person or thing

◇ SYNONYMS: laugh (informal), joke, scream (informal), hoot (informal), lark

5 read the riot act to reprimand severely

6 run riot

A to behave without restraint

◇ SYNONYMS run riot: rampage, go wild, be out of control

B (of plants) to grow profusely

◇ SYNONYMS run riot: grow profusely, spread like wildfire

► vb

7 to take part in a riot

◇ SYNONYMS: rampage, run riot, go on the rampage > rioter n

> rioting n

riotous adj

1 unrestrained and excessive: riotous decadence

2 unruly or rebellious

3 characterized by unrestrained merriment: riotous celebration rip vb ripping, ripped

1 to tear or be torn violently or roughly

◇ SYNONYMS: be torn, tear, split, burst

2 to remove hastily or roughly

◇ SYNONYMS: tear, cut, split, burst, rend (literary), slash, claw, slit

3 (informal) to move violently or hurriedly

4 let rip to act or speak without restraint

► n

5 a tear or split

◇ SYNONYMS: tear, cut, hole, split, rent, slash, slit, gash

► See also rip off

RIP may he, she, or they rest in peace riparian (rip-pair-ee-an) adj (formal) of or on the bank of a river ripcord n a cord pulled to open a parachute from its pack ripe adj

1 mature enough to be eaten or used: a round ripe apple

◇ SYNONYMS: ripened, seasoned, ready, mature, mellow

2 fully developed in mind or body

3 suitable: wait until the time is ripe

◇ SYNONYMS: right, suitable

4 ripe for ready or eager to (undertake or undergo an action): China was ripe for revolution

5 ripe old age an elderly but healthy age ripen vb

1 to make or become ripe

2 to mature rip off (slang) vb

1 to cheat by overcharging

◇ SYNONYMS rip someone off: cheat, rob, con (informal), skin (slang), fleece, defraud, swindle, scam (slang)

2 to steal (something)

► n rip-off

3 a grossly overpriced article

4 the act of stealing or cheating

◇ SYNONYMS: cheat, con (informal), scam (slang), con trick (informal), fraud, theft, swindle riposte (rip-posst) n

1 a swift clever reply

2 (fencing) a counterattack made immediately after a successful parry

► vb -posting, -posted

3 to make a riposte ripple n

1 a slight wave on the surface of water

2 a slight ruffling of a surface

3 a sound like water flowing gently in ripples: a ripple of applause

4 vanilla ice cream with stripes of another ice cream through it: raspberry ripple

► vb -pling, -pled

5 to form ripples or flow with a waving motion

6 (of sounds) to rise and fall gently > rippling adj rip-roaring adj (informal) boisterous and exciting rise vb rising, rose, risen

1 to get up from a lying, sitting, or kneeling position

◇ SYNONYMS: get up, stand up, get to your feet

2 to get out of bed, esp. to begin one's day: she rises at 5 am every day to look after her horse

◇ SYNONYMS: arise (old-fashioned)

3 to move from a lower to a higher position or place

◇ SYNONYMS: go up, climb, ascend

4 to appear above the horizon: as the sun rises higher the mist disappears

5 to slope upwards: the road crossed the valley then rose to a low ridge

◇ SYNONYMS: get steeper, ascend, go uphill, slope upwards

6 to increase in height or level: the tide rose

◇ SYNONYMS: increase, mount

7 to swell up: dough rises

8 to increase in strength or degree: frustration is rising amongst sections of the population

◇ SYNONYMS: grow, go up, intensify

9 to increase in amount or value: living costs are rising at an annual rate of nine per cent

◇ SYNONYMS: increase, mount

10 (informal) to respond (to a challenge or remark)

11 to revolt: the people rose against their oppressors

◇ SYNONYMS: rebel, revolt, mutiny

12 (of a court or parliament) to adjourn

13 to be resurrected

14 to become erect or rigid: the hairs on his neck rose in fear

15 to originate: that river rises in the mountains

16 (angling) (of fish) to come to the surface of the water

► n

17 the act or an instance of rising

18 a piece of rising ground

◇ SYNONYMS: upward slope, incline, elevation, ascent, kopje or koppie (S African)

19 an increase in wages

◇ SYNONYMS: pay increase, raise (US), increment

20 an increase in amount, cost, or quantity

◇ SYNONYMS: increase, upturn, upswing, upsurge, bounce

21 an increase in height

22 an increase in status or position

◇ SYNONYMS: advancement, progress, climb, promotion

23 an increase in degree or intensity

24 the vertical height of a step or of a flight of stairs

25 get or take a rise out of (slang) to provoke an angry reaction from 26 give rise to to cause the development of ◇ SYNONYMS give rise to something: cause, produce, effect, result in, bring about riser n

1 a person who rises from bed: an early riser

2 the vertical part of a step risible (riz-zib-bl) adj (formal) ridiculous rising n

1 a rebellion

► adj

2 increasing in rank or maturity risk n

1 the possibility of bringing about misfortune or loss

◇ SYNONYMS: danger, chance, possibility, hazard

2 a person or thing considered as a potential hazard: in parts of the world transfusions carry the risk of infection

◇ SYNONYMS: gamble, chance, speculation, leap in the dark

3 at risk in a dangerous situation

4 take or run a risk to act without regard to the danger involved

► vb

5 to act in spite of the possibility of (injury or loss): if they clamp down they risk a revolution

◇ SYNONYMS: stand a chance of 6 to expose to danger or loss

◇ SYNONYMS: dare, endanger, jeopardize, imperil, venture, gamble, hazard > risky adj

risotto n, pl -tos a dish of rice cooked in stock with vegetables, meat, etc.

risqué (risk-ay) adj making slightly rude references to sex: risqué humour rissole n a mixture of minced cooked meat coated in egg and breadcrumbs and fried rite n

1 a formal act which forms part of a religious ceremony: the rite of burial

◇ SYNONYMS: ceremony, custom, ritual, practice, procedure, observance

2 a custom that is carried out within a particular group: the barbaric rites of public execution

◇ SYNONYMS: ceremony, custom, ritual, practice, procedure, observance

3 a particular body of such acts, esp. of a particular Christian Church: the traditional Anglican rite ritual n

1 a religious or other ceremony involving a series of fixed actions performed in a certain order

◇ SYNONYMS: ceremony, rite, observance

2 these ceremonies collectively: people need ritual

◇ SYNONYMS: ceremony, rite, observance

3 a regular repeated action or behaviour

◇ SYNONYMS: ceremony, rite, observance

4 stereotyped activity or behaviour

► adj

5 of or like rituals

◇ SYNONYMS: ceremonial, conventional, routine, customary, habitual > ritually adv

ritzy adj ritzier, ritziest (slang) luxurious or elegant rival n

1 a person or group that competes with another for the same object or in the same field

◇ SYNONYMS: opponent, competitor, contender, contestant, adversary

2 a person or thing that is considered the equal of another: she is without rival in the field of physics

► adj

3 in the position of a rival

◇ SYNONYMS: competing, conflicting, opposing ► vb -valling, -valled (US) -valing, -valed

4 to be the equal or near equal of: his inarticulateness was rivalled only by that of his brother

◇ SYNONYMS: compete with, match, equal, compare with, come up to, be a match for

5 to try to equal or surpass

◇ SYNONYMS: compete with, match, equal, compare with, come up to, be a match for rivalry n, pl -ries active competition between people or groups ◇ SYNONYMS: competition, opposition, conflict, contest, contention riven adj (old-fashioned)

1 split apart: the party is riven by factions

2 torn to shreds

river n

1 a large natural stream of fresh water flowing along a definite course into the sea, a lake, or a larger river. RELATED ADJECTIVE: fluvial

◇ SYNONYMS: stream, brook, creek (US & Canad & Austral & NZ), waterway, tributary, burn (Scot)

2 an abundant stream or flow: rivers of blood

◇ SYNONYMS: flow, rush, flood, spate, torrent rivet (riv-vit) n

1 a short metal pin for fastening metal plates, with a head at one end, the other end being hammered flat after being put through holes in the plates

► vb -veting, -veted

2 to join by riveting

3 to cause a person's attention to be fixed in fascination or horror: he was riveted by the story

> riveter n

riveting adj very interesting or exciting

◇ SYNONYMS: enthralling, gripping, fascinating, absorbing, captivating, hypnotic, engrossing, spellbinding rivulet n a small stream

RN

1 (in Canada and New Zealand) Registered Nurse

2 (in Britain) Royal Navy

RNA n (biochem) ribonucleic acid: any of a group of nucleic acids, present in all living cells, that play an essential role in the synthesis of proteins

RNZ Radio New Zealand

RNZAF Royal New Zealand Air Force

RNZN Royal New Zealand Navy

roach n, pl roaches or roach a European freshwater food fish road n

1 a route, usually surfaced, used by travellers and vehicles to get from one place to another

◇ SYNONYMS: roadway, highway, motorway, track, route, path, lane, pathway

2 a street

◇ SYNONYMS: roadway, highway, motorway, track, route, path, lane, pathway

3 a way or course: on the road to recovery

◇ SYNONYMS: way, path

4 one for the road (informal) a last alcoholic drink before leaving

5 on the road travelling about roadblock n a barrier set up across a road by the police or military, in order to stop and check vehicles road hog n (informal) a selfish or aggressive driver roadhouse n a pub or restaurant at the side of a road roadie n (informal) a person who transports and sets up equipment for a band road map n

1 a map for drivers

2 a plan or guide for future actions roadside n

1 the edge of a road

► adj

2 by the edge or side of a road: a roadside café

road test n

1 a test of something, such as a vehicle in actual use

► vb road-test

2 to test (a vehicle, etc.) in actual use roadway n the part of a road that is used by vehicles roadworks pl n repairs to a road or cable under a road, esp. when they block part of the road roadworthy adj (of a motor vehicle) mechanically sound > roadworthiness n

roam vb to walk about with no fixed purpose or direction

◇ SYNONYMS: wander, walk, range, travel, stray, ramble, prowl, rove roaming n the act of using a mobile phone in a foreign country roan adj

1 (of a horse) having a brown or black coat sprinkled with white hairs

► n

2 a horse with such a coat roar vb

1 (of lions and other animals) to make loud growling cries

2 to shout (something) with a loud deep cry: 'Don't do that!' he roared at me

◇ SYNONYMS: cry, shout, yell, howl, bellow, bawl, bay

3 to make a very loud noise: the engine roared

4 to laugh in a loud hearty manner

◇ SYNONYMS: cry, shout, yell, howl, bellow, bawl, bay

5 (of a fire) to burn fiercely with a roaring sound

► n

6 a roaring noise: there was a roar as the train came in

7 a loud deep cry, uttered by a person or crowd, esp. in anger or triumph: a roar of approval came from the crowd

◇ SYNONYMS: cry, shout, yell, howl, outcry, bellow roast vb

1 to cook (food) by dry heat in an oven or over a fire

2 to brown or dry (coffee or nuts) by exposure to heat

3 to make or be extremely hot

4 (informal) to criticize severely

► n

5 a roasted joint of meat

► adj

6 cooked by roasting: roast beef

> roaster n

roasting (informal) adj

1 extremely hot

► n

2 severe criticism or scolding rob vb robbing, robbed

1 to take something from (a person or place) illegally

◇ SYNONYMS: steal from, hold up, mug (informal)

2 to deprive, esp. of something deserved: I can't forgive him for robbing me of an Olympic gold

◇ SYNONYMS: deprive, do out of (informal) > robber n

robbery n, pl -beries

1 (criminal law) the stealing of property from a person by using or threatening to use force

◇ SYNONYMS: burglary, raid, hold-up, rip-off (slang), stick-up (slang, chiefly US), home invasion (Austral & NZ)

2 the act or an instance of robbing

◇ SYNONYMS: theft, stealing, mugging (informal), plunder, swindle, pillage, larceny robe n

1 a long loose flowing garment

◇ SYNONYMS: gown, costume, habit

2 a dressing gown or bathrobe

► vb robing, robed

3 to put a robe on robin n

1 Also called: robin redbreast a small Old World songbird with a brown back and an orange-red breast and face

2 a North American thrush similar to but larger than the Old World robin robot n

1 a machine programmed to perform specific tasks in a human manner, esp. one with a human shape ◇ SYNONYMS: machine, automaton, android, mechanical man or woman

2 a person of machine-like efficiency

3 (S African) a set of traffic lights > robotic adj

robotics n the science of designing, building, and using robots robust adj

1 very strong and healthy

◇ SYNONYMS: strong, tough, powerful, fit, healthy, strapping, hardy, vigorous

2 sturdily built: the new generation of robust lasers

◇ SYNONYMS: strong, tough, powerful, fit, healthy, strapping, hardy, vigorous

3 requiring or displaying physical strength: robust tackles > robustly adv

roc n (in Arabian legend) a bird of enormous size and power rock¹ n

1 (geol) the mass of mineral matter that makes up part of the earth's crust; stone

2 a large rugged mass of stone

◇ SYNONYMS: stone, boulder

3 (chiefly US & Canad & Austral) a stone

4 a hard peppermint-flavoured sweet, usually in the shape of a long stick

5 a person or thing on which one can always depend: your loyalty is a rock

6 (slang) a precious jewel

7 on the rocks

A (of a marriage) about to end

B (of an alcoholic drink) served with ice rock² vb

1 to move from side to side or backwards and forwards

2 to shake or move (something) violently

3 to feel or cause to feel shock: key events have rocked both countries

◇ SYNONYMS: shock, surprise, shake, stun, astonish, stagger, astound

4 to dance to or play rock music

5 (slang) to be very good

► n

6 Also called: rock music a style of pop music with a heavy beat

7 a rocking motion

► adj

8 of or relating to rock music rock and roll or rock'n'roll n a type of pop music originating in the 1950s as a blend of rhythm and blues and country and western rock bottom n the lowest possible level rock cake n a small fruit cake with a rough surface rocker n

- 1 a rocking chair
- 2 either of two curved supports on which a rocking chair stands
- 3 a rock music performer or fan
- 4 off one's rocker (slang) crazy rockery n, pl -eries a garden built of rocks and soil, for growing rock plants rocket n

- 1 a self-propelling device, usually cylindrical, which produces thrust by expelling through a nozzle the gases produced by burning fuel, such as one used as a firework or distress signal
 - 2 any vehicle propelled by a rocket engine, as a weapon or carrying a spacecraft
 - 3 (informal) a severe reprimand: my sister gave me a rocket for writing such dangerous nonsense
- vb -eting, -eted
- 4 to increase rapidly: within six years their turnover had rocketed
 - 5 to attack with rockets rocking chair n a chair set on curving supports so that the sitter may rock backwards and forwards rock melon n (US & Austral & NZ) same as cantaloupe

rocky¹ adj rockier, rockiest covered with rocks: rocky and sandy shores

◇ SYNONYMS: rough, rugged, stony, craggy

> rockiness n

rocky² adj rockier, rockiest shaky or unstable: a rocky relationship

◇ SYNONYMS: unstable, shaky, wobbly, rickety, unsteady

> rockiness n

rococo (rok-koh-koh) adj

1 relating to an 18th-century style of architecture, decoration, and music characterized by elaborate ornamentation

2 excessively elaborate in style rod n

1 a thin straight pole made of wood or metal

◇ SYNONYMS: stick, bar, pole, shaft, cane

2 a cane used to beat people as a punishment

◇ SYNONYMS: staff, baton, wand

3 a type of cell in the retina, sensitive to dim light > rodlike adj

rode vb the past tense of ride rodent n a small mammal with teeth specialized for gnawing, such as a rat, mouse, or squirrel > rodent-like adj

rodeo n, pl -deos a display of the skills of cowboys, including bareback riding roe¹ n the ovary and eggs of a female fish, sometimes eaten as food roe² or roe deer² n a small graceful deer with short antlers roentgen (rönt-gan) n a unit measuring a radiation dose rogue n

1 a dishonest or unprincipled person

◇ SYNONYMS: scoundrel (old-fashioned), crook (informal), villain, fraud (informal), blackguard, skelm (S African), rorter (Austral slang), wrong 'un (slang)

2 a mischievous person

◇ SYNONYMS: scamp, rascal, scally (Northwest England dialect), nointer (Austral slang)

3 a crop plant which is inferior, diseased, or of a different variety

4 an inferior or defective specimen

► adj

5 (of a wild animal) having a savage temper and living apart from the herd: a rogue elephant

6 inferior or defective: rogue heroin > roguish adj

roister vb (old-fashioned) to enjoy oneself noisily and boisterously > roisterer n

role n

1 a task or function: their role in international relations

◇ SYNONYMS: job, part, position, post, task, duty, function, capacity

2 an actor's part in a production

◇ SYNONYMS: part, character, representation, portrayal roll vb

1 to move along by turning over and over

◇ SYNONYMS: turn, wheel, spin, go round, revolve, rotate, whirl, swivel

2 to move along on wheels or rollers

◇ SYNONYMS: trundle, go, move

3 to curl or make by curling into a ball or tube

4 to move along in an undulating movement

◇ SYNONYMS: flow, run, course

5 to rotate wholly or partially: he would snort in derision, roll his eyes, and heave a deep sigh

6 to spread out flat or smooth with a roller or rolling pin: roll the pastry out thinly

◇ SYNONYMS: level, even, press, smooth, flatten

7 (of a ship or aircraft) to turn from side to side around the longitudinal axis

◇ SYNONYMS: toss, rock, lurch, reel, tumble, sway

8 to operate or begin to operate: the cameras continued to roll as she pulled up to the nightclub

9 to make a continuous deep reverberating sound: the thunder rolled

10 to walk in a swaying manner: the drunks came rolling home

11 to appear like a series of waves: mountain ranges rolling away in every direction

12 to pass or elapse: watching the time roll away

13 (of animals) to turn onto the back and kick

14 to trill or cause to be trilled: she rolled her r's

15 to throw (dice)

► n

16 the act or an instance of rolling

17 anything rolled up into a tube: a roll of paper towels

18 a small cake of bread for one person

19 a flat pastry or cake rolled up with a meat, jam, or other filling 20 an official list or register of names: the electoral roll; the voters' roll

◇ SYNONYMS: register, record, list, index, census

21 a complete rotation about its longitudinal axis by an aircraft

◇ SYNONYMS: turn, spin, rotation, cycle, wheel, revolution, reel, whirl

22 a continuous deep reverberating sound: the roll of musketry

◇ SYNONYMS: rumble, boom, roar, thunder, reverberation

23 a swaying or unsteady movement or gait

24 a rounded mass: rolls of fat

25 a very rapid beating of the sticks on a drum

26 on a roll (slang) experiencing continued good luck or success

27 strike off the roll to expel from membership of a professional association roll call n the reading aloud of an official list of names, to check who is present rolled gold n a metal, such as brass, coated with a thin layer of gold roller n

1 a rotating cylinder used for smoothing, supporting a thing to be moved, spreading paint, etc.

2 a small tube around which hair may be wound in order to make it curly

3 a long heavy wave of the sea

4 a cylinder fitted on pivots, used to enable heavy objects to be easily moved

Rollerblade n (trademark) a type of roller skate in which the wheels are set in a single straight line under the boot roller coaster n (at a funfair) a narrow railway with open carriages, sharp curves and steep slopes roller skate n

1 a shoe with four small wheels that enable the wearer to glide swiftly over a floor

► vb roller-skate-skating, -skated

2 to move on roller skates > roller skater n

rollicking adj boisterously carefree: a rollicking read rolling pin n a cylinder with handles at both ends used for rolling pastry rolling stock n the locomotives and coaches of a railway rolling stone n a restless or wandering person roll-on/roll-off adj denoting a ship designed so that vehicles can be driven straight on and straight off roll-top adj (of a desk) having a slatted wooden panel that can be pulled down over the writing surface when not in use

roll up vb

1 to form into a cylindrical shape: roll up a length of black material

2 (informal) to arrive

► n roll-up

3 (Brit informal) a cigarette made by the smoker from loose tobacco and cigarette papers roly-poly adj

1 plump or chubby

► n, pl -lies

2 (Brit) a strip of suet pastry spread with jam, rolled up, and baked or steamed

ROM n (computers) read only memory: a storage device that holds data permanently and cannot be altered by the programmer

Roma n pl Roma or Romas a member of a people scattered throughout Europe and N America, who have a nomadic way of life in industrialized societies

roman adj

1 in or relating to the vertical style of printing type used for most printed matter

► n

2 roman type

Roman adj

1 of Rome, a city in Italy, or its inhabitants in ancient or modern times

2 of Roman Catholicism or the Roman Catholic Church

► n

3 a person from ancient or modern Rome

Roman Catholic adj

1 of the Roman Catholic Church

► n

2 a member of this Church

> Roman Catholicism n

Roman Catholic Church n the Christian Church over which the pope presides romance n

1 a love affair: a failed romance

◇ SYNONYMS: love affair, relationship, affair, attachment, liaison, amour

2 love, esp. romantic love idealized for its purity or beauty

3 a spirit of or inclination for adventure or mystery

◇ SYNONYMS: excitement, colour, charm, mystery, glamour, fascination

4 a mysterious or sentimental quality

5 a story or film dealing with love, usually in an idealized way

◇ SYNONYMS: story, tale, fantasy, legend, fairy tale, love story, melodrama

6 a story or film dealing with events and characters remote from ordinary life

◇ SYNONYMS: story, tale, fantasy, legend, fairy tale, love story, melodrama

7 an extravagant, absurd, or fantastic account

8 a medieval narrative dealing with adventures of chivalrous heroes

► vb -mancing, -manced

9 to tell extravagant or improbable lies

Romance adj of the languages derived from Latin, such as French, Spanish, and Italian Roman numerals pl n the letters used as numerals by the Romans, used occasionally today: I (= 1), V (= 5), X (= 10), L (= 50), C (= 100), D (= 500), and M (= 1000). VI = 6 (V + I) but IV = 4 (V – I) romantic adj

1 of or dealing with love

◇ SYNONYMS: loving, tender, passionate, fond, sentimental, amorous, icky
(informal)

2 idealistic but impractical: a romantic notion

◇ SYNONYMS: idealistic, unrealistic, impractical, dreamy, starry-eyed

3 evoking or given to thoughts and feelings of love: romantic images

◇ SYNONYMS: loving, tender, passionate, fond, sentimental, amorous, icky
(informal)

4 Romantic relating to a movement in European art, music, and literature in the late 18th and early 19th centuries, characterized by an emphasis on feeling and content rather than order and form

► n

5 a person who is idealistic or amorous

◇ SYNONYMS: idealist, dreamer, sentimentalist

6 a person who likes or produces artistic works in the style of Romanticism > romantically adv

romanticism n

1 idealistic but unrealistic thoughts and feelings

2 Romanticism the spirit and style of the Romantic art, music, and literature of the late 18th and early 19th centuries

> romanticist n

romanticize or -cise vb -cizing, -cized or -cising, -cised to describe or regard (something or someone) in an unrealistic and idealized way: the Victorian legacy of romanticizing family life

Romany n

1 pl -nies a Roma

2 the language of the Roma romp vb

1 to play or run about wildly or joyfully

◇ SYNONYMS: frolic, sport, have fun, caper, cavort, frisk, gambol

2 romp home or in to win a race or other competition easily

3 romp through to do (something) quickly and easily

► n

4 a noisy or boisterous game or prank

◇ SYNONYMS: frolic, lark (informal), caper rompers pl n a one-piece baby garment combining trousers and a top. Also called: romper suit rondavel n (S African) a small circular building with a cone-shaped roof rondo n, pl -dos a piece of music with a leading theme continually returned to: often forms the last movement of a sonata or concerto roo n, pl roos (Austral informal) a kangaroo rood n

1 (Christianity) the Cross

2 a crucifix rood screen n (in a church) a screen separating the nave from the choir roof n, pl roofs

1 a structure that covers or forms the top of a building

2 the top covering of a vehicle, oven, or other structure

3 the highest part of the mouth or a cave

4 hit or go through the roof (informal) to get extremely angry

5 raise the roof (informal) to be very noisy

► vb

6 to put a roof on rooibos (roy-boss) n (S African) a kind of tea made from the leaves of a South African wild shrub. Also called: rooibos tea, bush tea

rook¹ n

1 a large European black bird of the crow family

► vb

2 (old-fashioned, slang) to cheat or swindle rook² n a chess piece that may move any number of unoccupied squares in a straight line, horizontally or vertically; castle rookery n, pl -eries

1 a group of nesting rooks

2 a colony of penguins or seals rookie n (informal) a newcomer without much experience room n

1 an area within a building enclosed by a floor, a ceiling, and walls

◇ SYNONYMS: chamber, office

2 the people present in a room: the whole room was laughing

3 unoccupied or unobstructed space: there wasn't enough room

◇ SYNONYMS: space, area, capacity, extent, expanse

4 room for opportunity or scope for: there was no room for acts of heroism

5 rooms lodgings

► vb

6 (US) to occupy or share a rented room: I roomed with him for five years roomy adj roomier, roomiest with plenty of space inside: a roomy entrance hall > roominess n

roost n

1 a place where birds rest or sleep

► vb

2 to rest or sleep on a roost

3 come home to roost to have unfavourable repercussions

4 rule the roost to have authority over people in a particular place rooster n the male of the domestic fowl; a cock root¹ n

1 the part of a plant that anchors the rest of the plant in the ground and absorbs water and mineral salts from the soil

◇ SYNONYMS: stem, tuber, rhizome

2 a plant with an edible root, such as a carrot

3 (anatomy) the part of a tooth, hair, or nail that is below the skin

4 roots a person's sense of belonging in a place, esp. the one in which he or she was brought up

◇ SYNONYMS: sense of belonging, origins, heritage, birthplace, home, family, cradle

5 source or origin

◇ SYNONYMS: source, cause, heart, bottom, base, seat, seed, foundation

6 the essential part or nature of something: the root of a problem

◇ SYNONYMS: source, cause, heart, bottom, base, seat, seed, foundation

7 (linguistics) the form of a word from which other words and forms are derived 8 (maths) a quantity that when multiplied by itself a certain number of times equals a given quantity: what is the cube root of a thousand?

9 Also called: solution (maths) a number that when substituted for the variable satisfies a given equation

10 (Austral & NZ slang) sexual intercourse

11 root and branch entirely or utterly RELATED ADJECTIVE: radical

► vb

12 Also: take root to establish a root and begin to grow

13 Also: take root to become established or embedded 14 (Austral & NZ slang) to have sexual intercourse (with)

► See also root out

root² vb

1 (Brit) to dig up the earth in search of food, using the snout: dogs were rooting in the rushes for bones

2 (informal) to search vigorously but unsystematically: she was rooting around in her large untidy purse

◇ SYNONYMS: dig, burrow, ferret root for vb (informal) to give support to (a team or contestant) rootle vb -ling, -led (Brit) same as root rootless adj having no sense of belonging: a rootless city dweller

root out vb to get rid of completely: a major drive to root out corruption ◇ SYNONYMS root something or someone out: get rid of, remove, eliminate, abolish, eradicate, do away with, weed out, exterminate rope n

1 a fairly thick cord made of intertwined fibres or wire

◇ SYNONYMS: cord, line, cable, strand, hawser

2 a row of objects fastened to form a line: a twenty-inch rope of pearls

3 know the ropes to have a thorough understanding of a particular activity

◇ SYNONYMS know the ropes: be experienced, be knowledgeable, be an old hand

4 the rope

A a rope noose used for hanging someone

B death by hanging

► vb roping, roped

5 to tie with a rope

6 rope off to enclose or divide with a rope rope in vb to persuade to take part in some activity

◇ SYNONYMS rope someone in or into something: persuade, involve, engage, enlist, talk into, inveigle ropey or ropy adj ropier, ropiest (Brit informal)

1 poor or unsatisfactory in quality: a ropey performance

2 slightly unwell > ropiness n

rorqual n a whalebone whale with a fin on the back rort (Austral informal) n

1 a dishonest scheme

► vb

2 to take unfair advantage of something rosary n, pl -saries (RC Church)

- 1 a series of prayers counted on a string of beads
- 2 a string of beads used to count these prayers as they are recited rose¹ n

- 1 a shrub or climbing plant with prickly stems and fragrant flowers
 - 2 the flower of any of these plants
 - 3 a plant similar to this, such as the Christmas rose
 - 4 a perforated cap fitted to a watering can or hose, causing the water to come out in a spray
 - 5 bed of roses a situation of comfort or ease
- adj
- 6 reddish-pink rose² vb the past tense of rise rosé (roe-zay) n a pink wine roseate (roe-zee-ate) adj

- 1 of the colour rose or pink
- 2 excessively optimistic rosehip n the berry-like fruit of a rose plant rosella n a type of Australian parrot rosemary n, pl -maries an aromatic European shrub widely cultivated for its grey-green evergreen leaves, which are used in cookery and perfumes rosette n a rose-shaped decoration, esp. a circular bunch of ribbons rose window n a circular window with spokes branching out from the centre to form a symmetrical roselike pattern rosewood n a fragrant dark wood used to make furniture rosin (rozz-in) n

1 a translucent brittle substance produced from turpentine and used for treating the bows of stringed instruments

► vb

2 to apply rosin to roster n

1 a list showing the order in which people are to perform a duty

► vb

2 to place on a roster rostrum n, pl -trums or -tra a platform or stage rosy adj rosier, rosiest

1 of the colour rose or pink: rosy cheeks

◇ SYNONYMS: glowing, blooming, radiant, ruddy, healthy-looking

2 hopeful or promising: the analysis revealed a far from rosy picture

◇ SYNONYMS: promising, encouraging, bright, optimistic, hopeful, cheerful, favourable, auspicious > rosiness n

rot vb rotting, rotted

1 to decay or cause to decay

◇ SYNONYMS: decay, spoil, deteriorate, perish, decompose, moulder, go bad, putrefy (formal)

2 to deteriorate slowly, mentally and physically: I thought he was either dead or rotting in a jail

◇ SYNONYMS: deteriorate, decline, waste away

► n

3 the process of rotting or the state of being rotten

◇ SYNONYMS: decay, decomposition, corruption, mould, blight, canker, putrefaction

4 something decomposed

5 short for dry rot

6 a plant or animal disease which causes decay of the tissues

7 nonsense

◇ SYNONYMS: nonsense, rubbish, drivel, twaddle, garbage (informal), trash, tripe (informal), claptrap (informal), bizzo (Austral slang), bull's wool (Austral & NZ slang) rota n a list of people who take it in turn to do a particular task rotary adj

1 revolving

2 operating by rotation

► n, pl -ries

3 (US & Canad) a traffic roundabout rotate vb -tating, -tated

1 to turn around a centre or pivot

◇ SYNONYMS: revolve, turn, wheel, spin, reel, go round, swivel, pivot

2 to follow or cause to follow a set sequence

◇ SYNONYMS: follow in sequence, switch, alternate, take turns

3 to regularly change the type of crop grown on a piece of land in order to preserve the fertility of the soil > rotation n

> rotational adj

rote adj

1 done by routine repetition: rote learning

► n

2 by rote by repetition: we learned by rote rotisserie n a rotating spit on which meat and poultry can be cooked rotor n

1 the rotating part of a machine or device, such as the revolving arm of the distributor of an internal-combustion engine

2 a rotating device with blades projecting from a hub which produces thrust to lift a helicopter rotten adj

1 decomposing or decaying: rotten vegetables

◇ SYNONYMS: decaying, bad, rank, corrupt, sour, stinking, perished, festering, festy (Austral slang)

2 breaking up through age or hard use: the window frames are rotten

◇ SYNONYMS: crumbling, perished

3 (informal) very bad: what rotten luck!

4 morally corrupt: this country's politics are rotten and out of date

◇ SYNONYMS: corrupt, immoral, crooked (informal), dishonest, dishonourable, perfidious (literary)

5 (informal) miserably unwell: I had glandular fever and spent that year feeling rotten

6 (informal) distressed and embarrassed: I'm feeling rotten as a matter of fact, rotten and guilty

► adv

7 (informal) extremely; very much: men fancy her rotten rotter n (chiefly Brit old-fashioned, slang) a despicable person

Rottweiler (rot-vile-er) n a large sturdy dog with a smooth black-and-tan coat and a docked tail rotund (roe-tund) adj

1 round and plump

2 (of speech) pompous or grand > rotundity n

> rotundly adv

rotunda n a circular building or room, esp. with a dome rouble or ruble (roo-bl) n the standard monetary unit of Russia, Belarus, and Transnistria roué (roo-ay) n a man who leads a sensual and immoral life rouge n

1 a red cosmetic for adding colour to the cheeks

► vb rouging, rouged

2 to apply rouge to rough adj

1 not smooth; uneven or irregular

◇ SYNONYMS: uneven, broken, rocky, irregular, jagged, bumpy, stony, craggy

2 not using enough care or gentleness

◇ SYNONYMS: ungracious, blunt, rude, coarse, brusque, uncouth, impolite, uncivil

3 difficult or unpleasant: tomorrow will be a rough day

◇ SYNONYMS: unpleasant, hard, difficult, tough, uncomfortable

4 approximate: a rough guess

◇ SYNONYMS: approximate, estimated

5 violent or stormy

◇ SYNONYMS: stormy, wild, turbulent, choppy, squally

6 troubled by violence or crime: he lived in a rough area

7 incomplete or basic: a rough draft

◇ SYNONYMS: basic, crude, unfinished, incomplete, imperfect, rudimentary, sketchy, unrefined

8 lacking refinement: a rough shelter

9 (of ground) covered with scrub or rubble

◇ SYNONYMS: uneven, broken, rocky, irregular, jagged, bumpy, stony, craggy

10 harsh or grating to the ear

11 harsh or sharp: the rough interrogation of my father

◇ SYNONYMS: harsh, tough, nasty, cruel, unfeeling

12 unfair: rough luck

13 (informal) ill: if you're feeling rough, you won't want to eat

14 shaggy or hairy: the rough wool of her sweater

15 (of work, etc.) requiring physical rather than mental effort: wear gloves for any rough work

◇ SYNONYMS: boisterous, hard, tough, arduous

► vb

16 to make rough

17 rough it (informal) to live without the usual comforts of life

► n

18 rough ground

19 a sketch or preliminary piece of artwork

◇ SYNONYMS: outline, draft, mock-up, preliminary sketch

20 (informal) a violent person

21 in rough in an unfinished or crude state

22 the rough (golf) the part of the course beside the fairways where the grass is untrimmed

23 the unpleasant side of something: you have to take the rough with the smooth

► adv

24 roughly

25 sleep rough to spend the night in the open without shelter

► See also rough out > roughly adv

roughage n the coarse indigestible constituents of food, which help digestion rough-and-ready adj

1 hastily prepared but adequate for the purpose

◇ SYNONYMS rough and ready: makeshift, crude, provisional, improvised, sketchy, stopgap

2 (of a person) without formality or refinement in manner or appearance

◇ SYNONYMS rough and ready: unrefined, shabby, untidy, unkempt, unpolished, ill-groomed, daggy (Austral & NZ informal) rough-and-tumble n

1 a playful fight

2 a disorderly situation roughcast n

1 a mixture of plaster and small stones for outside walls

► vb -casting, -cast

2 to put roughcast on (a wall) roughen vb to make or become rough rough-hewn adj roughly shaped or cut without being properly finished roughhouse n (slang) rough or noisy behaviour rough out vb to prepare (a sketch or report) in preliminary form: he offered to rough out some designs for the sets

◇ SYNONYMS rough something out: outline, plan, draft, sketch roughshod adv ride roughshod over to act with complete disregard for roulette n a gambling game in which a ball is dropped onto a revolving wheel with numbered coloured slots round adj

1 having a flat circular shape, like a hoop

2 having the shape of a ball

◇ SYNONYMS: spherical, rounded, curved, circular, cylindrical, rotund, globular

3 curved; not angular ◇ SYNONYMS: spherical, rounded, curved, circular, cylindrical, rotund, globular

4 involving or using circular motion

5 complete

6 (maths)

A forming or expressed by a whole number, with no fraction

B expressed to the nearest ten, hundred, or thousand: in round figures

► adv

7 on all or most sides

8 on or outside the circumference or perimeter: ponds which are steeply sided all round

9 in rotation or revolution: she swung round on me

10 by a circuitous route: the road to the farm goes round by the pond

11 to all members of a group: handing chocolates round

12 to a specific place: the boys invited him round

13 all year round throughout the year

► prep

14 surrounding or encircling: wrap your sash round the wound

15 on all or most sides of: the man turned in a circle, looking all round him

16 on or outside the circumference or perimeter of 17 from place to place in: a trip round the island in an ancient bus

18 reached by making a partial circuit about: just round the corner

19 revolving about: if you have two bodies in orbit, they orbit round their common centre of gravity

► vb

20 to move round: as he rounded the last corner, he raised a fist

◇ SYNONYMS: go round, circle, skirt, flank, bypass, encircle, turn

► n

21 a round shape or object

◇ SYNONYMS: sphere, ball, band, ring, circle, disc, globe, orb

22 a session: a round of talks

◇ SYNONYMS: series, session, cycle, sequence, succession

23 a series: the petty round of domestic matters

◇ SYNONYMS: series, session, cycle, sequence, succession

24 a series of calls: a paper round

◇ SYNONYMS: course, tour, circuit, beat, series, schedule, routine

25 the daily round the usual activities of a person's day

26 a playing of all the holes on a golf course

27 a stage of a competition: the first round of the Portuguese Open

◇ SYNONYMS: stage, turn, level, period, division, session, lap

- 28 one of a number of periods in a boxing or wrestling match
- 29 a single turn of play by each player in a card game
- 30 a number of drinks bought at one time for a group of people
- 31 a bullet or shell for a gun
- 32 a single discharge by a gun
- 33 (music) a part song in which the voices follow each other at equal intervals
- 34 circular movement
- 35
- A a single slice of bread
- B a serving of sandwiches made from two complete slices of bread
- 36 a general outburst: a round of applause
- 37 in the round
- A in full detail
- B (theatre) with the audience all round the stage
- 38 go the rounds (of information or infection) to be passed around from person to person roundabout n (Brit)

- 1 a road junction in which traffic moves in one direction around a central island
- 2 a revolving circular platform, often with seats, on which people ride for amusement
- adj
- 3 not straightforward: the roundabout sea route; she thought of asking about it in a roundabout way
- ◇ SYNONYMS: indirect, devious, tortuous, circuitous, evasive, discursive
- adv, prep round about
- 4 approximately: round about 1900

roundel n

- 1 a circular identifying mark on military aircraft
- 2 a small circular object roundelay n a song in which a line or phrase is repeated as a refrain rounders n (Brit & NZ) a bat and ball game in which players run between posts after hitting the ball

Roundhead n (English history) a supporter of Parliament against Charles I during the Civil War roundly adv bluntly or thoroughly: the Church roundly criticized the bill

round robin n

- 1 a petition with the signatures in a circle to disguise the order of signing
- 2 a tournament in which each player plays against every other player round-the-clock adj throughout the day and night round trip n a journey to a place and back again round up vb

- 1 to gather together: the police had rounded up a circle of drug users ◇ SYNONYMS round something or someone up: gather, muster, group, drive, collect, rally, herd, marshal
- 2 to raise (a number) to the nearest whole number or ten, hundred, or thousand above it ► n roundup
- 3 a summary or discussion of news and information
- 4 the act of gathering together livestock or people rouse¹ vb rousing, roused

- 1 to wake up ◇ SYNONYMS: wake up, call, wake, awaken
- 2 to provoke or excite: his temper was roused and he had a gun ◇ SYNONYMS: excite, move, stir, provoke, anger, animate, agitate, inflame
- 3 rouse oneself to become energetic rouse² (rhymes with mouse) vb (foll. by on) (Austral) to scold or rebuke rouseabout n (Austral & NZ) a labourer in a shearing shed rousing adj lively or vigorous: a rousing speech ◇ SYNONYMS: lively, moving, spirited, exciting, inspiring, stirring, stimulating roustabout n an unskilled labourer on an oil rig rout n

1 an overwhelming defeat

◇ SYNONYMS: defeat, beating, overthrow, thrashing, pasting (slang), debacle, drubbing

2 a disorderly retreat

◇ SYNONYMS: defeat, beating, overthrow, thrashing, pasting (slang), debacle, drubbing

3 a noisy rabble

► vb

4 to defeat and put to flight

◇ SYNONYMS: defeat, beat, overthrow, thrash, destroy, crush, conquer, wipe the floor with (informal) route n

1 the choice of roads taken to get to a place

◇ SYNONYMS: way, course, road, direction, path, journey, itinerary

2 a fixed path followed by buses, trains, etc. between two places

◇ SYNONYMS: beat, circuit

3 a chosen way or method: the route to prosperity

◇ SYNONYMS: way, course, road, direction, path, journey, itinerary

► vb routeing, routed

4 to send by a particular route routine n

1 a usual or regular method of procedure

◇ SYNONYMS: procedure, programme, order, practice, method, pattern, custom

2 the boring repetition of tasks: mindless routine

3 a set sequence of dance steps

4 (computers) a program or part of a program performing a specific function: an input routine

► adj

5 relating to or characteristic of routine

◇ SYNONYMS: usual, standard, normal, customary, ordinary, typical, everyday, habitual roux (roo) n a cooked mixture of fat and flour used as a basis for sauces rove vb roving, roved

1 to wander about (a place)

2 (of the eyes) to look around > rover n

row¹ (rhymes with know) n

1 an arrangement of people or things in a line: a row of shops

◇ SYNONYMS: line, bank, range, series, file, string, column

2 a line of seats in a cinema or theatre

3 (Brit) a street lined with identical houses

4 (maths) a horizontal line of numbers

5 in a row in succession: five championships in a row

◇ SYNONYMS in a row: consecutively, running, in turn, one after the other, successively, in sequence

row² (rhymes with know) vb

1 to propel (a boat) by using oars

2 to carry (people or goods) in a rowing boat

3 to take part in the racing of rowing boats as a sport

► n

4 an act or spell of rowing

5 an excursion in a rowing boat > rowing n

row³ (rhymes with cow) (informal) n

1 a noisy quarrel

◇ SYNONYMS: quarrel, dispute, argument, squabble, tiff, trouble, brawl

2 a controversy or dispute: the row over Europe

◇ SYNONYMS: quarrel, dispute, argument, squabble, tiff, trouble, brawl

3 a noisy disturbance: go to the insurance offices and kick up a row about your money

◇ SYNONYMS: disturbance, noise, racket, uproar, commotion, rumpus, tumult

4 a reprimand

► vb

5 to quarrel noisily

◇ SYNONYMS: quarrel, fight, argue, dispute, squabble, wrangle rowan n a European tree with white flowers and red berries; mountain ash rowdy adj -dier, -diest

1 rough, noisy, or disorderly

► n, pl -dies

2 a person like this > rowdily adv

rowel (rhymes with towel) n a small spiked wheel at the end of a spur rowing boat n a small pleasure boat propelled by oars. Usual US and Canad word: rowboat rowlock (rol-luk) n a swivelling device attached to the top of the side of a boat that holds an oar in place royal adj

1 of or relating to a king or queen or a member of his or her family: the royal yacht

◇ SYNONYMS: regal, kingly or queenly, princely, imperial, sovereign

2 Royal supported by or in the service of royalty: the Royal Society of Medicine

3 very grand: royal treatment

◇ SYNONYMS: splendid, grand, impressive, magnificent, majestic, stately

► n

4 (informal) a king or queen or a member of his or her family > royally adv

royalist n

1 a supporter of a monarch or monarchy

► adj

2 of or relating to royalists

> royalism n

royalty n, pl -ties

1 royal people

2 the rank or power of a king or queen

3 a percentage of the revenue from the sale of a book, performance of a work, use of a patented invention or of land, paid to the author, inventor, or owner

RPI (in Britain) retail price index: a measure of the changes in the average level of retail prices of selected goods

rpm revolutions per minute

RSA

1 Republic of South Africa

2 (in New Zealand) Returned Services Association

3 Royal Scottish Academy

4 Royal Society of Arts

RSI repetitive strain injury: pain in the arm caused by repeated awkward movements, such as in using a keyboard

RSPCA (in Britain) Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals

RSS Rich Site Summary or Really Simple Syndication: a way of allowing web users to receive updated information from selected websites on their browser

RSVP please reply

rub vb rubbing, rubbed

1 to apply pressure and friction to (something) with a circular or backwards-and-forwards movement

◇ SYNONYMS: stroke, massage, caress

2 to move (something) with pressure along or against (a surface)

3 to clean, polish, or dry by rubbing

◇ SYNONYMS: polish, clean, shine, wipe, scour

4 to spread with pressure, esp. so that it can be absorbed: rub beeswax into all polishable surfaces

5 to chafe or fray through rubbing

◇ SYNONYMS: chafe, scrape, grate, abrade

6 to mix (fat) into flour with the fingertips, as in making pastry

7 rub it in to emphasize an unpleasant fact

8 rub up the wrong way to annoy

► n

9 the act of rubbing

◇ SYNONYMS: polish, stroke, shine, wipe

10 the rub the obstacle or difficulty: there's the rub

rubato (music) n, pl -tos

1 flexibility of tempo in performance: his playing brought much beautifully felt but never sentimental rubato to the music

► adj, adv

2 to be played with a flexible tempo rubber¹ n

- 1 an elastic material obtained from the latex of certain plants, such as the rubber tree
 - 2 a similar substance produced synthetically
 - 3 a piece of rubber used for erasing something written
 - 4 (US slang) a condom
 - 5 rubbers (US) rubber-coated waterproof overshoes
- adj
- 6 made of or producing rubber
- > rubbery adj

rubber² n

- 1 (bridge, whist) a match of three games
- 2 a series of matches or games in various sports rubberneck (slang) vb

- 1 to stare in a naive or foolish manner
- n
- 2 a person who stares inquisitively
 - 3 a sightseer or tourist rubber stamp n

- 1 a device used for imprinting dates or signatures on forms or invoices
 - 2 automatic authorization of something
 - 3 a person or body that gives official approval to decisions taken elsewhere but has no real power
- vb rubber-stamp
- 4 (informal) to approve automatically rubbish n

- 1 discarded or waste matter
- ◇ SYNONYMS: waste, refuse, scrap, junk (informal), litter, garbage (chiefly US), trash (chiefly US & Canad), lumber (Brit)
- 2 anything worthless or of poor quality: the rubbish on television
- ◇ SYNONYMS: waste, refuse, scrap, junk (informal), litter, garbage (chiefly US), trash (chiefly US & Canad), lumber (Brit)

3 foolish words or speech ◇ SYNONYMS: nonsense, garbage (informal), twaddle, rot, trash, hot air (informal), tripe (informal), claptrap (informal), bizzo (Austral slang), bull's wool (Austral & NZ slang)

► vb

4 (informal) to criticize > rubbishy adj

rubble n

1 debris from ruined buildings

2 pieces of broken stones or bricks rubella (roo-bell-a) n a mild contagious viral disease characterized by cough, sore throat, and skin rash. Also called: German measles rubidium (roo-bid-ee-um) n (chem) a soft highly reactive radioactive metallic element used in electronic valves, photocells, and special glass. SYMBOL: Rb

rub out vb

1 to remove or be removed with a rubber

2 (US slang) to murder rubric (roo-brik) n

1 a set of rules of conduct or procedure, esp. one for the conduct of Christian church services

2 a title or heading in a book ruby n, pl -bies

1 a deep red transparent precious gemstone

► adj

2 deep red

3 denoting a fortieth anniversary: a ruby wedding

ruck¹ n

1 the ruck ordinary people, often in a crowd

2 (rugby) a loose scrum that forms around the ball when it is on the ground ruck² n

1 a wrinkle or crease

► vb

2 to wrinkle or crease: the toe of his shoe had rucked up one corner of the pale rug rucksack n (Brit & Austral & S African) a large bag, with two straps, carried on the back rudder n

1 (naut) a vertical hinged piece that projects into the water at the stern, used to steer a boat

2 a vertical control surface attached to the rear of the fin used to steer an aircraft > rudderless adj

ruddy adj -dier, -diest

1 (of the complexion) having a healthy reddish colour

2 red or pink: a ruddy glow

► adv, adj

3 (informal) bloody: too ruddy slow; I just went through the ruddy ceiling rude adj

1 insulting or impolite

◇ SYNONYMS: impolite, insulting, cheeky, abusive, disrespectful, impertinent, insolent, impudent

2 vulgar or obscene: rude words

◇ SYNONYMS: vulgar

3 unexpected and unpleasant: we received a rude awakening

◇ SYNONYMS: unpleasant, sharp, sudden, harsh, startling, abrupt

4 roughly or crudely made: the rude hovels

◇ SYNONYMS: roughly-made, simple, rough, raw, crude, primitive, makeshift, artless

5 robust or sturdy: the very picture of rude health

6 lacking refinement

◇ SYNONYMS: uncivilized, rough, coarse, brutish, boorish, uncouth, loutish, graceless > rudely adv

> rudeness n

rue¹ vb ruing, rued (literary) to feel regret for ◇ SYNONYMS: regret, mourn, lament, repent, be sorry for, kick yourself for rue² n an aromatic shrub with bitter evergreen leaves formerly used in medicine rueful adj feeling or expressing sorrow or regret: a rueful smile

> ruefully adv

ruff n

1 a circular pleated or fluted cloth collar

2 a natural growth of long or coloured hair or feathers around the necks of certain animals or birds

3 a bird of the sandpiper family ruffian n a violent lawless person ruffle vb -fling, -fled

1 to disturb the smoothness of: the wind was ruffling Dad's hair

◇ SYNONYMS: disarrange, disorder, mess up, rumple, tousle, dishevel, muss (US & Canad)

2 to annoy or irritate

◇ SYNONYMS: annoy, upset, irritate, agitate, nettle, fluster, peeve (informal)

3 (of a bird) to erect its feathers in anger or display

4 to flick cards or pages rapidly

► n

5 a strip of pleated material used as a trim rug n

1 a small carpet

2 a thick woollen blanket

3 (slang) a wig

4 pull the rug out from under to betray or leave defenceless rugby or rugby football n a form of football played with an oval ball in which the handling and carrying of the ball is permitted

rugged (rug-gid) adj

1 rocky or steep: the rugged mountains of Sicily's interior

◇ SYNONYMS: rocky, broken, rough, craggy, difficult, ragged, irregular, uneven

2 with an uneven or jagged surface

◇ SYNONYMS: rocky, broken, rough, craggy, difficult, ragged, irregular, uneven

3 (of the face) strong-featured

◇ SYNONYMS: strong-featured, rough-hewn, weather-beaten

4 rough, sturdy, or determined in character

◇ SYNONYMS: tough, strong, robust, muscular, sturdy, burly, husky (informal), brawny

5 (of equipment or machines) designed to withstand rough treatment or use in rough conditions

◇ SYNONYMS: well-built, strong, tough, robust, sturdy rugger n (chiefly Brit informal) rugby ruin vb

1 to destroy or spoil completely: the suit was ruined

◇ SYNONYMS: spoil, damage, mess up, blow (slang), screw up (informal), botch, make a mess of, crool or cruel (Austral slang)

2 to cause (someone) to lose money: the first war ruined him

◇ SYNONYMS: bankrupt, break, impoverish, beggar, pauperize

► n

3 the state of being destroyed or decayed

◇ SYNONYMS: destruction, fall, breakdown, defeat, collapse, wreck, undoing, downfall

4 loss of wealth or position

◇ SYNONYMS: bankruptcy, insolvency, destitution

5 a destroyed or decayed building or town

6 something that is severely damaged: my heart was an aching ruin

ruination n

1 the act of ruining or the state of being ruined

2 something that causes ruin ruinous adj

1 causing ruin or destruction

2 more expensive than can reasonably be afforded: ruinous rates of exchange > ruinously adv

rule n

1 a statement of what is allowed, for example in a game or procedure

◇ SYNONYMS: regulation, law, direction, guideline, decree

2 a customary form or procedure: he has his own rule: be firm, be clear, but never be rude

3 the rule the common order of things: humanitarian gestures were more the exception than the rule

4 the exercise of governmental authority or control: under the rule of the dictator

◇ SYNONYMS: government, power, control, authority, command, regime, reign, jurisdiction, mana (NZ)

5 the period of time in which a monarch or government has power: four decades of Communist rule

◇ SYNONYMS: government, power, control, authority, command, regime, reign, jurisdiction, mana (NZ)

6 a device with a straight edge for guiding or measuring: a slide rule

7 (printing) a long thin line or dash

8 (Christianity) a systematic body of laws and customs followed by members of a religious order

9 (law) an order by a court or judge

10 as a rule usually

◇ SYNONYMS as a rule: usually, generally, mainly, normally, on the whole, ordinarily ► vb ruling, ruled

11 to govern (people or a political unit)

◇ SYNONYMS: govern, control, direct, have power over, command over, have charge of 12 to be pre-eminent or superior

◇ SYNONYMS: be prevalent, prevail, predominate, be customary, preponderate

13 to be customary or prevalent: chaos ruled as the scene turned into one of total confusion

◇ SYNONYMS: be prevalent, prevail, predominate, be customary, preponderate

14 to decide authoritatively: the judges ruled that men could be prosecuted for rape offences against their wives

◇ SYNONYMS: decree, decide, judge, settle, pronounce

15 to mark with straight parallel lines or one straight line

16 to restrain or control rule of thumb n a rough and practical approach, based on experience, rather than theory rule out vb

1 to dismiss from consideration

◇ SYNONYMS rule someone out: exclude, eliminate, disqualify, ban, reject, dismiss, prohibit, leave out

2 to make impossible

◇ SYNONYMS rule something out: reject, exclude, eliminate ruler n

1 a person who rules or commands

◇ SYNONYMS: governor, leader, lord, commander, controller, monarch, sovereign, head of state

2 a strip of wood, metal, or plastic, with straight edges, used for measuring and drawing straight lines

◇ SYNONYMS: measure, rule, yardstick ruling adj

1 controlling or exercising authority

◇ SYNONYMS: governing, reigning, controlling, commanding

2 predominant

◇ SYNONYMS: predominant, dominant, prevailing, preponderant, chief, main, principal, pre-eminent

► n

3 a decision of someone in authority

◇ SYNONYMS: decision, verdict, judgment, decree, adjudication, pronouncement rum¹ n an alcoholic drink made from sugar cane rum² adj rummer, rummest (Brit slang) strange or unusual rumba n

1 a rhythmic and syncopated dance of Cuban origin

2 music for this dance

rumble vb -bling, -bled

1 to make or cause to make a deep echoing sound: thunder rumbled overhead

2 to move with such a sound: a slow freight train rumbled past

3 (Brit slang) to find out about (someone or something): his real identity was rumbled

► n

4 a deep resonant sound

5 (slang) a gang fight > rumbling adj, n rumbustious adj boisterous or unruly ruminant n

1 a mammal that chews the cud, such as cattle, sheep, deer, goats, and camels

► adj

2 of ruminants

3 meditating or contemplating in a slow quiet way ruminate vb -nating, -nated

1 (of ruminants) to chew (the cud)

2 to meditate or ponder > rumination n

> ruminative adj

rummage vb -maging, -maged

1 to search untidily

► n

2 an untidy search through a collection of things rummy n a card game based on collecting sets and sequences rumour or (US) rumor n

1 information, often a mixture of truth and untruth, told by one person to another

◇ SYNONYMS: story, news, report, talk, word, whisper (informal), buzz, gossip, goss (informal)

2 gossip or common talk

◇ SYNONYMS: story, news, report, talk, word, whisper (informal), buzz, gossip, goss (informal)

► vb

3 be rumoured to be circulated as a rumour: he is rumoured to have at least 53 yachts

rump n

- 1 a person's buttocks
- 2 the rear part of an animal's or bird's body
- 3 Also called: rump steak a cut of beef from the rump
- 4 a small core of members within a group who remain loyal to it: the rump of the once-influential communist party rumple vb -pling, -pled to make or become crumpled or dishevelled rumpus n, pl -puses a noisy or confused commotion run vb running, ran, run

- 1 to move on foot at a rapid pace ◇ SYNONYMS: race, rush, dash, hurry, sprint, bolt, gallop, hare (Brit informal)
- 2 to pass over (a distance or route) in running: being a man isn't about running the fastest mile
- 3 to take part in (a race): I ran a decent race ◇ SYNONYMS: take part, compete
- 4 to carry out as if by running: he is running errands for his big brother
- 5 to flee
◇ SYNONYMS: flee, escape, take off (informal), bolt, beat it (slang), leg it (informal), take flight (old-fashioned), do a runner (slang)
- 6 to travel somewhere in a vehicle
- 7 to give a lift to (someone) in a vehicle: one wet day I ran her down to the service
- 8 to drive or maintain and operate (a vehicle)
- 9 to travel regularly between places on a route: trains running through the night
- 10 to move or pass quickly: he ran his hand across his forehead ◇ SYNONYMS: pass, go, move, roll, glide, skim
- 11 to function or cause to function: run the video tape backwards ◇ SYNONYMS: go, work, operate, perform, function
- 12 to manage: she ran a small hotel ◇ SYNONYMS: manage, lead, direct, be in charge of, head, control, operate, handle
- 13 to continue in a particular direction or for a particular time or distance: a road running alongside the Nile; a performing arts festival running in the city for six weeks

◇ SYNONYMS: continue, go, stretch, reach, extend, proceed

14 (law) to have legal force or effect: the lease runs for two more years

15 to be subjected to or affected by: she ran a high risk of losing her hair

16 to tend or incline: he was of medium height and running to fat

17 to recur persistently or be inherent: the capacity for infidelity ran in the genes

18 to flow or cause (liquids) to flow: sweat ran down her face

◇ SYNONYMS: flow, pour, stream, go, leak, spill, discharge, gush

19 to dissolve and spread: the soles of the shoes peeled off and the colours ran

◇ SYNONYMS: melt, dissolve, liquefy, go soft

20 (of stitches) to unravel

21 to spread or circulate: rumours ran around quickly

22 to publish or be published in a newspaper or magazine: our local newspaper ran a story on the appeal

◇ SYNONYMS: publish, feature, display, print

23 (chiefly US & Canad) to stand as a candidate for political or other office: due to announce she is running for president

◇ SYNONYMS: compete, stand, contend, be a candidate, put yourself up for, take part

24 to get past or through: the oil tanker was hit as it tried to run the blockade

25 to smuggle (goods, esp. arms)

◇ SYNONYMS: smuggle, traffic in, bootleg

26 (of fish) to migrate upstream from the sea, esp. in order to spawn

27 (cricket) to score (a run or number of runs) by hitting the ball and running between the wickets

► n

28 the act or an instance of running: he broke into a run

◇ SYNONYMS: race, rush, dash, sprint, gallop, jog, spurt

29 a distance covered by running or a period of running: it's a short run of about 20 kilometres

30 a trip in a vehicle, esp. for pleasure: our only treat is a run in the car to Dartmoor

◇ SYNONYMS: ride, drive, trip, spin (informal), outing, excursion, jaunt

31 free and unrestricted access: he had the run of the house

32

A a period of time during which a machine or computer operates

B the amount of work performed in such a period

- 33 a continuous or sustained period: a run of seven defeats ◇ SYNONYMS: sequence, period, stretch, spell, course, season, series, string
- 34 a continuous sequence of performances: the play had a long run ◇ SYNONYMS: sequence, period, stretch, spell, course, season, series, string
- 35 (cards) a sequence of winning cards in one suit: a run of spades
- 36 type, class, or category: he had nothing in common with the usual run of terrorists
- 37 a continuous and urgent demand: a run on the pound
- 38 a series of unravelled stitches, esp. in tights
- 39 a steeply inclined course, esp. a snow-covered one used for skiing
- 40 an enclosure for domestic fowls or other animals: the chicken run ◇ SYNONYMS: enclosure, pen, coop
- 41 (esp. in Australia and New Zealand) a tract of land for grazing livestock
- 42 the migration of fish upstream in order to spawn
- 43 (music) a rapid scalelike passage of notes
- 44 (cricket) a score of one, normally achieved by both batsmen running from one end of the wicket to the other after one of them has hit the ball
- 45 (baseball) an instance of a batter touching all four bases safely, thereby scoring
- 46 a run for one's money (informal)
A a close competition
B pleasure or success from an activity
- 47 in the long run as an eventual outcome
- 48 on the run escaping from arrest
- 49 the runs (slang) diarrhoea run away vb

- 1 to go away
 ◇ SYNONYMS run away: flee, escape, bolt, abscond, do a runner (slang), make a run for it, scam (informal), fly the coop (US & Canad informal), do a Skase (Austral informal)
- 2 to escape
 ◇ SYNONYMS run away: flee, escape, bolt, abscond, do a runner (slang), make a run for it, scam (informal), fly the coop (US & Canad informal), do a Skase (Austral informal)
- 3 (of a horse) to gallop away uncontrollably: the horse ran away with him
 ◇ SYNONYMS run away: flee, escape, bolt, abscond, do a runner (slang), make a run for it, scam (informal), fly the coop (US & Canad informal), do a Skase

(Austral informal)

4 run away with

A to abscond or elope with: I ran away with David

B to escape from the control of: he let his imagination run away with him

C to win easily or be certain of victory in (a competition): the Spaniards at one stage seemed to be running away with the match

► n runaway

5 a person or animal that runs away

► adj runaway

6 no longer under control: a runaway train

7 (of a race or victory) easily won run down vb

1 to be rude about: he is busy running us down and insulting other Europeans

◇ SYNONYMS run something or someone down: criticize, denigrate, belittle, knock (informal), rubbish (informal), slag (off) (slang), disparage, decry

2 to reduce in number or size: it should be possible to run down the existing hospitals almost entirely

◇ SYNONYMS run something or someone down: downsize, cut, reduce, trim, decrease, cut back, curtail, kennet (Austral slang), jeff (Austral slang)

3 (of a device such as a clock or battery) to lose power gradually and cease to function

4 to hit and knock to the ground with a moving vehicle

◇ SYNONYMS run something or someone down: knock down, hit, run into, run over, knock over

5 to pursue and find or capture: while I was there, Moscow ran me down, convinced I was ready to defect

► adj rundown

6 tired or ill

◇ SYNONYMS: exhausted, weak, drained, weary, unhealthy, worn-out, debilitated, below par

7 shabby or dilapidated

◇ SYNONYMS: dilapidated, broken-down, shabby, worn-out, seedy, ramshackle, decrepit

► n rundown

8 a reduction in number or size

9 a brief review or summary rune n

- 1 any of the characters of the earliest Germanic alphabet
 - 2 an obscure piece of writing using mysterious symbols
- > runic adj

rung¹ n

- 1 one of the bars forming the steps of a ladder
- 2 a crosspiece between the legs of a chair rung² vb the past participle of ring run into vb

- 1 to be beset by: the mission has run into difficulty ◇ SYNONYMS run into something: be beset by, encounter, come across or upon, face, experience
- 2 to meet unexpectedly ◇ SYNONYMS run into someone: meet, encounter, bump into, run across, come across or upon
- 3 to extend to: executives denied losses running into the thousands
- 4 to collide with ◇ SYNONYMS run into something: collide with, hit, strike runnel n (literary) a small stream runner n

- 1 a competitor in a race ◇ SYNONYMS: athlete, sprinter, jogger
- 2 a messenger for a firm ◇ SYNONYMS: messenger, courier, errand boy (old-fashioned), dispatch bearer
- 3 a person involved in smuggling
- 4
- A either of the strips of metal or wood on which a sledge runs
- B the blade of an ice skate
- 5 (botany) a slender horizontal stem of a plant, such as the strawberry, that grows along the surface of the soil and produces new roots and shoots

6 a long strip of cloth used to decorate a table or as a rug

7 a roller or guide for a sliding component

8 do a runner (slang) to run away to escape trouble or to avoid paying for something runner-up n, pl runners-up a person who comes second in a competition running adj

1 maintained continuously: a running battle

◇ SYNONYMS: continuous, constant, perpetual, uninterrupted, incessant

2 without interruption: for the third day running

◇ SYNONYMS: in succession, unbroken

3

A flowing: rinse them under cold running water

◇ SYNONYMS: flowing, moving, streaming, coursing

B supplied through a tap: there is no electricity, no running water, and no telephone

4 operating: running costs

5 discharging pus: a running sore

6 accomplished at a run: a running jump

7 moving or slipping easily, as a rope or a knot

► n

8 the act of moving or flowing quickly

9 management or organization: the running of the farm

◇ SYNONYMS: management, control, administration, direction, leadership, organization, supervision

10 the operation or maintenance of a machine

◇ SYNONYMS: working, performance, operation, functioning, maintenance

11 in or out of the running having or not having a good chance in a competition

12 make the running to set the pace in a competition or race runny adj -nier, -niest

1 tending to flow: a runny egg

2 producing moisture: a runny nose run-of-the-mill adj ordinary or average run out vb

1 to use up or (of a supply) to be used up: we soon ran out of gas

◇ SYNONYMS run out: be used up, dry up, give out, fail, finish, be exhausted

2 to become invalid: my passport has run out

◇ SYNONYMS run out: expire, end, terminate

3 run out on (informal) to desert or abandon 4 (cricket) to dismiss (a running batsman) by breaking the wicket with the ball while he or she is running between the wickets

► n run-out

5 (cricket) dismissal of a batsman by running him or her out run over vb

1 to knock down (a person) with a moving vehicle

◇ SYNONYMS run over something or someone: knock down, hit, run down, knock over

2 to overflow

3 to examine hastily

◇ SYNONYMS run over something: review, check, go through, go over, run through, rehearse runt n

1 the smallest and weakest young animal in a litter

2 (derogatory) an undersized or inferior person run up vb

1 to amass: running up massive debts

2 to make by sewing together quickly

3 run up against to experience (difficulties)

► n run-up

4 the time just before an event: the run-up to the elections runway n a hard level roadway where aircraft take off and land rupee n the standard monetary unit of a number of countries including India and Pakistan rupture n

1 the act of breaking or the state of being broken

◇ SYNONYMS: break, tear, split, crack, rent, burst, breach, fissure

2 a breach of peaceful or friendly relations

3 (pathol) a hernia

► vb -turing, -tured

4 to break or burst

◇ SYNONYMS: break, separate, tear, split, crack, burst, sever

5 to cause a breach in relations or friendship

6 to affect or be affected with a hernia rural adj in or of the countryside

◇ SYNONYMS: agricultural, country ruse (rooz) n an action or plan intended to mislead someone rush¹ vb

1 to move or do very quickly

◇ SYNONYMS: hurry, run, race, shoot, fly, career, speed, tear

2 to force (someone) to act hastily

3 to make a sudden attack upon (a person or place): scores of pubescent girls rushed the stage

◇ SYNONYMS: attack, storm, charge at 4 to proceed or approach in a reckless manner

5 to come or flow quickly or suddenly: the water rushed in, and the next instant the boat was swamped

► n

6 a sudden quick or violent movement

◇ SYNONYMS: dash, charge, race, scramble, stampede

7 a sudden demand or need

8 a sudden surge towards someone or something: the gold rush

9 a sudden surge of sensation

◇ SYNONYMS: surge, flow, gush

10 a sudden flow of air or liquid

11 rushes (in film-making) the initial prints of a scene before editing

► adj

12 done with speed or urgency: a rush job

◇ SYNONYMS: hasty, fast, quick, hurried, rapid, urgent, swift rush² n a plant which grows in wet places and has a slender pithy stem > rushy adj

rush hour n a period at the beginning and end of the working day when large numbers of people are travelling to or from work rusk n a hard brown crisp biscuit, often used for feeding babies

russet adj

1 (literary) reddish-brown: a disarray of russet curls

► n

2 an apple with a rough reddish-brown skin

Russian adj

1 of Russia

► n

2 a person from Russia

3 the official language of Russia and, formerly, of the Soviet Union

Russian roulette n an act of bravado in which a person spins the cylinder of a revolver loaded with only one cartridge and presses the trigger with the barrel against his or her own head rust n

1 a reddish-brown oxide coating formed on iron or steel by the action of oxygen and moisture

◇ SYNONYMS: corrosion, oxidation

2 a fungal disease of plants which produces a reddish-brown discoloration

◇ SYNONYMS: mildew, must, mould, rot, blight

► adj

3 reddish-brown

► vb

4 to become coated with a layer of rust

◇ SYNONYMS: corrode, oxidize

5 to deteriorate through lack of use: my brain had rusted up rustic adj

1 of or resembling country people

2 of or living in the country

3 crude, awkward, or uncouth

4 made of untrimmed branches: rustic furniture

► n

5 a person from the country > rusticity n

rustle¹ vb -tling, -tled

1 to make a low crisp whispering sound: the leaves rustled in the breeze

► n

2 this sound

rustle² vb -tling, -tled (chiefly US & Canad) to steal (livestock) > rustler n

rustle up vb (informal) to prepare or find at short notice: Bob rustled up a meal

rusty adj rustier, rustiest

1 affected by rust: a rusty old freighter

◇ SYNONYMS: corroded, rusted, oxidized, rust-covered

2 reddish-brown

◇ SYNONYMS: reddish-brown, chestnut, reddish, russet, coppery, rust-coloured 3 out of practice in a skill or subject: your skills may be a little rusty, but your past experience will more than make up for that

◇ SYNONYMS: out of practice, weak, stale, unpractised > rustily adv

> rustiness n

rut¹ n

1 a groove or furrow in a soft road, caused by wheels

2 dull settled habits or way of living: his career was in a rut

rut² n

1 a recurrent period of sexual excitement in certain male ruminants

► vb rutting, rutted

2 (of male ruminants) to be in a period of sexual excitement ruthenium n (chem) a rare hard brittle white metallic element. SYMBOL: Ru ruthless adj

1 feeling or showing no mercy

◇ SYNONYMS: merciless, harsh, cruel, brutal, relentless, callous, heartless, remorseless

2 thorough and forceful, regardless of effect: the ruthless pursuit of cost-effectiveness

◇ SYNONYMS: merciless, harsh, cruel, brutal, relentless, callous, heartless, remorseless > ruthlessly adv

> ruthlessness n

rye n

1 a tall grasslike cereal grown for its light brown grain

2 the grain of this plant

3 Also called: rye whiskey whiskey distilled from rye rye-grass n any of several grasses grown for fodder

Ss

s second (of time)

S

- 1 South(ern)
- 2 (chem) sulphur
- 3 (physics) siemens

SA

- 1 Salvation Army
- 2 South Africa
- 3 South America
- 4 South Australia

SAA South African Airways

Sabbath n

- 1 Saturday, observed by Jews as the day of worship and rest
- 2 Sunday, observed by Christians as the day of worship and rest sabbatical adj

- 1 denoting a period of leave granted at intervals to university teachers for rest, study, or travel: a sabbatical year
- n
- 2 a sabbatical period

SABC South African Broadcasting Corporation

sable n, pl -bles or -ble

- 1 a marten of N Asia, N Europe, and America, with dark brown luxuriant fur
- 2 the highly valued fur of this animal, used to make coats and hats
- ▶ adj
- 3 dark brown-to-black sabot (sab-oh) n a heavy wooden or wooden-soled shoe; clog sabotage n

- 1 the deliberate destruction or damage of equipment, for example by enemy agents or dissatisfied employees
- ◇ SYNONYMS: damage, destruction, wrecking
- 2 deliberate obstruction of or damage to a cause or effort
- ▶ vb -taging, -taged
- 3 to destroy or disrupt by sabotage
- ◇ SYNONYMS: damage, destroy, wreck, disable, disrupt, subvert, incapacitate, vandalize saboteur n a person who commits sabotage sabre or (US) saber n

- 1 a heavy single-edged cavalry sword with a curved blade
- 2 a light sword used in fencing, with a narrow V-shaped blade sac n a pouch or pouchlike part in an animal or plant saccharin n an artificial sweetener saccharine adj

- 1 excessively sweet or sentimental: saccharine ballads
- 2 like or containing sugar or saccharin sacerdotal adj (formal) of priests or the priesthood sachet n

- 1 a small sealed usually plastic envelope containing a small portion of a substance such as shampoo
- 2 a small soft bag of perfumed powder, placed in drawers to scent clothing sack¹ n

- 1 a large bag made of coarse cloth or thick paper and used for carrying or storing goods
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: bag, pocket, sac, pouch, receptacle
 - 2 the amount contained in a sack
 - 3 the sack (informal) dismissal from employment
 - ◇ SYNONYMS the sack: dismissal, discharge, the boot (slang), the axe (informal), the push (slang)
 - 4 (slang) bed
 - 5 hit the sack (slang) to go to bed
- vb
- 6 (informal) to dismiss from employment
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: dismiss, fire (informal), axe (informal), discharge, kiss off (slang, chiefly US & Canad), give (someone) the push (informal), kennet (Austral slang), jeff (Austral slang)
- > sacklike adj

sack² n

- 1 the plundering of a captured town or city by an army or mob
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: plundering, looting, pillage
- vb
- 2 to plunder and partially destroy (a town or city)
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: plunder, loot, pillage, strip, rob, raid, ruin

sackcloth n

- 1 garments made of such cloth, worn formerly to indicate mourning
- 2 sackcloth and ashes an exaggerated attempt to apologize or compensate for a mistake or wrongdoing sacrament n

- 1 a symbolic religious ceremony in the Christian Church, such as baptism or communion
- 2 Holy Communion
- 3 something regarded as sacred
- > sacramental adj sacred adj

- 1 exclusively devoted to a god or gods; holy
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: holy, hallowed, blessed, divine, revered, sanctified
- 2 connected with religion or intended for religious use: sacred music
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: religious, holy, ecclesiastical, hallowed
- 3 regarded as too important to be changed or interfered with: sacred principles of free speech
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: inviolable, protected, sacrosanct, hallowed, inalienable, unalterable
- 4 sacred to dedicated to: the site is sacred to Vishnu

sacrifice n

- 1 a surrender of something of value in order to gain something more desirable or prevent some evil
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: surrender, loss, giving up, rejection, abdication, renunciation, repudiation, forswearing
- 2 a ritual killing of a person or animal as an offering to a god
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: offering, oblation
- 3 a symbolic offering of something to a god
- 4 the person or animal killed or offered
- vb -ficing, -ficed
- 5 to make a sacrifice (of)
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: offer, offer up, immolate (literary)
- 6 (chess) to permit or force one's opponent to capture (a piece) as a tactical move
- > sacrificial adj

sacrilege n

- 1 the misuse of or disrespect shown to something sacred

2 disrespect for a person who is widely admired or a belief that is widely accepted: it is a sacrilege to offend democracy > sacrilegious adj

sacristan n a person in charge of the contents of a church; sexton sacristy n, pl -ties a room attached to a church or chapel where the sacred objects are kept sacrosanct adj regarded as too important to be criticized or changed: weekend rest days were considered sacrosanct by staff > sacrosanctity n

sacrum (say-krum) n, pl -cra (anatomy) the large wedge-shaped bone in the lower part of the back sad adj sadder, saddest

1 feeling sorrow; unhappy

◇ SYNONYMS: unhappy, down, low, blue, depressed, melancholy, mournful, dejected

2 causing, suggesting, or expressing sorrow: a sad story

◇ SYNONYMS: tragic, moving, upsetting, depressing, dismal, pathetic, poignant, harrowing

3 deplorably bad: the garden was in a sad state

◇ SYNONYMS: deplorable, bad, sorry, terrible, unfortunate, regrettable, lamentable, wretched

4 regrettable: it's rather sad he can't be with us

5 (Brit informal) ridiculously pathetic: a sad, boring little wimp

► n

6 pack a sad (NZ slang) to strongly express sadness or displeasure > sadly adv

> sadness n

sadden vb to make (someone) sad

◇ SYNONYMS: upset, depress, distress, grieve, make sad, deject saddle n

1 a seat for a rider, usually made of leather, placed on a horse's back and secured under its belly

2 a similar seat on a bicycle, motorcycle, or tractor

3 a cut of meat, esp. mutton, consisting of both loins

4 in the saddle in a position of control

► vb -dling, -dled

5 to put a saddle on (a horse): we saddled up at dawn

6 saddle with to burden with (a responsibility): he was also saddled with debt

◇ SYNONYMS: burden, load, lumber (Brit informal), encumber saddler n a person who makes, deals in, or repairs saddles and other leather equipment for horses saddo n (Brit informal) a person perceived as socially inadequate sadism (say-diz-zum) n the gaining of pleasure, esp. sexual pleasure, from infliction of suffering on another person > sadist n

> sadistic adj

> sadistically adv

sadomasochism n

1 the combination of sadistic and masochistic elements in one person, characterized by both submissive and aggressive periods in relationships with others

2 a sexual practice in which one partner adopts a masochistic role and the other a sadistic one > sadomasochist n

> sadomasochistic adj

s.a.e. (Brit & Austral & NZ) stamped addressed envelope safari n, pl -ris an overland expedition for hunting or observing animals, esp. in Africa safari park n an enclosed park in which wild animals are kept uncaged in the open and can be viewed by the public from cars or buses safe adj

1 giving security or protection from harm: a safe environment

◇ SYNONYMS: protected, secure, impregnable, out of danger, safe and sound, in safe hands, out of harm's way

2 free from danger: she doesn't feel safe

◇ SYNONYMS: all right, intact, unscathed, unhurt, unharmed, undamaged, O.K. or okay (informal)

3 taking or involving no risks: a safe bet

◇ SYNONYMS: risk-free, sound, secure, certain, impregnable

4 not dangerous: the beef is safe to eat

5 on the safe side as a precaution

► n

6 a strong metal container with a secure lock, for storing money or valuables

◇ SYNONYMS: strongbox, vault, coffer, repository, deposit box, safe-deposit box > safely adv

safe-conduct n

1 a document giving official permission to travel through a dangerous region, esp. in time of war

2 the protection given by such a document safeguard vb

1 to protect (someone or something) from being harmed or destroyed

◇ SYNONYMS: protect, guard, defend, save, preserve, look after, keep safe

► n

2 a person or thing that ensures protection against danger or harm: safeguards to prevent air collisions

◇ SYNONYMS: protection, security, defence, guard safekeeping n protection from theft or damage: I put my money in a bank for safekeeping safety n, pl -ties

1 the quality or state of being free from danger

◇ SYNONYMS: security, protection, safeguards, precautions, safety measures, impregnability

2 shelter: they swam to safety

◇ SYNONYMS: shelter, haven, protection, cover, retreat, asylum, refuge, sanctuary safety net n

1 a large net under a trapeze or high wire to catch performers if they fall

2 something that can be relied on for help in the event of difficulties: the social security safety net

safety pin n a pin bent back on itself so that it forms a spring, with the point shielded by a guard when closed

safety valve n

1 a valve in a boiler or machine that allows fluid or gases to escape at excess pressure

2 an outlet that allows one to express strong feelings without harming or offending other people: sport acted as a safety valve for his pent-up frustrations

saffron n

1 a type of crocus with purple or white flowers with orange stigmas

2 the dried orange-coloured stigmas of this plant, used for colouring or flavouring

► adj

3 orange-yellow sag vb sagging, sagged

1 to sink in the middle, under weight or pressure: the bed sagged nearly to the floor

◇ SYNONYMS: drop, sink, slump, flop, droop, loll

2 (of courage or spirits) to weaken or tire

◇ SYNONYMS: decline, tire, flag, weaken, wilt, wane, droop

3 (of clothes) to hang loosely or unevenly

◇ SYNONYMS: sink, bag, droop, fall, slump, dip, give way, hang loosely

4 to fall in value: the stock market sagged

► n

5 the act or state of sagging > saggy adj

saga (sah-ga) n

1 a medieval Scandinavian legend telling the adventures of a hero or a family

◇ SYNONYMS: epic, story, tale, narrative, yarn (informal)

2 (informal) a long story or series of events: the long-running saga of the hostage issue

◇ SYNONYMS: carry-on (informal), performance (informal), pantomime (informal) sagacious adj (formal) wise or sensible > sagaciously adv

> sagacity n

sage¹ n

1 a person, esp. an old man, regarded as being very wise

◇ SYNONYMS: wise man, philosopher, guru, master, elder, tohunga (NZ)

► adj

2 very wise or knowledgeable, esp. as the result of age or experience

◇ SYNONYMS: wise, sensible, judicious, sagacious (formal), sapient (ironic)

sage² n a Mediterranean plant with grey-green leaves which are used in cooking for flavouring sago n an edible starch from the powdered pith of the sago palm tree, used for puddings and as a thickening agent said adj

1 named or mentioned already: she had heard that the said woman was also a medium

► vb

2 the past of say sail n

1 a sheet of canvas or other fabric, spread on rigging to catch the wind and move a ship over water

◇ SYNONYMS: sheet, canvas

2 a voyage on such a ship: a relaxing sail across the lake

3 a ship or ships with sails: to travel by sail

4 one of the revolving arms of a windmill

5 set sail to begin a voyage by water

6 under sail

A under way

B with sail hoisted

► vb

7 to travel in a boat or ship: to sail around the world

◇ SYNONYMS: go by water, cruise, voyage, ride the waves, go by sea

8 to begin a voyage: he hoped to sail at eleven

◇ SYNONYMS: set sail, embark, get under way, put to sea, put off, leave port, hoist sail, cast or weigh anchor

9 (of a ship) to move over the water

10 to navigate (a ship): she sailed the schooner up the channel

◇ SYNONYMS: pilot, steer

11 to sail over: he had already sailed the Pacific

12 to move along smoothly

◇ SYNONYMS: glide, sweep, float, fly, wing, soar, drift, skim

13 sail into (informal) to make a violent attack on 14 sail through to progress quickly or effortlessly: the top seed sailed through to the second round sailboard n a board with a mast and a single sail, used for windsurfing sailor n

1 any member of a ship's crew, esp. one below the rank of officer

◇ SYNONYMS: mariner, marine, seaman or woman, sea dog, seafarer

2 a person considered as liable or not liable to seasickness: a good sailor

saint n

1 a person who after death is formally recognized by a Christian Church as deserving special honour because of having lived a very holy life

2 an exceptionally good person > sainthood n

> saintlike adj

saintly adj behaving in a very good, patient, or holy way > saintliness n

sake¹ n

1 for someone's or one's own sake for the benefit or in the interests of someone or oneself

◇ SYNONYMS for someone's sake: in someone's interests, to someone's advantage, on someone's account, for the benefit of, for the good of, for the welfare of, out of respect for, out of consideration for

2 for the sake of something for the purpose of obtaining or achieving something

3 for its own sake for the enjoyment obtained by doing something

4 used in various exclamations of annoyance, impatience, or urgency: for God's sake sake² or saki² (sah-kee) n a Japanese alcoholic drink made from fermented rice salaam (sal-ahm) n

1 a Muslim greeting consisting of a deep bow with the right palm on the forehead

2 a greeting signifying peace

► vb

3 to make a salaam (to) salacious adj

1 having an excessive interest in sex

2 (of books, films, or jokes) concerned with sex in an unnecessarily detailed way > salaciousness n

salad n a dish of raw vegetables, often served with a dressing, eaten as a separate course or as part of a main course salamander n

1 a tailed amphibian which looks like a lizard

2 a mythical creature supposed to live in fire salami n a highly spiced sausage, usually flavoured with garlic salaried adj earning or providing a salary: a salaried employee; a salaried position

salary n, pl -ries a fixed regular payment made by an employer, usually monthly, for professional or office work

◇ SYNONYMS: pay, income, wage, fee, payment, wages, earnings, allowance sale n

1 the exchange of goods or property for an agreed sum of money

◇ SYNONYMS: selling, marketing, dealing, transaction, disposal

2 the amount sold

3 an event at which goods are sold at reduced prices

4 an auction

◇ SYNONYMS: auction, fair, mart, bazaar

5 sales the department dealing with selling its company's products saleable or (US) salable adj fit for selling or capable of being sold > saleability or (US) salability n salesman n, pl -men a man who sells goods in a shop or within an assigned area salesmanship n the technique of or skill in selling salesperson n, pl -people or -persons a person who sells goods in a shop or within an assigned area saleswoman n, pl -women a woman who sells goods in a shop or within an assigned area salient (say-lee-ent) adj

1 (of points or facts) most important: the salient points of his speech

► n

2 (military) a projection of the forward line of an army into enemy-held territory saline (say-line) adj

1 of or containing salt: a saline flavour

2 (med) of or relating to a saline: a saline drip

► n

3 (med) a solution of sodium chloride and water > salinity n

saliva (sal-lie-va) n the watery fluid secreted by glands in the mouth, which aids digestion > salivary adj

salivate vb -vating, -vated to produce saliva, esp. an excessive amount > salivation n sallee n (Austral)

1 a SE Australian eucalyptus with a pale grey bark

2 an acacia tree sallow adj (of human skin) of an unhealthy pale or yellowish colour > sallowness n

sally n, pl -lies

1 a witty remark

2 a sudden brief attack by troops

3 an excursion

► vb -lies, -lying, -lied

4 sally forth

A to set out on a journey

B to set out in an energetic manner salmon n, pl -mons or -mon a large pink-fleshed fish which is highly valued for food and sport: salmon live in the sea but return to fresh water to spawn salmonella (sal-mon-ell-a) n a kind of bacteria that can cause food poisoning salon n

- 1 a commercial establishment in which hairdressers or fashion designers carry on their business
- 2 an elegant room in a large house in which guests are received
- 3 an informal gathering, esp. in the 18th, 19th, and early 20th centuries, of major literary, artistic, and political figures in a fashionable household
- 4 an art exhibition saloon n

- 1 a two-door or four-door car with a fixed roof
- 2 a comfortable but more expensive bar in a pub or hotel
- 3 a large public room on a passenger ship
- 4 (chiefly US & Canad) a place where alcoholic drink is sold and consumed salt n

- 1 sodium chloride, a white crystalline substance, used for seasoning and preserving food
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: seasoning
- 2 (chem) a crystalline solid compound formed from an acid by replacing its hydrogen with a metal
- 3 lively wit: his humour added salt to the discussion
- 4 old salt an experienced sailor
- 5 rub salt into someone's wounds to make an unpleasant situation even worse for someone
- 6 salt of the earth a person or people regarded as the finest of their kind
- 7 take something with a pinch of salt to refuse to believe something is completely true or accurate
- 8 worth one's salt worthy of one's pay; efficient
 - vb
- 9 to season or preserve with salt
- 10 to scatter salt over (an iced road or path) to melt the ice
 - adj
- 11 preserved in or tasting of salt: salt beef
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: salty, saline, brackish, briny
 - > salted adj

saltbush n a shrub that grows in alkaline desert regions saltire n

1 (heraldry) a diagonal cross on a shield

2 the national flag of Scotland, a white diagonal cross on a blue background salty adj saltier, saltiest

1 of, tasting of, or containing salt

2 (esp. of humour) sharp and witty > saltiness n

salubrious adj favourable to health > salubrity n

Saluki n a tall hound with a smooth coat and long fringes on the ears and tail salutary adj

1 (of an experience) producing a beneficial result despite being unpleasant: a salutary reminder

2 promoting health salutation n (formal) a greeting by words or actions salute vb -luting, -luted

1 to greet with friendly words or gestures of respect, such as bowing

◇ SYNONYMS: greet, welcome, acknowledge, address, hail, mihi (NZ)

2 to acknowledge with praise: the statement salutes the changes of the past year

◇ SYNONYMS: honour, acknowledge, recognize, pay tribute or homage to 3 (military) to pay formal respect to (someone) by raising the right hand to the forehead

► n

- 4 the act of saluting as a formal military gesture of respect
- 5 the act of firing guns as a military greeting of honour salvage n

- 1 the rescue of a ship or its cargo from loss at sea
- 2 the saving of any goods or property from destruction or waste
- 3 the goods or property so saved
- 4 compensation paid for the salvage of a ship or its cargo
- vb -vaging, -vaged
- 5 to save (goods or property) from shipwreck, destruction, or waste
- ◇ SYNONYMS: save, recover, rescue, get back, retrieve, redeem
- 6 to gain (something beneficial) from a failure: it's too late to salvage anything from the whole dismal display
- > salvageable adj

salvation n

- 1 the act of preserving someone or something from harm
- ◇ SYNONYMS: saving, rescue, recovery, salvage, redemption, deliverance
- 2 a person or thing that preserves from harm
- 3 (Christianity) the fact or state of being saved from the influence or consequences of sin salve n

- 1 an ointment for wounds
- 2 anything that heals or soothes
- vb salving, salved
- 3 salve one's conscience to do something in order to feel less guilty salver n a tray, usually a silver one, on which something is presented salvia n any small plant or shrub of the sage genus salvo n, pl -vos or -voes

- 1 a simultaneous discharge of guns in battle or on a ceremonial occasion
- 2 an outburst of applause or questions sal volatile (sal vol-at-ill-ee) n a solution of ammonium carbonate, used as smelling salts

SAM surface-to-air missile

Samaritan n

- 1 short for Good Samaritan
- 2 a member of a voluntary organization (the Samaritans) which offers counselling to people in despair, esp. by telephone

samba n, pl -bas

- 1 a lively Brazilian dance
- 2 music for this dance

same adj (usually preceded by the)

- 1 being the very one: she is wearing the same hat ◇ SYNONYMS: the very same, one and the same, selfsame
- 2 being the one previously referred to: it causes problems for the same reason ◇ SYNONYMS: aforementioned, aforesaid
- 3 alike in kind or quantity: the same age ◇ SYNONYMS: identical, similar, alike, equal, twin, corresponding, duplicate
- 4 unchanged in character or nature: his attitude is the same as ever ◇ SYNONYMS: unchanged, consistent, constant, unaltered, invariable, unvarying, changeless
- 5 all the same or just the same nevertheless; even so
- 6 be all the same to be a matter of indifference: it was all the same to me
► adv
- 7 in the same way; similarly: I felt much the same
► n
- 8 the same something that is like something else in kind or quantity: this is basically much more of the same

> sameness n

samovar n a Russian metal tea urn in which the water is heated by an inner container

Samoyed n a dog with a thick white coat and a tightly curled tail sampan n a small flat-bottomed boat with oars, used esp. in China samphire n a European plant found on rocks by the seashore, with aromatic leaves sometimes eaten as a vegetable sample n

1 a small part of anything, taken as being representative of a whole

◇ SYNONYMS: specimen, example, model, pattern, instance

► vb -pling, -pled

2 to take a sample or samples of ◇ SYNONYMS: test, try, experience, taste, inspect

3 (music)

A to take a short extract from (one record) and mix it into a different backing track

B to record (a sound) and feed it into a computerized synthesizer so that it can be reproduced at any pitch > sampling n

sampler n

1 a piece of embroidery done to show the embroiderer's skill in using many different stitches

2 (music) a piece of electronic equipment used for sampling samurai n, pl -rai a member of the aristocratic warrior caste of feudal Japan sanatorium or (US) sanitarium n, pl -riums or -ria

1 an institution providing medical treatment and rest for invalids or convalescents

2 (Brit) a room in a boarding school where sick pupils may be treated sanctify vb -fies, -fying, -fied

1 to make holy

2 to free from sin

3 to approve (an action or practice) as religiously binding: she is trying to make amends for her marriage not being sanctified > sanctification n sanctimonious adj pretending to be very religious and virtuous sanction n

1 permission granted by authority: official sanction

◇ SYNONYMS: permission, backing, authority, approval, authorization, O.K. or okay (informal), stamp or seal of approval

2 support or approval: they could not exist without his sanction

◇ SYNONYMS: permission, backing, authority, approval, authorization, O.K. or okay (informal), stamp or seal of approval

3 something that gives binding force to a law, such as a penalty for breaking it or a reward for obeying it

4 sanctions coercive measures, such as boycotts and trade embargoes, taken by one or more states against another guilty of violating international law

◇ SYNONYMS: ban, boycott, embargo, exclusion, penalty, coercive measures

► vb

5 to officially approve of or allow: they do not want to sanction direct payments

◇ SYNONYMS: permit, allow, approve, endorse, authorize

6 to confirm or ratify sanctity n the quality of something considered so holy or important it must be respected totally: the sanctity of the Sabbath; the sanctity of marriage

sanctuary n, pl -aries

1 a holy place, such as a consecrated building or shrine

2 the part of a church nearest the main altar

3 a place of refuge or protection for someone who is being chased or hunted

◇ SYNONYMS: protection, shelter, refuge, haven, retreat, asylum

4 refuge or safety: the sanctuary of your own home

◇ SYNONYMS: protection, shelter, refuge, haven, retreat, asylum

5 a place, protected by law, where animals can live and breed without interference ◇ SYNONYMS: reserve, park, preserve, reservation, national park, tract, nature reserve, conservation area sanctum n, pl -tums or -ta

1 a sacred or holy place

2 a room or place of total privacy sand n

1 a powdery substance consisting of very small rock or mineral grains, found on the seashore and in deserts

2 sands a large sandy area, esp. on the seashore or in a desert

► vb

3 to smooth or polish the surface of (something) with sandpaper or a sander

4 to fill with sand: the channel sanded up sandal n a light shoe consisting of a sole held on the foot by thongs or straps > sandalled or (US) sandaled adj sandalwood n

1 the hard light-coloured wood of a S Asian or Australian tree, which is used for carving and for incense, and which yields an aromatic oil used in perfumes

2 a tree yielding this wood sandbag n

1 a sack filled with sand used to make a temporary defence against gunfire or flood water

► vb -bagging, -bagged

2 to protect or strengthen with sandbags sandblast n

1 a jet of sand blown from a nozzle under air or steam pressure

► vb

2 to clean or decorate (a surface) with a sandblast > sandblaster n

sander n a power-driven tool for smoothing surfaces, removing layers of paint from walls, etc.

S & M (informal) sadomasochism sandpaper n

1 a strong paper coated with sand or other abrasive material for smoothing or polishing a surface

► vb

2 to smooth or polish (a surface) with sandpaper sandpiper n a wading shore bird with a long bill and slender legs sandstone n a sedimentary rock consisting mainly of sand grains, much used in building sandstorm n a strong wind that whips up clouds of sand, esp. in a desert sandwich n

1 two or more slices of bread, usually buttered, with a layer of food between them

► vb

2 to place between two other things: shops sandwiched between flats sandwich board n one of two connected boards that are hung over the shoulders in front of and behind a person to display advertisements

sandy adj sandier, sandiest

1 resembling, containing, or covered with sand

2 (of hair) reddish-yellow > sandiness n

sane adj

1 having a healthy mind

◇ SYNONYMS: rational, of sound mind, compos mentis (Latin), in your right mind, mentally sound

2 sensible or well-judged: sane advice

◇ SYNONYMS: sensible, sound, reasonable, balanced, judicious, level-headed, grounded sang vb the past tense of sing sang-froid (sahng-frwah) n composure and calmness in a difficult situation sangoma (sang-go-ma) n (S African) a witch doctor sanguinary adj (formal)

1 (of a battle or fight) involving much violence and bloodshed

2 (of a person) eager to see violence and bloodshed

3 of or stained with blood sanguine adj

- 1 cheerful and confident
- 2 (of the complexion) ruddy sanitary adj

- 1 promoting health by getting rid of dirt and germs
- 2 free from dirt or germs; hygienic sanitation n

- 1 the use of sanitary measures to maintain public health
- 2 the drainage and disposal of sewage sanity n

- 1 the state of having a healthy mind
- 2 good sense or soundness of judgment sank vb the past tense of sink

Sanskrit n the classical literary language of India, used since ancient times for religious purposes

> Sanskritic adj

sap¹ n

- 1 a thin liquid that circulates in a plant, carrying food and water
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: juice, essence, vital fluid, lifeblood
- 2 (slang) a gullible person
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: fool, idiot, wally (slang), twit (informal), ninny, dorba or dorb (Austral slang)
- vb sapping, sapped
- 3 to drain of sap

sap² vb sapping, sapped

- 1 to weaken or exhaust the strength or confidence of

◇ SYNONYMS: weaken, drain, undermine, exhaust, deplete

2 to undermine (an enemy position) by digging saps

► n

3 a deep and narrow trench used to approach or undermine an enemy position sapient (say-pee-ent) adj (often humorous) having great wisdom or sound judgment > sapience n

sapling n a young tree sapper n

1 a soldier who digs trenches

2 (in the British Army) a private of the Royal Engineers sapphire n

1 a transparent blue precious stone

► adj

2 deep blue sarabande or saraband n

1 a stately slow Spanish dance

2 music for this dance

Saracen n

1 an Arab or Muslim who opposed the Crusades

► adj

2 of the Saracens sarcasm n

1 mocking or ironic language intended to insult someone

2 the use or tone of such language sarcastic adj

1 full of or showing sarcasm

2 tending to use sarcasm: a sarcastic critic

> sarcastically adv

sarcophagus (sahr-koff-a-guss) n, pl -gi (-guy) or -guses a stone or marble coffin or tomb, esp. one bearing sculpture or inscriptions

sardine n, pl -dines or -dine

1 a small fish of the herring family, often preserved in tightly packed tins

2 like sardines very closely crowded together sardonic adj (of behaviour) mocking or scornful > sardonically adv

sargassum n a floating brown seaweed with long stringy fronds containing air sacs sari or saree n, pl -ris or -rees the traditional dress of Hindu women, consisting of a very long piece of cloth swathed around the body with one end over the shoulder sarmie n (S African children's slang) a sandwich sarong n a garment worn by Malaysian men and women, consisting of a long piece of cloth tucked around the waist or under the armpits sarsaparilla n a nonalcoholic drink prepared from the roots of a tropical American climbing plant sartorial adj (formal) of men's clothes or tailoring: sartorial elegance

SAS (in Britain) Special Air Service sash¹ n a long piece of cloth worn around the waist or over one shoulder, usually as a symbol of rank sash² n

1 a frame that contains the panes of a window or door

2 a complete frame together with panes of glass sash window n a window consisting of two sashes placed one above the other so that the window can be opened by sliding one frame over the front of the other sassafras n a tree of North America, with aromatic bark used medicinally and as a flavouring

Sassenach n (Scot, sometimes Irish) an English person sat vb the past of sit

Satan n the Devil satanic adj

1 of Satan

2 supremely evil or wicked

◇ SYNONYMS: evil, demonic, hellish, black, wicked, devilish, infernal (informal), fiendish

Satanism n the worship of Satan

> Satanist n, adj

satay (sat-ay) n an Indonesian and Malaysian dish consisting of pieces of chicken, pork, etc., grilled on skewers and served with peanut sauce

satchel n a small bag, usually with a shoulder strap sate vb sating, sated to satisfy (a desire or appetite) fully satellite n

1 a man-made device orbiting the earth or another planet, used in communications or to collect scientific information

2 a heavenly body orbiting a planet or star: the earth is a satellite of the sun

3 a country controlled by or dependent on a more powerful one

► adj

4 of, used in, or relating to the transmission of television signals from a satellite to the home: satellite TV; a satellite dish

satiate (say-she-ate) vb -ating, -ated to provide with more than enough, so as to disgust or weary: enough cakes to satiate several children

> satiable adj

> satiation n

satiety (sat-tie-a-tee) n (formal) the feeling of having had too much satin n

1 a fabric, usually made from silk or rayon, closely woven to give a smooth glossy surface on one side

► adj

2 like satin in texture: satin polyurethane varnish

> satiny adj

satinwood n

- 1 a hard wood with a satiny texture, used in fine furniture
- 2 the Asian tree yielding this wood satire n

- 1 the use of ridicule to expose incompetence, evil, or corruption
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: mockery, irony, ridicule
- 2 a play, novel, or poem containing satire
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: parody, mockery, caricature, lampoon, burlesque
 - > satirical adj

satirist n

- 1 a writer of satire
- 2 a person who uses satire satirize or -rise vb -rizing, -rized or -rising, -rised to ridicule (a person or thing) by means of satire > satirization or -risation n satisfaction n

- 1 the pleasure obtained from the fulfilment of a desire
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: fulfilment, pleasure, achievement, relish, gratification, pride
- 2 something that brings fulfilment: craft workers get satisfaction from their work
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: contentment, content, comfort, pleasure, happiness, enjoyment, satiety, repletion
- 3 compensation or an apology for a wrong done: consumers unable to get satisfaction from their gas supplier

satisfactory adj

- 1 adequate or acceptable
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: adequate, acceptable, good enough, average, fair, all right, sufficient, passable
- 2 giving satisfaction > satisfactorily adv

satisfy vb -fies, -fying, -fied

1 to fulfil the desires or needs of (a person): his answer didn't satisfy me

◇ SYNONYMS: content, please, indulge, gratify, pander to, assuage, pacify, quench

2 to provide sufficiently for (a need or desire): to satisfy public demand

◇ SYNONYMS: comply with, meet, fulfil, answer, serve, fill, observe, obey

3 to convince: that trip did seem to satisfy her that he was dead

◇ SYNONYMS: convince, persuade, assure, reassure

4 to fulfil the requirements of: unable to satisfy the conditions set by the commission

> satisfiable adj > satisfying adj

satnav n (motoring, informal) satellite navigation satsuma n a small loose-skinned variety of orange with easily separable segments saturate vb -rating, -rated

1 to soak completely

◇ SYNONYMS: soak, steep, drench, imbue, suffuse, wet through, waterlog, souse

2 to fill so completely that no more can be added: saturating the area with their men

◇ SYNONYMS: flood, overwhelm, swamp, overrun

3 (chem) to combine (a substance) or (of a substance) to be combined with the greatest possible amount of another substance

saturation n

1 the process or state that occurs when one substance is filled so full of another substance that no more can be added

2 (military) the use of very heavy force, esp. bombing, against an area

Saturday n the seventh day of the week

Saturn n

- 1 the Roman god of agriculture and vegetation
- 2 the sixth planet from the sun, second largest in the solar system, around which revolve concentric rings

Saturnalia n, pl -lia or -lias

- 1 the ancient Roman festival of Saturn, renowned for its unrestrained revelry
- 2 saturnalia a wild party or orgy saturnine adj having a gloomy temperament or appearance satyr n

- 1 (Greek myth) a woodland god represented as having a man's body with the ears, horns, tail, and legs of a goat
- 2 a man who has strong sexual desires sauce n

- 1 a liquid added to food to enhance its flavour ◇ SYNONYMS: dressing, dip, relish, condiment
- 2 anything that adds interest or zest
- 3 (chiefly Brit informal) impudent language or behaviour saucepan n a metal pan with a long handle and often a lid, used for cooking food saucer n

- 1 a small round dish on which a cup is set
 - 2 something shaped like a saucer
- > saucerful n

saucy adj saucier, sauciest

1 cheeky or slightly rude in an amusing and light-hearted way

2 jaunty and boldly smart: a saucy hat > sauciness n

sauerkraut n a German dish of finely shredded pickled cabbage sauna n

1 a Finnish-style hot steam bath, usually followed by a cold plunge

2 the place in which such a bath is taken saunter vb

1 to walk in a leisurely manner; stroll

► n

2 a leisurely pace or stroll sausage n

1 finely minced meat mixed with fat, cereal, and seasonings, in a tube-shaped casing

◇ SYNONYMS: banger

2 an object shaped like a sausage

3 not a sausage (informal) nothing at all sausage roll n a roll of sausage meat in pastry sauté (so-tay) vb -téing, -téed

1 to fry (food) quickly in a little fat

► n

2 a dish of sautéed food

► adj

3 sautéed until lightly brown: sauté potatoes savage adj

1 wild and untamed: savage tigers

◇ SYNONYMS: wild, fierce, ferocious, unbroken, feral, untamed, undomesticated

2 fierce and cruel: savage cries

◇ SYNONYMS: cruel, brutal, vicious, fierce, harsh, ruthless, ferocious, sadistic

3 (of peoples) uncivilized or primitive: savage tribes

◇ SYNONYMS: primitive, undeveloped, uncultivated, uncivilized

4 rude, crude, and violent: savage behaviour on the terraces

◇ SYNONYMS: cruel, brutal, vicious, fierce, harsh, ruthless, ferocious, sadistic

5 (of terrain) wild and uncultivated

◇ SYNONYMS: uncultivated, rugged, unspoilt, uninhabited, rough, uncivilized

► n

6 a member of an uncivilized or primitive society

7 a fierce or vicious person

◇ SYNONYMS: lout, yob (Brit slang), barbarian, yahoo, hoon (Austral & NZ informal), boor, cougan (Austral slang), scozza (Austral slang), bogan (Austral slang)

► vb -vaging, -vaged

8 to attack ferociously and wound: savaged by a wild dog

◇ SYNONYMS: maul, tear, claw, attack, mangle, lacerate, mangle (Austral slang)

9 to criticize extremely severely: savaged by the press for incompetence > savagely adv

savagery n, pl -ries viciousness and cruelty savannah or savanna n open grasslands, usually with scattered bushes or trees, in Africa savant or (fem) savante n a very wise and knowledgeable person save vb saving, saved

1 to rescue or preserve (a person or thing) from danger or harm

◇ SYNONYMS: rescue, free, release, deliver, recover, get out, liberate, salvage

2 to avoid the spending, waste, or loss of (something): an appeal on television for the public to save energy

◇ SYNONYMS: keep, reserve, set aside, store, collect, gather, hold, hoard

3 to set aside or reserve (money or goods) for future use: I'm saving for a vintage Mercedes

◇ SYNONYMS: put aside, keep, reserve, collect, retain, set aside, put by 4 to treat with care so as to preserve

◇ SYNONYMS: protect, keep, guard, preserve, look after, safeguard, salvage, conserve

5 to give a computer an instruction to store (newly entered data)

6 to prevent the necessity for: a chance saved him from having to make up his mind

7 (sport) to prevent (a goal) by stopping (a ball or puck)

8 (Christianity) to free (someone) from the influence or consequences of sin

► n

9 (sport) the act of saving a goal

10 (computers) the act or process of saving data to a storage location > savable or saveable adj > saver n saveloy n (Brit & Austral & NZ) a highly seasoned smoked sausage made from salted pork saving n

1 preservation from destruction or danger

2 a reduction in the amount of time or money used

◇ SYNONYMS: economy, discount, reduction, bargain

3 savings money saved for future use

◇ SYNONYMS: nest egg, fund, store, reserves, resources

► adj

4 tending to rescue or preserve

► prep

5 with the exception of saviour or (US) savior n a person who rescues another person or a thing from danger or harm

◇ SYNONYMS: rescuer, deliverer, defender, protector, liberator, redeemer, preserver

Saviour or (US) Savior n (Christianity) Jesus Christ, regarded as the saviour of people from sin

◇ SYNONYMS: Christ, Jesus, the Messiah, the Redeemer savoir-faire (sav-wahr-fair) n the ability to say and do the right thing in any situation savory n, pl -vories an aromatic plant whose leaves are used in cooking savour or (US) savor vb

1 to enjoy and appreciate (food or drink) slowly

◇ SYNONYMS: enjoy, appreciate, relish, delight in, revel in, luxuriate in

2 to enjoy (a pleasure) for as long as possible: an experience to be savoured

◇ SYNONYMS: relish, delight in, revel in, luxuriate in 3 savour of

A to have a suggestion of: that could savour of ostentation

B to possess the taste or smell of: the vegetables savoured of coriander

► n

4 the taste or smell of something

◇ SYNONYMS: flavour, taste, smell, relish, smack, tang, piquancy

5 a slight but distinctive quality or trace savoury or (US) savory adj

1 salty or spicy: savoury foods

2 attractive to the sense of taste or smell

3 pleasant or acceptable: one of the book's less savoury characters

► n, pl -ries

4 (chiefly Brit) a savoury dish served before or after a meal > savouriness or (US) savoriness n savoy n a cabbage with a compact head and wrinkled leaves savvy (slang) vb -vies, -vying, -vied

1 to understand

► n

2 understanding or common sense

► adj

3 shrewd saw¹ n

1 a cutting tool with a toothed metal blade or edge, either operated by hand or powered by electricity

► vb sawing, sawed, sawed or sawn

2 to cut with or as if with a saw

3 to form by sawing

4 to move (an object) from side to side as if moving a saw saw² vb the past tense of see saw³ n (old-fashioned) a wise saying or proverb sawdust n particles of wood formed by sawing sawfish n, pl -fish or -fishes a sharklike ray with a long toothed snout resembling a saw sawmill n a factory where timber is sawn into planks sawyer n a person who saws timber for a living sax n (informal) short for saxophone saxifrage n an alpine rock plant with small white, yellow, purple, or pink flowers

Saxon n

1 a member of a West Germanic people who raided and settled parts of Britain in the fifth and sixth centuries AD

2 any of the West Germanic dialects spoken by the ancient Saxons

► adj

3 of the ancient Saxons or their language saxophone n a brass wind instrument with keys and a curved metal body > saxophonist n

say vb saying, said

1 to speak or utter

◇ SYNONYMS: speak, utter, voice, express, pronounce

2 to express (an idea) in words: I can't say what I feel

◇ SYNONYMS: state, declare, remark, announce, maintain, mention, assert, affirm

3 to state (an opinion or fact) positively: I say you are wrong

4 to indicate or show: the clock says ten to nine

5 to recite: to say grace

6 to report or allege: they say we shall have rain today

7 to suppose as an example or possibility: let us say that he is lying

◇ SYNONYMS: suppose, imagine, assume, presume

8 to convey by means of artistic expression: what does the artist have to say in this picture?

◇ SYNONYMS: suggest, express, imply, communicate, disclose, give away, convey, divulge

9 to make a case for: there is much to be said for it

10 go without saying to be so obvious as to need no explanation

11 to say the least at the very least

► adv

12 approximately: there were, say, 20 people present

13 for example: choose a number, say, four

► n

14 the right or chance to speak: the opposition has hardly had a say in these affairs

◇ SYNONYMS: chance to speak, vote, voice

15 authority, esp. to influence a decision: he has a lot of say

◇ SYNONYMS: influence, power, control, authority, weight, clout (informal), mana (NZ) saying n a well-known phrase or sentence expressing a belief or a truth ◇ SYNONYMS: proverb, maxim, adage, dictum, axiom, aphorism scab n

- 1 the dried crusty surface of a healing skin wound or sore
- 2 (derogatory) a person who refuses to support a trade union's actions, and continues to work during a strike
- 3 a contagious disease of sheep, caused by a mite
- 4 a fungal disease of plants
- vb scabbing, scabbed
- 5 to become covered with a scab
- 6 (derogatory) to work as a scab scabbard n a holder for a sword or dagger scabby adj -bier, -biest

- 1 (pathol) covered with scabs
- 2 (informal) mean or despicable
- > scabbiness n

scabies (skay-beez) n a contagious skin infection caused by a mite, characterized by intense itching scabrous (skay-bruss) adj

- 1 rough and scaly
- 2 indecent or crude: scabrous stand-up comedy

scaffold n

- 1 a temporary framework used to support workers and materials during the construction or repair of a building
- 2 a raised wooden platform on which criminals are hanged; gallows scaffolding n

- 1 a scaffold or scaffolds

2 the building materials used to make scaffolds scalar (maths) n

1 a quantity, such as time or temperature, that has magnitude but not direction

► adj

2 having magnitude but not direction scald vb

1 to burn with hot liquid or steam

2 to sterilize with boiling water

3 to heat (a liquid) almost to boiling point

► n

4 a burn caused by scalding scale¹ n

1 one of the thin flat overlapping plates covering the bodies of fishes and reptiles

◇ SYNONYMS: flake, plate, layer, lamina

2 a thin flat piece or flake

◇ SYNONYMS: flake, plate, layer, lamina

3 a coating which sometimes forms in kettles and hot-water pipes in areas where the water is hard

4 tartar formed on the teeth

► vb scaling, scaled

5 to remove the scales or coating from 6 to peel off in flakes or scales

7 to cover or become covered with scales > scaly adj

scale² n

1 (often pl) a machine or device for weighing

2 one of the pans of a balance

3 tip the scales to have a decisive influence

4 tip the scales at to amount in weight to scale³ n

1 a sequence of marks at regular intervals, used as a reference in making measurements

◇ SYNONYMS: system of measurement, measuring system

2 a measuring instrument with such a scale

3 the ratio between the size of something real and that of a representation of it: the map has a scale of 1:10 000

◇ SYNONYMS: ratio, proportion

4 a series of degrees or graded system of things: the Western wage scale for the same work

◇ SYNONYMS: ranking, ladder, hierarchy, series, sequence, progression

5 a relative degree or extent: growing flowers on a very small scale

◇ SYNONYMS: degree, size, range, extent, dimensions, scope, magnitude, breadth

6 (music) a sequence of notes taken in ascending or descending order, esp. within one octave

7 (maths) the notation of a given number system: the decimal scale

► vb scaling, scaled

8 to climb to the top of (an object or height): the men scaled a wall

◇ SYNONYMS: climb up, mount, ascend, surmount, clamber up, escalate

9 scale up or down to increase or reduce proportionately in size: the design can easily be scaled up; after five days the search was scaled down

scalene adj (maths) (of a triangle) having all sides of unequal length scallop n

1 an edible marine mollusc with two fluted fan-shaped shells

2 a single shell of this mollusc

3 one of a series of small curves along an edge > scalloping n

scalloped adj decorated with small curves along the edge scallywag n (informal) a badly behaved but likeable person; rascal scalp n

1 (anatomy) the skin and hair covering the top of the head

2 (formerly among Native Americans of N America) a part of this removed as a trophy from a slain enemy

► vb

3 to cut the scalp from 4 (informal, chiefly US) to buy and resell so as to make a high or quick profit scalpel n a small surgical knife with a very sharp thin blade scam n (slang) a stratagem for gain; a swindle scamp n a mischievous person, esp. a child scamper vb

1 to run about hurriedly or quickly

► n

2 the act of scampering scampi n large prawns, usually eaten fried in breadcrumbs scan vb scanning, scanned

1 to scrutinize carefully

◇ SYNONYMS: survey, search, investigate, sweep, scour, scrutinize

2 to glance over quickly

◇ SYNONYMS: glance over, skim, look over, eye, check, examine, check out (informal), run over, surf (computers)

3 (prosody) to analyse (verse) by examining its rhythmic structure

4 (prosody) (of a line or verse) to be metrically correct

5 to examine or search (an area) by systematically moving a beam of light or electrons, or a radar or sonar beam over it

6 (med) to obtain an image of (a part of the body) by means of ultrasound or a scanner

► n

7 an instance of scanning

8 (med)

A the examination of part of the body by means of a scanner

B the image produced by a scanner scandal n

1 a disgraceful action or event: the manager resigned after a loans scandal

◇ SYNONYMS: disgrace, crime, offence, sin, embarrassment, wrongdoing, dishonourable behaviour, discreditable behaviour

2 shame or outrage arising from a disgraceful action or event: the figures were a national scandal

◇ SYNONYMS: outrage, shame, insult, disgrace, injustice, crying shame

3 malicious gossip

◇ SYNONYMS: gossip, goss (informal), talk, rumours, dirt (informal), slander, tattle, aspersion > scandalous adj

> scandalously adv

scandalize or -ise vb -izing, -ized or -ising, -ised to shock (someone) or be shocked by improper behaviour

Scandinavian adj

1 of Scandinavia (Norway, Sweden, Denmark, and often Finland, Iceland, and the Faeroe Islands)

► n

2 a person from Scandinavia

3 the northern group of Germanic languages, consisting of Swedish, Danish, Norwegian, Icelandic, and Faeroese scandium n (chem) a rare silvery-white metallic element. SYMBOL: Sc

scanner n

1 an aerial or similar device designed to transmit or receive signals, esp. radar signals

2 a device used in medical diagnosis to obtain an image of an internal organ or part scansion n the metrical scanning of verse scant adj scarcely sufficient: some issues will get scant attention

◇ SYNONYMS: inadequate, meagre, sparse, little, minimal, barely sufficient scanty adj scantier, scantiest barely sufficient or not sufficient > scantily adv

> scantiness n

scapegoat n

1 a person made to bear the blame for others

◇ SYNONYMS: fall guy, whipping boy

► vb

2 to make a scapegoat of scapula (skap-pew-la) n, pl -lae (-lee) the technical name for shoulder blade scapular adj

1 (anatomy) of the scapula

► n

2 a loose sleeveless garment worn by monks over their habits scar n

1 a mark left on the skin following the healing of a wound

◇ SYNONYMS: mark, injury, wound, blemish

2 a permanent effect on a person's character resulting from emotional distress

◇ SYNONYMS: trauma, suffering, pain, torture, anguish

3 a mark on a plant where a leaf was formerly attached

4 a mark of damage

► vb scarring, scarred

5 to mark or become marked with a scar

◇ SYNONYMS: mark, disfigure, damage, mar, mutilate, blemish, deface

6 to permanently effect or be permanently affected by mental trauma: the disaster will scar the victims for life

scarab n

1 the black dung-beetle, regarded by the ancient Egyptians as divine

2 an image or carving of this beetle scarce adj

1 insufficient to meet the demand: scarce water resources

◇ SYNONYMS: in short supply, insufficient

2 not common; rarely found

◇ SYNONYMS: rare, few, uncommon, few and far between, infrequent

3 make oneself scarce (informal) to go away

► adv

4 (archaic, literary) scarcely scarcely adv

1 hardly at all

◇ SYNONYMS: hardly, barely

2 (often humorous) probably or definitely not: that is scarcely justification for your actions

◇ SYNONYMS: by no means, hardly, definitely not scarcity n, pl -ties an inadequate supply scare vb scaring, scared

1 to frighten or be frightened

◇ SYNONYMS: frighten, alarm, terrify, panic, shock, startle, intimidate, dismay

2 scare away or off to drive away by frightening

► n

3 a sudden attack of fear or alarm: you gave me a scare

◇ SYNONYMS: fright, shock, start

4 a period of general fear or alarm: the bird flu scare

◇ SYNONYMS: panic, hysteria scarecrow n

1 an object, usually in the shape of a man, made out of sticks and old clothes, to scare birds away from crops

2 (informal) a raggedly dressed person scaremonger n a person who starts or spreads rumours of disaster to frighten people > scaremongering n

scarf¹ n, pl scarves or scarfs a piece of material worn around the head, neck, or shoulders scarf² n, pl scarfs

1 a joint between two pieces of timber made by notching the ends and strapping or gluing the two pieces together

► vb

2 to join (two pieces of timber) by means of a scarf scarify vb -fies, -fying, -fied

1 (surgery) to make slight incisions in (the skin)

2 (agriculture) to break up and loosen (topsoil)

3 to criticize without mercy > scarification n scarlatina n the technical name for scarlet fever scarlet adj bright red scarlet fever n an acute contagious disease characterized by fever, a sore throat, and a red rash on the body scarp n

1 a steep slope or ridge of rock

2 (fortifications) the side of a ditch cut nearest to a rampart scarper vb (chiefly Brit slang) to run away or escape scary adj scarier, scariest (informal) quite frightening ◇ SYNONYMS: frightening, alarming, terrifying, chilling, horrifying, spooky (informal), creepy (informal), spine-chilling scat¹ vb scatting, scatted (informal) to go away in haste scat² n

1 a type of jazz singing using improvised vocal sounds instead of words

► vb scatting, scatted

2 to sing jazz in this way scathing adj harshly critical: there was a scathing review of the play in the paper

> scathingly adv

scatology n preoccupation with obscenity, esp. with references to excrement > scatological adj

scatter vb

1 to throw about in various directions: scatter some oatmeal on top of the cake

◇ SYNONYMS: throw about, spread, sprinkle, strew, shower, fling, diffuse, disseminate

2 to separate and move in various directions; disperse: the infantry were scattering

◇ SYNONYMS: disperse, dispel, disband, dissipate

► n

3 the act of scattering

4 a number of objects scattered about scatterbrain n a person who is incapable of serious thought or concentration > scatterbrained adj

scatty adj -tier, -tiest (informal) rather absent-minded > scattiness n

scavenge vb -enging, -enged to search for (anything usable) among discarded material scavenger n

1 a person who collects things discarded by others

2 any animal that feeds on discarded or decaying matter scenario n, pl -narios

1 a summary of the plot and characters of a play or film

◇ SYNONYMS: story line, résumé, outline, summary, synopsis

2 an imagined sequence of future events: the likeliest scenario is another general election

◇ SYNONYMS: situation scene n

1 the place where an action or event, real or imaginary, occurs

◇ SYNONYMS: setting, set, background, location, backdrop

2 an incident or situation, real or imaginary, esp. as described or represented

3 a division of an act of a play, in which the setting is fixed and the action is continuous

◇ SYNONYMS: act, part, division, episode

4 (films) a shot or series of shots that constitutes a unit of the action

5 the backcloths or screens used to represent a location in a play or film set

◇ SYNONYMS: setting, set, background, location, backdrop

6 the view of a place or landscape

◇ SYNONYMS: view, prospect, panorama, vista, landscape, outlook

7 a display of emotion or loss of temper in public: you do not want to cause a scene

◇ SYNONYMS: fuss, to-do, row, performance (informal), exhibition, carry-on (informal, chiefly Brit), tantrum, commotion, hissy fit (informal)

8 (informal) a particular activity or aspect of life, and all the things associated with it: the club scene

◇ SYNONYMS: world, business, environment, arena

9 behind the scenes

A backstage

B in secret or in private scenery n, pl -eries

1 the natural features of a landscape

◇ SYNONYMS: landscape, view, surroundings, terrain, vista

2 (theatre) the painted backcloths or screens used to represent a location in a theatre or studio

◇ SYNONYMS: set, setting, backdrop, flats, stage set scenic adj

1 of or having beautiful natural scenery: untouched scenic areas

◇ SYNONYMS: picturesque, beautiful, spectacular, striking, panoramic

2 of the stage or stage scenery: scenic artists scent n

1 a distinctive smell, esp. a pleasant one

◇ SYNONYMS: fragrance, smell, perfume, bouquet, aroma, odour

2 a smell left in passing, by which a person or animal may be traced

◇ SYNONYMS: trail, track, spoor

3 a trail or series of clues by which something is followed: he must have got on to the scent of the story through you

4 perfume

► vb

5 to become aware of by smelling

◇ SYNONYMS: smell, sense, detect, sniff, discern, nose out

6 to suspect: he scented the beginnings of irritation in the car

7 to fill with odour or fragrance > scented adj

sceptic or (US) skeptic (skep-tik) n

1 a person who habitually doubts generally accepted beliefs

◇ SYNONYMS: doubter, cynic, disbeliever

2 a person who doubts the truth of a religion

◇ SYNONYMS: agnostic, doubter, unbeliever, doubting Thomas > sceptical or (US) skeptical adj > sceptically or (US) skeptically adv

> scepticism or (US) skepticism n sceptre or (US) scepter n an ornamental rod symbolizing royal power > sceptred or (US) sceptered adj schedule n

1 a timed plan of procedure for a project

◇ SYNONYMS: plan, programme, agenda, calendar, timetable

2 a list of details or items: the schedule of priorities

3 a timetable

◇ SYNONYMS: plan, programme, agenda, calendar, timetable

► vb -uling, -uled

4 to plan and arrange (something) to happen at a certain time

◇ SYNONYMS: plan, set up, book, programme, arrange, organize

5 to make a schedule or include in a schedule schema n, pl -mata an outline of a plan or theory schematic adj presented as a diagram or plan > schematically adv

scheme n

1 a systematic plan for a course of action

◇ SYNONYMS: plan, programme, strategy, system, project, proposal, tactics

2 a systematic arrangement of parts or features: colour scheme

3 a secret plot

◇ SYNONYMS: plot, ploy, ruse, intrigue, conspiracy, manoeuvre, subterfuge, stratagem

4 a chart, diagram, or outline

5 a plan formally adopted by a government or organization: a pension scheme

► vb scheming, schemed

6 to plan in an underhand manner

◇ SYNONYMS: plot, plan, intrigue, manoeuvre, conspire, contrive, collude, machinate > schemer n

> scheming adj, n

scherzo (skairt-so) n, pl -zos a quick lively piece of music, often the second or third movement in a sonata or symphony schism (skizz-um) n the division of a group, esp. a religious group, into opposing factions, due to differences in doctrine > schismatic adj

schist (shist) n a crystalline rock which splits into thin layers schizoid adj

1 (psychol) having a personality disorder characterized by extreme shyness and extreme sensitivity

2 (informal) characterized by conflicting or contradictory ideas or attitudes

► n

3 (offensive) a person who has a schizoid personality schizophrenia n

1 a psychotic disorder characterized by withdrawal from reality, hallucinations, or emotional instability

2 (informal) behaviour that seems to be motivated by contradictory or conflicting principles > schizophrenic adj, n schmaltz n excessive sentimentality, esp. in music > schmaltzy adj

schnapps n a strong dry alcoholic drink distilled from potatoesschnitzel n a thin slice of meat, esp. vealscholar n

1 a person who studies an academic subject

◇ SYNONYMS: intellectual, academic, savant, acca (Austral slang)

2 a student who has a scholarship

3 a pupil

◇ SYNONYMS: student, pupil, learner, schoolboy or schoolgirl > scholarly adj

scholarship n

1 academic achievement; learning gained by serious study

◇ SYNONYMS: learning, education, knowledge, erudition, book-learning

2 financial aid provided for a scholar because of academic merit

◇ SYNONYMS: grant, award, payment, endowment, fellowship, bursary scholastic adj

1 of schools, scholars, or education

2 of or relating to scholasticism

► n

3 a scholarly person

4 a disciple or adherent of scholasticism school¹ n

1 a place where children are educated

◇ SYNONYMS: academy, college, institution, institute, seminary

2 the staff and pupils of a school

3 a regular session of instruction in a school: we stayed behind after school

4 a faculty or department specializing in a particular subject: the dental school

5 a place or sphere of activity that instructs: the school of hard knocks

6 a group of artists, writers, or thinkers, linked by the same style, teachers, or methods

◇ SYNONYMS: group, set, circle, faction, followers, disciples, devotees, denomination

7 (informal) a group assembled for a common purpose, such as gambling: a card school

◇ SYNONYMS: group, set, circle, faction, followers, disciples, devotees, denomination

► vb

8 to educate or train: she schooled herself to be as ambitious as her sister

◇ SYNONYMS: train, coach, discipline, educate, drill, tutor, instruct school² n a group of sea-living animals that swim together, such as fish, whales, or dolphins schoolchild n a child attending school schoolie n (Austral informal) a schoolteacher or a high-school student schoolies week n (Austral informal) a week of post-exam celebrations for students who have just completed their final year of high school

school run n (Brit) a journey to take children to school or to bring them home from school schooner n

- 1 a sailing ship with at least two masts, one at the back and one at the front
- 2 (Brit) a large glass for sherry
- 3 (US & Canad & Austral & NZ) a large glass for beer

sciatic adj

- 1 (anatomy) of the hip or the hipbone
- 2 of or having sciatica: a sciatic injury sciatica n severe pain in the large nerve in the back of the leg science n

- 1 the study of the nature and behaviour of the physical universe, based on observation, experiment, and measurement
 - 2 the knowledge obtained by these methods
 - 3 any particular branch of this knowledge: medical science
 - 4 any body of knowledge organized in a way resembling that of the physical sciences but concerned with other subjects: political science
- ◇ SYNONYMS: discipline, body of knowledge, branch of knowledge science fiction n stories and films that make imaginative use of scientific knowledge or theories science park n an area where scientific research and commercial development are carried on in cooperation scientific adj

- 1 relating to science or a particular science: scientific discovery
 - 2 done in a systematic way, using experiments or tests
- ◇ SYNONYMS: systematic, accurate, exact, precise, controlled, mathematical
- > scientifically adv

scientist n a person who studies or practises a science

◇ SYNONYMS: researcher, inventor, boffin (informal), technophile sci-fi n short for science fiction scimitar n a curved Asian sword scintillate vb -lating, -lated to give off (sparks); sparkle > scintillation n

scintillating adj (of conversation or humour) very lively and amusing scion (sy-on) n

1 a descendant or young member of a family

2 a shoot of a plant for grafting onto another plant scissors pl n a cutting instrument held in one hand, with two crossed blades pivoted so that they close together on what is to be cut sclerosis (skleer-oh-siss) n, pl -ses (-seez) (pathol) an abnormal hardening or thickening of body tissues, esp. of the nervous system or the inner wall of arteries

scoff¹ vb

1 (often foll. by at) to speak in a scornful and mocking way about (something)

◇ SYNONYMS: scorn, mock, laugh at, ridicule, knock (informal), despise, sneer, jeer

► n

2 a mocking expression; jeer > scoffing adj, n

scoff² vb (informal) to eat (food) fast and greedily ◇ SYNONYMS: gobble (up), wolf, devour, bolt, guzzle, gulp down, gorge yourself on scold vb

1 to find fault with or rebuke (a person) harshly

2 (old-fashioned) to use harsh or abusive language

► n

3 (old-fashioned) a person, esp. a woman, who constantly scolds > scolding n

sconce n a bracket fixed to a wall for holding candles or lights scone (skonn, skone) n a small plain cake baked in an oven or on a griddle scoop n

1 a spoonlike tool with a deep bowl, used for handling loose or soft materials such as flour or ice cream

◇ SYNONYMS: ladle, spoon, dipper

2 the deep shovel of a mechanical digger

3 the amount taken up by a scoop

4 the act of scooping or dredging

5 a news story reported in one newspaper before all the others

◇ SYNONYMS: exclusive, exposé, revelation, sensation

► vb

6 (often foll. by up) to take up and remove (something) with or as if with a scoop

◇ SYNONYMS scoop something or someone up: gather up, lift, pick up, take up, sweep up or away

7 scoop out to hollow out with or as if with a scoop

◇ SYNONYMS scoop something out: dig, shovel, excavate, gouge, hollow out

8 to beat (rival newspapers) in reporting a news item

9 to win (a prize, a large sum of money, etc.)

◇ SYNONYMS: win, get, land (informal), gain, achieve, earn, secure, obtain scoot vb to leave or move quickly scooter n

- 1 a child's small cycle which is ridden by pushing the ground with one foot
- 2 a light motorcycle with a small engine scope n

- 1 opportunity for using abilities: ample scope for creative work ◇ SYNONYMS: opportunity, room, freedom, space, liberty, latitude
- 2 range of view or grasp: that is outside my scope ◇ SYNONYMS: range, capacity, reach, area, outlook, orbit, span, sphere
- 3 the area covered by an activity or topic: the scope of his essay was vast ◇ SYNONYMS: range, capacity, reach, area, outlook, orbit, span, sphere

scorch vb

- 1 to burn or become burnt slightly on the surface ◇ SYNONYMS: burn, sear, roast, wither, shrivel, parch, singe
 - 2 to parch or shrivel from heat
 - 3 (informal) to criticize harshly
- n
- 4 a slight burn
 - 5 a mark caused by the application of excessive heat
- > scorching adj

scorcher n (informal) a very hot day score n

- 1 the total number of points made by a side or individual in a game ◇ SYNONYMS: points, result, total, outcome
- 2 the act of scoring a point or points: there was no score and three minutes remained
- 3 the score (informal) the actual situation: what's the score on this business?
- 4 (old-fashioned) a group or set of twenty: three score years and ten
- 5 scores of lots of: we received scores of letters

◇ SYNONYMS: lots, loads, many, millions, hundreds, masses, swarms, multitudes

6 (music) a written version of a piece of music showing parts for each musician

◇ SYNONYMS: composition, soundtrack, arrangement, orchestration

7

A the incidental music for a film or play

◇ SYNONYMS: composition, soundtrack, arrangement, orchestration

B the songs and music for a stage or film musical

8 a mark or scratch

9 a record of money due: what's the score for the drinks?

10 an amount recorded as due

11 a reason: some objections were made on the score of sentiment

12 a grievance: a score to settle

◇ SYNONYMS: grievance, wrong, injury, injustice, grudge

13 over the score (informal) excessive or unfair

► vb scoring, scored

14 to gain (a point or points) in a game or contest

◇ SYNONYMS: gain, win, achieve, make, get, attain, notch up (informal), chalk up (informal)

15 to make a total score of

◇ SYNONYMS: gain, win, achieve, make, get, attain, notch up (informal), chalk up (informal)

16 to keep a record of the score (of) 17 to be worth (a certain number of points) in a game: red aces score twenty

18 to make cuts or lines in or on ◇ SYNONYMS: cut, scratch, mark, slash, scrape, graze, gouge, deface

19 (slang) to purchase an illegal drug

20 (slang) to succeed in finding a sexual partner

21 to arrange (a piece of music) for specific instruments or voices

◇ SYNONYMS: arrange, set, orchestrate, adapt

22 to write the music for (a film or play)

◇ SYNONYMS: arrange, set, orchestrate, adapt

23 to achieve (success or an advantage): your idea scored with the boss scorn n

1 open contempt for a person or thing

◇ SYNONYMS: contempt, disdain, mockery, derision, sarcasm, disparagement

► vb

2 to treat with contempt: she attacked the government for scorning her profession

◇ SYNONYMS: despise, reject, disdain, slight, be above, spurn, deride, flout

3 to refuse to have or do (something) because it is felt to be undesirable or wrong: youths who scorn traditional morals

◇ SYNONYMS: despise, reject, disdain, slight, be above, spurn, deride, flout > scornful adj

> scornfully adv

scorpion n a small lobster-shaped animal with a sting at the end of a jointed tail

Scot n a person from Scotland scotch vb

1 to put an end to: she had scotched the idea of bingo in the church

2 to wound without killing

Scotch n whisky distilled in Scotland from fermented malted barley

Scotch broth n (Brit) a thick soup made from mutton or beef stock, vegetables, and pearl barley scot-free adv, adj without harm or punishment: the real crooks got off scot-free

Scots adj

1 of Scotland

► n

2 any of the English dialects spoken or written in Scotland

Scotsman or (fem) Scotswoman n, pl -men or -women a person from Scotland

Scottish adj of Scotland scoundrel n (old-fashioned) a person who cheats and deceives scour¹ vb

1 to clean or polish (a surface) by rubbing with something rough

◇ SYNONYMS: scrub, clean, polish, rub, buff, abrade

2 to clear (a channel) by the force of water

► n

3 the act of scouring > scourer n

scour² vb

1 to search thoroughly and energetically: he had scoured auction salerooms

◇ SYNONYMS: search, hunt, comb, ransack

2 to move quickly over (land) in search or pursuit scourge n

1 a person who or thing that causes affliction or suffering

2 a whip formerly used for punishing people

► vb scourging, scourged

3 to cause severe suffering to 4 to whip scout n

1 (military) a person sent to find out the position of the enemy

◇ SYNONYMS: vanguard, lookout, precursor, outrider, reconnoitrer, advance guard

2 the act or an instance of scouting

► vb

3 to examine or observe (something) in order to obtain information

◇ SYNONYMS: reconnoitre, investigate, watch, survey, observe, spy, probe, recce (slang)

4 scout about or around to go in search of something

Scout or scout n a member of the Scout Association, an organization for young people which aims to develop character and promote outdoor activities > Scouting n

scowl vb

1 to have an angry or bad-tempered facial expression

► n

2 an angry or bad-tempered facial expression scrabble vb -bling, -bled

1 to scrape at or grope for something with hands, feet, or claws: scrabbling with his feet to find a foothold

2 to move one's hands about in order to find something one cannot see: scrabbling in her handbag for a comb

scrag n

1 the thin end of a neck of veal or mutton

2 a thin or scrawny person or animal scraggy adj -gier, -giest unpleasantly thin and bony > scragginess n

scram vb scramming, scrambled (informal) to leave very quickly scramble vb -bling, -bled

1 to climb or crawl hurriedly by using the hands to aid movement

◇ SYNONYMS: struggle, climb, crawl, swarm, scrabble

2 to go hurriedly or in a disorderly manner

3 to compete with others in a rough and undignified way: spectators scrambled for the best seats

◇ SYNONYMS: strive, rush, contend, vie, run, push, jostle

4 to jumble together in a haphazard manner

◇ SYNONYMS: jumble, mix up, muddle, shuffle

5 to cook (eggs that have been whisked up with milk) in a pan

6 (military) (of a crew or aircraft) to take off quickly in an emergency

7 to make (transmitted speech) unintelligible by the use of an electronic scrambler

► n

8 the act of scrambling

◇ SYNONYMS: clamber, ascent

9 a climb or trek over difficult ground

◇ SYNONYMS: clamber, ascent

10 a rough and undignified struggle to gain possession of something ◇ SYNONYMS: race, competition, struggle, rush, confusion, commotion, melee or mêlée

11 (military) an immediate takeoff of crew or aircraft in an emergency

12 (Brit) a motorcycle race across rough open ground scrambler n an electronic device that makes broadcast or telephone messages unintelligible without a special receiver scrap¹ n

1 a small piece of something larger; fragment

◇ SYNONYMS: piece, fragment, bit, grain, particle, portion, part, crumb

2 waste material or used articles, often collected and reprocessed

◇ SYNONYMS: waste, junk, offcuts

3 scraps pieces of leftover food

◇ SYNONYMS: leftovers, remains, bits, leavings

► vb scrapping, scrapped

4 to discard as useless

◇ SYNONYMS: get rid of, drop, abandon, ditch (slang), discard, write off, jettison, throw away or out scrap² (informal) n

1 a fight or quarrel

◇ SYNONYMS: fight, battle, row, argument, dispute, disagreement, quarrel, squabble, biff (Austral slang)

► vb scrapping, scrapped

2 to quarrel or fight

◇ SYNONYMS: fight, argue, row, squabble, wrangle scrapbook n a book of blank pages in which newspaper cuttings or pictures are stuck scrape vb scrapping, scraped

1 to move (a rough or sharp object) across (a surface)

◇ SYNONYMS: rake, sweep, drag, brush

2 (often foll. by away or off) to remove (a layer) by rubbing

◇ SYNONYMS: clean, remove, scour

3 to produce a grating sound by rubbing against (something else)

◇ SYNONYMS: grate, grind, scratch, squeak, rasp

4 to injure or damage by scraping: he had scraped his knees

◇ SYNONYMS: graze, skin, scratch, bark, scuff, rub

5 scrimp and scrape See scrimp

► n

6 the act or sound of scraping

7 a scraped place: a scrape on the car door

8 (informal) an awkward or embarrassing situation

◇ SYNONYMS: predicament, difficulty, fix (informal), mess, dilemma, plight, tight spot, awkward situation

9 (informal) a conflict or struggle > scraper n

scrape through vb to succeed in or survive with difficulty: both teams had scraped through their semi-finals scrappy adj -pier, -piest badly organized or done: a scrappy draft of a chapter of my thesis scratch vb

1 to mark or cut (the surface of something) with a rough or sharp instrument

◇ SYNONYMS: mark, cut, score, damage, grate, graze, etch, lacerate

2 (often foll. by at or out etc) to tear or dig with the nails or claws

◇ SYNONYMS: rub, scrape, claw at 3 to scrape (the surface of the skin) with the nails to relieve itching

4 to rub against (the skin) causing a slight cut

5 to make or cause to make a grating sound

6 (sometimes foll. by out) to erase or cross out

7 to withdraw from a race or (in the US) an election

► n

8 the act of scratching

9 a slight cut on a person's or an animal's body

10 a mark made by scratching

◇ SYNONYMS: mark, scrape, graze, blemish, gash, laceration, claw mark

11 a slight grating sound

12 from scratch (informal) from the very beginning

13 not up to scratch (informal) not up to standard

◇ SYNONYMS not up to scratch: inadequate, unacceptable, unsatisfactory, insufficient, not up to standard

► adj

14 put together at short notice: a scratch team

15 (sport) with no handicap allowed: a scratch golfer

> scratchy adj

scratchcard n a ticket that reveals whether or not the holder is eligible for a prize when the surface is removed by scratching scrawl vb

1 to write carelessly or hastily

► n

2 careless or scribbled writing > scrawly adj

scrawny adj scrawnier, scrawniest very thin and bony > scrawniness n

scream vb

1 to make a sharp piercing cry or sound because of fear or pain

◇ SYNONYMS: cry, yell, shriek, screech, bawl, howl

2 (of a machine) to make a high-pitched noise

3 to laugh wildly

4 to utter with a scream: he screamed abuse up into the sky

5 to be unpleasantly conspicuous: bad news screaming out from the headlines

► n

6 a sharp piercing cry or sound, esp. of fear or pain

◇ SYNONYMS: cry, yell, howl, shriek, screech, yelp

7 (informal) a very funny person or thing scree n a pile of rock fragments at the foot of a cliff or hill, often forming a sloping heap screech n

1 a shrill or high-pitched sound or cry

► vb

2 to utter a shrill cry > screechy adj

screed n a long tiresome speech or piece of writing screen n

1 the blank surface of a television set, computer, or mobile phone, on which a visible image is formed

2 the white surface on which films or slides are projected

3 the screen the film industry or films collectively

4 a light movable frame, panel, or partition used to shelter, divide, or conceal

◇ SYNONYMS: cover, guard, shade, shelter, shield, partition, cloak, canopy

5 anything that shelters, protects, or conceals: a screen of leaves blocking out the sun

6 a frame containing a mesh that is used to keep out insects

► vb

7 (sometimes foll. by off) to shelter, protect, or conceal with or as if with a screen

◇ SYNONYMS: cover, hide, conceal, shade, mask, veil, cloak

8 to test or check (an individual or group) so as to assess suitability for a task or to detect the presence of a disease or weapons: women screened for breast cancer

◇ SYNONYMS: investigate, test, check, examine, scan

9 to show (a film) in the cinema or show (a programme) on television

◇ SYNONYMS: broadcast, show, put on, present, air, cable, beam, transmit, stream screen saver n software that produces changing images on a computer screen when the machine is operating but idle screenshot n an image created by copying part or all of the display on a computer screen at a particular moment screw n

1 a metal pin with a spiral ridge along its length, twisted into materials to fasten them together

◇ SYNONYMS: nail, pin, tack, rivet, fastener, spike

2 a threaded cylindrical rod that engages with a similarly threaded cylindrical hole

3 a thread in a cylindrical hole corresponding with the one on the screw with which it is designed to engage

4 anything resembling a screw in shape

5 (slang) a prison guard

6 (vulgar, slang) an act of or partner in sexual intercourse

7 have a screw loose (informal)

A to be eccentric

B (offensive) to be insane

8 put the screws on (slang) to use force on or threatening behaviour against ► vb

9 to rotate (a screw or bolt) so as to drive it into or draw it out of a material

10 to twist or turn: she screwed up the sheet of paper

◇ SYNONYMS: turn, twist, tighten

11 to attach or fasten with or as if with a screw or screws

◇ SYNONYMS: fasten, fix, attach, bolt, clamp, rivet

12 (informal) to take advantage of, esp. illegally: screwed by big business

◇ SYNONYMS: cheat, do (slang), rip (someone) off (slang), skin (slang), trick, con, sting (informal), fleece

13 (informal) to distort or contort: his face was screwed up in pain

14 (often foll. by out of) (informal) to force out of; extort

◇ SYNONYMS: squeeze, wring, extract, wrest

15 (vulgar, slang) to have sexual intercourse (with) 16 have one's head screwed on the right way (informal) to be sensible

► See also screw up screwdriver n

1 a tool used for turning screws, consisting of a long thin metal rod with a flattened tip that fits into a slot in the head of the screw

2 a drink consisting of orange juice and vodka screw up vb

1 (informal) to mishandle or spoil (something): that screws up all my arrangements

◇ SYNONYMS screw something up: bungle, botch, mess up, spoil, mishandle, make a mess of (slang), make a hash of (informal), crool or cruel (Austral slang)

2 to twist out of shape or distort

◇ SYNONYMS screw something up: contort, wrinkle, distort, pucker

3 screw up one's courage to force oneself to be brave > screwed-up adj

screwy adj screwier, screwiest (informal) crazy or eccentric scribble vb -bling, -bled

1 to write or draw quickly and roughly

◇ SYNONYMS: scrawl, write, jot, dash off

2 to make meaningless or illegible marks (on)

► n

3 something written or drawn quickly or roughly

4 meaningless or illegible marks > scribbler n

> scribbly adj

scribe n

1 a person who made handwritten copies of manuscripts or documents before the invention of printing

2 (Bible) a recognized scholar and teacher of the Jewish Law scrimmage n

1 a rough or disorderly struggle

► vb -maging, -maged

2 to take part in a scrimmage scrimp vb

1 to be very sparing in the use of something: they were scrimping by on the last of the potatoes

2 scrimp and save or scrape to spend as little money as possible scrip n (finance) a certificate representing a claim to shares or stocks script n

1 the text of a play, TV programme, or film for the use of performers

◇ SYNONYMS: text, lines, words, book, copy, dialogue, libretto

2 an alphabet or system of writing: Cyrillic script

3 a candidate's answer paper in an examination

4 handwriting

◇ SYNONYMS: handwriting, writing, calligraphy, penmanship (formal)

5 a typeface which looks like handwriting

► vb

6 to write a script for

◇ SYNONYMS: write, draft scripture n the sacred writings of a religion > scriptural adj scrofula n (not in technical use) tuberculosis of the lymphatic glands > scrofulous adj

scroggin n (NZ) a mixture of nuts and dried fruits scroll n

1 a roll of parchment or paper, usually inscribed with writing

2 an ancient book in the form of a roll of parchment, papyrus, or paper

3 a decorative carving or moulding resembling a scroll

► vb

4 to move (text) on a computer or phone screen in order to view a section that cannot be fitted into a single display

scrotum n the pouch of skin containing the testicles in most male mammals scrounge vb scrounging, scrounged (informal) to get (something) by asking for it rather than buying it or working for it > scrounger n

scrub¹ vb scrubbing, scrubbed

1 to rub (something) hard in order to clean it ◇ SYNONYMS: scour, clean, polish, rub, wash, cleanse, buff, exfoliate

2 to remove (dirt) by rubbing with a brush and water

3 scrub up (of a surgeon) to wash the hands and arms thoroughly before operating 4 (informal) to delete or cancel (an idea or plan)

◇ SYNONYMS: cancel, drop, give up, abolish, forget about, call off, delete

► n

5 the act of scrubbing scrub² n

1 vegetation consisting of stunted trees or bushes growing in a dry area

2 an area of dry land covered with such vegetation

► adj

3 stunted or inferior: scrub pines scrubby adj -bier, -biest

1 (of land) rough, dry, and covered with scrub

2 (of plants) stunted

3 (Brit informal) shabby or untidy scruff¹ n the nape of the neck: the sergeant had him by the scruff of the neck scruff² n (informal) a very untidy person scruffy adj scruffier, scruffiest dirty and untidy in appearance scrum n

1 (rugby) a formation in which players from each side form a tight pack and push against each other in an attempt to get the ball, which is thrown on the ground between them

2 (informal) a disorderly struggle

► vb scrumping, scrummed

3 (usually foll. by down) (rugby) to form a scrum scrummage n, vb -maging, -maged

1 (rugby) same as scrum

2 same as scrimmage scrumptious adj (informal) delicious or very attractive scrunch vb

1 to press or crush noisily or be pressed or crushed noisily

► n

2 the act or sound of scrunching: the scrunch of tyres on gravel

scruple n

1 a doubt or hesitation as to what is morally right in a certain situation: he had no scruples about the drug trade

► vb -pling, -pled

2 to have doubts (about), esp. on moral grounds scrupulous adj

1 taking great care to do what is fair, honest, or morally right

2 very careful or precise: scrupulous attention to detail > scrupulously adv

scrutinize or -nise vb -nizing, -nized or -nising, -nised to examine carefully or in minute detail scrutiny n, pl -nies

1 very careful study or observation

◇ SYNONYMS: examination, study, investigation, search, analysis, inspection, exploration, perusal

2 a searching look scuba (skew-ba) n an apparatus used in skin diving, consisting of cylinders containing compressed air attached to a breathing apparatus

scud vb scudding, scudded

1 (esp. of clouds) to move along quickly

2 (naut) to run before a gale

► n

3 the act of scudding

4 spray, rain, or clouds driven by the wind scuff vb

- 1 to drag (the feet) while walking
- 2 to scrape (one's shoes) by doing so
- n
- 3 a mark caused by scuffing
- 4 the act or sound of scuffing scuffle vb -fling, -fled

- 1 to fight in a disorderly manner
- n
- 2 a short disorganized fight
- 3 a scuffling sound

scull n

- 1 a single oar moved from side to side over the back of a boat
- 2 one of a pair of small oars, both of which are pulled by one oarsman
- 3 a racing boat rowed by one oarsman pulling two oars
- vb
- 4 to row (a boat) with a scull
- > sculler n

scullery n, pl -leries (chiefly Brit) a small room where washing-up and other kitchen work is done sculpt vb same as sculpture sculptor or (fem) sculptress n a person who makes sculptures sculpture n

- 1 the art of making figures or designs in wood, plaster, stone, or metal

2 works or a work made in this way

◇ SYNONYMS: statue, figure, model, bust, effigy, figurine, statuette

► vb -turing, -tured

3 to carve (a material) into figures or designs

◇ SYNONYMS: carve, form, model, fashion, shape, mould, sculpt, chisel

4 to represent (a person or thing) in sculpture

5 to form or be formed in the manner of sculpture: limestone sculptured by fast-flowing streams

◇ SYNONYMS: carve, form, model, fashion, shape, mould, sculpt, chisel > sculptural adj

scum n

1 a layer of impure or waste matter that forms on the surface of a liquid: the build-up of soap scum

2 a person or people regarded as worthless or criminal

► vb scumming, scummed

3 to remove scum from 4 (rare) to form a layer of or become covered with scum > scummy adj

scungy (skun-jee) adj scungier, scungiest (Austral & NZ slang) miserable, sordid, or dirty scupper vb

1 (Brit & NZ slang) to defeat or ruin: a deliberate attempt to scupper the peace talks

2 to sink (one's ship) deliberately scurf n

1 same as dandruff

2 any flaky or scaly matter sticking to or peeling off a surface > scurfy adj scurrilous adj untrue or unfair, insulting, and designed to damage a person's reputation: scurrilous allegations > scurrility n

scurry vb -ries, -rying, -ried

1 to run quickly with short steps

► n, pl -ries

2 a quick hurrying movement or the sound of this movement

3 a short shower of rain or snow scurvy n

1 a disease caused by a lack of vitamin C, resulting in weakness, spongy gums, and bleeding beneath the skin

► adj -vier, -viest

2 (old-fashioned) deserving contempt > scurviness n

scut n the short tail of animals such as the deer and rabbit scuttle² vb -tling, -tled

1 to run with short quick steps

► n

2 a hurried pace or run scuttle³ vb -tling, -tled

1 (naut) to cause (a ship) to sink by making holes in the sides or bottom

2 to ruin (hopes or plans) or have them ruined: a new policy scuttled by popular resistance

► n

3 (naut) a small hatch in a ship's deck or side scythe n

1 a long-handled tool for cutting grass or grain, with a curved sharpened blade that is swung parallel to the ground

► vb scything, scythed

2 to cut (grass or grain) with a scythe

SE southeast(ern) sea n

1 the sea the mass of salt water that covers three-quarters of the earth's surface

◇ SYNONYMS: ocean, the deep, the waves, main

2

A one of the smaller areas of this: the Irish Sea

B a large inland area of water: the Caspian Sea

3 the area on or close to the edge of the sea, esp. as a place where holidays are taken: a day by the sea

4 strong and uneven swirling movement of waves: rough seas

5 anything resembling the sea in size or movement: a sea of red and yellow flags

◇ SYNONYMS: mass, army, host, crowd, mob, abundance, swarm, horde

6 at sea

A on the ocean

B in a state of confusion or uncertainty

◇ SYNONYMS at sea: bewildered, lost, confused, puzzled, baffled, perplexed, mystified, flummoxed

7 go to sea to become a sailor

8 put out to sea to start a sea voyage sea anemone n a marine animal with a round body and rings of tentacles which trap food from the water seaboard n land bordering on the sea sea dog n an experienced or old sailor seafaring adj

- 1 travelling by sea
- 2 working as a sailor
- n
- 3 the act of travelling by sea
- 4 the work of a sailor seafood n edible saltwater fish or shellfish seagull n same as gull sea horse n a small marine fish with a horselike head, which swims upright seal¹ n

- 1 a special design impressed on a piece of wax, lead, or paper, fixed to a letter or document as a mark of authentication
- 2 a stamp or signet ring engraved with a design to form such an impression
- 3 a substance placed over an envelope or container, so that it cannot be opened without the seal being broken
- 4 something that serves as an official confirmation of approval: seal of approval
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: authentication, stamp, confirmation, ratification, insignia, imprimatur
- 5 any substance or device used to close an opening tightly
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: sealant, sealer, adhesive
- 6 set the seal on to confirm: the experience set the seal on their friendship
 - vb
- 7 to close or secure with or as if with a seal: once the manuscripts were sealed up, they were forgotten about
- 8 seal off to enclose or isolate (a place) completely
- 9 to close tightly so as to make airtight or watertight
- 10 to inject a compound around the edges of (something) to make it airtight or watertight
- 11 to attach a seal to or stamp with a seal
- 12 to finalize or authorize
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: settle, clinch, conclude, consummate, finalize

13 seal one's fate to make sure one dies or fails

14 seal one's lips to promise not to reveal a secret > sealable adj

seal² n

1 a fish-eating mammal with four flippers, which lives in the sea but comes ashore to breed

2 sealskin

► vb

3 to hunt seals sealant n any substance, such as wax, used for sealing, esp. to make airtight or watertight sea level n the average level of the sea's surface in relation to the land sea lion n a type of large seal found in the Pacific Ocean sealskin n the skin or prepared fur of a seal, used to make coats seam n

1 the line along which pieces of fabric are joined by stitching

2 a ridge or line made by joining two edges: the seam between the old and the new buildings

◇ SYNONYMS: joint, closure

3 a long narrow layer of coal, marble, or ore formed between layers of other rocks

◇ SYNONYMS: layer, vein, stratum, lode

4 a mark or line like a seam, such as a wrinkle or scar

► adj

5 (cricket) of a style of bowling in which the bowler uses the stitched seam round the ball in order to make it swing in flight and after touching the ground: a seam bowler

► vb

6 to join together by or as if by a seam

7 to mark with furrows or wrinkles seaman n, pl -men

1 a man ranking below an officer in a navy

2 a sailor seamless adj

1 (of a garment) without seams

2 continuous or flowing: a seamless performance > seamlessly adv

> seamlessness n

seamstress n a woman who sews, esp. professionally seamy adj seamier, seamiest involving the sordid and unpleasant aspects of life, such as crime, prostitution, poverty, and violence > seaminess n

seance or séance (say-onss) n a meeting at which a spiritualist attempts to communicate with the spirits of the dead seaplane n an aircraft with skis or floats, designed to land on and take off from water sear vb

1 to scorch or burn the surface of 2 to cause to wither

◇ SYNONYMS: wither, burn, scorch, sizzle search vb

1 to look through (a place) thoroughly in order to find someone or something ◇ SYNONYMS: examine, investigate, explore, inspect, comb, scour, ransack, scrutinize, fossick (Austral & NZ)

2 to examine (a person) for hidden objects

3 to look at or examine (something) closely: I searched my heart for one good thing she had done

4 search out to find by searching

5 to make a search

6 search me (informal) I don't know

► n

7 an attempt to find something by looking somewhere

◇ SYNONYMS: hunt, look, investigation, examination, pursuit, quest, inspection, exploration, Google (computers), googlewhack (computers, informal) search engine n a service that enables users to search the internet for items of interest searching adj keen or thorough: a searching analysis

◇ SYNONYMS: keen, sharp, probing, close, intent, piercing, penetrating, quizzical > searchingly adv

searchlight n

1 a light with a powerful beam that can be shone in any direction

2 the beam of light produced by this device searing adj

1 (of pain) very sharp

2 highly critical: a searing satire of foreign policy seasick adj suffering from nausea and dizziness caused by the movement of a ship at sea > seasickness n

seaside n an area, esp. a holiday resort, bordering on the sea season n

1 one of the four divisions of the year (spring, summer, autumn, and winter), each of which has characteristic weather conditions

2 a period of the year characterized by particular conditions or activities: the typhoon season; the football season

◇ SYNONYMS: period, time, term, spell

3 the period during which any particular species of animal, bird, or fish is legally permitted to be caught or killed: the deer season

4 any definite or indefinite period: the busy season

◇ SYNONYMS: period, time, term, spell

5 any period during which a show or play is performed at one venue: the show ran for three seasons

6 in season

A (of game) permitted to be killed

B (of fresh food) readily available

C (of animals) ready to mate

► vb

7 to add herbs, salt, pepper, or spice to (food) in order to enhance the flavour

◇ SYNONYMS: flavour, salt, spice, enliven, pep up

8 (in the preparation of timber) to dry and harden

9 to make experienced: old men seasoned by living > seasoned adj

seasonable adj

1 suitable for the season: a seasonable Christmas snow scene

2 coming or happening just at the right time: seasonable advice seasonal adj of or depending on a certain season or seasons of the year:

seasonal employment > seasonally adv

seasoning n something that is added to food to enhance the flavour

◇ SYNONYMS: flavouring, spice, salt and pepper, condiment season ticket n a ticket for a series of events or number of journeys, usually bought at a reduced rate seat n

1 a piece of furniture designed for sitting on, such as a chair

◇ SYNONYMS: chair, bench, stall, stool, pew, settle

2 the part of a chair or other piece of furniture on which one sits

3 a place to sit in a theatre, esp. one that requires a ticket: there were two empty front-row seats at the pageant

4 the buttocks

5 the part of a garment covering the buttocks

6 the part or surface on which an object rests

7 the place or centre in which something is based: the seat of government

◇ SYNONYMS: centre, place, site, heart, capital, situation, source, hub

8 (Brit) a country mansion

◇ SYNONYMS: mansion, house, residence, abode, ancestral hall

9 a membership or the right to membership of a legislative or administrative body: a seat on the council

◇ SYNONYMS: membership, place, constituency, chair, incumbency

10 (chiefly Brit) a parliamentary constituency

11 the manner in which a rider sits on a horse

► vb

12 to bring to or place on a seat

◇ SYNONYMS: sit, place, settle, set, fix, locate, install

13 to provide seats for: the dining hall seats 150 people

◇ SYNONYMS: hold, take, accommodate, sit, contain, cater for 14 to set firmly in place seat belt n a strap attached to a car or aircraft seat, worn across the body to prevent a person being thrown forward in the event of a collision sea urchin n a small sea animal with a round body enclosed in a spiny shell seaweed n any plant growing in the sea or on the seashore seaworthy adj (of a ship) in a fit condition for a sea voyage > seaworthiness n

sebaceous adj of, like, or secreting fat secateurs pl n a small pair of gardening shears for pruning secede vb -ceding, -ceded to make a formal withdrawal of membership from a political alliance, federation, or group: it will secede from the federation within six months

secession n the act of seceding > secessionism n

> secessionist n, adj

seclude vb -cluding, -cluded

1 to remove from contact with others

2 to shut off or screen from view secluded adj

1 kept apart from the company of others: a secluded private life

2 private and sheltered: a secluded cottage seclusion n the state of being secluded; privacy: the seclusion of his winter retreat

second¹ adj

1 coming directly after the first in order

◇ SYNONYMS: next, following, succeeding, subsequent, sophomore (US & Canad)

2 rated, graded, or ranked between the first and third levels

3 alternate: every second Saturday

4 another of the same kind; additional: a second chance

◇ SYNONYMS: additional, other, further, extra, alternative

5 resembling or comparable to a person or event from the past: a second Virgin Mary

6 of lesser importance or position; inferior

◇ SYNONYMS: inferior, secondary, subordinate, lower, lesser

7 denoting the second lowest forward gear in a motor vehicle

8 (music) denoting a musical part, voice, or instrument subordinate to or lower in pitch than another (the first): the second tenors

9 at second hand by hearsay

► n

10 a person or thing that is second

11 (Brit, education) an honours degree of the second class

12 the second lowest forward gear in a motor vehicle

13 (in boxing or duelling) an attendant who looks after a boxer or duellist

◇ SYNONYMS: supporter, assistant, aide, colleague, backer, helper, right-hand man or woman or person

14 seconds

A (informal) a second helping of food or the second course of a meal

B goods that are sold cheaply because they are slightly faulty

► vb

15 to give aid or backing to ◇ SYNONYMS: support, back, endorse, approve, go along with 16 (in boxing or duelling) to act as second to (a boxer or duellist)

17 to express formal support for (a motion proposed in a meeting)

► adv

18 Also: secondly in the second place

◇ SYNONYMS: next, second, moreover, furthermore, also, in the second place second² n

1 the basic SI unit of time, equal to $\frac{1}{60}$ of a minute

2 $\frac{1}{60}$ of a minute of angle

3 a very short period of time

◇ SYNONYMS: moment, minute, instant, flash, sec (informal), jiffy (informal), trice second³ (sik-kond) vb (Brit & NZ) to transfer (a person) temporarily to another job > secondment n

secondary adj

1 below the first in rank or importance: a secondary consideration

◇ SYNONYMS: subordinate, minor, lesser, lower, inferior, unimportant

2 coming next after the first: secondary cancers

◇ SYNONYMS: resultant, contingent, derived, indirect

3 derived from or depending on what is primary or first: a secondary source

4 of or relating to the education of people between the ages of 11 and 18 or, in New Zealand, between 13 and 18: secondary education

5 (of an industry) involving the manufacture of goods from raw materials

► n, pl -aries

6 a person or thing that is secondary second-hand adj

1 previously owned or used

◇ SYNONYMS: used, old, hand-me-down (informal), nearly new, preloved (informal)

2 not from an original source or one's own experience: second-hand opinions

3 dealing in or selling goods that are not new: second-hand furniture shops

► adv

4 from a source of previously owned or used goods: they preferred to buy second-hand

5 not directly or from one's own experience: his knowledge had been gleaned second-hand secondly adv same as second second nature n a habit or characteristic practised for so long that it seems to be part of one's character second sight n the supposed ability to foresee the future or see actions taking place elsewhere second thoughts pl n a revised opinion or idea on a matter already considered second wind n

- 1 the return of comfortable breathing following difficult or strenuous exercise
- 2 renewed ability to continue in an effort secrecy n, pl -cies

- 1 the state of being secret
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: confidentiality, privacy
- 2 the ability or tendency to keep things secret
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: mystery, stealth, concealment, furtiveness, secretiveness, clandestineness, covertness secret adj

- 1 kept hidden or separate from the knowledge of all or all but a few others
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: undisclosed, unknown, confidential, underground, undercover, unrevealed
- 2 secretive: she had become a secret drinker
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: secretive, reserved, close
- 3 operating without the knowledge of outsiders: secret organizations
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: undercover, furtive
- n
- 4 something kept or to be kept hidden
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: private affair
- 5 something unrevealed; a mystery: the secrets of nature
- 6 an underlying explanation or reason: the secret of great-looking hair
- 7 in secret without the knowledge of others
 - ◇ SYNONYMS in secret: secretly, surreptitiously, slyly
 - > secretly adv

secretariat n

- 1
 - A an office responsible for the secretarial, clerical, and administrative affairs of a legislative body or international organization
 - B the staff of such an office or department
- 2 the premises of a secretariat secretary n, pl -taries

1 a person who handles correspondence, keeps records, and does general clerical work for an individual or organization

2 the official manager of the day-to-day business of a society, club, or committee

3 (in Britain) a senior civil servant who assists a government minister

4 (in the US) the head of a government administrative department > secretarial adj

secrete¹ vb -creting, -creted (of a cell, organ, or gland) to produce and release (a substance) > secretory (sik-reet-or-ee) adj secrete² vb -creting, -creted to put in a hiding place secretion n

1 a substance that is released from a cell, organ, or gland

2 the process involved in producing and releasing such a substance secretive adj hiding feelings and intentions ◇ SYNONYMS: reticent, reserved, close, deep, uncommunicative, tight-lipped > secretively adv

sect n

1 a subdivision of a larger religious or political group, esp. one regarded as extreme in its beliefs or practices

◇ SYNONYMS: group, division, faction, party, camp, denomination, schism

2 a group of people with a common interest or philosophy

◇ SYNONYMS: group, division, faction, party, camp, denomination, schism

sectarian adj

1 of or belonging to a sect

2 narrow-minded as a result of supporting a particular sect

► n

3 a member of a sect > sectarianism n

section n

1 a part cut off or separated from the main body of something: a non-smoking section

◇ SYNONYMS: part, piece, portion, division, slice, passage, segment, fraction

2 a part or subdivision of a piece of writing or a book: the business section

3 a distinct part of a country or community: the Arabic section

◇ SYNONYMS: district, area, region, sector, zone

4 (surgery) the act or process of cutting or separating by cutting

5 (geom) a plane surface formed by cutting through a solid

6 short for Caesarean section

7 (NZ) a plot of land for building on 8 (Austral & NZ) a fare stage on a bus

► vb

9 to cut or divide into sections

10 to commit (a person) to a psychiatric hospital under an appropriate section of mental health legislation sectional adj

1 concerned with a particular area or group within a country or community, esp. to the exclusion of others: narrow sectional interests

2 made of sections

3 of a section sector n

1 a part or subdivision, esp. of a society or an economy: the public sector

◇ SYNONYMS: part, division

2 (geom) either portion of a circle bounded by two radii and the arc cut off by them

3 a portion into which an area is divided for military operations

◇ SYNONYMS: area, part, region, district, zone, quarter secular adj

1 relating to worldly as opposed to sacred things

◇ SYNONYMS: worldly, lay, earthly, civil, temporal, nonspiritual

2 not connected with religion or the church

◇ SYNONYMS: worldly, lay, earthly, civil, temporal, nonspiritual

3 (of clerics) not bound by religious vows to a monastic or other order secure adj

1 free from danger or damage

◇ SYNONYMS: safe, protected, immune, unassailable

2 free from fear, doubt, or care

◇ SYNONYMS: confident, sure, easy, certain, assured, reassured

3 tightly locked or well protected

4 fixed or tied firmly in position

◇ SYNONYMS: fast, firm, fixed, stable, steady, fastened, immovable

5 able to be relied on: secure profits

► vb -curing, -cured

6 to obtain: to secure a change in German policy

◇ SYNONYMS: obtain, get, acquire, score (slang), gain, procure

7 to make or become free from danger or fear

8 to make safe from loss, theft, or attack

9 to attach; make fast or firm

◇ SYNONYMS: attach, stick, fix, bind, fasten

10 to guarantee (payment of a loan) by giving something as security > securely adv

security n, pl -ties

1 precautions taken to ensure against theft, espionage, or other danger

◇ SYNONYMS: precautions, defence, safeguards, protection, safety measures

2 the state of being free from danger, damage, or worry

◇ SYNONYMS: assurance, confidence, conviction, certainty, reliance, sureness, positiveness

3 assured freedom from poverty: the security of a weekly pay cheque

4 a certificate of ownership, such as a share, stock, or bond

5 something given or pledged to guarantee payment of a loan

◇ SYNONYMS: pledge, insurance, guarantee, hostage, collateral, pawn, gage, surety sedan n (US & Canad & Austral & NZ) a saloon car sedan chair n an enclosed chair for one passenger, carried on poles by two bearers, commonly used in the 17th and 18th centuries

sedate¹ adj

1 quiet, calm, and dignified

2 slow or unhurried: a sedate walk to the beach

> sedately adv

sedate² vb -dating, -dated to calm down or make sleepy by giving a sedative drug to sedation n

1 a state of calm, esp. when brought about by sedatives

2 the administration of a sedative sedative adj

1 having a soothing or calming effect

► n

2 (med) a sedative drug or agent that makes people sleep or calm down sedentary (sed-en-tree) adj

1 done sitting down and involving very little exercise: a sedentary job

2 tending to sit about without taking much exercise sedge n a coarse grasslike plant growing on wet ground > sedgy adj

sediment n

1 matter that settles to the bottom of a liquid

- ◇ SYNONYMS: dregs, grounds, residue, lees, deposit
- 2 material that has been deposited by water, ice, or wind
- > sedimentary adj

sedition n speech, writing, or behaviour intended to encourage rebellion or resistance against the government

- > seditionary n, adj
- > seditious adj

seduce vb -ducing, -duced

- 1 to persuade to have sexual intercourse
- ◇ SYNONYMS: corrupt, deprave, dishonour, debauch, deflower
- 2 to tempt into wrongdoing
- ◇ SYNONYMS: tempt, lure, entice, mislead, deceive, beguile, lead astray, inveigle
- > seduction n

seductive adj

- 1 (of a person) sexually attractive
- ◇ SYNONYMS: tempting, inviting, attractive, enticing, provocative, alluring, bewitching, hot (informal)
- 2 very attractive or tempting: a seductive argument
- > seductively adv
- > seductiveness n

sedulous adj (formal) diligent or painstaking: a sedulous concern with the achievements of western thought

- > sedulously adv

see¹ vb seeing, saw, seen

- 1 to look at or recognize with the eyes
- ◇ SYNONYMS: perceive, spot, notice, sight, witness, observe, distinguish, glimpse
- 2 to understand: I explained the problem but he could not see it

◇ SYNONYMS: understand, get, follow, realize, appreciate, grasp, comprehend, fathom

3 to perceive or be aware of: she had never seen him so angry

4 to view, watch, or attend: we had barely seen a dozen movies in our lives

5 to foresee: they could see what their fate was to be

6 to find out (a fact): I was ringing to see whether you'd got it

◇ SYNONYMS: find out, learn, discover, determine, verify, ascertain

7 to make sure (of something) or take care (of something): see that he is never in a position to do these things again; you must see to it

◇ SYNONYMS: make sure, ensure, guarantee, make certain, see to it

8 to consider or decide: see if you can come next week

◇ SYNONYMS: consider, decide, reflect, deliberate, think over

9 to have experience of: he had seen active service in the revolution

10 to meet or pay a visit to: I see my specialist every three months

◇ SYNONYMS: meet, come across, happen on, bump into, run across, chance on 11 to receive: the Prime Minister will see the deputation now

◇ SYNONYMS: speak to, receive, interview, consult, confer with 12 to frequent the company of: we've been seeing each other since then

◇ SYNONYMS: go out with, court (old-fashioned), date (informal), go steady with (informal, old-fashioned), step out with (old-fashioned)

13 to accompany: she saw him to the door

◇ SYNONYMS: accompany, show, escort, lead, walk, usher

14 to refer to or look up: see page 35

15 (in gambling, esp. in poker) to match (another player's bet) or match the bet of (another player) by staking an equal sum

16 see fit to consider it proper (to do something): I did not see fit to send them home

17 see you or see you later or be seeing you an expression of farewell see² n the diocese of a bishop or the place within it where his or her cathedral is situated seed n

1 (botany) the mature fertilized grain of a plant, containing an embryo ready for germination. RELATED ADJECTIVE: seminal

◇ SYNONYMS: grain, pip, germ, kernel, egg, embryo, spore, ovum

2 such seeds used for sowing

3 the source, beginning, or origin of anything: the seeds of dissent

◇ SYNONYMS: beginning, start, germ

4 (chiefly Bible) descendants; offspring: the seed of David

◇ SYNONYMS: offspring, children, descendants, issue, progeny (old-fashioned)

5 (sport) a player ranked according to his or her ability

6 go or run to seed

A (of plants) to produce and shed seeds after flowering

B to lose strength or usefulness

◇ SYNONYMS go or run to seed: decline, deteriorate, degenerate, decay, go downhill (informal), let yourself go, go to pot

► vb

7 to plant (seeds) in (soil)

8 (of plants) to produce or shed seeds

9 to remove the seeds from (fruit or plants)

10 to scatter silver iodide in (clouds) in order to cause rain

11 to arrange (the draw of a tournament) so that outstanding teams or players will not meet in the early rounds > seedless adj

seedling n a plant produced from a seed, esp. a very young plant seedy adj seedier, seediest

1 shabby in appearance: a seedy cinema

2 (informal) physically unwell

3 (of a plant) at the stage of producing seeds > seediness n

seeing n

1 the sense or faculty of sight

► conj

2 (often foll. by that or as) in light of the fact (that)

◇ SYNONYMS seeing as: since, as, in view of the fact that, inasmuch as seek vb seeking, sought

1 to try to find by searching: to seek employment

◇ SYNONYMS: look for, pursue, search for, be after, hunt

2 to try to obtain: to seek a diplomatic solution

3 to try (to do something): we seek to establish a stable relationship ◇ SYNONYMS: try, attempt, aim, strive, endeavour, essay (formal), aspire to seem vb

1 to appear to the mind or eye; give the impression of: the car seems to be running well

◇ SYNONYMS: appear, give the impression of being, look

2 to appear to be: there seems no need for all this nonsense

◇ SYNONYMS: appear, give the impression of being, look

3 to have the impression: I seem to remember you were there too seeming adj apparent but not real: his seeming willingness to participate > seemingly adv

seemly adj -lier, -liest (formal) proper or fitting seen vb the past participle of see seep vb to leak through slowly; ooze ◇ SYNONYMS: ooze, well, leak, soak, trickle, exude, permeate > seepage n

seer n a person who can supposedly see into the future seersucker n a light cotton fabric with a slightly crinkled surface seesaw n

1 a plank balanced in the middle so that two people seated on the ends can ride up and down by pushing on the ground with their feet

2 an up-and-down or back-and-forth movement

► vb

3 to move up and down or back and forth alternately seethe vb seething, seethed

1 to be in a state of extreme anger or indignation without publicly showing these feelings

◇ SYNONYMS: be furious, rage, fume, simmer, see red (informal), be livid, go ballistic (slang)

2 (of a liquid) to boil or foam

◇ SYNONYMS: boil, bubble, foam, fizz, froth > seething adj

segment n

1 one of several parts or sections into which an object is divided

◇ SYNONYMS: section, part, piece, division, slice, portion, wedge

2 (maths)

A a part of a circle cut off by an intersecting line

B a part of a sphere cut off by an intersecting plane or planes

► vb

3 to cut or divide into segments > segmental adj

> segmentation n

segregate vb -gating, -gated

1 to set apart from others or from the main group

◇ SYNONYMS: set apart, divide, separate, isolate, discriminate against, dissociate

2 to impose segregation on (a racial or minority group)

◇ SYNONYMS: set apart, divide, separate, isolate, discriminate against, dissociate

segregation n

1 the practice or policy of creating separate facilities within the same society for the use of a racial or minority group

◇ SYNONYMS: separation, discrimination, apartheid, isolation

2 the act of segregating

◇ SYNONYMS: separation, discrimination, apartheid, isolation

> segregational adj

> segregationist n

seine (sane) n

1 a large fishing net that hangs vertically in the water by means of floats at the top and weights at the bottom

► vb seining, seined

2 to catch (fish) using this net seismic adj relating to or caused by earthquakes seismograph n an instrument that records the intensity and duration of earthquakes > seismographer n > seismography n

seismology n the branch of geology concerned with the study of earthquakes > seismologist n

seize vb seizing, seized

1 to take hold of forcibly or quickly; grab

◇ SYNONYMS: grab, grip, grasp, take, snatch, clutch, snap up, pluck

2 to take immediate advantage of: real journalists would have seized the opportunity

3 to take legal possession of 4 (sometimes foll. by on or upon) to understand quickly: she immediately seized his idea

5 to affect or fill the mind of suddenly: a wild frenzy seized her

6 to take by force or capture: the rebels seized a tank factory

◇ SYNONYMS: take by storm, take over, acquire, occupy, conquer

7 (often foll. by up) (of mechanical parts) to become jammed through overheating seizure n

1 (pathol) a sudden violent attack of an illness, such as an epileptic convulsion

◇ SYNONYMS: attack, fit, spasm, convulsion, paroxysm

2 the act of seizing: a seizure of drug traffickers' assets

◇ SYNONYMS: taking, grabbing, annexation, confiscation, commandeering seldom adv rarely; not often ◇ SYNONYMS: rarely, not often, infrequently, hardly ever select vb

1 to choose (someone or something) in preference to another or others

◇ SYNONYMS: choose, take, pick, opt for, decide on, adopt, settle upon

► adj

2 chosen in preference to others

◇ SYNONYMS: choice, special, excellent, superior, first-class, hand-picked, top-notch (informal)

3 restricted to a particular group; exclusive: a select audience

◇ SYNONYMS: exclusive, elite, privileged, cliquish > selector n

selection n

1 a selecting or being selected

◇ SYNONYMS: choice, choosing, pick, option, preference

2 a thing or number of things that have been selected

◇ SYNONYMS: anthology, collection, medley, choice

3 a range from which something may be selected: a good selection of reasonably priced wines

4 (biol) the process by which certain organisms or individuals are reproduced and survive in preference to others selective adj

1 tending to choose carefully or characterized by careful choice: they were selective in their reading

◇ SYNONYMS: particular, discriminating, careful, discerning, tasteful, fastidious

2 of or characterized by selection > selectively adv

> selectivity n

selenium n (chem) a nonmetallic element used in photocells, solar cells, and in xerography. SYMBOL: Se

self n, pl selves

1 the distinct individuality or identity of a person or thing

2 a person's typical bodily make-up or personal characteristics: back to my old self after the scare

3 one's own welfare or interests: he only thinks of self

4 an individual's consciousness of his or her own identity or being

► pron

5 (not standard) myself, yourself, himself, or herself: setting goals for self and others

self- combining form

1 (used with many main words to mean) of oneself or itself: self-defence

2 (used with many main words to mean) by, to, in, due to, for, or from the self: self-employed; self-respect

3 (used with many main words to mean) automatic or automatically: self-propelled self-catering adj (of accommodation) for tenants providing and preparing their own food self-coloured or (US) self-colored adj

1 having only a single and uniform colour: a self-coloured tie

2 (of cloth or wool) having the natural or original colour self-conscious adj embarrassed or ill at ease through being unduly aware of oneself as the object of the attention of others > self-consciously adv

> self-consciousness n

self-contained adj

1 containing within itself all parts necessary for completeness

2 (of a flat) having its own kitchen, bathroom, and toilet not shared by others self-determination n

1 the ability to make a decision for oneself without influence from outside

2 the right of a nation or people to determine its own form of government > self-determined adj self-evident adj so obvious that no proof or explanation is needed > self-evidently adv

self-harm n the practice of deliberately wounding oneself self-help n

1 the use of one's own abilities and resources to help oneself without relying on the assistance of others

2 the practice of solving one's problems within a group of people with similar problems selfie n (informal) a photograph taken by pointing the camera at oneself selfie stick n (informal) a rod on which a camera or mobile phone may be mounted in order to take a photograph of oneself

self-interest n

1 one's personal interest or advantage

2 the pursuit of one's own interest > self-interested adj

selfish adj

1 caring too much about oneself and not enough about others

◇ SYNONYMS: self-centred, self-interested, greedy, ungenerous, egoistic or egoistical, egotistic or egotistical

2 (of behaviour or attitude) motivated by self-interest

◇ SYNONYMS: self-centred, self-interested, greedy, ungenerous, egoistic or egoistical, egotistic or egotistical

> selfishly adv

> selfishness n

selfless adj putting other people's interests before one's own > selflessly adv

> selflessness n

self-made adj having achieved wealth or status by one's own efforts self-possessed adj having control of one's emotions or behaviour, esp. in difficult situations > self-possession n

self-raising adj (of flour) having a raising agent, such as baking powder, already added self-righteous adj thinking oneself more virtuous than others > self-righteousness n selfsame adj the very same: this was the selfsame woman I'd met on the train self-seeking n

1 the act or an instance of seeking one's own profit or interests

► adj

2 inclined to promote only one's own profit or interests: self-seeking politicians > self-seeker n

self-service adj

1 of or denoting a shop or restaurant where the customers serve themselves and then pay a cashier

► n

2 the practice of serving oneself and then paying a cashier self-styled adj using a title or name that one has given oneself, esp. without right or justification; so-called: the self-styled leader of the rebellion

self-sufficient adj able to provide for or support oneself without the help of others > self-sufficiency n

self-willed adj stubbornly determined to have one's own way, esp. at the expense of others sell vb selling, sold

1 to exchange (something) for money

◇ SYNONYMS: trade, exchange, barter

2 to deal in (objects or property): he sells used cars

◇ SYNONYMS: deal in, market, trade in, stock, handle, retail, peddle, traffic in

3 to give up or surrender for a price or reward: to sell one's honour

4 sell for to have a specified price: they sell for 10 pence each

5 to promote the sale of (objects or property): sporting success sells newspapers

6 to gain acceptance of: he'll sell an idea to a producer

7 to be in demand on the market: his books did not sell well enough

8 sell down the river (informal) to betray

9 sell oneself

A to convince someone else of one's potential or worth

B to give up one's moral standards for a price or reward

10 sell someone short (informal) to undervalue someone

► n

11 the act or an instance of selling: the hard sell

► See also sell out > seller n

sell-by date n

1 (Brit) the date printed on packaged food specifying the date after which the food should not be sold

2 past one's sell-by date beyond one's prime

Sellotape n

1 (Brit, trademark) a type of transparent adhesive tape

► vb -taping, -taped

2 to seal or stick using adhesive tape sell out vb

1

A to dispose of (something) completely by selling

◇ SYNONYMS sell out of something: run out of, be out of stock of

B (of items for sale) to be bought up completely: these tickets will sell out in minutes

2 (informal) to abandon one's principles, standards, etc.

3 (informal) to betray in order to gain an advantage or benefit

► n sellout

4 (informal) a performance of a show, etc. for which all tickets are sold

5 a commercial success

6 (informal) a betrayal selvage or selvedge n a specially woven edge on a length of fabric to prevent it from unravelling > selvaged adj selves n the plural of self semantic adj

1 of or relating to the meanings of words

2 of or relating to semantics semantics n the branch of linguistics that deals with the study of meaning semaphore n

1 a system of signalling by holding two flags in different positions to represent letters of the alphabet

► vb -phoring, -phored

2 to signal (information) by semaphore semblance n outward or superficial appearance: some semblance of order had been established semen n the thick whitish fluid containing spermatozoa that is produced by the male reproductive organs and ejaculated from the penis semester n either of two divisions of the academic year semi n (Brit & Austral & S African informal) short for semidetached semi- prefix

1 half: semicircle

2 partly or almost: semiprofessional

3 occurring twice in a specified period: semiweekly

semibreve n (music) a note, now the longest in common use, with a time value that may be divided by any power of 2 to give all other notes semicolon n the punctuation mark (;) used to separate clauses or items in a list, or to indicate a pause longer than that of a comma and shorter than that of a full stop semiconductor n (physics) a substance, such as silicon, which has an electrical conductivity that increases with temperature semidetached adj

1 (of a house) joined to another house on one side by a common wall

► n

2 (Brit) a semidetached house: the mock Georgian semidetached semi-final n the round before the final in a competition > semi-finalist n

seminal adj

1 highly original and influential: seminal thinkers

2 potentially capable of development

3 of semen: seminal fluid

4 (biol) of seed seminar n

1 a small group of students meeting regularly under the guidance of a tutor for study and discussion

2 one such meeting seminary n, pl -naries a college for the training of priests > seminarian n

semiprecious adj (of certain stones) having less value than a precious stone semiquaver n (music) a note having the time value of one-sixteenth of a semibreve

Semite n a member of the group of peoples who speak a Semitic language, such as the Jews and Arabs

Semitic n

1 a group of languages that includes Arabic, Hebrew, and Aramaic

► adj

2 of this group of languages

3 of any of the peoples speaking a Semitic language, esp. the Jews or the Arabs

4 same as Jewish semitone n the smallest interval between two notes in Western music represented on a piano by the difference in pitch between any two adjacent keys

> semitonic adj semitrailer n (Austral) a large truck in two separate sections joined by a pivoted bar. Also called: semi semolina n the large hard grains of wheat left after flour has been milled, used for making puddings and pasta senate n the main governing body at some universities

Senate n the upper chamber of the legislatures of Australia, the US, Canada, and many other countries senator n a member of a Senate > senatorial adj

send vb sending, sent

1 to cause (a person or thing) to go or be taken or transmitted to another place:

send a message

◇ SYNONYMS: dispatch, forward, direct, convey, remit

2 send for to dispatch a request or command for (someone or something): she had sent for me

3 to cause to go to a place or point: the bullet sent him flying into the air

◇ SYNONYMS: propel, hurl, fling, shoot, fire, cast, let fly

4 to bring to a state or condition: his schemes to send her mad

5 to cause to happen or come: the thunderstorm sent by the gods

6 (old-fashioned, slang) to move to excitement or rapture: this music really sends me > sender n

sendoff n

1 (informal) a show of good wishes to a person about to set off on a journey or start a new career

◇ SYNONYMS: farewell, departure, leave-taking, valediction

► vb send off

2 to dispatch (something, such as a letter)

3 (sport) (of a referee) to dismiss (a player) from the field of play for some offence send up (informal) vb

1 to make fun of by doing an imitation or parody

◇ SYNONYMS send something or someone up: mock, mimic, parody, spoof (informal), imitate, take off (informal), make fun of, lampoon

► n send-up

2 a parody or imitation senile adj mentally or physically weak or infirm on account of old age > senility n

senior adj

1 higher in rank or length of service

◇ SYNONYMS: higher-ranking, superior

2 older in years: senior citizens

3 (education) of or designating more advanced or older pupils or students

► n

4 a senior person seniority n, pl -ties

1 the state of being senior

2 degree of power or importance in an organization from length of continuous service senna n

1 a tropical plant with yellow flowers and long pods

2 the dried leaves and pods of this plant, used as a laxative señor (sen-nyor) n a Spanish form of address equivalent to sir or Mr señora (sen-nyor-a) n a Spanish form of address equivalent to madam or Mrs señorita (sen-nyor-ee-ta) n a Spanish form of address equivalent to madam or Miss sensation n

1 the power of feeling things physically: I lose all sensation in my hands

◇ SYNONYMS: feeling, sense, impression, perception, awareness, consciousness

2 a physical feeling: a burning sensation in the throat

3 a general feeling or awareness: a sensation of vague resentment

◇ SYNONYMS: feeling, sense, impression, perception, awareness, consciousness

4 a state of excitement: imagine the sensation in Washington!

- ◇ SYNONYMS: excitement, thrill, stir, furore, commotion 5 an exciting person or thing: you'll be a sensation sensational adj

- 1 causing intense feelings of shock, anger, or excitement: sensational allegations ◇ SYNONYMS: amazing, dramatic, thrilling, astounding 2 (informal) extremely good: the views are sensational ◇ SYNONYMS: excellent, superb (old-fashioned), mean (slang), impressive, smashing (old-fashioned), fabulous (informal), marvellous, out of this world (informal), booshit (Austral slang), exo (Austral slang), sik (Austral slang), rad (informal), phat (slang), schmick (Austral informal), funky 3 of the senses or sensation > sensationally adv

sensationalism n the deliberate use of sensational language or subject matter to arouse feelings of shock, anger, or excitement > sensationalist adj, n

sense n

- 1 any of the faculties (sight, hearing, touch, taste, and smell) by which the mind receives information about the external world or the state of the body ◇ SYNONYMS: faculty 2 the ability to perceive 3 a feeling perceived through one of the senses: a sense of warmth ◇ SYNONYMS: feeling, impression, perception, awareness, consciousness, atmosphere, aura 4 a mental perception or awareness: a sense of security ◇ SYNONYMS: feeling, impression, perception, awareness, consciousness, atmosphere, aura
5 ability to make moral judgments: a sense of honour 6 (usually pl) sound practical judgment or intelligence: you must have lost your senses when you bought that ◇ SYNONYMS: intelligence, reason, understanding, brains (informal), judgment, wisdom, wit(s), common sense 7 reason or purpose: no sense in continuing

8 general meaning: he couldn't understand every word but he got the sense of what they were saying

◇ SYNONYMS: meaning, significance, import, implication, drift, gist

9 specific meaning; definition: the three senses of the word

◇ SYNONYMS: meaning, significance, import, implication, drift, gist

10 make sense to be understandable or practical ► vb sensing, sensed

11 to perceive without the evidence of the senses: he sensed that she was impressed

◇ SYNONYMS: perceive, feel, understand, pick up, realize, be aware of, discern, get the impression

12 to perceive through the senses

◇ SYNONYMS: perceive, feel, understand, pick up, realize, be aware of, discern, get the impression senseless adj

1 having no meaning or purpose: a senseless act of violence

2 unconscious > senselessly adv

> senselessness n

sensibility n, pl -ties

1 (often pl) the ability to experience deep feelings

2 (usually pl) the tendency to be influenced or offended: its sheer callousness offended her sensibilities

◇ SYNONYMS: feelings, emotions, sentiments, susceptibilities, moral sense

3 the ability to perceive or feel sensible adj

1 having or showing good sense or judgment

◇ SYNONYMS: wise, practical, prudent, shrewd, judicious

2 (of clothing and footwear) practical and hard-wearing

3 capable of receiving sensation

4 capable of being perceived by the senses

5 perceptible to the mind

6 (literary) aware: sensible of your kindness > sensibly adv

sensitive adj

1 easily hurt; tender

◇ SYNONYMS: delicate, tender

2 responsive to feelings and moods

◇ SYNONYMS: thoughtful, kindly, concerned, patient, attentive, tactful, unselfish

3 responsive to external stimuli or impressions

◇ SYNONYMS: susceptible, responsive, easily affected

4 easily offended or shocked

◇ SYNONYMS: touchy, oversensitive, easily upset, easily offended, easily hurt

5 (of a subject or issue) liable to arouse controversy or strong feelings

6 (of an instrument) capable of registering small differences or changes in amounts

◇ SYNONYMS: precise, fine, acute, keen, responsive

7 (of photographic materials) responding readily to the action of light: a sensitive emulsion

8 (chiefly US) connected with matters affecting national security > sensitively adv

> sensitivity n

sensitize or -tise vb -tizing, -tized or -tising, -tised to make sensitive > sensitization or -tisation n sensor n a device that detects or measures a physical property, such as radiation sensory adj relating to the physical senses sensual adj

1 giving pleasure to the body and senses rather than the mind: soft sensual music

2 having a strong liking for physical, esp. sexual, pleasures ◇ SYNONYMS: sexual, erotic, raunchy (informal), lewd, lascivious, lustful, lecherous

3 of the body and senses rather than the mind or soul

◇ SYNONYMS: physical, bodily, voluptuous, animal, luxurious, fleshly, carnal > sensualist n

sensuality n

1 the quality or state of being sensual

2 enjoyment of physical, esp. sexual, pleasures sensuous adj

1 pleasing to the senses of the mind or body: the sensuous rhythms of the drums

2 (of a person) appreciating qualities perceived by the senses > sensuously adv

sent vb the past of send sentence n

1 a sequence of words constituting a statement, question, or a command that begins with a capital letter and ends with a full stop when written down

2

A the decision of a law court as to what punishment is passed on a convicted person

◇ SYNONYMS: verdict, order, ruling, decision, judgment, decree

B the punishment passed on a convicted person

◇ SYNONYMS: punishment, condemnation

► vb -tencing, -tenced

3 to pronounce sentence on (a convicted person) in a law court

◇ SYNONYMS: condemn, doom > sentential adj

sententious adj (formal)

1 trying to sound wise

2 making pompous remarks about morality > sententiously adv

sentient (sen-tee-ent, sen-shent) adj capable of perception and feeling > sentience n

sentiment n

1 a mental attitude based on a mixture of thoughts and feelings: anti-American sentiment

2 (often pl) a thought, opinion, or attitude expressed in words: his sentiments were echoed by subsequent speakers

◇ SYNONYMS: feeling, idea, view, opinion, attitude, belief, judgment

3 feelings such as tenderness, romance, and sadness, esp. when exaggerated: someone without the softness of sentiment

◇ SYNONYMS: sentimentality, emotion, tenderness, romanticism, sensibility, emotionalism, mawkishness sentimental adj

1 feeling or expressing tenderness, romance, or sadness to an exaggerated extent

◇ SYNONYMS: romantic, touching, emotional, nostalgic, maudlin, weepy (informal), slushy (informal), schmaltzy (slang)

2 appealing to the emotions, esp. to romantic feelings: she kept the ring for sentimental reasons

◇ SYNONYMS: romantic, touching, emotional, nostalgic, maudlin, weepy (informal), slushy (informal), schmaltzy (slang)

> sentimentalism n

> sentimentalist n > sentimentality n

> sentimentally adv

sentimentalize or -lize vb -lizing, -lized or -lising, -lised to make sentimental or behave sentimentally sentinel n (old-fashioned) a sentry sentry n, pl -tries a soldier who keeps watch and guards a camp or building sepal n (botany) a leaflike division of the calyx of a flower separable adj able to be separated separate vb -rating, -rated

1 to act as a barrier between: the narrow stretch of water which separates Europe from Asia

◇ SYNONYMS: divide, detach, disconnect, disjoin

2 to part or be parted from a mass or group

◇ SYNONYMS: come apart, split, come away

3 to distinguish: it's what separates the good players from the poor ones

◇ SYNONYMS: distinguish, mark, single out, set apart

4 to divide or be divided into component parts

5 to sever or be severed

◇ SYNONYMS: sever, break apart, split in two, divide in two

6 (of a couple) to stop living together

◇ SYNONYMS: split up, part, divorce, break up, part company, get divorced, be estranged

► adj

7 existing or considered independently: a separate issue

◇ SYNONYMS: unconnected, individual, particular, divided, divorced, isolated, detached, disconnected

8 set apart from the main body or mass

◇ SYNONYMS: individual, independent, apart, distinct

9 distinct or individual

◇ SYNONYMS: individual, independent, apart, distinct > separately adv

> separateness n

> separator n

separation n

1 the act of separating: the separation of child from mother

◇ SYNONYMS: division, break, dissociation, disconnection, disunion

2 (family law) the living apart of a married couple without divorce

◇ SYNONYMS: split-up, parting, split, divorce, break-up, rift

3 a mark, line, or object that separates one thing from another separatist n a person who advocates the separation of his or her own group from an organization or country > separatism n

sepia adj dark reddish-brown, like the colour of very old photographs sepo n (formerly) an Indian soldier in the service of the British sepsis n poisoning caused by the presence of pus-forming bacteria in the body

Sept. September

September n the ninth month of the year septet n

1 a group of seven performers

2 a piece of music for seven performers septic adj of or caused by harmful bacteria > septicity n

septicaemia or septicemia (sep-tis-see-mee-a) n an infection of the blood which develops in a wound septic tank n a tank in which sewage is decomposed by the action of bacteria septuagenarian n

1 a person who is between 70 and 79 years old

► adj

2 between 70 and 79 years old sepulchral (sip-pulk-ral) adj

1 gloomy and solemn, like a tomb or grave

2 of a sepulchre sepulchre or (US) sepulcher (sep-pulk-er) n

1 a burial vault, tomb, or grave

► vb -chring, -chred (US) -chering, -chered

2 to bury in a sepulchre sequel n

1 a film, novel, or play that continues the story of an earlier one

◇ SYNONYMS: follow-up, continuation, development

2 anything that happens after or as a result of something else: there was an amusing sequel to this incident

◇ SYNONYMS: consequence, result, outcome, conclusion, end, upshot sequence n

1 an arrangement of two or more things in a successive order

◇ SYNONYMS: succession, course, series, order, chain, cycle, arrangement, progression

2 the successive order of two or more things: chronological sequence

3 an action or event that follows another or others

4 (maths) an ordered set of numbers or other quantities in one-to-one correspondence with the integers 1 to n

5 a section of a film forming a single uninterrupted episode

► vb

6 to arrange in a sequence sequential adj happening in a fixed order or sequence sequester vb

1 to seclude: he could sequester himself in his own home

2 (law) same as sequestrate sequestrate vb -trating, -trated (law) to confiscate (property) temporarily until creditors are satisfied or a court order is complied with > sequestration n

> sequestrator n

sequin n a small piece of shiny metal foil used to decorate clothes > sequined adj

sequoia n a giant Californian coniferous tree seraglio (sir-ah-lee-oh) n, pl -raglios

1 the part of a Muslim house or palace where the owner's wives live

2 a Turkish sultan's palace seraph n, pl -raphim (theol) a member of the highest order of angels > seraphic adj

Serb adj, n same as Serbian

Serbian adj

1 of Serbia

► n

2 a person from Serbia

3 the dialect of Serbo-Croat spoken in Serbia

Serbo-Croat or Serbo-Croatian n

1 the chief official language of Serbia and Croatia

► adj

2 of this language

serenade n

1 a piece of music played or sung to a person by a lover

2 a piece of music suitable for this

3 an orchestral suite for a small ensemble

► vb -nading, -naded

4 to sing or play a serenade to (someone) serendipity n the gift of making fortunate discoveries by accident serene adj

1 peaceful or calm

2 (of the sky) clear or bright > serenely adv

> serenity n

serf n (esp. in medieval Europe) a labourer who could not leave the land on which he worked > serfdom n

serge n a strong fabric made of wool, cotton, silk, or rayon, used for clothing sergeant n

1 a noncommissioned officer in the armed forces

2 (in Britain, S Africa, Australia, and NZ) a police officer ranking between constable and inspector sergeant at arms n a parliamentary or court officer responsible for keeping order sergeant major n a noncommissioned officer of the highest rank in the army serial n

- 1 a story published or broadcast in instalments at regular intervals
- 2 a publication that is regularly issued and consecutively numbered
- adj
- 3 of, in, or forming a series: serial pregnancies
- 4 published or presented as a serial
- > serially adv

serialize or -ise vb -izing, -ized or -ising, -ised to publish or present in the form of a serial > serialization or -isation n serial killer n a person who commits a number of murders series n, pl -ries

- 1 a group or succession of related things ◇ SYNONYMS: sequence, course, chain, succession, run, set, order, train
- 2 a set of radio or television programmes dealing with the same subject, esp. one having the same characters but different stories ◇ SYNONYMS: drama, serial, soap (informal), sitcom (informal), soap opera, soapie or soapy (Austral slang), situation comedy
- 3 (maths) the sum of a finite or infinite sequence of numbers or quantities
- 4 (electronics) an arrangement of two or more components connected in a circuit so that the same current flows in turn through each of them: a number of resistors in series
- 5 (geol) a set of layers that represent the rocks formed during an epoch serious adj

- 1 giving cause for concern: the situation is serious ◇ SYNONYMS: grave, bad, critical, dangerous, acute, severe
- 2 concerned with important matters: there are some serious questions that need to be answered

◇ SYNONYMS: important, crucial (informal), urgent, pressing, worrying, significant, grim, momentous

3 not cheerful; grave: I am a serious person

◇ SYNONYMS: solemn, earnest, grave, sober, staid, humourless, unsmiling

4 in earnest; sincere: he believes we are serious

◇ SYNONYMS: sincere, earnest, genuine, honest, in earnest

5 requiring concentration: a serious book

◇ SYNONYMS: thoughtful, detailed, careful, deep, profound, in-depth

6 (informal) impressive because of its substantial quantity or quality: serious money > seriously adv

> seriousness n

sermon n

1 a speech on a religious or moral subject given by a member of the clergy as part of a church service

◇ SYNONYMS: homily, address

2 (derogatory) a serious talk on behaviour, morals, or duty, esp. a long and tedious one serotonin (ser-roe-tone-in) n (biochem) a compound that occurs in the brain, intestines, and blood platelets and acts as a neurotransmitter serpent n

1 (literary) a snake

2 a devious person serpentine adj twisting like a snake serrated adj having a notched or sawlike edge > serration n

serum (seer-um) n

- 1 the yellowish watery fluid left after blood has clotted
- 2 this fluid from the blood of immunized animals used for inoculation or vaccination
- 3 (physiol, zool) any clear watery animal fluid servant n

- 1 a person employed to do household work for another person ◇ SYNONYMS: attendant, domestic, slave, maid, help, retainer, skivvy (chiefly Brit)
- 2 a person or thing that is useful or provides a service: a distinguished servant of this country

serve vb serving, served

- 1 to be of service to (a person, community, or cause); help ◇ SYNONYMS: work for, help, aid, assist, be in the service of
- 2 to perform an official duty or duties: he served on several university committees
- 3 to attend to (customers) in a shop
- 4 to provide (guests) with food or drink: he served dinner guests German wine ◇ SYNONYMS: present, provide, supply, deliver, set out, dish up
- 5 to provide (food or drink) for customers: breakfast is served from 7 am ◇ SYNONYMS: present, provide, supply, deliver, set out, dish up
- 6 to provide with something needed by the public: the community served by the school
- 7 to work as a servant for (a person)
- 8 to go through (a period of police or military service, apprenticeship, or imprisonment) ◇ SYNONYMS: perform, do, complete, fulfil, discharge
- 9 to meet the needs of: they serve a purpose ◇ SYNONYMS: be adequate, do, suffice, suit, satisfy, be acceptable, answer the purpose
- 10 to perform a function: the attacks only served to strengthen their resolve
- 11 (of a male animal) to mate with (a female animal)
- 12 (tennis, squash, etc.) to put (the ball) into play
- 13 to deliver (a legal document) to (a person)
- 14 serve someone right (informal) to be what someone deserves, esp. for doing something stupid or wrong

► n

15 (tennis, squash, etc.) short for service server n

1 a computer or program that supplies data to other machines on a network

2 a person who serves service n

1 an act of help or assistance

2 an organization or system that provides something needed by the public: a consumer information service

◇ SYNONYMS: facility, system, resource, utility, amenity

3 a department of public employment and its employees: the diplomatic service

4 the installation or maintenance of goods provided by a dealer after a sale

5 availability for use by the public: the new plane could be in service within fifteen years

6 a regular check made on a machine or vehicle in which parts are tested, cleaned, or replaced if worn

◇ SYNONYMS: check, maintenance check

7 the serving of guests or customers: service is included on the wine list

8 one of the branches of the armed forces

9 the serving of food: silver service

10 a set of dishes, cups, and plates for use at table

11 a formal religious ceremony

◇ SYNONYMS: ceremony, worship, rite, observance

12 (tennis, squash, etc.)

A the act, manner, or right of serving the ball

B the game in which a particular player serves: she dropped only one point on her service

► adj

13 of or for the use of servants or employees: a service elevator

14 serving the public rather than producing goods: service industries

► vb -vicing, -viced

15 to provide service or services to 16 to check and repair (a vehicle or machine)

◇ SYNONYMS: overhaul, check, maintain, tune (up), go over, fine-tune

17 (of a male animal) to mate with (a female animal)

serviceable adj

1 performing effectively: serviceable boots

2 able or ready to be used: five remaining serviceable aircraft > serviceability n

service area n a place on a motorway with a garage, restaurants, and toilets serviceman or (fem) servicewoman n, pl -men or -women

1 a person in the armed services

2 a person employed to service and maintain equipment service road n (Brit & Austral) a narrow road running parallel to a main road that provides access to houses and shops situated along its length service station n

1 a place that sells fuel, oil, and spare parts for motor vehicles

2 same as service area serviette n (Brit & Canad) a table napkin servile adj

1 too eager to obey people; fawning

2 of or suitable for a slave > servility n servitude n (formal)

1 slavery or bondage

2 the state or condition of being completely dominated sesame (sess-am-ee) n an Asian plant, grown for its seeds and oil, which are used in cooking sesh n (slang) a session session n

1 any period devoted to a particular activity

2 a meeting of a court, parliament, or council

◇ SYNONYMS: meeting, hearing, sitting, period, conference, congress, discussion, assembly

3 a series or period of such meetings

◇ SYNONYMS: meeting, hearing, sitting, period, conference, congress, discussion, assembly

4 a school or university term or year > sessional adj

set¹ vb setting, set

1 to put in a specified position or state: I set him free

◇ SYNONYMS: put, place, lay, position, rest, plant, station, stick (informal)

2 set to or on to bring (something) into contact with (something else): three prisoners set fire to their cells

3 to put into order or make ready: set the table

◇ SYNONYMS: prepare, lay, spread, arrange, make ready

4 to make or become firm or rigid: before the eggs begin to set

◇ SYNONYMS: harden, stiffen, solidify, cake, thicken, crystallize, congeal

5 to put (a broken bone) or (of a broken bone) to be put into a normal position for healing

6 to adjust (a clock or other instrument) to a particular position

7 to arrange or establish: to set a date for diplomatic talks; it set the standards of performance

◇ SYNONYMS: arrange, decide (upon), settle, establish, determine, fix, schedule, appoint

8 to prescribe or assign (a task or material for study): the examiners have set 'Paradise Lost'

◇ SYNONYMS: assign, give, allot, prescribe

9 to arrange (hair) while wet, so that it dries in position

10 to place a jewel in (a setting): a ring set with diamonds

11 to provide music for (a poem or other text to be sung)

12 (printing)

A to arrange (type) for printing

B to put (text) into type

13 to arrange (a stage or television studio) with scenery and props

14 set to or on to value (something) at a specified price or worth: he set a high price on his services

15 (of the sun or moon) to disappear beneath the horizon

◇ SYNONYMS: go down, sink, dip, decline, disappear, vanish, subside

16 (of plants) to produce (fruits or seeds) or (of fruits or seeds) to develop

17 to place (a hen) on (eggs) to incubate them

18 (of a gun dog) to turn in the direction of game birds

► n

19 the act of setting

20 a condition of firmness or hardness

21 manner of standing; posture: the set of his shoulders

◇ SYNONYMS: position, bearing, attitude, carriage, posture

22 the scenery and other props used in a play or film

◇ SYNONYMS: scenery, setting, scene, stage set

23 same as sett

► adj

24 fixed or established by authority or agreement: set hours of work

◇ SYNONYMS: established, planned, decided, agreed, arranged, rigid, definite, inflexible

25 rigid or inflexible: she is set in her ways

◇ SYNONYMS: strict, rigid, stubborn, inflexible

26 unmoving; fixed: a set expression on his face

27 conventional or stereotyped: she made her apology in set phrases

◇ SYNONYMS: conventional, traditional, stereotyped, unspontaneous

28 set in (of a scene or story) represented as happening at a certain time or place: a European film set in Africa

29 set on or upon determined to (do or achieve something): why are you so set upon avoiding me?

30 ready: all set to go

31 (of material for study) prescribed for students' preparation for an examination set² n

1 a number of objects or people grouped or belonging together: a set of slides

◇ SYNONYMS: series, collection, assortment, batch, compendium, ensemble

2 a group of people who associate with each other or have similar interests: the tennis set

◇ SYNONYMS: group, company, crowd, circle, band, gang, faction, clique

3 (maths) a collection of numbers or objects that satisfy a given condition or share a property

4 a television or piece of radio equipment

5 the scenery and other props used in a dramatic production, film, etc.

6 (sport) a group of games or points in a match, of which the winner must win a certain number

7 a series of songs or tunes performed by a musician or group on a given occasion set back vb

1 to delay or hinder

2 (informal) to cost (a person) a specified amount

► n setback

3 anything that delays progress

◇ SYNONYMS: hold-up, check, defeat, blow, reverse, disappointment, hitch, misfortune set square n a thin flat piece of plastic or metal in the shape of a right-angled triangle, used in technical drawing

sett or set n

1 a badger's burrow

2 a small rectangular paving block made of stone settee n a seat, for two or more people, with a back and usually with arms; couch setter n a large long-haired dog originally bred for hunting setting n

1 the surroundings in which something is set

◇ SYNONYMS: surroundings, site, location, set, scene, background, context, backdrop

2 the scenery, properties, or background used to create the location for a stage play or film

◇ SYNONYMS: surroundings, site, location, set, scene, background, context, backdrop

3 a piece of music written for the words of a text

4 the decorative metalwork in which a gem is set

5 the plates and cutlery for a single place at a table

6 one of the positions or levels to which the controls of a machine can be adjusted settle¹ vb -tling, -tled

1 to put in order: he settled his affairs before he died

◇ SYNONYMS: resolve, work out, put an end to, straighten out

2 to arrange or be arranged firmly or comfortably: he settled into his own chair by the fire

3 to come down to rest: a bird settled on top of the hedge

◇ SYNONYMS: land, alight, descend, light, come to rest

4 to establish or become established as a resident: they eventually settled in Glasgow

◇ SYNONYMS: move to, take up residence in, live in, dwell in, inhabit, reside in, set up home in, put down roots in

5 to establish or become established in a way of life or a job

6 to migrate to (a country) and form a community; colonize

◇ SYNONYMS: colonize, populate, people, pioneer

7 to make or become quiet, calm, or stable

◇ SYNONYMS: calm, quiet, relax, relieve, reassure, soothe, lull, quell

8 to cause (sediment) to sink to the bottom in a liquid or (of sediment) to sink thus

9 to subside: the dust settled

10 (sometimes foll. by up) to pay off (a bill or debt)

◇ SYNONYMS: pay, clear, square (up), discharge

11 to decide or dispose of: to settle an argument

12 (often foll. by on or upon) to agree or fix: they settled on an elementary code

13 (usually foll. by on or upon) to give (a title or property) to a person by gift or legal deed: he settled his property on his wife

14 to decide (a legal dispute) by agreement without court action: they settled out of court

settle² n a long wooden bench with a high back and arms, sometimes having a storage space under the seat settlement n

1 an act of settling

2 a place newly settled; colony

◇ SYNONYMS: colony, community, outpost, encampment, kainga or kaika (NZ)

3 subsidence of all or part of a building

4 an official agreement ending a dispute

◇ SYNONYMS: agreement, arrangement, working out, conclusion, establishment, confirmation

5 (law)

A an arrangement by which property is transferred to a person's possession

B the deed transferring such property settler n a person who settles in a new country or a colony

◇ SYNONYMS: colonist, immigrant, pioneer, frontiersman or frontierswoman set-top box n a device which converts the signals from a digital television broadcast into a form which can be viewed on an analogue television, or that enables satellite, cable, or streaming services to be viewed

set up vb

1 to build or construct: the soldiers had actually set up a munitions factory

◇ SYNONYMS set something up: build, raise, construct, put up, assemble, put together, erect

2 to put into a position of power or wealth

3 to begin or enable (someone) to begin (a new venture): he set up a small shop

◇ SYNONYMS set something up: establish, begin, found, institute, initiate

4 to begin or produce: to set up a nuclear chain reaction

5 to establish: Broad set up a world record

6 (informal) to cause (a person) to be blamed or accused

7 to restore the health of: a pub lunch set me up nicely

► n setup

8 (informal) the way in which anything is organized or arranged

◇ SYNONYMS: arrangement, system, structure, organization, conditions, regime

9 (slang) an event the result of which is prearranged seven n

1 the cardinal number that is the sum of one and six

2 a numeral, 7 or VII, representing this number

3 something representing or consisting of seven units

► adj

4 amounting to seven: seven weeks > seventh adj, n

seventeen n

1 the cardinal number that is the sum of ten and seven

2 a numeral, 17 or XVII, representing this number

3 something representing or consisting of seventeen units

► adj

4 amounting to seventeen: seventeen children > seventeenth adj, n

seventy n, pl -ties

1 the cardinal number that is the product of ten and seven

2 a numeral, 70 or LXX, representing this number

3 something representing or consisting of seventy units

► adj

4 amounting to seventy: seventy countries > seventieth adj, n

sever vb

1 to cut right through or cut off (something): it accidentally severed the electrical cable

◇ SYNONYMS: cut, separate, split, part, divide, detach, disconnect, cut in two

2 to break off (a tie or relationship)

◇ SYNONYMS: discontinue, terminate, break off, put an end to, dissociate > severable adj

> severance n

several adj

1 more than a few: I spoke to several doctors

2 (formal) various or separate: the members with their several occupations

◇ SYNONYMS: various, different, diverse, sundry

3 (formal) distinct or different: misfortune visited her three several times severally adv (formal) individually or separately: the Western nations severally rather than jointly decided that they would have to act without Russia severance pay n compensation paid by a firm to an employee who has to leave because the job he or she was appointed to do no longer exists severe adj

1 strict or harsh in the treatment of others: a severe parent

◇ SYNONYMS: strict, hard, harsh, cruel, rigid, drastic, oppressive, austere

2 serious in appearance or manner: a severe look; a severe hairdo

◇ SYNONYMS: grim, serious, grave, forbidding, stern, unsmiling, tight-lipped

3 very intense or unpleasant: severe chest pains; the punishments are severe

◇ SYNONYMS: serious, critical, terrible, desperate, extreme, awful, drastic, catastrophic

4 causing discomfort by its harshness: severe frost

◇ SYNONYMS: acute, intense, violent, piercing, harrowing, unbearable, agonizing, insufferable

5 hard to perform or accomplish: a severe challenge > severely adv

> severity n

sew vb sewing, sewed, sewn or sewed

1 to join with thread repeatedly passed through with a needle

2 to attach, fasten, or close by sewing

◇ SYNONYMS: stitch, tack (Brit), seam, hem sewage n waste matter or excrement carried away in sewers or drains sewer n a drain or pipe, usually underground, used to carry away surface water or sewage sewerage n

1 a system of sewers

2 the removal of surface water or sewage by means of sewers sewn vb a past participle of sew sex n

1 the state of being male or female with reference to reproductive function

◇ SYNONYMS: gender

2 either of the two categories, male or female, into which organisms are divided

◇ SYNONYMS: gender

3 sexual intercourse

◇ SYNONYMS: lovemaking, sexual relations, copulation, fornication, coitus, cybersex

4 feelings or behaviour connected with having sex or the desire to have sex

5 sexual matters in general

► adj

6 of sexual matters: sex education

7 based on or resulting from the difference between the sexes: sex discrimination

► vb

8 to find out the sex of (an animal) sexagenarian n

1 a person who is between 60 and 69 years old

► adj

2 between 60 and 69 years old sexism n discrimination against the members of one sex, usually women > sexist n, adj

sextant n an instrument used in navigation for measuring angular distance, for example between the sun and the horizon, to calculate the position of a ship or aircraft sextet n

- 1 a group of six performers
- 2 a piece of music for six performers
- 3 a group of six people or things sexton n a person employed to look after a church and its churchyard sexual adj

- 1 of or characterized by sex
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: carnal, erotic, intimate
- 2 (of reproduction) characterized by the union of male and female reproductive cells
- 3 of or relating to the differences between males and females
 - > sexuality n
 - > sexually adv

sexual intercourse n the sexual act in which, typically, the male's erect penis is inserted into the female's vagina sex up vb (informal) to make (something) more exciting sexy adj sexier, sexiest (informal)

- 1 sexually exciting or attractive: a sexy voice
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: erotic, sensual, seductive, arousing, naughty, provocative, sensuous, suggestive, hot (informal)
- 2 interesting, exciting, or trendy: a sexy project; a sexy new car
 - > sexiness n

SF or sf science fiction

Sgt. Sergeant

shabby adj -bier, -biest

1 old and worn in appearance

◇ SYNONYMS: tatty (Brit), worn, ragged, scruffy, tattered, threadbare

2 wearing worn and dirty clothes

◇ SYNONYMS: tatty (Brit), worn, ragged, scruffy, tattered, threadbare

3 behaving in a mean or unfair way: shabby manoeuvres

◇ SYNONYMS: mean, low, rotten (informal), cheap, dirty, despicable, contemptible, scurvy (old-fashioned) > shabbily adv

> shabbiness n

shack n

1 a roughly built hut

◇ SYNONYMS: hut, cabin, shanty, whare (NZ)

► vb

2 shack up with (slang) to live with (a lover) shackle n

1 one of a pair of metal rings joined by a chain for securing someone's wrists or ankles

2 shackles anything that confines or restricts freedom: free from the shackles of its feudal past

3 a metal loop or link closed by a bolt, used for securing ropes or chains

► vb -ling, -led

4 to fasten with shackles

5 to restrict or hamper: an economy shackled by central control shad n, pl shad or shads a herring-like food fish shade n

1 relative darkness produced by blocking out sunlight

◇ SYNONYMS: shadow

2 a place sheltered from the sun by trees, buildings, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: shadow

3 something used to provide a shield or protection from a direct source of light, such as a lamp shade

◇ SYNONYMS: screen, covering, cover, blind, curtain, shield, veil, canopy

4 a shaded area in a painting or drawing

5 any of the different hues of a colour: a much darker shade of grey

◇ SYNONYMS: hue, tone, colour, tint

6 a slight amount: a shade of reluctance

◇ SYNONYMS: dash, trace, hint, suggestion

7 put someone or something in the shade to be so impressive as to make another person or thing seem unimportant by comparison

8 (literary) a ghost

◇ SYNONYMS: ghost, spirit, phantom, spectre, apparition, kehua (NZ)

► vb shading, shaded

9 to screen or protect from heat or light

◇ SYNONYMS: cover, protect, screen, hide, shield, conceal, obscure, veil

10 to make darker or dimmer

◇ SYNONYMS: darken, shadow, cloud, dim

11 to represent (a darker area) in (a painting or drawing), by graded areas of tone, lines, or dots

12 to change slightly or by degrees shadow n

1 a dark image or shape cast on a surface when something stands between a light and the surface

◇ SYNONYMS: silhouette, shape, outline, profile

2 a patch of shade

◇ SYNONYMS: shade, dimness, darkness, gloom, cover, dusk (poetic)

3 the dark portions of a picture

4 a hint or faint trace: a shadow of a doubt

5 a person less powerful or vigorous than his or her former self 6 a threatening influence: news of the murder cast a shadow over the village

7 a person who always accompanies another

8 a person who trails another in secret, such as a detective

► adj

9 (Brit & Austral) designating a member or members of the main opposition party in Parliament who would hold ministerial office if their party were in power: the shadow chancellor

► vb

10 to cast a shade or shadow over

◇ SYNONYMS: shade, screen, shield, darken, overhang

11 to make dark or gloomy

◇ SYNONYMS: shade, screen, shield, darken, overhang

12 to follow or trail secretly

◇ SYNONYMS: follow, tail (informal), trail, stalk shadowy adj

1 (of a place) full of shadows; shady

2 faint or dark like a shadow: a shadowy figure

3 mysterious or not well known: the shadowy world of espionage shady adj shadier, shadiest

1 full of shade; shaded

◇ SYNONYMS: shaded, cool, dim

2 giving or casting shade

◇ SYNONYMS: shaded, cool, dim

3 (informal) of doubtful honesty or legality: shady business dealings

◇ SYNONYMS: crooked (informal), dodgy (Brit & Austral & NZ informal), unethical, suspect, suspicious, dubious, questionable, shifty, shonky (Austral & NZ informal) > shadiness n

shaft n

1

A a spear or arrow

B its long narrow stem

2 shaft of wit or humour a clever or amusing remark

3 a ray or streak of light

◇ SYNONYMS: ray, beam, gleam

4 the long straight narrow handle of a tool or golf club

◇ SYNONYMS: handle, staff, pole, rod, stem, baton, shank

5 a revolving rod in a machine that transmits motion or power

6 one of the bars between which an animal is harnessed to a vehicle

7 (archit) the middle part of a column or pier, between the base and the capital

8 a vertical passageway through a building for a lift

9 a vertical passageway into a mine

◇ SYNONYMS: tunnel, hole, passage, burrow, passageway, channel shag¹ n

1 coarse shredded tobacco

2 a matted tangle of hair or wool

► adj

3 (of a carpet) having long thick woollen threads shag² n a kind of cormorant shag³ vb shagging, shagged (Brit & Austral & NZ slang) (taboo) to have sexual intercourse with (a person)

shaggy adj -gier, -giest

1 having or covered with rough unkempt fur, hair, or wool: shaggy cattle

2 rough and untidy > shagginess n

shagreen n

1 the skin of a shark, used as an abrasive

2 a rough grainy leather made from certain animal hides shah n the title of the former monarch of Iran shake vb shaking, shook, shaken

1 to move up and down or back and forth with short quick movements

◇ SYNONYMS: jiggle, agitate

2 to be or make unsteady

◇ SYNONYMS: rock, totter

3 (of a voice) to tremble because of anger or nervousness

◇ SYNONYMS: tremble, shiver, quake, quiver

4 to clasp or grasp (the hand) of (a person) in greeting or agreement: they shook hands

5 shake on it (informal) to shake hands in agreement or reconciliation

6 to wave vigorously and angrily: he shook his fist

◇ SYNONYMS: wave, wield, flourish, brandish

7 (often foll. by up) to frighten or unsettle

8 to shock, disturb, or upset: he was badly shaken but unharmed

◇ SYNONYMS: upset, shock, frighten, disturb, distress, rattle (informal), unnerve, traumatize

9 to undermine or weaken: a team whose morale had been badly shaken

10 (US & Canad informal) to get rid of 11 (music) to perform a trill on (a note)

12 shake one's head to indicate disagreement or disapproval by moving the head from side to side

► n

13 the act or an instance of shaking

14 a tremor or vibration

◇ SYNONYMS: vibration, trembling, quaking, jerk, shiver, shudder, jolt, tremor

15 the shakes (informal) a state of uncontrollable trembling

16 (informal) a very short period of time: in half a shake

17 (music) same as trill

18 short for milk shake shaky adj shakier, shakiest

1 weak and unsteady, esp. due to illness or shock

◇ SYNONYMS: unstable, weak, precarious, rickety

2 uncertain or doubtful: their prospects are shaky

◇ SYNONYMS: uncertain, suspect, dubious, questionable, iffy (informal)

3 tending to shake or tremble

◇ SYNONYMS: unsteady, faint, trembling, faltering, quivery > shakily adv

shale n a flaky sedimentary rock formed by compression of successive layers of clay shall vb, past tense should

1 (with 'I' or 'we' as subject) used as an auxiliary to make the future tense: we shall see you tomorrow

2 (with 'you', 'he', 'she', 'it', 'they', or a noun as subject)

A used as an auxiliary to indicate determination on the part of the speaker: you shall pay for this!

B used as an auxiliary to indicate compulsion or obligation, now esp. in official documents

3 (with 'I' or 'we' as subject) used as an auxiliary in questions asking for advice or agreement: what shall we do now?; shall I shut the door?

shallot (shal-lot) n a small, onion-like plant used in cooking for flavouring shallow adj

1 having little depth

2 not involving sincere feelings or serious thought

◇ SYNONYMS: superficial, surface, empty, slight, foolish, trivial, meaningless, frivolous

3 (of breathing) consisting of short breaths

► n

4 (often pl) a shallow place in a body of water > shallowness n

sham n

1 anything that is not genuine or is not what it appears to be

◇ SYNONYMS: fraud (informal), imitation, hoax, pretence, forgery, counterfeit, humbug, impostor

2 a person who pretends to be something other than he or she is

► adj

3 not real or genuine

◇ SYNONYMS: false, artificial, bogus, pretended, mock, imitation, simulated, counterfeit

► vb shamming, shammed

4 to fake or feign (something); pretend: he made a point of shamming nervousness

shamble vb -bling, -bled

1 to walk or move along in an awkward shuffling way

► n

2 an awkward or shuffling walk > shambling adj, n

shambles n

1 a disorderly or badly organized event or place: the bathroom was a shambles

◇ SYNONYMS: chaos, mess, disorder, confusion, muddle, havoc (informal), disarray, madhouse (informal)

2 (chiefly Brit) a butcher's slaughterhouse

3 (old-fashioned) any scene of great slaughter shame n

1 a painful emotion resulting from an awareness of having done something wrong or foolish

◇ SYNONYMS: embarrassment, humiliation, ignominy, mortification, abashment

2 capacity to feel such an emotion: have they no shame?

3 loss of respect; disgrace ◇ SYNONYMS: disgrace, scandal, discredit, smear, disrepute, reproach, dishonour, infamy

4 a person or thing that causes this

5 a cause for regret or disappointment: it's a shame to rush back

6 put to shame to show up as being inferior by comparison: his essay put mine to shame

► interj

7 (S African informal)

A an expression of sympathy

B an expression of pleasure or endearment

► vb shaming, shamed

8 to cause to feel shame

◇ SYNONYMS: embarrass, disgrace, humiliate, humble, mortify, abash

9 to bring shame on

◇ SYNONYMS: dishonour, degrade, stain, smear, blot, debase, defile

10 (often foll. by into) to force someone to do something by making him or her feel ashamed not to: he was finally shamed into paying the bill

shamefaced adj embarrassed or guilty > shamefacedly adv

shameful adj causing or deserving shame: a shameful lack of concern ◇ SYNONYMS: disgraceful, outrageous, scandalous, mean, low, base, wicked, dishonourable > shamefully adv

shameless adj
1 having no sense of shame: a shameless manipulator 2 without decency or modesty: a shameless attempt to stifle democracy > shamelessly adv

shammy n, pl -mies (informal) a piece of chamois leather shampoo n

1 a soapy liquid used to wash the hair 2 a similar liquid for washing carpets or upholstery 3 the process of shampooing ► vb -pooing, -pooed
4 to wash (the hair, carpets, or upholstery) with shampoo shamrock n a small clover-like plant with three round leaves on each stem: the national emblem of Ireland shandy n, pl -dies a drink made of beer and lemonade shanghai (slang) vb -haing, -haied 1 to force or trick (someone) into doing something 2 (history) to kidnap (a man) and force him to serve at sea 3 (Austral & NZ) to shoot with a catapult

► n

4 (Austral & NZ) a catapult shank n

- 1 the part of the leg between the knee and the ankle
- 2 a cut of meat from the top part of an animal's shank
- 3 the long narrow part of a tool, key, spoon, etc.

shan't shall not shantung n a heavy Chinese silk with a knobbly surface shanty¹ n, pl -ties a small rough hut; crude dwelling shanty² or chanty² n, pl -ties a rhythmic song originally sung by sailors when working shantytown n a town of poor people living in shanties shape n

- 1 the outward form of an object, produced by its outline ◇ SYNONYMS: form, profile, outline, lines, build, figure, silhouette, configuration
- 2 the figure or outline of the body of a person ◇ SYNONYMS: form, profile, outline, lines, build, figure, silhouette, configuration
- 3 organized or definite form: to preserve the union in its present shape ◇ SYNONYMS: appearance, form, aspect, guise, likeness, semblance
- 4 the specific form that anything takes on: a gold locket in the shape of a heart
- 5 a pattern or mould ◇ SYNONYMS: pattern, model, frame, mould
- 6 condition or state of efficiency: in poor shape ◇ SYNONYMS: condition, state, health, trim, fettle

7 take shape to assume a definite form

► vb shaping, shaped

8 (often foll. by into or up) to receive or cause to receive shape or form:

spinach shaped into a ball

◇ SYNONYMS: mould, form, make, fashion, model, frame

9 to mould into a particular pattern or form

◇ SYNONYMS: mould, form, make, fashion, model, frame

10 to devise or develop: to shape a system of free trade

◇ SYNONYMS: form, make, produce, create, model, fashion, mould shapeless adj

1 (of a person or object) lacking a pleasing shape: a shapeless dress

2 having no definite shape or form: a shapeless mound > shapelessness n

shapely adj -lier, -liest (esp. of a woman's body or legs) pleasing or attractive in shape > shapeliness n

shard n a broken piece or fragment of pottery, glass, or metal share¹ n

1 a part or portion of something that belongs to or is contributed by a person or group

◇ SYNONYMS: part, portion, quota, ration, lot, due, contribution, allowance

2 (often pl) any of the equal parts into which the capital stock of a company is divided

3 (on a social networking site) an instance of transmitting another person's post to one's contacts

► vb sharing, shared

4 (often foll. by out) to divide and distribute

◇ SYNONYMS: divide, split, distribute, assign

5 to receive or contribute a portion of: we shared a bottle of mineral water

◇ SYNONYMS: go halves on, go fifty-fifty on (informal)

6 to join with another or others in the use of (something): a programme about four women sharing a house

7 to go through (a similar experience) as others: we have all shared the nightmare of toothache

8 to tell others about (something)

9 to have the same (beliefs or opinions) as others: universal values shared by both east and west share² n short for ploughshare shareholder n the owner of one or more shares in a company sharemilker n (NZ) a person who works on a dairy farm belonging to someone else and gets a share of the proceeds from the sale of the milk

shark n

1 a large, usually predatory fish with a long body, two dorsal fins, and rows of sharp teeth

2 (derogatory) a person who swindles or extorts money from other people sharkskin n a smooth glossy fabric used for sportswear sharp adj

1 having a keen cutting edge

◇ SYNONYMS: keen, jagged, serrated

2 tapering to an edge or point

3 involving a sudden change in direction: a sharp bend on a road; a sharp rise in prices

◇ SYNONYMS: sudden, marked, abrupt, extreme, distinct

4 moving, acting, or reacting quickly: sharp reflexes

5 clearly defined: a sharp contrast

◇ SYNONYMS: clear, distinct, well-defined, crisp

6 quick to notice or understand things; keen-witted

◇ SYNONYMS: quick-witted, clever, astute, knowing, quick, bright, alert, penetrating

7 clever in an underhand way: sharp practices

8 bitter or harsh: a sharp response

◇ SYNONYMS: cutting, biting, bitter, harsh, barbed, hurtful, caustic

9 shrill or penetrating: a sharp cry of horror

10 having a bitter or sour taste

◇ SYNONYMS: sour, tart, pungent, hot, acid, acrid, piquant

11 (of pain or cold) acute or biting: a sharp gust of wind

◇ SYNONYMS: acute, severe, intense, painful, shooting, stabbing, piercing, gut-wrenching

12 (music)

A (of a note) raised in pitch by one semitone: F sharp

B (of an instrument or voice) out of tune by being too high in pitch

13 (informal) neat and stylish: a sharp dresser

► adv

14 promptly

◇ SYNONYMS: promptly, precisely, exactly, on time, on the dot, punctually

15 exactly: at ten o'clock sharp

◇ SYNONYMS: promptly, precisely, exactly, on time, on the dot, punctually

16 (music)

A higher than a standard pitch

B out of tune by being too high in pitch: she sings sharp

► n

17 (music)

A an accidental that raises the pitch of a note by one semitone. SYMBOL: #

B a note affected by this accidental

18 (informal) a cheat; a cardsharp > sharpish adj

> sharply adv

> sharpness n

sharpen vb to make or become sharp or sharper

◇ SYNONYMS: make sharp, hone, whet, grind, edge > sharpen n

sharpshooter n a person who can fire a gun very accurately shatter vb

1 to break suddenly into many small pieces

◇ SYNONYMS: smash, break, burst, crack, crush, pulverize

2 to damage badly or destroy: to shatter American confidence

◇ SYNONYMS: destroy, ruin, wreck, demolish, torpedo

3 to upset (someone) greatly: the whole experience shattered me > shattering adj shattered adj (informal)

1 completely exhausted

◇ SYNONYMS: exhausted, drained, worn out, done in (informal), all in (slang), knackered (slang), tired out, ready to drop

2 badly upset: he was shattered by the separation

◇ SYNONYMS: devastated, crushed, gutted (slang) shave vb shaving, shaved, shaved or shaven

1 to remove (the beard or hair) from (the face, head, or body) by using a razor or shaver

◇ SYNONYMS: trim, crop

2 to remove thin slices from (wood or other material) with a sharp cutting tool

◇ SYNONYMS: scrape, trim, shear, pare

3 to touch (someone or something) lightly in passing

► n

4 the act or an instance of shaving

5 the removal of hair from the face or body by a razor

6 a tool for cutting off thin slices

7 close shave (informal) a narrow escape shaver n

1 an electrically powered razor

2 (old-fashioned) a young boy shawarma n (in Arabic-speaking countries) a doner kebab shawl n a piece of woollen cloth worn over the head or shoulders or wrapped around a baby she pron

1 (refers to) the female person or animal previously mentioned or in question:
she is my sister

2 (refers to) something regarded as female, such as a car, ship, or nation

► n

3 (refers to) a female person or animal sheaf n, pl sheaves

1 a bundle of papers tied together

2 a bundle of reaped corn tied together

► vb

3 to bind or tie into a sheaf shear vb shearing, sheared or (Austral & NZ, sometimes) shore, sheared or shorn

1 to remove (the fleece) of (a sheep) by cutting or clipping

2 to cut or cut through (something) with shears or a sharp instrument

3 (engineering) to cause (a part) to break or (of a part) to break through strain or twisting

► n

4 breakage caused through strain or twisting

► See also shears

> shearer n

shearing shed n (Austral & NZ) a farm building with equipment for shearing sheep shears pl n

A large scissors, used for sheep shearing

B a large scissor-like cutting tool with flat blades, used for cutting hedges sheath n, pl sheaths

- 1 a case or covering for the blade of a knife or sword
- 2 (biol) a structure that encloses or protects
- 3 (Brit & Austral & NZ) same as condom
- 4 a close-fitting dress sheathe vb sheathing, sheathed

- 1 to insert (a knife or sword) into a sheath
- 2 to cover with a sheath or sheathing shebeen or shebean n (Scot & Irish & S African) a place where alcoholic drink is sold illegally shed¹ n

- 1 a small, roughly made building used for storing garden tools etc.
◇ SYNONYMS: hut, shack, outhouse, whare (NZ)
- 2 a large barnlike building used for various purposes at factories, train stations, etc.: a locomotive shed

shed² vb shedding, shed

- 1 to get rid of: 250 workers shed by the company
- 2 shed tears to cry
- 3 shed light on to make (a problem or situation) easier to understand
- 4 to cast off (skin, hair, or leaves): the trees were already beginning to shed their leaves ◇ SYNONYMS: cast off, discard, moult, slough off
- 5 to cause to flow off: this coat sheds water ◇ SYNONYMS: drop, spill, scatter
- 6 to separate or divide (a group of sheep) sheen n a glistening brightness on the surface of something: grass with a sheen of dew on it

- ◇ SYNONYMS: shine, gleam, gloss, polish, brightness, lustre sheep n, pl sheep

1 a cud-chewing mammal with a thick woolly coat, kept for its wool or meat.

RELATED ADJECTIVE: ovine

2 a timid person

3 like sheep (of a group of people) allowing a single person to dictate their actions or beliefs

4 separate the sheep from the goats to pick out the members of a group who are superior in some respects > sheeplike adj

sheep-dip n

1 a liquid disinfectant and insecticide in which sheep are immersed

2 a deep trough containing such a liquid sheepdog n

1 a dog used for herding sheep

2 a breed of dog reared originally for herding sheep sheepish adj embarrassed because of feeling foolish > sheepishly adv

sheepskin n the skin of a sheep with the wool still attached, used to make clothing and rugs sheer¹ adj

1 absolute; complete: sheer amazement

◇ SYNONYMS: total, complete, absolute, utter, pure, downright (derogatory), out-and-out, unmitigated

2 perpendicular; very steep: the sheer rock face

◇ SYNONYMS: steep, abrupt, precipitous

3 (of textiles) light, delicate, and see-through ◇ SYNONYMS: fine, thin, transparent, see-through, gossamer, diaphanous, gauzy

► adv

4 steeply: the cliff drops sheer to the sea sheer² vb sheer off or away (from)

A to change course suddenly

B to avoid (an unpleasant person, thing, or topic) sheet¹ n

1 a large rectangular piece of cloth used as an inner bed cover

2 a thin piece of material such as paper or glass, usually rectangular

◇ SYNONYMS: page, leaf, folio, piece of paper

3 a broad continuous surface or layer: a sheet of ice

◇ SYNONYMS: coat, film, layer, surface, stratum, veneer, overlay, lamina

4 a newspaper

► vb

5 to provide with, cover, or wrap in a sheet

6 (often foll. by down) to rain very heavily sheet² n (naut) a line or rope for controlling the position of a sail sheet anchor n

1 (naut) a large strong anchor for use in an emergency

2 a person or thing that can always be relied on sheikh or sheik (shake) n

A the head of an Arab tribe, village, or family

B (in Muslim communities) a religious leader > sheikhd or sheikdom n sheila n (Austral & NZ old-fashioned, informal) a girl or woman shelf n, pl shelves

1 a board fixed horizontally against a wall or in a cupboard, for holding things

- 2 a projecting layer of ice or rock on land or in the sea
- 3 off the shelf (of products in shops) sold as standard
- 4 on the shelf put aside or abandoned; used esp. of unmarried women considered to be past the age of marriage shelf life n the length of time a packaged product will remain fresh or usable shell n

- 1 the protective outer layer of an egg, fruit, or nut
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: husk, case, pod
- 2 the hard outer covering of an animal such as a crab or tortoise
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: carapace
- 3 any hard outer case
- 4 the external structure of a building, car, or ship, esp. one that is unfinished or gutted by fire
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: frame, structure, hull, framework, chassis
- 5 an explosive artillery projectile that can be fired from a large gun
- 6 a small-arms cartridge
- 7 (rowing) a very light narrow racing boat
- 8 come or bring out of one's shell to become or help to become less shy and reserved
 - ▶ vb
- 9 to remove the shell or husk from
- 10 to attack with artillery shells
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: bomb, bombard, attack, blitz, strafe
 - ▶ See also shell out
 - > shell-like adj

shellac n

- 1 a yellowish resin used in varnishes and polishes
- 2 a varnish made by dissolving shellac in alcohol
 - ▶ vb -lacking, -lacked
- 3 to coat with shellac shellfish n, pl -fish or -fishes a sea-living animal, esp. one that can be eaten, having a shell

shell out vb (informal) to pay out or hand over (money)

◇ SYNONYMS shell something out: pay out, fork out (slang), give, hand over shell shock n a nervous disorder characterized by anxiety and depression that occurs as a result of lengthy exposure to battle conditions > shell-shocked adj shell suit n (Brit) a lightweight tracksuit made of a waterproof nylon layer over a cotton layer shelter n

1 something that provides cover or protection from weather or danger

◇ SYNONYMS: cover, screen

2 the protection given by such a cover

◇ SYNONYMS: protection, safety, refuge, cover

► vb

3 to take cover from bad weather

◇ SYNONYMS: take shelter, hide, seek refuge, take cover

4 to provide with a place to live or a hiding place: to shelter refugees

◇ SYNONYMS: protect, shield, harbour, safeguard, cover, hide, guard, defend shelve¹ vb shelving, shelved

1 to put aside or postpone: to shelve a project

◇ SYNONYMS: postpone, defer, freeze, suspend, put aside, put on ice, put on the back burner (informal), take a rain check on (US & Canad informal)

2 to place (something, such as a book) on a shelf

3 to provide with shelves: to shelve a cupboard

4 to dismiss (someone) from active service shelve² vb shelving, shelved to slope away gradually shelving n

- 1 material for shelves
- 2 shelves collectively shenanigans pl n (informal)

- 1 mischief or nonsense
- 2 trickery or deception shepherd n

- 1 a person employed to tend sheep
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: drover, stockman, herdsman or woman (Brit), herder, grazier
- 2 (Christianity) a member of the clergy when considered as the moral and spiritual guide of the people in the parish
 - vb
 - 3 to guide or watch over (people)
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: guide, conduct, steer, herd, usher
 - > shepherdess fem n shepherd's pie n a baked dish of minced meat covered with mashed potatosherbet n

- 1 (Brit & Austral & NZ) a fruit-flavoured slightly fizzy powder, eaten as a sweet or used to make a drink
- 2 (US & Canad & S African) same as sorbet

sheriff n

- 1 (in the US) the chief elected law-enforcement officer in a county
- 2 (in Canada) a municipal officer who enforces court orders and escorts convicted criminals to prison
- 3 (in England and Wales) the chief executive officer of the Crown in a county, having chiefly ceremonial duties
- 4 (in Scotland) a judge in a sheriff court
- 5 (in Australia) an officer of the Supreme Court

Sherpa n, pl -pas or -pa a member of a Tibetan people living on the southern slopes of the Himalayas sherry n, pl -ries a pale or dark brown fortified wine, originally from southern Spain shibboleth n

1 a slogan or catch phrase, usually considered outworn, that characterizes a particular party or sect: the shibboleth of Western strategy

2 a custom, phrase, or use of language that reliably distinguishes a member of one group or class from another shield n

1 a piece of defensive armour carried in the hand or on the arm to protect the body from blows or missiles

2 any person or thing that protects, hides, or defends: a wind shield

◇ SYNONYMS: protection, cover, defence, screen, guard, shelter, safeguard

3 (heraldry) a representation of a shield used for displaying a coat of arms

4 anything that resembles a shield in shape, such as a trophy in a sports competition

► vb

5 to protect, hide, or defend (someone or something) from danger or harm: an industry shielded from competition

◇ SYNONYMS: protect, cover, screen, guard, defend, shelter, safeguard shift vb

1 to move from one place or position to another

◇ SYNONYMS: move, move around, budge

2 to pass (blame or responsibility) onto someone else: he was trying to shift the blame to me

3 to change (gear) in a motor vehicle

4 to remove or be removed: no detergent can shift these stains

5 (US) to change for another or others

6 (slang) to move quickly

► n

7 the act or an instance of shifting

◇ SYNONYMS: change, shifting, displacement

8

A a group of workers who work during a specific period

B the period of time worked by such a group

9 a method or scheme

10 a loose-fitting straight underskirt or dress shiftless adj lacking in ambition or initiative shifty adj shiftier, shifتيest looking deceitful and not to be trusted > shiftiness n shillelagh (shil-lay-lee) n (in Ireland) a heavy club shilling n

1 a former British coin worth one twentieth of a pound, replaced by the 5p piece in 1970

2 a former Australian coin, worth one twentieth of a pound

3 the standard monetary unit in several E African countries shillyshally vb -shallies, -shallying, -shallied (informal) to be indecisive shimmer vb

1 to shine with a faint unsteady light

◇ SYNONYMS: gleam, twinkle, glisten, scintillate

► n

2 a faint unsteady light

◇ SYNONYMS: gleam, iridescence > shimmering or shimmery adj shin n

1 the front part of the lower leg

2 a cut of beef including the lower foreleg

► vb shinning, shinned

3 shin up to climb (something, such as a rope or pole) by gripping with the hands or arms and the legs and hauling oneself up shinbone n the nontechnical name for tibia shindig or shindy n, pl -digs or -dies (slang)

1 a noisy party or dance

2 a quarrel or brawl shine vb shining, shone

1 to give off or reflect light

◇ SYNONYMS: gleam, flash, beam, glow, sparkle, glitter, glare, radiate

2 to direct the light of (a lamp or torch): I shone a torch at the ceiling

3 past tense & past participle shined to make clean and bright by polishing: they earned money by shining shoes

◇ SYNONYMS: polish, buff, burnish, brush

4 to be very good at something: she shone in most subjects; she shone at school

◇ SYNONYMS: be outstanding, stand out, excel, be conspicuous

5 to appear very bright and clear: her hair shone like gold

► n

6 brightness or lustre

◇ SYNONYMS: polish, gloss, sheen, lustre

7 take a shine to someone (informal) to take a liking to someone shiner n (informal) a black eye shingle¹ n

1 a thin rectangular tile laid with others in overlapping rows to cover a roof or a wall

2 a woman's short-cropped hairstyle

► vb -gling, -gled

3 to cover (a roof or a wall) with shingles

4 to cut (the hair) in a short-cropped style shingle² n coarse gravel found on beaches shingles n a disease causing a rash of small blisters along a nerve shingle slide n (NZ) the loose stones on a steep slope

Shinto n a Japanese religion in which ancestors and nature spirits are worshipped

> Shintoism n

> Shintoist n, adj

shinty n

1 a game (of Scottish origin) like hockey but with taller goals

2 pl -ties the stick used in this game shiny adj shinier, shiniest

1 bright and polished

◇ SYNONYMS: bright, gleaming, glossy, glistening, polished, lustrous

2 (of clothes or material) worn to a smooth and glossy state by continual wear or rubbing ship n

1 a large seagoing vessel with engines or sails

◇ SYNONYMS: vessel, boat, craft

2 when one's ship comes in when one has become successful ► vb shipping, shipped

3 to send or transport by any carrier, esp. a ship

4 (naut) to take in (water) over the side

5 to bring or go aboard a vessel: to ship oars

6 (often foll. by off) (informal) to send away: they were shipped off to foreign countries

7 to be hired to serve aboard a ship: I shipped aboard a Liverpool liner shipment n

1 goods shipped together as part of the same lot: a shipment of arms

2 the act of shipping cargo shipping n

1 the business of transporting freight, esp. by ship

2 ships collectively: all shipping should stay clear of the harbour

shipshape adj

1 neat or orderly

► adv

2 in a neat and orderly manner shipwreck n

1 the destruction of a ship at sea

2 the remains of a wrecked ship

3 ruin or destruction: the shipwreck of the old science

► vb

4 to wreck or destroy (a ship)

5 to bring to ruin or destruction shipyard n a place where ships are built and repaired shire n

1 (Brit) a county

2 (Austral) a rural area with an elected council

3 the Shires the Midland counties of England shire horse n a large powerful breed of working horse shirk vb to avoid doing (work or a duty); to be negligent: no-one shirks when he's around > shirker n

shirt n

- 1 an item of clothing worn on the upper part of the body, usually with a collar and sleeves and buttoning up the front
- 2 keep your shirt on (informal) keep your temper
- 3 put one's shirt on something (informal) to bet all one has on something shirty adj shirtier, shirtest (slang) bad-tempered or annoyed shish kebab n a dish of small pieces of meat and vegetables grilled on a skewer shiver¹ vb

- 1 to tremble from cold or fear ◇ SYNONYMS: shudder, shake, tremble, quake, quiver
- n
- 2 a tremble caused by cold or fear ◇ SYNONYMS: tremble, shudder, quiver, trembling, flutter, tremor
- 3 the shivers a fit of shivering through fear or illness > shivering n, adj > shivery adj

shiver² vb

- 1 to break into fragments
- n
- 2 a splintered piece

shoal¹ n

- 1 a large group of fish swimming together
- 2 a large group of people or things shoal² n

- 1 a stretch of shallow water
- 2 a sandbank or rocky area, esp. one that can be seen at low water
- vb
- 3 to make or become shallow shock¹ vb

- 1 to cause (someone) to experience extreme horror, disgust, or astonishment:
the similarity shocked me ◇ SYNONYMS: shake, stun, stagger, jolt, stupefy
- 2 to cause a state of shock in (a person)
- n
- 3 a sudden and violent blow or impact ◇ SYNONYMS: impact, blow, clash, collision
- 4
A a sudden and violent emotional disturbance ◇ SYNONYMS: upset, blow, trauma, bombshell, turn (informal), distress, disturbance
B something causing this ◇ SYNONYMS: upset, blow, trauma, bombshell, turn (informal), distress, disturbance
- 5 (pathol) a condition in which a person's blood cannot flow properly because of severe injury, burns, or fright
- 6 pain and muscular spasm caused by an electric current passing through a person's body > shocker n

shock² n

- 1 a number of grain sheaves set on end in a field to dry
- vb
- 2 to set up (sheaves) in shocks shocking adj

1 (informal) very bad or terrible: a shocking match at Leicester

◇ SYNONYMS: terrible, appalling, dreadful, bad, horrendous, ghastly, deplorable, abysmal

2 causing dismay or disgust: a shocking lack of concern

◇ SYNONYMS: appalling, outrageous, disgraceful, disgusting, dreadful, horrifying, revolting, sickening

3 shocking pink (of) a very bright shade of pink shod vb the past of shoe shoddy adj -dier, -diest

1 made or done badly or carelessly: shoddy goods

2 of poor quality; shabby > shoddily adv

> shoddiness n

shoe n

1 one of a matching pair of coverings shaped to fit the foot, made of leather or other strong material and ending below the ankle

2 anything resembling a shoe in shape, function, or position

3 short for horseshoe

4 be in a person's shoes (informal) to be in another person's situation

► vb shoeing, shod

5 to fit (a horse) with horseshoes shoehorn n a smooth curved piece of metal or plastic inserted at the heel of a shoe to ease the foot into it shoestring n (informal) a very small amount of money: the theatre will be run on a shoestring shone vb a past of shine shonky adj -kier, -kiest (Austral & NZ informal) unreliable or unsound shoo interj

1 go away!: used to drive away unwanted or annoying animals or people

► vb shooing, shooed

2 to drive away by crying 'shoo' shook vb the past tense of shake shoot vb shooting, shot

1 to hit, wound, or kill with a missile fired from a weapon

◇ SYNONYMS: open fire on, blast (slang), hit, kill, plug (slang), bring down

2 to fire (a missile or missiles) from a weapon

◇ SYNONYMS: fire, launch, discharge, project, hurl, fling, propel, emit

3 to fire (a weapon)

4 to hunt game with a gun for sport

5 to send out or be sent out quickly and aggressively: he shot questions at her

6 to move very rapidly: the car shot forward

◇ SYNONYMS: speed, race, rush, charge, fly, tear, dash, barrel (along)

(informal, chiefly US & Canad)

7 to go or pass quickly over or through: he was trying to shoot the white water

8 to slide or push into or out of a fastening: she shot the bolt quickly

9 (of a plant) to sprout (a new growth)

10 to photograph or film (a subject, sequence, etc.)

11 (sport) to hit or kick the ball at goal

► n

12 the act of shooting

13 a new growth or sprout of a plant

◇ SYNONYMS: sprout, branch, bud, sprig, offshoot

14 (chiefly Brit) a meeting or party organized for hunting game with guns

15 an area where game can be hunted with guns

16 (informal) a photographic assignment: a fashion shoot in New York shooting star n (informal) a meteor shooting stick n a walking stick with a spike at one end and a folding seat at the other shop n

1 a place for the sale of goods and services

◇ SYNONYMS: store, supermarket, boutique, emporium (old-fashioned), hypermarket, dairy (NZ)

2 a place where a specified type of work is done; workshop: a repair shop

3 all over the shop (informal) scattered everywhere: his papers were all over the shop

4 shut up shop to close business at the end of the day or permanently

5 talk shop (informal) to discuss one's business or work on a social occasion

► vb shopping, shopped

6 (often foll. by for) to visit a shop or shops in order to buy (goods)

7 (Brit & Austral & NZ slang) to inform on (someone), esp. to the police > shopper n

shop around vb (informal)

1 to visit a number of shops or stores to compare goods and prices

2 to consider a number of possibilities before making a choice shop floor n

1 the production area of a factory

2 workers, esp. factory workers, as opposed to management shoplifter n a customer who steals goods from a shop > shoplifting n

shop steward n a trade-union official elected by his or her fellow workers to be their representative in dealing with their employer shore¹ n the land along the edge of a sea, lake, or wide river. RELATED

ADJECTIVE: littoral

◇ SYNONYMS: beach, coast, sands, strand (poetic), seashore shore² vb shoring, shored shore up

A to prop up (an unsteady building or wall) with a strong support

B to strengthen or support (something weak): lower interest rates to shore up the economy shorn vb a past participle of shear short adj

1 of little length; not long

◇ SYNONYMS: small, little, squat, diminutive, petite, dumpy

2 of little height; not tall

◇ SYNONYMS: small, little, squat, diminutive, petite, dumpy

3 not lasting long

◇ SYNONYMS: brief, fleeting, momentary

4 not enough: the number of places laid at the table was short by four

◇ SYNONYMS: scarce, wanting, low, limited, lacking, scant, deficient

5 short of or on lacking in: short of cash; short on detail

6 concise: a short book

◇ SYNONYMS: concise, brief, succinct, summary, compressed, terse, laconic, pithy

7 (of drinks) consisting chiefly of a spirit, such as whisky

8 (of someone's memory) lacking the ability to retain a lot of facts

9 (of a person's manner) abrupt and rather rude: Kemp was short with her

◇ SYNONYMS: abrupt, sharp, terse, curt, brusque, impolite, discourteous, uncivil

10 (of betting odds) almost even

11 (finance)

A not possessing at the time of sale the stocks or commodities one sells

B relating to such sales, which depend on falling prices for profit

12 (phonetics) (of a vowel) of relatively brief duration

13 (of pastry) crumbly in texture

14 in short supply scarce

◇ SYNONYMS: scarce, wanting, low, limited, lacking, scant, deficient

15 short and sweet brief and to the point

16 short for a shortened form of

► adv

17 abruptly: to stop short

◇ SYNONYMS: abruptly, suddenly, without warning

18 be caught short to have a sudden need to go to the toilet

19 go short not to have enough

20 short of except: they want nothing short of his removal from power

► n

21 a drink of spirits

22 a short film shown before the main feature in a cinema

23 same as short circuit

24 for short (informal) as a shortened form: cystic fibrosis, CF for short

25 in short briefly

► vb

26 to short-circuit > shortness n

shortage n not enough of something needed

◇ SYNONYMS: deficiency, want, lack, scarcity, dearth, paucity (formal), insufficiency shortbread n a rich crumbly biscuit made with butter short-change vb -changing, -changed

1 to give (someone) less than the correct change

2 (slang) to treat (someone), unfairly, esp. by giving less than is expected short circuit n

1 a faulty or accidental connection in an electric circuit, which deflects current through a path of low resistance, usually causing the failure of the circuit

► vb short-circuit

2 to develop a short circuit

3 to bypass (a procedure): she wrote to them direct and short-circuited the job agency

4 to hinder or frustrate (a plan) shortcoming n a fault or weakness

◇ SYNONYMS: failing, fault, weakness, defect, flaw, imperfection short cut n

1 a route that is shorter than the usual one

2 a way of saving time or effort shorten vb to make or become short or shorter ◇ SYNONYMS: cut, reduce, decrease, diminish, lessen, curtail, abbreviate, abridge shortfall n

1 failure to meet a requirement

2 the amount of such a failure; deficit shorthand n a system of rapid writing using simple strokes and other symbols to represent words or phrases short-handed adj (of a company or organization) lacking enough staff to do the required work short list n

1 Also called (Scot): short leet a list of suitable candidates for a job or prize, from which the successful candidate will be selected

► vb short-list

2 to put (someone) on a short list shortly adv

1 in a short time; soon

◇ SYNONYMS: soon, presently, before long, in a little while

2 spoken in a cross and impatient manner short shrift n brief and unsympathetic treatment short-sighted adj

1 unable to see faraway things clearly

2 not taking likely future developments into account: a short-sighted approach to the problem > short-sightedness n short wave n a radio wave with a wavelength in the range 10–100 metres shot¹ n

1 the act or an instance of firing a gun or rifle

◇ SYNONYMS: discharge, gunfire, crack, blast, explosion, bang

2 (sport) the act or an instance of hitting, kicking, or throwing the ball

◇ SYNONYMS: strike, throw, lob

3 small round lead pellets used in shotguns

◇ SYNONYMS: ammunition, bullet, slug, pellet, projectile, lead, ball

4 a person with specified skill in shooting: my father was quite a good shot

◇ SYNONYMS: marksman or woman, shooter

5 (informal) an attempt: a second shot at writing a better treaty

◇ SYNONYMS: attempt, go (informal), try, turn, effort, stab (informal), endeavour

6 (informal) a guess

7

A a single photograph

B an uninterrupted sequence of film taken by a single camera

8 (informal) an injection of a vaccine or narcotic drug

9 (informal) a drink of spirits

10 the launching of a rocket or spacecraft to a specified destination: a moon shot

11 (sport) a heavy metal ball used in the shot put 12 like a shot without hesitating

13 shot in the arm (informal) something that brings back energy or confidence

14 shot in the dark a wild guess shot² vb

1 the past of shoot

► adj

2 (of textiles) woven to give a changing colour effect

3 streaked with colour: dark hair shot with streaks of grey shotgun n a gun for firing a charge of shot at short range shot put n an athletic event in which contestants hurl a heavy metal ball called a shot as far as possible > shot-putter n

should vb the past tense of shall used to indicate that an action is considered by the speaker to be obligatory (you should go) or to form the subjunctive mood (I should like to see you; if I should die; should I be late, start without me)

shoulder n

- 1 the part of the body where the arm, wing, or foreleg joins the trunk
- 2 a cut of meat including the upper part of the foreleg
- 3 the part of an item of clothing that covers the shoulder
- 4 the strip of unpaved land that borders a road
- 5 a shoulder to cry on a person one turns to for sympathy with one's troubles
- 6 put one's shoulder to the wheel (informal) to work very hard
- 7 rub shoulders with someone (informal) to mix with someone socially
- 8 shoulder to shoulder
 - A side by side
 - B working together
- vb
- 9 to accept (blame or responsibility)
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: bear, carry, take on, accept, assume, be responsible for
- 10 to push with one's shoulder: he shouldered his way through the crowd
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: push, elbow, shove, jostle, press
- 11 to lift or carry on one's shoulders
- 12 shoulder arms (military) to bring one's rifle vertically close to one's right side shoulder blade n either of two large flat triangular bones, one on each side of the back part of the shoulder shouldn't should not shout n

- 1 a loud call or cry
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: cry, call, yell, scream, roar, bellow
- 2 (informal) one's turn to buy a round of drinks

► vb

3 to cry out loudly

◇ SYNONYMS: cry (out), call (out), yell, scream, roar, bellow, bawl, holler (informal)

4 (Austral & NZ informal) to treat (someone) to (something, such as a drink) shout down vb to silence (someone) by talking loudly

◇ SYNONYMS shout someone down: drown out, overwhelm, drown, silence shove vb shoving, shoved

1 to give a violent push to

◇ SYNONYMS: push, thrust, elbow, drive, press, propel, jostle, impel

2 to push (one's way) roughly

◇ SYNONYMS: push, thrust, elbow, drive, press, propel, jostle, impel

3 (informal) to put (something) somewhere quickly and carelessly: shove it into the boot

► n

4 a rough push

◇ SYNONYMS: push, knock, thrust, elbow, bump, nudge, jostle shovel n

1 a tool for lifting or moving loose material, consisting of a broad blade attached to a large handle

2 a machine or part of a machine resembling a shovel in function

► vb -velling, -velled (US) -veling, -veled

3 to lift or move (loose material) with a shovel

◇ SYNONYMS: move, scoop, dredge, load, heap

4 to put away large quantities of (something) quickly: shovelling food into their mouths

◇ SYNONYMS: stuff, ladle shove off vb (informal) to go away; depart

◇ SYNONYMS shove off: go away, leave, clear off (informal), depart, push off (informal), scam (informal), rack off (Austral & NZ slang) show vb showing, showed, shown or showed

1 to make, be, or become visible or noticeable: to show an interest; excitement showed on everyone's face

◇ SYNONYMS: indicate, demonstrate, prove, reveal, display, point out, manifest, testify to, flag up

2 to present for inspection: someone showed me the plans

◇ SYNONYMS: display, exhibit

3 to demonstrate or prove: evidence showed that this was the most economical way

◇ SYNONYMS: indicate, demonstrate, prove, reveal, display, point out, manifest, testify to, flag up

4 to instruct by demonstration: she showed me how to feed the pullets

◇ SYNONYMS: demonstrate, describe, explain, teach, illustrate, instruct

5 to indicate: the device shows changes in the pressure

◇ SYNONYMS: express, display, reveal, indicate, register, demonstrate, manifest

6 to behave towards (someone) in a particular way: to show mercy

7 to exhibit or display works of art, goods, etc.: three artists are showing at the gallery

◇ SYNONYMS: display, exhibit

8 to present (a film or play) or (of a film or play) to be presented

◇ SYNONYMS: broadcast, transmit, air, beam, relay, televise, put on the air, podcast

9 to guide or escort: he offered to show me around

◇ SYNONYMS: guide, lead, conduct, accompany, direct, escort

10 (informal) to arrive

◇ SYNONYMS: turn up, appear, attend

► n

11 a theatrical or other entertainment: a magic show

◇ SYNONYMS: entertainment, production, presentation

12 a display or exhibition: a show of paintings

◇ SYNONYMS: display, sight, spectacle, array

13 something done to create an impression: a show of indignation

◇ SYNONYMS: appearance, display, pose, parade

14 vain and conspicuous display: it was nothing but mere show

15 (slang, chiefly Brit) a thing or affair: jolly good show

► See also show off, show up show business n the entertainment industry. Also (informal): show biz showcase n

1 a setting in which something is displayed to best advantage: a showcase for young opera singers

2 a glass case used to display objects in a museum or shop

► vb -casing, -cased

3 to display something to its best advantage: an exhibition showcasing new manufacturing technology showdown n (informal) a major confrontation that settles a dispute ◇ SYNONYMS: confrontation, clash, face-off (slang) shower n

1

A a kind of bathing in which a person stands upright and is sprayed with water from a nozzle

B a device, room, or booth for such bathing

2 a brief period of rain, hail, sleet, or snow

◇ SYNONYMS: deluge

3 a sudden fall of many small light objects: a shower of loose gravel

4 (Brit slang) a worthless or contemptible group of people

5 (US & Canad & Austral & NZ) a party held to honour and present gifts to a prospective bride or prospective mother

► vb

6 to take a shower

7 to sprinkle with or as if with a shower: the walkers were showered by volcanic ash

◇ SYNONYMS: cover, dust, spray, sprinkle

8 to present (someone) with things liberally: he showered her with presents

◇ SYNONYMS: inundate, heap, lavish, pour, deluge > showery adj

showjumping n the sport of riding horses in competitions to demonstrate skill in jumping > showjumper n

showman n, pl -men

1 a person skilled at presenting anything in an effective manner

2 a person who presents or produces a show > showmanship n shown vb a past participle of show show off vb

1 to exhibit or display (something) so as to invite admiration: he was eager to show off his new car

◇ SYNONYMS show something off: exhibit, display, parade, demonstrate, flaunt

2 (informal) to flaunt skills, knowledge, or looks in order to attract attention or impress people

◇ SYNONYMS show off: boast, brag, blow your own trumpet, swagger

► n show-off

3 (informal) a person who flaunts his or her skills, knowledge, or looks in order to attract attention or impress people

◇ SYNONYMS: exhibitionist, boaster, poseur, braggart, figjam (Austral slang)

showpiece n

1 anything displayed or exhibited

2 something admired as a fine example of its type: an orchestral showpiece showroom n a room in which goods for sale, esp. cars or electrical or gas appliances, are on display show up vb

1 to reveal or be revealed clearly

◇ SYNONYMS show something up: reveal, expose, highlight, lay bare

2 to expose the faults or defects of (someone or something) by comparison

3 (informal) to put (someone) to shame; embarrass ◇ SYNONYMS show someone up: embarrass, let down, mortify, put to shame

4 (informal) to arrive

showy adj showier, showiest

1 colourful, bright in appearance, and very noticeable, and perhaps rather vulgar: showy jewellery

2 making an imposing display > showily adv

> showiness n shrank vb a past tense of shrink shrapnel n

1 an artillery shell containing a number of small pellets or bullets which it is designed to scatter on explosion

2 fragments from this type of shell shred n

1 a long narrow piece torn off something

◇ SYNONYMS: strip, bit, piece, scrap, fragment, sliver, tatter

2 a very small amount: not a shred of truth

◇ SYNONYMS: particle, trace, scrap, grain, atom, jot, iota

► vb shredding, shredded or shred

3 to tear into shreds > shredder n

shrew n

1 a small mouselike animal with a long snout

2 (derogatory) a woman considered to be bad-tempered or nagging > shrewish adj

shrewd adj intelligent and making good judgments

◇ SYNONYMS: astute, clever, sharp, keen, smart, calculating, intelligent, cunning > shrewdly adv

> shrewdness n

shriek n

1 a high-pitched scream

◇ SYNONYMS: scream, cry, yell, screech, squeal

► vb

2 to utter (words or sounds) in a high-pitched tone

◇ SYNONYMS: scream, cry, yell, screech, squeal shrike n a bird with a heavy hooked bill, which kills small animals by dashing them on thorns shrill adj

1 (of a sound) sharp and high-pitched

► vb

2 to utter (words or sounds) in a shrill tone > shrillness n

> shrilly adv

shrimp n

1 a small edible shellfish with a long tail and a pair of pincers

2 (informal) a small person

► vb

3 to fish for shrimps shrine n

1 a place of worship associated with a sacred person or object

2 a container for sacred relics

3 the tomb of a saint or other holy person

4 a place that is visited and honoured because of its association with a famous person or event: he'd come to worship at the shrine of Mozart shrink vb shrinking, shrank or shrunk, shrunk or shrunken

1 to become or cause to become smaller, sometimes because of wetness, heat, or cold

◇ SYNONYMS: decrease, dwindle, lessen, grow or get smaller, contract, narrow, diminish, shorten

2 shrink from

A to withdraw or move away through fear: they didn't shrink from danger

B to feel great reluctance (to perform a task or duty)

► n

3 (slang) a psychiatrist shrinkage n

1 the fact of shrinking

2 the amount by which anything decreases in size, value, or weight shrivel vb -velling, -velled (US) -veling, -veled to become dry and withered shroud n

1 a piece of cloth used to wrap a dead body

◇ SYNONYMS: winding sheet, grave clothes

2 anything that hides things: a shroud of smoke

◇ SYNONYMS: covering, veil, mantle, screen, pall

► vb

3 to hide or obscure (something): shrouded in uncertainty; shrouded by smog

◇ SYNONYMS: conceal, cover, screen, hide, blanket, veil, cloak, envelop

Shrove Tuesday n the day before Ash Wednesday shrub n a woody plant, smaller than a tree, with several stems instead of a trunk > shrubby adj

shrubbery n, pl -beries

1 an area planted with shrubs

2 shrubs collectively shrug vb shrugging, shrugged

1 to draw up and drop (the shoulders) as a sign of indifference or doubt

► n

2 the action of shrugging shrug off vb

1 to treat (a matter) as unimportant

2 to get rid of (someone) shrunk vb a past tense and past participle of shrink shrunk vb

1 a past participle of shrink

► adj

2 reduced in size shudder vb

1 to shake or tremble suddenly and violently from horror or fear

◇ SYNONYMS: shiver, shake, tremble, quake, quiver, convulse

2 (of a machine) to shake violently

► n

3 a shiver of fear or horror

◇ SYNONYMS: shiver, tremor, quiver, spasm shuffle vb -fling, -fled

1 to walk or move (the feet) with a slow dragging motion

◇ SYNONYMS: shamble, stagger, stumble, dodder

2 to mix together in a jumbled mass: the newsreader shuffled his papers

◇ SYNONYMS: rearrange, jumble, mix, disorder, disarrange

3 to mix up (playing cards) so as to change their order

► n

- 4 an instance of shuffling
- 5 a rearrangement: a shuffle of top management
- 6 a dance with short dragging movements of the feet shun vb shunning, shunned to avoid deliberately ◇ SYNONYMS: avoid, steer clear of, keep away from shunt vb

- 1 to move (objects or people) to a different position
- 2 (railways) to transfer (engines or carriages) from track to track
- ▶ n
- 3 the act of shunting
- 4 a railway point
- 5 (electronics) a conductor connected in parallel across a part of a circuit to divert a known fraction of the current
- 6 (informal) a collision where one vehicle runs into the back of another shush interj

- 1 be quiet! hush!
- ▶ vb
- 2 to quiet (someone) by saying 'shush' shut vb shutting, shut

- 1 to move (something) so as to cover an opening: shut the door ◇ SYNONYMS: close, secure, fasten, seal, slam
- 2 to close (something) by bringing together the parts: Ridley shut the folder
- 3 shut up to close or lock the doors of: let's shut up the shop
- 4 shut in to confine or enclose
- 5 shut out to prevent from entering
- 6 (of a shop or other establishment) to stop operating for the day: the late-night rush after the pubs shut
- ▶ adj
- 7 closed or fastened ◇ SYNONYMS: closed, fastened, sealed, locked
- ▶ See also shutdown shutdown n

1 the closing of a factory, shop, or other business

► vb shut down

2 to discontinue operations permanently

◇ SYNONYMS shut down: stop work, halt work, close down shutter n

1 a hinged doorlike cover, usually one of a pair, for closing off a window

2 put up the shutters to close business at the end of the day or permanently

3 (photog) a device in a camera that opens to allow light through the lens so as to expose the film when a photograph is taken

► vb

4 to close or equip with a shutter or shutters shuttle n

1 a bus, train, or aircraft that makes frequent journeys between two places which are fairly near to each other

2 a bobbin-like device used in weaving to pass the weft thread between the warp threads

3 a small bobbin-like device used to hold the thread in a sewing machine

► vb -tling, -tled

4 to travel back and forth

◇ SYNONYMS: go back and forth, commute, go to and fro, alternate shuttlecock n a rounded piece of cork or plastic with feathers stuck in one end, struck to and fro in badminton

shy¹ adj

1 not at ease in the company of others

◇ SYNONYMS: timid, self-conscious, bashful, retiring, shrinking, coy, self-effacing, diffident

2 easily frightened; timid

◇ SYNONYMS: cautious, wary, hesitant, suspicious, distrustful, chary

3 shy of cautious or wary of 4 reluctant or unwilling: camera-shy; workshy

► vb shies, shying, shied

5 to move back or aside suddenly from fear: with a terrified whinny the horse shied

◇ SYNONYMS: recoil, flinch, draw back, start, balk

6 shy away from to draw back from (doing something), through lack of confidence

► n, pl shies

7 a sudden movement back or aside from fear > shyly adv

> shyness n

shy² vb shies, shying, shied

1 to throw (something)

► n, pl shies

2 a quick throw

Siamese n, pl -mese

1 same as Siamese cat

► adj, n, pl -mese

2 (formerly) same as Thai

Siamese cat n a breed of cat with cream fur, dark ears and face, and blue eyes

Siamese twins pl n a former name for conjoined twins sibilant adj

1 having a hissing sound

► n

2 (phonetics) a consonant, such as s or z, that is pronounced with a hissing sound sibling n a brother or sister sibyl n (in ancient Greece and Rome) a prophetess > sibylline adj

sic adv thus: inserted in brackets in a text to indicate that an odd spelling or reading is in fact what was written, even though it is or appears to be wrong

sick adj

1 vomiting or likely to vomit

◇ SYNONYMS: nauseous, ill, queasy, nauseated

2 physically or mentally unwell

◇ SYNONYMS: unwell, ill, poorly (informal), diseased, crook (Austral & NZ informal), ailing, under the weather (informal), indisposed

3 of or for ill people: sick pay

4 deeply affected with mental or spiritual distress: sick at heart

5 mentally disturbed

6 (informal) making fun of death, illness, or misfortune: a sick joke

◇ SYNONYMS: morbid, sadistic, black, macabre, ghoulish

7 sick of or sick and tired of (informal) disgusted by or weary of: I'm sick of this town

◇ SYNONYMS: tired, bored, fed up, weary, jaded

► n, vb

8 (informal) same as vomit sicken vb

1 to make (someone) feel nauseated or disgusted

◇ SYNONYMS: disgust, revolt, nauseate, repel, gross out (slang), turn your stomach

2 sicken for to show symptoms of (an illness) sickle n a tool for cutting grass and grain crops, with a curved blade and a short handle sickly adj -lier, -liest

1 weak and unhealthy

- 2 (of a person) looking pale and unwell: sickly pallor
- 3 unpleasant to smell, taste, or look at
- 4 showing excessive emotion in a weak and rather pathetic way: a sickly tune
- adv
- 5 suggesting sickness: sickly pale
- > sickliness n sickness n

- 1 a particular illness or disease: sleeping sickness
- ◇ SYNONYMS: illness, disorder, ailment, disease, complaint, bug (informal), affliction, malady
- 2 the state of being ill or unhealthy: absent from work due to sickness
- 3 a feeling of queasiness in the stomach followed by vomiting
- ◇ SYNONYMS: nausea, queasiness side n

- 1 a line or surface that borders anything
- ◇ SYNONYMS: border, margin, boundary, verge (Brit), flank, rim, perimeter, edge
- 2 (geom) a line forming part of the perimeter of a plane figure: a square has four sides
- 3 either of two parts into which an object, surface, or area can be divided: the right side and the left side
- 4 either of the two surfaces of a flat object: write on both sides of the page
- ◇ SYNONYMS: face, surface, facet
- 5 the sloping part of a hill or bank
- 6 either the left or the right half of the body, esp. the area around the waist: he took a nine millimetre bullet in the side
- 7 the area immediately next to a person or thing: at the side of my bed
- ◇ SYNONYMS: border, margin, boundary, verge (Brit), flank, rim, perimeter, edge
- 8 a place within an area identified by reference to a central point: the south side of the island
- 9 the area at the edge of something, as opposed to the centre: the far side of the square
- ◇ SYNONYMS: border, margin, boundary, verge (Brit), flank, rim, perimeter, edge

10 aspect or part: there is a positive side to truancy

◇ SYNONYMS: aspect, feature, angle, facet

11 one of two or more contesting groups or teams: the two sides will meet in the final

◇ SYNONYMS: party, camp, faction, cause

12 a position held in opposition to another in a dispute

◇ SYNONYMS: point of view, viewpoint, position, opinion, angle, slant, standpoint

13 a line of descent through one parent: a relative on his father's side

14 (Brit slang) conceit or cheek: to put on side

15 on one side apart from the rest

16 on the side in addition to a person's main work: she did a little public speaking on the side

17 side by side close together

18 side by side with beside or near to 19 take sides to support one party in a dispute against another

► adj

20 situated at the side: the side entrance

21 less important: a side issue

◇ SYNONYMS: subordinate, minor, secondary, subsidiary, lesser, marginal, incidental, ancillary

► vb siding, sided

22 side with to support (one party in a dispute)

◇ SYNONYMS side with someone: support, agree with, stand up for, favour, go along with, take the part of, ally yourself with sidebar n (in a newspaper or website) a short article placed next to the main one and containing additional material sideboard n a piece of furniture for a dining room, with drawers, cupboards, and shelves to hold tableware sideboards or (esp US & Canad) sideburns pl n a man's whiskers grown down either side of the face in front of the ears sidekick n (informal) a close friend or associate sidelight n

- 1 (Brit) either of two small lights at the front of a motor vehicle
- 2 either of the two navigational lights used by ships at night sideline n

- 1 an extra job in addition to one's main job
- ▶ vb -lining, -lined
- 2 to prevent (a person) from pursuing a particular activity sidelong adj

- 1 directed to the side; oblique
- ▶ adv
- 2 from the side; obliquely sidereal (side-eer-ee-al) adj of or determined with reference to the stars: the sidereal time side-saddle n

- 1 a riding saddle originally designed for women in skirts, allowing the rider to sit with both legs on the same side of the horse
- ▶ adv
- 2 on a side-saddle sidestep vb -stepping, -stepped

- 1 to step out of the way of (something)
- 2 to dodge (an issue)
- ▶ n side step
- 3 a movement to one side, such as in dancing or boxing sidetrack vb to distract (someone) from a main subject sidewalk n (US & Canad) a raised space alongside a road, for pedestrians ◇ SYNONYMS: pavement, footpath (Austral & NZ)

sideways adv

1 moving, facing, or inclining towards one side

◇ SYNONYMS: to the side, laterally

2 from one side; obliquely

◇ SYNONYMS: indirectly, obliquely

3 with one side forward

► adj

4 moving or directed to or from one side

◇ SYNONYMS: sidelong, oblique siding n a short stretch of railway track connected to a main line, used for loading and unloading freight and storing engines and carriages sidle vb -dling, -dled to walk slowly and carefully, not wanting to be noticed

SIDS sudden infant death syndrome; cot death siege n

1 a military operation carried out to capture a place by surrounding and blockading it

◇ SYNONYMS: blockade, encirclement, besiegement

2 a similar operation carried out by police, for example to force people out of a place

◇ SYNONYMS: blockade, encirclement, besiegement

3 lay siege to to subject (a place) to a siege sienna n

1 a natural earth used as a reddish-brown or yellowish-brown pigment

► adj

2 burnt sienna reddish-brown

3 raw sienna yellowish-brown sierra n a range of mountains with jagged peaks in Spain or America siesta n an afternoon nap, taken in hot countries sieve (siv) n

1 a utensil with a mesh through which a substance is sifted or strained

► vb sieving, sieved

2 to sift or strain through a sieve sift vb

1 to sieve (a powdery substance) in order to remove the coarser particles

◇ SYNONYMS: sieve, filter, strain, separate, part

2 to examine (information or evidence) carefully to select what is important

◇ SYNONYMS: examine, investigate, go through, research, analyse, work over, scrutinize sigh vb

1 to draw in and audibly let out a deep breath as an expression of sadness, tiredness, longing, or relief

2 to make a sound resembling this

3 sigh for to long for 4 to say (something) with a sigh

► n

5 the act or sound of sighing sight n

1 the ability to see; vision. RELATED ADJECTIVE: visual

◇ SYNONYMS: vision, eyes, eyesight, seeing, eye

2 an instance of seeing

3 the range of vision: the cemetery was out of sight

◇ SYNONYMS: view, range of vision, visibility

4 anything that is seen

◇ SYNONYMS: spectacle, show, scene, display, exhibition, vista, pageant

5 point of view; judgment: nothing has changed in my sight

6 (informal) anything unpleasant to see: she looked a sight in the streetlamps

◇ SYNONYMS: eyesore, mess, monstrosity

7 a device for guiding the eye in aiming a gun or making an observation with an optical instrument

8 an aim or observation made with such a device

9 sights anything worth seeing: the great sights of Barcelona

10 a sight (informal) a great deal: it's a sight warmer than in the hall

11 a sight for sore eyes a welcome sight

12 catch sight of to glimpse

13 know someone by sight to be able to recognize someone without having ever been introduced

14 lose sight of

A to be unable to see (something) any longer

B to forget: we lose sight of priorities

15 on sight as soon as someone or something is seen

16 set one's sights on to have (a specified goal) in mind

17 sight unseen without having seen the object concerned: he would have taken it sight unseen

► vb

18 to see (someone or something) briefly or suddenly: the two suspicious vessels were sighted

◇ SYNONYMS: spot, see, observe, distinguish, perceive, make out, discern, behold (archaic, literary)

19 to aim (a firearm) using the sight sightless adj blind sight-read vb -reading, -read to sing or play (music in a printed form) without previous preparation > sight-reading n sightseeing n (informal) visiting famous or interesting sights in a place > sightseer n

sign n

1 something that indicates a fact or condition that is not immediately or outwardly observable: a sign of tension

◇ SYNONYMS: indication, evidence, mark, signal, symptom, hint, proof, gesture

2 a gesture, mark, or symbol intended to convey an idea or information

◇ SYNONYMS: symbol, mark, device, logo, badge, emblem

3 a board or placard displayed in public and intended to advertise, inform, or warn

◇ SYNONYMS: notice, board, warning, placard

4 a conventional mark or symbol that has a specific meaning, for example £ for pounds

◇ SYNONYMS: symbol, mark, device, logo, badge, emblem

5 (maths)

A any symbol used to indicate an operation: a minus sign

B a symbol used to indicate whether a number or expression is positive or negative

6 a visible indication: no sign of the enemy

◇ SYNONYMS: indication, evidence, mark, signal, symptom, hint, proof, gesture

7 an omen

◇ SYNONYMS: omen, warning, portent, foreboding, augury, auspice

8 (med) any evidence of the presence of a disease or disorder

► vb

9 to write (one's name) on (a document or letter) to show its authenticity or one's agreement

◇ SYNONYMS: autograph, initial, inscribe

10 to communicate using sign language

11 to make a sign to someone so as to convey an idea or information

◇ SYNONYMS: gesture, indicate, signal, beckon, gesticulate

12 to engage or be engaged by signing a contract: he signed for another team signal n

1 any sign, gesture, sound, or action used to communicate information

◇ SYNONYMS: sign, gesture, indication, mark, note, expression, token

2 anything that causes immediate action: this is the signal for a detailed examination of the risk

◇ SYNONYMS: cue, sign, prompting, reminder

3

A a variable voltage, current, or electromagnetic wave, by which information is conveyed through an electronic circuit

B the information so conveyed

► adj

4 (formal) very important: a signal triumph for the government

► vb -nalling, -nalled (US) -naling, -naled

5 to communicate (information) by signal > signally adv

signal box n a building from which railway signals are operated signalman n, pl -men a railwayman in charge of the signals and points within a section signatory (sig-na-tree) n, pl -ries

1 a person, organization, or state that has signed a document such as a treaty

► adj

2 having signed a document or treaty signature n

1 a person's name written by himself or herself, used in signing something

2 a distinctive characteristic that identifies a person or animal

3 (music) a sign at the beginning of a piece to show key or time

4 (printing) a sheet of paper printed with several pages, which when folded becomes a section of a book signature tune n a piece of music used to introduce a particular television or radio programme signet n a small seal used to make documents official signet ring n a finger ring engraved with an initial or other emblem significance n

1 the effect something is likely to have on other things: an event of important significance in British history

◇ SYNONYMS: importance, consequence, moment, weight

2 meaning: the occult significance of the symbol significant adj

1 very important

◇ SYNONYMS: important, serious, material, vital, critical, momentous, weighty, noteworthy

2 having or expressing a meaning

◇ SYNONYMS: meaningful, expressive, eloquent, indicative, suggestive > significantly adv

signify vb -fies, -fying, -fied

1 to indicate or suggest

◇ SYNONYMS: indicate, mean, suggest, imply, intimate, be a sign of, denote, connote, flag up

2 to stand as a symbol or sign for: a blue line on the map signified a river

3 to be important signing n a system of communication using hand and arm movements, such as one used by deaf people. Also called: sign language

sign on vb

1 (Brit & Austral) to register and report regularly at an unemployment-benefit office

2 to commit oneself to a job or activity by signing a form or contract signor (see-nyor) n an Italian form of address equivalent to sir or Mr signora (see-nyor-a) n an Italian form of address equivalent to madam or Mrs signorina (see-nyor-ee-na) n an Italian form of address equivalent to madam or Miss signpost n

1 a road sign displaying information, such as the distance to the next town

2 an indication as to how an event is likely to develop or advice on what course of action should be taken

► vb

3 to mark (the way) with signposts

Sikh (seek) n

1 a member of an Indian religion that teaches that there is only one God

► adj

2 of the Sikhs or their religious beliefs or customs

> Sikhism n

silage (sile-ij) n a fodder crop harvested while green and partially fermented in a silo silence n

1 the state or quality of being silent

◇ SYNONYMS: quiet, peace, calm, hush, lull, stillness

2 the absence of sound

◇ SYNONYMS: quiet, peace, calm, hush, lull, stillness

3 refusal or failure to speak or communicate when expected: he's broken his silence on the issue

◇ SYNONYMS: reticence, dumbness, taciturnity, muteness

► vb -lencing, -lenced

4 to cause (someone or something) to become silent

◇ SYNONYMS: quieten, still, quiet, cut off, stifle, cut short, muffle, deaden

5 to put a stop to: a way of silencing criticism silencer n any device designed to reduce noise, for example one fitted to the exhaust system of a motor vehicle or one fitted to the muzzle of a gun silent adj

1 tending to speak very little

◇ SYNONYMS: uncommunicative, quiet, taciturn

2 failing to speak or communicate when expected: they remained silent as minutes passed

◇ SYNONYMS: mute, dumb, speechless, wordless, voiceless

3 producing no noise: the silent room

◇ SYNONYMS: quiet, still, hushed, soundless, noiseless, muted

4 not spoken: silent reproach

5 (of a letter) used in the spelling of a word but not pronounced, such as the k in know

6 (of a film) having no soundtrack > silently adv

silhouette n

1 the outline of a dark shape seen against a light background

◇ SYNONYMS: outline, form, shape, profile

2 an outline drawing, often a profile portrait, filled in with black

► vb -etting, -etted

3 to show (something) in silhouette

◇ SYNONYMS: outline, etch silica n a hard glossy mineral, silicon dioxide, which occurs naturally as quartz and is used in the manufacture of glass silicon n

1 (chem) a brittle non-metallic element: used in transistors, solar cells, and alloys. SYMBOL: Si

► adj

2 denoting an area of a country that contains much high-technology industry: the Silicon Glen silicon chip n same as chip silicone n (chem) a tough synthetic material made from silicon and used in lubricants, paints, and resins silicosis n (pathol) a lung disease caused by breathing in silica dust silk n

1 the fine soft fibre produced by a silkworm

2 thread or fabric made from this fibre

3 silks clothing made of this

4 (Brit)

A the gown worn by a Queen's (or King's) Counsel

B (informal) a Queen's (or King's) Counsel

C take silk to become a Queen's (or King's) Counsel silky adj silkie, silkiest

1 soft, smooth, and shiny

2 (of a voice or manner) smooth and elegant > silkenness n

sill n

1 a shelf at the bottom of a window, either inside or outside a room

2 the lower horizontal part of a window or door frame silly adj -lier, -liest

1 behaving in a foolish or childish way

◇ SYNONYMS: stupid, ridiculous, absurd, daft, inane, senseless, idiotic, fatuous

2 (old-fashioned) unable to think sensibly, as if from a blow

3 (cricket) (of a fielding position) near the batsman's wicket: silly mid-off

► n, pl -lies

4 (informal) a foolish person > silliness n

silo n, pl -los

- 1 an airtight pit or tower in which silage or grain is made and stored
- 2 an underground structure in which missile systems are sited for protection silt n

- 1 a fine sediment of mud or clay deposited by moving water
- ▶ vb
- 2 silt up to fill or choke up with silt: the channels have been silted up silvan adj same as sylvan silver n

- 1 a precious greyish-white metallic element: used in jewellery, tableware, and coins. SYMBOL: Ag
- 2 a coin or coins made of silver
- 3 any household articles made of silver
- ▶ adj
- 4 greyish-white: silver hair
- 5 (of anniversaries) the 25th in a series: Silver Jubilee; silver wedding
- ▶ vb
- 6 to coat with silver or a silvery substance: a company that silvers their own mirrors
- 7 to cause (something) to become silvery in colour: the sun silvered the tarmac silverbeet n (Austral & NZ) a beet of Australia and New Zealand with edible spinach-like leaves silver birch n a tree with silvery-white peeling bark silverfish n, pl -fish or -fishes

- 1 a small wingless silver-coloured insect
- 2 a silver-coloured fish silverside n a cut of beef from below the rump and above the leg sim n a computer game that simulates an activity such as flying or playing a sport

SIM card n a small card used in a mobile phone to store data about the network, telephone number, etc.

simian adj

1 of or resembling a monkey or ape

► n

2 a monkey or ape similar adj

1 alike but not identical

◇ SYNONYMS: alike, resembling, comparable

2 (geom) (of two or more figures) different in size or position, but with exactly the same shape > similarity n

> similarly adv

simile (sim-ill-ee) n a figure of speech that likens one thing to another of a different category, introduced by as or like similitude n (formal) likeness; similarity simmer vb

1 to cook (food) gently at just below boiling point

◇ SYNONYMS: bubble, boil gently, seethe

2 (of violence or conflict) to threaten to break out: revolt simmering among rural MPs

◇ SYNONYMS: fume, seethe, smoulder, rage, be angry

► n

3 the state of simmering simmer down vb (informal) to calm down after being angry

◇ SYNONYMS simmer down: calm down, control yourself, cool off or down simnel cake n (Brit) a fruit cake with marzipan, traditionally eaten during Lent or at Easter simper vb

1 to smile in a silly and mannered way

2 to say (something) with a simper

► n

3 a simpering smile > simpering adj

simple adj

1 easy to understand or do: in simple English; simple exercises

◇ SYNONYMS: uncomplicated, clear, plain, understandable, lucid, recognizable, comprehensible, intelligible

2 plain and not elaborate: a simple red skirt; a simple answer

◇ SYNONYMS: plain, natural, classic, unfussy, unembellished, bare-bones

3 not combined or complex: simple diagnostic equipment

◇ SYNONYMS: pure, mere, sheer, unalloyed

4 leading an uncomplicated life: I am a simple man myself

◇ SYNONYMS: artless, innocent, naive, natural, sincere, unaffected, childlike, unsophisticated

5 sincere or frank: a simple apology

6 of humble background: the simple country girl

◇ SYNONYMS: unpretentious, modest, humble, homely, unfussy, unembellished

7 (informal) lacking in intelligence

8 straightforward: a simple matter of choice

9 (music) denoting a time where the number of beats per bar may be two, three, or four > simplicity n

simple fraction n (maths) a fraction in which the numerator and denominator are both whole numbers simpleton n a foolish or stupid person simplify vb -fies, -fying, -fied

1 to make (something) less complicated

◇ SYNONYMS: make simpler, streamline, disentangle, dumb down, reduce to essentials, declutter

2 (maths) to reduce (an equation or fraction) to its simplest form > simplification n

simplistic adj (of an opinion or interpretation) too simple or naive simply adv

1 in a simple manner: an interesting book, simply written

◇ SYNONYMS: clearly, straightforwardly, directly, plainly, intelligibly

2 merely; just: he's simply too slow

◇ SYNONYMS: just, only, merely, purely, solely

3 absolutely: a simply enormous success

◇ SYNONYMS: totally, really, completely, absolutely, wholly, utterly simulate vb -lating, -lated

1 to pretend to feel or perform (an emotion or action); imitate: I tried to simulate anger

◇ SYNONYMS: pretend, act, feign, affect, put on, sham

2 to imitate the conditions of (a situation), as in carrying out an experiment: we can then simulate global warming

3 to have the appearance of: the wood had been painted to simulate stone > simulated adj

> simulation n

simulator n a device that simulates specific conditions for the purposes of research or training: a flight simulator

simultaneous adj occurring or existing at the same time

◇ SYNONYMS: coinciding, concurrent, contemporaneous, coincident, synchronous, happening at the same time > simultaneously adv

> simultaneity n

sin¹ n

1 the breaking of a religious or moral law

◇ SYNONYMS: wickedness, evil, crime, error, transgression, iniquity

2 any offence against a principle or standard

◇ SYNONYMS: crime, offence, error, wrongdoing, misdeed, transgression, act of evil, guilt

3 live in sin (old-fashioned, informal) (of an unmarried couple) to live together

► vb sinning, sinned

4 to commit a sin

◇ SYNONYMS: transgress, offend, lapse, err, go astray, do wrong > sinner n

sin² (maths) sine

since prep

1 during the period of time after: one of their worst winters since 1945

► conj

2 continuously from the time given: they've been standing in line ever since she arrived

3 for the reason that; because

► adv

4 from that time: I have often been asked since sincere adj genuine and honest: sincere concern

◇ SYNONYMS: honest, genuine, real, true, serious, earnest, frank, candid, dinkum (Austral & NZ informal) > sincerely adv > sincerity n

sine n (in trigonometry) the ratio of the length of the opposite side to that of the hypotenuse in a right-angled triangle sinecure (sin-ee-cure) n a paid job that involves very little work or responsibility sine die (sin-ay dee-ay) adv without fixing a day for future action or meeting sine qua non (sin-ay kwah non) n an essential requirement sinew n

- 1 (anatomy) a tough fibrous cord connecting muscle to bone
- 2 (literary) physical strength sinewy adj lean and muscular sinful adj

- 1 having committed or tending to commit sin: I am a sinful man
- 2 being a sin; wicked: sinful acts

sing vb singing, sang, sung

- 1 to produce musical sounds with the voice ◇ SYNONYMS: croon, carol, chant, warble, yodel, pipe
- 2 to perform (a song)
◇ SYNONYMS: croon, carol, chant, warble, yodel, pipe
- 3 (of certain birds and insects) to make musical calls

◇ SYNONYMS: trill, chirp, warble

4 sing of to tell a story in song about: the minstrels sang of courtly love

5 to make a humming, ringing, or whistling sound: the arrow sang past his ear

6 (of one's ears) to be filled with a continuous ringing sound

7 to bring (someone) to a given state by singing: I sang him to sleep

8 (slang, chiefly US) to act as an informer > singer n

> singing adj, n

singe vb singeing, singed

1 to burn slightly without setting alight; scorch: it singed his sheepskin

► n

2 a slight burn

singing telegram n

1 a service by which a person is employed to present greetings to someone on a special occasion by singing

2 the greetings presented in this way

3 the person who presents the greetings single adj

1 existing alone; solitary: the cottage's single chimney

◇ SYNONYMS: one, sole, lone, solitary, only, only one

2 distinct from others of the same kind: every single housing society

◇ SYNONYMS: individual, separate, distinct

3 designed for one user: a single room

◇ SYNONYMS: separate, individual, exclusive, undivided, unshared

4 unmarried

◇ SYNONYMS: unmarried, free, unattached, unwed

5 even one: there was not a single bathroom

6 (of a flower) having only one circle of petals

7 single combat a duel or fight involving two individuals

► n

8 a hotel bedroom for one person

9 a song or recording that is marketed in its own right rather than as part of an album

10 (cricket) a hit from which one run is scored

11 (US & Canad) a dollar bill

12 a ticket valid for a one-way journey only

► vb -gling, -gled

13 single out to select from a group of people or things: the judge had singled him out for praise

◇ SYNONYMS single something or someone out: pick, choose, select, separate, distinguish, fix on, set apart, pick on or out, flag up single file n a line of people, one behind the other single-handed adj

1 alone; unaided: a single-handed raid on the enemy camp

► adv

2 unaided or working alone: she had to take on the world single-handed > single-handedly adv

single-minded adj having one purpose or aim only; dedicated > single-mindedly adv

> single-mindedness n singlet n (Brit & NZ) a man's sleeveless vest singly adv one at a time; one by one

◇ SYNONYMS: one by one, individually, one at a time, separately sing-song n

1 an informal group singing session

► adj

2 (of a voice) having a repetitive rise and fall in tone singular adj

1 (grammar) (of a word or form) denoting only one person or thing: a singular noun

◇ SYNONYMS: single, individual

2 remarkable; extraordinary: one of the singular achievements

◇ SYNONYMS: remarkable, outstanding, exceptional, notable, eminent, noteworthy

3 unusual; odd: a lovable but very singular old woman

◇ SYNONYMS: unusual, odd, strange, extraordinary, curious, peculiar, eccentric, queer (old-fashioned), daggy (Austral & NZ informal)

► n

4 (grammar) the singular form of a word > singularity n > singularly adv

sinister adj

1 threatening or suggesting evil or harm: a sinister conspiracy

◇ SYNONYMS: threatening, evil, menacing, dire, ominous, malign, disquieting

2 (heraldry) of, on, or starting from the bearer's left side sink vb sinking, sank, sunk

1 to submerge (in liquid)

◇ SYNONYMS: go down, founder, go under, submerge, capsize

2 to cause (a ship) to submerge by attacking it with bombs, torpedoes, etc.

3 to appear to descend towards or below the horizon

4 to make or become lower in amount or value: the US dollar sank to a low against the euro

◇ SYNONYMS: fall, drop, slip, plunge, subside, abate

5 to move or fall into a lower position, esp. due to tiredness or weakness: she sank back in her chair

◇ SYNONYMS: slump, drop

6 sink into to pass into a lower state or condition, esp. an unpleasant one: to sink into debt

7 (of a voice) to become quieter

◇ SYNONYMS: drop, fall

8 to become weaker in health

◇ SYNONYMS: decline, fade, fail, flag, weaken, diminish, decrease, deteriorate

9 to dig (something sharp) into a solid object: she sank her teeth into the steak

10 (informal) to drink (a number of alcoholic drinks)

11 to dig, drill, or excavate (a hole or shaft)

◇ SYNONYMS: dig, bore, drill, drive, excavate

12 to drive (a stake) into the ground

13 sink in or into to invest (money) in (a venture)

14 (golf, snooker) to hit (the ball) into the hole or pocket: she sank the putt

► n

15 a fixed basin in a kitchen or bathroom, with a water supply and drainpipe

► adj

16 (informal) (of a housing estate or school) deprived or having low standards of achievement sinker n a weight attached to a fishing line or net to cause it to sink in water sink in vb (of a fact) to become fully understood: the euphoria started to wear off as the implications of it all sank in sinking fund n a fund set aside to repay a long-term debt

Sino- combining form Chinese: Sino-European; Sinology

sinuous adj (literary)

1 full of curves

2 having smooth twisting movements: sinuous dances

> sinuosity n

sinus (sine- + uss) n (anatomy) a hollow space in bone, such as one in the skull opening into a nasal cavity sip vb sipping, sipped

1 to drink (a liquid) in small mouthfuls

◇ SYNONYMS: drink, taste, sample, sup

► n

2 an amount sipped

◇ SYNONYMS: swallow, drop, taste, thimbleful

3 an instance of sipping siphon or syphon n

1 a tube which uses air pressure to draw liquid from a container

► vb

2 siphon off

A to draw (liquid) off through a siphon

B to redirect (resources or money), esp. dishonestly, into other projects or bank accounts

sir n a polite term of address for a man

Sir n a title placed before the name of a knight or baronet: Sir David Attenborough

sire n

1 a male parent of a horse or other domestic animal

2 (archaic) a respectful form of address used to a king

► vb siring, sired

3 to father siren n

1 a device that gives out a loud wailing sound as a warning or signal

2 Siren (Greek myth) a sea nymph whose singing lured sailors to destruction on the rocks

3 a woman considered attractive but dangerous to men sirloin n a prime cut of beef from the upper part of the loin sirocco n, pl -cos a hot stifling wind blowing from N Africa into S Europe sis¹ n (informal) short for sister sis² or sies² (sis) interj (S African informal) an exclamation of disgust sisal (size-al) n a stiff fibre obtained from a Mexican plant and used for making rope siskin n a yellow-and-black finch sissy or cissy n, pl -sies (derogatory)

1 an effeminate or cowardly boy or man

► adj

2 effeminate or cowardly sister n

1 a woman or girl having the same parents as another person

2 a female fellow member of a group, trade union, profession, etc.

3 a female nurse in charge of a ward

4 (chiefly RC Church) a nun

► adj

5 of the same class, origin, or design, as another: its sister paper sisterhood n

1 the state of being sisters or like sisters

2 a religious group of women

3 a group of women united by a common interest or belief sister-in-law n, pl sisters-in-law

1 the sister of one's husband or wife

2 the wife of one's sibling sisterly adj of or like a sister; affectionate sit vb sitting, sat

1 to rest one's body upright on the buttocks: she had to sit on the ground

◇ SYNONYMS: take a seat, perch, settle down

2 to cause (someone) to rest in such a position: they sat their grandfather in the shade

◇ SYNONYMS: place, set, put, position, rest, lay, settle, deposit

3 (of an animal) to rest with the rear part of its body lowered to the ground

4 (of a bird) to perch or roost

5 sit on (of a bird) to cover its eggs so as to hatch them

6 to be located: the bank sits in the middle of the village

7 to pose for a painting or photograph

8 to occupy a seat in some official capacity: no police representatives will sit on the committee

◇ SYNONYMS: be a member of, serve on, have a seat on, preside on 9 (of a parliament or court) to be in session

◇ SYNONYMS: convene, meet, assemble, officiate

10 to remain unused: his car sat in the garage

11 (of clothes) to fit or hang in a certain way: that dress sits well on you

12 to take (an examination): he's sitting his finals

13 (in combination) to look after a specified person or thing for someone else: is someone going to dog-sit for you?

14 sit for (chiefly Brit) to be a candidate for (a qualification): he sat for a degree in medicine

15 sit tight (informal)

A to wait patiently

B to maintain one's position firmly sitar n an Indian stringed musical instrument with a long neck and a rounded body sitcom n (informal) (on television or radio) a comedy series involving the same characters in various everyday situations: yet another unfunny sitcom set in Liverpool

site n

1 the piece of ground where something was, is, or is intended to be located: a building site; a car park is to be built on the site of a Roman fort

◇ SYNONYMS: area, plot

2 same as website

► vb siting, sited

3 to locate (something) on a specific site

◇ SYNONYMS: locate, put, place, set, position, establish, install, situate sit-in n

1 a protest in which the demonstrators sit in a public place and refuse to move

► vb sit in

2 sit in for to stand in as a substitute for (someone)

3 sit in on to be present at (a meeting) as an observer sitting room n a room in a house or flat where people sit and relax situate vb -ating, -ated (formal) to place situation n

1

A state of affairs

◇ SYNONYMS: position, state, case, condition, circumstances, equation, plight, state of affairs

B a complex or critical state of affairs

2 location and surroundings

◇ SYNONYMS: location, place, setting, position, site, spot

3 social or financial circumstances

4 a position of employment situation comedy n same as sitcom six n

1 the cardinal number that is the sum of one and five

2 a numeral, 6 or VI, representing this number

3 something representing or consisting of six units

4 (cricket) a score of six runs, obtained by hitting the ball so that it crosses the boundary without bouncing

5 at sixes and sevens in a state of confusion

6 knock someone for six (informal) to upset or overwhelm someone completely

7 six of one and half a dozen of the other a situation in which there is no real difference between the alternatives

► adj

8 amounting to six: six days > sixth adj, n

sixteen n

1 the cardinal number that is the sum of ten and six

2 a numeral, 16 or XVI, representing this number

3 something representing or consisting of sixteen units

► adj

4 amounting to sixteen: sixteen years > sixteenth adj, n

sixty n, pl -ties

1 the cardinal number that is the product of ten and six

2 a numeral, 60 or LX, representing this number

3 something representing or consisting of sixty units

► adj

4 amounting to sixty: sixty seconds > sixtieth adj, n

sizable or sizeable adj quite large ◇ SYNONYMS: large, considerable, substantial, goodly, decent, respectable, largish

size¹ n

1 the dimensions, amount, or extent of something

◇ SYNONYMS: dimensions, extent, range, amount, mass, volume, proportions, bulk

2 large dimensions, amount, or extent: I was overwhelmed by the sheer size of the city

3 one of a series of standard measurements for goods: he takes size 11 shoes

4 (informal) state of affairs as summarized: that's about the size of it

► vb sizing, sized

5 to sort (things) according to size size² n

1 a thin gluey substance that is used as a sealer

► vb sizing, sized

2 to treat (a surface) with size size up vb (informal) to make an assessment of (a person or situation)

◇ SYNONYMS size something or someone up: assess, evaluate, appraise, take stock of sizzle vb -zling, -zled

1 to make a hissing sound like the sound of frying fat

◇ SYNONYMS: hiss, spit, crackle, fry, frizzle

2 (informal) to be very hot: the city was sizzling in a hot summer spell

3 (informal) to be very angry

► n

4 a hissing sound > sizzling adj

skanky adj skankier, skankiest (slang)

1 dirty or unattractive

2 promiscuous skate¹ n

1 same as ice skate, roller skate

2 get one's skates on (informal) to hurry

► vb skating, skated

3 to glide on or as if on skates

4 skate on thin ice to place oneself in a dangerous situation > skater n

> skating n

skate² n, pl skate or skates a large edible marine fish with a broad flat body skateboard n

1 a narrow board mounted on roller-skate wheels, usually ridden while standing up

► vb

2 to ride on a skateboard > skateboarding n

skate round or over vb to avoid discussing or dealing with (a matter) fully: friends and admirers skated round the question skedaddle vb -dling, -dled (informal) to run off hastily skein n

1 a length of yarn or thread wound in a loose coil

2 a flock of geese in flight skeleton n

1 the hard framework of bones that supports and protects the organs and muscles of the body

◇ SYNONYMS: bones, bare bones

2 the essential framework of any structure: a metal skeleton supporting the roof and floors

3 (informal) an extremely thin person or animal

4 an outline consisting of bare essentials: the mere skeleton of a script

5 a small steel-frame sledge for racing down an ice-covered run

6 the sport of racing small steel-frame sledges down an ice-covered run

7 skeleton in the cupboard or closet an embarrassing or scandalous fact from the past that is kept secret

► adj

8 reduced to a minimum: a skeleton staff > skeletal adj

skeleton key n a key designed so that it can open many different locks skeptic n (US, or archaic) same as sceptic sketch n

1 a quick rough drawing

◇ SYNONYMS: drawing, design, draft, delineation

2 a brief descriptive piece of writing

3 a short funny piece of acting forming part of a show

4 any brief outline

► vb

5 to make a quick rough drawing (of)

◇ SYNONYMS: draw, outline, represent, draft, depict, delineate, rough out

6 sketch out to make a brief description of: they sketched out plans for the invasion sketchy adj sketchier, sketchiest giving only a rough or incomplete description > sketchily adv

skew adj

1 having a slanting position

► n

2 a slanting position

► vb

3 to take or cause to take a slanting position: our boat skewed off course

4 to distort or misrepresent: the takeover bid has skewed last month's figures skewer n

1 a long pin for holding meat together during cooking

► vb

2 to fasten or pierce with or as if with a skewer ski n, pl skis or ski

1 one of a pair of long runners that are used, fastened to boots, for gliding over snow

► vb skiing, skied or ski'd

2 to travel on skis > skier n

> skiing n

skid vb skidding, skidded

1 (of a vehicle or person) to slide sideways while in motion

► n

2 an instance of skidding skiff n a small narrow boat for one person skilful or (US) skillful adj having or showing skill ◇ SYNONYMS: expert, deft, skilled, masterly, able, professional, clever, practised, competent > skilfully or (US) skillfully adv

skill n

1 special ability or expertise enabling one to perform an activity very well

◇ SYNONYMS: expertise, ability, proficiency, art, technique, facility, talent, craft

2 something, such as a trade, requiring special training or expertise > skilled adj

skillet n

1 a small frying pan

2 (chiefly Brit) a long-handled cooking pot skim vb skimming, skimmed

1 to remove (floating material) from the surface of (a liquid): skim any impurities off the surface

◇ SYNONYMS: remove, separate, cream

2 to glide smoothly over (a surface)

◇ SYNONYMS: glide, fly, coast, sail, float

3 to throw (a flat stone) across a surface, so that it bounces: two men skimmed stones on the surface of the sea

4 (often foll. by through) to read (a piece of writing) quickly and without taking in the details

◇ SYNONYMS: scan, glance, run your eye over skimp vb

1 to be extremely sparing or supply (someone) sparingly

2 to do (something) carelessly or with inadequate materials skimpy adj skimpier, skimpiest inadequate in amount or size; scant skin n

1 the tissue forming the outer covering of the body

2 a person's complexion: sallow skin

3 any outer layer or covering: potato skin

◇ SYNONYMS: peel, rind, husk, casing, outside, crust

4 a thin solid layer on the surface of a liquid: custard with a thick skin on it

◇ SYNONYMS: film, coating

5 the outer covering of a furry animal, removed and prepared for use

◇ SYNONYMS: hide, pelt, fell

6 a container for liquids, made from animal skin

7 by the skin of one's teeth by a narrow margin

8 get under one's skin (informal) to annoy one

9 no skin off one's nose (informal) not a matter that concerns one

10 save one's skin to save one from death or harm

11 skin and bone extremely thin

12 thick or thin skin an insensitive or sensitive nature

► vb skinning, skinned

13 to remove the outer covering from (fruit, vegetables, dead animals, etc.)

◇ SYNONYMS: peel

14 to injure (a part of the body) by scraping some of the skin off: I had skinned my knuckles

◇ SYNONYMS: scrape, flay

15 (slang) to swindle > skinless adj

skin-deep adj not of real importance; superficial: beauty is only skin-deep skin diving n underwater swimming using only light breathing apparatus and without a special diving suit > skin-diver n

skinflint n a very mean person skinhead n

1 a member of a group of White youths, noted for their closely cropped hair, aggressive behaviour, and overt racism

2 a closely cropped hairstyle skinny adj -nier, -niest extremely thin

◇ SYNONYMS: thin, lean, scrawny, emaciated, undernourished skip¹ vb skipping, skipped

1 to move lightly by hopping from one foot to the other ◇ SYNONYMS: hop, dance, bob, trip, bounce, caper, prance, frisk

2 to jump over a skipping-rope

3 to cause (a stone) to skim over a surface or (of a stone) to move in this way

4 to pass over or miss out; omit: I skipped a few paragraphs

◇ SYNONYMS: miss out, omit, leave out, overlook, pass over, eschew, give (something) a miss

5 skip through (informal) to read or deal with (something) quickly or without great effort or concentration 6 skip it! (informal) it doesn't matter!

7 (informal) to miss deliberately: she skipped the class

8 (informal, chiefly US & Canad & Austral) to leave (a place) in a hurry: he skipped town three years later

► n

9 a skipping movement or action skip² n

1 (Brit) a large open container for transporting building materials or rubbish

2 a cage used as a lift in mines skipper n

1 the captain of a ship or aircraft

2 the captain of a sporting team

► vb

3 to be the captain of skirmish n

1 a brief or minor fight or argument

► vb

2 to take part in a skirmish skirt n

1 a woman's or girl's garment hanging from the waist

2 the part of a dress or coat below the waist

3 a circular hanging flap, for example round the base of a hovercraft

4 (Brit & NZ) a cut of beef from the flank

5 bit of skirt (offensive, slang) a girl or woman

► vb

6 to lie along or form the edge of (something): a track skirting the foot of the mountain

◇ SYNONYMS: border, edge, flank

7 to go around the outer edge of (something): we skirted the township

◇ SYNONYMS: go round, circumvent

8 to avoid dealing with (an issue): I was skirting around the real issues

◇ SYNONYMS: avoid, evade, steer clear of, circumvent (formal) skirting board n a narrow board round the bottom of an interior wall where it joins the floor skit n a short funny or satirical sketch skite (Austral & NZ) vb

1 to boast

► n

2 a boast

skittish adj

1 playful or lively

2 (of a horse) excitable and easily frightened skittle n

1 a bottle-shaped object used as a target in a game of skittles

2 skittles a bowling game in which players knock over as many skittles as possible by rolling a wooden ball at them skive vb skiving, skived (often foll. by off) (Brit informal) to avoid work or responsibility > skiver n

skivvy (chiefly Brit, often derogatory) n, pl -vies

1 a servant who does menial work; drudge

2 (Austral & NZ) a garment resembling a sweater with long sleeves and a polo neck

► vb -vies, -vying, -vied

3 to work as a skivvy skulduggery or (US) skullduggery n (informal) underhand dealing to achieve an aim skulk vb

1 to move stealthily, so as to avoid notice

2 to lie in hiding; lurk skull n

1 the bony framework of the head

2 (informal) the head or mind: that would have penetrated even your thick skull skullcap n a closely fitting brimless cap skunk n, pl skunks or skunk

1 a mammal with a black-and-white coat and bushy tail, which gives out a foul-smelling fluid when attacked

2 (informal) an unpleasant or unfair person sky n, pl skies

1 the upper atmosphere as seen from earth

◇ SYNONYMS: heavens, firmament, rangi (NZ)

2 praise to the skies praise rather excessively

► vb skies, skying, skied

3 (informal) to hit (a ball) high in the air: the blond-haired forward skied the ball high over the bar skydiving n the sport of jumping from an aircraft and falling freely or performing manoeuvres before opening the parachute > skydiver n

skylark n

1 a lark that sings while soaring at a great height

► vb

2 (old-fashioned) to play or frolic skylight n a window placed in a roof or ceiling to let in daylight

Skype n (trademark)

1 a software application by which users can make voice and video calls over the internet

► vb Skyping, Skyped

2 to make a call by Skype or call (someone) by Skype skyscraper n a very tall building slab n

1 a broad flat thick piece of wood, stone, or other material

◇ SYNONYMS: piece, slice, lump, chunk, wedge, portion

2 (informal) a package containing 24 cans of beer slack adj

1 not tight, tense, or taut: the slack jaw hung open

◇ SYNONYMS: limp, relaxed, loose, lax

2 careless in one's work

◇ SYNONYMS: negligent, lazy, lax, idle, inactive, slapdash, neglectful, slipshod

3 (esp. of water) moving slowly

◇ SYNONYMS: slow, quiet, inactive, dull, sluggish, slow-moving

4 (of trade) not busy

◇ SYNONYMS: slow, quiet, inactive, dull, sluggish, slow-moving

► n

5 a part that is slack or hangs loose: take up the slack

6 a period of less busy activity

► vb

7 to neglect one's duty or work in a lazy manner: stop slacking, you pair!

◇ SYNONYMS: shirk, idle, dodge, skive (Brit slang), bludge (Austral & NZ informal)

8 (often foll. by off) to loosen or slacken > slackness n

slacken vb (often foll. by off)

1 to make or become looser

2 to make or become slower or less intense: to slacken the pace of reform slacker n a person who evades work or duty; shirker slag n

1 the waste material left after metal has been smelted

2 (Brit & NZ derogatory, slang) a woman considered sexually immoral

► vb slagging, slagged

3 (Brit & Austral & NZ slang) (often foll. by off) to criticize in an unpleasant way: I don't think anyone can slag it off

> slagging n

> slaggy adj

slain vb the past participle of slay slake vb slaking, slaked

- 1 (literary) to satisfy (thirst or desire)
- 2 to add water to (lime) to produce calcium hydroxide slalom n (skiing, rowing) a race over a winding course marked by artificial obstacles slam vb slamming, slammed

- 1 to close violently and noisily
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: bang, crash, smash
- 2 to throw (something or someone) down violently
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: throw, dash, hurl, fling
- 3 (slang) to criticize harshly: his new proposals were slammed by the opposition
- 4 to strike with violent force: he slammed the ball into the back of the net
 - n
- 5 the act or noise of slamming slander n

- 1 (law) a false and damaging statement about a person
- 2 the crime of making such a statement
 - vb
- 3 to utter slander (about)
 - > slanderous adj

slang n

- 1 informal language not used in formal speech or writing and often restricted to a particular social group or profession
 - vb
- 2 to use insulting language to (someone)
 - > slangy adj

slanging match n an angry quarrel in which people trade insults slant vb

1 to lean at an angle; slope

◇ SYNONYMS: slope, incline, tilt, list, bend, lean, heel, cant

2 to write or present (information) in a biased way

◇ SYNONYMS: bias, colour, twist, angle, distort

► n

3 a sloping line or position

◇ SYNONYMS: slope, incline, tilt, gradient, camber

4 a point of view, esp. a biased one: a right-wing slant on the story

◇ SYNONYMS: bias, emphasis, prejudice, angle, point of view, one-sidedness

5 on a or the slant sloping

► adj

6 oblique; sloping > slanting adj

> slantwise adv

slap n

1 a sharp blow or smack with something flat, such as the open hand

◇ SYNONYMS: smack, blow, cuff, swipe (informal), spank

2 the sound made by or as if by such a blow

3 slap and tickle (Brit old-fashioned, informal) sexual play

4 a slap in the face an unexpected rejection or insult

5 a slap on the back congratulations

► vb slapping, slapped

6 to strike sharply with something flat, such as the open hand

◇ SYNONYMS: smack, beat, clap, cuff, swipe (informal), spank, clobber (slang), wallop (informal)

7 to bring (something) down forcefully: he slapped down a fiver

8 (usually foll. by against) to strike (something) with a slapping sound

9 (informal) to cover with quickly or carelessly: she slapped on some make-up

10 slap on the back to congratulate

► adv (informal)

11 exactly: slap in the middle

12 slap into forcibly or abruptly into: he ran slap into the guard

slapdash adv

1 carelessly or hastily

► adj

2 careless or hasty slap-happy adj -pier, -piest (informal) cheerfully careless slapstick n rough and high-spirited comedy in which the characters behave childishly slap-up adj (Brit informal) (esp. of meals) large and expensive slash vb

1 to cut (a person or thing) with sharp sweeping strokes

◇ SYNONYMS: cut, slit, gash, lacerate, score, rend (literary), rip, hack

2 to make large gashes in: I slashed the tyres of his van

◇ SYNONYMS: cut, slit, gash, lacerate, score, rend (literary), rip, hack

3 to reduce drastically: to slash costs

◇ SYNONYMS: reduce, cut, decrease, drop, lower, moderate, diminish, cut down

4 to criticize harshly

► n

5 a sharp sweeping stroke

6 a cut made by such a stroke

◇ SYNONYMS: cut, slit, gash, rent, rip, incision, laceration

7 (Brit & Austral slang) the act of urinating slat n a narrow thin strip of wood or metal, such as used in a Venetian blind slate¹ n

1 a dark grey rock that can be easily split into thin layers and is used as a roofing material

2 a roofing tile of slate

3 (formerly) a writing tablet of slate

4 (chiefly US & Canad) a list of candidates in an election

5 wipe the slate clean forget about past mistakes or failures and start afresh

6 on the slate (Brit & Austral informal) on credit

► vb slating, slated

7 to cover (a roof) with slates

8 (chiefly US) to plan or schedule: another exercise is slated for tomorrow

> slaty adj

slate² vb slating, slated (informal, chiefly Brit & Austral) to criticize harshly: the new series was slated by the critics

◇ SYNONYMS: criticize, censure, rebuke, scold, tear into (informal) > slating n

slattern n (old-fashioned, derogatory) a dirty and untidy woman > slatternliness n

> slatternly adj

slaughter n

1 the indiscriminate or brutal killing of large numbers of people

◇ SYNONYMS: slaying, killing, murder, massacre, bloodshed, carnage, butchery

2 the savage killing of a person

◇ SYNONYMS: slaying, killing, murder, massacre, bloodshed, carnage, butchery

3 the killing of animals for food

► vb

4 to kill indiscriminately or in large numbers

◇ SYNONYMS: butcher, kill, slay (archaic, literary), massacre

5 to kill brutally

◇ SYNONYMS: kill (informal), murder, massacre, destroy, execute, assassinate

6 to kill (animals) for food

7 (informal) (in sport) to defeat easily slaughterhouse n a place where animals are killed for food

Slav n a member of any of the peoples of Eastern and Central Europe who speak a Slavonic language slave n

1 a person legally owned by another for whom he or she has to work without freedom, pay, or rights

◇ SYNONYMS: servant, serf, vassal

2 a person under the domination of another or of some habit or influence: a slave to party doctrine

3 (informal) a badly-paid person doing menial tasks

◇ SYNONYMS: drudge, skivvy (chiefly Brit)

► vb slaving, slaved

4 (often foll. by away or over) to work very hard for little or no money

◇ SYNONYMS: toil, drudge, slog slave-driver n

1 a person who makes people work very hard

2 (esp. formerly) a person forcing slaves to work slaver¹ (slay-ver) n (esp. formerly) a dealer in slaves slaver² (slav-ver) vb to dribble saliva slavery n

1 the state or condition of being a slave

◇ SYNONYMS: enslavement, servitude, subjugation, captivity, bondage

2 the practice of owning slaves

3 hard work with little reward slavish adj

1 of or like a slave

2 imitating or copying exactly without any originality: a slavish adherence to the conventions of Italian opera

> slavishly adv

Slavonic or (esp US) Slavic n

1 a group of languages including Bulgarian, Russian, Polish, and Czech

► adj

2 of this group of languages

3 of the people who speak these languages slay vb slaying, slew, slain (archaic, literary) to kill, esp. violently

◇ SYNONYMS: kill (informal), slaughter, massacre, butcher > slayer n

sleaze n (informal) behaviour in public life considered immoral, dishonest, or disreputable: political sleaze

◇ SYNONYMS: corruption, fraud, dishonesty, bribery, extortion, venality, unscrupulousness sleazy adj -zier, -ziest dirty, rundown, and not respectable: a sleazy hotel > sleaziness n

sledge¹ or (esp US & Canad) sled¹ n

1 a vehicle mounted on runners, drawn by horses or dogs, for transporting people or goods over snow

2 a light wooden frame used, esp. by children, for sliding over snow

► vb sledging, sledged

3 to travel by sledge sledge² n short for sledgehammer sledgehammer n

1 a large heavy hammer with a long handle, used for breaking rocks and concrete

► adj

2 crushingly powerful: the sledgehammer approach sleek adj

1 smooth, shiny, and glossy: sleek blond hair

◇ SYNONYMS: glossy, shiny, lustrous, smooth

2 (of a person) elegantly dressed sleep n

1 a state of rest during which the eyes are closed, the muscles and nerves are relaxed, and the mind is unconscious ◇ SYNONYMS: slumber(s), nap, doze, snooze (informal), hibernation, siesta, forty winks (informal), zizz (Brit informal)

2 a period spent sleeping

3 the substance sometimes found in the corner of the eyes after sleep

4 a state of inactivity, like sleep

5 (poetic) death

► vb sleeping, slept

6 to be in or as in the state of sleep

◇ SYNONYMS: slumber, doze, snooze (informal), hibernate, take a nap, catnap, drowse

7 to be inactive or unaware: their defence slept as we scored another try

8 to have sleeping accommodation for (a certain number): the villa sleeps ten

9 (poetic) to be dead

10 sleep on it to delay making a decision about (something) until the next day, in order to think about it sleeper n

1 a railway sleeping car or compartment

2 one of the blocks supporting the rails on a railway track

3 a small plain gold ring worn in a pierced ear lobe to prevent the hole from closing up

4 (informal) a person or thing that achieves success after an initial period of obscurity sleeping bag n a large well-padded bag for sleeping in, esp. outdoors sleeping sickness n an infectious, usually fatal, African disease transmitted by the bite of the tsetse fly, causing fever and sluggishness sleepless adj

1 (of a night) during which one does not sleep

2 unable to sleep

3 (chiefly poetic) always active > sleeplessness n sleepout n (NZ) a small building for sleeping in sleepover n an occasion when a person stays overnight at a friend's house sleep with vb to have sexual intercourse and, usually, spend the night with sleepy adj sleepier, sleepiest

1 tired and ready for sleep

◇ SYNONYMS: drowsy, sluggish, lethargic, heavy, dull, inactive

2 (of a place) without activity or excitement: a sleepy little town

> sleepily adv

sleet n

1 partly melted falling snow or hail or (esp. US) partly frozen rain

► vb

2 to fall as sleet sleeve n

1 the part of a garment covering the arm

2 a tubelike part which fits over or completely encloses another part

3 up one's sleeve secretly ready: he has a few more surprises up his sleeve > sleeveless adj

sleigh n

1 same as sledge

► vb

2 to travel by sleigh sleight of hand n

1 the skilful use of the hands when performing magic tricks

2 the performance of such tricks slender adj

1 (esp. of a person's figure) slim and graceful

◇ SYNONYMS: slim, narrow, slight, lean, willowy

2 of small width relative to length or height

3 small or inadequate in amount or size: a slender advantage

◇ SYNONYMS: meagre, little, small, scant, scanty slept vb the past of sleep sleuth (rhymes with tooth) n (informal) a detective slew¹ vb the past tense of slay slew² or (esp US) slue² vb

1 to slide or skid sideways: the bus slewed across the road

► n

2 the act of slewing slice n

- 1 a thin flat piece or wedge cut from something: a slice of tomato ◇ SYNONYMS: piece, segment, portion, wedge, sliver, helping, share, cut (informal)
- 2 a share or portion: the biggest slice of their income
- 3 a kitchen tool having a broad flat blade: a fish slice
- 4 (sport) a shot that causes the ball to go in the opposite direction from one's follow-through
- vb slicing, sliced
- 5 to cut (something) into slices ◇ SYNONYMS: cut, divide, carve, sever, dissect, bisect
- 6 (usually foll. by through) to cut through cleanly and effortlessly, with or as if with a knife
- 7 (usually foll. by off or from or away) to cut or be cut from a larger piece
- 8 (sport) to play (a ball) with a slice slick adj

- 1 (esp. of speech) easy and persuasive: a slick answer
 ◇ SYNONYMS: glib, smooth, plausible, polished, specious
- 2 skilfully devised or executed: a slick marketing effort ◇ SYNONYMS: skilful, deft, adroit, dexterous, professional, polished
- 3 (informal, chiefly US & Canad) shrewd; sly
- 4 (informal) well-made and attractive, but superficial: a slick publication
 ◇ SYNONYMS: glib, smooth, plausible, polished, specious
- 5 (chiefly US & Canad) slippery
- n
- 6 a slippery area, esp. a patch of oil floating on water
- vb
- 7 to make smooth or shiny: long hair slicked back with gel ◇ SYNONYMS: smooth, sleek, plaster down slide vb sliding, slid

- 1 to move smoothly along a surface in continual contact with it: doors that slide open ◇ SYNONYMS: slip, slither, glide, skim, coast
- 2 to slip: he slid on his back
- 3 (usually foll. by into or out of or away from) to pass or move smoothly and quietly: she slid out of her seat

4 (usually foll. by into) to go (into a specified condition) gradually: the republic will slide into political anarchy

5 (of a currency) to lose value gradually

6 let slide to allow to change to a worse state by neglect: past managers have undoubtedly let things slide

► n

7 the act or an instance of sliding

8 a small glass plate on which specimens are placed for study under a microscope

9 a piece of photographic film on a transparent base, mounted in a frame, that can be viewed by means of a projector

10 a smooth surface, such as ice, for sliding on 11 a structure with a steep smooth slope for sliding down in playgrounds

12 (chiefly Brit) an ornamental clip to hold hair in place

13 the sliding curved tube of a trombone that is moved in and out to allow different notes to be played slide rule n a device formerly used to make mathematical calculations consisting of two strips, one sliding along a central groove in the other, each strip graduated in two or more logarithmic scales of numbers sliding scale n a variable scale according to which things such as wages or prices alter in response to changes in other factors slight adj

1 small in quantity or extent: a slight improvement

◇ SYNONYMS: small, minor, insignificant, trivial, feeble, trifling, meagre, unimportant

2 not very important or lacking in substance: her political career was honourable but relatively slight

◇ SYNONYMS: small, minor, insignificant, trivial, feeble, trifling, meagre, unimportant

3 slim and delicate

◇ SYNONYMS: slim, small, delicate, spare, fragile, lightly-built

► vb

4 to insult (someone) by behaving rudely; snub

◇ SYNONYMS: snub, insult, ignore, affront, scorn, disdain

► n

5 an act of snubbing (someone)

◇ SYNONYMS: insult, snub, affront, rebuff, slap in the face (informal), (the) cold shoulder > slightly adv

slim adj slimmer, slimmest

1 (of a person) attractively thin

◇ SYNONYMS: slender, slight, trim, thin, narrow, lean, svelte, willowy

2 small in width relative to height or length: a slim book

◇ SYNONYMS: slender, slight, trim, thin, narrow, lean, svelte, willowy

3 poor; meagre: a slim chance of progress

◇ SYNONYMS: slight, remote, faint, slender

► vb slimming, slimmed

4 to make or become slim by diet and exercise

◇ SYNONYMS: lose weight, diet

5 to reduce in size: that would slim the overheads > slimmer n

> slimming n

slime n

1 soft runny mud or any sticky substance, esp. when disgusting or unpleasant

2 a thick, sticky substance produced by some fish, slugs, and fungi slimy adj slimier, slimiest

1 of, like, or covered with slime

2 pleasant and friendly in an insincere way sling¹ n

1 (med) a wide piece of cloth suspended from the neck for supporting an injured hand or arm

2 a rope or strap by which something may be lifted

3 a simple weapon consisting of a strap tied to cords, in which a stone is whirled and then released

► vb slinging, slung

4 (informal) to throw

◇ SYNONYMS: throw, cast, toss, hurl, fling, chuck (informal), lob (informal), heave

5 to carry or hang loosely from or as if from a sling: her shoulder bag was slung across her chest

◇ SYNONYMS: hang, suspend

6 to hurl with or as if with a sling sling² n a sweetened mixed drink with a spirit base: gin sling slink vb slinking, slunk to move or act in a quiet and secretive way from fear or guilt slinky adj slinkier, slinkiest (informal)

1 (of clothes) figure-hugging

2 moving in an alluring way slip¹ vb slipping, slipped

1 to lose balance and slide unexpectedly: he slipped on some leaves

◇ SYNONYMS: fall, skid

2 to let loose or be let loose: the rope slipped from his fingers

◇ SYNONYMS: slide, slither

3 to move smoothly and easily: small enough to slip into a pocket

4 to place quickly or stealthily: he slipped the pistol back into his holster

5 to put on or take off easily or quickly: we had slipped off our sandals

6 to pass out of (the mind or memory)

7 to move or pass quickly and without being noticed: we slipped out of the ballroom

◇ SYNONYMS: sneak, creep, steal

8 to make a mistake

9 to decline in health or mental ability

10 to become worse or lower: sales had slipped below the level for June of last year

11 to dislocate (a disc in the spine)

12 to pass (a stitch) from one needle to another without knitting it 13 let slip

A to allow to escape

B to say unintentionally

► n

14 a slipping

15 a mistake or oversight: one slip in concentration that cost us the game

◇ SYNONYMS: mistake, failure, error, blunder, lapse, omission, oversight, barry or Barry Crocker (Austral slang)

16 a woman's sleeveless undergarment, worn under a dress

17 same as slipway

18 (cricket) a fielding position a little behind and to the offside of the wicketkeeper

19 give someone the slip to escape from someone ◇ SYNONYMS give someone the slip: escape from, get away from, evade, elude, lose (someone), flee, dodge

► See also slip up slip² n

1 a small piece of paper: the registration slip

2 a cutting taken from a plant

3 a young slim person: a slip of a girl

slip³ n clay mixed with water to a thin paste, used for decorating or patching a ceramic piece slipknot n a nooselike knot tied so that it will slip along the rope round which it is made slipped disc n (pathol) a painful condition in which one of the discs which connects the bones of the spine becomes displaced and presses on a nerve slipper n a light soft shoe for indoor wear > slipperd adj

slippery adj

1 liable or tending to cause objects to slip: the road was slippery

◇ SYNONYMS: smooth, icy, greasy, glassy, slippery (informal, dialect), unsafe

2 liable to slip from one's grasp: a bar of slippery soap

3 not to be trusted: slippery politicians

◇ SYNONYMS: untrustworthy, tricky, cunning, dishonest, devious, crafty, evasive, shifty (informal) > slipperiness n slippy adj -pier, -piest (informal, dialect) same as slippery > slippiness n

slip road n (Brit) a short road connecting a motorway to another road slipshod adj

1 (of an action) done in a careless way without attention to detail: a slipshod piece of research

2 (of a person's appearance) untidy and slovenly slipstream n the stream of air forced backwards by an aircraft or car slip up (informal) vb

1 to make a mistake

◇ SYNONYMS slip up: make a mistake, blunder, err, miscalculate

► n slip-up

2 a mistake

slipway n a large ramp that slopes down from the shore into the water, on which a ship is built or repaired and from which it is launched slit n

1 a long narrow cut or opening

◇ SYNONYMS: opening, split

► vb slitting, slit

2 to make a straight long cut in (something)

◇ SYNONYMS: cut (open), rip, slash, knife, pierce, lance, gash slither vb

1 to move or slide unsteadily, such as on a slippery surface

2 to move along the ground in a twisting way: a snake slithered towards the tree

► n

3 a slithering movement > slithery adj

sliver (sliv-ver) n

1 a small thin piece that is cut or broken off lengthwise

► vb

2 to cut into slivers slob n (informal) a lazy and untidy person > slobbish adj

slobber vb

1 to dribble (liquid or saliva) from the mouth

2 slobber over to behave in an excessively sentimental way towards (someone)

► n

3 liquid or saliva spilt from the mouth > slobbery adj

sloe n the small sour blue-black fruit of the blackthorn slog vb slogging, slogged

1 to work hard and steadily

2 to make one's way with difficulty: we slogged our way through the snow

3 to hit hard

► n

4 long exhausting work

5 a long and difficult walk: a slog through heather and bracken

6 a heavy blow

slogan n a catchword or phrase used in politics or advertising

◇ SYNONYMS: catch phrase, motto, tag-line, catchword, catchcry (Austral) sloop n a small sailing ship with a single mast slop vb slopping, slopped

1 (often foll. by about) to splash or spill (liquid)

2 slop over (informal, chiefly US & Canad) to be excessively sentimental

► n

3 a puddle of spilt liquid

4 slops liquid refuse and waste food used to feed animals, esp. pigs

5 (often pl, informal) liquid food slope n

1 a stretch of ground where one end is higher than the other

2 slopes hills or foothills

3 any slanting surface

4 the angle of such a slant

◇ SYNONYMS: inclination, rise, incline, tilt, slant, ramp, gradient, camber

► vb sloping, sloped

5 to slant or cause to slant

◇ SYNONYMS: slant, incline, drop away, fall, rise, lean, tilt

6 (esp. of natural features) to have one end or part higher than another: the bank sloped sharply down to the river

◇ SYNONYMS: slant, incline, drop away, fall, rise, lean, tilt

7 slope off or away (informal) to go quietly and quickly in order to avoid something or someone

◇ SYNONYMS slope off: slink away, slip away, creep away

8 slope arms (military) (formerly) to hold a rifle in a sloping position against the shoulder sloppy adj -pier, -piest

1 (informal) careless or untidy: sloppy workmanship

◇ SYNONYMS: careless, slovenly, slipshod, messy, untidy

2 (informal) excessively sentimental and romantic

◇ SYNONYMS: sentimental, soppy (Brit informal), slushy (informal), gushing, mawkish, icky (informal)

3 wet; slushy

> sloppily adv

> sloppiness n

slosh vb

1 (informal) to throw or pour (liquid) carelessly

2 (often foll. by about or around) (informal)

A to shake or stir (something) in a liquid

B (of a person) to splash (around) in water or mud

3 (usually foll. by about or around) (informal) to shake (a container of liquid) or (of liquid in a container) to be shaken

4 (Brit slang) to deal a heavy blow to

► n

5 the sound of splashing liquid

6 slush

7 (Brit slang) a heavy blow > sloshy adj

sloshed adj (slang, chiefly Brit & Austral) drunk slot n

1 a narrow opening or groove, such as one in a vending machine for inserting a coin

◇ SYNONYMS: opening, hole, groove, vent, slit, aperture

2 (informal) a place in a series or scheme: the late-night slot when people stop watching TV

◇ SYNONYMS: place, time, space, opening, position, vacancy

► vb slotting, slotted

3 to make a slot or slots in 4 (usually foll. by in or into) to fit or be fitted into a slot: I slotted my card into the machine

◇ SYNONYMS: fit, insert

sloth (rhymes with both) n

1 a slow-moving shaggy-coated animal of Central and South America, which hangs upside down in trees by its long arms and feeds on vegetation

2 (formal) laziness, esp. regarding work slothful adj lazy and unwilling to work slot machine n a machine, esp. for vending food and cigarettes or featuring an electronic game on which to gamble, worked by placing a coin in a slot slouch vb

1 to sit, stand, or move with a drooping posture

► n

2 a drooping posture

3 be no slouch (informal) be very good or talented: he was no slouch himself as a negotiator slough¹ (rhymes with now) n a swamp or marshy area slough² (sluff) vb slough off

1 to shed (an outer covering) or (of an outer covering) to be shed: the dead cells would slough off

2 to get rid of (something unwanted or unnecessary): she tried hard to slough off her old personality

sloven n a person who is always untidy or careless in appearance or behaviour

Slovene adj

1 Also: Slovenian of Slovenia

► n

2 a person from Slovenia

3 the language of Slovenia slovenly adj

1 always unclean or untidy

2 negligent and careless: to write in such a slovenly style

► adv

3 in a slovenly manner > slovenliness n

slow adj

1 taking a longer time than is usual or expected

◇ SYNONYMS: prolonged, protracted, long-drawn-out, lingering, gradual

2 lacking speed: slow movements

◇ SYNONYMS: unhurried, sluggish, leisurely, lazy, ponderous, dawdling, laggard, lackadaisical

3 adapted to or producing slow movement: the slow lane

4 (of a clock or watch) showing a time earlier than the correct time

5 not quick to understand: slow on the uptake

◇ SYNONYMS: stupid, dim (informal), dense, thick, dozy (Brit informal), obtuse, braindead (informal)

6 dull or uninteresting: the play was very slow

7 not easily aroused: he is slow to anger

8 (of business) not busy; slack

9 (of a fire or oven) giving off low heat

10 (of photographic film) requiring a relatively long exposure time: a slow film

► adv

11 in a slow manner

► vb

12 (often foll. by up or down) to decrease or cause to decrease in speed or activity

◇ SYNONYMS: decelerate, brake > slowly adv

> slowness n slowcoach n (informal) a person who moves or works slowly slowworm n a legless lizard with a brownish-grey snakelike body sludge n

1 soft mud or snow

2 any muddy or slushy sediment

3 sewage > sludgy adj

slug¹ n a mollusc like a snail but without a shell slug² n

1 a bullet

2 (informal) a mouthful of alcoholic drink, esp. spirits: he poured out a large slug of Scotch

slug³ vb slugging, slugged

1 to hit very hard

► n

2 a heavy blow

sluggard n (old-fashioned) a very lazy person sluggish adj

1 lacking energy

◇ SYNONYMS: inactive, slow, lethargic, heavy, dull, inert, indolent, torpid 2 moving or working at slower than the normal rate: the sluggish waters of the canal

sluice n

- 1 a channel that carries a rapid current of water, with a sluiceway to control the flow
- 2 the water controlled by a sluiceway
- 3 (mining) a sloping trough for washing ore
- vb sluicing, sluiced
- 4 to draw off or drain with a sluice
- 5 to wash with a stream of water
- 6 (often foll. by away or out) (of water) to run or flow from or as if from a sluice slum n

- 1 an overcrowded and badly maintained house
- ◇ SYNONYMS: hovel, ghetto, shanty
- 2 (often pl) a poor rundown overpopulated section of a city
- vb slumming, slummed
- 3 to visit slums, esp. for curiosity
- 4 slum it to temporarily and deliberately experience poorer places or conditions
- > slummy adj

slumber (literary) vb

- 1 to sleep
- n
- 2 sleep
- > slumbering adj

slump vb

- 1 (of commercial activity or prices) to decline suddenly
- ◇ SYNONYMS: fall, sink, plunge, crash, collapse, slip
- 2 to sink or fall heavily and suddenly: she slumped back with exhaustion

◇ SYNONYMS: sag, hunch, droop, slouch, loll

► n

3 a severe decline in commercial activity or prices; depression

◇ SYNONYMS: recession, depression, stagnation, inactivity, hard or bad times

4 a sudden or marked decline or failure: a slump in demand for oil

◇ SYNONYMS: fall, drop, decline, crash, collapse, reverse, downturn, trough slung vb the past of sling slunk vb the past of slink slur vb slurring, slurred

1 to pronounce or say (words) unclearly

2 to make insulting remarks about

3 (music) to sing or play (successive notes) smoothly by moving from one to the other without a break

4 (often foll. by over) to treat hastily or carelessly

► n

5 an insulting remark intended to damage someone's reputation

◇ SYNONYMS: insult, stain, smear, affront, innuendo, calumny, insinuation, aspersion

6 a slurring of words

7 (music)

A a slurring of successive notes

B the curved line ( or ) indicating this slurp (informal) vb

1 to eat or drink (something) noisily

► n

2 a slurping sound

slurry n, pl -ries a thin watery mixture of something such as cement or mud slush n

- 1 any watery muddy substance, esp. melting snow
- 2 (informal) sloppily sentimental language or writing
- > slushy adj

slush fund n a fund for financing political or commercial corruption slut n (derogatory) a woman who is considered promiscuous

- > sluttish adj

sly adj slyer, slyest or slier, sliest

- 1 (of a person's remarks or gestures) indicating that he or she knows something of which other people may be unaware: she had the feeling they were poking sly fun at her
- 2 secretive and skilled at deception: a sly trickster
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: cunning, scheming, devious, secret, clever, subtle, wily, crafty
- 3 roguish: sly comedy
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: roguish, knowing, arch, mischievous, impish
- n
- 4 on the sly secretively: they were smoking on the sly behind the shed
 - ◇ SYNONYMS on the sly: secretly, privately, covertly, surreptitiously, on the quiet
- > slyly adv

smack¹ vb

- 1 to slap sharply
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: slap, hit, strike, clap, cuff, swipe (informal), spank
- 2 to strike loudly or to be struck loudly
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: drive, hit, strike
- 3 to open and close (the lips) loudly to show pleasure or anticipation
- n
- 4 a sharp loud slap, or the sound of such a slap
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: slap, blow, cuff, swipe (informal), spank
- 5 a loud kiss
- 6 a sharp sound made by the lips in enjoyment

7 smack in the eye (informal) a snub or rejection

► adv (informal)

8 directly; squarely: smack in the middle

◇ SYNONYMS: directly, right, straight, squarely, precisely, exactly, slap (informal)

9 sharply and unexpectedly: he ran smack into one of the men

smack² n

1 a slight flavour or suggestion (of something): the smack of loss of self-control

► vb

2 smack of

A to have a slight smell or flavour of (something)

B to have a suggestion of (something): it smacks of discrimination smack³ n a slang word for heroin smacker n (slang)

1 a loud kiss

2 a pound note or dollar bill small adj

1 not large in size or amount

◇ SYNONYMS: little, minute, tiny, mini, miniature, minuscule, diminutive, petite

2 of little importance or on a minor scale: a small detail

◇ SYNONYMS: unimportant, minor, trivial, insignificant, little, petty, trifling, negligible

3 mean, ungenerous, or petty: a small mind

4 modest or humble: small beginnings

◇ SYNONYMS: modest, humble, unpretentious

5 feel small to be humiliated

6 (of a child or animal) young; not mature

◇ SYNONYMS: young, little, junior, wee, juvenile, youthful, immature

7 unimportant or trivial: a small matter

◇ SYNONYMS: unimportant, minor, trivial, insignificant, little, petty, trifling, negligible

8 (of a letter) written or printed in lower case rather than as a capital

► adv

9 into small pieces: cut it small

► n

10 the small narrow part of the back

11 smalls (informal, chiefly Brit) underwear > smallish adj

> smallness n

smallholding n a piece of agricultural land smaller than a farm > smallholder n

small hours pl n the early hours of the morning, after midnight and before dawn small-minded adj having narrow selfish attitudes; petty smallpox n a contagious disease causing fever, a rash, and blisters which usually leave permanent scars small talk n light conversation for social occasions small-time adj (informal) operating on a limited scale; minor: a small-time smuggler smarmy adj smarmier, smarmiest unpleasantly flattering or polite smart adj

1 clean and neatly dressed

◇ SYNONYMS: chic, trim, neat, stylish, elegant, spruce, snappy, natty (informal), schmick (Austral informal)

2 intelligent and shrewd

◇ SYNONYMS: clever, bright, intelligent, quick, sharp, keen, acute, shrewd

3 quick and witty in speech: a smart talker

4 (of places or events) fashionable; chic: smart restaurants

5 vigorous or brisk: a smart pace

◇ SYNONYMS: brisk, quick, lively, vigorous

6 causing a sharp stinging pain

7 (of a weapon) containing an electronic device which enables it to be guided to its target: a smart bomb

► vb

8 to feel or cause a sharp stinging physical or mental pain: I was still smarting from the insult

◇ SYNONYMS: sting, burn, hurt

► n

9 a stinging pain or feeling

► adv

10 in a smart manner > smartly adv

> smartness n

smarten vb (usually foll. by up) to make or become smart smartphone n a mobile phone that performs many of the functions of a computer, having internet access, a touchscreen interface, and the ability to run various apps smart speaker n a wireless electronic device that is able to give information, play music, and perform certain tasks in response to spoken commands smash vb

1 to break into pieces violently and noisily

◇ SYNONYMS: break, crush, shatter, crack, demolish, pulverize

2 (often foll. by against or through or into) to throw or crash (against) violently, causing shattering: his head smashed against a window

3 to hit or collide forcefully and suddenly

◇ SYNONYMS: collide, crash, meet head-on, clash, come into collision

4 (sport) to hit (the ball) fast and powerfully with an overhead stroke

5 to defeat or destroy: the police had smashed a major drug ring

◇ SYNONYMS: destroy, ruin, wreck, trash (slang), lay waste

► n

6 an act or sound of smashing

7 a violent collision of vehicles

◇ SYNONYMS: collision, crash, accident

8 (sport) a fast and powerful overhead stroke

9 (informal) a show, record or film which is very popular with the public

► adv

10 with a smash smasher n (informal, chiefly Brit) a person or thing that is very attractive or outstanding smashing adj (informal, chiefly Brit) excellent or first-rate

◇ SYNONYMS: excellent, mean (slang), great (informal), wonderful, brilliant (informal), cracking (Brit informal), superb (old-fashioned), fantastic (informal), booshit (Austral slang), exo (Austral slang), sik (Austral slang), rad (informal), phat (slang), schmick (Austral informal) smattering n a slight or superficial knowledge: I knew a smattering of Russian smear vb

1 to spread with a greasy or sticky substance

◇ SYNONYMS: spread over, daub, rub on, cover, coat, bedaub

2 to apply (a greasy or sticky substance) thickly

◇ SYNONYMS: spread over, daub, rub on, cover, coat, bedaub

3 to rub so as to produce a smudge

◇ SYNONYMS: smudge, soil, dirty, stain, sully

4 to spread false and damaging rumours (about)

◇ SYNONYMS: slander, malign, blacken, besmirch

► n

5 a dirty mark or smudge

◇ SYNONYMS: smudge, daub, streak, blot, blotch, splotch

6 a false but damaging rumour spread by a rival or enemy

◇ SYNONYMS: slander, libel, defamation, calumny

7 (med) a small amount of a substance smeared onto a glass slide for examination under a microscope > smeary adj

smell vb smelling, smelt or smelled

1 to perceive the scent of (a substance) with the nose

◇ SYNONYMS: sniff, scent

2 to have a specified kind of smell: it smells fruity; your supper smells good

3 (often foll. by of) to emit an odour (of): the place smells of milk and babies

4 to give off an unpleasant odour

◇ SYNONYMS: stink, reek, pong (Brit informal)

5 (often foll. by out) to detect through instinct: I smell trouble

6 to use the sense of smell; sniff

7 smell of to indicate or suggest: anything that smells of devaluation

► n

8 the sense by which scents or odours are perceived. RELATED ADJECTIVE: olfactory

9 an odour or scent

◇ SYNONYMS: odour, scent, fragrance, perfume, bouquet, aroma

10 the act of smelling smelling salts pl n a preparation containing crystals of ammonium carbonate, used to revive a person feeling faint smelly adj smellier, smelliest having a nasty smell > smelliness n

smelt¹ vb to extract (a metal) from (an ore) by heating smelt² n, pl smelt or smelts a small silvery food fish smelt³ vb a past tense and past participle of smell smelter n an industrial plant in which smelting is carried out smile n

1 a facial expression in which the corners of the mouth are turned up, showing amusement or friendliness

◇ SYNONYMS: grin, beam, smirk

► vb smiling, smiled

2 to give a smile

◇ SYNONYMS: grin, beam, smirk, twinkle, grin from ear to ear

3 smile at

A to look at with a kindly expression

B to look with amusement at 4 smile on or upon to regard favourably: fortune smiled on us today

5 to express by a smile: he smiled a comrade's greeting

smiley adj

1 cheerful

2 depicting a smile

smirch vb

1 to disgrace

2 to dirty or soil

► n

3 a disgrace

4 a smear or stain smirk n

1 a smug smile

► vb

2 to give such a smile smite vb smiting, smote, smitten or smit (archaic)

1 to strike with a heavy blow

2 to affect severely: hunger smites him again

3 to burden with an affliction in order to punish: God smote the enemies of the righteous

4 smite on to strike abruptly and with force: the sun smote down on him

smith n

1 a person who works in metal: goldsmith

2 See blacksmith smithereens pl n shattered fragments smithy n, pl smithies the workshop of a blacksmith; forge smitten vb

1 a past participle of smite

► adj

2 deeply affected by love (for) smock n

1 a loose overall worn to protect the clothes

2 a loose blouselike garment

3 a loose protective overgarment decorated with smocking, worn formerly by farm workers

► vb

4 to gather (material) by sewing in a honeycomb pattern smocking n ornamental needlework used to gather material smog n a mixture of smoke and fog that occurs in some industrial areas > smoggy adj

smoke n

1 the cloudy mass that rises from something burning

2 the act of smoking tobacco

3 (informal) a cigarette or cigar

4 go up in smoke

A to come to nothing

B to burn up vigorously

► vb smoking, smoked

5 to give off smoke: a smoking fireplace

◇ SYNONYMS: smoulder, fume

6

A to draw the smoke of (burning tobacco) into the mouth and exhale it again

◇ SYNONYMS: puff on, draw on, inhale, vape

B to do this habitually 7 to cure (meat, cheese, or fish) by treating with smoke smokeless adj having or producing little or no smoke: smokeless fuel smoker n

1 a person who habitually smokes tobacco

2 a train compartment where smoking is permitted smoke screen n

1 something said or done to hide the truth

2 (military) a cloud of smoke used to provide cover for manoeuvres smoky adj smokier, smokiest

1 filled with or giving off smoke, sometimes excessively: smoky coal or wood fires

2 having the colour of smoke

3 having the taste or smell of smoke

4 made dirty or hazy by smoke > smokiness n

smooch (slang) vb

1 (of two people) to kiss and cuddle

2 (Brit) to dance very slowly with one's arms around another person or (of two people) to dance together in such a way

► n

3 the act of smooching smooth adj

1 having an even surface with no roughness, bumps, or holes

◇ SYNONYMS: even, level, flat, plane, flush, horizontal

2 without obstructions or difficulties: smooth progress towards an agreement

◇ SYNONYMS: easy, effortless, well-ordered

3 without lumps: a smooth paste

4 free from jolts and bumps: a smooth landing

◇ SYNONYMS: flowing, steady, regular, uniform, rhythmic

5 not harsh in taste; mellow: an excellent smooth wine

◇ SYNONYMS: mellow, pleasant, mild, agreeable

6 charming or persuasive but possibly insincere

◇ SYNONYMS: suave, slick, persuasive, urbane, glib, facile, unctuous, smarmy (Brit informal)

► adv

7 in a smooth manner

► vb

8 (often foll. by down) to make or become even or without roughness

◇ SYNONYMS: flatten, level, press, plane, iron

9 (often foll. by out or away) to remove in order to make smooth: smoothing out the creases

◇ SYNONYMS: flatten, level, press, plane, iron

10 to make calm; soothe

11 to make easier: Moscow smoothed the path to democracy

◇ SYNONYMS: ease, facilitate

► n

12 the smooth part of something

13 the act of smoothing > smoothly adv

smoothie n

- 1 a smooth thick drink made from fresh fruit and yoghurt, ice cream, or milk
- 2 (slang) a man who is so confident, well-dressed, and charming that one is suspicious of his motives and doubts his honesty

smorgasbord n a variety of savoury dishes served as hors d'oeuvres or as a buffet meal smote vb the past tense of smite smother vb

- 1 to extinguish (a fire) by covering so as to cut it off from the air ◇ SYNONYMS: extinguish, put out, stifle, snuff
- 2 to suffocate
◇ SYNONYMS: suffocate, choke, strangle, stifle
- 3 to surround or overwhelm (with): she smothered him with her idea of affection
- 4 to suppress or stifle: he smothered an ironic chuckle ◇ SYNONYMS: suppress, stifle, repress, hide, conceal, muffle
- 5 to cover over thickly: ice cream smothered with sauce

smoulder or (US) smolder vb

- 1 to burn slowly without flames, usually giving off smoke
- 2 (of emotions) to exist in a suppressed state without being released

SMS short message system: used for sending data to mobile phones smudge vb smudging, smudged

- 1 to make or become smeared or soiled
- n

2 a smear or dirty mark

3 a blurred form or area: the dull smudge of a ship

> smudgy adj

smug adj smugger, smuggest very pleased with oneself; self-satisfied

◇ SYNONYMS: self-satisfied, superior, complacent, conceited > smugly adv

> smugness n

smuggle vb -gling, -gled

1 to import or export (goods that are prohibited or subject to taxation) secretly

2 (often foll. by into or out of) to bring or take secretly: he was smuggled out of the country unnoticed > smuggler n > smuggling n

smut n

1 stories, pictures, or jokes relating to sex or nudity

2 a speck of soot or a dark mark left by soot

3 a disease of cereals, in which black sooty masses cover the affected parts > smutty adj

snack n

1 a light quick meal eaten between or in place of main meals

◇ SYNONYMS: light meal, bite, refreshment(s)

► vb

2 to eat a snack snack bar n a place where light meals or snacks are sold snaffle n

1 a mouthpiece for controlling a horse

► vb -fling, -fled

2 (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) to steal or take

3 to fit or control (a horse) with a snaffle snag n

1 a small problem or difficulty: one possible snag in his plans

◇ SYNONYMS: difficulty, hitch, problem, obstacle, catch (informal), disadvantage, complication, drawback

2 a sharp projecting point that may catch on things

3 a small hole in a fabric caused by a sharp object

4 a tree stump in a river bed that is a danger to navigation

5 (Austral slang) a sausage

► vb snagging, snagged

6 to tear or catch on a snag

◇ SYNONYMS: catch, tear, rip snail n a slow-moving mollusc with a spiral shell snail mail (informal) n

1 conventional post, as opposed to email or text messages

2 the conventional postal system

► vb snail-mail

3 to send by the conventional postal system, rather than by email or text message snail's pace n a very slow speed snake n

1 a long scaly limbless reptile

◇ SYNONYMS: serpent

2 Also: snake in the grass a person, esp. a colleague or friend, who secretly acts against one

► vb snaking, snaked

3 to glide or move in a winding course, like a snake snaky adj snakier, snakiest

1 twisting or winding

2 treacherous snap vb snapping, snapped

1 to break suddenly, esp. with a sharp sound

◇ SYNONYMS: break, crack, separate

2 to make or cause to make a sudden sharp cracking sound: he snapped his fingers

◇ SYNONYMS: pop, click, crackle

3 to move or close with a sudden sharp sound: I snapped the lid shut

◇ SYNONYMS: pop, click, crackle

4 to move in a sudden or abrupt way

5 to give way or collapse suddenly under strain: one day someone's temper will snap

6 to panic when a situation becomes too difficult to cope with: he could snap at any moment

7 (often foll. by at or up) to seize suddenly or quickly

8 (often foll. by at) (of animals) to bite at suddenly

◇ SYNONYMS: bite at, bite, nip

9 to speak (words) sharply and angrily

◇ SYNONYMS: speak sharply, bark, lash out at, jump down (someone's) throat

(informal)

10 to take a photograph of 11 snap one's fingers at (informal) to defy or dismiss contemptuously

12 snap out of it (informal) to recover quickly, esp. from depression or anger

► n

13 the act of breaking suddenly or the sound of a sudden breakage

14 a sudden sharp sound

15 a clasp or fastener that closes with a snapping sound 16 a sudden grab or bite

17 a thin crisp biscuit: brandy snaps

18 (informal) an informal photograph taken with a simple camera

19 (Brit & NZ) a card game in which the word snap is called when two similar cards are turned up

► adj

20 done on the spur of the moment: snap judgments

◇ SYNONYMS: instant, immediate, sudden, spur-of-the-moment

► adv

21 with a snap

► interj

22

A (cards) the word called while playing snap

B a cry used to draw attention to the similarity of two things

► See also snap up snapdragon n a plant with spikes of colourful flowers that can open and shut like a mouth; antirrhinum snapper n a food fish of Australia and New Zealand with a pinkish body covered with blue spots snappy adj -pier, -piest

1 smart and fashionable: snappy designs

2 Also: snappish (of someone's behaviour) irritable, unfriendly, and cross

3 brisk or lively: short snappy movements

4 make it snappy (slang) hurry up!

> snappiness n

snapshot n same as snap snap up vb to take advantage of eagerly and quickly: the tickets have been snapped up

◇ SYNONYMS snap something up: grab, seize, take advantage of, pounce upon snare n

1 a trap for birds or small animals, usually a flexible loop that is drawn tight around the prey

◇ SYNONYMS: trap, net, wire, gin, noose

2 anything that traps someone or something unawares

► vb snaring, snared

3 to catch in or as if in a snare

◇ SYNONYMS: trap, catch, net, wire, seize, entrap snarl¹ vb

1 (of an animal) to growl fiercely with bared teeth

2 to speak or say (something) fiercely: he snarled out a command to a subordinate

► n

3 a fierce growl or facial expression

4 the act of snarling snarl² n

1 a complicated or confused state

2 a tangled mass

► vb

3 snarl up to become, be, or make tangled, confused, or complicated: the line became snarled up on the propeller; the postal service was snarled up at Christmas snarl-up n (informal) a confused, disorganized situation such as a traffic jam snatch vb

1 to seize or grasp (something) suddenly: she snatched the paper

◇ SYNONYMS: grab, grip, grasp, clutch

2 (usually foll. by at) to attempt to seize suddenly

3 to take hurriedly: these players had snatched a few hours sleep

4 to remove suddenly: she snatched her hand away

► n

5 an act of snatching

6 a small piece or incomplete part: snatches of song

◇ SYNONYMS: bit, part, fragment, piece, snippet

7 a brief spell: snatches of sleep

8 (slang, chiefly US) an act of kidnapping

9 (Brit slang) a robbery: a wages snatch snazzy adj -zier, -ziest (informal) (esp. of clothes) stylish and flashy sneak vb

1 to move quietly, trying not be noticed

◇ SYNONYMS: slink, slip, steal, pad, skulk

2 to behave in a cowardly or underhand manner

3 to bring, take, or put secretly: we sneaked him over the border

◇ SYNONYMS: slip, smuggle, spirit

4 (informal, chiefly Brit & NZ) (esp. in schools) to tell tales

► n

5 a person who acts in an underhand or cowardly manner

◇ SYNONYMS: informer, betrayer, telltale, Judas, accuser, stool pigeon, nark (Brit & Austral & NZ slang), fizgig (Austral slang)

► adj

6 without warning: a sneak attack > sneaky adj sneakers pl n (US & Canad & Austral & NZ) canvas shoes with rubber soles sneaking adj

1 slight but nagging: a sneaking suspicion

◇ SYNONYMS: nagging, worrying, persistent, uncomfortable

2 secret: a sneaking admiration

◇ SYNONYMS: secret, private, hidden, unexpressed, unvoiced, undivulged

3 acting in a cowardly and furtive way sneer n

1 a facial expression showing distaste or contempt, typically with a curled upper lip

2 a remark showing distaste or contempt

► vb

3 to make a facial expression of scorn or contempt

4 to say (something) in a scornful manner

◇ SYNONYMS: say contemptuously, snigger > sneering adj, n

sneeze vb sneezing, sneezed

1 to expel air from the nose suddenly and without control, esp. as the result of irritation in the nostrils

► n

2 the act or sound of sneezing snib n (Scot & NZ) the catch of a door or window snicker n, vb (chiefly US & Canad) same as snigger snide or snidey adj (of comments) critical in an unfair and nasty way sniff vb

1 to inhale through the nose in short audible breaths

◇ SYNONYMS: breathe in, inhale

2 (often foll. by at) to smell by sniffing

◇ SYNONYMS: smell, scent

► n

3 the act or sound of sniffing > sniffer n

sniff at vb to express contempt or dislike for sniffer dog n a police dog trained to locate drugs or explosives by smell sniffle vb -fling, -fled

1 to sniff repeatedly when the nasal passages are blocked up

► n

2 the act or sound of sniffing

snifter n

1 (informal) a small quantity of alcoholic drink

2 a pear-shaped brandy glass snigger n

1 a quiet and disrespectful laugh kept to oneself

► vb

2 to utter such a laugh snip vb snipping, snipped

1 to cut with small quick strokes with scissors or shears

► n

2 (informal, chiefly Brit) a bargain

3 the act or sound of snipping

4 a small piece snipped off

5 a small cut made by snipping snipe n, pl snipe or snipes

1 a wading bird with a long straight bill

► vb sniping, sniped (often foll. by at)

- 2 to shoot (someone) from a place of hiding
- 3 (often foll. by at) to make critical remarks about
- > sniper n

snippet n a small scrap or fragment: the odd snippet of knowledge snitch (slang) vb

- 1 to act as an informer
- 2 to steal small amounts
- ▶ n
- 3 an informer

snivel vb -velling, -velled (US) -veling, -veled

- 1 to cry and sniff in a self-pitying way
- 2 to say (something) tearfully; whine
- 3 to have a runny nose
- ▶ n
- 4 the act of snivelling

snob n

- 1 a person who tries to associate with those of higher social status and who hates those of a lower social status
- 2 a person who feels smugly superior with regard to his or her tastes or interests: a cultural snob
- > snobbery n
- > snobbish adj

snoek (snook) n a South African edible marine fish snog (Brit & NZ & S African slang) vb snogging, snogged

- 1 to kiss and cuddle
- ▶ n
- 2 the act of kissing and cuddling snood n a pouchlike hat loosely holding the hair at the back snook n cock a snook at (Brit)

A to make a rude gesture at (someone) by putting one thumb to the nose with the fingers of the hand outstretched

B to show contempt for (someone in authority) without fear of punishment snooker n

1 a game played on a billiard table with 15 red balls, six balls of other colours, and a white cue ball

2 a shot in which the cue ball is left in a position such that another ball blocks the target ball

► vb

3 to leave (an opponent) in an unfavourable position by playing a snooker

4 to put someone in a position where he or she can do nothing snoop (informal) vb

1 (often foll. by about or around) to pry into the private business of others

► n

2 the act of snooping

3 a person who snoops > snooper n

> snoopy adj

snooty adj snootier, snootiest (informal) behaving as if superior to other people; snobbish snooze (informal) vb snoozing, snoozed

1 to take a brief light sleep

► n

2 a nap

snore vb snoring, snored

1 to breathe with snorting sounds while asleep

► n

2 the act or sound of snoring snorkel n

1 a tube allowing a swimmer to breathe while face down on the surface of the water

2 a device supplying air to a submarine when under water

► vb -kelling, -kelled (US) -keling, -keled

3 to swim with a snorkel snort vb

1 to exhale air noisily through the nostrils

2 to express contempt or annoyance by snorting

3 to say with a snort

4 (slang) to inhale (a powdered drug) through the nostrils

► n

5 a loud exhalation of air through the nostrils to express contempt or annoyance: Clare gave a snort of disgust

snot n

1 (informal) mucus from the nose

2 (slang) an annoying or disgusting person snout n

1 the projecting nose and jaws of an animal

2 anything projecting like a snout: the snout of a gun

3 (slang) a person's nose snow n

1 frozen vapour falling from the sky in flakes

2 a layer of snow on the ground

3 a falling of snow

4 (slang) cocaine

► vb

5 (with 'it' as subject) to be the case that snow is falling: it's snowing today

6 to fall as or like snow

7 be snowed in or up or over to be covered by or confined with a heavy fall of snow

8 be snowed under to be overwhelmed, esp. with paperwork > snowy adj

snowball n

1 snow pressed into a ball for throwing

► vb

2 to increase rapidly in size or importance: production snowballed between 1950 and 1970

3 to throw snowballs at snowboard n a shaped board, like a skateboard without wheels, on which a person stands to slide across the snow > snowboarding n

snowdrift n a bank of deep snow driven together by the wind snowdrop n a plant with small drooping white bell-shaped flowers snowflake n a single crystal of snow snow line n (on a mountain) the altitude above which there is permanent snow snowman n, pl -men a figure like a person, made of packed snow snowplough or (esp US) snowplow n a vehicle for clearing away snow snub vb snubbing, snubbed

1 to insult (someone) deliberately

◇ SYNONYMS: insult, slight, put down, humiliate, cut (informal), rebuff, cold-shoulder

► n

2 a deliberately insulting act or remark

◇ SYNONYMS: insult, put-down, affront, slap in the face (informal)

► adj

3 (of a nose) short and turned up snub-nosed adj having a short turned-up nose snuff² n finely powdered tobacco for sniffing up the nostrils snuff³ vb

1 (often foll. by out) to put out (a candle)

2 snuff it (Brit & Austral informal) to die snuffle vb -fling, -fled

1 to breathe noisily or with difficulty

2 to say or speak through the nose

3 to cry and sniff in a self-pitying way

► n

4 an act or the sound of snuffling > snuffly adj

snug adj snugger, snuggest

1 comfortably warm and well protected; cosy: safe and snug in their homes

2 small but comfortable: a snug office

3 fitting closely and comfortably

► n

4 (in Britain and Ireland) a small room in a pub > snugly adv

snuggle vb -gling, -gled to nestle into (a person or thing) for warmth or from affection

so adv

1 to such an extent: the river is so dirty that it smells

2 to the same extent as: she is not so old as you

3 extremely: it's so lovely

4 also: I can speak Spanish and so can you

5 thereupon: and so we ended up in France

6 in the state or manner expressed or implied: they're happy and will remain so

7 and so on or forth and continuing similarly

8 or so approximately: fifty or so people came to see me

9 so be it an expression of agreement or resignation

10 so much

A a certain degree or amount (of)

B a lot (of): it's just so much nonsense

11 so much for

A no more need be said about

B used to express contempt for something that has failed: so much for all our plans ► conj (often foll. by that)

12 in order (that): to die so that you might live

13 with the consequence (that): he was late home, so that there was trouble

14 so as in order (to): to diet so as to lose weight

15 (not standard) in consequence: she wasn't needed, so she left

◇ SYNONYMS: therefore, thus, hence, consequently, then, as a result, accordingly, thence 16 so what! (informal) that is unimportant

► pron

17 used to substitute for a clause or sentence, which may be understood: you'll stop because I said so

► adj

18 true: it can't be so

► interj

19 an exclamation of surprise or triumph soak vb

1 to put or lie in a liquid so as to become thoroughly wet

◇ SYNONYMS: steep

2 (usually foll. by in or into) (of a liquid) to penetrate or permeate

◇ SYNONYMS: penetrate, permeate, seep

3 (usually foll. by in or up) to take in; absorb: white clay soaks up excess oil

◇ SYNONYMS soak something up: absorb, suck up, assimilate

► n

4 a soaking or being soaked

5 (slang) a person who drinks very heavily > soaking n, adj

so-and-so n, pl so-and-sos (informal)

1 a person whose name is not specified

2 (euphemistic) a person regarded as unpleasant; a name used in place of a swear word: you're a dirty so-and-so

soap n

1 a compound of alkali and fat, used with water as a cleaning agent

2 (informal) short for soap opera

► vb

3 to apply soap to soap opera n an on-going television or radio serial about the daily lives of a group of people soapy adj soapier, soapiest

1 containing or covered with soap: a soapy liquid

2 like soap in texture, smell, or taste: the cheese had a soapy taste

3 (slang) flattering or persuasive > soapiness n

soar vb

1 to rise or fly upwards into the air

◇ SYNONYMS: fly, wing, climb, ascend

2 (of a bird or aircraft) to glide while maintaining altitude

3 to rise or increase suddenly above the usual level: television ratings soared

◇ SYNONYMS: rise, increase, grow, mount, climb, go up, rocket, escalate sob vb sobbing, sobbed

1 to cry noisily, breathing in short gasps

◇ SYNONYMS: cry, weep, howl, shed tears

2 to speak with sobs

◇ SYNONYMS: cry, weep, howl, shed tears

► n

3 the act or sound of sobbing

◇ SYNONYMS: cry, whimper, howl sober adj

1 not drunk

2 tending to drink only moderate quantities of alcohol

◇ SYNONYMS: abstinent, temperate, abstemious, moderate

3 serious and thoughtful: a sober and serious fellow

◇ SYNONYMS: serious, cool, grave, reasonable, steady, composed, rational, solemn, grounded

4 (of colours) plain and dull

◇ SYNONYMS: plain, dark, sombre, quiet, subdued, drab

5 free from exaggeration: a fairly sober version of what happened

► vb

6 (usually foll. by up) to make or become less drunk > sobering adj

sobriety n the state of being sober sobriquet or soubriquet (so-brik-ay) n a nickname sob story n a tale of personal misfortune or bad luck intended to arouse sympathy so-called adj called (in the speaker's opinion, wrongly) by that name: so-called military experts

◇ SYNONYMS: alleged, supposed, professed, pretended, self-styled soccer n a game in which two teams of eleven players try to kick or head a ball into their opponents' goal, only the goalkeeper on either side being allowed to touch the ball with his hands sociable adj

1 friendly and enjoying other people's company

2 (of an occasion) providing the opportunity for relaxed and friendly companionship > sociability n

> sociably adv

social adj

1 living or preferring to live in a community rather than alone

◇ SYNONYMS: communal, community, collective, group, public, general, common

2 of or relating to human society or organization

3 of the way people live and work together in groups: social organization

◇ SYNONYMS: organized, gregarious

4 of or for companionship or communal activities: social clubs

5 of or engaged in social services: a social worker

6 relating to a certain class of society: social misfits

7 (of certain species of insects) living together in organized colonies: social bees

► n

8 an informal gathering

◇ SYNONYMS: get-together (informal), party, gathering, function, reception, social gathering > socially adv

socialism n a political and economic theory or system in which the means of production, distribution, and exchange are owned by the community

collectively, usually through the state > socialist n, adj

socialite n a person who goes to many events attended by the rich, famous, and fashionable socialize or -lize vb -lizing, -lized or -lising, -lised

1 to meet others socially

2 to prepare for life in society

3 (chiefly US) to organize along socialist principles > socialization or -lisation n

social media n websites and applications that allow users to interact with each other social security n state provision for the welfare of elderly, unemployed, or sick people, through pensions and other financial aid social services pl n welfare services provided by local authorities or a state agency for people with particular social needs social work n social services that give help and advice to elderly people, people with disabilities, and families with problems > social worker n

society n, pl -ties

1 human beings considered as a group

◇ SYNONYMS: the community, people, the public, humanity, civilization, humankind, mankind

2 a group of people forming a single community with its own distinctive culture and institutions

◇ SYNONYMS: culture, community, population

3 the structure, culture, and institutions of such a group

4 an organized group of people sharing a common aim or interest: a dramatic society

◇ SYNONYMS: organization, group, club, union, league, association, institute, circle

5 the rich and fashionable class of society collectively

◇ SYNONYMS: upper classes, gentry, elite, high society, beau monde

6 (old-fashioned) companionship: I enjoy her society

◇ SYNONYMS: companionship, company, fellowship, friendship sociology n the study of the development, organization, functioning, and classification of human societies > sociological adj > sociologist n sociopath n another name for psychopath sock¹ n

1 a cloth covering for the foot, reaching to between the ankle and knee and worn inside a shoe

2 pull one's socks up (informal) to make a determined effort to improve

3 put a sock in it (slang) be quiet!

sock² (slang) vb

1 to hit hard

► n

2 a hard blow

socket n

1 a device into which an electric plug can be inserted in order to make a connection in a circuit

2 (anatomy) a bony hollow into which a part or structure fits: the hip socket

sod¹ n

1 a piece of grass-covered surface soil; turf

2 (poetic) the ground sod² (slang, chiefly Brit) n

1 an unpleasant person

2 (humorous) a person, esp. an unlucky one: the poor sod hasn't been out for weeks

3 sod all (slang) nothing

► interj

4 sod it an exclamation of annoyance > sodding adj

soda n

1 a simple compound of sodium, such as sodium carbonate or sodium bicarbonate

2 same as soda water

3 (US & Canad) a sweet fizzy drink soda water n a fizzy drink made by charging water with carbon dioxide under pressure sodden adj

1 soaking wet

2 (of someone's senses) dulled, esp. by excessive drinking sodium n (chem) a very reactive soft silvery-white metallic element. SYMBOL: Na

sodium bicarbonate n a white soluble crystalline compound used in fizzy drinks, baking powder, and in medicine as an antacid sodium chloride n common table salt; a soluble colourless crystalline compound widely used as a seasoning and preservative for food and in the manufacture of chemicals, glass, and soap sodium hydroxide n a white strongly alkaline solid used in the manufacture of rayon, paper, aluminium, and soap sodomite n (old-fashioned) a person who practises sodomy sodomy n anal intercourse sofa n a long comfortable seat with back and arms for two or more people ◇ SYNONYMS: couch, settee, divan, chaise longue soft adj

1 easy to dent, shape, or cut: soft material

◇ SYNONYMS: pliable, flexible, supple, malleable, plastic, elastic, bendable, mouldable

2 not hard; giving way easily under pressure: a soft bed

◇ SYNONYMS: yielding, elastic

3 fine, smooth, or fluffy to the touch: soft fur

◇ SYNONYMS: velvety, smooth, silky, feathery, downy, fleecy

4 (of music or sounds) quiet and pleasing

◇ SYNONYMS: quiet, gentle, murmured, muted, dulcet, soft-toned

5 (of light or colour) not excessively bright or harsh

◇ SYNONYMS: pale, light, subdued, pastel, bland, mellow

6 (of a breeze or climate) temperate, mild, or pleasant

◇ SYNONYMS: mild, temperate, balmy

7 with smooth curves rather than sharp edges: soft focus

8 kind or lenient, often to excess

◇ SYNONYMS: lenient, easy-going, lax, indulgent, permissive, spineless, overindulgent

9 easy to influence or make demands on 10 (informal) feeble or silly; simple: soft in the head

11 not strong or able to endure hardship

12 (of a drug) nonaddictive

13 (informal) requiring little effort; easy: a soft job

◇ SYNONYMS: easy, comfortable, undemanding, cushy (informal)

14 (chem) (of water) relatively free of mineral salts and therefore easily able to make soap lather

15 loving and tender: soft words

◇ SYNONYMS: kind, tender, sentimental, compassionate, sensitive, gentle, tenderhearted, touchy-feely (informal)

16 (phonetics) denoting the consonants c and g when they are pronounced sibilantly, as in cent and germ

17 soft on

A lenient towards: he was accused of being soft on criminals

B experiencing romantic love for

► adv

18 in a soft manner: to speak soft

► interj

19 (archaic) quiet!

> softly adv

soft drink n a nonalcoholic drink soften vb

1 to make or become soft or softer

◇ SYNONYMS: melt, tenderize

2 to make or become more sympathetic and less critical: the farmers softened their opposition to the legislation

◇ SYNONYMS: lessen, moderate, temper, ease, cushion, subdue, allay, mitigate

3 to lessen the severity or difficulty of: foreign relief softened the hardship of a terrible winter > softener n

soft furnishings pl n curtains, hangings, rugs, and covers soft option n the easiest of a number of choices soft-pedal vb -dalling, -dalled (US) -daling, -daled

1 to deliberately avoid emphasizing (something): he was soft-peddling the question of tax increases

► n soft pedal

2 a pedal on a piano that softens the tone soft-soap vb (informal) to flatter (a person) software n the programs used by a computer softwood n the wood of coniferous trees soggy adj -gier, -giest

1 soaked with liquid: a soggy running track

2 moist and heavy: a soggy sandwich > sogginess n

soigné or (fem) soignée (swah-nyay) adj neat, elegant, and well-dressed: the soignée deputy editor of Vogue

soil¹ n

1 the top layer of the land surface of the earth

◇ SYNONYMS: earth, ground, clay, dust, dirt

2 a specific type of this material: sandy soil

3 land, country, or region: the first US side to lose on home soil

◇ SYNONYMS: territory, country, land soil² vb

1 to make or become dirty or stained

◇ SYNONYMS: dirty, foul, stain, pollute, tarnish, sully, defile, besmirch

2 to bring disgrace upon: he's soiled our reputation

► n

3 a soiled spot

4 refuse, manure, or excrement soiree (swah-ray) n an evening social gathering sojourn (soj-urn) (literary) n

1 a short stay in a place

► vb

2 to stay temporarily: he sojourned in Basle during a short illness solace (sol-iss) n

1 comfort in misery or disappointment: it drove him to seek increasing solace in alcohol

2 something that gives comfort or consolation: his music was a solace to me during my illness

► vb -lacing, -laced

3 to give comfort or cheer to (a person) in time of sorrow or distress solar adj

1 of the sun: a solar eclipse

2 operating by or using the energy of the sun: solar cell solarium (sol-air-ee-um) n, pl -lariums or -laria a place with beds equipped with ultraviolet lights used for giving people an artificial suntan

solar plexus n

1 (anatomy) a network of nerves behind the stomach

2 (not in technical use) the vulnerable part of the stomach beneath the diaphragm solar system n the system containing the sun and the planets, comets, and asteroids that go round it sold vb

1 the past of sell

► adj

2 sold on (slang) enthusiastic and uncritical about solder n

1 an alloy used for joining two metal surfaces by melting the alloy so that it forms a thin layer between the surfaces

► vb

2 to join or mend or be joined or mended with solder soldering iron n a hand tool with a copper tip that is heated and used to melt and apply solder soldier n

1

A a person who serves or has served in an army

◇ SYNONYMS: fighter, serviceman or servicewoman, trooper, warrior, man-at-arms, squaddie or squaddy (Brit slang)

B a person who is not an officer in an army

► vb

2 to serve as a soldier > soldierly adj

soldier on vb to continue one's efforts despite difficulties or pressure sole¹ adj

1 being the only one; only

◇ SYNONYMS: only, one, single, individual, alone, exclusive, solitary

2 not shared; exclusive: sole ownership

◇ SYNONYMS: only, one, single, individual, alone, exclusive, solitary

sole² n

- 1 the underside of the foot
- 2 the underside of a shoe
- 3 the lower surface of an object
- vb soling, soled
- 4 to provide (a shoe) with a sole sole³ n, pl sole or soles an edible marine flatfish sole charge school n (NZ) a country school with only one teacher solecism (sol-iss-iz-zum) n (formal)

- 1 a minor grammatical mistake in speech or writing
- 2 an action considered not to be good manners
- > solecistic adj

solely adv

- 1 only; completely: an action intended solely to line his own pockets
- ◇ SYNONYMS: only, completely, entirely, exclusively, alone, merely
- 2 without others
- ◇ SYNONYMS: only, completely, entirely, exclusively, alone, merely solemn adj

- 1 very serious; deeply sincere: my solemn promise
- ◇ SYNONYMS: serious, earnest, grave, sober, sedate, staid
- 2 marked by ceremony or formality: a solemn ritual
- ◇ SYNONYMS: formal, grand, grave, dignified, ceremonial, stately, momentous
- 3 serious or glum: a solemn look on her face
- ◇ SYNONYMS: serious, earnest, grave, sober, sedate, staid
- > solemnly adv

solemnity n, pl -ties

- 1 the state or quality of being solemn
- 2 a solemn ceremony or ritual solenoid (sole-in-oid) n a coil of wire, usually cylindrical, in which a magnetic field is set up by passing a current through it > solenoidal adj

sol-fa solicit vb

- 1 (formal) to seek or request, esp. formally: she was brushed aside when soliciting his support for the vote
 - 2 to approach a person with an offer of sex in return for money
- > solicitation n

solicitor n (Brit & Austral & NZ) a lawyer who advises clients on matters of law, draws up legal documents, and prepares cases for barristers solicitous adj (formal)

- 1 anxious about someone's welfare
 - 2 eager
- > solicitousness n

solicitude n (formal) anxiety or concern for someone's welfare solid adj

- 1 (of a substance) in a physical state in which it resists changes in size and shape; not liquid or gaseous
 - 2 consisting of matter all through; not hollow
- ◇ SYNONYMS: firm, hard, compact, dense, concrete
- 3 of the same substance all through: solid gold
 - 4 firm, strong, or substantial: the solid door of a farmhouse
- ◇ SYNONYMS: strong, stable, sturdy, substantial, unshakable
- 5 proved or provable: solid evidence
- ◇ SYNONYMS: sound, real, reliable, good, genuine, dinkum (Austral & NZ informal)

6 law-abiding and respectable: solid family men

◇ SYNONYMS: reliable, dependable, upstanding, worthy, upright, trusty

7 (of a meal or food) substantial

8 without interruption; continuous or unbroken: solid bombardment

9 financially sound: a solid institution

10 strongly united or established: a solid marriage

11 (geom) having or relating to three dimensions

12 adequate; sound, but not brilliant: a solid career

13 of a single uniform colour or tone

► n

14 (geom) a three-dimensional shape

15 a solid substance > solidity n

> solidly adv

solidarity n, pl -ties agreement in interests or aims among members of a group; total unity

◇ SYNONYMS: unity, unification, accord, cohesion, team spirit, unanimity, concordance, like-mindedness, kotahitanga (NZ) solidify vb -fies, -fying, -fied

1 to make or become solid or hard

2 to make or become strong or unlikely to change: a move that solidified the allegiance of our followers > solidification n

soliloquy n, pl -quies a speech made by a person while alone, esp. in a play solipsism n (philosophy) the doctrine that the self is the only thing known to exist

> solipsist n

solitaire n

1 a game played by one person, involving moving and taking pegs in a

- pegboard with the object of being left with only one 2 a gem, esp. a diamond, set alone in a ring 3 (chiefly US) patience (the card game) solitary adj

- 1 experienced or performed alone: a solitary dinner
◇ SYNONYMS: lone, alone
2 living a life of solitude: a solitary child ◇ SYNONYMS: unsociable, reclusive, unsocial, isolated, lonely, cloistered, lonesome (US & Canad), friendless 3 single; alone: the solitary cigarette in the ashtray 4 having few friends; lonely
◇ SYNONYMS: unsociable, reclusive, unsocial, isolated, lonely, cloistered, lonesome (US & Canad), friendless 5 (of a place) without people; empty ◇ SYNONYMS: isolated, remote, out-of-the-way, hidden, unfrequented ► n, pl -taries
6 a person who lives on his or her own; hermit > solitariness n solitude n the state of being alone solo n, pl -los

- 1 a piece of music or section of a piece of music for one performer: a trumpet solo 2 any performance by an individual without assistance 3 Also: solo whist a card game in which each person plays on his or her own
► adj
4 performed by an individual without assistance: a solo dance
► adv
5 by oneself; alone: to fly solo across the Atlantic > soloist n

so long interj

- 1 (informal) farewell; goodbye

► adv

2 (S African slang) for the time being; meanwhile solo parent n (NZ) a parent bringing up a child or children alone solstice n either the shortest day of the year (winter solstice) or the longest day of the year (summer solstice) soluble adj

1 (of a substance) capable of being dissolved

2 (of a mystery or problem) capable of being solved > solubility n

solution n

1 a specific answer to or way of answering a problem

◇ SYNONYMS: answer, key, result, explanation

2 the act or process of solving a problem

◇ SYNONYMS: answer, key, result, explanation

3 (chem) a mixture of two or more substances in which the molecules or atoms of the substances are completely dispersed

◇ SYNONYMS: mixture, mix, compound, blend, solvent

4 the act or process of forming a solution

5 the state of being dissolved: the sugar is held in solution solve vb solving, solved to find the explanation for or solution to (a mystery or problem)

◇ SYNONYMS: answer, work out, resolve, crack, clear up, unravel, decipher, suss (out) (slang)

> solvable adj

solvent adj

1 having enough money to pay off one's debts

2 (of a liquid) capable of dissolving other substances

► n

3 a liquid capable of dissolving other substances > solvency n solvent abuse n the deliberate inhaling of intoxicating fumes from certain solvents sombre or (US) somber adj

1 serious, sad, or gloomy: a sombre message

◇ SYNONYMS: gloomy, sad, sober, grave, dismal, mournful, lugubrious, joyless

2 (of a place) dim or gloomy

◇ SYNONYMS: dark, dull, gloomy, sober, drab

3 (of colour or clothes) dull or dark

◇ SYNONYMS: dark, dull, gloomy, sober, drab

> sombrely or (US) somberly adv sombrero n, pl -ros a wide-brimmed Mexican hat some adj

1 unknown or unspecified: some man called for you

2 an unknown or unspecified quantity or number of: I've got some money

3

A a considerable number or amount of: he lived some years afterwards

B a little: show some respect

4 (informal) an impressive or remarkable: that was some game!

► pron

5 certain unknown or unspecified people or things: some can teach and others can't

6 an unknown or unspecified quantity of something or number of people or things: he will sell some in his pub

► adv

7 approximately: some thirty pounds

somebody pron

1 some person; someone

► n, pl -bodies

2 a person of great importance: he was a somebody

◇ SYNONYMS: celebrity, name, star, notable, household name, dignitary, luminary, personage somehow adv

1 in some unspecified way

◇ SYNONYMS: one way or another, come what may, come hell or high water (informal), by fair means or foul, by hook or (by) crook, by some means or other

2 for some unknown reason: somehow I can't do it someone pron some person; somebody somersault n

1 a leap or roll in which the head is placed on the ground and the trunk and legs are turned over it

► vb

2 to perform a somersault something pron

1 an unspecified or unknown thing; some thing: there was something wrong

2 an unspecified or unknown amount: something less than a hundred

3 an impressive or important person, thing, or event: isn't that something?

4 something else (slang, chiefly US) a remarkable person or thing

► adv

5 to some degree; somewhat: he looks something like me

sometime adv

1 at some unspecified point of time

► adj

2 former: a sometime actor

sometimes adv now and then; from time to time

◇ SYNONYMS: occasionally, at times, now and then somewhat adv rather; a bit: somewhat surprising somewhere adv

1 in, to, or at some unknown or unspecified place, point, or amount:

somewhere down south; somewhere between 35 and 45 per cent

2 getting somewhere (informal) making progress somnambulism n (formal) the condition of walking in one's sleep > somnambulist n

somnolent adj (formal) drowsy; sleepy > somnolence n

son n

1 a male offspring

2 a form of address for a man or boy who is younger than the speaker

3 a male who comes from a certain place or one closely connected with a certain thing: a good son of the church RELATED ADJECTIVE: filial

sonar n a device that locates objects by the reflection of sound waves: used in underwater navigation and target detection sonata n a piece of classical music, usually in three or more movements, for piano or for another instrument with or without piano son et lumière (sonn ay loom-yair) n an entertainment staged at night at a famous building or historical site, at which its history is described by a speaker accompanied by lighting effects and music

song n

1 a piece of music with words, composed for the voice

◇ SYNONYMS: ballad, air, tune, carol, chant, chorus, anthem, number, waiata (NZ)

2 the tuneful call made by certain birds or insects

3 the act or process of singing: he broke into song

4 for a song at a bargain price

5 make a song and dance (informal) to make an unnecessary fuss songbird n any bird that has a musical call sonic adj of, involving, or producing sound sonic boom n a loud explosive sound caused by the shock wave of an aircraft travelling at supersonic speed son-in-law n, pl sons-in-law the husband of one's son or daughter sonnet n (prosody) a verse form consisting of 14 lines with a fixed rhyme scheme and rhythm pattern sonorous adj

1 (of a sound) deep or rich

2 (of speech) using language that is unnecessarily complicated and difficult to understand; pompous > sonority n

soon adv

1 in or after a short time; before long

◇ SYNONYMS: before long, shortly, in the near future

2 as soon as at the very moment that: as soon as he had closed the door

3 as soon ... as used to indicate that the first alternative is slightly preferable to the second: they'd just as soon die for him as live sooner adv

1 the comparative of soon: I only wish I'd been back sooner

2 rather; in preference: he would sooner leave the party than break with me

3 no sooner ... than immediately after or when: no sooner had he spoken than the stench drifted up

4 sooner or later eventually soot n a black powder formed by the incomplete burning of organic substances such as coal > sooty adj

soothe vb soothing, soothed

1 to make (a worried or angry person) calm and relaxed

◇ SYNONYMS: calm, still, quiet, hush, appease, lull, pacify, mollify

2 (of an ointment or cream) to relieve (pain)

◇ SYNONYMS: relieve, ease, alleviate, assuage > soothing adj

soothsayer n a person who makes predictions about the future; prophet sop n

1 a small bribe or concession given or made to someone to keep them from causing trouble: a sop to her conscience

2 (informal) a stupid or weak person

3 sops food soaked in a liquid before being eaten

► vb sopping, sopped

4 sop up to soak up or absorb (liquid) sophism n an argument that seems reasonable but is actually false and misleading sophist n a person who uses clever but false arguments > sophistic adj

sophisticate vb -cating, -cated

1 to make (someone) less natural or innocent, such as by education

2 to make (a machine or method) more complex or refined

► n

3 a sophisticated person > sophistication n

sophisticated adj

1 having or appealing to fashionable and refined tastes and habits: a sophisticated restaurant

2 intelligent, knowledgeable, or able to appreciate culture and the arts: a sophisticated concert audience

◇ SYNONYMS: cultured, refined, cultivated, worldly, cosmopolitan, urbane

3 (of machines or methods) complex and using advanced technology

◇ SYNONYMS: complex, advanced, complicated, subtle, delicate, elaborate, refined, intricate sophistry n

1 the practice of using arguments which seem clever but are actually false and misleading

2 pl -ries an instance of this sophomore n (chiefly US & Canad) a second-year student at a secondary (high) school or college soporific adj

1 causing sleep

► n

2 a drug that causes sleep sopping adj completely soaked; wet through. Also: sopping wet soppy adj -pier, -piest (informal) foolishly sentimental: a soppy love song > soppily adv

soprano n, pl -pranos

1 the highest adult female voice

2 the voice of a young boy before puberty

3 a singer with such a voice

4 the highest or second highest instrument in a family of instruments

► adj

5 denoting a musical instrument that is the highest or second highest pitched in its family: the soprano saxophone

6 of or relating to the highest female voice, or the voice of a young boy: the part is quite possibly the most demanding soprano role Wagner ever wrote

sorbet (saw-bay) n a flavoured water ice sorcerer or (fem) sorceress n a person who uses magic powers; a wizard sorcery n, pl -ceries witchcraft or magic sordid adj

1 dirty, depressing, and squalid: a sordid backstreet in a slum area

2 relating to sex in a crude or unpleasant way: the sordid details of his affair

3 involving immoral and selfish behaviour: the sordid history of the slave trade sore adj

1 (of a wound, injury, etc.) painfully sensitive; tender

◇ SYNONYMS: painful, smarting, raw, tender, burning, angry, sensitive, irritated

2 causing annoyance and resentment: a sore point

◇ SYNONYMS: annoying, troublesome

3 upset and angered: she's still sore about last night

◇ SYNONYMS: annoyed, cross, angry, pained, hurt, upset, stung, irritated, tooshie (Austral slang), hoha (NZ)

4 (literary) urgent; pressing: in sore need of firm government

◇ SYNONYMS: urgent, desperate, extreme, dire, pressing, critical, acute

► n

5 a painful or sensitive wound or injury

► adv

6 sore afraid (archaic) greatly frightened > soreness n

sorely adv greatly: sorely disappointed sorghum n a grass grown for grain and as a source of syrup sorrel n a plant with bitter-tasting leaves which are used in salads and sauces sorrow n

1 deep sadness or regret, associated with death or sympathy for another's misfortune ◇ SYNONYMS: grief, sadness, woe, regret, distress, misery, mourning, anguish

2 a particular cause of this

◇ SYNONYMS: hardship, trial, tribulation, affliction, trouble, woe, misfortune

► vb

3 (literary) to feel deep sadness (about death or another's misfortunes); mourn

◇ SYNONYMS: grieve, mourn, lament, be sad, bemoan, agonize, bewail > sorrowful adj

> sorrowfully adv

sorry adj -rier, -riest

1 (often foll. by for or about) feeling or expressing pity, sympathy, grief, or regret: I'm sorry about this

◇ SYNONYMS: regretful, apologetic, contrite, repentant, remorseful, penitent, shamefaced, conscience-stricken

2 in bad mental or physical condition: a sorry state

3 poor: a sorry performance

◇ SYNONYMS: wretched, miserable, pathetic, mean, poor, sad, pitiful, deplorable

► interj

4 an exclamation expressing apology or asking someone to repeat what he or she has said sort n

1 a class, group, or kind sharing certain characteristics or qualities

◇ SYNONYMS: kind, type, class, make, order, style, quality, nature

2 (informal) a type of character: she was a good sort

3 a more or less adequate example: a sort of dream machine

4 of sorts or of a sort

A of a poorer quality: she was wearing a uniform of sorts

B of a kind not quite as intended or desired: it was a reward, of sorts, for my efforts

5 out of sorts not in normal good health or temper

6 sort of as it were; rather: I sort of quit; sort of insensitive

► vb

7 to arrange (things or people) according to class or type

◇ SYNONYMS: arrange, group, order, rank, divide, grade, classify, categorize

8 to put (something) into working order; fix

9 to arrange (information on a computer) in an order the user finds convenient sortie n

1 a short or relatively short return trip

2 (of troops) a raid into enemy territory

3 an operational flight made by a military aircraft

► vb -tieing, -tied

4 to make a sortie

SOS n

1 an international code signal of distress in which the letters SOS are repeatedly spelt out in Morse code 2 (informal) any call for help so-so (informal) adj

1 neither good nor bad

► adv

2 in an average or indifferent way sot n a person who is frequently drunk > sottish adj

sotto voce (sot-toe voe-chay) adv with a soft voice soubriquet n same as sobriquet soufflé (soo-flay) n a light fluffy dish made with beaten egg whites and other ingredients such as cheese or chocolate sough (rhymes with now) vb (literary) (of the wind) to make a sighing sound sought (sawt) vb the past of seek souk (sook) n an open-air marketplace in Muslim countries soul n

1 the spiritual part of a person, regarded as the centre of personality, intellect, will, and emotions: believed by many to survive the body after death

◇ SYNONYMS: spirit, essence, life, vital force, wairua (NZ)

2 the essential part or fundamental nature of anything: the soul of contemporary America

◇ SYNONYMS: embodiment, essence, epitome, personification, quintessence, type

3 deep and sincere feelings: you've got no soul

4 Also called: soul music a type of music of Black American origin using blues and elements of jazz, gospel, and pop

5 a person regarded as a good example of some quality: the soul of prudence

◇ SYNONYMS: embodiment, essence, epitome, personification, quintessence, type

6 a person: there was hardly a soul there

◇ SYNONYMS: person, being, individual, body, creature, man or woman

7 the life and soul (informal) a person who is lively, entertaining, and fun to be with: the life and soul of the campus

soulful adj expressing deep feelings: a soulful performance of one of Tchaikovsky's songs

soulless adj

1 lacking human qualities; mechanical: soulless materialism

2 (of a person) lacking in sensitivity or emotion sound¹ n

1 anything that can be heard; noise

◇ SYNONYMS: noise, din, report, tone, reverberation

2 (physics) mechanical vibrations that travel in waves through the air, water, etc.

3 the sensation produced by such vibrations in the organs of hearing

4 the impression one has of something: I didn't really like the sound of it

◇ SYNONYMS: idea, impression, drift

5 sounds (slang) music, esp. rock, jazz, or pop

► vb

6 to make or cause (an instrument, etc.) to make a sound

◇ SYNONYMS: toll, set off

7 to announce (something) by a sound: guns sound the end of the two minutes silence

8 to make a noise with a certain quality: her voice sounded shrill

9 to suggest (a particular idea or quality): his argument sounded false

◇ SYNONYMS: seem, seem to be, appear to be 10 to pronounce (something) clearly: to sound one's r's sound² adj

1 free from damage, injury, or decay; in good condition

◇ SYNONYMS: fit, healthy, perfect, intact, unhurt, uninjured, unimpaired

2 firm or substantial: sound documentary evidence

◇ SYNONYMS: sturdy, strong, solid, stable

3 financially safe or stable: a sound investment

4 showing good judgment or reasoning; wise: sound advice

◇ SYNONYMS: sensible, wise, reasonable, right, correct, proper, valid, rational, grounded

5 morally correct; honest

6 (of sleep) deep and uninterrupted ◇ SYNONYMS: deep, unbroken, undisturbed, untroubled

7 thorough: a sound defeat

► adv

8 sound asleep in a deep sleep > soundly adv

sound³ vb

1 to measure the depth of (a well, the sea, etc.)

2 (med) to examine (a part of the body) by tapping or with a stethoscope sound⁴ n a channel between two larger areas of sea or between an island and the mainland sound barrier n a sudden increase in the force of air against an aircraft flying at or above the speed of sound sound bite n a short pithy sentence or phrase extracted from a longer speech for use on television or radio: complicated political messages cannot be properly reduced to fifteen-second sound bites

sounding board n a person or group used to test a new idea or policy soundings pl n

1 measurements of the depth of a river, lake, or sea

2 questions asked of someone in order to find out his or her opinion:

soundings among colleagues had revealed enthusiasm for the plan soundproof adj

1 (of a room) built so that no sound can get in or out

► vb

2 to make (a room) soundproof soundtrack n the recorded sound accompaniment to a film soup n

1 a food made by cooking meat, fish, or vegetables in a stock

2 in the soup (slang) in trouble or difficulties > soupy adj

soupçon (soop-sonn) n a slight amount; dash souped-up adj (slang) (of a car, motorbike, or engine) adjusted so as to be faster or more powerful than normal soup kitchen n a place where food and drink are served to needy people sour adj

1 having a sharp biting taste like the taste of lemon juice or vinegar

◇ SYNONYMS: sharp, acid, tart, bitter, pungent, acetic

2 made acid or bad, such as when milk ferments

◇ SYNONYMS: rancid, turned, gone off, curdled, gone bad, off

3 (of a person's mood) bad-tempered and unfriendly

◇ SYNONYMS: bitter, tart, acrimonious, embittered, disagreeable, ill-tempered, waspish, ungenerous

4 go or turn sour to become less enjoyable or happy: the dream has turned sour

► vb

5 to make or become less enjoyable or friendly: relations soured shortly after the war

> sourly adv

source n

1 the origin or starting point: the source of discontent among fishermen

◇ SYNONYMS: cause, origin, derivation, beginning, author

2 any person, book, or organization that provides information for a news report or for research

◇ SYNONYMS: informant, authority

3 the area or spring where a river or stream begins

◇ SYNONYMS: origin, fount

► vb

4 to establish a supplier of (a product, etc)

5 (foll. by from) to originate from souse vb sousing, soured

1 to plunge (something) into water or other liquid

2 to drench

3 to steep or cook (food) in a marinade

► n

4 the liquid used in pickling

5 the act or process of sousing soutane (soo-tan) n (RC Church) a priest's robe

south n

1 one of the four cardinal points of the compass, at 180° from north

2 the direction along a line of latitude towards the South Pole

3 the south any area lying in or towards the south

► adj

4 situated in, moving towards, or facing the south

5 (esp. of the wind) from the south

► adv

6 in, to, or towards the south

South n

1 the South

A the southern part of England

B (in the US) the Southern states that formed the Confederacy during the Civil War

C the countries of the world that are not technically and economically advanced

► adj

2 of or denoting the southern part of a country, area, etc.

southerly adj

1 of or in the south

► adv, adj

2 towards the south

3 from the south: light southerly winds southern adj

1 situated in or towards the south

2 facing or moving towards the south

3 (sometimes cap) of or characteristic of the south or South > southernmost adj

Southerner n a person from the south of a country or area, esp. England or the US southpaw (informal) n

1 any left-handed person, esp. a boxer

► adj

2 left-handed

South Pole n the southernmost point on the earth's axis, at a latitude of 90°S, which has very low temperatures southward adj, adv also southwards

1 towards the south

► n

2 the southward part or direction souvenir n an object that reminds one of a certain place, occasion, or person; memento

◇ SYNONYMS: keepsake, reminder, memento sou'wester n a seaman's hat with a broad brim that covers the back of the neck sovereign n

1 the Royal ruler of a country

◇ SYNONYMS: monarch, ruler, king or queen, chief, potentate, emperor or empress, prince or princess

2 a former British gold coin worth one pound sterling

► adj

3 independent of outside authority; not governed by another country: a sovereign nation

4 supreme in rank or authority: a sovereign queen

◇ SYNONYMS: supreme, ruling, absolute, royal, principal, imperial, kingly or queenly

5 (old-fashioned) excellent or outstanding: a sovereign remedy for epilepsy

◇ SYNONYMS: excellent, efficient, effectual sovereignty n, pl -ties

1 the political power a nation has to govern itself

2 the position or authority of a sovereign

◇ SYNONYMS: supreme power, domination, supremacy, primacy, kingship, queenship, rangatiratanga (NZ) soviet n (in the former Soviet Union) an elected government council at the local, regional, and national levels

Soviet adj

1 of the former Soviet Union

► n

2 a person from the former Soviet Union

sow¹ vb sowing, sowed, sown or sowed

1 to scatter or plant (seed) in or on (the ground) so that it may grow: sow sweet peas in pots; farmers sow their fields with fewer varieties

◇ SYNONYMS: scatter, plant, seed, implant

2 to implant or introduce: to sow confusion among the other members

sow² n a female adult pig soya bean or (US & Canad) soybean n a plant whose bean is used for food and as a source of oil soy sauce n a salty dark brown sauce made from fermented soya beans, used in Chinese cookery sozzled adj (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) drunk spa n a mineral-water spring or a resort where such a spring is found space n

1 the unlimited three-dimensional expanse in which all objects exist

2 an interval of distance or time between two points, objects, or events

◇ SYNONYMS: period, interval, time, while, span, duration, time frame, timeline

3 a blank portion or area

◇ SYNONYMS: blank, gap, interval

4 unoccupied area or room: barely enough space to walk around

◇ SYNONYMS: room, capacity, extent, margin, scope, play, expanse, leeway

5 the region beyond the earth's atmosphere containing other planets, stars, and galaxies; the universe

◇ SYNONYMS: outer space, the universe, the galaxy, the solar system, the cosmos

► vb spacing, spaced

6 (often foll. by out) to place or arrange (things) at intervals or with spaces between them spacecraft n a vehicle that can be used for travel in space space shuttle n a manned reusable spacecraft designed for making regular flights

spacesuit n a sealed protective suit worn by astronauts spacious adj having or providing a lot of space; roomy ◇ SYNONYMS: roomy, large, huge, broad, extensive, ample, expansive, capacious > spaciousness n

spade¹ n

1 a tool for digging, with a flat steel blade and a long wooden handle

2 call a spade a spade to speak plainly and frankly spade² n

1

A spades the suit of playing cards marked with a black leaf-shaped symbol

B a card with one or more of these symbols on it

2 in spades (informal) in plenty: all you need is talent in spades spadework n dull or routine work done as preparation for a project or activity spaghetti n pasta in the form of long strings spam vb spamming, spammed

1 to send unsolicited messages simultaneously to a typically large number of email addresses

► n

2 unsolicited messages sent in this way span n

1 the interval or distance between two points, such as the ends of a bridge

◇ SYNONYMS: period, term, duration, spell

2 the complete extent: that span of time

◇ SYNONYMS: period, term, duration, spell

3 a unit of length based on the width of a stretched hand, usually taken as nine inches (23 centimetres)

► vb spanning, spanned

4 to stretch or extend across, over, or around: her career spanned fifty years; to span the Danube

◇ SYNONYMS: extend across, cross, bridge, cover, link, traverse spangle n

1 a small piece of shiny material used as a decoration on clothes or hair; sequin

► vb -gling, -gled

2 to cover or decorate (something) with spangles

Spaniard n a person from Spain spaniel n a dog with long drooping ears and a silky coat

Spanish adj

1 of Spain

► n

2 the official language of Spain, Mexico, and most countries of South and Central America

► pl n

3 the Spanish the people of Spain spank vb

1 to slap (someone) with the open hand, on the buttocks or legs

► n

2 such a slap spanking¹ n a series of spansks, usually as a punishment for children spanking² adj

1 (informal) outstandingly fine or smart: spanking new uniforms

2 very fast: a spanking pace

spanner n

1 a tool for gripping and turning a nut or bolt

2 throw a spanner in the works (informal) to cause a problem that prevents things from running smoothly spar¹ n a pole used as a ship's mast, boom, or yard spar² vb sparring, sparred

1 (boxing, martial arts) to fight using light blows for practice

2 to argue with someone

◇ SYNONYMS: argue, row, squabble, scrap (informal), wrangle, bicker

► n

3 an argument spare adj

1 extra to what is needed: there are some spare chairs at the back

◇ SYNONYMS: back-up, reserve, second, extra, additional, auxiliary

2 able to be used when needed: a spare parking space

3 (of a person) tall and thin

◇ SYNONYMS: thin, lean, meagre, gaunt, wiry

4 (of a style) plain and without unnecessary decoration or details; austere: a spare but beautiful novel

5 (Brit slang) frantic with anger or worry: the boss went spare

► n

6 an extra thing kept in case it is needed

► vb sparing, spared

7 to stop from killing, punishing, or injuring (someone)

◇ SYNONYMS: have mercy on, pardon, leave, let off (informal), go easy on (informal), save (from harm)

8 to protect (someone) from (something) unpleasant: spare me the sermon

9 to be able to afford or give: can you spare me a moment to talk?

◇ SYNONYMS: afford, give, grant, do without, part with, manage without, let someone have 10 not spare oneself to try one's hardest

11 to spare more than is required: a few hours to spare sparing adj (sometimes foll. by of) economical (with): she was mercifully sparing in her use of jargon

◇ SYNONYMS: economical, frugal, thrifty, saving, careful, prudent > sparingly adv

spark n

1 a fiery particle thrown out from a fire or caused by friction

◇ SYNONYMS: flicker, flash, gleam, glint, flare

2 a short flash of light followed by a sharp crackling noise, produced by a sudden electrical discharge through the air

3 a trace or hint: a spark of goodwill

◇ SYNONYMS: trace, hint, scrap, atom, jot, vestige

4 liveliness, enthusiasm, or humour: that spark in her eye

► vb

5 to give off sparks

6 to cause to start; trigger: the incident sparked off an angry exchange

◇ SYNONYMS: start, stimulate, provoke, inspire, trigger (off), set off, precipitate sparkie n (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) electrician sparkle vb -cling, -kled

1 to glitter with many bright points of light

◇ SYNONYMS: glitter, flash, shine, gleam, shimmer, twinkle, dance, glint

2 (of wine or mineral water) to be slightly fizzy

3 to be lively, witty, and intelligent

► n

4 a small bright point of light

◇ SYNONYMS: glitter, flash, gleam, flicker, brilliance, twinkle, glint

5 liveliness and wit

◇ SYNONYMS: vivacity, life, spirit, dash, vitality, élan, liveliness > sparkling adj sparkler n

1 a type of hand-held firework that throws out sparks

2 (informal) a sparkling gem; esp. a diamond spark plug n a device in an internal-combustion engine that ignites the fuel by producing an electric spark sparrow n a very common small brown or grey bird which feeds on seeds and insects sparrowhawk n a small hawk which preys on smaller birds sparse adj small in amount and spread out widely: a sparse population > sparsely adv

Spartan adj

1 of or relating to the ancient Greek city of Sparta

2 (of a way of life) strict or simple and with no luxuries: Spartan accommodation

► n

3 a citizen of Sparta

4 a person who leads a strict or simple life without luxuries spasm n

1 a sudden tightening of the muscles, over which one has no control

2 a sudden burst of activity or feeling: a spasm of applause; sudden spasms of anger spasmodic adj taking place in sudden short spells: spasmodic bouts of illness > spasmodically adv

spastic n

1 (old-fashioned, offensive) a person who has cerebral palsy, and therefore has difficulty controlling his or her muscles

► adj

2 affected by involuntary muscle contractions: a spastic colon

3 (old-fashioned, offensive) having cerebral palsy spat¹ n a slight quarrel spat² vb a past of spit spate n

1 a large number of things happening within a period of time: a spate of bombings

◇ SYNONYMS: series, sequence, course, chain, succession, run, train

2 a fast flow or outpouring: an incomprehensible spate of words

◇ SYNONYMS: flood, flow, torrent, rush, deluge, outpouring

3 in spate (chiefly Brit) (of a river) flooded spatial adj of or relating to size, area, or position: spatial dimensions > spatially adv

spats pl n cloth or leather coverings formerly worn by men over the ankle and instep spatter vb

1 to scatter or splash (a substance, esp. a liquid) in scattered drops: spattering mud in all directions

2 to sprinkle (an object or a surface) with a liquid

► n

3 the sound of spattering

4 something spattered, such as a spot or splash spatula n a utensil with a broad flat blade, used in cooking and by doctors spawn n

1 the jelly-like mass of eggs laid by fish, amphibians, or molluscs

► vb

2 (of fish, amphibians, or molluscs) to lay eggs

3 to cause (something) to be created: the depressed economy spawned the riots spay vb to remove the ovaries from (a female animal) spaza shop n (S African slang) a small informal shop in a township, often run from a private house speak vb speaking, spoke, spoken

1 to say words; talk

◇ SYNONYMS: talk, say something

2 to communicate or express (something) in words

◇ SYNONYMS: articulate, say, pronounce, utter, tell, state, talk, express

3 to give a speech or lecture

◇ SYNONYMS: lecture, address an audience

4 to know how to talk in (a specified language): I don't speak French

5 on speaking terms on good terms; friendly

6 so to speak as it were 7 speak one's mind to express one's opinions honestly and plainly

8 to speak of of a significant nature: no licensing laws to speak of speaker n

1 a person who speaks, esp. someone making a speech ◇ SYNONYMS: orator, public speaker, lecturer, spokesman or woman or person

2 a person who speaks a particular language: a fluent Tibetan and English speaker

3 same as loudspeaker

Speaker n the official chair of a law-making body speakerphone n a telephone that has an external microphone and loudspeaker, allowing several people to participate in a call at the same time spear¹ n

1 a weapon consisting of a long pole with a sharp point

► vb

2 to pierce (someone or something) with a spear or other pointed object: she took her fork and speared an oyster from its shell

spear² n

1 a slender shoot, such as of grass

2 a single stalk of broccoli or asparagus spearhead vb

1 to lead (an attack or a campaign)

◇ SYNONYMS: lead, head, pioneer, launch, set off, initiate, set in motion

► n

2 the leading force in an attack or campaign spearmint n a minty flavouring used for sweets and toothpaste, which comes from a purple-flowered plant

spec n on spec (informal) as a risk or gamble: I still tend to buy on spec

special adj

1 distinguished from or better than others of its kind: a special occasion

◇ SYNONYMS: exceptional, important, significant, particular, unique, unusual, extraordinary, memorable

2 designed or reserved for a specific purpose: special equipment

◇ SYNONYMS: specific, particular, distinctive, individual, appropriate, precise

3 not usual; different from normal: a special case

◇ SYNONYMS: exceptional, important, significant, particular, unique, unusual, extraordinary, memorable

4 particular or primary: a special interest in gifted children

5 relating to the education of children with disabilities: a special school

► n

6 a product, TV programme, etc., which is only available or shown at a certain time: a two-hour Christmas special live from Hollywood

7 a meal, usually at a low price, in a bar or restaurant > specially adv

specialist n

1 a person who is an expert in a particular activity or subject

◇ SYNONYMS: expert, authority, professional, master, consultant, guru, buff (informal), connoisseur, fundi (S African)

2 a doctor who concentrates on treating one particular category of diseases or the diseases of one particular part of the body: an eye specialist

► adj

3 particular to or concentrating on one subject or activity: a specialist comic shop speciality or (esp US & Canad) specialty n, pl -ties

1 a special interest or skill

◇ SYNONYMS: forte, métier, specialty, bag (slang), pièce de résistance (French)

2 a service, product, or type of food specialized in specialize or -lise vb -lizing, -lized or -lising, -lised

1 (often foll. by in) to concentrate all one's efforts on studying a particular subject, occupation, or activity: an expert who specializes in transport

2 to modify (something) for a special use or purpose: plants have evolved and specialized in every type of habitat > specialization or -lisation n specie n coins as distinct from paper money species n, pl -cies (biol) one of the groups into which a genus is divided, the members of which are able to interbreed ◇ SYNONYMS: kind, sort, type, group, class, variety, breed, category specific adj

1 particular or definite: a specific area of economic policy ◇ SYNONYMS: particular, special, characteristic, distinguishing 2 precise and exact: try and be more specific ◇ SYNONYMS: precise, exact, explicit, definite, express, clear-cut, unequivocal
► n
3 specifics particular qualities or aspects of something: the specifics of the situation 4 (med) any drug used to treat a particular disease > specifically adv
> specificity n

specification n

1 a detailed description of features in the design of something: engines built to racing specification
2 a requirement or detail which is clearly stated: the main specification was that a good degree was required ◇ SYNONYMS: requirement, detail, particular, stipulation, condition, qualification 3 the specifying of something specific gravity n (physics) the ratio of the density of a substance to the density of water specify vb -fies, -fying, -fied

1 to state or describe (something) clearly

◇ SYNONYMS: state, designate, stipulate, name, detail, mention, indicate, define

2 to state (something) as a condition: the rules specify the number of prisoners to be kept in each cell

◇ SYNONYMS: state, designate, stipulate, name, detail, mention, indicate, define specimen n

1 an individual or part regarded as typical of its group or class

◇ SYNONYMS: sample, example, model, type, pattern, instance, representative, exemplification

2 (med) a sample of tissue, blood, or urine taken for analysis

3 (informal) a person: I'm quite a healthy specimen specious (spee-shuss) adj apparently correct or true, but actually wrong or false speck n

1 a very small mark or spot

2 a small or tiny piece of something: a speck of fluff speckle vb -ling, -led

1 to mark (something) with speckles

► n

2 a small mark or spot, such as on the skin or on an egg > speckled adj

specs spectacle n

1 a strange, interesting, or ridiculous scene

◇ SYNONYMS: sight, wonder, scene, phenomenon, curiosity, marvel

2 an impressive public show: the opening ceremony of the Olympics was an impressive spectacle

◇ SYNONYMS: show, display, exhibition, event, performance, extravaganza, pageant

3 make a spectacle of oneself to draw attention to oneself by behaving foolishly spectacular adj

1 impressive, grand, or dramatic ◇ SYNONYMS: impressive, striking, dramatic, stunning (informal), grand, magnificent, splendid, dazzling

► n

2 a spectacular show

◇ SYNONYMS: show, display, spectacle > spectacularly adv

spectate vb -tating, -tated to be a spectator; watch spectator n a person viewing anything; onlooker

◇ SYNONYMS: onlooker, observer, viewer, looker-on, watcher, bystander spectre or (US) specter n

1 a ghost

◇ SYNONYMS: ghost, spirit, phantom, vision, apparition, wraith, kehua (NZ)

2 an unpleasant or menacing vision in one's imagination: the spectre of famine

> spectral adj

spectroscope n (physics) an instrument for forming or recording a spectrum by passing a light ray through a prism or grating spectrum n, pl -tra

1 (physics) the distribution of colours produced when white light is dispersed by a prism or grating: violet, indigo, blue, green, yellow, orange, and red

2 (physics) the whole range of electromagnetic radiation with respect to its wavelength or frequency

3 a range or scale of anything such as opinions or emotions speculate vb -lating, -lated

1 to form opinions about something, esp. its future consequences, based on the information available; conjecture: it is too early to speculate about Jackie getting married

◇ SYNONYMS: conjecture, consider, wonder, guess, surmise, theorize, hypothesize

2 to buy securities or property in the hope of selling them at a profit

◇ SYNONYMS: gamble, risk, venture, hazard > speculation n > speculative adj

> speculator n sped vb a past of speed speech n

1 the ability to speak: the loss of speech

◇ SYNONYMS: communication, talk, conversation, discussion, dialogue

2 spoken language: Doran's lack of coherent speech

◇ SYNONYMS: communication, talk, conversation, discussion, dialogue

3 a talk given to an audience: a speech to parliament

◇ SYNONYMS: talk, address, lecture, discourse, homily, oration, spiel (informal), whaikorero (NZ)

4 a person's manner of speaking: her speech was extremely slow

◇ SYNONYMS: diction, pronunciation, articulation, delivery, fluency, inflection, intonation, elocution

5 a national or regional language or dialect: Canadian speech ◇ SYNONYMS: language, tongue, jargon, dialect, idiom, parlance, articulation, diction speechless adj

1 unable to speak for a short time because of great emotion or shock

2 unable to be expressed in words: speechless disbelief speed n

1 the quality of acting or moving fast; swiftness

◇ SYNONYMS: swiftness, rush, hurry, haste, rapidity, quickness

2 the rate at which something moves or happens

◇ SYNONYMS: rate, pace

3 a gear ratio in a motor vehicle or bicycle: five-speed gearbox

4 (photog) a measure of the sensitivity to light of a particular type of film

5 (slang) amphetamine

6 at speed quickly

7 up to speed

A operating at an acceptable level

B in possession of all the necessary information

► vb speeding, sped or speeded

8 to move or go somewhere quickly

◇ SYNONYMS: race, rush, hurry, zoom, career, tear, barrel (along) (informal, chiefly US & Canad), gallop

9 to drive a motor vehicle faster than the legal limit

► See also speed up speedboat n a high-speed motorboat speed camera n a camera for photographing vehicles breaking the speed limit speedometer n a dial in a vehicle which shows the speed of travel speed up vb to accelerate or cause to accelerate speedway n

1 the sport of racing on light powerful motorcycles round cinder tracks

2 (US & Canad & NZ) the track or stadium where such races are held speedwell n a small blue or pinkish-white flower speedy adj speedier, speediest

1 done without delay

◇ SYNONYMS: quick, fast, rapid, swift, express, immediate, prompt, hurried

2 (of a vehicle) able to travel fast

◇ SYNONYMS: quick, fast, rapid, swift, express, immediate, prompt, hurried > speedily adv

speleology n the scientific study of caves spell¹ vb spelling, spelt or spelled

1 to write or name in correct order the letters that make up (a word): how do you spell that name?

2 (of letters) to make up (a word): c-a-t spells cat

3 to indicate (a particular result): share price slump spells disaster

◇ SYNONYMS: indicate, mean, signify, point to, imply, augur, portend

► See also spell out spell² n

1 a sequence of words used to perform magic

◇ SYNONYMS: incantation, charm, makutu (NZ)

2 the effect of a spell: the wizard's spell was broken

◇ SYNONYMS: enchantment, magic, fascination, glamour, allure, bewitchment

3 under someone's spell fascinated by someone spell³ n

1 a period of time of weather or activity: the dry spell; a short spell in prison

◇ SYNONYMS: period, time, term, stretch, course, season, interval, bout

2 a period of duty after which one person or group relieves another

3 (Scot & Austral & NZ) a period of rest spellbound adj completely fascinated; as if in a trance spellchecker n (computers) a program that highlights any word in a word-processed document that is not recognized as being correctly spelt spelling n

1 the way a word is spelt: the British spelling of 'theatre'

2 a person's ability to spell: my spelling used to be excellent spell out vb

1 to make (something) as easy to understand as possible: to spell out the implications

2 to read with difficulty, working out each word letter by letter spelt vb a past of spell spend vb spending, spent

1 to pay out (money)

◇ SYNONYMS: pay out, fork out (slang), expend, disburse

2 to pass (time) in a specific way or place: I spent a year in Budapest

◇ SYNONYMS: pass, fill, occupy, while away

3 to concentrate (effort) on an activity: a lot of energy was spent organizing the holiday

4 to use up completely: the hurricane spent its force

◇ SYNONYMS: use up, waste, squander, empty, drain, exhaust, consume, run through > spending n

spendthrift n

1 a person who spends money wastefully

► adj

2 of or like a spendthrift: a spendthrift policy

sperm n

1 pl sperms or sperm one of the male reproductive cells released in the semen during ejaculation

2 same as semen spermaceti (sper-ma-set-ee) n a white waxy substance obtained from the sperm whale spermatozoon (sper-ma-toe-zoe-on) n, pl -zoa same as sperm spermicide n a substance, esp. a cream or jelly, that kills sperm, used as a means of contraception > spermicidal adj

sperm whale n a large whale which is hunted for spermaceti and ambergris spew vb

1 to vomit

2 to send or be sent out in a stream: the hydrant spewed a tidal wave of water

sphagnum n a moss which is found in bogs and which decays to form peat sphere n

1 (geom) a round solid figure in which every point on the surface is equally distant from the centre

2 an object having this shape, such as a planet

◇ SYNONYMS: ball, globe, orb, globule, circle

3 a particular field of activity

◇ SYNONYMS: field, department (informal), function, territory, capacity, province, patch, scope

4 people of the same rank or with shared interests: a humbler social sphere spherical adj shaped like a sphere sphincter n (anatomy) a ring of muscle surrounding the opening of a hollow organ and contracting to close it

Sphinx n

- 1 the huge statue of a sphinx near the pyramids at El Gîza in Egypt
- 2 (Greek myth) a monster with a woman's head and a lion's body, who set a riddle for travellers, killing them when they failed to answer it. Oedipus answered the riddle and the Sphinx then killed herself

spice n

1

A an aromatic substance, such as ginger or cinnamon, used as flavouring

◇ SYNONYMS: seasoning

B such substances collectively

2 something that makes life or an activity more exciting

◇ SYNONYMS: excitement, zest, colour, pep, zing (informal), piquancy

► vb spicing, spiced

3 to flavour (food) with spices

4 (often foll. by up) to add excitement or interest to (something): they spiced their letters with pointed demands

spick-and-span adj very neat and clean spicy adj spicier, spiciest

1 strongly flavoured with spices

◇ SYNONYMS: hot, seasoned, aromatic, savoury, piquant

2 (informal) slightly scandalous: spicy new story lines

◇ SYNONYMS: risqué, racy, ribald, hot (informal), suggestive, titillating, indelicate spider n a small eight-legged creature, many species of which weave webs in which to trap insects for food > spidery adj

spiel n a prepared speech made to persuade someone to buy or do something spigot n

- 1 a stopper for the vent hole of a cask
- 2 a wooden tap fitted to a cask spike n

- 1 a sharp-pointed metal object: a high fence with iron spikes
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: point, stake, spine, barb, prong
- 2 anything long and pointed: a hedgehog bristling with spikes
- 3 a long metal nail
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: point, stake, spine, barb, prong
- 4 spikes sports shoes with metal spikes on the soles for greater grip
- vb spiking, spiked
- 5 to secure or supply (something) with spikes: spiked shoes
- 6 to drive a spike or spikes into
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: impale, spit, spear, stick
- 7 to add alcohol to (a drink)
 - > spiky adj spill¹ vb spilling, spilt or spilled

- 1 to pour from or as from a container by accident
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: shed, discharge, disgorge
- 2 (of large numbers of people) to come out of a place: rival groups spilled out from the station
- 3 to shed (blood)
- 4 spill the beans (informal) to give away a secret
- n
- 5 (informal) a fall from a motorbike, bike, or horse, esp. in a competition
- 6 an amount of liquid spilt
 - > spillage n

spill² n a splinter of wood or strip of paper for lighting pipes or fires spin vb spinning, spun

1 to revolve or cause to revolve quickly

◇ SYNONYMS: revolve, turn, rotate, reel, whirl, twirl, gyrate, pirouette

2 to draw out and twist (fibres, such as silk or cotton) into thread

3 (of a spider or silkworm) to form (a web or cocoon) from a silky fibre that comes out of the body

4 spin a yarn to tell an unlikely story

5 (sport) to throw, hit, or kick (a ball) so that it spins and changes direction or changes speed on bouncing

6 same as spin-dry

7 to grow dizzy: her head was spinning

◇ SYNONYMS: reel, swim, whirl

8 (informal) to present information in a way that creates a favourable impression

► n

9 a fast rotating motion

◇ SYNONYMS: revolution, roll, whirl, gyration

10 a flight manoeuvre in which an aircraft flies in a downward spiral

11 (sport) a spinning motion given to a ball

12 (informal) a short car drive taken for pleasure

◇ SYNONYMS: drive, ride, joyride (informal)

13 (informal) the presenting of information in a way that creates a favourable impression

► See also spin out > spinning n

spina bifida n a condition in which part of the spinal cord protrudes through a gap in the backbone, sometimes causing paralysis spinach n a dark green leafy vegetable spindle n

1 a rotating rod that acts as an axle

2 a rod with a notch in the top for drawing out, twisting and winding the thread in spinning spindly adj -dlier, -dliest tall, thin, and frail spin doctor n (informal) a person who provides a favourable slant to a news item or policy on behalf of a political personality or party spindrift n spray blown up from the sea spin-dry vb -dries, -drying, -dried to dry (clothes) in a spin-dryer spin-dryer n a device that removes water from washed clothes by spinning them in a perforated drum spine n

1 the row of bony segments that surround and protect the spinal cord

◇ SYNONYMS: backbone, vertebrae, spinal column, vertebral column

2 the back of a book, record sleeve, or video-tape box

3 a sharp point on the body of an animal or on a plant ◇ SYNONYMS: barb, spur, needle, spike, ray, quill > spinal adj

spineless adj

1 behaving in a cowardly way

2 (of an animal) having no spine spinet n a small harpsichord spinifex n a coarse spiny Australian grass spinnaker n a large triangular sail on a racing yacht spinner n

1 (cricket)

A a bowler who specializes in spinning the ball with his or her fingers to make it change direction when it bounces or strikes the batsman's bat

B a ball that is bowled with a spinning motion

2 a small round object used in angling to attract fish to the bait by spinning in the water

3 a person who makes thread by spinning spinney n (chiefly Brit) a small wood: the hollow tree in the spinney

spin-off n

1 a product or development that unexpectedly results from activities designed to achieve something else: new energy sources could occur as a spin-off from the space effort

2 a television series involving some of the characters from an earlier successful series spin out vb

1 to take longer than necessary to do (something)

◇ SYNONYMS spin something out: prolong, extend, lengthen, draw out, drag out, delay, amplify

2 to make (money) last as long as possible spinster n (old-fashioned) an unmarried woman > spinsterish adj

spiny adj spinier, spiniest (of animals or plants) covered with spines spiral n

1 (geom) a plane curve formed by a point winding about a fixed point at an ever-increasing distance from it

◇ SYNONYMS: coil, helix, corkscrew, whorl

2 something that follows a winding course or that has a twisting form

◇ SYNONYMS: coil, helix, corkscrew, whorl

3 (econ) a continuous upward or downward movement in economic activity or prices

► adj

4 having the shape of a spiral: a spiral staircase

◇ SYNONYMS: coiled, winding, whorled, helical

► vb -ralling, -ralled (US) -raling, -raled

5 to follow a spiral course or be in the shape of a spiral

6 to increase or decrease with steady acceleration: oil prices continue to spiral > spirally adv

spire n the tall cone-shaped structure on the top of a church spirit¹ n

1 the nonphysical aspect of a person concerned with profound thoughts and emotions

◇ SYNONYMS: soul, life

2 the nonphysical part of a person believed to live on after death

◇ SYNONYMS: life force, vital spark, mauri (NZ)

3 a shared feeling: a spirit of fun and adventure

◇ SYNONYMS: feeling, atmosphere, character, tone, mood, tenor, ambience

4 mood or attitude: fighting spirit

◇ SYNONYMS: mood, feelings, morale, temper, disposition, state of mind, frame of mind

5 a person's character or temperament: the indomitable spirit of the Polish people

◇ SYNONYMS: attitude, character, temper, outlook, temperament, disposition

6 liveliness shown in what a person does: it has been undertaken with spirit

◇ SYNONYMS: liveliness, energy, vigour, life, force, fire, enthusiasm, animation

7 the feelings that motivate someone to survive in difficult times or live according to his or her beliefs: someone had broken his spirit

8 spirits an emotional state: in good spirits

9 the way in which something, such as a law or an agreement, was intended to be interpreted: they acted against the spirit of the treaty

◇ SYNONYMS: intention, meaning, purpose, purport, gist

10 a supernatural being, such as a ghost

◇ SYNONYMS: ghost, phantom, spectre, apparition, atua (NZ), kehua (NZ)

► vb -riting, -rited

11 spirit away or off to carry (someone or something) off mysteriously or secretly spirit² n

1 (usually pl) distilled alcoholic liquor, such as whisky or gin

2 (chem)

A a solution of ethanol obtained by distillation

B the essence of a substance, extracted as a liquid by distillation

3 (pharmacol) a solution of a volatile oil in alcohol spirited adj

1 showing liveliness or courage: a spirited rendition of Schubert's ninth symphony; a spirited defence of the government's policy

◇ SYNONYMS: lively, energetic, animated, active, feisty (informal), vivacious, mettlesome, (as) game as Ned Kelly (Austral slang)

2 characterized by the mood as specified: high-spirited; mean-spirited spirit level n a device for checking whether a surface is level, consisting of a block of wood or metal containing a tube partially filled with liquid set so that the air bubble in it rests between two marks on the tube when the block is level

spiritual adj

1 relating to a person's beliefs as opposed to his or her physical or material needs

◇ SYNONYMS: nonmaterial, immaterial, incorporeal

2 relating to religious beliefs

◇ SYNONYMS: sacred, religious, holy, divine, devotional

3 one's spiritual home the place where one feels one belongs

► n

4 Also called: Negro spiritual a type of religious folk song originally sung by African slaves in the American South

- > spirituality n
- > spiritually adv

spiritualism n the belief that the spirits of the dead can communicate with the living

- > spiritualist n spit¹ vb spitting, spat or spit

1 to force saliva out of one's mouth

◇ SYNONYMS: expectorate

2 to force (something) out of one's mouth: he spat tobacco into an old coffee can

◇ SYNONYMS: expectorate

3 (of a fire or hot fat) to throw out sparks or particles violently and explosively

4 to rain very lightly

5 (often foll. by out) to say (words) in a violent angry way

6 to show contempt or hatred by spitting

7 spit it out! (informal) a command given to someone to say what is on his or her mind

► n

8 same as spittle

9 (informal, chiefly Brit) same as spitting image spit² n

1 a pointed rod for skewering and roasting meat over a fire or in an oven

2 a long narrow strip of land jutting out into the sea spite n

1 deliberate nastiness

◇ SYNONYMS: malice, malevolence, ill will, hatred, animosity, venom, spleen, spitefulness

2 in spite of regardless of: he loved them in spite of their shortcomings

◇ SYNONYMS in spite of: despite, regardless of, notwithstanding, (even) though

► vb spiting, spited

3 to annoy (someone) deliberately, out of spite: it was to spite his father

◇ SYNONYMS: annoy, hurt, injure, harm, vex > spiteful adj

> spitefully adv

spitfire n someone who is easily angered spitting image n (informal) a person who looks very like someone else spittle n the fluid that is produced in the mouth; saliva spittoon n a bowl for people to spit into spiv n (Brit & Austral & NZ slang) a smartly dressed man who makes a living by underhand dealings; black marketeer splash vb

1 to scatter (liquid) on (something)

◇ SYNONYMS: scatter, shower, spray, sprinkle, wet, spatter, slop

2 to cause (liquid) to fall or (of liquid) to be scattered in drops

◇ SYNONYMS: scatter, shower, spray, sprinkle, wet, spatter, slop

3 to display (a photograph or story) prominently in a newspaper

► n

4 a splashing sound

5 an amount splashed

◇ SYNONYMS: dash, touch, spattering

6 a patch (of colour or light)

◇ SYNONYMS: spot (Brit), burst, patch, spurt

7 make a splash (informal) to attract a lot of attention

8 a small amount of liquid added to a drink splash out vb to spend a lot of money on a treat or luxury: she planned to splash out on a good holiday

splatter vb

1 to splash (something or someone) with small blobs

► n

2 a splash of liquid splay vb to spread out, with ends spreading out in different directions: her hair splayed over the pillow

spleen n

1 a spongy organ near the stomach, which filters bacteria from the blood

2 spitefulness or bad temper: we vent our spleen on drug barons splendid adj

1 very good: a splendid match

◇ SYNONYMS: excellent, wonderful, marvellous, great, cracking (Brit informal), fantastic, first-class, glorious, booshit (Austral slang), exo (Austral slang), sik (Austral slang), rad (informal), phat (slang), schmick (Austral informal)

2 beautiful or impressive: a splendid palace

◇ SYNONYMS: magnificent, grand, impressive, rich, superb, costly, gorgeous, lavish > splendidly adv

splendour or (US) splendor n

1 beauty or impressiveness

◇ SYNONYMS: magnificence, grandeur, show, display, spectacle, richness, nobility, pomp

2 splendours the impressive or beautiful features of something: the splendours of the Emperor's Palace

splenetic adj (literary) irritable or bad-tempered splice vb splicing, spliced

1 to join up the trimmed ends of (two pieces of wire, film, or tape) with an adhesive material

2 to join (two ropes) by interweaving the ends

3 get spliced (informal) to get married splint n a piece of wood used to support a broken bone splinter n

1 a small thin sharp piece broken off, esp. from wood

◇ SYNONYMS: sliver, fragment, chip, flake

► vb

2 to break or be broken into small sharp fragments

◇ SYNONYMS: shatter, split, fracture, disintegrate splinter group n a number of members of an organization, who split from the main body and form an independent group of their own

split vb splitting, split

1 to break or cause (something) to break into separate pieces

◇ SYNONYMS: break, crack, burst, open, give way, come apart, come undone

2 to separate (a piece) or (of a piece) to be separated from (something)

◇ SYNONYMS: cut, break, crack, snap, chop

3 (of a group) to separate into smaller groups, through disagreement: the council is split over rent increases

◇ SYNONYMS: divide, separate, disunite, disband, cleave

4 (often foll. by up) to divide (something) among two or more people ◇ SYNONYMS: share out, divide, distribute, halve, allocate, partition, allot, apportion

5 (slang) to leave a place

6 split on (slang) to betray; inform on: he didn't tell tales or split on him

7 split one's sides to laugh a great deal

► n

8 a gap or rift caused by splitting

◇ SYNONYMS: crack, tear, rip, gap, rent, breach, slit, fissure

9 a division in a group or the smaller group resulting from such a division

◇ SYNONYMS: division, breach, rift, rupture, discord, schism, estrangement, dissension

10 a dessert of sliced fruit and ice cream, covered with whipped cream and nuts: banana split

► adj

11 divided (esp. in opinion, etc.)

◇ SYNONYMS: divided

12 having a split or splits: split ends

◇ SYNONYMS: broken, cracked, fractured, ruptured, cleft split second n

1 an extremely short period of time; instant

► adj split-second

2 made in an extremely short time: split-second timing splodge or (US) splotch n

1 a large uneven spot or stain

► vb splodging, splodged

2 to mark (something) with a splodge or splodges splurge n

1 a bout of spending money extravagantly

► vb splurging, splurged

2 (foll. by on) to spend (money) extravagantly: they rushed out to splurge their pocket money on chocolate

splutter vb

1 to spit out (something) from the mouth when choking or laughing

2 to say (words) with spitting sounds when choking or in a rage

3 to throw out or to be thrown out explosively: sparks spluttered from the fire

► n

4 the act or noise of spluttering spoil vb spoiling, spoilt or spoiled

1 to make (something) less valuable, beautiful, or useful

◇ SYNONYMS: ruin, destroy, wreck, damage, injure, harm, mar, trash (slang), crool or cruel (Austral slang)

2 to weaken the character of (a child) by giving it all it wants

◇ SYNONYMS: overindulge, indulge, pamper, cosset, coddle, mollycoddle

3 (of oneself) to indulge one's desires: go ahead and spoil yourself

◇ SYNONYMS: indulge, pamper, satisfy, gratify, pander to 4 (of food) to become unfit for consumption

◇ SYNONYMS: go bad, turn, go off (Brit informal), rot, decay, decompose, curdle, addle

5 be spoiling for to have an aggressive urge for: he is spoiling for a fight

► See also spoils spoils pl n

1 valuables seized during war

◇ SYNONYMS: booty, loot, plunder, prey, swag (slang)

2 the rewards and benefits of having political power spoilsport n (informal) a person who spoils the enjoyment of other people spoke¹ vb the past tense of speak spoke² n

1 a bar joining the centre of a wheel to the rim

2 put a spoke in someone's wheel (Brit & NZ) to create a difficulty for someone spoken vb

1 the past participle of speak

► adj

2 said in speech: spoken commands

◇ SYNONYMS: verbal, voiced, expressed, uttered, oral, said, told, unwritten

3 having speech as specified: quiet-spoken

4 spoken for engaged or reserved spokesman or spokesperson or spokeswoman n, pl -men, -people or -women a person chosen to speak on behalf of another person or group

◇ SYNONYMS: speaker, official, voice, spin doctor (informal), mouthpiece spoliation n the act or an instance of plundering: the spoliation of the countryside sponge n

1 a sea animal with a porous absorbent elastic skeleton

2 the skeleton of a sponge, or a piece of artificial sponge, used for bathing or cleaning

3 a soft absorbent material like a sponge

4 Also called: sponge cake a light cake made of eggs, sugar, and flour

5 Also called: sponge pudding (Brit & Austral) a light steamed or baked spongy pudding

6 a rub with a wet sponge

► vb sponging, sponged

7 (often foll. by down) to clean (something) by rubbing it with a wet sponge

8 to remove (marks) by rubbing them with a wet sponge

9 (usually foll. by off or on) to get (something) from someone by taking advantage of his or her generosity: stop sponging off the rest of us!

> spongy adj

sponger n (informal, derogatory) a person who lives off other people by continually taking advantage of their generosity sponsor n

1 a person or group that promotes another person or group in an activity or the activity itself, either for profit or for charity

◇ SYNONYMS: backer, patron, promoter

2 (chiefly US & Canad) a person or firm that pays the costs of a radio or television programme in return for advertising time

3 a person who presents and supports a proposal or suggestion

4 a person who makes certain promises on behalf of a person being baptized and takes responsibility for his or her Christian upbringing

► vb

5 to act as a sponsor for (someone or something)

◇ SYNONYMS: back, fund, finance, promote, subsidize, patronize > sponsored adj

> sponsorship n

spontaneous adj

1 not planned or arranged; impulsive: a spontaneous celebration

◇ SYNONYMS: unplanned, impromptu, unprompted, willing, natural, voluntary, instinctive, impulsive

2 occurring through natural processes without outside influence: a spontaneous explosion > spontaneously adv

> spontaneity n

spoof (informal) n

1 an imitation of a film, TV programme, etc., that exaggerates in an amusing way the most memorable features of the original

2 a good-humoured trick or deception

► vb

3 to fool (a person) with a trick or deception spook (informal) n

1 a ghost

2 a strange and frightening person

► vb

3 to frighten: it was the wind that spooked her > spooky adj

spool n a cylinder around which film, thread, or tape can be wound spoon n

1 a small shallow bowl attached to a handle, used for eating, stirring, or serving food

2 be born with a silver spoon in one's mouth to be born into a very rich and respected family

► vb

3 to scoop up (food or liquid) with a spoon

4 (old-fashioned, slang) to kiss and cuddle spoonbill n a wading bird with a long flat bill spoonerism n the accidental changing over of the first sounds of a pair of words, often with an amusing result, such as hush my brat for brush my hat

spoon-feed vb -feeding, -fed

1 to feed (someone, usually a baby) using a spoon

2 to give (someone) too much help spoor n the trail of an animal sporadic adj happening at irregular intervals; intermittent: sporadic bursts of gunfire > sporadically adv

spore n a reproductive body, produced by nonflowering plants and bacteria, that develops into a new individual sporrán n a large pouch worn hanging from a belt in front of the kilt in Scottish Highland dress sport n

1 an activity for exercise, pleasure, or competition: your favourite sport

◇ SYNONYMS: game, exercise, recreation, play, amusement, diversion, pastime

2 such activities collectively: the minister for sport

◇ SYNONYMS: game, exercise, recreation, play, amusement, diversion, pastime

3 the enjoyment gained from a pastime: just for the sport of it

4 playful or good-humoured joking: I only did it in sport

◇ SYNONYMS: fun, joking, teasing, banter, jest, badinage

5 (informal) a person who accepts defeat or teasing cheerfully

6 make sport of someone to make fun of someone

7 an animal or plant that is very different from others of the same species, usually because of a mutation

8 (Austral & NZ informal) a term of address between males

► vb

9 (informal) to wear proudly: sporting a pair of bright yellow shorts

◇ SYNONYMS: wear, display, flaunt, exhibit, flourish, show off, vaunt sporting adj

1 of sport

2 behaving in a fair and decent way

◇ SYNONYMS: fair, sportsmanlike, game (informal)

3 a sporting chance reasonable likelihood of happening: a sporting chance of winning sportive adj playful or high-spirited sports car n a fast car with a low body and usually seating only two people sports jacket n a man's jacket, resembling a suit jacket. Also called (US, Austral & NZ): sports coat sportsman n, pl -men

1 a man who plays sports

2 a person who plays by the rules, is fair, and accepts defeat with good humour > sportsman-like adj > sportsmanship n

sporty adj sportier, sportiest

1 (of a person) interested in sport

◇ SYNONYMS: athletic, outdoor, energetic

2 (of clothes) suitable for sport

3 (of a car) small and fast > sportily adv > sportiness n

spot n

1 a small mark on a surface, which has a different colour or texture from its surroundings

◇ SYNONYMS: mark, stain, speck, scar, blot, smudge, blemish, speckle

2 a location: a spot where they could sit

◇ SYNONYMS: place, site, point, position, scene, location

3 a small mark or pimple on the skin

◇ SYNONYMS: pimple, pustule, zit (slang)

4 a feature of something that has the attribute mentioned: the one bright spot in his whole day; the high spot of our trip

5 (informal) a small amount: a spot of bother

6 (informal) an awkward situation: I'm sometimes in a spot

◇ SYNONYMS: predicament, trouble, difficulty, mess, plight, hot water (informal), quandary, tight spot

7 a part of a show, TV programme, etc., reserved for a specific performer or type of entertainment

8 short for spotlight

9 in a tight spot in a difficult situation

10 knock spots off someone to be much better than someone

11 on the spot

A immediately: he decided on the spot to fly down

B at the place in question: the expert weapons man on the spot

C in an awkward situation: the British government will be put on the spot

12 soft spot a special affection for someone: a soft spot for older men

► vb spotting, spotted

13 to see (something or someone) suddenly

◇ SYNONYMS: see, observe, catch sight of, sight, recognize, detect, make out, discern

14 to put stains or spots on (something)

◇ SYNONYMS: mark, stain, soil, dirty, fleck, spatter, speckle, splodge

15 (of some fabrics) to be prone to marking by liquids: silk spots easily

16 to take note of (the numbers of trains or planes observed)

17 (of scouts, agents, etc.) to look out for (talented but unknown actors, sportspersons, etc.)

18 (Brit) to rain lightly spot check n a quick unplanned inspection spotless adj

1 perfectly clean

2 free from moral flaws: a spotless reputation > spotlessly adv

spotlight n

1 a powerful light focused so as to light up a small area

2 the spotlight the centre of attention: the spotlight moved to the president

◇ SYNONYMS: attention, limelight, public eye, fame

► vb -lighting, -lit or -lighted

3 to direct a spotlight on (something)

4 to focus attention on (something)

◇ SYNONYMS: highlight, draw attention to, accentuate spot-on adj (informal) absolutely correct; very accurate: they're spot-on in terms of style

spotty adj -tier, -tiest

1 covered with spots or pimples

2 not consistent; irregular in quality: a rather spotty performance > spottiness n

spouse n a person's partner in marriage

◇ SYNONYMS: partner, mate, husband or wife, consort, significant other (informal, chiefly US)

spout vb

1 (of a liquid or flames) to pour out in a stream or jet

2 (informal) to talk about (something) in a boring way or without much thought

► n

3 a projecting tube or lip for pouring liquids

4 a stream or jet of liquid: a spout of steaming water

5 up the spout (slang)

A ruined or lost: the motor industry is up the spout

B pregnant

sprain vb

1 to injure (a joint) by a sudden twist

► n

2 this injury, which causes swelling and temporary disability sprang vb a past tense of spring sprat n a small edible fish like a herring sprawl vb

1 to sit or lie with one's arms and legs spread out

◇ SYNONYMS: loll, slump, lounge, flop, slouch

2 to spread out untidily over a large area: the pulp mill sprawled over the narrow flats

► n

3 the part of a city or town that has not been planned and spreads out untidily over a large area: the huge Los Angeles sprawl

> sprawling adj

spray¹ n

1 fine drops of a liquid

◇ SYNONYMS: droplets, fine mist, drizzle

2

A a liquid under pressure designed to be discharged in fine drops from an aerosol or atomizer: hair spray

B the aerosol or atomizer itself

◇ SYNONYMS: aerosol, sprinkler, atomizer

3 a number of small objects flying through the air: a spray of bullets

► vb

4 to scatter in fine drops

◇ SYNONYMS: scatter, shower, sprinkle, diffuse

5 to squirt (a liquid) from an aerosol or atomizer

6 to cover with a spray: spray the crops > sprayer n

spray² n

1 a sprig or branch with buds, leaves, flowers, or berries

◇ SYNONYMS: sprig, floral arrangement, branch, corsage

2 an ornament or design like this spray gun n a device for spraying fine drops of paint, etc.

spread vb spreading, spread

1 to open out or unfold to the fullest width: spread the material out

◇ SYNONYMS: open (out), extend, stretch, unfold, sprawl, unroll

2 to extend over a larger expanse: the subsequent unrest spread countrywide

◇ SYNONYMS: grow, increase, expand, widen, escalate, proliferate, multiply, broaden

3 to apply as a coating: spread the paste evenly over your skin

4 to be displayed to its fullest extent: the shining bay spread out below

◇ SYNONYMS: extend, open, stretch

5 to send or be sent out in all directions or to many people: the news spread quickly; the sandflies that spread the disease

◇ SYNONYMS: circulate, broadcast, propagate, disseminate, make known

6 to distribute or be distributed evenly: we were advised to spread the workload over the whole year

7 spread out (of people) to increase the distance between one another (to widen the scope of a search, for example)

► n

8 a spreading; distribution, dispersion, or expansion: the spread of higher education

◇ SYNONYMS: increase, development, advance, expansion, proliferation, dissemination, dispersal

9 (informal) a large meal

10 (informal) the wingspan of an aircraft or bird

◇ SYNONYMS: extent, span, stretch, sweep

11 (informal, chiefly US & Canada) a ranch or other large area of land

12 a soft food which can be spread: cheese spread

13 two facing pages in a book or magazine

14 a widening of the hips and waist: middle-age spread spread-eagled adj with arms and legs outstretched spreadsheet n a computer program for manipulating figures, used mainly for financial planning spree n a session of overindulgence, usually in drinking or spending money sprig n

1 a shoot, twig, or sprout

2 an ornamental device like this

3 (NZ) a stud on the sole of a soccer or rugby boot > sprigged adj sprightly adj -liver, -liest lively and active > sprightliness n

spring vb springing, sprang or sprung, sprung

1 to jump suddenly upwards or forwards

◇ SYNONYMS: jump, bound, leap, bounce, vault

2 to return or be returned into natural shape from a forced position by elasticity: the coil sprang back

◇ SYNONYMS: jump, bound, leap, bounce, vault

3 to cause (something) to happen unexpectedly: the national coach sprang a surprise

4 (usually foll. by from) to originate; be descended: this motivation springs from their inborn curiosity; Truman sprang from ordinary people

◇ SYNONYMS: originate, come, derive, start, issue, proceed, arise, stem

5 (often foll. by up) to come into being or appear suddenly: new courses will spring up

6 to provide (something, such as a mattress) with springs

7 (informal) to arrange the escape of (someone) from prison

► n

8 the season between winter and summer

9 a leap or jump

10 a coil which can be compressed, stretched, or bent and then return to its original shape when released

11 a natural pool forming the source of a stream

12 elasticity

◇ SYNONYMS: flexibility, bounce, resilience, elasticity, buoyancy > springlike adj

springboard n

1 a flexible board used to gain height or momentum in diving or gymnastics

2 anything that makes it possible for an activity to begin: the meeting acted as a springboard for future negotiations

springbok n, pl -bok or -boks

1 a S African antelope which moves in leaps

2 a person who has represented S Africa in a national sports team spring-clean vb

1 to clean (a house) thoroughly, traditionally at the end of winter

► n

2 an instance of this > spring-cleaning n

spring tide n either of the two tides at or just after new moon and full moon: the greatest rise and fall in tidal level springy adj springier, springiest (of an object) having the quality of returning to its original shape after being pressed or pulled > springiness n

sprinkle vb -kling, -kled

1 to scatter (liquid or powder) in tiny drops over (something)

◇ SYNONYMS: scatter, dust, strew, pepper, shower, spray, powder, dredge

2 to distribute over (something): a dozen mud huts sprinkled around it > sprinkler n

sprinkling n a small quantity or amount: a sprinkling of diamonds

◇ SYNONYMS: scattering, dusting, few, dash, handful, sprinkle sprint n

1 (athletics)

A a short race run at top speed

B a fast run at the end of a longer race

2 any quick run

► vb

3 to run or cycle a short distance at top speed

◇ SYNONYMS: run, race, shoot, tear, dash, dart, hare (Brit informal) > sprinter n

sprite n

1 (in folklore) a fairy or elf

2 an icon in a computer game which can be manoeuvred around the screen sprocket n

1 Also called: sprocket wheel a wheel with teeth on the rim, that drives or is driven by a chain

2 a cylindrical wheel with teeth on one or both rims for pulling film through an analogue camera or projector sprout vb

1 (of a plant or seed) to produce (new leaves or shoots)

◇ SYNONYMS: germinate, bud, shoot, spring

2 (often foll. by up) to begin to grow or develop

◇ SYNONYMS: grow, develop, ripen

► n

3 a new shoot or bud

4 same as Brussels sprout spruce¹ n

1 an evergreen pyramid-shaped tree with needle-like leaves

2 the light-coloured wood of this tree spruce² adj neat and smart spruce up vb sprucing, spruced to make neat and smart sprung vb a past tense and the past participle of spring spry adj spryer, spryest or sprier, spriest active and lively; nimble spud n (informal) a potato spume n (literary)

1 foam or froth on the sea

► vb spuming, spumed

2 (of the sea) to foam or froth spun vb

1 the past of spin

► adj

2 made by spinning: spun sugar; spun silk

spunk n

1 (old-fashioned, informal) courage or spirit

2 (chiefly Brit vulgar, slang) semen

3 (Austral & NZ informal) a sexually attractive person, esp. a male > spunky adj

spur n

1 an incentive to get something done

◇ SYNONYMS: stimulus, incentive, impetus, motive, impulse, inducement, incitement

2 a sharp spiked wheel on the heel of a rider's boot used to urge the horse on 3 a sharp horny part sticking out from a cock's leg

4 a ridge sticking out from a mountain side

5 on the spur of the moment suddenly and without planning; on impulse

◇ SYNONYMS on the spur of the moment: on impulse, impulsively, on the spot, impromptu, without planning

6 win one's spurs to prove one's ability

► vb spurring, spurred

7 (often foll. by on) to encourage (someone)

◇ SYNONYMS: incite, drive, prompt, urge, stimulate, animate, prod, prick spurge n a plant with milky sap and small flowers spurious adj not genuine or real spurn vb to reject (a person or thing) with contempt

◇ SYNONYMS: reject, slight, scorn, rebuff, snub, despise, disdain, repulse spurt vb

1 to gush or cause (something) to gush out in a sudden powerful stream or jet

2 to make a sudden effort

► n

3 a short burst of activity, speed, or energy

4 a sudden powerful stream or jet sputnik n a Russian artificial satellite sputter vb, n same as splutter sputum n, pl -ta saliva, usually mixed with mucus spy n, pl spies

1 a person employed to find out secret information about other countries or organizations

◇ SYNONYMS: undercover agent, mole, nark (Brit & Austral & NZ slang)

2 a person who secretly keeps watch on others

► vb spies, spying, spied

3 (foll. by on) to keep a secret watch on someone

4 to work as a spy

5 to catch sight of (someone or something); notice

◇ SYNONYMS: catch sight of, spot, notice, observe, glimpse, espy spyware n software surreptitiously installed in a computer via the internet to gather and transmit information about the user

sq. square

squabble vb -bling, -bled

1 to quarrel over a small matter

◇ SYNONYMS: quarrel, fight, argue, row, dispute, wrangle, bicker

► n

2 a petty quarrel

◇ SYNONYMS: quarrel, fight, row, argument, dispute, disagreement, tiff squad n

1 the smallest military formation, usually a dozen soldiers

2 any small group of people working together: the fraud squad

◇ SYNONYMS: team, group, band, company, force, troop, crew, gang

3 (sport) a number of players from which a team is to be selected squadron n the basic unit of an air force squalid adj

1 dirty, untidy, and in bad condition

2 unpleasant, selfish, and often dishonest: this squalid affair squall¹ n a sudden strong wind or short violent storm squall² vb

1 to cry noisily; yell

► n

2 a noisy cry or yell squalor n

1 dirty, poor, and untidy physical conditions

2 the condition of being squalid squander vb to waste (money or resources)

◇ SYNONYMS: waste, spend, fritter away, blow (slang), misuse, expend, misspend square n

1 a geometric figure with four equal sides and four right angles

2 anything of this shape

3 an open area in a town bordered by buildings or streets

4 (maths) the number produced when a number is multiplied by itself: 9 is the square of 3, written 3²

5 (informal) a person who is dull or unfashionable

6 go back to square one to return to the start because of failure or lack of progress

► adj

7 being a square in shape

8

A having the same area as that of a square with sides of a specified length:
2,500 square metres of hillside

B denoting a square having a specified length on each side: a cell of only four square metres

9 straight or level: I don't think that painting is square

10 fair and honest: a square deal

◇ SYNONYMS: fair, straight, genuine, ethical, honest, on the level (informal), kosher (informal), dinkum (Austral & NZ informal), above board

11 (informal) dull or unfashionable

12 having all debts or accounts settled: if I give you a pound, then we'll be square

13 all square on equal terms; even in score

14 square peg in a round hole (informal) a misfit

► vb squaring, squared

15 (maths) to multiply (a number or quantity) by itself

16 to position so as to be straight or level: bravely he squared his shoulders

17 to settle (a debt or account)

18 to level the score in (a game)

19 to be or cause to be consistent: it would not have squared with her image

◇ SYNONYMS: agree, match, fit, correspond, tally, reconcile

► adv

20 (informal) same as squarely square dance n a country dance in which the couples are arranged in squares squarely adv

1 directly; straight: he looked her squarely in the eye

2 in an honest and frank way: you should face squarely anything that worries you square meal n a meal which is large enough to leave the eater feeling full: we gave him his first square meal in days square root n a number that when multiplied by itself gives a given number:

the square roots of 4 are 2 and -2 squash¹ vb

1 to press or squeeze (something) so as to flatten it

◇ SYNONYMS: crush, press, flatten, mash, smash, distort, pulp, compress

2 to overcome (a difficult situation), often with force

◇ SYNONYMS: suppress, quell, silence, crush, annihilate

3 squash in or into to push or force (oneself or a thing) into a confined space

4 to humiliate (someone) with a sarcastic reply

◇ SYNONYMS: embarrass, put down, shame, degrade, mortify

► n

5 (Brit & Austral) a drink made from fruit juice or fruit syrup diluted with water

6 a crowd of people in a confined space

7 Also called: squash rackets a game for two players played in an enclosed court with a small rubber ball and long-handled rackets squash² n, pl squashes or squash (chiefly US & Canad) a marrow-like vegetable squashy adj squashier, squashiest soft and easily squashed squat vb squatting, squatted

1 to crouch with the knees bent and the weight on the feet

2 (law) to occupy an unused building to which one has no legal right

► adj

3 short and thick

► n

4 a building occupied by squatters squatter n an illegal occupier of an unused building squaw n (offensive) a Native American woman of N America squawk n

1 a loud harsh cry, esp. one made by a bird

2 (informal) a loud complaint

► vb

3 to make a squawk squeak n

1 a short high-pitched cry or sound

2 a narrow squeak (informal) a narrow escape or success

► vb

3 to make a squeak

4 squeak through or by to pass (an examination), but only just > squeaky adj

> squeakiness n

squeal n

1 a long high-pitched yelp

► vb

2 to make a squeal

3 (slang) to inform on someone to the police

4 (informal, chiefly Brit) to complain loudly > squealer n

squeamish adj easily shocked or upset by unpleasant sights or events squeegee n a tool with a rubber blade used for wiping away excess water from a surface squeeze vb squeezing, squeezed

1 to grip or press (something) firmly

◇ SYNONYMS: press, crush, squash, pinch

2 to crush or press (something) so as to extract (a liquid): squeeze the tomato and strain the juice; freshly squeezed lemon juice

3 to push (oneself or a thing) into a confined space

◇ SYNONYMS: cram, press, crowd, force, stuff, pack, jam, ram

4 to hug (someone) closely

◇ SYNONYMS: hug, embrace, cuddle, clasp, enfold

5 to obtain (something) by great effort or force: to squeeze the last dollar out of every deal

► n

6 a squeezing

◇ SYNONYMS: press, grip, clasp, crush, pinch, squash, wring

7 a hug

◇ SYNONYMS: hug, embrace, clasp

8 a crush of people in a confined space

◇ SYNONYMS: crush, jam, squash, press, crowd, congestion

9 (chiefly Brit & NZ) a restriction on borrowing made by a government to control price inflation

10 an amount extracted by squeezing: a squeeze of lime

11 put the squeeze on someone (informal) to put pressure on someone in order to obtain something snivel vb

1 to make a wet sucking noise, such as by walking through mud

2 (informal) to silence (someone) with a sarcastic or wounding reply

► n

3 a sniveling sound > snivel adj

snort n

1 a firework that burns with a hissing noise before exploding

2 damp snort something expected to be exciting or successful but turning out to be a disappointment squid n, pl squid or squids a sea creature with ten tentacles and a long soft body squiggle n a wavy line > squiggly adj

squint vb

1 to have eyes which face in different directions

2 to glance sideways

► n

3 an eye disorder in which one or both eyes turn inwards or outwards from the nose

4 (informal) a quick look; glance: take a squint at the map

► adj

5 (informal) not straight; crooked squire n

1 a country gentleman in England, usually the main landowner in a country community

2 (informal, chiefly Brit) a term of address used by one man to another

3 (history) a knight's young attendant

► vb squiring, squired

4 (old-fashioned) (of a man) to escort (a woman) squirm vb

1 to wriggle

2 to feel embarrassed or guilty

► n

3 a wriggling movement squirrel n a small bushy-tailed animal that lives in trees squirt vb

1 to force (a liquid) or (of a liquid) to be forced out of a narrow opening

2 to cover or spatter (a person or thing) with liquid in this way

► n

3 a jet of liquid

4 a squirting

5 (informal) a small or insignificant person squish vb

1 to crush (something) with a soft squelching sound

2 to make a squelching sound

► n

3 a soft squelching sound > squishy adj

Sr

1 (after a name) senior

2 Señor

3 (chem) strontium

SS

1 an organization in the Nazi Party that provided Hitler's bodyguard, security forces, and concentration-camp guards

2 steamship

SSL (computers) secure sockets layer: a protocol for encrypting and transmitting sensitive data securely over the internet

St

1 Saint

2 Street

st. stone

stab vb stabbing, stabbed

1 to pierce with a sharp pointed instrument

◇ SYNONYMS: pierce, stick, wound, knife, thrust, spear, jab, transfix

2 (often foll. by at) to make a thrust (at); jab

3 stab someone in the back to do harm to someone by betraying him or her

► n

4 a stabbing

5 a sudden, usually unpleasant, sensation: a stab of jealousy

◇ SYNONYMS: twinge, prick, pang, ache

6 (informal) an attempt: you've got to have a stab at it

◇ SYNONYMS: attempt, go (informal), try, endeavour

7 stab in the back an act of betrayal that harms a person > stabbing n

stability n the quality of being stable: the security and stability of married life

◇ SYNONYMS: firmness, strength, soundness, solidity, steadiness stabilize or -lize vb -lizing, -lized or -lising, -lised to make or become stable or more stable > stabilization or -lisation n stabilizer or -liser n

1 a device for stabilizing a child's bicycle, an aircraft, or a ship

2 a substance added to food to preserve its texture stable¹ n

1 a building where horses are kept

2 an organization that breeds and trains racehorses

3 an organization that manages or trains several entertainers or athletes

► vb -bling, -bled

4 to put or keep (a horse) in a stable stable² adj

1 steady in position or balance; firm

◇ SYNONYMS: solid, firm, fixed, substantial, durable, well-made, well-built, immovable

2 lasting and not likely to experience any sudden changes: a stable environment

◇ SYNONYMS: secure, lasting, strong, sound, fast, sure, established, permanent

3 having a calm personality; not prone to changes in mood

◇ SYNONYMS: well-balanced, balanced, sensible, reasonable, rational

4 (physics) (of an elementary particle) not subject to decay

5 (chem) (of a chemical compound) not easily decomposed staccato (stak-ah-toe) adj

1 (music) (of notes) short and separate

2 consisting of short abrupt sounds: the staccato sound of high heels on the stairs

► adv

3 in a staccato manner

stack n

1 a pile of things, one on top of the other

◇ SYNONYMS: pile, heap, mountain, mass, load (informal), mound

2 a large neat pile of hay or straw

3 stacks a large amount: there's still stacks for us to do

4 an area in a computer memory for temporary storage

► vb

5 to place (things) in a stack

◇ SYNONYMS: pile, heap up, load, assemble, accumulate, amass

6 to load or fill (something) up with piles of objects: Henry was watching her stack the dishwasher

7 to control (a number of aircraft) waiting to land at an airport so that each flies at a different altitude stadium n, pl -diums or -dia a large sports arena with tiered rows of seats for spectators staff n, pl (for senses 1 and 2) staffs, (for senses 3 and 4) staffs or staves

1 the people employed in a company, school, or organization

◇ SYNONYMS: workers, employees, personnel, workforce, team

2 (military) the officers appointed to assist a commander

3 a stick with some special use, such as a walking stick or an emblem of authority

◇ SYNONYMS: stick, pole, rod, crook, cane, stave, wand, sceptre

4 (music) a set of five horizontal lines on which music is written and which, along with a clef, indicates pitch

► vb

5 to provide (a company, school, or organization) with a staff stag n the adult male of a deer stag beetle n a beetle with large branched jaws stage n

1 a step or period of development, growth, or progress

◇ SYNONYMS: step, leg, phase, point, level, period, division, lap

2 the platform in a theatre where actors perform

3 the stage the theatre as a profession

4 the scene of an event or action

5 a part of a journey: the last stage of his tour around France

6 short for stagecoach

7 (Brit & Austral) a division of a bus route for which there is a fixed fare

► vb staging, staged

8 to present (a dramatic production) on stage: to stage 'Hamlet'

9 to organize and carry out (an event) stagecoach n a large four-wheeled horse-drawn vehicle formerly used to carry passengers and mail on a regular route stage fright n feelings of fear and nervousness felt by a person about to appear in front of an audience stage whisper n

1 a loud whisper from an actor, intended to be heard by the audience

2 any loud whisper that is intended to be overheard stagger vb

1 to walk unsteadily

◇ SYNONYMS: totter, reel, sway, lurch, wobble

2 to amaze or shock (someone): it staggered her that there was any liaison between them

◇ SYNONYMS: astound, amaze, stun, shock, shake, overwhelm, astonish, confound

3 to arrange (events) so as not to happen at the same time: staggered elections

► n

4 a staggering > staggering adj

> staggeringly adv

stagnant adj

1 (of water) stale from not moving

2 unsuccessful or dull from lack of change or development stagnate vb -nating, -nated to become inactive or unchanging: people in old age only stagnate when they have no interests

> stagnation n

stag night or stag party n (informal) a party for men only, held for a man who is about to get married stagy or (US) stagey adj stagier, stagiest too theatrical or dramatic staid adj serious, rather dull, and old-fashioned in behaviour or appearance stain vb

1 to discolour (something) with marks that are not easily removed

◇ SYNONYMS: mark, soil, discolour, dirty, tinge, spot, blot, blemish

2 to dye (something) with a lasting pigment

◇ SYNONYMS: dye, colour, tint

► n

3 a mark or discoloration that is not easily removed

◇ SYNONYMS: mark, spot, blot, blemish, discoloration, smirch

4 an incident in someone's life that has damaged his or her reputation: a stain on his character

◇ SYNONYMS: stigma, shame, disgrace, slur, dishonour

5 a liquid used to penetrate the surface of a material, such as wood, and colour it without covering up the surface or grain

◇ SYNONYMS: dye, colour, tint

stainless steel n a type of steel that does not rust, as it contains large amounts of chromium staircase n a flight of stairs, usually with a handrail or banisters stairs pl n a flight of steps going from one level to another, usually indoors stake¹ n

1 a stick or metal bar driven into the ground as part of a fence or as a support or marker

◇ SYNONYMS: pole, post, stick, pale, paling, picket, palisade

2 be burned at the stake to be executed by being tied to a stake in the centre of a pile of wood that is then set on fire

► vb staking, staked

3 to lay (a claim) to land or rights

4 to support (something, such as a plant) with a stake stake² n

1 the money that a player must risk in order to take part in a gambling game or make a bet

◇ SYNONYMS: bet, ante, wager

2 an interest, usually financial, held in something: a 50% stake in a new consortium

◇ SYNONYMS: interest, share, involvement, concern, investment

3 at stake at risk

4 stakes

A the money that a player has available for gambling

B a prize in a race or contest

C a horse race in which all owners of competing horses contribute to the prize

► vb staking, staked

5 to risk (something, such as money) on a result

◇ SYNONYMS: bet, gamble, wager, chance, risk, venture, hazard

6 to give financial support to (a business) stakeholder n

1 a person or group not owning shares in an enterprise but having an interest in its operations, such as the employees, customers, or local community

► adj

2 relating to policies intended to allow people to participate in decisions made by enterprises in which they have a stake: stakeholder economy

stalactite n an icicle-shaped mass of calcium carbonate hanging from the roof of a cave: formed by continually dripping water stalagmite n a large pointed mass of calcium carbonate sticking up from the floor of a cave: formed by continually dripping water from a stalactite stale adj

1 (esp. of food) no longer fresh, having being kept too long

◇ SYNONYMS: old, hard, dry, decayed

2 (of air) stagnant and having an unpleasant smell

◇ SYNONYMS: musty, fusty

3 lacking in enthusiasm or ideas through overwork or lack of variety

4 uninteresting from having been done or seen too many times: such achievements now seem stale today

◇ SYNONYMS: unoriginal, banal, trite, stereotyped, worn-out, threadbare, hackneyed, overused

5 no longer new: her war had become stale news > staleness n

stalemate n

- 1 a chess position in which any of a player's moves would place his king in check: in this position the game ends in a draw
- 2 a situation in which further action by two opposing forces is impossible or will not achieve anything; deadlock

stalk¹ n

- 1 the main stem of a plant
- 2 a stem that joins a leaf or flower to the main stem of a plant stalk² vb

- 1 to follow (an animal or person) quietly and secretly in order to catch or kill them ◇ SYNONYMS: pursue, follow, track, hunt, shadow, haunt
- 2 to pursue persistently and, sometimes, attack (a person with whom one is obsessed)
- 3 to spread over (a place) in a menacing way: danger stalked the streets
- 4 to walk in an angry, arrogant, or stiff way > stalker n

stalking-horse n something or someone used to hide a true purpose; pretext stall¹ n

- 1 a small stand for the display and sale of goods ◇ SYNONYMS: stand, table, counter, booth, kiosk
- 2 a compartment in a stable or shed for a single animal
- 3 any small room or compartment: a shower stall
► vb
- 4 to stop (a motor vehicle or its engine) or (of a motor vehicle or its engine) to stop, by incorrect use of the clutch or incorrect adjustment of the fuel mixture ◇ SYNONYMS: stop dead, jam, seize up, catch, stick, stop short stall² vb to employ delaying tactics towards (someone); be evasive

- ◇ SYNONYMS: play for time, delay, hedge, temporize stallion n an uncastrated male horse, usually used for breeding stalwart (stawl-wart) adj

1 strong and sturdy

◇ SYNONYMS: strong, strapping, sturdy, stout

2 loyal and reliable

◇ SYNONYMS: loyal, faithful, firm, true, dependable, steadfast

► n

3 a hard-working and loyal supporter: local party stalwarts stamen n the part of a flower that produces pollen stamina n energy and strength sustained while performing an activity over a long time

◇ SYNONYMS: staying power, endurance, resilience, force, power, energy, strength

stammer vb

1 to speak or say (something) with involuntary pauses or repetition, as a result of a speech disorder or through fear or nervousness

◇ SYNONYMS: stutter, falter, pause, hesitate, stumble over your words

► n

2 a speech disorder characterized by involuntary repetitions and pauses stamp n

1 a printed paper label attached to a piece of mail to show that the required postage has been paid

2 a token issued by a shop or business after a purchase that can be saved and exchanged for other goods sold by that shop or business

3 the action or an act of stamping

4 an instrument for stamping a design or words

5 a design, device, or mark that has been stamped

◇ SYNONYMS: imprint, mark, brand, signature, earmark, hallmark

6 a characteristic feature: the stamp of inevitability

7 type or class: men of his stamp

► vb

8 (often foll. by on) to bring (one's foot) down heavily

◇ SYNONYMS: trample, step, tread, crush

9 to walk with heavy or noisy footsteps

10 to characterize: a performance that stamped him as a star

◇ SYNONYMS: identify, mark, brand, label, reveal, show to be, categorize

11 stamp on to subdue or restrain: all of which have stamped on dissent

12 to impress or mark (a pattern or sign) on ◇ SYNONYMS: print, mark, impress

13 to mark (something) with an official seal or device

14 to have a strong effect on: a picture vividly stamped on memory

15 to stick a stamp on (an envelope or parcel) stampede n

1 a sudden rush of frightened animals or of a crowd

► vb -peding, -peded

2 to run away in a stampede stamping ground n a favourite meeting place stamp out vb

1 to put an end to (something) by force; suppress: an attempt to stamp out democracy

◇ SYNONYMS stamp something out: eliminate, destroy, eradicate, crush, suppress, put down, scotch, quell

2 to put out by stamping: I stamped out my cigarette stance n

1 an attitude towards a particular matter: a tough stance in the trade talks

◇ SYNONYMS: attitude, stand, position, viewpoint, standpoint

2 the manner and position in which a person stands

◇ SYNONYMS: posture, carriage, bearing, deportment

3 (sport) the position taken when about to play the ball stanch (stahnch) vb same as staunch stanchion n a vertical pole or bar used as a support stand vb standing, stood

1 to be upright

◇ SYNONYMS: be upright, be erect, be vertical

2 to rise to an upright position

◇ SYNONYMS: get to your feet, rise, stand up, straighten up

3 to place (something) upright

◇ SYNONYMS: put, place, position, set, mount

4 to be situated: the property stands in a prime position

◇ SYNONYMS: be located, be, sit, be positioned, be situated or located

5 to have a specified height when standing: the structure stands sixty feet above the river

6 to be in a specified position: Turkey stands to gain handsomely

7 to be in a specified state or condition: how he stands in comparison to others

8 to remain unchanged or valid: the Conservatives were forced to let much of the legislation stand

◇ SYNONYMS: be valid, continue, exist, prevail, remain valid

9 stand at (of a score or an account) to be in the specified position: now the total stands at nine

10 to tolerate or bear: Christopher can't stand him

◇ SYNONYMS: tolerate, bear, abide, stomach, endure, brook

11 to survive: stand the test of time

◇ SYNONYMS: resist, endure, tolerate, stand up to 12 (often foll. by for) to be a candidate: to stand for president

13 (informal) to buy: to stand someone a drink

14 stand a chance to have a chance of succeeding 15 stand one's ground to maintain a position in the face of opposition

16 stand to reason to be obvious or logical: it stands to reason you will play better

17 stand trial to be tried in a law court

► n

18 a stall or counter selling goods: the hot dog stand

◇ SYNONYMS: stall, booth, kiosk, table

19 a structure at a sports ground where people can sit or stand

20 the act or an instance of standing

21 a firmly held opinion: its firm stand on sanctions

◇ SYNONYMS: position, attitude, stance, opinion, determination

22 (US & Austral) a place in a law court where a witness stands

23 a rack on which coats and hats may be hung

24 a base, support, or piece of furniture in or on which articles may be held or stored: a guitar stand

25 an effort to defend oneself or one's beliefs against attack or criticism: a last stand against superior forces

26 (cricket) a long period at the wicket by two batsmen

27 See one-night stand standard n

1 a level of quality: cuisine of a high standard

◇ SYNONYMS: level, grade

2 an accepted example of something against which others are judged or measured: the work was good by any standard

◇ SYNONYMS: criterion, measure, guideline, example, model, average, norm, gauge

3 a moral principle of behaviour

◇ SYNONYMS: principles, ideals, morals, ethics

4 a flag of a nation or cause

◇ SYNONYMS: flag, banner, ensign

5 an upright pole or beam used as a support: a lamp standard

6 a song that has remained popular for many years

► adj

7 of a usual, medium, or accepted kind: a standard cost

◇ SYNONYMS: usual, normal, customary, average, basic, regular, typical, orthodox

8 of recognized authority: a standard reference book

◇ SYNONYMS: accepted, official, established, approved, recognized, definitive, authoritative

9 denoting pronunciations or grammar regarded as correct and acceptable by educated native speakers standardize or -dise vb -dizing, -dized or -dising, -dised to make (things) standard: to standardize the preparation process > standardization or -disation n standard lamp n a tall electric lamp that has a shade and stands on a base stand for vb

1 to represent: AIDS stands for Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome

◇ SYNONYMS stand for something: represent, mean, signify, denote, indicate, symbolize, betoken

2 to support and represent (an idea or a belief): to stand for liberty and truth

3 (informal) to tolerate or bear: I won't stand for this!

◇ SYNONYMS stand for something: tolerate, bear, endure, put up with, brook stand in vb

1 to act as a substitute: she stood in for her father

► n stand-in

2 a person who acts as a substitute for another ◇ SYNONYMS: substitute, deputy, replacement, reserve, surrogate, understudy, locum, stopgap standing adj

1 permanent, fixed, or lasting: it was a standing joke

◇ SYNONYMS: permanent, lasting, fixed, regular

2 used to stand in or on: standing room only

3 (athletics) (of a jump or the start of a race) begun from a standing position

► n

4 social or financial status or reputation: her international standing

◇ SYNONYMS: status, position, footing, rank, reputation, eminence, repute

5 duration: a friendship of at least ten years' standing

◇ SYNONYMS: duration, existence, continuance standoffish adj behaving in a formal and unfriendly way standpipe n (chiefly Brit) a temporary vertical pipe installed in a street and supplying water when household water supplies are cut off standpoint n a point of view from which a matter is considered standstill n a complete stoppage or halt: all traffic came to a standstill

stank vb a past tense of stink stanza n (prosody) a verse of a poem staple¹ n

1 a short length of wire bent into a square U-shape, used to fasten papers or secure things

► vb -pling, -pled

2 to secure (things) with staples staple² adj

1 of prime importance; principal: the staple diet of a country

◇ SYNONYMS: principal, chief, main, key, basic, fundamental, predominant

► n

2 something that forms a main part of the product, consumption, or trade of a region

3 a main constituent of anything: the personal reflections which make up the staple of the book stapler n a device used to fasten things together with a staple star n

1 a planet or meteor visible in the clear night sky as a point of light

◇ SYNONYMS: heavenly body, celestial body

2 a hot gaseous mass, such as the sun, that radiates energy as heat and light, or in some cases as radio waves and X-rays. RELATED ADJECTIVES: astral, sidereal, stellar

◇ SYNONYMS: heavenly body, celestial body

3 stars same as horoscope

4 an emblem with five or more radiating points, often used as a symbol of rank or an award: the RAC awarded the hotel three stars

5 same as asterisk

6 a famous person from the sports, acting, or music professions

◇ SYNONYMS: celebrity, big name, megastar (informal), name, luminary, leading man or lady, hero or heroine, principal, main attraction

7 see stars to see flashes of light after a blow on the head

► vb starring, starred

8 to feature (an actor) or (of an actor) to be featured as a star: he's starred in dozens of films

◇ SYNONYMS: play the lead, appear, feature, perform

9 to mark (something) with a star or stars starboard n

1 the right side of an aeroplane or ship when facing forwards

► adj

2 of or on the starboard starch n

1 a carbohydrate forming the main food element in bread, potatoes, and rice: in solution with water it is used to stiffen fabric

2 food containing a large amount of starch

► vb

3 to stiffen (cloth) with starch starchy adj starchier, starchiest

1 of or containing starch

2 (of a person's behaviour) very formal and humourless stardom n the status of a star in the entertainment or sport world stare vb staring, stared

1 (often foll. by at) to look at for a long time

◇ SYNONYMS: gaze, look, goggle, watch, gape, eyeball (slang), gawp (Brit slang), gawk

2 stare one in the face to be glaringly obvious

► n

3 a long fixed look starfish n, pl -fish or -fishes a star-shaped sea creature with a flat body and five limbs stark adj

1 harsh, unpleasant, and plain: a stark choice

◇ SYNONYMS: plain, harsh, basic, grim, straightforward, blunt

2 grim, desolate, and lacking any beautiful features: the stark landscapes

◇ SYNONYMS: austere, severe, plain, bare, harsh, bare-bones

3 utter; absolute: in stark contrast

◇ SYNONYMS: absolute, pure, sheer, utter, downright, out-and-out, unmitigated

► adv

4 completely: stark staring bonkers

◇ SYNONYMS: absolutely, quite, completely, entirely, altogether, wholly, utterly > starkly adv

> starkness n

starling n a common songbird with shiny blackish feathers and a short tail starry adj -rier, -riest

1 (of a sky or night) full of or lit by stars

2 of or like a star or stars: a starry cast starry-eyed adj full of unrealistic hopes and dreams; naive start vb

1 to begin (something or to do something); come or cause to come into being: to start a war; this conflict started years ago

◇ SYNONYMS: set about, begin, proceed, embark upon, take the first step, make a beginning

2 to set or be set in motion: he started the van

◇ SYNONYMS: start up, activate, get something going

3 to make a sudden involuntary movement from fright or surprise; jump

◇ SYNONYMS: jump, shy, jerk, flinch, recoil

4 to establish; set up: to start a state lottery

◇ SYNONYMS: establish, begin, found, create, launch, set up, institute, pioneer

5 to support (someone) in the first part of a career or activity

6 (Brit informal) to begin quarrelling or causing a disturbance: don't start with me

7 to start with in the first place

► n

8 the first part of something

◇ SYNONYMS: beginning, outset, opening, birth, foundation, dawn (literary), onset, initiation

9 the place or time at which something begins

◇ SYNONYMS: beginning, outset, opening, birth, foundation, dawn (literary), onset, initiation

10 a signal to begin, such as in a race

11 a lead or advantage, either in time or distance, in a competitive activity: he had an hour's start on me

12 a slight involuntary movement from fright or surprise: I awoke with a start

◇ SYNONYMS: jump, spasm, convulsion

13 an opportunity to enter a career or begin a project

14 for a start in the first place starter n

1 (chiefly Brit) the first course of a meal

2 for starters (slang) in the first place

3 a device for starting an internal-combustion engine

4 a person who signals the start of a race

5 a competitor in a race or contest

6 under starter's orders (of competitors in a race) waiting for the signal to start startle vb -tling, -tled to slightly surprise or frighten (someone)

◇ SYNONYMS: surprise, shock, frighten, scare, make (someone) jump > startling adj starve vb starving, starved

1 to die from lack of food

2 to deliberately prevent (a person or animal) from having any food

3 (informal) to be very hungry: we're both starving

4 starve of to deprive (someone) of something needed: the heart is starved of oxygen

5 starve into to force someone into a specified state by starving: an attempt to starve him into submission > starvation n

stash (informal) vb

1 (often foll. by away) (informal) to store (money or valuables) in a secret place for safekeeping

► n

2 a secret store, usually of illegal drugs, or the place where this is hidden state n

1 the condition or circumstances of a person or thing

◇ SYNONYMS: condition, shape

2 a sovereign political power or community

◇ SYNONYMS: country, nation, land, republic, territory, federation, commonwealth, kingdom

3 the territory of such a community

◇ SYNONYMS: country, nation, land, republic, territory, federation, commonwealth, kingdom

4 the sphere of power in such a community: matters of state

5 (often cap) one of a number of areas or communities having their own governments and forming a federation under a sovereign government, such as in the US or Australia

6 (often cap) the government, civil service, and armed forces

◇ SYNONYMS: government, ministry, administration, executive, regime, powers-that-be

- 7 in a state (informal) in an emotional or very worried condition
- 8 lie in state (of a body) to be placed on public view before burial
- 9 state of affairs circumstances or condition: this wonderful state of affairs
- 10 grand and luxurious lifestyle, as enjoyed by royalty, aristocrats, or the wealthy: living in state
- ◇ SYNONYMS: ceremony, glory, grandeur, splendour, majesty, pomp
- adj
- 11 controlled or financed by a state: state ownership
- 12 of or concerning the State: state secrets
- 13 involving ceremony: a state visit
- vb stating, stated
- 14 to express (something) in words
- ◇ SYNONYMS: say, declare, present, voice, express, assert, utter statehouse n (NZ) a rented house built by the government stately adj -lier, -liest having a dignified, impressive, and graceful appearance or manner: the Rolls-Royce approached him at a stately speed

◇ SYNONYMS: grand, majestic, dignified, royal, august, noble, regal, lofty > stateliness n statement n

- 1 something stated, usually a formal prepared announcement or reply
- ◇ SYNONYMS: announcement, declaration, communication, communiqué, proclamation
- 2 (law) a declaration of matters of fact
- ◇ SYNONYMS: account, report
- 3 an account prepared by a bank at regular intervals for a client to show all credits and debits and the balance at the end of the period
- 4 an account containing a summary of bills or invoices and showing the total amount due
- 5 the act of stating stateroom n

- 1 a private room on a ship

2 (chiefly Brit) a large room in a palace, etc., used on ceremonial occasions statesman n, pl -men an experienced and respected political leader > statesmanship n

static adj

1 not active, changing, or moving; stationary

2 (physics) (of a weight, force, or pressure) acting but causing no movement

3 (physics) of forces that do not produce movement

► n

4 hissing or crackling or a speckled picture caused by interference in the reception of radio or television transmissions

5 electric sparks or crackling produced by friction static electricity n same as static statin n (med) any of several drugs that inhibit the production of cholesterol station n

1 a place along a route or line at which a bus or train stops to pick up passengers or goods

◇ SYNONYMS: railway station, stop, stage, halt, terminal, train station, terminus

2 the headquarters of an organization such as the police or fire service

◇ SYNONYMS: headquarters, base, depot (US & Canad)

3 a building with special equipment for some particular purpose: power station; a filling station

4 a television or radio channel

5 (military) a place of duty

6 position in society: he had ideas above his station

◇ SYNONYMS: position, rank, status, standing, post, situation

7 (Austral & NZ) a large sheep or cattle farm

8 the place or position where a person is assigned to stand: every man stood at his station

◇ SYNONYMS: post, place, location, position, situation

► vb

9 to assign (someone) to a station

◇ SYNONYMS: assign, post, locate, set, establish, install stationary adj not moving: a line of stationary traffic stationer n a person or shop selling stationery stationery n writing materials, such as paper, envelopes, and pens station wagon n (US & Austral & NZ) an estate car statistic n a numerical fact collected and classified systematically > statistical adj

> statistically adv

> statistician n

statistics n

1 the science dealing with the collection, classification, and interpretation of numerical information

► pl n

2 numerical information which has been collected, classified, and interpreted statuary n statues collectively statue n a sculpture of a human or animal figure, usually life-size or larger statuesque (stat-yoo-esk) adj (of a woman) tall and well-proportioned; like a classical statue statuette n a small statue stature n

1 the height and size of a person

◇ SYNONYMS: height, build, size

2 the reputation of a person or their achievements: a batsman of international stature

◇ SYNONYMS: importance, standing, prestige, rank, prominence, eminence

3 moral or intellectual distinction status n

1 a person's position in society

◇ SYNONYMS: position, rank, grade

2 the esteem in which people hold a person: priests feel they have lost some of their status in society

◇ SYNONYMS: prestige, standing, authority, influence, weight, honour, importance, fame, mana (NZ)

3 the legal or official standing or classification of a person or country: the status of refugees; Ireland's non-aligned status

◇ SYNONYMS: state of play, development, progress, condition, evolution

4 degree of importance status quo n the existing state of affairs statute n

1 a law made by a government and expressed in a formal document

2 a permanent rule made by a company or other institution statutory adj

1 required or authorized by law

2 (of an offence) declared by law to be punishable staunch¹ adj strong and loyal: a staunch supporter

◇ SYNONYMS: loyal, faithful, stalwart, firm, sound, true, trusty, steadfast > staunchly adv

staunch² or stanch² vb to stop the flow of (blood) from someone's body stave n

1 one of the long strips of wood joined together to form a barrel or bucket

2 a stick carried as a symbol of office

3 a verse of a poem

4 (music) same as staff

► vb staving, stove

5 stave in to burst a hole in (something) stave off vb staving, staved to delay (something) for a short time: to stave off political rebellion

stay¹ vb

1 to continue or remain in a place, position, or condition: to stay away; to stay inside

◇ SYNONYMS: remain, continue to be, linger, stop, wait, halt, pause, abide

2 to lodge as a guest or visitor temporarily: we stay with friends

◇ SYNONYMS: lodge, visit, sojourn (literary), put up at, be accommodated at 3 (Scot & S African) to reside permanently; live

4 to endure (something testing or difficult): you have stayed the course this long

◇ SYNONYMS: continue, remain, go on, survive, endure

► n

5 the period spent in one place

◇ SYNONYMS: visit, stop, holiday, stopover, sojourn (literary)

6 the postponement of an order of a court of law: a stay of execution

◇ SYNONYMS: postponement, delay, suspension, stopping, halt, deferment stay² n something that supports or steadies something, such as a prop or buttress stay³ n a rope or chain supporting a ship's mast or funnel staying power n endurance to complete something undertaken; stamina

STD sexually transmitted disease

stead n

1 stand someone in good stead to be useful to someone in the future

2 (rare) the function or position that should be taken by another: I cannot let you rule in my stead steadfast adj dedicated and unwavering > steadfastly adv

> steadfastness n

steady adj steadier, steadiest

1 firm and not shaking

◇ SYNONYMS: stable, fixed, secure, firm, safe

2 without much change or variation: we're on a steady course

◇ SYNONYMS: regular, established

3 continuous: a steady decline

◇ SYNONYMS: continuous, regular, constant, consistent, persistent, unbroken, uninterrupted, incessant

4 not easily excited; sober

◇ SYNONYMS: dependable, sensible, reliable, secure, calm, supportive, sober, level-headed

5 regular; habitual: the steady drinking of alcohol

◇ SYNONYMS: continuous, regular, constant, consistent, persistent, unbroken, uninterrupted, incessant

► vb steadies, steadying, steadied

6 to make or become steady

► adv

7 in a steady manner

8 go steady (old-fashioned, informal) to date one person regularly

► n, pl steadies

9 (informal) one's regular boyfriend or girlfriend

► interj

10 a warning to keep calm or be careful > steadily adv

> steadiness n

steak n

1 a lean piece of beef for grilling or frying

2 a cut of beef for braising or stewing

3 a thick slice of pork, veal, or fish steal vb stealing, stole, stolen

1 to take (something) from someone without permission or unlawfully

◇ SYNONYMS: take, nick (slang, chiefly Brit), pinch (informal), lift (informal), embezzle, pilfer, misappropriate, purloin

2 to use (someone else's ideas or work) without acknowledgment

◇ SYNONYMS: copy, take, appropriate, pinch (informal), rip (computers)

3 to move quietly and carefully, not wanting to be noticed: my father stole up behind her

◇ SYNONYMS: sneak, slip, creep, tiptoe, slink

4 steal the show (of a performer) to draw the audience's attention to oneself and away from the other performers

5 to obtain or do (something) stealthily: I stole a glance behind

► n

6 (informal) something acquired easily or at little cost stealth n

1 moving carefully and quietly, so as to avoid being seen

◇ SYNONYMS: secrecy, furtiveness, slyness, sneakiness, unobtrusiveness, stealthiness, surreptitiousness

2 cunning or underhand behaviour

◇ SYNONYMS: secrecy, furtiveness, slyness, sneakiness, unobtrusiveness, stealthiness, surreptitiousness

► adj

3 (of technology) able to render an aircraft almost invisible to radar

4 disguised or hidden > stealthy adj

> stealthily adv

steam n

1 the vapour into which water changes when boiled

2 the mist formed when such vapour condenses in the atmosphere

3 (informal) power, energy, or speed

4 let off steam (informal) to release pent-up energy or feelings

5 pick up steam (informal) to gather momentum

► adj

6 operated, heated, or powered by steam: a steam train

► vb

7 to give off steam

8 (of a vehicle) to move by steam power

9 (informal) to proceed quickly and often forcefully

10 to cook (food) in steam

11 to treat (something) with steam, such as in cleaning or pressing clothes

12 steam open or off to use steam in order to open or remove (something): let me steam open this letter steam engine n an engine worked by steam steamer n

1 a boat or ship driven by steam engines

2 a container with holes in the bottom, used to cook food by steam steamroller n

1 a steam-powered vehicle with heavy rollers used for flattening road surfaces during road-making

► vb

2 to make (someone) do what one wants by overpowering force steed n (archaic, literary) a horse steel n

1 an alloy of iron and carbon, often with small quantities of other elements

2 a steel rod used for sharpening knives

3 courage and mental toughness

► vb

4 to prepare (oneself) for coping with something unpleasant: he had steeled himself to accept the fact

> steely adj

steep¹ adj

1 having a sharp slope

◇ SYNONYMS: sheer, precipitous, abrupt, vertical

2 (informal) (of a fee, price, or demand) unreasonably high; excessive

◇ SYNONYMS: high, exorbitant, extreme, unreasonable, overpriced, extortionate > steeply adv

> steepness n

steep² vb

1 to soak or be soaked in a liquid in order to soften or cleanse

◇ SYNONYMS: soak, immerse, marinate (cooking), submerge, drench, moisten, sous

2 steeped in filled with: an industry steeped in tradition steeple n a tall ornamental tower on a church roof steeplechase n

1 a horse race over a course with fences to be jumped

2 a track race in which the runners have to leap hurdles and a water jump

► vb -chasing, -chased

3 to race in a steeplechase steeplejack n a person who repairs steeples and chimneys steer¹ vb

1 to direct the course of (a vehicle or vessel) with a steering wheel or rudder

◇ SYNONYMS: drive, control, direct, handle, pilot

2 to direct the movements or course of (a person, conversation, or activity)

◇ SYNONYMS: direct, lead, guide, conduct, escort

3 to follow (a specified course): the Dutch government steered a middle course

4 steer clear of to avoid steer² n a castrated male ox or bull steerage n

1 the cheapest accommodation on a passenger ship

2 steering steering wheel n a wheel turned by the driver of a vehicle in order to change direction stein (stine) n an earthenware beer mug stellar adj

1 relating to the stars

2 (informal) outstanding or immense: stellar profits

stem¹ n

1 the long thin central part of a plant

◇ SYNONYMS: stalk, branch, trunk, shoot, axis

2 a stalk that bears a flower, fruit, or leaf

◇ SYNONYMS: stalk, branch, trunk, shoot, axis

3 the long slender part of anything, such as a wineglass

4 (linguistics) the form of a word that remains after removal of all inflectional endings

► vb stemming, stemmed

5 stem from originate from: this tradition stems from pre-Christian times

◇ SYNONYMS stem from something: originate from, be caused by, derive from, arise from stem² vb stemming, stemmed to stop or hinder the spread of (something): to stem the flow of firearms

◇ SYNONYMS: stop, hold back, staunch, check, dam, curb stench n a strong and very unpleasant smell stencil n

1 a thin sheet with a cut-out pattern through which ink or paint passes to form the pattern on the surface below

2 a design or letters made in this way

► vb -cilling, -cilled (US) -ciling, -ciled

3 to make (a design or letters) with a stencil stenographer n (US & Canad) a shorthand typist stent n a surgical implant used to keep an artery open stentorian adj (of the voice) very loud: a stentorian tone

step n

1 the act of moving and setting down one's foot, such as when walking

2 the distance covered by such a movement

◇ SYNONYMS: pace, stride, footstep

3 the sound made by such a movement

◇ SYNONYMS: footfall

4 one of a sequence of foot movements that make up a dance

5 one of a sequence of actions taken in order to achieve a goal

◇ SYNONYMS: move, measure, action, means, act, deed, expedient

6 a degree or rank in a series or scale

◇ SYNONYMS: level, rank, degree

7 a flat surface for placing the foot on when going up or down

8 manner of walking: he moved with a purposeful step

9 steps

A a flight of stairs, usually out of doors

B same as stepladder

10 a short easily travelled distance: Mexico and Brazil were only a step away

11 break step to stop marching in step

12 in step

A marching or dancing in time or at the same pace as other people

B (informal) in agreement: in step with public opinion

13 out of step

A not marching or dancing in time or at the same pace as other people

B (informal) not in agreement: out of step with the political mood

14 step by step gradually

15 take steps to do what is necessary (to achieve something)

16 watch one's step

A (informal) to behave with caution

B to walk carefully

► vb stepping, stepped

17 (often foll. by on) to move by taking a step, such as in walking

◇ SYNONYMS: walk, pace, tread, move

18 to place or press the foot; tread

19 to walk a short distance: please step this way

20 step into to enter (a situation) apparently without difficulty: she stepped into a life of luxury

► See also step in etc step- prefix denoting a relationship created by the remarriage of a parent: stepmother

step in vb (informal) to intervene (in a quarrel or difficult situation) ◇ SYNONYMS step in: intervene, take action, become involved stepladder n a small folding portable ladder with a supporting frame steppes pl n wide grassy plains without trees, in Siberia or SE Europe stepping stone n

1 one of a series of stones acting as footrests for crossing a stream

2 a stage in a person's progress towards a goal: it was a big stepping stone in his career

step up vb

1 (informal) to increase (something) by stages; accelerate

◇ SYNONYMS step something up: increase, intensify, raise

2 step up to the plate

A (baseball) to move into batting position

B to come forward and take responsibility for something stereo adj

1 (of a sound system) using two or more separate microphones to feed two or more loudspeakers through separate channels

► n, pl stereos

2 a music system in which sound is directed through two speakers

3 sound broadcast or played in stereo stereophonic adj same as stereo stereotype n

1 a set of characteristics or a fixed idea considered to represent a particular kind of person

◇ SYNONYMS: formula, pattern

2 an idea or convention that has grown stale through fixed usage

◇ SYNONYMS: formula, pattern

► vb -typing, -typed

3 to form a standard image or idea of (a type of person)

◇ SYNONYMS: categorize, typecast, pigeonhole, standardize sterile adj

1 free from germs

◇ SYNONYMS: germ-free, sterilized, disinfected, aseptic

2 unable to produce offspring

◇ SYNONYMS: barren (archaic), infertile, unproductive

3 (of plants) not producing or bearing seeds

◇ SYNONYMS: barren (archaic), infertile, unproductive

4 lacking inspiration or energy; unproductive > sterility n

sterilize or -lize vb -lizing, -lized or -lising, -lised to make sterile > sterilization or -lisation n sterling n

1 British money: sterling fell against the dollar

► adj

2 genuine and reliable: first-class: he has a reputation for sterling honesty

◇ SYNONYMS: excellent, sound, fine, superlative stern¹ adj

1 strict and serious: he's a very stern taskmaster

◇ SYNONYMS: strict, harsh, hard, grim, rigid, austere, inflexible

2 difficult and often unpleasant: the stern demands of the day

◇ SYNONYMS: strict, harsh, hard, grim, rigid, austere, inflexible

3 (of a facial expression) severe and disapproving

◇ SYNONYMS: severe, serious, forbidding > sternly adv

stern² n the rear part of a boat or ship sternum n, pl -na or -nums a long flat bone in the front of the body, to which the collarbone and most of the ribs are attached steroid n (biochem) an organic compound containing a carbon ring system, such as sterols and many hormones stethoscope n (med) an instrument for listening to the sounds made inside the body, consisting of a hollow disc that transmits the sound through hollow tubes to earpieces

Stetson n (trademark) a felt hat with a broad brim and high crown, worn mainly by cowboys stevedore n (chiefly US) a person employed to load or unload ships stew n

1 a dish of meat, fish, or other food, cooked slowly in a closed pot

2 in a stew (informal) in a troubled or worried state

► vb

3 to cook by long slow simmering in a closed pot

4 (informal) (of a person) to be too hot

5 to cause (tea) to become bitter or (of tea) to become bitter through infusing for too long

6 stew in one's own juice to suffer, without help, the results of one's actions steward n

- 1 a person who looks after passengers and serves meals on a ship or aircraft
- 2 an official who helps to supervise a public event, such as a race
- 3 a person who administers someone else's property
- 4 a person who manages the eating arrangements, staff, or service at a club or hotel
- 5 See shop steward
- vb
- 6 to act as a steward (of) stewardess n a female steward on an aircraft or ship stick¹ n

- 1 a small thin branch of a tree ◇ SYNONYMS: twig, branch
- 2
A a long thin piece of wood ◇ SYNONYMS: cane, staff, pole, rod, crook, baton
B such a piece of wood shaped for a special purpose: a walking stick; a hockey stick ◇ SYNONYMS: cane, staff, pole, rod, crook, baton
- 3 a piece of something shaped like a stick: a stick of cinnamon
- 4 (slang) verbal abuse, criticism: they gave me a lot of stick ◇ SYNONYMS: abuse, criticism, flak (informal), fault-finding
- 5 the sticks a country area considered backward or unsophisticated: places out in the sticks
- 6 sticks pieces of furniture: these few sticks are all I have
- 7 (informal) a person: not a bad old stick
- 8 get hold of the wrong end of the stick to misunderstand a situation or an explanation completely stick² vb sticking, stuck

- 1 to push (a pointed object) or (of a pointed object) to be pushed into another object ◇ SYNONYMS: poke, dig, stab, thrust, pierce, penetrate, spear, prod
- 2 to fasten (something) in position by pins, nails, or glue: she just stuck the label on

◇ SYNONYMS: fasten, fix, bind, hold, bond, attach, glue, paste

3 to extend beyond something else; protrude: he stuck his head out of the door

4 (informal) to place (something) in a specified position: stick it in the oven

◇ SYNONYMS: put, place, set, lay, deposit

5 to fasten or be fastened by or as if by an adhesive

◇ SYNONYMS: fasten, fix, bind, hold, bond, attach, glue, paste

6 to come or be brought to a standstill: stuck in a rut; two army lorries stuck behind us

7 to remain for a long time: the room that sticks in my mind the most

◇ SYNONYMS: stay, remain, linger, persist

8 (slang, chiefly Brit) to tolerate; abide: you couldn't stick it for more than two days

◇ SYNONYMS: tolerate, take, stand, stomach, abide

9 be stuck (informal) to be at a loss for; to be baffled or puzzled: I'm stuck; stuck for words sticker n a small piece of paper with a picture or writing on it that can be stuck to a surface stick-in-the-mud n (informal) a person who is unwilling to try anything new or do anything exciting stickleback n a small fish with sharp spines along its back stickler n a person who insists on something: a stickler for punctuality stick-up n (slang, chiefly US) a robbery at gunpoint; hold-up stick up for vb (informal) to support or defend (oneself, another person, or a principle)

◇ SYNONYMS stick up for someone: defend, support, champion, stand up for sticky adj stickier, stickiest

1 covered with a substance that sticks to other things: sticky little fingers

◇ SYNONYMS: gooey, tacky (informal), viscous, glutinous, gummy, icky (informal), gluey, clinging

2 intended to stick to a surface: sticky labels

◇ SYNONYMS: adhesive, gummed, adherent, grippy

3 (informal) difficult or painful: a sticky meeting

◇ SYNONYMS: difficult, awkward, tricky, embarrassing, nasty, delicate, unpleasant, barro (Austral slang)

4 (of weather) unpleasantly warm and humid

◇ SYNONYMS: humid, close, sultry, oppressive, sweltering, clammy, muggy > stickiness n

stiff adj

1 firm and not easily bent

◇ SYNONYMS: inflexible, rigid, unyielding, hard, firm, tight, solid, tense

2 moving with pain or difficulty: stiff and aching joints

3 not moving easily: the door is stiff

4 difficult or severe: a stiff challenge; stiff penalties

◇ SYNONYMS: difficult, hard, tough, exacting, arduous

5 formal and not relaxed

◇ SYNONYMS: formal, constrained, forced, unnatural, stilted, unrelaxed

6 fairly firm in consistency; thick

7 powerful: a stiff breeze

8 (of a drink) containing a lot of alcohol

► n

9 (slang) a corpse

► adv

10 completely or utterly: I was bored stiff > stiffly adv

> stiffness n

stiffen vb to make or become stiff or stiffer stiff-necked adj proud and stubborn stifle vb -fling, -fled

1 to stop oneself from expressing (a yawn or cry)

◇ SYNONYMS: restrain, suppress, repress, smother

2 to stop (something) from continuing: the new leadership stifled all internal debate

◇ SYNONYMS: suppress, repress, stop, check, silence, restrain, hush, smother

3 to feel discomfort and difficulty in breathing

4 to kill (someone) by preventing him or her from breathing stigma n, pl stigmas or stigmata

1 a mark of social disgrace: a stigma attached to being redundant

◇ SYNONYMS: disgrace, shame, dishonour, stain, slur, smirch

2 (botany) the part of a flower that receives pollen

3 stigmata (Christianity) marks resembling the wounds of the crucified Christ, believed to appear on the bodies of certain people stigmatize or -tise vb -tizing, -tized or -tising, -tised to regard as being shameful stile n a set of steps in a wall or fence to allow people, but not animals, to pass over stiletto n, pl -tos

1 Also called: spike heel, stiletto heel a high narrow heel on a woman's shoe or a shoe with such a heel

2 a small dagger with a slender tapered blade still¹ adv

1 continuing now or in the future as in the past: she still loved the theatre

2 up to this or that time; yet

3 even or yet: still more pressure on the government

4 even then; nevertheless: the baby has been fed and still cries

◇ SYNONYMS: however, but, yet, nevertheless, notwithstanding

5 quietly or without movement: keep still

► adj

6 motionless; stationary

◇ SYNONYMS: motionless, stationary, calm, peaceful, serene, tranquil, undisturbed, restful

7 undisturbed; silent and calm

◇ SYNONYMS: silent, quiet, hushed

8 (of a soft drink) not fizzy

► n

9 (poetic) silence or tranquillity: the still of night

10 a still photograph from a film

► vb

11 to make or become quiet or calm

◇ SYNONYMS: quieten, calm, settle, quiet, silence, soothe, hush, lull

12 to relieve or end: Fowler stilled his conscience > stillness n

still² n an apparatus for distilling spirits stillborn adj

1 (of a baby) dead at birth

2 (of an idea or plan) completely unsuccessful > stillbirth n

still life n, pl still lifes

1 a painting or drawing of objects such as fruit or flowers

2 this kind of painting or drawing stilt n

1 either of a pair of long poles with footrests for walking raised from the ground

2 a long post or column used with others to support a building above ground level stilted adj (of speech, writing, or behaviour) formal or pompous; not flowing continuously or naturally stimulant n

1 a drug, food, or drink that makes the body work faster, increases heart rate, and makes sleeping difficult

2 any stimulating thing

► adj

3 stimulating stimulate vb -lating, -lated

1 to encourage to start or progress further: a cut in interest rates should help stimulate economic recovery

◇ SYNONYMS: encourage, inspire, prompt, fire, spur, provoke, arouse, rouse

2 to fill (a person) with ideas or enthusiasm: books satisfy a part of the intellect that needs to be stimulated

3 (physiol) to excite (a nerve or organ) with a stimulus > stimulation n

stimulus (stim-myew-luss) n, pl -li (-lie)

1 something that acts as an incentive to (someone)

◇ SYNONYMS: incentive, spur, encouragement, impetus, inducement, goad, incitement, fillip

2 something, such as a drug or electrical impulse, that is capable of causing a response in a person or an animal sting vb stinging, stung

1 (of certain animals and plants) to inflict a wound on (someone) by the injection of poison

◇ SYNONYMS: hurt, burn, wound

2 to cause (someone) to feel a sharp physical pain: her hand was stinging

◇ SYNONYMS: smart, burn, pain, hurt, tingle

3 to offend or upset (someone) with a critical remark: I was stung by what he said

4 to provoke (a response) by angering: the consulate would be stung into convulsive action

5 (informal) to cheat (someone) by overcharging

► n

6 a skin wound caused by stinging

7 pain caused by or as if by a sting

8 a mental pain: the sting of memory

9 the sharp pointed organ of certain animals or plants used to inject poison

10 (slang) a deceptive trick

11 (slang) a trap set up by the police to entice a person to commit a crime, thereby producing evidence > stinging adj

stingy adj -gier, -giest very mean > stinginess n

stink n

1 a strong unpleasant smell

◇ SYNONYMS: stench, pong (Brit informal), foul smell, fetor

2 make or create or kick up a stink (slang) to make a fuss

► vb stinking, stank or stunk, stunk

3 to give off a strong unpleasant smell

◇ SYNONYMS: reek, pong (Brit informal)

4 (slang) to be thoroughly bad or unpleasant: the script stinks, the casting stinks > stinky adj

stint vb

1 to be miserly with (something): don't stint on paper napkins

◇ SYNONYMS: be mean, hold back, be sparing, skimp on, be frugal

► n

2 a given amount of work

◇ SYNONYMS: term, time, turn, period, share, shift, stretch, spell stipend (sty-pend) n a regular salary or allowance, esp. that paid to a member of the clergy > stipendiary adj

stipple vb -pling, -pled to draw, engrave, or paint (something) using dots or flecks stipulate vb -lating, -lated to specify (something) as a condition of an agreement ◇ SYNONYMS: specify, agree, require, contract, settle, covenant, insist upon > stipulation n stir vb stirring, stirred

1 to mix up (a liquid) by moving a spoon or stick around in it

◇ SYNONYMS: mix, beat, agitate

2 to move slightly

3 stir from to depart from (one's usual or preferred place)

4 to get up after sleeping

5 to excite or move (someone) emotionally

◇ SYNONYMS: stimulate, move, excite, spur, provoke, arouse, awaken, rouse

6 to move (oneself) quickly or vigorously; exert (oneself)

7 to wake up: to stir someone from sleep

► n

8 a stirring

9 a strong reaction, usually of excitement: she created a stir wherever she went

◇ SYNONYMS: commotion, excitement, activity, disorder, fuss, disturbance, bustle, flurry stir-fry vb -fries, -frying, -fried

1 to cook (food) quickly by stirring it in a wok or frying pan over a high heat

► n, pl -fries

2 a dish cooked in this way stirrup n a metal loop attached to a saddle for supporting a rider's foot stitch n

1 a link made by drawing a thread through material with a needle

2 a loop of yarn formed around a needle or hook in knitting or crocheting

3 a particular kind of stitch

4 (informal) a link of thread joining the edges of a wound together

5 a sharp pain in the side caused by running or exercising

6 in stitches (informal) laughing uncontrollably

7 not a stitch (informal) no clothes at all

► vb

8 to sew or fasten (something) with stitches > stitching n

stoat n a small brown N European mammal related to the weasel: in winter it has a white coat and is then known as an ermine stock n

1 the total amount of goods kept on the premises of a shop or business

◇ SYNONYMS: goods, merchandise, wares, range, choice, variety, selection, commodities

2 a supply of something stored for future use ◇ SYNONYMS: supply, store, reserve, fund, stockpile, hoard

3 (finance)

A the money raised by a company through selling shares entitling their holders to dividends, partial ownership, and usually voting rights

◇ SYNONYMS: property, capital, assets, funds

B the proportion of this money held by an individual shareholder

◇ SYNONYMS: shares, holdings, securities, investments, bonds, equities

C the shares of a specified company or industry

◇ SYNONYMS: shares, holdings, securities, investments, bonds, equities

4 farm animals bred and kept for their meat, skins, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: livestock, cattle, beasts, domestic animals

5 the original type from which a particular race, family, or group is descended

6 the handle of a rifle, held by the firer against the shoulder

7 a liquid produced by simmering meat, fish, bones, or vegetables, and used to make soups and sauces

8 a kind of plant grown for its brightly coloured flowers

9 (old-fashioned) the degree of status a person has 10 See laughing stock

11 in stock stored on the premises or available for sale or use

12 out of stock not immediately available for sale or use 13 take stock to think carefully about a situation before making a decision

► adj

14 staple; standard: stock sizes in clothes

◇ SYNONYMS: regular, usual, ordinary, conventional, customary

15 being a cliché; hackneyed: the stock answer

◇ SYNONYMS: hackneyed, routine, banal, trite, overused

► vb

16 to keep (goods) for sale

◇ SYNONYMS: sell, supply, handle, keep, trade in, deal in 17 to obtain a store of (something) for future use or sale: to stock up on food

18 to supply (a farm) with animals or (a lake or stream) with fish

◇ SYNONYMS: fill, supply, provide with, equip, furnish, fit out stockade n an enclosure or barrier of large wooden posts stockbroker n a person who buys and sells stocks and shares for customers and receives a percentage of their profits > stockbroking n

stock car n a car that has been strengthened and modified for a form of racing in which the cars often collide stock exchange n

1

A a highly organized market for the purchase and sale of stocks and shares, operated by professional stockbrokers and market makers according to fixed rules

B a place where stocks and shares are traded

2 the prices or trading activity of a stock exchange: the stock exchange has been rising stocking n a long piece of close-fitting nylon or knitted yarn covering the foot and part or all of the leg stockist n (Brit) (commerce) a dealer who stocks a particular product stockpile vb -piling, -piled

1 to store a large quantity of (something) for future use

► n

2 a large store gathered for future use stock-still adv absolutely still; motionlessly stocktaking n

1 the counting and valuing of goods in a shop or business

2 a reassessment of a person's current situation and prospects stocky adj stockier, stockiest (of a person) short but well-built > stockily adv

> stockiness n stodge n (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) heavy and filling starchy food stodgy adj stodgier, stodgiest

1 (of food) full of starch and very filling

2 (of a person) dull, serious, or excessively formal > stodginess n

stoep (stoop) n (in South Africa) a verandah stoic (stow-ik) n

1 a person who suffers great difficulties without showing his or her emotions

► adj

2 same as stoical stoical adj suffering great difficulties without showing one's feelings > stoically adv

> stoicism (stow-iss-iz-zum) n stoke vb stoking, stoked

1 to feed and tend (a fire or furnace)

2 to excite or encourage (a strong emotion) in oneself or someone else stoker n a person employed to tend a furnace on a ship or train powered by steam stole¹ vb the past tense of steal stole² n a long scarf or shawl stolen vb the past participle of steal stolid adj showing little or no emotion or interest in anything > stolidity n

> stolidly adv

stomach n

1 an organ inside the body in which food is stored until it has been partially digested

◇ SYNONYMS: belly, gut (informal), abdomen, tummy (informal), puku (NZ)

2 the front of the body around the waist

◇ SYNONYMS: tummy (informal), pot, spare tyre (informal)

3 desire or appetite: he still has the stomach for a fight

◇ SYNONYMS: inclination, taste, desire, appetite, relish

► vb

4 to put up with: liberals could not stomach the rest of the package

◇ SYNONYMS: bear, take, tolerate, endure, swallow, abide stomp vb to tread or stamp heavily stone n

1 the hard nonmetallic material of which rocks are made

◇ SYNONYMS: masonry, rock

2 a small lump of rock

◇ SYNONYMS: rock, pebble

3 Also called: gemstone a precious or semiprecious stone that has been cut and polished

4 a piece of rock used for some particular purpose: gravestone; millstone

5 the hard central part of fruits such as the peach or date

◇ SYNONYMS: pip, seed, pit, kernel

6 pl stone (Brit) a unit of weight equal to 14 pounds or 6.350 kilograms

7 (pathol) a hard deposit formed in the kidney or bladder

8 heart of stone a hard or unemotional personality

9 leave no stone unturned to do everything possible to achieve something

► adj

10 made of stoneware: the polished stone planter

► vb stoning, stoned

11 to throw stones at (someone), for example as a punishment

12 to remove the stones from (a fruit)

Stone Age n a phase of human culture identified by the use of tools made of stone stone-cold adj

1 completely cold

► adv

2 stone-cold sober completely sober stoned adj (slang) under the influence of drugs or alcohol stone-deaf adj completely deaf stonewall vb

- 1 to deliberately prolong a discussion by being long-winded or evasive
- 2 (cricket) (of a batsman) to play defensively stoneware n a hard type of pottery, fired at a very high temperature stony or stone adj stonier, stoniest

- 1 (of ground) rough and covered with stones: the stony path
 - 2 (of a face, voice, or attitude) unfriendly and unsympathetic
- > stonily adv

stony-broke adj (slang) completely without money stood vb the past of stand stooge n

- 1 an actor who feeds lines to a comedian or acts as the butt of his jokes
- 2 (slang) someone who is taken advantage of by someone in a superior position stool n

- 1 a seat with legs but no back
- 2 waste matter from the bowels stoop vb

- 1 to bend (the body) forward and downward
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: bend, lean, bow, duck, crouch
 - 2 to stand or walk with head and shoulders habitually bent forward
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: hunch
 - 3 stoop to to lower one's normal standards of behaviour; degrade oneself: no real journalist would stoop to faking
- n

4 the act, position, or habit of stooping

◇ SYNONYMS: slouch, bad posture, round-shoulderedness > stooping adj

stop vb stopping, stopped

1 to cease from doing (something); discontinue

◇ SYNONYMS: quit, cease, refrain, put an end to, discontinue, desist

2 to cause (something moving) to halt or (of something moving) to come to a halt

◇ SYNONYMS: halt, pause

3 to prevent the continuance or completion of (something)

◇ SYNONYMS: prevent, cut short, arrest, restrain, hold back, hinder, repress, impede

4 (often foll. by from) to prevent or restrain: I stopped her from going on any further

5 to keep back: no agreement to stop arms supplies

6 stop up to block or plug: to stop up a pipe

7 to stay or rest: we stopped at a campsite for a change

◇ SYNONYMS: stay, rest, lodge

8 to instruct a bank not to honour (a cheque)

9 to deduct (money) from pay

10 (informal) to receive (a blow or hit)

11 (music) to alter the vibrating length of (a string on a violin, guitar, etc.) by pressing down on it at some point with the finger

12 stop at nothing to be prepared to do anything; be ruthless

► n

13 prevention of movement or progress: you can put a stop to it quite easily

14 the act of stopping or the state of being stopped: the car lurched to a stop

◇ SYNONYMS: halt, standstill

15 a place where something halts or pauses: a bus stop

◇ SYNONYMS: station, stage, depot (US & Canad), terminus

16 the act or an instance of blocking or obstructing

17 a device that prevents, limits, or ends the motion of a mechanism or moving part

18 (Brit) a full stop

19 (music) a knob on an organ that is operated to allow sets of pipes to sound

20 pull out all the stops to make a great effort stopcock n a valve used to control or stop the flow of a fluid in a pipe stopgap n a thing that serves as a substitute for a short time until replaced by something more suitable stopover n

1 a break in a journey

► vb stop over

2 to make a stopover stoppage n

1 the act of stopping something or the state of being stopped: a heart stoppage

2 a deduction of money, such as taxation, from pay

3 an organized stopping of work during industrial action stoppage time n (chiefly Brit) same as injury time stopper n a plug for closing a bottle, pipe, etc.

stop press n news items inserted into a newspaper after the printing has been started stopwatch n a watch which can be stopped instantly for exact timing of a sporting event storage n

1 the act of storing or the state of being stored

2 space for storing

3 (computers) the process of storing information in a computer storage heater n an electric device that accumulates and radiates heat generated by cheap off-peak electricity store vb storing, stored

1 to keep, set aside, or gather (things) for future use ◇ SYNONYMS: put by, save, hoard, keep, reserve, deposit, garner, stockpile

2 to place (furniture or other possessions) in a warehouse for safekeeping

◇ SYNONYMS: put away, put in storage, put in store

3 to supply or stock (certain goods)

4 (computers) to enter or keep (information) in a storage device

► n

5 a shop (in Britain usually a large one)

◇ SYNONYMS: shop, outlet, market, mart

6 a large supply or stock kept for future use

◇ SYNONYMS: supply, stock, reserve, fund, quantity, accumulation, stockpile, hoard

7 short for department store

8 a storage place, such as a warehouse

◇ SYNONYMS: repository, warehouse, depository, storeroom

9 (computers, chiefly Brit) same as memory

10 in store about to happen; forthcoming: you've got a treat in store

11 set great store by something to value something as important storey or (esp US) story n, pl -reys or -ries a floor or level of a building stork n a large wading bird with very long legs, a long bill, and white-and-black feathers storm n

1 a violent weather condition of strong winds, rain, hail, thunder, lightning, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: tempest (literary), hurricane, gale, blizzard, squall

2 a violent disturbance or quarrel: a storm of protest from the opposition

◇ SYNONYMS: outburst, row, outcry, furore, outbreak, turmoil, disturbance, strife

3 (usually foll. by of) a heavy discharge of bullets or missiles

4 take a place by storm

A to capture or overrun a place by a violent attack

B to surprise people, but receive their praise, by being extremely successful at something

► vb

5 to attack or capture (a place) suddenly and violently

◇ SYNONYMS: attack, charge, rush, assault, assail

6 to shout angrily

◇ SYNONYMS: rage, rant, thunder, rave, bluster

7 to move or rush violently or angrily: she stormed into the study

◇ SYNONYMS: rush, stamp, flounce, fly stormy adj stormier, stormiest

1 (of weather) violent with dark skies, heavy rain or snow, and strong winds

◇ SYNONYMS: wild, rough, raging, turbulent, windy, blustery, inclement, squally

2 involving violent emotions: a stormy affair

◇ SYNONYMS: angry, heated, fierce, passionate, fiery, impassioned story n, pl -ries

1 a description of a chain of events told or written in prose or verse

◇ SYNONYMS: anecdote, account, tale, report

2 Also called: short story a piece of fiction, shorter and usually less detailed than a novel

◇ SYNONYMS: tale, romance, narrative, history, legend, yarn (informal)

3 Also called: story line the plot of a book or film

4 a news report

◇ SYNONYMS: report, news, article, feature, scoop, news item

5 the event or material for such a report

6 (informal) a lie stoup or stoop (stoop) n a small basin in a church for holy water stout adj

1 solidly built or fat

◇ SYNONYMS: fat, big, heavy, overweight, plump, bulky, burly, fleshy

2 strong and sturdy: stout footwear

◇ SYNONYMS: strong, strapping, muscular, robust, sturdy, stalwart, brawny, able-bodied

3 brave or determined: we met unexpectedly stout resistance

◇ SYNONYMS: brave, bold, courageous, fearless, resolute, gallant, intrepid, valiant

► n

4 a kind of strong, black beer > stoutly adv

stove¹ n

1 same as cooker

2 any apparatus for heating, such as a kiln stove² vb a past tense and past participle of stave stow vb (often foll. by away) to pack or store (something) stowaway n

1 a person who hides aboard a ship or aircraft in order to travel free

► vb stow away

2 to travel in such a way: he stowed away on a ferry straddle vb -dling, -dled

1 to have one leg or part on each side of (something)

2 (US & Canad informal) to be in favour of both sides of (an issue or argument)

strafe vb strafing, strafed to machine-gun (an enemy) from the air straggle vb -gling, -gled

1 to spread out in an untidy and rambling way: the town straggled off to the east

2 to linger behind or wander from a main line or part > straggler n

> straggly adj

straight adj

1 continuing in the same direction without bending; not curved or crooked

◇ SYNONYMS: direct, unswerving

2 even, level, or upright

◇ SYNONYMS: level, even, right, square, true, smooth, aligned, horizontal

3 in keeping with the facts; accurate

4 outright or candid: a straight rejection

◇ SYNONYMS: frank, plain, straightforward, blunt, outright, honest, candid, forthright

5 in continuous succession

◇ SYNONYMS: successive, consecutive, continuous, running, solid, nonstop

6 (of an alcoholic drink) undiluted

◇ SYNONYMS: undiluted, pure, neat, unadulterated, unmixed

7 not wavy or curly: straight hair

8 in good order

◇ SYNONYMS: in order, organized, arranged, neat, tidy, orderly, shipshape

9 (of a play or acting style) straightforward or serious

10 honest, respectable, or reliable

◇ SYNONYMS: honest, just, fair, reliable, respectable, upright, honourable, law-abiding

11 heterosexual

12 (slang) conventional in views, customs, or appearance

◇ SYNONYMS: conventional, conservative, bourgeois

13 (informal) no longer owing or being owed something: if you buy the next round we'll be straight

► adv

14 in a straight line or direct course

◇ SYNONYMS: directly, precisely, exactly, unswervingly, by the shortest route, in a beeline

15 immediately; at once: get straight back here

◇ SYNONYMS: immediately, directly, promptly, instantly, at once, straight away, without delay, forthwith

16 in a level or upright position: he sat up straight

17 continuously; uninterruptedly: we waited for three hours straight

18 (often foll. by out) frankly; candidly: she asked me straight out

19 go straight (informal) to reform after having been a criminal

20 straight away or straightaway at once

► n

21 a straight line, form, part, or position

22 (Brit) a straight part of a racetrack

23 a heterosexual person straighten vb (sometimes foll. by up or out)

1 to make or become straight

2 to make (something) neat or tidy

◇ SYNONYMS: neaten, arrange, tidy (up), order, put in order straight face n a serious facial expression which hides a desire to laugh > straight-faced adj straightforward adj

1 (of a person) honest, frank, and open

◇ SYNONYMS: honest, open, direct, genuine, sincere, candid, truthful, forthright, dinkum (Austral & NZ informal)

2 (of a task) easy to do

◇ SYNONYMS: simple, easy, uncomplicated, routine, elementary, easy-peasy (slang) strain¹ n

1 tension or tiredness resulting from overwork or worry

◇ SYNONYMS: stress, anxiety

2 tension between people or organizations: there are signs of strain between the economic superpowers

3 an intense physical or mental effort

◇ SYNONYMS: worry, effort, struggle

4 the damage resulting from excessive physical exertion

◇ SYNONYMS: injury, wrench, sprain, pull

5 a great demand on the emotions, strength, or resources

◇ SYNONYMS: pressure, stress, demands, burden

6 strains (music) a theme, melody, or tune

► vb

7 to subject (someone) to mental tension or stress

8 to make an intense effort: the rest were straining to follow the conversation

◇ SYNONYMS: strive, struggle, endeavour, labour, go for it (informal), bend over backwards (informal), give it your best shot (informal), knock yourself out (informal)

9 to use (resources) to, or beyond, their limits

◇ SYNONYMS: stretch, tax, overtax

10 to injure or damage (oneself or a part of one's body) by overexertion: he appeared to have strained a muscle

11 to pour (a substance) through a sieve or filter

◇ SYNONYMS: sieve, filter, sift, purify strain² n

1 a group of animals or plants within a species or variety, distinguished by one or more minor characteristics

◇ SYNONYMS: breed, family, race, blood, descent, extraction, ancestry, lineage

2 a trace or streak: a strain of ruthlessness in their play

◇ SYNONYMS: trace, suggestion, tendency, streak strained adj

1 (of an action, expression, etc.) not natural or spontaneous

◇ SYNONYMS: forced, put on, false, artificial, unnatural

2 (of an atmosphere, relationship, etc.) not relaxed; tense

◇ SYNONYMS: tense, difficult, awkward, embarrassed, stiff, uneasy strainer n a sieve used for straining sauces, vegetables, or tea strait n

1 (often pl) a narrow channel of the sea linking two larger areas of sea

◇ SYNONYMS: channel, sound, narrows

2 straits a position of extreme difficulty: in desperate straits

◇ SYNONYMS: difficulty, dilemma, plight, hardship, uphill (S African), predicament, extremity straitened adj in straitened circumstances not having much money straitjacket n

1 a strong canvas jacket with long sleeves used to bind the arms of a violent person

2 anything which holds back or restricts development or freedom: exporters are wrapped in a straitjacket of regulations strait-laced or straight-laced adj having a strict code of moral standards; puritanical strand¹ vb

1 to leave or drive (ships or fish) ashore

2 to leave (someone) helpless, for example without transport or money

► n

3 (chiefly poetic) a shore or beach strand² n

1 one of the individual fibres of string or wire that form a rope, cord, or cable

◇ SYNONYMS: filament, fibre, thread, string

2 a single length of string, hair, wool, or wire

3 a string of pearls or beads

4 a part of something; element: the many disparate strands of the Anglican Church strange adj

1 odd or unexpected

◇ SYNONYMS: odd, curious, weird, wonderful, extraordinary, bizarre, peculiar, abnormal, daggy (Austral & NZ informal)

2 not known, seen, or experienced before; unfamiliar

◇ SYNONYMS: unfamiliar, new, unknown, foreign, novel, alien, exotic, untried

3 strange to inexperienced in or unaccustomed to: they are in some degree strange to it > strangely adv

> strangeness n

stranger n

1 any person whom one does not know

◇ SYNONYMS: unknown person

2 a person who is new to a particular place

◇ SYNONYMS: newcomer, incomer, foreigner, guest, visitor, alien, outlander

3 stranger to a person who is unfamiliar with or new to something: Paul is no stranger to lavish spending

strangle vb -gling, -gled

1 to kill (someone) by pressing his or her windpipe; throttle

◇ SYNONYMS: throttle, choke, asphyxiate, strangulate

2 to prevent the growth or development of: another attempt at strangling national identity

◇ SYNONYMS: suppress, inhibit, subdue, stifle, repress, overpower, quash, quell

3 to stifle (a voice, cry, or laugh) by swallowing suddenly: the words were strangled by sobs > strangler n

stranglehold n

1 a wrestling hold in which a wrestler's arms are pressed against his opponent's windpipe

2 complete power or control over a person or situation strap n

1 a strip of strong flexible material used for carrying, lifting, fastening, or holding things in place

◇ SYNONYMS: tie, thong, belt

2 a loop of leather or rubber, hanging from the roof in a bus or train for standing passengers to hold on to

3 the strap a beating with a strap as a punishment

► vb strapping, strapped

4 to tie or bind (something) with a strap

◇ SYNONYMS: tie, thong, belt

strapped adj strapped for (slang) badly in need of: strapped for cash

strapping adj tall, strong, and healthy-looking: a strapping young lad

◇ SYNONYMS: well-built, big, powerful, robust, sturdy, husky (informal), brawny strata n the plural of stratum stratagem n a clever plan to deceive an enemy strategic (strat-ee-jik) adj

1 planned to achieve an advantage; tactical ◇ SYNONYMS: tactical, calculated, deliberate, planned, politic, diplomatic

2 (of weapons, esp. missiles) directed against an enemy's homeland rather than used on a battlefield > strategically adv

strategy n, pl -gies

1 a long-term plan for success, such as in politics or business

◇ SYNONYMS: plan, approach, scheme

2 the art of the planning and conduct of a war > strategist n

strathspey n

1 a Scottish dance with gliding steps, slower than a reel

2 music for this dance

stratified adj

- 1 (of rocks) formed in horizontal layers of different materials
- 2 (sociol) (of a society) divided into different classes or groups
- > stratification n stratosphere n the atmospheric layer between about 15 and 50 km above the earth stratum (strah-tum) n, pl -ta (-ta)

- 1 any of the distinct layers into which certain rocks are divided
- 2 a layer of ocean or atmosphere marked off naturally or decided arbitrarily
- 3 a social class

straw n

- 1 dried stalks of threshed grain, such as wheat or barley
- 2 a single stalk of straw
- 3 a long thin hollow paper or plastic tube, used for sucking up liquids into the mouth
- 4 clutch at straws to turn in desperation to something with little chance of success
- 5 draw the short straw to be the person chosen to perform an unpleasant task
- adj
- 6 made of straw: straw baskets strawberry n, pl -ries a sweet fleshy red fruit with small seeds on the outside strawberry mark n a red birthmark straw poll or straw vote n an unofficial poll or vote taken to find out the opinion of a group or the public on some issue

stray vb

1 to wander away from the correct path or from a given area

◇ SYNONYMS: wander, go astray, drift

2 to move away from the point or lose concentration

◇ SYNONYMS: digress, diverge, deviate, get off the point

3 to fail to live up to certain moral standards: her partner had strayed

► n

4 a domestic animal that has wandered away from its home

5 (old-fashioned) a lost or homeless child

► adj

6 (of a domestic animal) having wandered away from its home

◇ SYNONYMS: lost, abandoned, homeless, roaming, vagrant

7 random or separated from the main group of things of their kind: stray bombs and rockets

◇ SYNONYMS: random, chance, accidental streak n

1 a long thin stripe or trace of some contrasting colour

◇ SYNONYMS: trace, touch, element, strain, dash, vein

2 (of lightning) a sudden flash

3 a quality or characteristic: a nasty streak

◇ SYNONYMS: trace, touch, element, strain, dash, vein

4 a short stretch of good or bad luck: a losing streak

5 (informal) an instance of running naked through a public place

► vb

6 to mark (something) with a streak or streaks: sweat streaking the grime of his face

7 to move quickly in a straight line

◇ SYNONYMS: speed, fly, tear, flash, sprint, dart, zoom, whizz (informal)

8 (informal) to run naked through a public place > streaked or streaky adj

> streaker n

stream n

1 a small river

◇ SYNONYMS: river, brook, burn (Scot), beck, tributary, bayou, rivulet

2 any steady flow of water or other liquid

◇ SYNONYMS: flow, current, rush, run, course, drift, surge, tide

3 something that resembles a stream in moving continuously in a line or particular direction: the stream of traffic

4 a fast and continuous flow of speech: the constant stream of jargon

5 (Brit & Austral & NZ) a class of schoolchildren grouped together because of similar ability

► vb

6 to pour in a continuous flow: rain streamed down her cheeks

◇ SYNONYMS: flow, run, pour, issue, flood, spill, cascade, gush

7 (of a crowd of people or traffic or a herd of animals) to move in unbroken succession

◇ SYNONYMS: rush, fly, speed, tear, flood, pour

8 to send video or audio material over the internet so that the receiving system can play it almost simultaneously

9 to float freely or with a waving motion: a flimsy pink dress that streamed out behind her

10 (Brit & NZ) to group (schoolchildren) in streams > streaming n

> streamlet n

streamer n

1 a person or thing that streams

2 a long coiled ribbon of coloured paper that unrolls when tossed

3 a long narrow flag streamline vb -lining, -lined

1 to improve (something) by removing the parts that are least useful or profitable

2 to make (an aircraft, boat, or vehicle) less resistant to flowing air or water by improving its shape > streamlined adj

street n

1 a public road that is usually lined with buildings, esp. in a town: Sauchiehall Street

◇ SYNONYMS: road, lane, avenue, terrace, row, roadway

- 2 the part of the road between the pavements, used by vehicles
- 3 the people living in a particular street
- 4 on the streets homeless
- 5 right up one's street (informal) just what one knows or likes best
- 6 streets ahead of (informal) superior to or more advanced than streetcar n (US & Canad) a tram streetwise adj knowing how to survive or succeed in poor and often criminal sections of big cities strength n

- 1 the state or quality of being physically or mentally strong
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: might, muscle, brawn
- 2 the ability to withstand great force, stress, or pressure
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: toughness, soundness, robustness, sturdiness
- 3 something regarded as valuable or a source of power: his chief strength is rocketry
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: strong point, skill, asset, advantage, talent, forte, speciality
- 4 potency or effectiveness, such as of a drink or drug
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: potency, effectiveness, efficacy
- 5 power to convince: the strength of this argument
- 6 degree of intensity or concentration of colour, light, sound, or flavour: a medium-strength cheese
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: force, power, intensity
- 7 the total number of people in a group: at full strength; 50 000 men below strength
- 8 go from strength to strength to have ever-increasing success
- 9 on the strength of on the basis of or relying upon strengthen vb to become stronger or make (something) stronger

- ◇ SYNONYMS: fortify, harden, toughen, consolidate, stiffen, gee up, brace up strenuous adj requiring or involving the use of great energy or effort > strenuously adv

streptococcus (strep-toe-kok-uss) n, pl -cocci (-kok-eye) a bacterium occurring in chains and including many species that cause disease stress n

1 mental, emotional, or physical strain or tension

◇ SYNONYMS: strain, pressure, worry, tension, burden, anxiety, trauma

2 special emphasis or significance

◇ SYNONYMS: emphasis, significance, force, weight

3 emphasis placed upon a syllable by pronouncing it more loudly than those that surround it

◇ SYNONYMS: accent, beat, emphasis, accentuation

4 (physics) force producing a change in shape or volume

► vb

5 to give emphasis to (a point or subject): she stressed how difficult it had been

◇ SYNONYMS: emphasize, underline, dwell on 6 to pronounce (a word or syllable) more loudly than those surrounding it ◇ SYNONYMS: place the emphasis on, emphasize, give emphasis to, lay emphasis upon > stressful adj stressed or stressed-out adj (informal) suffering from anxiety or tension stretch vb

1 stretch over or for to extend or spread over (a specified distance): the flood barrier stretches for several miles

◇ SYNONYMS: extend, cover, spread, reach, put forth, unroll

2 to draw out or extend (something) or to be drawn out or extended in length or area

◇ SYNONYMS: expand

3 to distort or lengthen (something) or to be distorted or lengthened permanently

◇ SYNONYMS: expand

- 4 to extend (the limbs or body), for example when one has just woken up 5 (often foll. by out or forward, etc.) to reach or hold out (a part of one's body) 6 to reach or suspend (a rope, etc.) from one place to another 7 to draw (something) tight; tighten ◇ SYNONYMS: pull, distend, strain, tighten, draw out, elongate 8 (usually foll. by over) to extend in time: a dinner which stretched over three consecutive evenings ◇ SYNONYMS: last, continue, go on, carry on, reach (informal) 9 to put a great strain upon (one's money or resources) 10 to make do with (limited resources): the Walkers decided to stretch their budget 11 to extend (someone) to the limit of his or her abilities 12 to extend (someone) to the limit of his or her tolerance 13 stretch a point to make an exception not usually made ► n
14 the act of stretching 15 a large or continuous expanse or distance: this stretch of desert ◇ SYNONYMS: expanse, area, tract, spread, distance, extent 16 extent in time ◇ SYNONYMS: period, time, spell, stint, term, space 17 a term of imprisonment 18 at a stretch (chiefly Brit & NZ)
A with some difficulty; by making a special effort B at one time: for hours at a stretch they had no conversation
 ► adj
19 (of clothes) able to be stretched without permanently losing shape: a stretch suit > stretchy adj stretcher n a frame covered with canvas, on which an ill or injured person is carried strew vb strewing, strewed, strewn to scatter (things) over a surface stricken adj badly affected by disease, pain, grief, etc.: flood-stricken areas strict adj

1 severely correct in attention to behaviour or morality: a strict disciplinarian

◇ SYNONYMS: stern, firm, severe, harsh, authoritarian

2 following carefully and exactly a set of rules: she is a strict vegetarian

3 (of a rule or law) very precise and requiring total obedience: a strict code of practice

4 (of a meaning) exact: this is not, in the strictest sense, a biography

◇ SYNONYMS: exact, accurate, precise, close, true, faithful, meticulous, scrupulous

5 (of a punishment, etc.) harsh or severe

◇ SYNONYMS: severe, harsh, stern, firm, stringent

6 complete; absolute: strict obedience

◇ SYNONYMS: absolute, total, utter > strictly adv

> strictness n

stricture n (formal) a severe criticism stride n

1 a long step or pace

2 the length of such a step

3 a striding walk

4 progress or development: he has made great strides in regaining his confidence

5 a regular pace or rate of progress: it put me off my stride

6 take something in one's stride to do something without difficulty or effort

► vb striding, strode, stridden

7 to walk with long steps or paces

8 stride over or across to cross (over a space or an obstacle) with a stride strident adj

1 (of a voice or sound) loud and harsh

2 loud, persistent, and forceful: a strident critic of the establishment > stridency n

strife n angry or violent struggle; conflict

◇ SYNONYMS: conflict, battle, clash, quarrel, friction, discord, dissension strike vb striking, struck

1 (of employees) to stop work collectively as a protest against working conditions, low pay, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: walk out, down tools, revolt, mutiny

2 to hit (someone)

◇ SYNONYMS: hit, smack, thump, beat, knock, punch, hammer, slap

3 to cause (something) to come into sudden or violent contact with something

◇ SYNONYMS: collide with, hit, run into, bump into

4 strike at to attack (someone or something)

5 to cause (a match) to light by friction

6 to sound (a specific note) on a musical instrument

7 (of a clock) to indicate (a time) by the sound of a bell

8 to affect (someone) deeply in a particular way: he never struck me as the supportive type

◇ SYNONYMS: seem to, appear to, look to, give the impression to 9 to enter the mind of: a brilliant thought struck me

◇ SYNONYMS: occur to, hit, come to, register (informal), dawn on or upon

10 (of a poisonous snake) to injure by biting

11 past participle struck or stricken to change into (a different state): struck blind

12 to be noticed by; catch: the heavy smell of incense struck my nostrils

13 to arrive at (something) suddenly or unexpectedly: to strike on a solution

14 to afflict (someone) with a disease: he was struck with polio when he was six

◇ SYNONYMS: affect, touch, devastate (informal), overwhelm, leave a mark on 15 to discover a source of (gold, oil, etc.)

16 to reach (something) by agreement: to strike a deal

17 to take up (a posture or an attitude)

18 to take apart or pack up: to strike camp

19 to make (a coin) by stamping it

20 strike home to achieve the desired effect

21 strike it rich (informal) to have an unexpected financial success

► n

22 a stopping of work, as a protest against working conditions, low pay, etc.: a one-day strike

◇ SYNONYMS: walkout, industrial action, mutiny, revolt, stop-work or stop-work meeting (Austral)

23 an act or instance of striking

24 a military attack, esp. an air attack on a target on land or at sea: a pre-emptive strike

25 (baseball) a pitched ball swung at and missed by the batter

26 (tenpin bowling) the knocking down of all the pins with one bowl 27 the discovery of a source of gold, oil, etc.

► See also strike off, strike up strike off vb to remove the name of (a doctor or lawyer who has done something wrong) from an official register, preventing him or her from practising again striker n

1 a person who is on strike

2 (soccer) an attacking player strike up vb

1 to begin (a conversation or friendship)

2 (of a band or an orchestra) to begin to play (a tune) striking adj

1 attracting attention; impressive: her striking appearance

◇ SYNONYMS: impressive, dramatic, outstanding, noticeable, conspicuous, jaw-dropping

2 very noticeable: a striking difference > strikingly adv

string n

1 thin cord or twine used for tying, hanging, or binding things

◇ SYNONYMS: cord, twine, fibre

2 a group of objects threaded on a single strand: a string of pearls

3 a series of things or events: a string of wins

◇ SYNONYMS: series, line, row, file, sequence, succession, procession

4 a tightly stretched wire or cord on a musical instrument, such as the guitar, violin, or piano, that produces sound when vibrated

5 the strings (music)

A violins, violas, cellos, and double basses collectively

B the section of an orchestra consisting of such instruments

6 a group of characters that can be treated as a unit by a computer program

7 with no strings attached (of an offer) without complications or conditions

8 pull strings (informal) to use one's power or influence, esp. secretly or unofficially

► adj

9 composed of stringlike strands woven in a large mesh: a string bag

► vb stringing, strung

10 to hang or stretch (something) from one point to another

11 to provide (something) with a string or strings

12 to thread (beads) on a string

13 to extend in a line or series: towns strung out along the valley

> stringlike adj string along vb (informal)

1 string along with to accompany: I'll string along with you

2 to deceive (someone) over a period of time: she had only been stringing him along stringed adj (of musical instruments) having strings stringent (strin-jent) adj requiring strict attention to rules or detail: all have particularly stringent environmental laws

◇ SYNONYMS: strict, tough, rigorous, tight, severe, rigid, inflexible > stringency n

string up vb (informal) to kill (a person) by hanging stringy adj stringier, stringiest

- 1 thin and rough: stringy hair
- 2 (of meat or other food) tough and fibrous stringy-bark n an Australian eucalyptus with a fibrous bark strip¹ vb stripping, stripped

- 1 to take (the covering or clothes) off (oneself, another person, or thing)

◇ SYNONYMS: undress, disrobe, unclothe

2

- A to undress completely

◇ SYNONYMS: undress, disrobe, unclothe

- B to perform a striptease

- 3 to empty (a building) of all furniture

- 4 to take something away from (someone): they were stripped of their possessions

◇ SYNONYMS: plunder, rob, loot, empty, sack, ransack, pillage, divest

- 5 to remove (paint) from (a surface or furniture): she stripped the plaster from the kitchen walls

- 6 (often foll. by down) to dismantle (an engine or a mechanism) into individual parts

► n

- 7 the act or an instance of undressing or of performing a striptease strip² n

- 1 a long narrow piece of something

◇ SYNONYMS: piece, shred, band, belt

- 2 short for airstrip

- 3 (Brit & Austral & NZ) the clothes a sports team plays in strip cartoon n a sequence of drawings in a newspaper or magazine, telling an amusing story or an adventure stripe n

- 1 a long band of colour that differs from the surrounding material

2 a chevron or band worn on a uniform to indicate rank

► vb striping, striped

3 to mark (something) with stripes > striped or stripy or stripey adj stripling n a teenage boy or young man stripper n

1 a person who performs a striptease

2 a tool or liquid for removing paint or varnish striptease n an entertainment in which a person gradually undresses to music strive vb striving, strove, striven to make a great effort: to strive for a peaceful settlement

◇ SYNONYMS: try, labour, struggle, attempt, toil, go all out (informal), bend over backwards (informal), do your best strobe n short for stroboscope stroboscope n an instrument producing a very bright flashing light which makes moving people appear stationary strode vb the past tense of stride stroke vb stroking, stroked

1 to touch or brush lightly or gently

◇ SYNONYMS: caress, rub, fondle, pet

► n

2 a light touch or caress with the fingers

3 (pathol) rupture of a blood vessel in the brain resulting in loss of consciousness, often followed by paralysis and damage to speech ◇ SYNONYMS: apoplexy, fit, seizure, attack, collapse

4 a blow, knock, or hit

◇ SYNONYMS: blow, hit, knock, pat, rap, thump, swipe (informal)

5 an action or occurrence of the kind specified: a fantastic stroke of luck; a stroke of intuition

6

A the striking of a clock

B the hour registered by this: at the stroke of twelve

7 a mark made by a pen or paintbrush

8 the hitting of the ball in sports such as golf or cricket

9 any one of the repeated movements used by a swimmer

10 a particular style of swimming, such as the crawl

11 a single pull on the oars in rowing

12 at a stroke with one action

13 not a stroke (of work) no work at all stroll vb

1 to walk about in a leisurely manner

◇ SYNONYMS: walk, ramble, amble, promenade, saunter

► n

2 a leisurely walk

◇ SYNONYMS: walk, promenade, constitutional, ramble, breath of air strong adj stronger, strongest

1 having physical power

◇ SYNONYMS: powerful, muscular, tough, athletic, strapping, hardy, sturdy, burly

2 not easily broken or injured; solid or robust

◇ SYNONYMS: durable, substantial, sturdy, heavy-duty, well-built, hard-wearing

3 great in degree or intensity; not faint or feeble: a strong voice; a strong smell of explosive

4 (of arguments) supported by evidence; convincing

5 concentrated; not weak or diluted

6 having a powerful taste or smell: strong perfume

7 (of language) using swear words

8 (of a person) self-confident: a strong personality

9 committed or fervent: a strong believer in free trade

◇ SYNONYMS: keen, deep, acute, fervent, zealous, vehement

10 important or having a lot of power or influence: a strong left-wing tendency within the university

11 very competent at a particular activity: they sent a very strong team to the Olympics

12 containing or having a specified number: the 700-strong workforce

13 (of an accent) distinct and indicating where the speaker comes from

◇ SYNONYMS: distinct, marked, clear, unmistakable

14 (of a relationship) stable and likely to last 15 having an extreme or drastic effect: strong discipline

◇ SYNONYMS: extreme, radical, drastic, strict, harsh, rigid, forceful, uncompromising

16 (of a colour) very bright and intense

◇ SYNONYMS: bright, brilliant, dazzling, bold

17 (of a wind, current, or earthquake) moving fast or intensely

18 (of an economy, an industry, a currency, etc.) growing, successful, or increasing in value

◇ SYNONYMS: fit, robust, lusty

► adv

19 come on strong (informal)

A to show blatantly that one is sexually attracted to someone

B to make a forceful or exaggerated impression

20 going strong (informal) working or performing well; thriving > strongly adv

stronghold n

1 an area in which a particular belief is shared by many people: a Labour stronghold

◇ SYNONYMS: bastion, fortress, bulwark

2 a place that is well defended; fortress

◇ SYNONYMS: bastion, fortress, bulwark

strongroom n a specially designed room in which valuables are locked for safety strontium n (chem) a soft silvery-white metallic element: the radioactive isotope strontium-90 is used in nuclear power sources and is a hazardous nuclear fallout product. SYMBOL: Sr

strop n a leather strap for sharpening razors stroppy adj -pier, -piest (informal) bad-tempered or deliberately awkward strove vb the past tense of strive struck vb a past of strike structural adj

1 of or having structure or a structure

2 of or forming part of the structure of a building

3 (chem) of or involving the arrangement of atoms in molecules: a structural formula > structurally adv

structuralism n an approach to social sciences and to literature which sees changes in the subject as caused and organized by a hidden set of universal rules > structuralist n, adj

structure n

1 something that has been built or organized

◇ SYNONYMS: building, construction, erection, edifice

2 the way the individual parts of something are made, built, or organized into a whole

◇ SYNONYMS: arrangement, form, make-up, design, organization, construction, formation, configuration

3 the pattern of interrelationships within an organization, society, etc.

4 an organized method of working, thinking, or behaving

5 (chem) the arrangement of atoms in a molecule of a chemical compound

6 (geol) the way in which a rock is made up of its component parts

► vb -turing, -tured

7 to arrange (something) into an organized system or pattern: a structured school curriculum

◇ SYNONYMS: arrange, organize, design, shape, build up, assemble strudel n a thin sheet of filled dough rolled up and baked: apple strudel struggle vb -gling, -gled

1 to work or strive: the old regime struggled for power; he struggled to keep the conversation flowing

◇ SYNONYMS: strive, labour, toil, work, strain, go all out (informal), give it your best shot (informal), exert yourself

2 to move about violently in an attempt to escape from something restricting

3 to fight with someone, often for possession of something

◇ SYNONYMS: fight, battle, wrestle, grapple, compete, contend

4 to go or progress with difficulty

5 struggle on to manage to do something with difficulty

► n

6 something requiring a lot of exertion or effort to achieve

7 a fight or battle

◇ SYNONYMS: fight, battle, conflict, clash, contest, brush, combat, tussle, biff (Austral slang)

8 the struggle (S African) the concerted opposition to apartheid > struggling adj

strum vb strumming, strummed

1 to play (a stringed instrument) by sweeping the thumb or a plectrum across the strings

2 to play (a tune) in this way strumpet n (archaic) a prostitute or promiscuous woman strung vb the past of string strut vb strutting, strutted

1 to walk in a stiff proud way with head high and shoulders back; swagger

◇ SYNONYMS: swagger, parade, peacock, prance

► n

2 a piece of wood or metal that forms part of the framework of a structure strychnine (strik-neen) n a very poisonous drug formerly used in small quantities as a stimulant stub n

1 a short piece remaining after something has been used: a cigarette stub

2 the section of a ticket or cheque which the purchaser keeps as a receipt

► vb stubbing, stubbed

3 to strike (one's toe or foot) painfully against a hard surface

4 stub out to put out (a cigarette or cigar) by pressing the end against a surface stubble n

- 1 the short stalks left in a field where a crop has been harvested
 - 2 the short bristly hair on the chin of a man who has not shaved for a while
- > stubbly adj

stubborn adj

- 1 refusing to agree or give in
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: obstinate, dogged, inflexible, persistent, intractable, tenacious, recalcitrant, unyielding
 - 2 persistent and determined
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: obstinate, dogged, inflexible, persistent, intractable, tenacious, recalcitrant, unyielding
 - 3 difficult to handle, treat, or overcome: the most stubborn dandruff
- > stubbornly adv
- > stubbornness n stubby adj -bier, -biest short and broad stucco n

- 1 plaster used for coating or decorating outside walls
 - vb -coing, -coed
- 2 to apply stucco to (a building)

stuck vb

- 1 the past of stick
- adj
- 2 (informal) baffled by a problem or unable to find an answer to a question
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: baffled, stumped, beaten
- 3 be stuck on (slang) to feel a strong attraction to; be infatuated with
- 4 get stuck in (informal) to perform a task with determination stuck-up adj (informal) proud or snobbish stud¹ n

1 a small piece of metal attached to a surface for decoration

2 a fastener consisting of two discs at either end of a short bar, usually used with clothes

3 one of several small round objects attached to the sole of a football boot to give better grip

► vb studding, studded

4 to decorate or cover (something) with or as if with studs: apartment houses studded with satellite dishes

stud² n

1 a male animal, esp. a stallion kept for breeding

2 Also: stud farm a place where animals are bred

3 the state of being kept for breeding purposes

4 (slang) a virile or sexually active man student n

1 a person following a course of study in a school, college, or university

◇ SYNONYMS: undergraduate, scholar

2 a person who makes a thorough study of a subject: a keen student of opinion polls

◇ SYNONYMS: learner, trainee, apprentice, disciple studied adj carefully practised or planned: studied calm

◇ SYNONYMS: planned, deliberate, conscious, intentional, premeditated studio n, pl -dios

1 a room in which an artist, photographer, or musician works

◇ SYNONYMS: workshop, workroom, atelier

2 a room used to record television or radio programmes or to make films or records

3 studios the premises of a radio, television, record, or film company studio flat n (Brit) a flat with one main room and, usually, a small kitchen and bathroom. Also called: studio apartment studious (styoo-dee-uss) adj

1 serious, thoughtful, and hard-working

2 precise, careful, or deliberate > studiously adv

study vb studies, studying, studied

1 to be engaged in the learning or understanding of (a subject)

◇ SYNONYMS: learn, cram (informal), swot (up) (Brit informal), read up, mug up (Brit slang)

2 to investigate or examine (something) by observation and research

◇ SYNONYMS: contemplate, read, examine, consider, go into, pore over

3 to look at (something or someone) closely; scrutinize

◇ SYNONYMS: examine, survey, look at, scrutinize

► n, pl studies

4 the act or process of studying

◇ SYNONYMS: learning, lessons, school work, reading, research, swotting (Brit informal)

5 a room used for studying, reading, or writing

6 (often pl) work relating to a particular area of learning: environmental studies

7 an investigation and analysis of a particular subject

◇ SYNONYMS: examination, investigation, analysis, consideration, inspection, scrutiny, contemplation

8 a paper or book produced as a result of study

◇ SYNONYMS: piece of research, survey, report, review, inquiry, investigation

9 a work of art, such as a drawing, done for practice or in preparation for another work

10 a musical composition designed to develop playing technique stuff n

1 substance or material

2 any collection of unnamed things

◇ SYNONYMS: things, gear, possessions, effects, equipment, objects, tackle, kit

3 the raw material of something

◇ SYNONYMS: substance, material, essence, matter

4 subject matter, skill, etc.: this journalist knew his stuff

5 woollen fabric

6 do one's stuff (informal) to do what is expected of one

► vb

7 to pack or fill (something) completely; cram

◇ SYNONYMS: cram, fill, pack, crowd

8 to force, shove, or squeeze (something somewhere): I stuffed it in my briefcase

◇ SYNONYMS: shove, force, push, squeeze, jam, ram

9 to fill (food such as poultry or tomatoes) with a seasoned mixture

10 to fill (a dead animal's skin) with material so as to restore the shape of the live animal

11 (slang) to frustrate or defeat

12 get stuffed! (Brit & Austral & NZ slang) an exclamation of anger or annoyance with someone

13 stuff oneself or one's face to eat a large amount of food stuffing n

1 a mixture of ingredients with which poultry or meat is stuffed before cooking

2 the material used to fill and give shape to soft toys, pillows, furniture, etc.; padding

◇ SYNONYMS: wadding, filling, packing stuffy adj -ier, -iest

1 lacking fresh air

2 old-fashioned and very formal: an image of stuffy tradition > stuffiness n

stumble vb -bling, -bled

1 to trip and almost fall while walking or running

◇ SYNONYMS: trip, fall, slip, reel, stagger, falter, lurch

2 to walk in an unsteady or unsure way

◇ SYNONYMS: totter, reel, lurch, wobble

3 to make mistakes or hesitate in speech

4 stumble across or on or upon to encounter or discover (someone or something) by accident

◇ SYNONYMS stumble across or on something or someone: discover, find, come across, chance upon

► n

5 an act of stumbling stumbling block n any obstacle that prevents something from taking place or progressing stump n

1 the base of a tree trunk left standing after the tree has been cut down or has fallen

2 the part of something, such as a tooth or limb, that remains after a larger part has been removed

◇ SYNONYMS: tail end, end, remnant, remainder

3 (cricket) any of three upright wooden sticks that, with two bails laid across them, form a wicket

► vb

4 to baffle or confuse (someone)

◇ SYNONYMS: baffle, confuse, puzzle, bewilder, perplex, mystify, flummox, nonplus

5 (cricket) to dismiss (a batsman) by breaking his or her wicket with the ball

6 (chiefly US & Canad) to campaign or canvass (an area), by political speech-making

7 to walk with heavy steps; trudge stump up vb (Brit informal) to give (the money required) stumpy adj stumpier, stumpiest short and thick like a stump; stubby stun vb stunning, stunned

1 to shock or astonish (someone) so that he or she is unable to speak or act

◇ SYNONYMS: overcome, shock, confuse, astonish, stagger, bewilder, astound, overpower

2 (of a heavy blow or fall) to make (a person or an animal) unconscious

◇ SYNONYMS: daze, knock out, stupefy, numb, benumb stung vb the past of sting stunk vb a past of stink stunning adj (informal) very attractive or impressive ◇ SYNONYMS: wonderful, beautiful, impressive, striking, lovely, spectacular, marvellous, splendid > stunningly adv

stunt¹ vb to prevent or slow down (the growth or development of a plant, animal, or person) > stunted adj

stunt² n

1 an acrobatic or dangerous piece of action in a film or television programme

2 anything spectacular or unusual done to gain publicity

◇ SYNONYMS: feat, act, trick, exploit, deed

► adj

3 of or relating to acrobatic or dangerous pieces of action in films or television programmes: a stunt man stupefaction n the state of being unable to think clearly because of tiredness or boredom stupefy vb -pefies, -pefying, -pefied

1 to make (someone) feel so bored and tired that he or she is unable to think clearly

2 to confuse or astound (someone) > stupefying adj

stupendous adj very large or impressive > stupendously adv

stupid adj

1 lacking in common sense or intelligence

◇ SYNONYMS: unintelligent, thick, dim (informal), dense

2 trivial, silly, or childish: we got into a stupid quarrel

◇ SYNONYMS: silly, foolish, daft (informal), rash, pointless, senseless, idiotic, fatuous

3 unable to think clearly; dazed: stupid with tiredness

◇ SYNONYMS: senseless, dazed, groggy, insensate, semiconscious > stupidity n

> stupidly adv

stupor n a state of near unconsciousness in which a person is unable to behave normally or think clearly sturdy adj -dier, -diest

1 (of a person) healthy, strong, and unlikely to tire or become injured

◇ SYNONYMS: robust, hardy, powerful, athletic, muscular, lusty, brawny

2 (of a piece of furniture, shoes, etc.) strongly built or made ◇ SYNONYMS: substantial, solid, durable, well-made, well-built > sturdily adv

sturgeon n a bony fish from which caviar is obtained stutter vb

1 to speak (a word or phrase) with involuntary repetition of initial consonants

► n

2 the tendency to involuntarily repeat initial consonants while speaking > stuttering n

sty n, pl sties a pen in which pigs are kept stye or sty n, pl styes or sties inflammation of a gland at the base of an eyelash style n

1 a form of appearance, design, or production: I like that style of dress

◇ SYNONYMS: design, form, cut

2 the way in which something is done: a new style of command

◇ SYNONYMS: manner, way, method, approach, technique, mode

3 elegance or refinement of manners and dress: he has bags of style

◇ SYNONYMS: elegance, taste, chic, flair (informal), polish, sophistication, panache, flamboyance, élan

4 a distinctive manner of expression in words, music, painting, etc.: a painting in the Expressionist style

5 popular fashion in dress and looks: the old ones had gone out of style

◇ SYNONYMS: fashion, trend, mode, vogue, rage

6 a fashionable or showy way of life: the newly rich could dine in style

◇ SYNONYMS: luxury, ease, comfort, elegance, grandeur, affluence

7 the particular kind of spelling, punctuation, and design followed in a book, journal, or publishing house

8 (botany) the stemlike part of a flower that bears the stigma

► vb styling, styled

9 to design, shape, or tailor: neatly styled hair

◇ SYNONYMS: design, cut, tailor, fashion, shape, arrange, adapt

10 to name or call: Walsh, who styled himself the Memory Man

◇ SYNONYMS: call, name, term, label, entitle, dub, designate stylish adj smart, fashionable, and attracting attention ◇ SYNONYMS: smart, chic, fashionable, trendy (Brit informal), modish, dressy (informal), voguish, schmick (Austral informal), funky > stylishly adv

stylist n

1 a hairdresser who styles hair

2 a person who performs, writes, or acts with great attention to the particular style he or she employs stylistic adj of the techniques used in creating or performing a work of art:

there are many stylistic problems facing the performers of Baroque music > stylistically adv

stylus n a needle-like device in the pick-up arm of a record player that rests in the groove in the record and picks up the sound signals

stymie vb -mieing, -mied

1 to hinder or foil (someone): the President was stymied by a reluctant Congress

► n, pl -mies

2 (golf) (formerly) a situation in which an opponent's ball is blocking the line between the hole and the ball about to be played styptic adj

1 used to stop bleeding: a styptic pencil

► n

2 a styptic drug suave (swahv) adj (esp. of a man) smooth, confident, and sophisticated > suavely adv

sub n

1 short for subeditor, submarine, subscription, substitute

2 (Brit informal) an advance payment of wages or salary. Formal term: subsistence allowance

► vb subbing, subbed

3 to act as a substitute sub- or (before r) sur- prefix

1 situated under or beneath: subterranean

2 secondary in rank; subordinate: sublieutenant

3 falling short of; less than or imperfectly: subarctic; subhuman

4 forming a subdivision or less important part: subcommittee subaltern n a British army officer below the rank of captain subatomic adj (physics) of, relating to, or being one of the particles making up an atom subcommittee n a small committee consisting of members of a larger committee and which is set up to look into a particular matter subconscious adj

1 happening or existing without one's awareness

► n

2 (psychol) the part of the mind that contains memories and motives of which one is not aware but which can influence one's behaviour > subconsciously adv

subcontinent n a large land mass that is a distinct part of a continent, such as India is of Asia subcontract n

1 a secondary contract by which the main contractor for a job puts work out to another company

► vb

2 to let out (work) on a subcontract > subcontractor n

subcutaneous (sub-cute-ayn-ee-uss) adj (med) beneath the skin subdivide vb -viding, -vided to divide (a part of something) into smaller parts > subdivision n

subdue vb -duing, -dued

1 to overcome and bring (a person or people) under control by persuasion or force

◇ SYNONYMS: overcome, defeat, master, break, control, crush, conquer, tame

2 to make (feelings, colour, or lighting) less intense

◇ SYNONYMS: moderate, suppress, soften, mellow, tone down, quieten down subeditor n a person who checks and edits text for a newspaper or other publication subject (sub-ject) n

1 the person, thing, or topic being dealt with or discussed

◇ SYNONYMS: topic, question, issue, matter, point, business, affair, object

2 any branch of learning considered as a course of study

3 a person, object, idea, or scene portrayed in a work of art

4 (grammar) a word or phrase that represents the person or thing performing the action of the verb in a sentence; for example, the cat in the sentence The cat catches mice

5 a person or thing that undergoes an experiment or treatment

6 a person under the rule of a monarch or government: Zambian subjects

◇ SYNONYMS: citizen, resident, native, inhabitant, national

► adj

7 being under the rule of a monarch or government: a subject race

8 subject to

A showing a tendency towards: they are expensive and subject to overruns in cost and time

◇ SYNONYMS subject to: liable to, open to, exposed to, vulnerable to, prone to, susceptible to

B exposed or vulnerable to: subject to ridicule

◇ SYNONYMS subject to: liable to, open to, exposed to, vulnerable to, prone to, susceptible to

C conditional upon: pay is subject to negotiation

◇ SYNONYMS subject to: dependent on, contingent on, controlled by, conditional on

► adv

9 subject to under the condition that something takes place: my visit was agreed subject to certain conditions

◇ SYNONYMS subject to: bound by ► vb (sub-ject)

10 subject to

A to cause (someone) to experience (something unpleasant): they were subjected to beatings

◇ SYNONYMS: put through, expose, submit, lay open

B to bring under the control or authority of: to subject a soldier to discipline

◇ SYNONYMS: put through, expose, submit, lay open > subjection n

subjective adj

1 of or based on a person's emotions or prejudices

◇ SYNONYMS: personal, prejudiced, biased, nonobjective

► n

2 (grammar) the grammatical case in certain languages that identifies the subject of a verb > subjectively adv

sub judice (sub joo-diss-ee) adj before a court of law: he declined to comment on the case saying it was sub judice subjugate vb -gating, -gated to bring (a group of people) under one's control > subjugation n

subjunctive (grammar) adj

1 denoting a mood of verbs used when the content of the clause is being doubted, supposed, or feared true, for example were in the sentence I'd be careful if I were you

► n

2 the subjunctive mood

sublet vb -letting, -let to rent out (property which one is renting from someone else)

sublimate vb -mating, -mated (psychol) to direct the energy of (a strong desire, esp. a sexual one) into activities that are socially more acceptable > sublimation n

sublime adj

1 causing deep emotions and feelings of wonder or joy

◇ SYNONYMS: noble, glorious, high, great, grand, elevated, lofty, exalted

2 without equal; supreme

3 of great moral, artistic, or spiritual value

◇ SYNONYMS: noble, glorious, high, great, grand, elevated, lofty, exalted

► n

4 the sublime something that is sublime

► vb -liming, -limed

5 (chem, physics) to change directly from a solid to a vapour without first melting > sublimely adv

subliminal adj resulting from or relating to mental processes of which the individual is not aware: the subliminal message

sub-machine-gun n a portable automatic or semiautomatic gun with a short barrel submarine n

1 a vessel which can operate below the surface of the sea

► adj

2 existing or located below the surface of the sea: submarine cables > submariner n

submerge vb -merging, -merged

1 to put or go below the surface of water or another liquid

◇ SYNONYMS: immerse, plunge, duck

2 to involve totally: she submerged herself in her work

◇ SYNONYMS: overwhelm, swamp, engulf, deluge > submersion n

submission n

1 an act or instance of capitulation

◇ SYNONYMS: surrender, yielding, giving in, cave-in (informal), capitulation

2 the act of submitting (something)

◇ SYNONYMS: presentation, handing in, entry, tendering

3 something submitted, such as a proposal

4 the state in which someone has to accept the control of another person

◇ SYNONYMS: compliance, obedience, meekness, resignation, deference, passivity, docility submissive adj showing quiet obedience > submissively adv

> submissiveness n

submit vb -mitting, -mitted

1 to accept the will of another person or a superior force

◇ SYNONYMS: surrender, yield, give in, agree, endure, tolerate, comply, succumb

2 to send (an application or proposal) to someone for judgment or consideration

◇ SYNONYMS: present, hand in, tender, put forward, table (Brit), proffer

3 to be voluntarily subjected (to medical or psychiatric treatment) subordinate adj

1 of lesser rank or importance

◇ SYNONYMS: inferior, lesser, lower, junior, subject, minor, secondary, dependent

► n

2 a person or thing that is of lesser rank or importance

◇ SYNONYMS: inferior, junior, assistant, aide, second, attendant

► vb -nating, -nated

3 (usually foll. by to) to regard (something) as less important than another: the army's interests were subordinated to those of the air force

> subordination n

suborn vb (formal) to bribe or incite (a person) to commit a wrongful act subpoena (sub-pee-na) n

1 a legal document requiring a person to appear before a court of law at a specified time

► vb -naing, -naed

2 to summon (someone) with a subpoena subprime adj

1 (of a loan) made to a borrower with a poor credit rating: subprime mortgage

► n

2 such a loan subscribe vb -scribing, -scribed

1 (usually foll. by to) to pay (money) as a contribution (to a charity, for a magazine, etc.) at regular intervals

◇ SYNONYMS: contribute to, give to, donate to

2 subscribe to to give support or approval to: I do not subscribe to this view

◇ SYNONYMS: support, advocate, endorse > subscriber n

subscription n

1 a payment for issues of a publication over a specified period of time

2 money paid or promised, such as to a charity, or the fund raised in this way

3 (Brit & Austral & NZ) the membership fees paid to a society

◇ SYNONYMS: membership fee, dues, annual payment

4 an advance order for a new product subsection n any of the smaller parts into which a section may be divided subsequent adj occurring after; succeeding ◇ SYNONYMS: following, later, succeeding, after, successive, ensuing > subsequently adv

subservient adj

1 overeager to carry out someone else's wishes

2 of less importance or rank: a loyal, subservient ally > subservience n

subside vb -siding, -sided

1 to become less loud, excited, or violent ◇ SYNONYMS: decrease, diminish, lessen, ease, wane, ebb, abate, slacken

2 to sink to a lower level

3 (of the surface of the earth) to cave in; collapse

◇ SYNONYMS: collapse, sink, cave in, drop, lower, settle > subsidence n

subsidiary n, pl -aries

1 Also called: subsidiary company a company which is at least half owned by another company

2 a person or thing that is of lesser importance

► adj

3 of lesser importance; subordinate

◇ SYNONYMS: secondary, lesser, subordinate, minor, supplementary, auxiliary, ancillary subsidize or -dise vb -dizing, -dized or -dising, -dised to aid or support (an industry, a person, a public service, or a venture) with money subsidy n, pl -dies

1 financial aid supplied by a government, for example to industry, or for public welfare

◇ SYNONYMS: aid, help, support, grant, assistance, allowance

2 any financial aid, grant, or contribution

◇ SYNONYMS: aid, help, support, grant, assistance, allowance

subsist vb subsist on to manage to live on: to subsist on a diet of sausage rolls > subsistence n subsonic adj being or moving at a speed below that of sound substance n

1 the basic matter of which a thing consists

◇ SYNONYMS: material, body, stuff, fabric

2 a specific type of matter with definite or fairly definite chemical composition: a fatty substance

3 the essential meaning of a speech, thought, or written article

◇ SYNONYMS: meaning, main point, gist, import, significance, essence

4 important or meaningful quality: the only evidence of substance against him

◇ SYNONYMS: importance, significance, concreteness

5 material possessions or wealth: a woman of substance

◇ SYNONYMS: wealth, means, property, assets, resources, estate

6 in substance with regard to the most important points substantial adj

1 of a considerable size or value: a substantial amount of money

◇ SYNONYMS: big, significant, considerable, large, important, ample, sizable or sizeable

2 (of food or a meal) large and filling

3 solid or strong: substantial brick pillars

4 (formal) available to the senses; real: substantial evidence

5 of or relating to the basic material substance of a thing > substantially adv

substantiate vb -ating, -ated to establish (a story) as genuine > substantiation n

substantive n

1 (grammar) a noun or pronoun used in place of a noun

► adj

2 having importance or significance: substantive negotiations between management and staff

3 of or being the essential element of a thing substitute vb -tuting, -tuted

1 (often foll. by for) to take the place of or put in place of another person or thing

◇ SYNONYMS: replace, exchange, swap, change, switch, interchange

2 (chem) to replace (an atom or group in a molecule) with (another atom or group)

► n

3 a person or thing that takes the place of another, such as a player who takes the place of a team-mate

◇ SYNONYMS: replacement, reserve, surrogate, deputy, sub, proxy, locum > substitution n

subsume vb -suming, -sumed (formal) to include (something) under a larger classification or group: an attempt to subsume fascism and communism under a general concept of totalitarianism

subterfuge n a trick or deception used to achieve an objective subterranean adj

1 found or operating below the surface of the earth

2 existing or working in a concealed or mysterious way: the resistance movement worked largely by subterranean methods

subtitle n

1 subtitles (films) a written translation at the bottom of the picture in a film with foreign dialogue

2 a secondary title given to a book or play

► vb -tling, -tled

3 to provide subtitles for (a film) or a subtitle for (a book or play) subtle adj

1 not immediately obvious: a subtle change in his views

◇ SYNONYMS: faint, slight, implied, delicate, understated

2 (of a colour, taste, or smell) delicate or faint: the subtle aroma

◇ SYNONYMS: faint, slight, implied, delicate, understated

3 using shrewd and indirect methods to achieve an objective

◇ SYNONYMS: crafty, cunning, sly, shrewd, ingenious, devious, wily, artful

4 having or requiring the ability to make fine distinctions: a subtle argument

◇ SYNONYMS: fine, minute, narrow, tenuous, hair-splitting > subtly adv

subtlety n

1 pl -ties a fine distinction

◇ SYNONYMS: fine point, refinement, sophistication, delicacy

2 the state or quality of being subtle

◇ SYNONYMS: skill, ingenuity, cleverness, deviousness, craftiness, artfulness, slyness, wiliness subtract vb

1 (maths) to take (one number or quantity) away from another

2 to remove (a part of something) from the whole > subtraction n

subtropical adj of the region lying between the tropics and temperate lands suburb n a residential district on the outskirts of a city or town suburban adj

1 of, in, or inhabiting a suburb

2 (derogatory) conventional and unexciting suburbia n suburbs or the people living in them considered as a distinct community or class in society subvention n (formal) a grant or subsidy, for example one from a government subversion n the act or an instance of attempting to weaken or overthrow a government or an institution subversive adj

1 intended or intending to weaken or overthrow a government or an institution

◇ SYNONYMS: seditious, riotous, treasonous

► n

2 a person engaged in subversive activities

◇ SYNONYMS: dissident, terrorist, saboteur, fifth columnist subvert vb to bring about the downfall of (something existing by a system of law, such as a government)

subway n

1 (Brit & Austral) an underground passage for pedestrians to cross a road or railway

2 an underground railway succeed vb

1 to achieve an aim

◇ SYNONYMS: triumph, win, prevail

2 to turn out satisfactorily: Grandfather's plan succeeded

◇ SYNONYMS: work out, work, be successful

3 to do well in a specified field: how to succeed in show biz

◇ SYNONYMS: make it (informal), do well, be successful, triumph, thrive, flourish, make good, prosper

4 to come next in order after (someone or something): the first shock had been succeeded by a different kind of gloom

◇ SYNONYMS: follow, come after, follow after

5 to take over (a position) from (someone): Henry VIII succeeded to the throne in 1509; he will be succeeded as president by his deputy

◇ SYNONYMS: take over from, assume the office of > succeeding adj

success n

1 the achievement of something attempted

◇ SYNONYMS: victory, triumph

2 the attainment of wealth, fame, or position

◇ SYNONYMS: prosperity, fortune, luck, fame

3 a person or thing that is successful

◇ SYNONYMS: hit (informal), winner, smash (informal), triumph, sensation successful adj

1 having a favourable outcome

◇ SYNONYMS: triumphant, victorious, lucky, fortunate

2 having attained fame, wealth, or position

◇ SYNONYMS: thriving, profitable, rewarding, booming, flourishing, fruitful > successfully adv succession n

1 a number of people or things following one another in order

◇ SYNONYMS: series, run, sequence, course, order, train, chain, cycle

2 the act or right by which one person succeeds another in a position

◇ SYNONYMS: taking over, assumption, inheritance, accession

3 in succession one after another: the third time in succession successive adj following another or others without interruption: eleven successive victories

◇ SYNONYMS: consecutive, following, in succession > successively adv

successor n a person or thing that follows another, esp. a person who takes over another's job or position succinct adj brief and clear: a succinct answer to this question > succinctly adv

succour or (US) succor n

1 help in time of difficulty

► vb

2 to give aid to (someone in time of difficulty) succulent adj

1 (of food) juicy and delicious

2 (of plants) having thick fleshy leaves or stems

► n

3 a plant that can exist in very dry conditions by using water stored in its fleshy tissues > succulence n

succumb vb succumb to

A to give way to the force of or desire for (something)

B to die of (a disease) such adj

1 of the sort specified or understood: such places

2 so great or so much: such a mess

► adv

3 extremely: such a powerful friend

► pron

4 a person or thing of the sort specified or understood: such is the law of the land; fruitcakes and puddings and such 5 as such in itself or themselves: the Nordic countries are not lifting sanctions as such

6 such as for example: other socialist groups, such as the Fabians suchlike n

1 such or similar things: shampoos, talcs, and suchlike

► adj

2 of such a kind; similar: astrology and suchlike nonsense

suck vb

1 to draw (a liquid) into the mouth through pursed lips

◇ SYNONYMS: drink, sip, draw

2 to take (something) into the mouth and moisten, dissolve, or roll it around with the tongue: suck a mint

3 to extract liquid from (a solid food): he sat sucking orange segments

4 to draw in (fluid) as if by sucking: the mussel sucks in water

◇ SYNONYMS: take, draw, pull, extract

5 to drink milk from (a mother's breast); suckle

6 (often foll. by down or in, etc.) to draw (a thing or person somewhere) with a powerful force

7 (slang) to be contemptible or disgusting

► n

8 a sucking sucker n

1 (slang) a person who is easily deceived or swindled

2 (slang) a person who cannot resist something: he's a sucker for fast cars

3 (zool) a part of the body of certain animals that is used for sucking or sticking to a surface

4 a rubber cup-shaped device attached to objects allowing them to stick to a surface by suction

5 (botany) a strong shoot coming from a mature plant's root or the base of its main stem suckle vb -ling, -led to give (a baby or young animal) milk from the breast or udder or (of a baby or young animal) to suck milk from its mother's breast or udder suckling n a baby or young animal that is still sucking milk from its mother's breast or udder suck up to vb (informal) to flatter (a person in authority) in order to get something, such as praise or promotion sucrose (soo-kroze) n (chem) sugar suction n

1 the act or process of sucking

2 the force produced by drawing air out of a space to make a vacuum that will suck in a substance from another space sudden adj

1 occurring or performed quickly and without warning

◇ SYNONYMS: quick, rapid, unexpected, swift, hurried, abrupt, hasty

► n

2 all of a sudden without warning; unexpectedly > suddenly adv

> suddenness n

sudden death n (sport) an extra period of play to decide the winner of a tied competition: the first player or team to go into the lead is the winner

sudoku (soo-doh-koo) n a logic puzzle involving the insertion of numbers so that none is repeated in the same row, column, or internal square of a larger square

sudorific (syoo-dor-if-ik) adj

1 causing sweating

► n

2 a drug that causes sweating suds pl n the bubbles on the surface of water in which soap or detergent has been dissolved; lather sue vb suing, sued to start legal proceedings (against): we want to sue the council; he sued for custody of the three children

◇ SYNONYMS: take (someone) to court, prosecute, charge, summon, indict suede n a leather with a fine velvet-like surface on one side suet n a hard fat obtained from sheep and cattle and used for making pastry and puddings suffer vb

1 to undergo or be subjected to (physical pain or mental distress)

◇ SYNONYMS: be in pain, hurt, ache

2 suffer from to be badly affected by (an illness): he was suffering from flu

3 to become worse in quality; deteriorate: his work suffered during their divorce

4 to tolerate: he suffers no fools

◇ SYNONYMS: tolerate, stand, put up with (informal), bear, endure

5 to be set at a disadvantage: the strongest of them suffers by comparison > sufferer n

> suffering n

sufferance n on sufferance tolerated with reluctance: I was there on sufferance and all knew it suffice (suf-ficie) vb -ficing, -ficed

1 to be enough or satisfactory for a purpose

◇ SYNONYMS: be enough, do, be sufficient, be adequate, serve, meet requirements, tick all the boxes

2 suffice it to say ... it is enough to say ...: suffice it to say that the overall result was very good sufficiency n, pl -cies an adequate amount sufficient adj enough to meet a need or purpose; adequate ◇ SYNONYMS: adequate, enough, ample, satisfactory > sufficiently adv

suffix (grammar) n

1 a letter or letters added to the end of a word to form another word, such as -s and -ness in dogs and softness

► vb

2 to add (a letter or letters) to the end of a word to form another word suffocate vb -cating, -cated

1 to kill or die through lack of oxygen, such as by blockage of the air passage

2 to feel uncomfortable from heat and lack of air > suffocating adj

> suffocation n suffragan n a bishop appointed to assist an archbishop suffrage n the right to vote in public elections suffragette n (in Britain at the beginning of the 20th century) a woman who campaigned militantly for women to be given the right to vote in public elections suffuse vb -fusing, -fused to spread through or over (something): the dawn suffused the sky with a cold grey wash > suffusion n

sugar n

1 a sweet carbohydrate, usually in the form of white or brown crystals, which is found in many plants and is used to sweeten food and drinks

2 (informal, chiefly US & Canad) a term of affection

► vb

3 to add sugar to (food or drink) to make it sweet

4 to cover with sugar: sugared almonds

5 sugar the pill to make something unpleasant more tolerable by adding something pleasant > sugared adj

sugar beet n a beet grown for the sugar obtained from its roots sugar cane n a tropical grass grown for the sugar obtained from its tall stout canes sugar daddy n an elderly man who gives a young person money and gifts in return for their company sugar glider n a common phalanger that glides from tree to tree feeding on insects and nectar sugary adj

1 of, like, or containing sugar: sugary snacks

2 (of behaviour or language) very pleasant but probably not sincere: sugary sentiment > sugariness n

suggest vb

1 to put forward (a plan or an idea) for consideration: he didn't suggest a meeting

◇ SYNONYMS: recommend, propose, advise, advocate, prescribe

2 to bring (a person or thing) to the mind by the association of ideas: a man whose very name suggests blandness

◇ SYNONYMS: bring to mind, evoke

3 to give a hint of: her grey eyes suggesting a livelier mood than usual

◇ SYNONYMS: indicate suggestible adj easily influenced by other people's ideas suggestion n

1 something that is suggested

◇ SYNONYMS: recommendation, proposal, proposition, plan, motion

2 a hint or indication: the entire castle gave no suggestion of period

◇ SYNONYMS: hint, insinuation, intimation

3 (psychol) the process whereby the presentation of an idea to a receptive individual leads to the acceptance of that idea suggestive adj

1 (of remarks or gestures) causing people to think of sex

2 suggestive of communicating a hint of suicidal adj

1 wanting to die by suicide

2 likely to lead to danger or death: a suicidal attempt to rescue her son

3 likely to destroy one's own career or future: it would be suicidal for them to ignore public opinion

suicide n

1 the act of killing oneself deliberately

2 a person who kills himself or herself intentionally

3 the self-inflicted ruin of one's own career or future: such a cut would be political suicide

suit n

1 a set of clothes of the same material designed to be worn together, usually a jacket with matching trousers or skirt

2 an outfit worn for a specific purpose: a diving suit

◇ SYNONYMS: outfit, costume, ensemble, dress, clothing, habit

3 a legal action taken against someone; lawsuit

◇ SYNONYMS: lawsuit, case, trial, proceeding, cause, action, prosecution

4 any of the four types of card in a pack of playing cards: spades, hearts, diamonds, or clubs

5 (slang) a business executive or white-collar worker

6 follow suit to act in the same way as someone else

7 strong suit or strongest suit something one excels in

► vb

8 to be fit or appropriate for: that colour suits you

◇ SYNONYMS: agree with, become, match, go with, harmonize with 9 to be acceptable to (someone)

◇ SYNONYMS: be acceptable to, please, satisfy, do, gratify

10 suit oneself to do what one wants without considering other people > suited adj

suitable adj appropriate for a particular function or occasion; proper ◇ SYNONYMS: appropriate, right, fitting, fit, becoming, satisfactory, apt, befitting > suitability n

> suitably adv

suitcase n a large portable travelling case for clothing suite n

1 a set of connected rooms in a hotel

◇ SYNONYMS: rooms, apartment

2 a matching set of furniture, for example two armchairs and a settee

3 (music) a composition of several movements in the same key suitor n

1 (old-fashioned) a man who wants to marry a woman

2 (law) a person who starts legal proceedings against someone; plaintiff sulk vb

1 to be silent and moody as a way of showing anger or resentment: I went home and sulked for two days

► n

2 a mood in which one shows anger or resentment by being silent and moody: he was just in a sulk sulky adj sulkier, sulkiest moody or silent because of anger or resentment > sulkily adv

> sulkiness n

sullen adj unwilling to talk or be sociable; sulky > sullenly adv

> sullenness n

sully vb -lies, -lying, -lied

1 to ruin (someone's reputation)

2 to spoil or make dirty: the stream had been sullied by the smelter's pollution sulphate or (US) sulfate n (chem) a salt or ester of sulphuric acid sulphide or (US) sulfide n (chem) a compound of sulphur with another element sulphite or (US) sulfite n (chem) any salt or ester of sulphurous acid sulphonamide or (US) sulfonamide (sulf-on-a-mide) n (pharmacol) any of a class of organic compounds that prevent the growth of bacteria sulphur or (US) sulfur n (chem) a light yellow, highly inflammable, nonmetallic element used in the production of sulphuric acid, in the vulcanization of rubber, and in medicine. SYMBOL: S > sulphuric or (US) sulfuric adj sultan n the sovereign of a Muslim country sultana n

- 1 the dried fruit of a small white seedless grape
- 2 a sultan's wife, mother, daughter, or concubine sultanate n

- 1 the territory ruled by a sultan
- 2 the office or rank of a sultan sultry adj -trier, -triest

- 1 (of weather or climate) very hot and humid
- 2 suggesting hidden passion: a sultry brunette sum n

- 1 the result of the addition of numbers or quantities
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: total, aggregate
- 2 one or more columns or rows of numbers to be added, subtracted, multiplied, or divided
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: calculation, figures, arithmetic, mathematics, maths (Brit informal), tally, math (US informal), arithmetical problem
- 3 a quantity of money: they can win enormous sums
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: amount, quantity, volume
- 4 in sum as a summary; in short: in sum, it's been a bad week for the government
 - adj

5 complete or final: the sum total

► vb summing, summed

6 See sum up summarize or -rise vb -rizing, -rized or -rising, -rised to give a short account of (something)

◇ SYNONYMS: sum up, condense, encapsulate, epitomize, abridge, précis

summary n, pl -maries

1 a brief account giving the main points of something ◇ SYNONYMS: synopsis, résumé, précis, review, outline, rundown, abridgment

► adj

2 performed quickly, without formality or attention to details: a summary judgment > summarily adv

summation n

1 a summary of what has just been done or said

2 the process of working out a sum; addition

3 the result of such a process summer n

1 the warmest season of the year, between spring and autumn

2 (literary) a time of youth, success, or happiness > summery adj

summerhouse n a small building in a garden, used for shade in the summer summertime n the period or season of summer summit n

1 the highest point or part of a mountain or hill

- ◇ SYNONYMS: peak, top, tip, pinnacle, apex, head
- 2 the highest possible degree or state; peak or climax: the summit of success
- ◇ SYNONYMS: height, pinnacle, peak, zenith, acme
- 3 a meeting of heads of governments or other high officials summon vb

- 1 to order (someone) to come
- ◇ SYNONYMS: send for, call, bid, invite
- 2 to send for (someone) to appear in court
- 3 to call upon (someone) to do something: the authorities had summoned the relatives to be available
- ◇ SYNONYMS: send for, call, bid, invite
- 4 to convene (a meeting)
- 5 (often foll. by up) to call into action (one's strength, courage, etc.); muster
- ◇ SYNONYMS: gather, muster, draw on summons n, pl -monses

- 1 a call or an order to attend a specified place at a specified time
- 2 an official order requiring a person to attend court, either to answer a charge or to give evidence
- vb
- 3 to order (someone) to appear in court: three others had been summonsed for questioning

sumo n the national style of wrestling of Japan, in which two contestants of great height and weight attempt to force each other out of the ring sump n

- 1 a container in an internal-combustion engine into which oil can drain
- 2 same as cesspool
- 3 (mining) a hollow at the bottom of a shaft where water collects sumptuous adj magnificent and very expensive; splendid: sumptuous decoration

◇ SYNONYMS: luxurious, grand, superb, splendid, gorgeous, lavish, opulent sum up vb

1 to give a short account of (the main points of an argument, speech, or piece of writing)

2 to form a quick opinion of: how well you have summed me up!

sun n

1 the star that is the source of heat and light for the planets in the solar system.

RELATED ADJECTIVE: solar

2 any star around which a system of planets revolves

3 the heat and light received from the sun; sunshine

4 catch the sun to become slightly suntanned

5 under the sun on earth; at all: there are no free lunches under the sun

► vb sunning, sunned

6 sun oneself to lie, sit, or walk in the sunshine on a warm day > sunless adj sunbathe vb -bathing, -bathed to lie or sit in the sunshine, in order to get a suntan > sunbather n

> sunbathing n

sunbeam n a ray of sunlight sunburn n painful reddening of the skin caused by overexposure to the sun > sunburnt or sunburned adj

sundae n ice cream topped with a sweet sauce, nuts, whipped cream, and fruit

Sunday n the first day of the week and the Christian day of worship

Sunday school n a school for teaching children about Christianity, usually held in a church hall on Sunday sundial n a device used for telling the time during the hours of sunlight, consisting of a pointer that casts a shadow onto a surface marked in hours

sundown n (US) sunset sundries pl n several things of various sorts sundry adj

1 several or various; miscellaneous

► pron

2 all and sundry everybody sunflower n

1 a very tall plant with large yellow flowers

2 sunflower seed oil the oil extracted from sunflower seeds, used as a salad oil and in margarine sung vb the past participle of sing sunk vb a past participle of sink sunken vb

1 a past participle of sink

► adj

2 (of a person's cheeks, eyes, or chest) curving inward due to old age or bad health

3 situated at a lower level than the surrounding or usual one: the sunken garden

4 situated under water; submerged: sunken ships sunny adj -nier, -niest

1 full of or lit up by sunshine

◇ SYNONYMS: bright, clear, fine, radiant, sunlit, summery, unclouded

2 cheerful and happy

◇ SYNONYMS: cheerful, happy, cheery, buoyant, joyful, light-hearted sunrise n

1 the daily appearance of the sun above the horizon

2 the time at which the sun rises sunscreen n a cream or lotion applied to exposed skin to reduce the effect of the ultraviolet rays of the sun sunset n

1 the daily disappearance of the sun below the horizon

◇ SYNONYMS: nightfall, dusk, eventide, close of (the) day

2 the time at which the sun sets

◇ SYNONYMS: nightfall, dusk, eventide, close of (the) day

sunshine n

1 the light and warmth from the sun

2 (Brit) a light-hearted term of address sunspot n

1 (informal) a sunny holiday resort

2 a dark cool patch on the surface of the sun

3 (Austral) a small area of skin damage caused by exposure to the sun sunstroke n a condition caused by spending too much time exposed to intensely hot sunlight, producing high fever and sometimes loss of consciousness suntan n a brownish colouring of the skin caused by exposure to the sun or a sun lamp > suntanned adj

sup vb supping, supped

1 to take (liquid) by swallowing a little at a time

► n

2 a sip

super (informal) adj

1 very good or very nice: they had a super holiday

► n (Austral & NZ)

2 superannuation

3 superphosphate super- prefix

1 above or over: superscript

2 outstanding: superstar

3 of greater size, extent, or quality: supermarket superannuated adj

1 discharged with a pension, owing to age or illness

2 too old to be useful; obsolete superannuation n

A a regular payment made by an employee into a pension fund

B the pension finally paid superb adj extremely good or impressive

◇ SYNONYMS: splendid (old-fashioned), excellent, magnificent, fine, grand, superior, marvellous, world-class, booshit (Austral slang), exo (Austral slang), sik (Austral slang), rad (informal), phat (slang), schmick (Austral informal)

> superbly adv

superbug n (informal) a bacterium resistant to antibiotics supercharger n a device that increases the power of an internal-combustion engine by forcing extra air into it supercilious adj behaving in a superior and arrogant manner > superciliously adv

> superciliousness n

superconductivity n (physics) the ability of certain substances to conduct electric current with almost no resistance at very low temperatures > superconducting adj

> superconductor n

superficial adj

1 not careful or thorough: a superficial analysis

◇ SYNONYMS: hasty, cursory, perfunctory, hurried, casual, sketchy, desultory, slapdash

2 only outwardly apparent rather than genuine or actual: those are merely superficial differences

3 (of a person) lacking deep emotions or serious interests; shallow

◇ SYNONYMS: shallow, frivolous, empty-headed, silly, trivial

4 of, near, or forming the surface: the gash was superficial

◇ SYNONYMS: slight, surface, external, on the surface, exterior > superficiality n > superficially adv

superfluous (soo-per-flew-uss) adj more than is sufficient or required > superfluity n

superfood n a food that is especially nutritious or otherwise beneficial to health superhero n, pl -roes (in science fiction) a person who uses supernatural powers to fight against evil superhuman adj beyond normal human ability or experience: a superhuman effort superimpose vb -posing, -posed to set or place (something) on or over something else superintend vb to supervise (a person or an activity) superintendent n

1 a senior police officer

2 a person who directs and manages an organization or office

◇ SYNONYMS: supervisor, director, manager, chief, governor, inspector, controller, overseer superior adj

1 greater in quality, quantity, or usefulness

◇ SYNONYMS: better, higher, greater, grander, surpassing, unrivalled

2 higher in rank, position, or status: he was reprimanded by a superior officer

3 believing oneself to be better than others

◇ SYNONYMS: supercilious, patronizing, condescending, haughty, disdainful, lordly, lofty, pretentious

4 of very high quality or respectability: superior merchandise

◇ SYNONYMS: first-class, excellent, first-rate, choice, exclusive, exceptional, de luxe, booshit (Austral slang), exo (Austral slang), sik (Austral slang), rad (informal), phat (slang), schmick (Austral informal)

5 (formal) placed higher up: damage to the superior surface of the wing

6 (printing) (of a character) written or printed above the line

► n

7 a person of greater rank or status

◇ SYNONYMS: boss, senior, director, manager, chief (informal), principal, supervisor, sherang (Austral & NZ) > superiority n

superlative (soo-per-lat-iv) adj

1 of outstanding quality; supreme

2 (grammar) denoting the form of an adjective or adverb that expresses the highest degree of quality

► n

3 the highest quality

4 (grammar) the superlative form of an adjective or adverb superman or (fem) superwoman n, pl -men or -women someone with great physical or mental powers supermarket n a large self-service shop selling food and household goods supermodel n a famous and highly-paid fashion model supernatural adj

1 of or relating to things that cannot be explained by science, such as clairvoyance, ghosts, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: paranormal, unearthly, uncanny, ghostly, psychic, mystic, miraculous, occult

► n

2 the supernatural forces, occurrences, and beings that cannot be explained by science supernova n, pl -vae or -vas a star that explodes and, for a few days, becomes one hundred million times brighter than the sun

supernumerary adj

1 exceeding the required or regular number; extra

2 employed as a substitute or assistant

► n, pl -aries

3 a person or thing that exceeds the required or regular number

4 a substitute or assistant

5 an actor who has no lines to say superpower n a country of very great military and economic power, such as the US superscript (printing) adj

1 (of a character) written or printed above the line

► n

2 a superscript character supersede vb -seding, -seded

1 to take the place of (something old-fashioned or less appropriate): cavalry was superseded by armoured vehicles

2 to replace (someone) in function or office supersize adj also supersized

1 larger than standard size

► vb -sizes, -sizing, -sized

2 to increase the size of (something, such as a standard portion of food) supersonic adj being, having, or capable of a speed greater than the speed of sound superstition n

1 irrational belief in magic and the powers that supposedly bring good luck or bad luck

2 a belief or practice based on this > superstitious adj superstore n a large supermarket superstructure n

1 any structure or concept built on something else

2 (naut) any structure above the main deck of a ship supertax n an extra tax on incomes above a certain level supervene vb -vening, -vened to happen as an unexpected development > supervention n

supervise vb -vising, -vised

1 to direct the performance or operation of (an activity or a process)

◇ SYNONYMS: oversee, run, manage, control, direct, handle, look after, superintend

2 to watch over (people) so as to ensure appropriate behaviour

◇ SYNONYMS: observe, guide, monitor, oversee, keep an eye on > supervision n > supervisor n

> supervisory adj

supine (soo-pine) adj (formal) lying on one's back supper n

1 an evening meal

2 a late evening snack supplant vb to take the place of (someone or something) supple adj

1 (of a person) moving and bending easily and gracefully

2 (of a material or object) soft and bending easily without breaking > suppleness n supplement n

- 1 an addition designed to make something more adequate
- 2 a magazine distributed free with a newspaper
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: pull-out, insert
- 3 a section added to a publication to supply further information or correct errors
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: appendix, add-on, postscript
- 4 (of money) an additional payment to obtain special services
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: addition, extra
- ▶ vb
- 5 to provide an addition to (something), esp. in order to make up for an inadequacy: she supplements her salary by renting her spare bedroom
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: add to, reinforce, augment, extend
- > supplementary adj

suppliant n (formal) a person who makes a humble request supplication n (formal) a humble request for help supply vb -plies, -plying, -plied

- 1 to provide with something required: Nigeria may supply them with oil
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: provide, give, furnish, produce, stock, grant, contribute, yield
- ▶ n, pl -plies
- 2 the act of providing something
- 3 an amount available for use; stock: electricity supply
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: store, fund, stock, source, reserve, quantity, hoard, cache
- 4 supplies food and equipment needed for a trip or military campaign
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: provisions, necessities, stores, food, materials, equipment, rations
- 5 (econ) the amount of a commodity that producers are willing and able to offer for sale at a specified price: supply and demand
- 6 a person who acts as a temporary substitute

► adj

7 acting as a temporary substitute: supply teachers > supplier n

support vb

1 to carry the weight of (a thing or person)

◇ SYNONYMS: bear, carry, sustain, prop (up), reinforce, hold, brace, buttress

2 to provide the necessities of life for (a family or person)

◇ SYNONYMS: provide for, maintain, look after, keep, fund, finance, sustain

3 to give practical or emotional help to (someone)

◇ SYNONYMS: help, back, champion, second, aid, defend, assist, side with 4 to give approval to (a cause, idea, or political party)

5 to take an active interest in and be loyal to (a particular football or other sports team)

6 to establish the truthfulness or accuracy of (a theory or statement) by providing new facts

◇ SYNONYMS: bear out, confirm, verify, substantiate, corroborate

7 to speak in a debate in favour of (a motion)

8 (in a concert) to perform earlier than (the main attraction)

9 (films, theatre) to play a less important role to (the leading actor)

► n

10 the act of supporting or the condition of being supported

◇ SYNONYMS: furtherance, backing, promotion, assistance, encouragement

11 a thing that bears the weight of an object from below

◇ SYNONYMS: prop, post, foundation, brace, pillar

12 a person who gives someone practical or emotional help

◇ SYNONYMS: supporter, prop, mainstay, tower of strength, second, backer

13 the means of providing the necessities of life for a family or person

◇ SYNONYMS: upkeep, maintenance, keep, subsistence, sustenance

14 a band or entertainer not topping the bill > supportive adj supporter n a person who supports a sports team, politician, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: follower, fan, advocate, friend, champion, sponsor, patron, helper suppose vb -posing, -posed

1 to presume (something) to be true without certain knowledge: I suppose it will be in the papers

◇ SYNONYMS: think, imagine, expect, assume, guess (informal), presume, conjecture

2 to consider (something) as a possible suggestion for the sake of discussion: suppose you're arrested on a misdemeanour

◇ SYNONYMS: imagine, consider, conjecture, postulate (formal), hypothesize

3 (of a theory) to depend on the truth or existence of: this scenario supposes that he would do so supposed adj

1 supposed to expected to: spies aren't supposed to be nice

2 presumed to be true without certain knowledge; doubtful: the supposed wonders of drug therapy

◇ SYNONYMS: presumed, alleged, professed, accepted, assumed > supposedly adv

supposition n

1 an idea or a statement believed or assumed to be true

2 the act of supposing: much of it is based on supposition suppository n, pl -ries (med) a medicine in solid form that is inserted into the vagina or rectum and left to dissolve suppress vb

1 to put an end to (something) by physical or legal force

◇ SYNONYMS: stamp out, stop, check, crush, conquer, subdue, put an end to, overpower

2 to prevent the circulation or publication of (information or books)

3 to hold (an emotion or a response) in check; restrain: he could barely suppress a groan

◇ SYNONYMS: restrain, stifle, contain, silence, conceal, curb, repress, smother

4 (electronics) to reduce or eliminate (interference) in a circuit > suppression n

suppurate vb -rating, -rated (pathol) (of a wound or sore) to produce or leak pus supremacy n

1 supreme power; dominance

◇ SYNONYMS: domination, sovereignty, sway, mastery, primacy, predominance, supreme power

2 the state or quality of being superior

◇ SYNONYMS: domination, sovereignty, sway, mastery, primacy, predominance, supreme power

supreme adj

1 of highest status or power: the Supreme Council

◇ SYNONYMS: paramount, surpassing

2 of highest quality or importance: a supreme player

◇ SYNONYMS: chief, leading, principal, highest, head, top, prime, foremost

3 greatest in degree; extreme: supreme happiness

◇ SYNONYMS: ultimate, highest, greatest > supremely adv

supremo n, pl -mos (informal) a person in overall authority

◇ SYNONYMS: head, leader, boss (informal), director, master, governor, commander, principal surcharge n

1 a charge in addition to the usual payment or tax

2 an excessive sum charged, often unlawfully

► vb -charging, -charged

3 to charge (someone) an additional sum or tax

4 to overcharge (someone) for something surd (maths) n

1 an irrational number

► adj

2 of or relating to a surd sure adj

1 free from doubt or uncertainty (in regard to a belief): she was sure that she was still at home; I am sure he didn't mean it

◇ SYNONYMS: certain, positive, decided, convinced, confident, assured, definite

2 sure of having no doubt, such as of the occurrence of a future state or event: sure of winning the point

3 reliable or accurate: a sure sign of dry rot

◇ SYNONYMS: reliable, accurate, dependable, undoubted, undeniable, foolproof, infallible, unerring

4 bound inevitably (to be or do something); certain: his aggressive style is sure to please the American fans

◇ SYNONYMS: inevitable, guaranteed, bound, assured, inescapable, nailed-on (slang)

5 sure of or about happy to put one's trust in (someone): I'm still not quite sure about her

6 sure of oneself confident in one's own abilities and opinions

7 not open to doubt: sure proof

8 bound to be or occur; inevitable: victory is sure

◇ SYNONYMS: inevitable, guaranteed, bound, assured, inescapable, nailed-on (slang)

9 physically secure: a sure footing

10 be sure (usually foll. by to or and) be careful or certain (to do something): be sure to label each jar

11 for sure without a doubt

12 make sure to make certain: make sure there is no-one in the car

13 sure enough (informal) in fact: sure enough, this is happening

14 to be sure it has to be acknowledged; admittedly

► adv

15 (informal, chiefly US & Canad) without question; certainly: it sure is bad news

► interj

16 (informal) willingly; yes > sureness n

sure-footed adj

- 1 unlikely to fall, slip, or stumble
- 2 unlikely to make a mistake surely adv

- 1 am I not right in thinking that?; I am sure that: surely you can see that?
◇ SYNONYMS: it must be the case that
- 2 without doubt: without support they will surely fail ◇ SYNONYMS: undoubtedly, certainly, definitely, without doubt, unquestionably, indubitably, doubtlessly
- 3 slowly but surely gradually but noticeably
► interj
- 4 (chiefly US & Canad) willingly; yes surety n, pl -ties

- 1 a person who takes legal responsibility for the fulfilment of another's debt or obligation
- 2 security given as a guarantee that an obligation will be met surf n

- 1 foam caused by waves breaking on the shore or on a reef
► vb
- 2 to take part in surfing
- 3 to move rapidly through a particular medium: surfing the internet
- 4 (informal) to be carried on top of something: that guy's surfing the audience > surfer n

surface n

- 1 the outside or top of an object ◇ SYNONYMS: covering, face, exterior, side, top, veneer
- 2 the size of such an area
- 3 material covering the surface of an object
- 4 the outward appearance as opposed to the real or hidden nature of something: on the surface the idea seems attractive
◇ SYNONYMS: façade

5 (geom)

A the complete boundary of a solid figure

B something that has length and breadth but no thickness

6 the uppermost level of the land or sea

7 come to the surface to become apparent after being hidden

► vb -facing, -faced

8 to become apparent or widely known

◇ SYNONYMS: appear, emerge, arise, come to light, crop up (informal), transpire, materialize

9 to rise to the surface of water

◇ SYNONYMS: emerge, come up, come to the surface

10 to give (an area) a particular kind of surface

11 (informal) to get up out of bed surfboard n a long narrow board used in surfing surfeit n (formal)

1 an excessive amount

2 excessive eating or drinking

3 an uncomfortably full or sickened feeling caused by eating or drinking too much surfing n the sport of riding towards shore on the crest of a wave by standing or lying on a surfboard surge n

1 a sudden powerful increase: a surge in spending

◇ SYNONYMS: rush, flood

2 a strong rolling movement of the sea

◇ SYNONYMS: flow, wave, rush, roller, gush, outpouring

3 a heavy rolling motion or sound: a great surge of people

◇ SYNONYMS: wave, rush, storm, torrent, eruption

► vb surging, surged

4 to move forward strongly and suddenly

◇ SYNONYMS: rush, pour, rise, gush

5 to increase quickly and strongly

6 (of the sea) to rise or roll with a heavy swelling motion

◇ SYNONYMS: roll, rush, heave surgeon n a medical doctor who specializes in surgery surgery n, pl -geries

1 medical treatment in which a person's body is cut open by a surgeon in order to treat or remove the problem part

2 (Brit) a place where, or time when, a doctor or dentist can be consulted

3 (Brit) a time when an MP or councillor can be consulted surgical adj

1 involving or used in surgery

2 (of an action) performed with extreme precision: a surgical air attack > surgically adv

surly adj -lier, -liest bad-tempered and rude surmise vb -mising, -mised

1 to guess (something) from incomplete or uncertain evidence

► n

2 a conclusion based on incomplete or uncertain evidence surmount vb

1 to overcome (a problem)

2 to be situated on top of (something): the island is surmounted by a huge black castle > surmountable adj

surname n a family name as opposed to a first or Christian name surpass vb

1 to be greater in extent than or superior in achievement to (something or someone)

◇ SYNONYMS: outdo, beat, exceed, eclipse, excel, transcend, outstrip, outshine

2 surpass oneself or expectations to go beyond the limit of what was expected surplice n a loose knee-length garment with wide sleeves, worn by members of the clergy and choristers surplus n

1 a quantity or amount left over in excess of what is required

◇ SYNONYMS: excess, surfeit

2 (accounting) an excess of income over spending

► adj

3 being in excess; extra: surplus to requirements

◇ SYNONYMS: extra, spare, excess, remaining, odd, superfluous surprise n

1 the act of taking someone unawares: the element of surprise

2 a sudden or unexpected event, gift, etc.: this is a nice surprise

◇ SYNONYMS: shock, revelation, jolt, bombshell, eye-opener (informal)

3 the feeling of being surprised; astonishment: to our great surprise

◇ SYNONYMS: amazement, astonishment, wonder, incredulity

4 take someone by surprise to capture someone unexpectedly or catch someone unprepared

► adj

5 causing surprise: a surprise attack

► vb -prising, -prised

6 to cause (someone) to feel amazement or wonder

◇ SYNONYMS: amaze, astonish, stun, startle, stagger, take aback

7 to come upon or discover (someone) unexpectedly or suddenly

◇ SYNONYMS: catch unawares or off-guard, spring upon

8 to capture or attack (someone) suddenly and without warning

◇ SYNONYMS: catch unawares or off-guard, spring upon

9 surprise into to provoke (someone) to unintended action by a trick or deception > surprised adj

> surprising adj

> surprisingly adv

surreal adj very strange or dreamlike; bizarre surrealism n a movement in art and literature in the 1920s, involving the combination of images that would not normally be found together, as if in a dream

> surrealist n, adj

> surrealistic adj

surrender vb

1 to give oneself up physically to an enemy after defeat

◇ SYNONYMS: give in, yield, submit, give way, succumb, cave in (informal), capitulate

2 to give (something) up to another, under pressure or on demand: the rebels surrendered their arms

◇ SYNONYMS: give up, abandon, relinquish, yield, concede, part with, renounce, waive

3 to give (something) up voluntarily to another: he was surrendering his own chance for the championship

◇ SYNONYMS: give up, abandon, relinquish, yield, concede, part with, renounce, waive

4 to give in to a temptation or an influence

◇ SYNONYMS: give in, yield, submit, give way, succumb, cave in (informal), capitulate

► n

5 the act or instance of surrendering

◇ SYNONYMS: submission, cave-in (informal), capitulation, resignation, renunciation, relinquishment surreptitious adj done in secret or without permission: surreptitious moments of bliss > surreptitiously adv

surrogate n

1 a person or thing acting as a substitute

► adj

2 acting as a substitute: a surrogate father surrogate mother n a woman who gives birth to a child on behalf of a couple who cannot have a baby themselves, usually by artificial insemination > surrogate motherhood or surrogacy n surround vb

1 to encircle or enclose (something or someone)

◇ SYNONYMS: enclose, ring, encircle, encompass, envelop, hem in

2 to exist around (someone or something): the family members who surround him

► n

3 (chiefly Brit) a border, such as the area of uncovered floor between the walls of a room and the carpet > surrounding adj

surroundings pl n the area and environment around a person, place, or thing ◇ SYNONYMS: environment, setting, background, location, milieu surveillance n close observation of a person suspected of being a spy or a criminal ◇ SYNONYMS: observation, watch, scrutiny, supervision, inspection survey vb

1 to view or consider (something) as a whole: she surveyed her purchases anxiously

◇ SYNONYMS: look over, view, examine, observe, contemplate, inspect, eyeball (slang), scrutinize

2 to make a detailed map of (an area of land) by measuring or calculating distances and height

◇ SYNONYMS: measure, estimate, assess, appraise

3 (Brit) to inspect (a building) to assess its condition and value

◇ SYNONYMS: measure, estimate, assess, appraise

4 to make a detailed investigation of the behaviour, opinions, etc., of (a group of people)

◇ SYNONYMS: interview, question, poll, research, investigate

► n

5 a detailed investigation of the behaviour, opinions, etc., of a group of people

◇ SYNONYMS: poll, study, research, review, inquiry, investigation

6 the act of making a detailed map of an area of land by measuring or calculating distance and height

7 (Brit) an inspection of a building to assess its condition and value

◇ SYNONYMS: valuation, estimate, assessment, appraisal > surveying n

> surveyor n

survival n

1 the condition of having survived something

2 a person or thing that continues to exist in the present despite being from an earlier time, such as a custom

► adj

3 of, relating to, or assisting the act of surviving: survival suits survive vb -living, -vived

1

A to continue to live or exist

◇ SYNONYMS: remain alive, last, live on, endure

B to continue to live or exist after (a passage of time or a difficult or dangerous experience)

2 to live after the death of (another)

◇ SYNONYMS: live longer than, outlive, outlast > survivor n

susceptibility n, pl -ties

- 1 the quality or condition of being easily affected or influenced by something 2 susceptibilities emotional feelings susceptible adj

1 susceptible to

A giving in easily to: susceptible to political pressure

B vulnerable to (a disease or injury): susceptible to pneumonia

2 easily affected emotionally; impressionable

◇ SYNONYMS: responsive, sensitive, receptive, impressionable, suggestible sushi (soo-shee) n a Japanese dish consisting of small cakes of cold rice with a topping of raw fish suspect vb

1 to believe (someone) to be guilty without having any proof

2 to think (something) to be false or doubtful: he suspected her intent

◇ SYNONYMS: distrust, doubt, mistrust

3 to believe (something) to be the case; think probable: I suspect he had another reason

◇ SYNONYMS: believe, feel, guess, consider, suppose, speculate

► n

4 a person who is believed guilty of a specified offence

► adj

5 not to be trusted or relied upon: her commitment to the cause has always been suspect

◇ SYNONYMS: dubious, doubtful, questionable, iffy (informal), shonky (Austral & NZ informal) suspend vb

1 to hang (something) from a high place

◇ SYNONYMS: hang, attach, dangle

2 to cause (something) to remain floating or hanging: a huge orange sun suspended above the horizon

◇ SYNONYMS: hang, attach, dangle

3 to cause (something) to stop temporarily: the discussions have been suspended

◇ SYNONYMS: postpone, put off, cease, interrupt, shelve, defer, cut short, discontinue

4 to remove (someone) temporarily from a job or position, usually as a punishment suspenders pl n

1

A elastic straps attached to a belt or corset, with fasteners for holding up women's stockings

B similar fasteners attached to garters for holding up men's socks

2 (US & Canad) a pair of straps worn over the shoulders for holding up the trousers. Also called (Brit): braces suspense n

1 a state of anxiety or uncertainty: Sue and I stared at each other in suspense

2 excitement felt at the approach of the climax of a book, film, or play: action and suspense abound in this thriller > suspenseful adj

suspension n

1 the delaying or stopping temporarily of something: the suspension of the talks

◇ SYNONYMS: postponement, break, breaking off, interruption, abeyance, deferment, discontinuation

2 temporary removal from a job or position, usually as a punishment

3 the act of suspending or the state of being suspended

4 a system of springs and shock absorbers that supports the body of a vehicle

5 a device, usually a wire or spring, that suspends or supports something, such as the pendulum of a clock

6 (chem) a mixture in which fine solid or liquid particles are suspended in a fluid suspension bridge n a bridge suspended from cables that hang between two towers and are secured at both ends suspicion n

1 the act or an instance of suspecting; belief without sure proof that something is wrong

◇ SYNONYMS: idea, notion, hunch, guess, impression

2 a feeling of mistrust

◇ SYNONYMS: distrust, scepticism, mistrust, doubt, misgiving, qualm, wariness, dubiety

3 a slight trace: the merest suspicion of a threat

◇ SYNONYMS: trace, touch, hint, suggestion, shade, streak, tinge, soupçon (French)

4 above suspicion not possibly guilty of anything, through having a good reputation

5 under suspicion suspected of doing something wrong suspicious adj

1 causing one to suspect something is wrong: suspicious activities

◇ SYNONYMS: suspect, dubious, questionable, doubtful, dodgy (Brit & Austral & NZ informal), fishy (informal), shonky (Austral & NZ informal)

2 unwilling to trust: I'm suspicious of his motives

◇ SYNONYMS: distrustful, sceptical, doubtful, unbelieving, wary > suspiciously adv

suss out vb (Brit & Austral & NZ slang) to work out (a situation or a person's character), using one's intuition sustain vb

1 to maintain or continue for a period of time: I managed to sustain a conversation

◇ SYNONYMS: maintain, continue, keep up, prolong, protract

2 to keep up the strength or energy of (someone): one mouthful of water to sustain him; the merest drop of comfort to sustain me

◇ SYNONYMS: keep alive, nourish, provide for

3 to suffer (an injury or loss): he sustained a spinal injury

◇ SYNONYMS: suffer, experience, undergo, feel, bear, endure, withstand

4 to support (something) from below

◇ SYNONYMS: support, bear, uphold

5 to support or agree with (a decision or statement): objection sustained > sustained adj

sustenance n means of maintaining health or life; food and drink suture (soo-tcher) n (surgery) a stitch made with catgut or silk thread, to join the edges of a wound together

SUV sport (or sports) utility vehicle: a car with off-road features such as four-wheel drive and raised ground clearance

suzerain n

1 a state or sovereign that has some degree of control over a dependent state

2 (formerly) a person who had power over many people > suzerainty n

svelte adj attractively or gracefully slim; slender

SW

- 1 southwest(ern)
- 2 short wave

swab n

- 1 (med) a small piece of cotton wool used for applying medication or cleansing a wound
- vb swabbing, swabbed
- 2 to clean or apply medication to (a wound) with a swab
- 3 to clean (the deck of a ship) with a mop swaddle vb -dling, -dled to wrap (a baby) in swaddling clothes swaddling clothes pl n long strips of cloth formerly wrapped round a newborn baby swag n

- 1 (slang) stolen property
- 2 (Austral & NZ informal) (formerly) a swagman's pack containing personal belongings swagger vb

- 1 to walk or behave in an arrogant manner
- n
- 2 an arrogant walk or manner

swagman n, pl -men (Austral & NZ informal) a labourer who carries his personal possessions in a pack while looking for work swain n (archaic, or poetic)

- 1 a male lover or admirer
- 2 a young man from the countryside swallow¹ vb

- 1 to pass (food, drink, etc.) through the mouth and gullet to the stomach ◇ SYNONYMS: eat, consume, devour, swig (informal)
- 2 (informal) to believe (something) trustingly: I was supposed to swallow the lie
- 3 not to show: I believe they should swallow their pride
- 4 to make a gulping movement in the throat, such as when nervous
- 5 to put up with (an insult) without answering back
- 6 be swallowed up to be taken into and made a part of something: the old centre was being swallowed up by new estates
- n
- 7 the act of swallowing
- 8 the amount swallowed at any single time; mouthful swallow² n a small migratory bird with long pointed wings and a forked tail swam vb the past tense of swim swamp n

- 1 an area of permanently waterlogged land; bog ◇ SYNONYMS: bog, marsh, quagmire, slough, fen, mire, morass, pakihi (NZ), muskeg (Canad)
- vb
- 2 (naut) to cause (a boat) to sink or fill with water ◇ SYNONYMS: flood, engulf, submerge, inundate
- 3 to overwhelm (a person or place) with more than can be dealt with or accommodated ◇ SYNONYMS: overload, overwhelm, inundate
- > swampy adj

swan n

1 a large, usually white, water bird with a long neck

► vb swanning, swanned

2 swan around or about (informal) to wander about without purpose, but with an air of superiority swank (informal) vb

1 to show off or boast

► n

2 showing off or boasting > swanky adj swanndri (swan-dry) n (trademark, NZ) a weatherproof woollen shirt or jacket. Also called: swannie swan song n the last public act of a person before retirement or death swap or swop vb swapping, swapped swopping, swopped

1 to exchange (something) for something else

◇ SYNONYMS: exchange, trade, switch, interchange, barter

► n

2 an exchange

sward n a stretch of turf or grass swarm¹ n

1 a group of bees, led by a queen, that has left the hive to make a new home

2 a large mass of insects or other small animals

◇ SYNONYMS: multitude, crowd, mass, army, host, flock, herd, horde

3 a moving mass of people

◇ SYNONYMS: multitude, crowd, mass, army, host, flock, herd, horde

► vb

4 to move quickly and in large numbers

◇ SYNONYMS: crowd, flock, throng, mass, stream

5 to be overrun: the place is swarming with cops

◇ SYNONYMS: teem, crawl, abound, bristle swarm² vb swarm up to climb (a ladder or rope) by gripping it with the hands and feet: the boys swarmed up the rigging

swarthy adj swarthier, swarthiest having a dark complexion swashbuckling adj having the exciting manner or behaviour of pirates, esp. those depicted in films > swashbuckler n

swastika n

1 a primitive religious symbol in the shape of a Greek cross with the ends of the arms bent at right angles

2 this symbol with clockwise arms as the emblem of Nazi Germany swat vb swatting, swatted

1 to hit sharply: swatting the ball with confidence

► n

2 a sharp blow swatch n

1 a sample of cloth

2 a collection of such samples swath (swawth) n same as swathe swathe vb swathing, swathed

1 to wrap a bandage, garment, or piece of cloth around (a person or part of the body)

◇ SYNONYMS: wrap, drape, envelop, cloak, shroud, bundle up

► n

2 a long strip of cloth wrapped around something

3 the width of one sweep of a scythe or of the blade of a mowing machine

4 the strip cut in one sweep

5 the quantity of cut crops left in one sweep

6 a long narrow strip of land sway vb

1 to swing to and fro: red poppies swayed in the faint breeze

◇ SYNONYMS: move from side to side, rock, roll, swing, bend, lean

2 to lean to one side and then the other: entire rows swayed in time

◇ SYNONYMS: move from side to side, rock, roll, swing, bend, lean

3 to be unable to decide between two or more opinions

4 to influence (someone) in his or her opinion or judgment

◇ SYNONYMS: influence, affect, guide, persuade, induce

► n

5 power or influence

◇ SYNONYMS: power, control, influence, authority, clout (informal)

6 a swinging or leaning movement

7 hold sway to have power or influence swear vb swearing, swore, sworn

1 to use words considered obscene or blasphemous

◇ SYNONYMS: curse, blaspheme, be foul-mouthed

2 to promise solemnly on oath; vow: Sally and Peter swore to love and cherish each other

◇ SYNONYMS: vow, promise, testify, attest

3 swear by to have complete confidence in (something)

4 to state (something) earnestly: I swear he was all right

◇ SYNONYMS: declare, assert, affirm

5 to give evidence on oath in a law court

◇ SYNONYMS: vow, promise, testify, attest

swear in vb to make (someone) take an oath when taking up an official position or entering the witness box to give evidence in court: a new federal president was sworn in swearword n a word considered rude or blasphemous sweat n

1 the salty liquid that comes out of the skin's pores during strenuous activity in excessive heat or when afraid

◇ SYNONYMS: perspiration

2 the state or condition of sweating: he worked up a sweat

3 (slang) hard work or effort: climbing to the crest of Ward Hill was a sweat

4 in a sweat (informal) in a state of worry

5 no sweat (slang) no problem

► vb sweating, sweat or sweated

6 to have sweat come through the skin's pores, as a result of strenuous activity, excessive heat, nervousness, or fear

◇ SYNONYMS: perspire, glow

7 (informal) to suffer anxiety or distress

◇ SYNONYMS: worry, fret, agonize, torture yourself

8 sweat blood (informal)

A to work very hard

B to be filled with anxiety > sweaty adj

sweatband n a piece of cloth tied around the forehead or around the wrist to absorb sweat during strenuous physical activity sweater n a warm knitted piece of clothing covering the upper part of the body sweatshirt n a long-sleeved casual top made of knitted cotton or cotton mixture sweatshop n a workshop where employees work long hours in poor conditions for low pay swede n a round root vegetable with a purplish-brown skin and yellow flesh

Swede n a person from Sweden

Swedish adj

1 of Sweden

► n

2 the language of Sweden sweep vb sweeping, swept

1 to clean (a floor or chimney) with a brush

◇ SYNONYMS: brush, clean

2 (often foll. by up) to remove or collect (dirt or rubbish) with a brush

◇ SYNONYMS: clear, remove, brush, clean

3 to move smoothly and quickly: the car swept into the drive

◇ SYNONYMS: sail, pass, fly, tear, zoom, glide, skim

4 to spread rapidly across or through (a place): fire swept through Southern California

5 to move in a proud and majestic fashion: the boss himself swept into the hall

6 to direct (one's eyes, line of fire, etc.) over (a place or target)

7 sweep away or off to overwhelm (someone) emotionally: I've been swept away by my fears

8 to brush or lightly touch (a surface): the dress swept along the ground

9 to clear away or get rid of (something) suddenly or forcefully: these doubts were quickly swept aside; bridges have been swept away by the floods

10 to stretch out gracefully or majestically, esp. in a wide circle: the hills swept down into the green valley

11 to win overwhelmingly: the umbrella party which swept these elections

12 sweep the board to win every event or prize in a contest

► n

13 the act or an instance of sweeping

14 a swift or steady movement: the wide sweep of the shoulders

◇ SYNONYMS: movement, move, swing, stroke

15 a wide expanse: the whole sweep of the bay

◇ SYNONYMS: extent, range, stretch, scope

16 any curving line or contour, such as a driveway

17 short for sweepstake

18 (chiefly Brit) same as chimney sweep

19 make a clean sweep to win an overwhelming victory sweeping adj

1 affecting many people to a great extent: sweeping financial reforms

◇ SYNONYMS: wide-ranging, global, comprehensive, wide, broad, extensive, all-inclusive, all-embracing

2 (of a statement) making general assumptions about an issue without considering the details

◇ SYNONYMS: indiscriminate, blanket, wholesale, exaggerated, overstated, unqualified

3 decisive or overwhelming: to suffer sweeping losses

4 taking in a wide area: a sweeping view of the area sweepstake or (esp US) sweepstakes n

1 a lottery in which the stakes of the participants make up the prize

2 a horse race involving such a lottery sweet adj

1 tasting of or like sugar

◇ SYNONYMS: sugary, cloying, saccharine, icky (informal)

2 kind and charming: that was really sweet of you

◇ SYNONYMS: charming, kind, agreeable

3 attractive and delightful: a sweet child

◇ SYNONYMS: delightful, appealing, cute, winning, engaging, lovable, likable or likeable

4 (of a sound) pleasant and tuneful: sweet music

◇ SYNONYMS: melodious, musical, harmonious, mellow, dulcet

5 (of wine) having a high sugar content; not dry

6 fresh, clear, and clean: sweet water; sweet air

◇ SYNONYMS: fresh, clean, pure

7 sweet on someone fond of or infatuated with someone

► n (Brit & Austral & NZ)

8 a shaped piece of confectionery consisting mainly of sugar

◇ SYNONYMS: confectionery, candy (US), lolly (Austral & NZ), bonbon

9 a dessert

◇ SYNONYMS: dessert, pudding > sweetly adv

> sweetness n

sweetbread n the meat obtained from the pancreas of a calf or lamb sweet corn n

1 a kind of maize with sweet yellow kernels, eaten as a vegetable when young

2 the sweet kernels removed from the maize cob, cooked as a vegetable sweeten vb

1 to make (food or drink) sweet or sweeter

2 to be nice to (someone) in order to ensure cooperation

3 to make (an offer or a proposal) more acceptable sweetener n

1 a sweetening agent that does not contain sugar

2 (Brit & Austral & NZ slang) an inducement offered to someone in order to persuade them to accept an offer or business deal sweetheart n

1 an affectionate name to call someone

◇ SYNONYMS: dearest, beloved, sweet, angel (informal), treasure, honey, dear, sweetie (informal)

2 (old-fashioned) one's boyfriend or girlfriend

◇ SYNONYMS: love, boyfriend or girlfriend, beloved, lover, darling

3 (informal) a lovable or generous person sweetmeat n (old-fashioned) a small delicacy preserved in sugar sweet pea n a climbing plant with sweet-smelling pastel-coloured flowers sweet potato n a root vegetable, grown in the tropics, with pinkish-brown skin and yellow flesh sweet-talk (informal) vb

1 to persuade (someone) by flattery: I thought I could sweet-talk you into teaching me

► n sweet talk

2 insincere flattery intended to persuade sweet tooth n a strong liking for sweet foods swell vb swelling, swelled, swollen or swelled

1 (of a part of the body) to grow in size as a result of injury or infection: his face swelled and became pale

2 to increase in size as a result of being filled with air or liquid: a balloon swells if you force in more air

◇ SYNONYMS: expand, increase, grow, rise, balloon, enlarge, bulge, dilate

3 to grow or cause (something) to grow in size, numbers, amount, or degree: Israel's population is swelling

◇ SYNONYMS: increase, rise, grow, mount, expand, accelerate, escalate, multiply

4 (of an emotion) to become more intense: his anger swelled within him

◇ SYNONYMS: increase, rise, grow, mount, expand, accelerate, escalate, multiply

5 (of the seas) to rise in waves

6 (of a sound) to become gradually louder and then die away

► n

7 the waving movement of the surface of the open sea

◇ SYNONYMS: wave, surge, billow

8 an increase in size, numbers, amount, or degree

9 a bulge

10 (old-fashioned, informal) a person who is wealthy, upper class, and fashionably dressed

11 (music) an increase in sound followed by an immediate dying away

► adj

12 (slang, chiefly US) excellent or fine swelling n an enlargement of a part of the body as the result of injury or infection

◇ SYNONYMS: enlargement, lump, bump, bulge, inflammation, protuberance, distension swelter vb

1 to feel uncomfortable under extreme heat

► n

2 a hot and uncomfortable condition: they left the city swelter for the beach sweltering adj uncomfortably hot: a sweltering summer swept vb the past of sweep swerve vb swerving, swerved

1 to turn aside from a course sharply or suddenly

► n

2 the act of swerving swift adj

1 moving or able to move quickly; fast

◇ SYNONYMS: fast, quick, rapid, hurried, speedy

2 happening or performed quickly or suddenly: a swift glance this way

◇ SYNONYMS: quick, prompt, rapid

3 swift to prompt to (do something): swift to retaliate

► n

4 a small fast-flying insect-eating bird with long wings > swiftly adv

> swiftness n

swig (informal) n

1 a large swallow or deep drink, esp. from a bottle

► vb swigging, swigged

2 to drink (some liquid) in large swallows, esp. from a bottle swill vb

1 to drink large quantities of (an alcoholic drink)

2 (often foll. by out) (chiefly Brit & NZ) to rinse (something) in large amounts of water

► n

3 a liquid mixture containing waste food, fed to pigs

4 a deep drink, esp. of beer swim vb swimming, swam, swum

1 to move along in water by movements of the arms and legs, or (in the case of fish) tail and fins

2 to cover (a stretch of water) in this way: the first person to swim the Atlantic

3 to float on a liquid: flies swimming on the milk

4 to be affected by dizziness: his head was swimming

5 (of the objects in someone's vision) to appear to spin or move around: the faces of the nurses swam around her

6 (often foll. by in or with) to be covered or flooded with liquid: a steak swimming in gravy

► n

7 the act, an instance, or a period of swimming

8 in the swim (informal) fashionable or active in social or political activities > swimmer n

> swimming n

swimmingly adv successfully, effortlessly, or well: everything went swimmingly swimming pool n a large hole in the ground, tiled and filled with water for swimming in swindle vb -dling, -dled

1 to cheat (someone) out of money

2 to obtain (money) from someone by fraud

► n

3 an instance of cheating someone out of money > swindler n

swine n

1 a mean or unpleasant person

2 pl swine same as pig > swinish adj

swine flu n a form of influenza occurring in swine caused by a virus capable of spreading to humans swing vb swinging, swung

1 to move backwards and forwards; sway

◇ SYNONYMS: sway, rock, wave, veer, oscillate

2 to pivot or cause (something) to pivot from a fixed point such as a hinge: the door swung open

3 to wave (a weapon, etc.) in a sweeping motion

◇ SYNONYMS: brandish, wave, shake, flourish, wield, dangle

4 to move in a sweeping curve: the headlights swung along the street

◇ SYNONYMS: turn, swivel, curve, rotate, pivot

5 to alter one's opinion or mood suddenly

6 to hang so as to be able to turn freely

◇ SYNONYMS: hang, dangle, suspend

7 (old-fashioned, slang) to be hanged: you'll swing for this!

8 (informal) to manipulate or influence successfully: it may help to swing the election

9 (often foll. by at) to hit out with a sweeping motion

◇ SYNONYMS: hit out, strike, swipe (informal), lash out at, slap

10 (old-fashioned) to play (music) in the style of swing

11 (old-fashioned, slang) to be lively and modern

► n

12 the act of swinging

◇ SYNONYMS: swaying, sway

13 a sweeping stroke or punch

14 a seat hanging from two chains or ropes on which a person may swing back and forth

15 popular dance music played by big bands in the 1930s and 1940s

16 (informal) the normal pace at which an activity, such as work, happens: I'm into the swing of things now

17 a sudden or extreme change, for example in some business activity or voting pattern

18 go with a swing to go well; be successful

19 in full swing at the height of activity swing by vb (informal) to go somewhere to pay a visit swingeing (swin-jing) adj (chiefly Brit) severe or causing hardship: swingeing spending cuts swipe vb swiping, swiped

1 (informal) to try to hit (someone or something) with a sweeping blow: he swiped at a boy who ran forward

2 (slang) to steal (something)

3 to pass (a credit or debit card) through a machine which electronically interprets the information stored in the card

4 to activate a function on an electronic device by moving one's finger across a touchscreen

► n

5 (informal) a hard blow swipe card n a card with a magnetic strip that holds encoded information that can be interpreted when the card is passed through an electronic device

swirl vb

1 to turn round and round with a twisting motion

◇ SYNONYMS: whirl, churn, spin, twist, eddy

► n

2 a twisting or spinning motion

3 a twisting shape > swirling adj

swish vb

- 1 to move with or cause (something) to make a whistling or hissing sound
 - ▶ n
- 2 a hissing or rustling sound or movement: she turned with a swish of her skirt
 - ▶ adj
- 3 (informal, chiefly Brit & Austral & NZ) smart and fashionable

Swiss adj

- 1 of Switzerland
 - ▶ n, pl Swiss
- 2 a person from Switzerland swiss roll n a sponge cake spread with jam or cream and rolled up switch n

- 1 a device for opening or closing an electric circuit
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: control, button, lever, on/off device
- 2 a sudden quick change
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: change, shift, reversal
- 3 an exchange or swap
- 4 a flexible rod or twig, used for punishment
- 5 (US & Canad) a pair of movable rails for diverting moving trains from one track to another
 - ▶ vb
- 6 to change quickly and suddenly
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: change, shift, divert, deviate
- 7 to exchange (places) or swap (something for something else)
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: exchange, swap, substitute
- 8 (chiefly US & Canad) to transfer (rolling stock) from one railway track to another
 - ▶ See also switch on switchback n a steep mountain road, railway, or track which rises and falls sharply many times switchboard n the place in a telephone exchange or office building where telephone calls are connected switch on vb

1 to cause (a device) to operate by moving a switch or lever

2 (informal) to produce (a certain type of behaviour or emotion) suddenly or automatically: she was good at switching on the charm

swivel vb -elling, -elled (US) -eling, -eled

1 to turn on or swing round on a central point

► n

2 a coupling device which allows an attached object to turn freely swizzle stick n a small stick used to stir cocktails swollen vb

1 a past participle of swell

► adj

2 enlarged by swelling

◇ SYNONYMS: enlarged, bloated, inflamed, puffed up, distended swoon vb

1 (literary) to faint because of shock or strong emotion

2 to be deeply affected by passion for (someone): you've swooned over a string of rotten men

► n

3 (literary) a faint > swooning adj

swoop vb

1 (usually foll. by down) to move quickly through the air in a downward curve: an owl swooped down from its perch

◇ SYNONYMS: drop, plunge, dive, sweep, descend, pounce, stoop

2 (usually foll. by on) to move suddenly and quickly towards (a place) in order to attack, arrest, or question the people inside: nine police cars and vans swooped on the premises

◇ SYNONYMS: pounce, attack, charge, rush, descend

► n

3 the act of swooping swop n same as swapsword n

1 a weapon with a long sharp blade and a short handle

2 the sword

A military power

B death; destruction: we will put them to the sword

3 cross swords to have a disagreement with someone swordfish n, pl -fish or -fishes a large fish with a very long upper jaw that resembles a sword swordsman n, pl -men a person who is skilled in the use of a sword > swordsmanship n swore vb the past tense of swear sworn vb

1 the past participle of swear

► adj

2 bound by or as if by an oath: a sworn enemy

swot (informal) vb swotting, swotted

1 (often foll. by up) to study (a subject) very hard, esp. for an exam; cram

► n

2 a person who works or studies hard swum vb the past participle of swim swung vb the past of swing sybarite (sib-bar-ite) n

1 a lover of luxury and pleasure

► adj

2 luxurious or sensuous > sybaritic adj

sycamore n

1 a tree with five-pointed leaves and two-winged fruits

2 (US & Canad) an American plane tree sycophant n a person who uses flattery to win favour from people with power or influence > sycophancy n

> sycophantic adj

syllabic adj of or relating to syllables syllable n

1 a part of a word which is pronounced as a unit, which contains a single vowel sound, and which may or may not contain consonants: for example, 'paper' has two syllables

2 the least mention: without a syllable about what went on

3 in words of one syllable simply and plainly syllabub n (Brit & Austral) a dessert made from milk or cream beaten with sugar, wine, and lemon juice syllabus (sill-lab-buss) n, pl -buses or -bi (-bye)

A the subjects studied for a particular course

B a list of these subjects syllogism n a form of reasoning consisting of two premises and a conclusion, for example some temples are in ruins; all ruins are fascinating; so some temples are fascinating > syllogistic adj

sylph n

1 a slender graceful girl or young woman

2 an imaginary creature believed to live in the air > sylphlike adj

sylvan or silvan adj (chiefly poetic) of or consisting of woods or forests symbiosis n

1 (biol) a close association of two different animal or plant species living together to their mutual benefit

2 a similar relationship between different individuals or groups: the symbiosis of the coal and railway industries

> symbiotic adj

symbol n

1 something that represents or stands for something else, usually an object used to represent something abstract

◇ SYNONYMS: metaphor, image, sign, representation, token

2 a letter, figure, or sign used in mathematics, music, etc., to represent a quantity, operation, function, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: representation, sign, figure, mark, image, token, logo, badge symbolic adj

1 of or relating to a symbol or symbols

◇ SYNONYMS: figurative, representative

2 being a symbol of something

◇ SYNONYMS: representative, emblematic, allegorical > symbolically adv

symbolism n

1 the representation of something by the use of symbols

2 an art movement involving the use of symbols to express mystical or abstract ideas > symbolist adj, n

symbolize or -lize vb -lizing, -lized or -lising, -lised

1 to be a symbol of (something)

2 to represent with a symbol > symbolization or -lisation n symmetry n, pl -tries

1 the state of having two halves that are mirror images of each other

2 beauty resulting from a balanced arrangement of parts > symmetrical adj

> symmetrically adv

sympathetic adj

1 feeling or showing kindness and understanding

◇ SYNONYMS: caring, kind, understanding, concerned, interested, warm, pitying, supportive

2 (of a person) likeable and appealing: the film's only sympathetic character

3 sympathetic to showing agreement with or willing to lend support to: sympathetic to the movement

> sympathetically adv

sympathize or -thise vb -thizing, -thized or -thising, -thised > sympathize with

A to feel or express sympathy for: I sympathized with this fear

B to agree with or support: Pitt sympathized with these objectives > sympathizer or -thiser n sympathy n, pl -thies

1 (often foll. by for) understanding of other people's problems; compassion

◇ SYNONYMS: compassion, understanding, pity, commiseration, aroha (NZ)

2 sympathy with agreement with someone's feelings or interests: we have every sympathy with how she felt

3 (often pl) feelings of loyalty or support for an idea or a cause: was this where her sympathies lay?

4 mutual affection or understanding between two people or a person and an animal

◇ SYNONYMS: affinity, agreement, rapport, fellow feeling symphony n, pl -nies

1 a large-scale orchestral composition with several movements

2 an orchestral movement in a vocal work such as an oratorio

3 anything that has a pleasing arrangement of colours or shapes: the garden was a symphony of coloured bunting > symphonic adj

symposium n, pl -sia or -siums

1 a conference at which experts or academics discuss a particular subject

2 a collection of essays on a particular subject symptom n

1 (med) a sign indicating the presence of an illness or disease

◇ SYNONYMS: sign, mark, indication, warning

2 anything that is taken as an indication that something is wrong: a growing symptom of grave social injustice

◇ SYNONYMS: manifestation, sign, indication, mark, evidence, expression, proof, token > symptomatic adj

synagogue n a building for Jewish religious services and religious instruction sync or synch (films, television, computers, informal) vb

1 to synchronize

► n

2 synchronization: the film and sound are in sync synchromesh adj

1 (of a gearbox) having a system of clutches that synchronizes the speeds of the gearwheels before they engage

► n

2 a gear system having these features synchronize or -nise vb -nizing, -nized or -nising, -nised

1 (of two or more people) to perform (an action) at the same time: a synchronized withdrawal of Allied forces

2 to cause (two or more clocks or watches) to show the same time

3 (films) to match (the soundtrack and the action of a film) precisely > synchronization or -nisation n synchronous adj occurring at the same time and rate > synchrony n

syncopate vb -pating, -pated (music) to stress the weak beats in (a rhythm or a piece of music) instead of the strong beats > syncopation n

syncope (sing-kop-ee) n

1 (med) a faint

2 (linguistics) the omission of sounds or letters from the middle of a word, as in ne'er for never syndicate n

- 1 a group of people or firms organized to undertake a joint project
 - 2 an association of individuals who control organized crime
 - 3 a news agency that sells articles and photographs to a number of newspapers for simultaneous publication
- vb -cating, -cated
- 4 to sell (articles and photographs) to several newspapers for simultaneous publication
 - 5 to form a syndicate of (people)
- > syndication n

syndrome n

- 1 (med) a combination of signs and symptoms that indicate a particular disease
- 2 a set of characteristics indicating the existence of a particular condition or problem synergy n the potential ability for individuals or groups to be more successful working together than on their own synod n a special church council which meets regularly to discuss church affairs synonym n a word that means the same as another word, such as bucket and pail synonymous adj

- 1 (often foll. by with) having the same meaning (as)
- 2 (foll. by with) closely associated (with): a family whose name had been synonymous with fine jewellery

synopsis (sin-op-siss) n, pl -ses (-seez) a brief review or outline of a subject; summary: they have sent me a monthly synopsis of the plot syntax n the grammatical rules of a language and the way in which words are arranged to form phrases and sentences > syntactic or syntactical adj synthesis (sinth-iss-siss) n, pl -ses (-seez)

- 1 the process of combining objects or ideas into a complex whole
- 2 the combination produced by such a process
- 3 (chem) the process of producing a compound by one or more chemical reactions, usually from simpler starting materials synthesize or -sise vb -sizing, -sized or -sising, -sised

- 1 to combine (objects or ideas) into a complex whole
- 2 to produce (a compound) by synthesis synthesizer n a keyboard instrument in which speech, music, or other sounds are produced electronically synthetic adj

- 1 (of a substance or material) made artificially by chemical reaction ◇ SYNONYMS: artificial, fake, man-made
 - 2 not sincere or genuine: synthetic compassion
- n
- 3 a synthetic substance or material
- > synthetically adv

syphilis n a sexually transmitted disease that causes sores on the genitals and eventually on other parts of the body > syphilitic adj

syphon n, vb same as siphon

Syrian adj

1 of Syria

► n

2 a person from Syria syringe n

1 (med) a device used for withdrawing or injecting fluids, consisting of a hollow cylinder of glass or plastic, a tightly fitting piston, and a hollow needle

► vb -ringing, -ringed

2 to wash out, inject, or spray with a syringe: a harmless blue dye is syringed into the uterus syrup n

1 a solution of sugar dissolved in water and often flavoured with fruit juice: used for sweetening fruit, etc.

2 a thick sweet liquid food made from sugar or molasses: maple syrup

3 a liquid medicine containing a sugar solution: cough syrup syrupy adj

1 (of a liquid) thick or sweet

2 excessively sentimental: a soundtrack of syrupy violins system n

1 a method or set of methods for doing or organizing something: a new system of production or distribution

◇ SYNONYMS: method, practice, technique, procedure, routine

2 orderliness or routine; an ordered manner: there is no system in his work

3 the manner in which an institution or aspect of society has been arranged: the Scottish legal system

4 the system the government and state regarded as exploiting, restricting, and repressing individuals

5 the manner in which the parts of something fit or function together; structure: disruption of the earth's weather system

6 any scheme or set of rules used to classify, explain, or calculate: the Newtonian system of physics

◇ SYNONYMS: arrangement, structure, organization, scheme, classification

7 a network of communications, transportation, or distribution

8 (biol) an animal considered as a whole

9 (biol) a set of organs or structures that together perform some function: the immune system

10 one's physical or mental constitution: the intrusion of the virus into my system; to get the hate out of my system

11 an assembly of electronic or mechanical parts forming a self-contained unit: an alarm system systematic adj following a fixed plan and done in an efficient and methodical way: a systematic approach to teaching

◇ SYNONYMS: methodical, organized, efficient, orderly > systematically adv

systematize or -tise vb -tizing, -tized or -tising, -tised to arrange (information) in a system > systematization or -tisation n systemic adj (biol) (of a poison, disease, etc.) affecting the entire animal or body > systemically adv

systole (sis-sol-ee) n (physiol) contraction of the heart, during which blood is pumped into the arteries > systolic adj

Tt

t or T n, pl t's, T's or Ts

1 the 20th letter of the English alphabet

2 to a T

A in every detail: that's her to a T

B perfectly: that dress suits you to a T t tonne(s)

T

1 (chem) tritium

2 tera-

t.

1 temperature

2 ton(s) ta interj (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) thank you

TA (in Britain) Territorial Army

tab¹ n

1 a small flap of material, esp. one on a garment for decoration or for fastening to a button

2 any similar flap, such as a piece of paper attached to a file for identification

3 (chiefly US & Canad) a bill, esp. for a meal or drinks

4 keep tabs on (informal) to keep a watchful eye on tab² n short for tabulator

TAB (in Australia and New Zealand) Totalisator Agency Board: an agency for betting on horse and greyhound racing tabard n

- 1 a sleeveless jacket, esp. one worn by a medieval knight over his armour
- 2 a short coat bearing the coat of arms of the sovereign, worn by a herald

Tabasco n (trademark) a very hot sauce made from capsicum peppers tabby n, pl -bies

- 1 a cat whose fur has dark stripes or wavy markings on a lighter background
- adj
- 2 having dark stripes or wavy markings on a lighter background tabernacle n

- 1 the Tabernacle (Bible) the portable sanctuary in which the ancient Israelites carried the Ark of the Covenant
- 2 any place of Christian worship that is not called a church
- 3 (RC Church) a receptacle in which the Blessed Sacrament is kept tabla n, pl -bla or -blas one of a pair of Indian drums played with the hands

table n

- 1 a piece of furniture consisting of a flat top supported by legs: a coffee table ◇ SYNONYMS: counter, bench, stand, board, surface, work surface
 - 2 a set of facts or figures arranged in rows and columns: a league table ◇ SYNONYMS: list, chart, tabulation, record, roll, register, diagram, itemization
 - 3 a group of people sitting round a table for a meal, game, etc.: the whole table laughed
 - 4 (formal) the food provided at a meal or in a particular house: he keeps a good table
 - 5 turn the tables to cause a complete reversal of circumstances
- vb -bling, -bled

6 (Brit & Austral) to submit (a motion) for discussion by a meeting

◇ SYNONYMS: submit, propose, put forward, move, suggest, enter, file, lodge

7 (US) to suspend discussion of (a proposal) indefinitely tableau (tab-loh) n, pl -leaux (-loh) a silent motionless group of people arranged to represent a scene from history, legend, or literature

table d'hôte (tah-bla dote) adj

1 (of a meal) consisting of a set number of courses with a limited choice of dishes offered at a fixed price

► n, pl tables d'hôte (tah-bla dote)

2 a table d'hôte meal or menu table football n (Brit) a game based on soccer, played on a table with sets of miniature human figures mounted on rods allowing them to be tilted or spun to strike the ball. US & Canad name: foosball

tableland n a flat area of high ground; plateau tablespoon n

1 a spoon, larger than a dessertspoon, used for serving food

2 Also called: tablespoonful the amount contained in such a spoon

3 a unit of capacity used in cooking, equal to half a fluid ounce tablet n

1 a pill consisting of a compressed medicinal substance

2 a flattish cake of some substance, such as soap

3 a slab of stone, wood, etc., used for writing on before the invention of paper

4 an inscribed piece of stone, wood, etc., that is fixed to a wall as a memorial:
a tablet in memory of those who died

5 a handheld personal computer that is operated by touchscreen table tennis n a game resembling a miniature form of tennis played on a table with bats and a small light ball tabloid n a newspaper with fairly small pages, usually with many photographs and a concise and often sensational style taboo or tabu n, pl -boos or -bus

1 a restriction or prohibition resulting from social or other conventions

◇ SYNONYMS: prohibition, ban, restriction, anathema, interdict, proscription, tapu (NZ)

2 a ritual prohibition, esp. of something that is considered holy or unclean

◇ SYNONYMS: prohibition, ban, restriction, anathema, interdict, proscription, tapu (NZ)

► adj

3 forbidden or disapproved of: a taboo subject

◇ SYNONYMS: forbidden, banned, prohibited, unacceptable, outlawed, anathema, proscribed, unmentionable tabular adj arranged in parallel columns so as to form a table tabulate vb -lating, -lated to arrange (information) in rows and columns > tabulation n

tabulator n a key on a typewriter or word processor that sets stops so that data can be arranged and presented in columns tachograph n a device that measures the speed of a vehicle and the distance that it covers, and produces a record (tachogram) of its readings tachometer n a device for measuring speed, esp. that of a revolving shaft tacit (tass-it) adj understood or implied without actually being stated: tacit support taciturn (tass-it-turn) adj habitually silent, reserved, or uncommunicative > taciturnity n

tack¹ n

1 a short sharp-pointed nail with a large flat head

◇ SYNONYMS: nail, pin, drawing pin

2 (Brit & NZ) a long loose temporary stitch used in dressmaking

► vb

3 to fasten (something) with a tack or tacks: the carpet needs to be tacked down

◇ SYNONYMS: fasten, fix, attach, pin, nail, affix

4 (Brit & NZ) to sew (something) with long loose temporary stitches

► See also tack on tack² n

1 (naut) the course of a boat sailing obliquely into the wind, expressed in terms of the side of the boat against which the wind is blowing: on the port tack

2 a course of action or a policy: telling her to get off my back hadn't worked, so I took a different tack

► vb

3 (naut) to steer (a boat) on a zigzag course, so as to make progress against the wind tack³ n riding harness for horses, including saddles and bridles tackies or takkies pl n, sing tacky (S African informal) tennis shoes or plimsolls tackle vb -ling, -led

1 to deal with (a problem or task) in a determined way

◇ SYNONYMS: undertake, attempt, embark upon, get stuck into (informal), have a go or stab at (informal)

2 to confront (someone) about something: I intend to tackle both management and union on this issue

3 to attack and fight (a person or animal)

4 (sport) to attempt to get the ball away from (an opposing player)

◇ SYNONYMS: intercept, stop, challenge

► n

5 (sport) an attempt to get the ball away from an opposing player

◇ SYNONYMS: block, challenge

6 the equipment required for a particular sport or occupation: fishing tackle

7 a set of ropes and pulleys for lifting heavy weights

8 (naut) the ropes and other rigging aboard a ship tack on vb to attach or add (something) to something that is already complete:

an elegant mansion with a modern extension tacked on at the back

◇ SYNONYMS tack something on to something: append (formal), add, attach, tag tacky¹ adj tackier, tackiest slightly sticky

> tackiness n

tacky² adj tackier, tackiest (informal)

1 vulgar and tasteless: tacky commercialism

2 shabby or shoddy: tacky streets

> tackiness n

taco (tah-koh) n, pl tacos (Mexican cookery) a tortilla folded into a roll with a filling and usually fried tact n

1 a sense of the best and most considerate way to deal with people so as not to upset them

2 skill in handling difficult situations > tactful adj

> tactfully adv

> tactless adj

> tactlessly adv

> tactlessness n

tactic n a move or method used to achieve an aim or task: he has perfected dissent as a tactic to further his career See also tactics

◇ SYNONYMS: policy, approach, move, scheme, plans, method, manoeuvre, ploy tactical adj

1 of or employing tactics: a tactical advantage

◇ SYNONYMS: strategic, shrewd, smart, diplomatic, cunning

2 (of missiles, bombing, etc.) for use in limited military operations > tactically adv

tactics n

1 (military) the science of the detailed direction of forces in battle to achieve an aim or task

► pl n

2 the plans and methods used to achieve a particular short-term aim ◇ SYNONYMS: strategy, campaigning, manoeuvres, generalship > tactician n

tactile adj of or having a sense of touch: the tactile sense

tadpole n the aquatic larva of a frog or toad, which develops from a limbless tailed form with external gills into a form with internal gills, limbs, and a reduced tail

TAFE (in Australia) Technical and Further Education taffeta n a thin shiny silk or rayon fabric used esp. for women's clothes tag¹ n

1 a piece of paper, leather, etc., for attaching to something as a mark or label: the price tag

◇ SYNONYMS: label, tab, note, ticket, slip, identification, marker, flap

2 a point of metal or plastic at the end of a cord or lace

3 a brief trite quotation

4 an electronic device worn by a prisoner under house arrest so that his or her movements can be monitored

5 (slang) a graffito consisting of a nickname or personal symbol

► vb tagging, tagged

6 to mark with a tag

◇ SYNONYMS: label, mark

► See also tag along tag² n

1 a children's game in which one player chases the others in an attempt to touch one of them, who will then become the chaser

► vb tagging, tagged

2 to catch and touch (another child) in the game of tag. Also: tig tag along vb to accompany someone, esp. when uninvited: I tagged along behind the gang tagliatelle (tal-yat-tell-ee) n a form of pasta made in narrow strips tail n

1 the rear part of an animal's body, usually forming a long thin flexible part attached to the trunk. RELATED ADJECTIVE: caudal

◇ SYNONYMS: extremity, appendage, brush, rear end, hindquarters, hind part 2 any long thin part projecting or hanging from the back or end of something:

the waiter produced menus from beneath the tail of his coat

◇ SYNONYMS: train, end, trail, tailpiece

3 the last part: the tail of the procession

4 the rear part of an aircraft

5 (astron) the luminous stream of gas and dust particles driven from the head of a comet when it is close to the sun

◇ SYNONYMS: train, end, trail, tailpiece

6 (informal) a person employed to follow and spy upon another

7 turn tail to run away

◇ SYNONYMS turn tail: run away, flee, run off, retreat, cut and run, take to your heels

8 with one's tail between one's legs completely defeated and demoralized

► adj

9 at the back: tail feathers

► vb

10 (informal) to follow (someone) stealthily

◇ SYNONYMS: follow, track, shadow, trail, stalk

► See also tail off, tails > tailless adj

tailback n (Brit) a queue of traffic stretching back from an obstruction tailboard n a removable or hinged rear board on a lorry or trailer tail coat n a man's black coat which stops at the hips at the front and has a long back split into two below the waist tail off or tail away vb

1 to decrease gradually: orders tailed off

2 (of someone's voice) to become gradually quieter and then silent tailor n

1 a person who makes, repairs, or alters outer garments, esp. menswear.

RELATED ADJECTIVE: sartorial

◇ SYNONYMS: outfitter (old-fashioned), couturier, dressmaker, seamstress, clothier, costumier

► vb

2 to cut or style (a garment) to satisfy specific requirements

3 to adapt (something) so as to make it suitable: activities are tailored to participants' capabilities

◇ SYNONYMS: adapt, adjust, modify, style, fashion, shape, alter, mould > tailored adj

tailor-made adj

1 (of clothing) made by a tailor to fit exactly

2 perfect for a particular purpose: I'm tailor-made for the role tailplane n a small horizontal wing at the tail of an aircraft to help keep it stable tails pl n

1 (informal) same as tail coat

► interj, adv

2 with the side of a coin uppermost that does not have a portrait of a head on it tailspin n

1 (aeronautics) same as spin

2 (informal) a state of confusion or panic tailwind n a wind blowing from behind an aircraft or vehicle taint vb

1 to spoil or contaminate by an undesirable quality: tainted by corruption

◇ SYNONYMS: spoil, ruin, contaminate, damage, stain, corrupt, pollute, tarnish

► n

2 a defect or flaw

3 a trace of contamination or infection > tainted adj

taipan n a large poisonous Australian snake take vb taking, took, taken

1 to remove from a place, usually by grasping with the hand: he took a fifty-dollar note from his wallet

◇ SYNONYMS: remove, draw, pull, fish, withdraw, extract

2 to accompany or escort: he took me home

◇ SYNONYMS: accompany, lead, bring, guide, conduct, escort, convoy, usher

3 to use as a means of transport: we took a taxi

4 to conduct or lead: that road takes you to Preston

5 to obtain possession of (something), often dishonestly: they had taken everything most precious to us

◇ SYNONYMS: steal, appropriate, pocket, pinch (informal), misappropriate, purloin

6 to seize or capture: her husband had been taken by the rebels

◇ SYNONYMS: capture, seize, take into custody, lay hold of 7 (in games such as chess or cards) to win or capture (a piece, trick, etc.)

8 to choose or select (something to use or buy): I'll take the green one, please

9 to put an end to: he took his own life

10 to require (time, resources, or ability): this would have taken years to set up

◇ SYNONYMS: require, need, involve, demand, call for, entail, necessitate

11 to use as a particular case: take a friend of mine, for example

12 to find and make use of (a seat, flat, etc.)

13 to accept the duties of: the legitimate government will take office

14 to receive in a specified way: my mother took it calmly

15 to receive and make use of: she took the opportunity to splash her heated face

16 to eat or drink: all food substances are toxic if taken in excess

17 to perform (an action, esp. a beneficial one): she took a deep breath

18 to accept (something that is offered or given): she took a job as a waitress

19 to put into effect: taking military action simply

20 to make (a photograph)

21 to write down or copy: taking notes

22 to work at or study: taking painting lessons

23 to do or sit (a test, exam, etc.)

24 to begin to experience or feel: he took an interest in psychoanalysis

25 to accept (responsibility, blame, or credit)

26 to accept as valid: I take your point

27 to stand up to or endure: I can't take this harassment any more

◇ SYNONYMS: tolerate, stand, bear, stomach, endure, abide, put up with (informal), withstand 28 to wear a particular size of shoes or clothes: what size of shoes do you take?

29 to have a capacity of or room for: the Concert Hall can take about 2500 people

◇ SYNONYMS: have room for, hold, contain, accommodate, accept

30 to ascertain by measuring: she comes after breakfast to take her pulse and temperature

31 to subtract or deduct: take seven from eleven

32 to aim or direct: he took a few steps towards the door

33 (of a shop, club, etc.) to make (a specified amount of money) from sales, tickets, etc.: films that take no money at the box office

34 to have or produce the intended effect: the dye hasn't taken on your shoes

35 (of seedlings) to start growing successfully

36 take account of or take into account See account

37 take advantage of See advantage

38 take care See care

39 take care of See care

40 take it to assume or believe: I take it that means they don't want to leave

41 take part in See part

42 take place See place

43 take upon oneself to assume the right or duty (to do something)

44 take your time use as much time as you need

► n

45 (films, music) one of a series of recordings from which the best will be selected

46 (informal, chiefly US) a version or interpretation: Minnelli's bleak take on the story

► See also take after etc take after vb to resemble in appearance or character: he takes after his grandfather

take away vb

1 to remove or subtract: the lymph glands are taken away and examined under a microscope

2 to detract from or lessen the value of (something): this does not take away from their achievement

► prep

3 minus: six take away two is four

► adj takeaway

4 (Brit & Austral & NZ) sold for consumption away from the premises: takeaway food

► n takeaway (Brit & Austral & NZ)

5 a shop or restaurant that sells such food

6 a meal sold for consumption away from the premises take in vb

1 to understand: I was too tired to take in all of what was being said

◇ SYNONYMS take something in: understand, absorb, grasp, digest, comprehend, assimilate, get the hang of (informal)

2 (informal) to cheat or deceive: don't be taken in by his charming manner

◇ SYNONYMS take someone in: deceive, fool, con (informal), trick, cheat, mislead, dupe, swindle, scam (slang)

3 to include: this tour takes in the romance and history of Salzburg, Vienna, and Munich

4 to receive into one's house: his widowed mother lived by taking in boarders

5 to make (clothing) smaller by altering the seams

6 to go to: taking in a movie

take off vb

1 to remove (a garment)

2 (of an aircraft) to become airborne

◇ SYNONYMS take off: lift off, take to the air

3 (informal) to set out on a journey: taking off for the Highlands

◇ SYNONYMS take off: depart, go, leave, disappear, abscond, decamp, slope off

4 (informal) to become successful or popular: the record took off after being used in a film

5 to deduct (an amount) from a price or total

6 to withdraw or put an end to: the bus service has been taken off because of lack of demand

7 (informal) to mimic (someone)

◇ SYNONYMS take someone off: parody, imitate, mimic, mock, caricature, send up (Brit informal), lampoon, satirize

► n takeoff

8 the act or process of making an aircraft airborne

9 (informal) an act of mimicry take over vb

1 to gain control or management of 2 to become responsible for (a job) after another person has stopped doing it:

I'll take over the driving if you want a break

3 take over from to become more successful or important than (something), and eventually replace it: cars gradually took over from horses

► n takeover

4 the act of gaining control of a company by buying its shares

◇ SYNONYMS: merger, coup, incorporation

5 the act of seizing and taking control of something: the rebel takeover in Ethiopia

◇ SYNONYMS: merger, coup, incorporation

take up vb

1 to occupy or fill (space or time): looking after the baby takes up most of my time

◇ SYNONYMS take something up: occupy, absorb, consume, use up, cover, fill, waste, squander

2 to adopt the study, practice, or activity of: I took up architecture

◇ SYNONYMS take something up: start, begin, engage in, adopt, become involved in

3 to shorten (a garment)

4 to accept (an offer): I'd like to take up your offer of help

5 take up on

A to accept what is offered by (someone): I might just take you up on that offer

B to discuss (something) further with (someone): I'd like to take you up on that last point

6 take up with

A to discuss (an issue) with (someone): take up the matter with the District

Council more seriously

B to begin to be friendly and spend time with (someone): he'd already taken up with the woman he would marry

taking adj charming, fascinating, or intriguing takings pl n receipts; earnings talc or talcum n

1 same as talcum powder

2 a soft mineral, consisting of magnesium silicate, used in the manufacture of ceramics, paints, and talcum powder talcum powder n a powder made of purified talc, usually scented, used to dry or perfume the body tale n

1 a report, account, or story: everyone had their own tale to tell about the flood

◇ SYNONYMS: story, narrative, anecdote, account, legend, saga, yarn (informal), fable

2 a malicious piece of gossip

3 tell tales

A to tell fanciful lies

B to report malicious stories or trivial complaints, esp. to someone in authority

4 tell a tale to reveal something important

5 tell its own tale to be self-evident talent n

1 a natural ability to do something well: the boy has a real talent for writing

◇ SYNONYMS: ability, gift, aptitude, capacity, genius, flair, knack

2 a person or people with such ability: he is the major talent in Italian fashion

3 (informal) people regarded as attractive or as potential sexual partners:

there's always lots of talent in that pub

4 any of various ancient units of weight and money > talented adj talisman n, pl -mans a stone or other small object, usually inscribed or carved, believed to protect the wearer from evil influences > talismanic adj

talk vb

1 to express one's thoughts or feelings by means of spoken words

◇ SYNONYMS: speak, chat, chatter, converse, communicate, natter, earbash (Austral & NZ slang)

2 to exchange ideas or opinions about something: they were talking about where they would go on holiday

◇ SYNONYMS: discuss, confer, negotiate, parley, confabulate, korero (NZ)

3 to give voice to; utter: he was talking rubbish

4 to discuss: the political leaders were talking peace

◇ SYNONYMS: discuss, confer, negotiate, parley, confabulate, korero (NZ)

5 to reveal information: she was ready to talk

◇ SYNONYMS: inform, grass (Brit slang), tell all, give the game away, blab, let the cat out of the bag

6 to be able to speak (a language or style) in conversation: the ferry was full of people talking French

7 to spread rumours or gossip

8 to be effective or persuasive: money talks

9 to get into a particular condition or state of mind by talking: I had talked myself hoarse

10 now you're talking (informal) at last you're saying something agreeable

11 you can or can't talk (informal) you are in no position to comment or criticize

► n

12 a speech or lecture: a talk on local government reform

◇ SYNONYMS: speech, lecture, presentation, report, address, discourse, sermon, symposium, whaikorero (NZ)

13 an exchange of ideas or thoughts: we had a talk about our holiday plans

14 idle chatter, gossip, or rumour

15 (often pl) a conference, discussion, or negotiation

► See also talk back > talker n

talkative adj given to talking a great deal talkback n (NZ) a broadcast in which telephone comments or questions from the public are transmitted live talk back vb to answer (someone) rudely or cheekily talking-to n (informal) a scolding or telling-off ◇ SYNONYMS: reprimand, lecture, rebuke, scolding, criticism, reproach, ticking-off (informal), dressing-down (informal)

tall adj

1 of greater than average height

◇ SYNONYMS: lofty, big, giant, long-legged, lanky, leggy

2 having a specified height: five feet tall tallboy n (Brit) a high chest of drawers made in two sections placed one on top of the other tall order n (informal) a difficult or unreasonable request tallow n a hard fatty animal fat used in making soap and candles tall story n (informal) an unlikely and probably untrue tale tally vb -lies, -lying, -lied

1 to agree with or be consistent with something else: this description didn't seem to me to tally with what we saw ◇ SYNONYMS: agree, match, accord, fit, square, coincide, correspond, conform

2 to keep score

► n, pl -lies

3 any record of debit, credit, the score in a game, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: record, score, total, count, reckoning, running total

4 an identifying label or mark

5 a stick used (esp. formerly) as a record of the amount of a debt according to the notches cut in it tally-ho interj the cry of a participant at a hunt when the quarry is sighted

Talmud n (Judaism) the primary source of Jewish religious law

> Talmudic adj

> Talmudist n

talon n a sharply hooked claw, such as that of a bird of prey tamarind n a tropical evergreen tree with fruit whose acid pulp is used as a food and to make beverages and medicines tamarisk n a tree or shrub of the Mediterranean region and S Asia, with scalelike leaves, slender branches, and feathery flower clusters tambourine n (music) a percussion instrument consisting of a single drum skin stretched over a circular wooden frame with pairs of metal discs that jingle when it is struck or shaken tame adj

1

A (of an animal) changed by humans from a wild state into a domesticated state

◇ SYNONYMS: domesticated, docile, broken, gentle, obedient, amenable, tractable

B (of an animal) not afraid of or aggressive towards humans

◇ SYNONYMS: domesticated, docile, broken, gentle, obedient, amenable, tractable

2 (of a person) tending to do what one is told without questioning or criticizing it

◇ SYNONYMS: submissive, meek, compliant, subdued, manageable, obedient, docile, unresisting

3 mild and unexciting: the love scenes are fairly tame by modern standards

◇ SYNONYMS: unexciting, boring, dull, bland, uninspiring, humdrum, uninteresting, insipid

► vb taming, tamed

4 to make (an animal) tame; domesticate

◇ SYNONYMS: domesticate, train, break in, house-train

5 to bring under control; make less extreme or dangerous: many previously deadly diseases have been tamed by antibiotics

◇ SYNONYMS: subdue, suppress, master, discipline, humble, conquer, subjugate

Tamil n

1 pl -ils or -il a member of a people of S India and Sri Lanka

2 the language of the Tamils

► adj

3 of the Tamils tam-o'-shanter n a Scottish brimless woollen cap with a bobble in the centre tamp vb to force or pack (something) down by tapping it several times: he tamped the bowl of his pipe tamper vb (foll. by with)

1 to interfere or meddle with without permission: someone has been tampering with the locks

2 to attempt to influence someone, esp. by bribery: an attempt to tamper with the jury

tampon n an absorbent plug of cotton wool inserted into the vagina during menstruation tan¹ n

1 a brown coloration of the skin caused by exposure to ultraviolet rays, esp. those of the sun

► vb tanning, tanned

2 (of a person or his or her skin) to go brown after exposure to ultraviolet rays

3 to convert (a skin or hide) into leather by treating it with a tanning agent

4 (slang) to beat or flog

► adj

5 yellowish-brown tan² (maths) tangent tandem n

1 a bicycle with two sets of pedals and two saddles, arranged one behind the other for two riders

2 in tandem together or in conjunction: the two drugs work in tandem to combat the disease

► adv

3 one behind the other: Jim and Ruth arrived, riding tandem tandoor n a type of Indian clay oven tandoori adj cooked in a tandoor: tandoori chicken

tang n

1 a strong sharp taste or smell: we could already smell the tang of the distant sea

- 2 a trace or hint of something: there was a tang of cloves in the apple pie 3 the pointed end of a tool, such as a knife or chisel, which fits into the handle > tangy adj

tangata whenua (tang-ah-tah fen-noo-ah) pl n (NZ)

- 1 the original Polynesian settlers in New Zealand 2 descendants of the original Polynesian settlers tangent n

- 1 a line, curve, or plane that touches another curve or surface at one point but does not cross it 2 (in trigonometry) the ratio of the length of the opposite side to that of the adjacent side of a right-angled triangle 3 go off at a tangent suddenly take a completely different line of thought or action
► adj
4 of or involving a tangent 5 touching at a single point tangential adj

- 1 only having an indirect or superficial relevance: Hitler's vegetarianism only has a tangential link with the policies of the Nazis 2 of or being a tangent: a street tangential to the market square > tangentially adv

tangerine n

- 1 the small orange-like fruit, with a sweet juicy flesh, of an Asian tree
► adj
2 reddish-orange tangible adj

- 1 able to be touched; material or physical ◇ SYNONYMS: definite, real, positive, material, actual, concrete, palpable, perceptible

2 real or substantial: tangible results

◇ SYNONYMS: definite, real, positive, material, actual, concrete, palpable, perceptible

> tangibility n

> tangibly adv

tangle n

1 a confused or complicated mass of things, such as hair or fibres, knotted or coiled together: a tangle of wires

◇ SYNONYMS: knot, twist, web, jungle, coil, entanglement

2 a complicated problem or situation

◇ SYNONYMS: mess, jam (informal), fix (informal), confusion, complication, mix-up, shambles, entanglement

► vb -gling, -gled

3 to twist (things, such as hair or fibres) together in a confused mass

◇ SYNONYMS: twist, knot, mat, coil, mesh, entangle, interweave, ravel

4 to come into conflict: the last thing she wanted was to tangle with the police

◇ SYNONYMS tangle with someone: come into conflict with, come up against, cross swords with, dispute with, contend with, contest with, lock horns with

5 to catch or trap in a net, ropes, etc.: the string of the kite had got tangled in the branches > tangled adj

tango n, pl -gos

1 a Latin-American dance characterized by long gliding steps and sudden pauses

2 music for this dance

► vb -going, -goed

3 to perform this dance taniwha (tun-ee-fah) n (NZ) a mythical Māori monster that lives in rivers and lakes tank n

1 a large container for storing liquids or gases

- 2 an armoured combat vehicle moving on tracks and armed with guns 3 Also called: tankful the quantity contained in a tank tankard n a large one-handled beer-mug, sometimes fitted with a hinged lid tanker n a ship or lorry for carrying liquid in bulk: an oil tanker tannery n, pl -neries a place or building where skins and hides are tanned tannin n a yellowish compound found in many plants, such as tea and grapes, and used in tanning and dyeing. Also called: tannic acid

Tannoy n (trademark, Brit) a type of public-address system tansy n, pl -sies a plant with yellow flowers in flat-topped clusters tantalize or -lize vb -lizing, -lized or -lising, -lised to tease or make frustrated, for example by tormenting (someone) with the sight of something that he or she wants but cannot have > tantalizing or -lising adj > tantalizingly or -lisingly adv

tantalum n (chem) a hard greyish-white metallic element that resists corrosion.
SYMBOL: Ta

tantamount adj tantamount to equivalent in effect to: the raid was tantamount to a declaration of war

tantrum n a childish outburst of bad temper ◇ SYNONYMS: outburst, temper, hysterics, fit, flare-up, foulie (Austral slang), hissy fit (informal), strop (Brit informal) tap¹ vb tapping, tapped

1 to knock lightly and usually repeatedly: she tapped gently on the door

◇ SYNONYMS: knock, strike, pat, rap, beat, touch, drum

2 to make a rhythmic sound with the hands or feet by lightly and repeatedly hitting a surface with them: he was tapping one foot to the music

◇ SYNONYMS: knock, strike, pat, rap, beat, touch, drum

► n

3 a light blow or knock, or the sound made by it

◇ SYNONYMS: knock, pat, rap, touch, drumming

4 the metal piece attached to the toe or heel of a shoe used for tap-dancing

tap² n

1 (Brit & Austral & NZ) a valve by which the flow of a liquid or gas from a pipe can be controlled. Usual US word: faucet

◇ SYNONYMS: valve, faucet (US & Canad), stopcock

2 a stopper to plug a cask or barrel

3 a concealed listening or recording device connected to a telephone

4 (med) the withdrawal of fluid from a bodily cavity: a spinal tap

5 on tap

A (informal) ready for use

◇ SYNONYMS on tap: available, ready, standing by, to hand, on hand, at hand, in reserve

B (of drinks) on draught rather than in bottles

◇ SYNONYMS on tap: on draught, cask-conditioned, from barrels, not bottled or canned

► vb tapping, tapped

6 to listen in on (a telephone conversation) secretly by making an illegal connection

◇ SYNONYMS: listen in on, monitor, bug (informal), spy on, eavesdrop on, wiretap

7 to obtain something useful or desirable from (something): a new way of tapping the sun's energy

8 to withdraw liquid from (something) as if through a tap: to tap a cask of wine

9 to cut into (a tree) and draw off sap from it

10 (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) to obtain (money or information) from (someone)

11 (informal) to make an illicit attempt to recruit (a player or employee bound by an existing contract) tap-dancing n a style of dancing in which the performer wears shoes with metal plates at the heels and toes that make a rhythmic sound on the stage as he or she dances

> tap-dancer n

> tap dance n

tape n

1 a long thin strip of cotton or linen used for tying or fastening: a parcel tied with pink tape

◇ SYNONYMS: binding, strip, band, string, ribbon

2

A short for magnetic tape

B a spool or cassette containing magnetic tape, and used for recording or playing sound or video signals: he put a tape into his stereo

C the music, speech, or pictures which have been recorded on a particular cassette or spool of magnetic tape

3 a narrow strip of plastic which has one side coated with an adhesive substance and is used to stick paper, etc., together: sticky tape

4 a string stretched across the track at the end of a race course

5 short for tape measure

► vb taping, taped

6 Also: tape-record to record (speech, music, etc.) on magnetic tape ◇ SYNONYMS: record, video, tape-record, make a recording of 7 to bind or fasten with tape

◇ SYNONYMS: bind, secure, stick, seal, wrap

8 have a person or situation taped (Brit & Austral informal) to have full understanding and control of a person or situation tape measure n a tape or length of metal marked off in centimetres or inches, used for measuring taper vb

1 to become narrower towards one end

2 taper off to become gradually less: treatment should be tapered off gradually

► n

3 a long thin fast-burning candle

4 a narrowing tape recorder n an electrical device used for recording and reproducing sounds on magnetic tape tapestry n, pl -tries

1 a heavy woven fabric, often in the form of a picture, used for wall hangings or furnishings

2 a colourful and complicated situation that is made up of many different kinds of things: the rich tapestry of Hindustani music

tapeworm n a long flat parasitic worm that inhabits the intestines of vertebrates, including humans tapioca n a beadlike starch made from cassava root, used in puddings tapir (tape-er) n a piglike mammal of South and Central America and SE Asia, with a long snout, three-toed hind legs, and four-toed forelegs tappet n a short steel rod in an engine which moves up and down transferring movement from one part of the machine to another taproot n the main root of plants such as the dandelion, which grows straight down and bears smaller lateral roots tar n

1 a dark sticky substance obtained by distilling organic matter such as coal, wood, or peat

► vb tarring, tarred

2 to coat with tar

3 tar and feather to cover (someone) with tar and feathers as a punishment

4 tarred with the same brush having, or regarded as having, the same faults > tarry adj

taramasalata n a creamy pale pink pâté, made from the eggs of fish, esp. smoked cod's roe, and served as an hors d'oeuvre

tarantella n

1 a peasant dance from S Italy

2 music for this dance

tarantula n

1 a large hairy spider of tropical America with a poisonous bite

2 a large hairy spider of S Europe tardy adj -dier, -diest

1 occurring later than it is expected to or than it should: he spent the weekend writing tardy thank-you letters

2 slow in progress, growth, etc.: we made tardy progress across the ice > tardily adv

> tardiness n

tare n

1 any of various vetch plants of Eurasia and N Africa

2 (Bible) a weed, thought to be the dandelion target n

1 the object or person that a weapon, ball, etc., is aimed at: the station was an easy target for an air attack

◇ SYNONYMS: mark, goal

2 an object at which an archer or marksman aims, usually a round flat surface marked with circles

◇ SYNONYMS: mark, goal

3 a fixed goal or objective: our sales figures are well below target

◇ SYNONYMS: goal, aim, objective, end, mark, object, intention, ambition

4 a person or thing at which criticism or ridicule is directed: the Chancellor has been the target of much of the criticism

◇ SYNONYMS: victim, butt, prey, scapegoat

► vb -geting, -geted

5 to direct: an advertising campaign targeted at gay men

6 to aim (a missile) tariff n

1

A a tax levied by a government on imports or occasionally exports

◇ SYNONYMS: tax, duty, toll, levy, excise

B a list of such taxes

2 a list of fixed prices, for example in a hotel

◇ SYNONYMS: price list, schedule

3 (chiefly Brit) a method of charging for services such as gas and electricity by setting a price per unit

Tarmac n

1 (trademark) a paving material made of crushed stone bound with a mixture of tar and bitumen, used for a road or airport runway

2 the tarmac the area of an airport where planes wait and take off or land: we had to wait for an hour on the tarmac

► vb tarmac-macking, -macked

3 to apply Tarmac to (a surface) tarn n (chiefly Brit) a small mountain lake tarnish vb

1 (of a metal) to become stained or less bright, esp. by exposure to air or moisture

◇ SYNONYMS: stain, discolour, darken, blot, blemish

2 to damage or taint: the affair could tarnish the reputation of the prime minister

◇ SYNONYMS: damage, taint, blacken, sully, smirch

► n

3 a tarnished condition, surface, or film on a surface

◇ SYNONYMS: stain, taint, discoloration, spot, blot, blemish > tarnished adj

tarot (tarr-oh) n

1 a special pack of cards, now used mainly for fortune-telling

2 a card in a tarot pack with a distinctive symbolic design tarpaulin n

1 a heavy waterproof canvas coated with tar, wax, or paint

2 a sheet of this canvas, used as a waterproof covering tarragon n a European herb with narrow leaves, which are used as seasoning in cooking tarry vb -ries, -rying, -ried (old-fashioned)

1 to delay or linger: I have no plans to tarry longer than necessary

2 to stay briefly: most people tarried only a few hours before moving on tarsus n, pl -si

1 the bones of the ankle and heel collectively

2 the corresponding part in other mammals and in amphibians and reptiles tart¹ n

1 a pastry case, often having no top crust, with a sweet filling, such as jam or custard

◇ SYNONYMS: pie, pastry, pasty, tartlet, patty 2 (chiefly US) a small open pie with a fruit filling tart² adj

1 (of a flavour) sour or bitter ◇ SYNONYMS: sharp, acid, sour, bitter, pungent, tangy, piquant, vinegary 2 sharp and hurtful: he made a rather tart comment > tartly adv
> tartness n

tart³ n (informal)

1 (derogatory) a woman considered promiscuous 2 (old-fashioned) a prostitute ► See also tart up tartan n

1 a design of straight lines, crossing at right angles to give a chequered appearance, esp. one associated with a Scottish clan 2 a fabric with this design tartar¹ n

1 a hard deposit on the teeth 2 a brownish-red substance deposited in a cask during the fermentation of wine tartar² n a fearsome or formidable person tartar sauce or tartare sauce n a mayonnaise sauce mixed with chopped herbs and capers, served with seafood tartrazine (tar-traz-zeen) n an artificial yellow dye used as a food additive tart up vb (Brit informal)

1 to decorate in a cheap and flashy way: the shops were tarted up for Christmas

2 to try to make (oneself) look smart and attractive task n

1 a specific piece of work required to be done

◇ SYNONYMS: job, duty, assignment, exercise, mission, enterprise, undertaking, chore

2 an unpleasant or difficult job or duty

3 take to task to criticize or rebuke

◇ SYNONYMS take someone to task: criticize, blame, censure, rebuke, reprimand, reproach, scold, tell off (informal) task force n

1 a temporary grouping of military units formed to undertake a specific mission

2 any organization set up to carry out a continuing task taskmaster n a person who enforces hard or continuous work

Tasmanian devil n a small flesh-eating marsupial of Tasmania tassel n a tuft of loose threads secured by a knot or knob, used to decorate a cushion, piece of clothing, etc.

taste n

1 the sense by which the flavour of a substance is distinguished by the taste buds

2 the sensation experienced by means of the taste buds

◇ SYNONYMS: flavour, savour, relish, smack, tang

3 a small amount eaten, sipped, or tried on the tongue

◇ SYNONYMS: bit, bite, mouthful, sample, dash, spoonful, morsel, titbit

4 a brief experience of something: a taste of the planter's life

5 a liking for something: a taste for puns

◇ SYNONYMS: liking, preference, penchant, fondness, partiality, fancy, appetite, inclination

6 the ability to appreciate what is beautiful and excellent: she's got very good taste in clothes

◇ SYNONYMS: refinement, style, judgment, discrimination, appreciation, elegance, sophistication, discernment

7 a person's typical preferences as displayed by what they choose to buy, enjoy, etc.: the film was good but a bit violent for my taste

8 the quality of not being offensive or bad-mannered: that remark was in rather poor taste

► vb tasting, tasted

9 to distinguish the taste of (a substance) by means of the taste buds: I've got a stinking cold and can't taste anything

◇ SYNONYMS: distinguish, perceive, discern, differentiate

10 to take a small amount of (a food or liquid) into the mouth, esp. in order to test the flavour

◇ SYNONYMS: sample, try, test, sip, savour

11 to have a flavour or taste as specified: the pizza tastes delicious

◇ SYNONYMS: have a flavour of, smack of, savour of 12 to have a brief experience of (something): they have tasted democracy and they won't let go

◇ SYNONYMS: experience, know, undergo, partake of, encounter, meet with taste bud n any of the cells on the surface of the tongue, by means of which the sensation of taste is experienced tasteful adj having or showing good social or aesthetic taste: tasteful decor > tastefully adv

tasteless adj

1 lacking in flavour: the canteen serves cold, tasteless pizzas

2 lacking social or aesthetic taste: a room full of tasteless ornaments; a tasteless remark > tastelessly adv

> tastelessness n

tasty adj tastier, tastiest having a pleasant flavour

◇ SYNONYMS: delicious, luscious, palatable, delectable, savoury, full-flavoured, scrumptious (informal), appetizing, lekker (S African slang), yummo (Austral slang) tat n (Brit) tatty or tasteless articles tattered adj

1 ragged or torn: a tattered old book

2 wearing ragged or torn clothing: the tattered refugees

tattle vb -tling, -tled

1 to gossip or chatter

► n

2 gossip or chatter > tattler n

tattoo¹ n, pl -toos

1 a picture or design made on someone's body by pricking small holes in the skin and filling them with indelible dye

► vb -tooing, -tooed

2 to make pictures or designs on (a person's skin) by pricking and staining it with indelible colours > tattooed adj

> tattooist n

tattoo² n, pl -toos

1 (formerly) a signal by drum or bugle ordering soldiers to return to their quarters

2 a military display or pageant

3 any drumming or tapping tatty adj -tier, -tiest worn out, shabby, or unkempt taught vb the past of teach taunt vb

1 to tease or provoke (someone) with jeering remarks

◇ SYNONYMS: jeer, mock, tease, ridicule, provoke, insult, torment, deride

► n

2 a jeering remark

◇ SYNONYMS: jeer, dig, insult, ridicule, teasing, provocation, derision, sarcasm > taunting adj

taupe adj brownish-grey taut adj

1 stretched tight: the cable must be taut

2 showing nervous strain: he was looking taut and anxious

3 (of a film or piece of writing) having no unnecessary or irrelevant details: a taut thriller tauten vb to make or become taut tautology n, pl -gies the use of words which merely repeat something already stated, as in reverse back > tautological or tautologous adj tavern n

1 (old-fashioned) a pub

◇ SYNONYMS: inn, bar, pub (informal, chiefly Brit), public house, beer parlour (Canad), beverage room (Canad), hostelry, alehouse (archaic)

2 (US & Canad & Austral & NZ) a place licensed for the sale and consumption of alcoholic drink tawdry adj -drier, -driest cheap, showy, and of poor quality: tawdry Christmas decorations tawny adj brown to brownish-orange tax n

1 a compulsory payment to a government to raise revenue, levied on income, property, or goods and services

◇ SYNONYMS: charge, duty, toll, levy, tariff, excise, tithe

► vb

2 to levy a tax on (people, companies, etc.)

◇ SYNONYMS: charge (formal), rate, assess

3 to make heavy demands on: the task taxed his ingenuity and patience

◇ SYNONYMS: strain, stretch, try, test, load, burden, exhaust, weaken

4 tax someone with to accuse someone of: he was taxed with parochialism and meanness > taxable adj

> taxing adj

taxation n the levying of taxes or the condition of being taxed tax-free adj not needing to have tax paid on it: a tax-free lump sum

taxi n, pl taxis

1 Also called: cab, taxicab a car that may be hired, along with its driver, to carry passengers to any specified destination

► vb taxiing, taxied

2 (of an aircraft) to move along the ground, esp. before takeoff and after landing taxidermy n the art of preparing, stuffing, and mounting animal skins so that they have a lifelike appearance > taxidermist n

taxi rank n a place where taxis wait to be hired taxonomy n

1 the branch of biology concerned with the classification of plants and animals into groups based on their similarities and differences

2 the science or practice of classification > taxonomic adj

> taxonomist n

taxpayer n a person or organization that pays taxes tax relief n a reduction in the amount of tax a person or company has to pay tax return n a declaration of personal income used as a basis for assessing an individual's liability for taxation

TB tuberculosis

tba or TBA to be arranged tbc or TBC to be confirmed tbs. or tbsp. tablespoon(ful)

tea n

1

A a drink made by infusing the dried chopped leaves of an Asian shrub in boiling water: would you like a cup of tea?

B the dried chopped leaves of an Asian shrub used to make this drink: could you get some tea at the grocer's?

- C the Asian shrub on which these leaves grow 2 (Brit & Austral & NZ) the main evening meal 3 (chiefly Brit) a light meal eaten in mid-afternoon, usually consisting of tea and cakes, sometimes with sandwiches 4 a drink like tea made from other plants: mint tea tea bag n a small bag containing tea leaves, infused in boiling water to make tea teach vb teaching, taught

- 1 to tell or show (someone) how to do something ◇ SYNONYMS: show, train
2 to give instruction or lessons in (a subject) to (students) ◇ SYNONYMS: instruct, train, coach, inform, educate, drill, tutor, enlighten 3 to cause to learn or understand: life has taught me to seize the day 4 teach someone a lesson to warn or punish someone: a bully has to be taught a lesson > teachable adj

teacher n a person whose job is to teach others, esp. children

- ◇ SYNONYMS: instructor, coach, tutor, guide, trainer, lecturer, mentor, educator teaching n

- 1 the art or profession of a teacher 2 teachings the ideas and principles taught by a person, school of thought, etc.: the teachings of the Catholic Church tea cosy n a covering for a teapot to keep the contents hot teak n the hard yellowish-brown wood of an Asian tree, used for furniture making teal n, pl teals or teal a small freshwater duck related to the mallard team n

1 a group of players forming one of the sides in a sporting contest

◇ SYNONYMS: side, squad

2 a group of people organized to work together: a team of scientists

◇ SYNONYMS: group, company, set, body, band, gang, line-up, bunch
(informal)

3 two or more animals working together: a sledge pulled by a team of dogs

► vb

4 team up with to join with (someone) in order to work together

5 team with to match (something) with something else: navy skirts teamed with various coloured blouses

teamster n

1 (US & Canada) a truck driver

2 (formerly) a driver of a team of horses teamwork n the cooperative work done by a team teapot n a container with a lid, spout, and handle, in which tea is made and from which it is served tear¹ n

1 Also called: teardrop a drop of salty fluid appearing in and falling from the eye. RELATED ADJECTIVE: lacrimal, lachrymal, lacrymal

2 in tears weeping

◇ SYNONYMS in tears: weeping, crying, sobbing, blubbing tear² vb tearing, tore, torn

1 to rip a hole in (something): I tore my jumper on a nail

◇ SYNONYMS: rip, split, rend (literary), shred, rupture

2 to pull apart or to pieces: eagles have powerful beaks for tearing flesh

◇ SYNONYMS: pull apart, claw, lacerate, mutilate, mangle, mangle (Austral slang)

3 to hurry or rush

◇ SYNONYMS: rush, run, charge, race, fly, speed, dash, hurry

4 to remove or take by force: the sacred things torn from the temples of Inca worshippers

5 tear at someone's heartstrings to cause someone distress or anguish

6 to injure (a muscle or ligament) by moving or twisting it violently

► n

7 a hole or split

◇ SYNONYMS: hole, split, rip, rent, snag, rupture

► See also tear away

tear away vb

1 to persuade (oneself or someone else) to leave: she stood and watched, unable to tear herself away from the room

► n tearaway

2 (Brit) a wild or unruly person tearful adj weeping or about to weep > tearfully adv

tear gas n a gas that stings the eyes and causes temporary blindness, used in warfare and to control riots tear-jerker n (informal) an excessively sentimental film or book tease vb teasing, teased

1 to make fun of (someone) in a provocative and often playful manner

◇ SYNONYMS: mock, provoke, torment, taunt, goad, pull someone's leg (informal), make fun of

2 to arouse sexual desire in (someone) with no intention of satisfying it

◇ SYNONYMS: tantalize, lead on, flirt with, titillate

3 to raise the nap of (a fabric) with a teasel

► n

4 a person who teases

5 a piece of teasing behaviour > teasing adj

teasel or teazel or teazle n

1 a plant of Eurasia and N Africa, with prickly heads of yellow or purple flowers

2 the dried flower head of a teasel, used, esp. formerly, for raising the nap of cloth tease out vb

1 to comb (hair, flax, or wool) so as to remove any tangles

2 to extract information with difficulty: it's not easy to tease out the differences between anxiety and depression

teaspoon n

1 a small spoon used for stirring tea or coffee

2 Also called: teaspoonful the amount contained in such a spoon

3 a unit of capacity used in cooking, etc., equal to 5 ml teat n

1 the nipple of a breast or udder

2 something resembling a teat such as the rubber mouthpiece of a feeding bottle tea towel or tea cloth n a towel for drying dishes tea tree n a tree of Australia and New Zealand that yields an oil used as an antiseptic tech n (informal) a technical college techie or techy (informal) n

1 a person who is skilled in the use of technological devices, such as computers

► adj

2 of, relating to, or skilled in the use of such devices technetium (tek-neesh-ee-um) n (chem) a silvery-grey metallic element, produced artificially, esp. by the fission of uranium. SYMBOL: Tc

technical adj

1 of or specializing in industrial, practical, or mechanical arts and applied sciences: a technical school

2 skilled in practical activities rather than abstract thinking

◇ SYNONYMS: scientific, technological, skilled, specialist, specialized, hi-tech or high-tech

3 relating to a particular field of activity: technical jargon

4 according to the letter of the law: a last-minute penalty awarded to the Irish for a technical offence

5 showing technique: technical perfection > technically adv

technical college n (Brit & Austral) an institution for further education that provides courses in art and technical subjects technicality n, pl -ties

1 a petty formal point arising from a strict interpretation of the law or a set of rules: the case was dismissed on a legal technicality

2 a detail of the method used to do something: the technicalities of making a recording technician n a person skilled in a particular technical field: oil technicians

Technicolor n (trademark) a process of producing colour film for the cinema by superimposing synchronized films of the same scene, each having a different colour filter technique n

1 a method or skill used for a particular task: modern management techniques

◇ SYNONYMS: method, way, system, approach, means, style, manner, procedure

2 proficiency in a practical or mechanical skill: he lacks the technique to be a good player

◇ SYNONYMS: skill, performance, craft, touch, execution, artistry, craftsmanship, proficiency techno n a type of very fast dance music, using electronic sounds and having a strong technological influence technocracy n, pl -cies government by scientists, engineers, and other experts > technocrat n

> technocratic adj

technology n, pl -gies

1 the application of practical or mechanical sciences to industry or commerce

2 the scientific methods or devices used in a particular field: the latest aircraft technology > technological adj

> technologist n

tectonics n (geol) the study of the earth's crust and the forces that produce changes in it teddy n, pl -dies short for teddy bear teddy bear n a stuffed toy bear tedious adj boring and uninteresting

◇ SYNONYMS: boring, dull, dreary, monotonous, drab, tiresome, laborious, humdrum > tediously adv

> tediousness n tedium n the state of being bored or the quality of being boring: the tedium of a nine-to-five white-collar job

tee n

1 a support for a golf ball, usually a small wooden or plastic peg, used when teeing off

2 an area on a golf course from which the first stroke of a hole is made

3 a mark used as a target in certain games such as curling and quoits

► See also tee off

teem¹ vb teem with to have a great number of: the woods were teeming with snakes and bears teem² vb (of rain) to pour down in torrents teenage adj

1 (of a person) aged between 13 and 19

2 typical of or designed for people aged between 13 and 19: teenage fashions teenager n a person between the ages of 13 and 19

◇ SYNONYMS: youth, minor, adolescent, juvenile, girl, boy teens pl n

- 1 the years of a person's life between the ages of 13 and 19
- 2 all the numbers that end in -teen tee off vb teeing, teed (golf) to hit (the ball) from a tee at the start of a hole teepee n same as tepee teeter vb to wobble or move unsteadily teeth n

- 1 the plural of tooth
- 2 the power to produce a desired effect: resolution 672 had no teeth
- 3 armed to the teeth very heavily armed
- 4 get one's teeth into to become engrossed in
- 5 in the teeth of in spite of: trying to run a business in the teeth of the recession

teethe vb teething, teethed (of a baby) to grow his or her first teeth teething troubles pl n problems arising during the early stages of a project teetotal adj never drinking alcohol > teetotaller n

TEFL Teaching of English as a Foreign Language

Teflon n (trademark) a substance used for nonstick coatings on saucepans, etc.

tele- combining form

1 at or over a distance: telecommunications

2 television: telegenic

3 via telephone or television: teleconference telecommunications n communications using electronic equipment, such as telephones, radio, and television telegram n (formerly) a message transmitted by telegraph telegraph n

1 (formerly) a system by which information could be transmitted over a distance, using electrical signals sent along a cable

► vb

2 (formerly) to send (a message) by telegraph

3 to give advance notice of (something), esp. unintentionally: the twist in the plot was telegraphed long in advance

4 (Canad informal) to cast (a vote) illegally by impersonating a registered voter > telegraphist n

> telegraphic adj

telegraphy n (formerly) the science or use of a telegraph telekinesis n movement of a body by thought or willpower, without the application of a physical force > telekinetic adj telemarketing n another name for telesales telemetry n the use of electronic devices to record or measure a distant event and transmit the data to a receiver > telemetric adj

teleology n

1 (philosophy) the doctrine that there is evidence of purpose or design in the universe

2 (biol) the belief that natural phenomena have a predetermined purpose and are not determined by mechanical laws > teleological adj

> teleologist n

telepathy n the direct communication of thoughts and feelings between minds without the need to use normal means such as speech, writing, or touch > telepathic adj > telepathically adv

telephone n

1 a piece of equipment for transmitting speech, consisting of a microphone and receiver mounted on a handset: the telephone was ringing

◇ SYNONYMS: phone, mobile, mobile phone or (informal) moby, cellphone or cellular phone (US), handset, landline, dog and bone (slang), iPhone (trademark), smartphone, Blackberry, camera phone, picture phone

2 the worldwide system of communications using telephones: reports came in by telephone

► vb -phoning, -phoned

3 to call or talk to (a person) by telephone

◇ SYNONYMS: call, phone, ring (chiefly Brit), dial

► adj

4 of or using a telephone: a telephone call > telephonic adj telephonist n a person who operates a telephone switchboard telephony n a system of telecommunications for the transmission of speech or other sounds telephoto lens n a lens fitted to a camera to produce a magnified image of a distant object telesales n the selling of a commodity or service by telephone telescope n

1 an optical instrument for making distant objects appear closer by use of a combination of lenses

◇ SYNONYMS: glass, scope (informal), spyglass

► vb* -scoping, -scoped

2 to shorten (something) while still keeping the important parts: a hundred years of change has been telescoped into five years

◇ SYNONYMS: shorten, contract, compress, shrink, condense, abbreviate, abridge > telescopic adj

televise vb -vising, -vised to show (a programme or event) on television television n

1 the system or process of producing a moving image with accompanying sound on a distant screen

2 Also called: television set a device for receiving broadcast signals and converting them into sound and pictures

◇ SYNONYMS: TV, telly (Brit informal), small screen (informal), the box (Brit informal), the tube (slang)

3 the content of television programmes: some people think that television is too violent nowadays

► adj

4 of or relating to television: a television interview > televisual adj

telex n

1 an international communication service formerly used to send messages by teleprinter

2 a teleprinter used in such a service

3 a message sent by telex

► vb

4 to transmit (a message) by telex tell vb telling, told

1 to make known in words; notify: I told her what had happened

◇ SYNONYMS: inform, notify, state to, reveal to, express to, disclose to, proclaim to, divulge, flag up

2 to order or instruct (someone to do something): he had been told to wait in the lobby

◇ SYNONYMS: instruct, order, command, direct, bid

3 to give an account (of an event or situation): the President had been told of the developments

◇ SYNONYMS: describe, relate, recount, report, portray, depict, chronicle, narrate

4 to communicate by words: he was woken at 5 am to be told the news

5 to discover, distinguish, or discern: she could tell that he was not sorry

◇ SYNONYMS: distinguish, discriminate, discern, differentiate, identify

6 to have or produce an impact or effect: the pressure had begun to tell on him

◇ SYNONYMS: have or take effect, register (informal), weigh, count, take its toll, carry weight, make its presence felt

7 (informal) to reveal secrets or gossip

8 tell the time to read the time from a clock

9 you're telling me (slang) I know that very well teller n

1 a narrator

2 a bank cashier

3 a person appointed to count votes telling adj having a marked effect or impact: to inflict telling damage on the enemy

◇ SYNONYMS: effective, significant, considerable, marked, striking, powerful, impressive, influential tell off vb (informal) to reprimand or scold (someone)

◇ SYNONYMS tell someone off: reprimand, rebuke, scold, lecture, censure, reproach, berate, chide > telling-off n

telltale n

1 a person who tells tales about others

► adj

2 giving away information: examining the hands for telltale signs of age tellurium n (chem) a brittle silvery-white nonmetallic element. SYMBOL: Te telly n, pl -lies (informal) short for television temerity (tim-merr-it-tee) n boldness or audacity temp (Brit informal) n

1 a person, esp. a secretary, employed on a temporary basis

► vb

2 to work as a temp temp.

1 temperature

2 temporary temper n

1 a sudden outburst of anger: she stormed out in a temper

◇ SYNONYMS: rage, fury, bad mood, passion, tantrum, foulie (Austral slang), hissy fit (informal), strop (Brit informal)

2 a tendency to have sudden outbursts of anger: you've got a temper all right

◇ SYNONYMS: irritability, irascibility, passion, resentment, petulance, surliness, hot-headedness

3 a mental condition of moderation and calm: he lost his temper

◇ SYNONYMS: self-control, composure, cool (slang), calmness, equanimity

4 a person's frame of mind: he was in a bad temper

◇ SYNONYMS: frame of mind, nature, mind, mood, constitution, humour, temperament, disposition

► vb

5 to modify so as to make less extreme or more acceptable: past militancy has been tempered with compassion and caring

◇ SYNONYMS: moderate, restrain, tone down, soften, soothe, lessen, mitigate, assuage

6 to reduce the brittleness of (a hardened metal) by reheating it and allowing it to cool

◇ SYNONYMS: strengthen, harden, toughen, anneal

7 (music) to adjust the frequency differences between the notes of a scale on (a keyboard instrument) tempera n a painting medium for powdered pigments, consisting usually of egg yolk and water temperament n a person's character or disposition

◇ SYNONYMS: nature, character, personality, make-up, constitution, bent, humour, temper temperamental adj

1 (of a person) tending to be moody and have sudden outbursts of anger

2 (informal) working erratically and inconsistently; unreliable: the temperamental microphone

3 of or relating to a person's temperament: we discussed temperamental and developmental differences > temperamentally adv

temperance n

1 restraint or moderation, esp. in yielding to one's appetites or desires

2 abstinence from alcoholic drink temperate adj

- 1 of a climate which is never extremely hot or extremely cold
- 2 mild or moderate in quality or character: try to be more temperate in your statements

temperature n

- 1 the hotness or coldness of something, as measured on a scale that has one or more fixed reference points
- 2 (informal) an abnormally high body temperature
- 3 the strength of feeling among a group of people: his remarks are likely to raise the political temperature considerably

tempest n (literary) a violent wind or storm tempestuous adj

- 1 violent or stormy
 - 2 extremely emotional or passionate: a tempestuous relationship
- > tempestuously adv

template n a wood or metal pattern, used to help cut out shapes accurately temple¹ n a building or place used for the worship of a god or gods

◇ SYNONYMS: shrine, church, sanctuary, house of God temple² n the region on each side of the head in front of the ear and above the cheekbone tempo (tem-po) n, pl -pi (-pee) or -pos

- 1 rate or pace: the slow tempo of change in an overwhelmingly rural country
- 2 the speed at which a piece of music is played or meant to be played temporal adj

1 of or relating to time

2 of secular as opposed to spiritual or religious affairs: in the Middle Ages the Pope had temporal as well as spiritual power

3 not permanent or eternal: a temporal view of drugs as the No. 1 social problem temporary adj lasting only for a short time; not permanent: temporary accommodation

◇ SYNONYMS: impermanent, transitory, brief, fleeting, interim, short-lived, momentary, ephemeral > temporarily adv

temporize or -rise vb -rizing, -rized or -rising, -rised

1 to delay, act evasively, or protract a negotiation in order to gain time or avoid making a decision: 'Well,' I temporized, 'I'll have to ask your mother'

2 to adapt oneself to circumstances, as by temporary or apparent agreement

tempt vb

1 to entice (someone) to do something, esp. something morally wrong or unwise: can I tempt you to have another whisky?

◇ SYNONYMS: entice, lure, lead on, invite, seduce, coax

2 to allure or attract: she was tempted by the glamour of a modelling career

◇ SYNONYMS: attract, allure

3 be tempted to want to do something while knowing it would be wrong or inappropriate to do so: many youngsters are tempted to experiment with drugs

4 tempt fate or providence to take foolish or unnecessary risks > tempter or (fem) temptress n temptation n

1 the act of tempting or the state of being tempted

◇ SYNONYMS: enticement, lure, inducement, pull, seduction, allurement, tantalization

2 a person or thing that tempts tempting adj attractive or inviting: it's tempting to say I told you so

◇ SYNONYMS: inviting, enticing, seductive, alluring, attractive, mouthwatering, appetizing > temptingly adv

ten n

1 the cardinal number that is the sum of one and nine

2 a numeral, 10 or X, representing this number

3 something representing or consisting of ten units

► adj

4 amounting to ten: ten years > tenth adj, n

tenable adj

1 able to be upheld or maintained: a tenable strategy

2 (of a job) intended to be held by a person for a particular length of time: the post will be tenable for three years in the first instance > tenability n

> tenably adv

tenacious adj

1 holding firmly: a tenacious grasp

2 stubborn or persistent: tenacious support > tenaciously adv

> tenacity n

tenancy n, pl -cies

1 the temporary possession or use of lands or property owned by someone else, in return for payment

2 the period of holding or occupying such property tenant n

1 a person who pays rent for the use of land or property ◇ SYNONYMS: leaseholder, resident, renter, occupant, inhabitant, occupier, lodger, boarder 2 any holder or occupant tench n a European freshwater game fish of the carp family tend¹ vb to be inclined (to take a particular kind of action or to be in a particular condition) as a rule: she tends to be rather absent-minded

◇ SYNONYMS: be inclined, be liable, have a tendency, be apt, be prone, lean, incline, gravitate tend² vb

1 to take care of: it is she who tends his wounds

◇ SYNONYMS: take care of, look after, keep, attend, nurture, watch over

2 tend to to attend to: excuse me, I have to tend to the other guests tendency n, pl -cies

1 an inclination to act in a particular way

◇ SYNONYMS: inclination, leaning, liability, disposition, propensity, susceptibility, proclivity (formal), proneness

2 the general course or drift of something

3 a faction, esp. within a political party tendentious adj expressing a particular viewpoint or opinion, esp. a controversial one, in very strong terms: a somewhat tendentious reading of French history

> tendentiously adv

tender¹ adj

1 (of cooked food) having softened and become easy to chew or cut

2 gentle and kind: tender loving care

◇ SYNONYMS: gentle, loving, kind, caring, sympathetic, affectionate, compassionate, considerate

3 vulnerable or sensitive: at the tender age of 9

◇ SYNONYMS: vulnerable, young, sensitive, raw, youthful, inexperienced, immature, impressionable

4 painful when touched: his wrist was swollen and tender

◇ SYNONYMS: sensitive, painful, sore, raw, bruised, inflamed > tenderly adv

> tenderness n

tender² vb

1 to present or offer: he tendered his resignation

◇ SYNONYMS: offer, present, submit, give, propose, volunteer, hand in, put forward

2 to make a formal offer or estimate for a job or contract: contractors tendering for government work

► n

3 a formal offer to supply specified goods or services at a stated cost or rate: the government invited tenders to run television and radio services

◇ SYNONYMS: offer, bid, estimate, proposal, submission > tenderer n

> tendering n

tender³ n

1 a small boat that brings supplies to larger vessels in a port

2 a wagon attached to the rear of a steam locomotive that carries the fuel and water tenderize or -rise vb -rizing, -rized or -rising, -rised to make (meat) tender, by pounding it or adding a substance to break down the fibres > tenderizer or -riser n tendon n a band of tough tissue that attaches a muscle to a bone tendril n a threadlike leaf or stem by which a climbing plant attaches itself to a support tenement n a large building divided into several different flats tenet (ten-nit) n a principle on which a belief or doctrine is based tenner n (Brit & Austral & NZ informal)

1 a ten-pound or ten-dollar note

2 the sum of ten pounds or ten dollars: it's worth a tenner at least tennessine n (chem) a synthetic radioactive element produced in small quantities. SYMBOL: Ts tennis n a game played between two players or pairs of players who use a racket to hit a ball to and fro over a net on a rectangular court

► See also lawn tennis, table tennis tenon n a projecting end of a piece of wood, formed to fit into a corresponding slot in another piece tenor n

1

A the second highest male voice, between alto and baritone

B a singer with such a voice

C a saxophone, horn, or other musical instrument between the alto and baritone or bass

2 a general meaning or character: it was clear from the tenor of the meeting that the manager's actions are very unpopular

► adj

3 denoting a musical instrument between alto and baritone: a tenor saxophone

4 of or relating to the second highest male voice: his voice lacks the range needed for the tenor role tenpin bowling n a game in which players try to knock over ten skittles by rolling a ball at them tense¹ adj

1 having, showing, or causing mental or emotional strain: the tense atmosphere

◇ SYNONYMS: nervous, edgy, strained, anxious, apprehensive, uptight (informal), on edge, jumpy, adrenalized

2 stretched tight: tense muscles

◇ SYNONYMS: rigid, strained, taut, stretched, tight

► vb tensing, tensed

3 Also: tense up to make or become tense

◇ SYNONYMS: tighten, strain, brace, stretch, flex, stiffen > tensely adv

> tenseness n

tense² n (grammar) the form of a verb that indicates whether the action referred to in the sentence is located in the past, the present, or the future: 'ate' is the past tense of 'to eat'

tensile adj of or relating to tension or being stretched: The posts were linked by high tensile wire.

tension n

1 a situation or condition of hostility, suspense, or uneasiness: a renewed state of tension between old enemies

◇ SYNONYMS: friction, hostility, unease, antagonism, antipathy, enmity

2 mental or emotional strain: nervous tension

◇ SYNONYMS: strain, stress, nervousness, pressure, anxiety, unease, apprehension, suspense

3 a force that stretches or the state or degree of being stretched tight: keep tension on the line until the fish comes within range of the net

◇ SYNONYMS: rigidity, tightness, stiffness, pressure, stress, stretching, tautness

4 (physics) a force that tends to produce an elongation of a body or structure

5 (physics) voltage, electromotive force, or potential difference tent n a portable shelter made of canvas or other fabric supported on poles, stretched out, and fastened to the ground by pegs and ropes

tentacle n

1 a flexible organ that grows near the mouth in many invertebrates and is used for feeding, grasping, etc.

2 tentacles the unseen methods by which an organization or idea, esp. a sinister one, influences people and events: the tentacles of the secret police > tentacled adj

tentative adj

1 provisional or unconfirmed: a tentative agreement

◇ SYNONYMS: unconfirmed, provisional, indefinite, test, trial, pilot, preliminary, experimental

2 hesitant, uncertain, or cautious: their rather tentative approach

◇ SYNONYMS: hesitant, cautious, uncertain, doubtful, faltering, unsure, timid, undecided > tentatively adv

> tentativeness n

tenterhooks pl n on tenterhooks in a state of tension or suspense tenth adj, n See ten tenuous adj insignificant or flimsy: there is only the most tenuous evidence for it

> tenuously adv

tenure n

1 the holding of an office or position

2 the length of time an office or position lasts

3 the holding of a teaching position at a university on a permanent basis

4 the legal right to live in a place or to use land or buildings for a period of time

tepee or teepee (tee-pee) n a cone-shaped tent of animal skins, formerly used by Native Americans

tepid adj

1 slightly warm

2 lacking enthusiasm: tepid applause

> tepidity n

> tepidly adv

tequila n a Mexican alcoholic spirit distilled from the agave plant tercentenary or tercentennial adj

1 marking a 300th anniversary

► n, pl -tenaries or -tennials

2 a 300th anniversary term n

1 a word or expression, esp. one used in a specialized field of knowledge: he coined the term 'inferiority complex'

◇ SYNONYMS: word, name, expression, title, label, phrase

2 a period of time: a four-year prison term

◇ SYNONYMS: period, time, spell, while, season, interval, span, duration

3 one of the periods of the year when a school, university, or college is open or a lawcourt holds sessions

4 the period of pregnancy when childbirth is imminent

5 (maths) any distinct quantity making up a fraction or proportion, or contained in a sequence, series, etc.

6 (logic) any of the three subjects or predicates occurring in a syllogism

7 full term the end of a specific period of time: the agony of carrying the child to full term

► vb

8 to name, call, or describe as being: a musical style that could loosely be termed gospel

◇ SYNONYMS: call, name, label, style, entitle, tag, dub, designate terminal adj

1 (of an illness) ending in death

◇ SYNONYMS: fatal, deadly, lethal, killing, mortal, incurable, inoperable, untreatable

2 situated at an end, terminus, or boundary: the terminal joints of the fingers

◇ SYNONYMS: final, last, closing, finishing, concluding, ultimate, terminating

3 (informal) extreme or severe: terminal boredom

► n

4 a place where vehicles, passengers, or goods begin or end a journey: the ferry terminal

◇ SYNONYMS: terminus, station, depot (US & Canad), end of the line

5 a point at which current enters or leaves an electrical device

6 (computers) a device, usually a keyboard and a visual display unit, having input/output links with a computer > terminally adv

terminate vb -nating, -nated

1 to bring or come to an end: his flying career was terminated by this crash

◇ SYNONYMS: cease, end, close, finish

2 to put an end to (a pregnancy) by inducing an abortion

◇ SYNONYMS: abort, end

3 (of the route of a train, bus, etc.) to stop at a particular place and not go any further: this train terminates at Leicester > termination n

terminology n, pl -gies the specialized words and expressions relating to a particular subject > terminological adj

> terminologist n terminus (term-in-nuss) n, pl -ni (-nye) or -nuses the station or town at one end of a railway line or bus route: Vienna's Westbahnhof is the terminus for

trains to France

termite n a whitish antlike insect of warm and tropical regions that destroys timber tern n a gull-like sea bird with a forked tail and long narrow wings ternary adj

- 1 consisting of three items or groups of three items
- 2 (maths) (of a number system) to the base three Terpsichorean (turp-sick-or-ee-an) adj (often facetious) of or relating to dancing terrace n

- 1 a row of houses, usually identical and joined together by common dividing walls, or the street onto which they face
 - 2 a paved area alongside a building
 - 3 a horizontal flat area of ground, often one of a series in a slope
 - 4 the terraces or terracing (Brit & NZ) a tiered area in a stadium where spectators stand
- vb -racing, -raced
- 5 to make into terraces terracotta n

- 1 a hard unglazed brownish-red earthenware used for pottery
- adj
- 2 made of terracotta
 - 3 brownish-orange terra firma n the ground, as opposed to the sea terrain n an area of ground, esp. with reference to its physical character:

mountainous terrain

◇ SYNONYMS: ground, country, land, landscape, topography, going terrapin n a small turtle-like reptile of N America that lives in fresh water and on land terrarium n

1 an enclosed area or container where small land animals are kept

2 a glass container in which plants are grown terrazzo n, pl -zos a floor made by setting marble chips into a layer of mortar and polishing the surface terrestrial adj

1 of the planet earth

◇ SYNONYMS: earthly, worldly, global

2 of the land as opposed to the sea or air

3 (of animals and plants) living or growing on the land

4 (television) denoting or using a signal sent over land from a transmitter on land, rather than by satellite terrible adj

1 very serious or extreme: war is a terrible thing

◇ SYNONYMS: serious, desperate, severe, extreme, dangerous, insufferable

2 (informal) very bad, unpleasant, or unsatisfactory: terrible books

◇ SYNONYMS: bad, awful, dreadful, dire, abysmal, poor, rotten (informal)

3 causing fear

◇ SYNONYMS: awful, shocking (informal), terrifying, horrible, dreadful, horrifying, fearful (informal), horrendous > terribly adv

terrier n any of several small active breeds of dog, originally trained to hunt animals living underground terrific adj

1 very great or intense: a terrific blow on the head

◇ SYNONYMS: intense, great, huge, enormous, tremendous (informal), fearful (informal), gigantic

2 (informal) very good; excellent: a terrific book

◇ SYNONYMS: excellent, wonderful, brilliant, amazing, outstanding, superb (old-fashioned), fantastic, magnificent, booshit (Austral slang), exo (Austral slang), sik (Austral slang), ka pai (NZ), rad (informal), phat (slang), schmick (Austral informal) > terrifically adv

terrify vb -fies, -fying, -fied to frighten greatly

◇ SYNONYMS: frighten, scare, alarm, terrorize > terrified adj

> terrifying adj

> terrifyingly adv

terrine (terr-reen) n

1 an oval earthenware cooking dish with a tightly fitting lid

2 the food cooked or served in such a dish, esp. pâté territorial adj

1 of or relating to a territory or territories

2 of or concerned with the ownership and control of an area of land or water: a territorial dispute

3 (of an animal or bird) establishing and defending an area which it will not let other animals or birds into: the baboon is a territorial species

4 of or relating to a territorial army > territorially adv

> territoriality n

Territorial Army n (in Britain) a reserve army, known since 2014 as the Army Reserve, whose members are not full-time soldiers but undergo military training in their spare time so that they can be called upon in an emergency territory n, pl -ries

1 any tract of land; district: mountainous territory

◇ SYNONYMS: district, area, land, region, country, zone, province, patch

2 the geographical area under the control of a particular government: the islands are Japanese territory

◇ SYNONYMS: district, area, land, region, country, zone, province, patch

3 an area inhabited and defended by a particular animal or pair of animals

4 an area of knowledge or experience: all this is familiar territory to readers of her recent novels

5 a country or region under the control of a foreign country: a French Overseas Territory

6 a region of a country, esp. of a federal state, that enjoys less autonomy and a lower status than most constituent parts of the state

terror n

1 very great fear, panic, or dread

◇ SYNONYMS: fear, alarm, dread, fright, panic, anxiety

2 a person or thing that inspires great dread

◇ SYNONYMS: nightmare, monster, bogeyman, devil, fiend, bugbear

3 (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) a troublesome person, esp. a child terrorism n the systematic use of violence and intimidation to achieve political ends > terrorist n, adj

terrorize or -rise vb -rizing, -rized or -rising, -rised

1 to control or force (someone) to do something by violence, fear, threats, etc.: he was terrorized into withdrawing his accusations

2 to make (someone) very frightened > terrorization or -risation n > terrorizer or -riser n

terry n a fabric covered on both sides with small uncut loops, used for towelling and nappies terse adj

1 neatly brief and concise

2 curt or abrupt > tersely adv

> terseness n

tertiary (tur-shar-ee) adj

1 third in degree, order, etc.

2 (of education) at university or college level

3 (of an industry) involving services, such as transport and financial services, as opposed to manufacture

Terylene n (trademark) a synthetic polyester fibre or fabric tessellated adj paved or inlaid with a mosaic of small tiles test vb

1 to try (something) out to ascertain its worth, safety, or endurance: the company has never tested its products on animals

◇ SYNONYMS: check, investigate, assess, research, analyse, experiment with, try out, put something to the test, run something up the flagpole

2 to carry out an examination on (a substance, material, or system) in order to discover whether a particular substance, component, or feature is present: baby foods are regularly tested for pesticides

3 to put under severe strain: the long delay tested my patience

4 to achieve a result in a test which indicates the presence or absence of something: he tested positive for cocaine

► n

5 a method, practice, or examination designed to test a person or thing

◇ SYNONYMS: examination, paper, assessment, evaluation

6 a series of questions or problems designed to test a specific skill or knowledge: a spelling test

◇ SYNONYMS: examination, paper, assessment, evaluation

7 a chemical reaction or physical procedure for testing the composition or other qualities of a substance

◇ SYNONYMS: trial, research, check, investigation, analysis, assessment, examination, evaluation

8 (sport) short for Test match

9 put to the test to use (something) in order to gauge its usefulness or effectiveness > testable adj

> testing adj

testament n

1 something which provides proof of a fact about someone or something: the size of the audience was an immediate testament to his appeal

◇ SYNONYMS: proof, evidence, testimony, witness, demonstration, tribute

2 (law) a formal statement of how a person wants his or her property to be disposed of after his or her death: last will and testament

◇ SYNONYMS: will, last wishes > testamentary adj

Testament n either of the two main parts of the Bible, the Old Testament or the New Testament testate (law) adj having left a legally valid will at death test case n a legal action that serves as a precedent in deciding similar succeeding cases testicle n either of the two male reproductive glands, in most mammals enclosed within the scrotum, that produce spermatozoa testify vb -fies, -fying, -fied

1 (law) to declare or give evidence under oath, esp. in court

◇ SYNONYMS: bear witness, state, swear, certify, assert, affirm, attest, corroborate

2 testify to to be evidence of: a piece of paper testifying to their educational qualifications testimonial n

1 a recommendation of the character or worth of a person or thing

2 a tribute given for services or achievements

► adj

3 of a testimony or testimonial: a testimonial match

testimony n, pl -nies

1 a declaration of truth or fact

◇ SYNONYMS: evidence, statement, submission, affidavit, deposition

2 (law) evidence given by a witness, esp. in court under oath

◇ SYNONYMS: evidence, statement, submission, affidavit, deposition

3 evidence proving or supporting something: that they are still talking is a testimony to their 20-year friendship

◇ SYNONYMS: proof, evidence, demonstration, indication, support, manifestation, verification, corroboration testis n, pl -tes same as testicle

Test match n (in various sports, esp. cricket) an international match, esp. one of a series testosterone n a steroid male sex hormone secreted by the testes test tube n a cylindrical round-bottomed glass tube open at one end, which is used in scientific experiments test-tube baby n

- 1 a fetus that has developed from an ovum fertilized in an artificial womb
- 2 a baby conceived by artificial insemination testy adj -tier, -tiest irritable or touchy

- > testily adv
- > testiness n

tetanus n an acute infectious disease in which toxins released from a bacterium cause muscular spasms and convulsions

tête-à-tête n, pl -têtes or -tête

- 1 a private conversation between two people
- adv
- 2 together in private: they dined tête-à-tête

tether n

- 1 a rope or chain for tying an animal to a fence, post, etc., so that it cannot move away from a particular place
- 2 at the end of one's tether at the limit of one's patience or endurance
- vb
- 3 to tie with a tether tetrahedron (tet-ra-heed-ron) n, pl -drons or -dra a solid figure with four triangular plane faces

- > tetrahedral adj

tetralogy n, pl -gies a series of four related books, dramas, operas, etc.

Teutonic (tew-tonn-ik) adj

- 1 characteristic of or relating to the Germans
- 2 of the ancient Teutons text n

1 the main body of a printed or written work as distinct from items such as notes or illustrations

◇ SYNONYMS: contents, words, content, wording, body, subject matter

2 any written material, such as words displayed on a visual display unit

◇ SYNONYMS: words, wording

3 the written version of the words of a speech, broadcast, or recording: an advance text of the remarks the president will deliver tonight

◇ SYNONYMS: transcript, script

4 a short passage of the Bible used as a starting point for a sermon

5 a book required as part of a course of study: shelves full of sociology texts

6 short for text message

► vb

7 to send (a text message) by mobile phone

8 to contact (a person) by means of a text message textbook n

1 a book of facts about a subject used by someone who is studying that subject

► adj

2 perfect or exemplary: a textbook example of an emergency descent

textile n

1 any fabric or cloth, esp. a woven one

► adj

2 of or relating to fabrics or their production: the world textile market

text message n

1 a message sent in text form, esp. by means of a mobile phone

2 a message appearing on a computer screen > text messaging n textual adj of, based on, or relating to, a text or texts > textually adv

texture n

1 the structure, appearance, and feel of a substance: curtains of many textures and colours

◇ SYNONYMS: feel, consistency, structure, surface, tissue, grain

2 the overall sound of a piece of music, resulting from the way the different instrumental parts in it are combined: a big orchestra weaving rich textures

► vb -turing, -tured

3 to give a distinctive texture to (something) > textural adj

Thai adj

1 of Thailand

► n

2 pl Thais or Thai a person from Thailand

3 the main language of Thailand thalidomide (thal-lid-oh-mide) n a drug formerly used as a sedative and hypnotic but withdrawn from use when found to cause abnormalities in developing fetuses thallium n (chem) a soft highly toxic white metallic element. SYMBOL: Tl than conj, prep

1 used to introduce the second element of a comparison, the first element of which expresses difference: I'm less optimistic than I was at first

2 used to state a number, quantity, or value in approximate terms by contrasting it with another number, quantity, or value: temperatures lower than 25 degrees

3 used after the adverbs rather and sooner to introduce a rejected alternative: fruit is examined by hand, rather than by machine

thane n

1 (in Anglo-Saxon England) a nobleman who held land from the king or from a superior nobleman in return for certain services

2 (in medieval Scotland) a person of rank holding land from the king thank vb

1 to convey feelings of gratitude to: he thanked the nursing staff for saving his life

◇ SYNONYMS: say thank you to, show your appreciation to

2 to hold responsible: he has his father to thank for his familiarity with the film world

3 thank you a polite response or expression of gratitude

4 thank goodness or thank heavens or thank God an exclamation of relief thankful adj grateful and appreciative > thankfully adv

thankless adj unrewarding or unappreciated: she took on the thankless task of organizing the office Xmas lunch

> thanklessly adv

> thanklessness n

thanks pl n

1 an expression of appreciation or gratitude

◇ SYNONYMS: gratitude, appreciation, credit, recognition, acknowledgment, gratefulness

2 thanks to because of: the birth went very smoothly, thanks to the help of the GHQ medical officer

◇ SYNONYMS thanks to: because of, through, due to, as a result of, owing to

► interj

3 (informal) an exclamation expressing gratitude that adj

1 used preceding a noun that has been mentioned or is already familiar: he'd have to give up on that idea

2 used preceding a noun that denotes something more remote: that book on the top shelf

► pron

3 used to denote something already mentioned or understood: that's right

4 used to denote a more remote person or thing: is that him over there?

5 used to introduce a restrictive relative clause: a problem that has to be overcome

6 and all that or and that (informal) and similar or related things: import cutting and all that

7 that is

A to be precise

B in other words

8 that's that there is no more to be said or done

► conj

9 used to introduce a noun clause: he denied that the country was suffering from famine

10 used, usually after so, to introduce a clause of purpose: he turns his face away from her so that she shall not see his tears

11 used to introduce a clause of result: a scene so sickening and horrible that it is impossible to describe it

► adv

12 Also: all that (informal) very or particularly: the fines imposed have not been that large thatch n

1 Also called: thatching a roofing material that consists of straw or reeds

2 a roof made of such a material

3 a mass of thick untidy hair on someone's head

► vb

4 to cover with thatch > thatched adj

> thatcher n

thaw vb

1 to melt or cause to melt: snow thawing in the gutter

◇ SYNONYMS: melt, dissolve, soften, defrost, warm, liquefy, unfreeze

2 (of frozen food) to become or cause to become unfrozen; defrost

◇ SYNONYMS: melt, dissolve, soften, defrost, warm, liquefy, unfreeze

3 (of weather) to be warm enough to cause ice or snow to melt: it's not freezing, it's thawing again

4 to become more relaxed or friendly: only with Llewelyn did he thaw, let his defences down

► n

5 the act or process of thawing

6 a spell of relatively warm weather, causing snow or ice to melt the adj (definite article)

1 used preceding a noun that has been previously specified or is a matter of common knowledge: those involved in the search

2 used to indicate a particular person or object: the man called Frank turned to look at it

3 used preceding certain nouns associated with one's culture, society, or community: to comply with the law

4 used preceding an adjective that is functioning as a collective noun: the unemployed

5 used preceding titles and certain proper nouns: the Middle East

6 used preceding an adjective or noun in certain names or titles: Alexander the Great

7 used preceding a noun to make it refer to its class as a whole: cultivation of the coca plant

8 used instead of my, your, her, etc., with parts of the body: swelling of tissues in the brain

9 the best or most remarkable: it's THE place in town for good Mexican food theatre or (US) theater n

1 a building designed for the performance of plays, operas, etc.

2 a large room or hall with tiered seats for an audience: a lecture theatre

3 a room in a hospital equipped for surgical operations

4 the theatre drama and acting in general

5 a region in which a war or conflict takes place: a potential theatre of war close to Russian borders

6 (US & Austral & NZ) same as cinema theatrical adj

1 of or relating to the theatre or dramatic performances

◇ SYNONYMS: dramatic, stage, thespian

2 exaggerated and affected in manner or behaviour

◇ SYNONYMS: exaggerated, dramatic, melodramatic, histrionic, affected, mannered, showy, ostentatious > theatricality n

> theatrically adv

theatricals pl n dramatic performances, esp. as given by amateurs thee pron (old-fashioned) the objective form of thou theft n

1 the act or an instance of stealing: he reported the theft of his passport

◇ SYNONYMS: stealing, robbery, thieving, fraud, embezzlement, pilfering, larceny, purloining

2 the crime of stealing: he had a number of convictions for theft

◇ SYNONYMS: stealing, robbery, thieving, fraud, embezzlement, pilfering, larceny, purloining

their adj of or associated with them: owning their own land; two girls on their way to school

theirs pron

1 something or someone belonging to or associated with them: it was his fault, not theirs

2 of theirs belonging to them theism (thee-iz-zum) n

1 belief in one God as the creator of everything in the universe

2 belief in the existence of a God or gods > theist n, adj

> theistic adj

them pron (objective) refers to things or people other than the speaker or people addressed: I want you to give this to them

theme n

1 the main idea or topic in a discussion or lecture

◇ SYNONYMS: subject, idea, topic, essence, subject matter, keynote, gist

2 (in literature, music, or art) an idea, image, or motif, repeated or developed throughout a work or throughout an artist's career

◇ SYNONYMS: motif, leitmotif

3 (music) a group of notes forming a recognizable melodic unit, used as the basis of part or all of a composition

4 a short essay, esp. one set as an exercise for a student > thematic adj

> thematically adv

theme park n an area planned as a leisure attraction in which all the displays and activities are based on a particular theme, story, or idea: a Wild West theme park

themselves pron

1

A the reflexive form of they or them: two men barricaded themselves into a cell

B used for emphasis: among the targets were police officers themselves

2 their normal or usual selves: they don't seem themselves these days

then adv

1 at that time: he was then at the height of his sporting career

2 after that: let's eat first and then we can explore the town

3 in that case: then why did he work for you?

► pron

4 that time: since then the list of grievances has steadily grown

► adj

5 existing or functioning at that time: the then Defence Minister thence adv (formal)

- 1 from that place: the train went south into Switzerland, and thence on to Italy
- 2 for that reason; therefore theocracy n, pl -cies

- 1 government by a god or by priests
- 2 a community under such government
- > theocrat n
- > theocratic adj
- > theocratically adv

theodolite (thee-odd-oh-lite) n an instrument used in surveying for measuring horizontal and vertical angles theologian n a person versed in the study of theology theology n, pl -gies

- 1 the systematic study of religions and religious beliefs
- 2 a specific system, form, or branch of this study: Muslim theology
- > theological adj
- > theologically adv

theorem n a proposition, esp. in maths, that can be proved by reasoning from the basic principles of a subject theoretical or theoretic adj

- 1 based on or concerned with the ideas and abstract principles relating to a particular subject rather than its practical uses: theoretical physics
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: abstract, speculative
- 2 existing in theory but perhaps not in reality: the secret service is under the theoretical control of the government
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: hypothetical, academic, notional, unproven, conjectural, nominal, postulatory > theoretically adv

theorize or -rise vb -rizing, -rized or -rising, -rised to produce or use theories; speculate > theorist n

theory n, pl -ries

1 a set of ideas, based on evidence and careful reasoning, which offers an explanation of how something works or why something happens, but has not been completely proved: the theory of cosmology

2 the ideas and abstract knowledge relating to something: political theory

3 an idea or opinion: it's only a theory, admittedly, but I think it's worth pursuing

◇ SYNONYMS: belief, feeling, speculation, assumption, hunch, presumption, conjecture, surmise

4 in theory in an ideal or hypothetical situation: in theory, the tax is supposed to limit inflation

theosophy n a religious or philosophical system claiming to be based on an intuitive insight into the divine nature > theosophical adj

> theosophist n

therapeutic (ther-rap-pew-tik) adj of or relating to the treatment and cure of disease ◇ SYNONYMS: beneficial, healing, restorative, good, corrective, remedial, salutary, curative > therapeutically adv

therapeutics n the branch of medicine concerned with the treatment of disease therapy n, pl -pies the treatment of physical, mental, or social disorders or disease ◇ SYNONYMS: remedy, treatment, cure, healing, method of healing > therapist n

there adv

1 in, at, or to that place or position: he won't be there

2 in that respect: you're right there

3 there and then immediately and without delay: he walked out there and then

► adj

4 not all there (informal) mentally unbalanced or silly

► pron

5 that place: to return from there

6 used as a grammatical subject when the true subject follows the verb, esp. the verb 'to be': there are no children in the house

7 so there! an exclamation, used esp. by children, that usually follows a declaration of refusal or defiance: you can't come, so there!

8 there you are or go

A an expression used when handing a person something

B an exclamation of satisfaction or vindication

► interj

9 an expression of sympathy, for example when consoling a child: there, there, pet!

thereby adv (formal) by that means or consequently therefore adv for that reason: the training is long, and therefore expensive

◇ SYNONYMS: consequently, so, thus, as a result, hence, accordingly, thence, ergo thereupon adv (formal) immediately after that; at that point therm n (Brit) a unit of heat equal to $1.055\,056 \times 10^8$ joules thermal adj

1 of, caused by, or generating heat

2 hot or warm: thermal springs

3 (of garments) specially made so as to have exceptional heat-retaining qualities: thermal underwear

► n

4 a column of rising air caused by uneven heating of the land surface, and used by gliders and birds to gain height thermodynamics n the branch of physical science concerned with the relationship between heat and other forms of energy thermometer n an instrument used to measure temperature, esp. one in which a thin column of liquid, such as mercury, expands and contracts within a sealed tube marked with a temperature scale

thermonuclear adj

1 (of a nuclear reaction) involving a nuclear fusion reaction of a type which occurs at very high temperatures

2 (of a weapon) giving off energy as the result of a thermonuclear reaction

3 involving thermonuclear weapons thermoplastic adj

1 (of a material, esp. a synthetic plastic) becoming soft when heated and rehardening on cooling

► n

2 a synthetic plastic or resin, such as polystyrene

Thermos or Thermos flask n (trademark) a type of stoppered vacuum flask used to preserve the temperature of its contents thermosetting adj (of a material, esp. a synthetic plastic) hardening permanently after one application of heat and pressure thermostat n a device which automatically regulates the temperature of central heating, an oven, etc., by switching it off or on when it reaches or drops below a particular temperature > thermostatic adj

> thermostatically adv

thesaurus (thiss-sore-uss) n, pl -ruses or -ri a book containing lists of synonyms and related words these adj, pron the plural of this thesis (theess-siss) n, pl -ses (-seez)

1 a written work resulting from original research, esp. one submitted for a higher degree in a university

◇ SYNONYMS: dissertation, paper, treatise, essay, monograph

2 an opinion supported by reasoned argument: it is the author's thesis that Britain has yet to come to terms with the loss of its Empire

◇ SYNONYMS: proposition, theory, hypothesis, idea, view, opinion, proposal, contention

3 (logic) an unproved statement put forward as a premise in an argument

Thespian n

1 (often facetious) an actor

► adj

2 of or relating to drama and the theatre they pron (subjective)

1 refers to people or things other than the speaker or people addressed: they both giggled

2 refers to people in general: they say he adores children

3 (informal) refers to an individual person whose gender is either not known or not regarded as important: someone could have a nasty accident if they tripped over that

4 refers to an individual person with a nonbinary gender identity who has chosen to be referred to in this way thiamine or thiamin n vitamin B₁, a vitamin found in the outer coat of rice and other grains, a deficiency of which leads to nervous disorders and to beriberi thick adj

1 having a relatively great distance between opposite surfaces: thick slices

◇ SYNONYMS: bulky, broad, big, large, fat, solid, substantial, hefty

2 having a specified distance between opposite surfaces: fifty metres thick

◇ SYNONYMS: wide, across, deep, broad, in extent or diameter

3 having a dense consistency: thick fog

◇ SYNONYMS: opaque, heavy, dense, impenetrable

4 consisting of a lot of things grouped closely together: thick forest

◇ SYNONYMS: crowded, full, covered, bursting, bristling, brimming

5 (of clothes) made of heavy cloth or wool: a thick jumper

◇ SYNONYMS: heavy, heavyweight, dense, chunky, bulky, woolly

6 (informal) stupid, slow, or insensitive

◇ SYNONYMS: stupid, dense, dopey (informal), obtuse, brainless, dumb-ass (informal)

7 (of an accent) very noticeable: each word was pronounced in a thick Dutch accent

8 Also: thick as thieves (informal) very friendly

◇ SYNONYMS: friendly, close, intimate, familiar, pally (informal), devoted, inseparable

9 a bit thick (Brit informal) unfair or unreasonable: £2 an hour, that's a bit thick!

10 thick with

A covered with a lot of: glass panels thick with dust

B (of a voice) throaty and hard to make out: his voice was thick with emotion

► adv

11 in order to produce something thick: the machine sliced the potatoes too thick

12 lay it on thick (informal)

A to exaggerate a story

B to flatter someone excessively

13 thick and fast quickly and in large numbers: theories were flying thick and fast

► n

14 the thick the most intense or active part: in the thick of the fighting

15 through thick and thin in good times and bad > thickly adv

thicken vb

1 to make or become thick or thicker

◇ SYNONYMS: set, condense, congeal, clot, jell, coagulate

2 to become more complicated: the plot thickens > thickener n

thicket n a dense growth of small trees or shrubs thickness n

1 the state or quality of being thick

2 the dimension through an object, as opposed to length or width

3 a layer: several thicknesses of brown paper

thickset adj

1 stocky in build

2 planted or placed close together thief n, pl thieves a person who steals something from another ◇ SYNONYMS: robber, burglar, stealer, plunderer, shoplifter, embezzler, pickpocket, pilferer > thievish adj

thieve vb thieving, thieved to steal other people's possessions > thieving adj

thigh n the part of the human leg between the hip and the knee thimble n a small metal or plastic cap used to protect the end of the finger from the needle when sewing thin adj thinner, thinnest

1 having a relatively small distance between opposite surfaces: a thin mattress

2 much narrower than it is long: push a thin stick up the pipe in order to clear it

◇ SYNONYMS: narrow, fine, attenuated

3 (of a person or animal) having no excess body fat

◇ SYNONYMS: slim, spare, lean, slight, slender, skinny, skeletal, bony

4 made up of only a few, widely separated, people or things: thin hair

◇ SYNONYMS: wispy, thinning, sparse, scarce, scanty

5 not dense: a thin film of dust

◇ SYNONYMS: fine, delicate, flimsy, sheer, skimpy, gossamer, diaphanous, filmy

6 unconvincing because badly thought out or badly presented: the evidence against him was extremely thin

◇ SYNONYMS: unconvincing, inadequate, feeble, poor, weak, superficial, lame, flimsy

7 (of a voice) high-pitched and not very loud: a thin squeaky voice

► adv

8 in order to produce something thin: roll the dough very thin

► vb thinning, thinned

9 to make or become thin or sparse > thinly adv

> thinness n

thine (old-fashioned) adj

1 (preceding a vowel) of or associated with you (thou): if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out!

► pron

2 something belonging to you (thou): the victory shall be thine thing n

1 any physical object that is not alive: there are very few jobs left where people actually make things

2 an object, fact, circumstance, or concept considered as being a separate entity: that would be a terrible thing to do

3 an object or entity that cannot or need not be precisely named: squares and circles and things

4 (informal) a person or animal: pretty little thing, isn't she?

5 a possession, article of clothing, etc.: have you brought your swimming things?

◇ SYNONYMS: possessions, stuff, gear, belongings, effects, luggage, clobber (Brit slang), chattels

6 (informal) a preoccupation or obsession: they have this thing about cleaning

◇ SYNONYMS: obsession, liking, preoccupation, mania, fetish, fixation, soft spot, predilection

7 do one's own thing to engage in an activity or mode of behaviour satisfying to one's personality

8 make a thing of to exaggerate the importance of 9 the thing the latest fashion think vb thinking, thought

1 to consider, judge, or believe: I think that it is scandalous

◇ SYNONYMS: judge, consider, estimate, reckon, deem, regard as

2 to make use of the mind, for example in order to make a decision: I'll need to think about what I'm going to do

◇ SYNONYMS: ponder, reflect, contemplate, deliberate, meditate, ruminate, cogitate, be lost in thought

3 to engage in conscious thought: that made me think

◇ SYNONYMS: ponder, reflect, contemplate, deliberate, meditate, ruminate, cogitate, be lost in thought

4 to be considerate enough or remember (to do something): no other company had thought to bring high tech down to the user

5 think much or a lot of to have a favourable opinion of: I don't think much of the new design

6 think of

A to remember or recollect: I couldn't think of your surname

B to conceive of or formulate: for a long time he couldn't think of a response

7 think twice to consider something carefully before making a decision

► n

8 (informal) a careful open-minded assessment: she had a long hard think > thinker n

thinking n

1 opinion or judgment: contrary to all fashionable thinking

◇ SYNONYMS: reasoning, idea, view, position, theory, opinion, judgment, conjecture

2 the process of thought

◇ SYNONYMS: reasoning, idea, view, position, theory, opinion, judgment, conjecture

► adj

3 using intelligent thought: the thinking person's sport

◇ SYNONYMS: thoughtful, intelligent, reasoning, rational, philosophical, reflective, contemplative, meditative think-tank n (informal) a group of experts employed to study specific problems think up vb to invent or devise ◇ SYNONYMS think something up: devise, create, come up with, invent, contrive, visualize, concoct, dream up third adj

1 of or being number three in a series

2 rated, graded, or ranked below the second level

3 denoting the third from lowest forward gear in a motor vehicle

► n

4 one of three equal parts of something

5 the fraction equal to one divided by three ($\frac{1}{3}$)

6 the third from lowest forward gear in a motor vehicle

7 (Brit) an honours degree of the third and usually the lowest class

8 (music) the interval between one note and the note four semitones (major third) or three semitones (minor third) higher or lower than it

► adv

9 Also: thirdly in the third place third degree n (informal) torture or bullying, esp. as used to extort confessions or information third party n

1 a person who is involved in an event, legal proceeding, agreement, or other transaction only by chance or indirectly

► adj third-party

2 (insurance) providing protection against liability caused by accidental injury or death of other people: third-party cover

Third World n the developing countries of Africa, Asia, and Latin America collectively thirst n

1 a desire to drink, accompanied by a feeling of dryness in the mouth and throat

◇ SYNONYMS: dryness, thirstiness, drought

2 a craving or yearning: a thirst for knowledge

◇ SYNONYMS: craving, appetite, longing, desire, passion, yearning, hankering, keenness

► vb

3 to feel a thirst thirsty adj thirstier, thirstiest

1 feeling a desire to drink

2 causing thirst: morris dancing is thirsty work

3 thirsty for feeling an eager desire for: thirsty for information

> thirstily adv

thirteen n

1 the cardinal number that is the sum of ten and three

2 a numeral, 13 or XIII, representing this number

3 something representing or consisting of thirteen units

► adj

4 amounting to thirteen: thirteen people > thirteenth adj, n

thirty n, pl -ties

1 the cardinal number that is the product of ten and three

2 a numeral, 30 or XXX, representing this number

3 something representing or consisting of thirty units

► adj

4 amounting to thirty: thirty miles > thirtieth adj, n

this adj

1 used preceding a noun referring to something or someone that is closer: on this side of the Channel

2 used preceding a noun that has just been mentioned or is understood: this text has two chief goals

3 used to refer to something about to be mentioned: NPR's Anne Garrels has this report

4 used to refer to the present time or occasion: this week's edition of the newspaper

5 (informal) used instead of a or the in telling a story: the film is about this couple who adopt a child

► pron

6 used to denote a person or thing that is relatively close: black coral like this

7 used to denote something already mentioned or understood: this didn't seem fair to me

8 used to denote something about to be mentioned: just say this: collect Standish from the top of the fire escape

9 the present time or occasion: after this it was impossible to talk to him about his feelings

10 this and that various unspecified and trivial events or facts thistle n a plant with prickly-edged leaves, dense flower heads, and feathery hairs on the seeds > thistly adj

thither adv (formal) to or towards that place thong n

- 1 a thin strip of leather or other material
- 2 (US & Canad & Austral) same as flip-flop
- 3 a skimpy article of beachwear consisting of thin strips of leather or cloth attached to a piece of material that covers the genitals while leaving the buttocks bare thorax (thaw-racks) n, pl thoraxes or thoraces (thaw-rass-seez)

- 1 the part of the human body enclosed by the ribs
 - 2 the part of an insect's body between the head and abdomen
- > thoracic adj

thorn n

- 1 a sharp pointed woody projection from a stem or leaf
- ◇ SYNONYMS: prickle, spike, spine, barb
- 2 any of various trees or shrubs having thorns, esp. the hawthorn
 - 3 a thorn in one's side or flesh a source of irritation: he was sufficiently bright at school to become a thorn in the side of his maths teacher
- > thornless adj

thorny adj thornier, thorniest

- 1 covered with thorns
- 2 difficult or unpleasant: a thorny issue

thorough adj

- 1 carried out completely and carefully: he needs a thorough checkup by the doctor
- ◇ SYNONYMS: comprehensive, full, complete, sweeping, intensive, in-depth, exhaustive
- 2 (of a person) painstakingly careful: he is very thorough if rather unimaginative
- ◇ SYNONYMS: careful, conscientious, painstaking, efficient, meticulous, exhaustive, assiduous
- 3 great in extent or degree; utter: a thorough disgrace
- ◇ SYNONYMS: comprehensive, full, complete, sweeping, intensive, in-depth, exhaustive > thoroughly adv

> thoroughness n

thoroughbred adj

1 obtained through successive generations of selective breeding: thoroughbred horses

► n

2 a pedigree animal, esp. a horse thoroughfare n a way through from one place to another: the great thoroughfare from the Castle to the Palace of Holyrood those adj, pron the plural of that thou pron (old-fashioned) same as you used when talking to one person though conj

1 despite the fact that: he was smiling with relief and happiness though the tears still flowed down his cheeks

◇ SYNONYMS: although, while, even if, even though, notwithstanding

► adv

2 nevertheless or however: he can't dance – he sings well, though

◇ SYNONYMS: nevertheless, still, however, yet, nonetheless, for all that, notwithstanding thought vb

1 the past of think

► n

2 the act or process of thinking

◇ SYNONYMS: thinking, consideration, reflection, deliberation, musing, meditation, rumination, cogitation

3 a concept or idea

◇ SYNONYMS: opinion, view, idea, concept, notion, judgment

4 ideas typical of a particular time or place: the development of Western intellectual thought

5 detailed consideration: he appeared to give some sort of thought to the question

◇ SYNONYMS: consideration, study, attention, care, regard, scrutiny, heed

6 an intention, hope, or reason for doing something: his first thought was to call the guard and have the man arrested

◇ SYNONYMS: hope, expectation, prospect, aspiration, anticipation thoughtful adj

1 considerate in the treatment of other people

◇ SYNONYMS: considerate, kind, caring, kindly, helpful, attentive, unselfish, solicitous

2 showing careful thought: a thoughtful and scholarly book

3 quiet, serious, and deep in thought

◇ SYNONYMS: reflective, pensive, contemplative, meditative, serious, studious, deliberative, ruminative > thoughtfully adv

> thoughtfulness n

thoughtless adj not considerate of the feelings of other people > thoughtlessly adv

> thoughtlessness n

thousand n, pl -sands or -sand

1 the cardinal number that is the product of ten and one hundred

2 a numeral, 1000 or 10^3 , representing this number

3 a very large but unspecified number: thousands of bees swarmed out of the hive

4 something representing or consisting of 1000 units

► adj

5 amounting to a thousand: a thousand members

> thousandth adj, n

thrall n the state of being completely in the power of, or spellbound by, a person or thing: he was held in thrall by her almost supernatural beauty

thrash vb

1 to beat (someone), esp. with a stick or whip

◇ SYNONYMS: beat, wallop, whip, belt (informal), cane, flog, scourge, spank

2 to defeat totally: the All Blacks thrashed England 24–3

◇ SYNONYMS: defeat, beat, crush, slaughter (informal), rout, trounce, run rings around (informal), wipe the floor with (informal)

3 to move about in a wild manner: his legs stuck and he fell sideways, thrashing about wildly

◇ SYNONYMS: thresh, flail, jerk, writhe, toss and turn

4 same as thresh

► n

5 (informal) a party

► See also thrash out thrashing n a severe beating

◇ SYNONYMS: beating, hiding (informal), belting (informal), whipping, flogging thrash out vb to discuss (a problem or difficulty) fully in order to come to an agreement or decision about it: we must arrange a meeting to thrash out the details of the scheme

◇ SYNONYMS thrash something out: settle, resolve, discuss, debate, solve, argue out, have out, talk over

thread n

1 a fine strand or fibre of some material

◇ SYNONYMS: strand, fibre, yarn, filament, line, string, twine

2 a fine cord of twisted yarns, esp. of cotton, used in sewing or weaving

◇ SYNONYMS: strand, fibre, yarn, filament, line, string, twine

3 something acting as the continuous link or theme of a whole: the thread of the story

◇ SYNONYMS: theme, train of thought, direction, plot, drift, story line

4 the spiral ridge on a screw, bolt, or nut

5 a very small amount (of something): there was a thread of nervousness in his voice

6 a very thin seam of coal or vein of ore

► pl n threads

7 (chiefly US slang) clothes

► vb

8 to pass thread through the eye of (a needle) before sewing with it

9 to string together: plastic beads threaded on lengths of nylon line

10 to make (one's way) through a crowd of people or group of objects: she threaded and pushed her way through the crowds

◇ SYNONYMS: move, pass, ease, thrust, squeeze through, pick your way > threadlike adj

threadbare adj

1 (of cloth, clothing, or a carpet) having the nap worn off so that the threads are exposed

2 having been used or expressed so often as to be no longer interesting: threadbare ideas

3 wearing shabby worn-out clothes threat n

1 a declaration of an intention to inflict harm: they carried out their threat to kill the hostages

◇ SYNONYMS: threatening remark, menace

2 a strong possibility of something dangerous or unpleasant happening: the wet weather will bring a threat of flooding

3 a person or thing that is regarded as dangerous and likely to inflict harm: unemployment is a serious threat to the social order

◇ SYNONYMS: danger, risk, hazard, menace, peril threaten vb

1 to express a threat to (someone): he threatened John with the sack

◇ SYNONYMS: intimidate, bully, menace, terrorize, lean on (slang), pressurize, browbeat

2 to be a threat to: he was worried about anything that might threaten the health of his child

◇ SYNONYMS: endanger, jeopardize, put at risk, imperil, put in jeopardy, put on the line

3 to be a menacing indication of (something): the early summer threatened drought > threatening adj

> threateningly adv

three n

1 the cardinal number that is the sum of one and two

2 a numeral, 3 or III, representing this number

3 something representing or consisting of three units

► adj

4 amounting to three: three days three-dimensional or 3-D adj

1 having three dimensions

2 lifelike or realistic: all the characters are three-dimensional threesome n a group of three people threnody n, pl threnodies (formal) a lament for the dead > threnodic adj

> threnodist n

thresh vb

1 to beat (stalks of ripe corn, rice, etc.), either with a hand tool or by machine to separate the grain from the husks and straw

2 thresh about to toss and turn threshold n

1 the lower horizontal part of an entrance or doorway, esp. one made of stone or hardwood

◇ SYNONYMS: entrance, doorway, door, doorstep

2 any doorway or entrance: he had never been over the threshold of a pub before

◇ SYNONYMS: entrance, doorway, door, doorstep

3 the starting point of an experience, event, or venture: she was on the threshold of a glorious career

◇ SYNONYMS: start, beginning, opening, dawn (literary), verge, brink, outset, inception

4 the point at which something begins to take effect or be noticeable: the threshold for basic rate tax; he has a low boredom threshold

◇ SYNONYMS: limit, margin, starting point, minimum threw vb the past tense of throw thrice adv (literary)

1 three times: twice or thrice in a lifetime

2 three times as big, much, etc.: his vegetables are thrice the size of mine thrift n

1 wisdom and caution with money

◇ SYNONYMS: economy, prudence, frugality, saving, parsimony, carefulness, thriftiness

2 a low-growing plant of Europe, W Asia, and North America, with narrow leaves and round heads of pink or white flowers

> thrifless adj

thrifty adj thriftier, thriftiest not wasteful with money > thriftily adv

> thriftiness n

thrill n

1 a sudden sensation of excitement and pleasure: he felt a thrill of excitement

◇ SYNONYMS: pleasure, kick (informal), buzz (slang), high, stimulation, tingle, titillation

2 a situation producing such a sensation: all the thrills of rafting the meandering Dordogne

3 a sudden trembling sensation caused by fear or emotional shock

► vb

4 to feel or cause to feel a thrill

◇ SYNONYMS: excite, stimulate, arouse, move, stir, electrify, titillate, give someone a kick

5 to vibrate or quiver > thrilling adj

thriller n a book, film, or play depicting crime, mystery, or espionage in an atmosphere of excitement and suspense thrive vb thriving, thrived or throve, thrived or thriven

1 to do well; be successful: Munich has thrived as a centre of European commerce

◇ SYNONYMS: prosper, do well, flourish, increase, grow, develop, succeed, get on

2 to grow strongly and vigorously: the vine can thrive in the most unlikely soils

◇ SYNONYMS: prosper, do well, flourish, increase, grow, develop, succeed, get on throat n

1 the passage from the mouth and nose to the stomach and lungs

2 the front part of the neck

3 at each other's throats quarrelling or fighting with each other

4 cut one's own throat to bring about one's own ruin

5 cut someone's throat to kill someone

6 ram or force something down someone's throat to insist that someone listen to or accept something

7 stick in one's throat to be hard to accept: his arrogance really sticks in my throat throaty adj throatier, throatiest

- 1 hoarse and suggestive of a sore throat: a throaty 40 fags-a-day bark 2 deep, husky, or guttural: she gives a deliciously throaty laugh

throb vb throbbing, throbbed

- 1 to pulsate or beat repeatedly, esp. with abnormally strong force: her eardrums were throbbing with pain
◇ SYNONYMS: pulsate, pound, beat, pulse, thump, palpitate 2 (of engines, drums, etc.) to have a strong rhythmic vibration or beat ◇ SYNONYMS: vibrate, pulsate, reverberate, shake, judder (informal)
► n
3 the act or sensation of throbbing: he felt a throb of fear; the throb of the engines ◇ SYNONYMS: vibration, throbbing, reverberation, judder (informal), pulsation > throbbing adj, n throes pl n

- 1 violent pangs, pain, or convulsions: an animal in its death throes 2 in the throes of struggling to cope with (something difficult or disruptive): in the throes of a civil war thrombosis (throm-boh-siss) n, pl -ses (-seez) coagulation of the blood in the heart or in a blood vessel, forming a blood clot > thrombotic (throm-bot-ik) adj throne n

- 1 the ceremonial seat occupied by a monarch or bishop on occasions of state 2 the rank or power of a monarch: she came to the throne after her father was murdered throng n

- 1 a great number of people or things crowded together ◇ SYNONYMS: crowd, mob, horde, host, pack, mass, crush, swarm
► vb
2 to gather in or fill (a place) in large numbers: streets thronged with shoppers

◇ SYNONYMS: pack, crowd throstle n (poetic) a song thrush throttle n

1 a device that controls the fuel-and-air mixture entering an engine

► vb -tling, -tled

2 to kill or injure (someone) by squeezing his or her throat

◇ SYNONYMS: strangle, choke, garrotte, strangulate

3 to suppress or censor: the government is trying to throttle dissent

through prep

1 going in at one side and coming out at the other side of: he drove through the West of the city

◇ SYNONYMS: via, by way of, by, between, past, from one side to the other of 2 occupying or visiting several points scattered around in (an area): a journey through the Scottish Highlands

3 as a result of: she retired through ill health

◇ SYNONYMS: because of, by way of, by means of 4 during: driving for five hours through the night

◇ SYNONYMS: during, throughout, for the duration of, in

5 for all of (a period): it rained all through that summer

◇ SYNONYMS: during, throughout, for the duration of, in

6 (chiefly US) up to and including: from Monday through Saturday

► adj

7 finished: I'm through with history

8 having completed a specified amount of an activity: he tried to stop the investigation halfway through

9 (on a telephone line) connected

10 no longer able to function successfully in some specified capacity: they are through, they haven't got a chance

11 (of a train, plane flight, etc.) going directly to a place, so that passengers do not have to change: the first ever through train between Singapore and Bangkok

► adv

12 through a thing, place, or period of time: the script gives up around halfway through

13 extremely or absolutely: I'm soaked through

14 through and through to the greatest possible extent: the boards are rotten through and through ◇ SYNONYMS through and through: completely, totally, fully, thoroughly, entirely, altogether, wholly, utterly throughout prep

1 through the whole of (a place or a period of time): radio stations throughout the UK

◇ SYNONYMS: all over, everywhere in, through the whole of

► adv

2 through the whole of a place or a period of time: I led both races throughout

◇ SYNONYMS: all through, right through throughput n the amount of material processed in a given period, esp. by a computer throve vb a past tense of thrive throw vb throwing, threw, thrown

1 to hurl (something) through the air, esp. with a rapid motion of the arm

◇ SYNONYMS: hurl, toss, fling, send, launch, cast, pitch, chuck (informal)

2 to put or move suddenly, carelessly, or violently: she threw her arms round his neck

◇ SYNONYMS: toss, fling, chuck (informal), cast, hurl, sling (informal)

3 to bring into a specified state or condition, esp. suddenly: the invasion threw the region into turmoil

4 to move (a switch or lever) so as to engage or disengage a mechanism

5 to cause (someone) to fall: I'm riding the horse that threw me

6

A to tip (dice) out onto a flat surface

B to obtain (a specified number) in this way: one throws a 3 and the other throws a 5

7 to shape (clay) on a potter's wheel

8 to give (a party)

9 (informal) to confuse or disconcert: the question threw me

◇ SYNONYMS: confuse, baffle, faze, astonish, confound, disconcert, dumbfound

10 to direct or cast (a look, light, etc.): the lamp threw a shadow on the ceiling

11 to project (the voice) so as to make it appear to come from somewhere else

12 (informal) to lose (a contest) deliberately

13 throw a punch to strike, or attempt to strike, someone with one's fist

14 throw oneself at to behave in a way which makes it clear that one is trying to win the affection of (someone)

15 throw oneself into to involve oneself enthusiastically in 16 throw oneself on to rely entirely upon (someone's goodwill, etc.): the president threw himself on the mercy of the American people

► n

17 the act or an instance of throwing

◇ SYNONYMS: toss, pitch, fling, sling, lob (informal), heave

18 the distance thrown: a throw of 90 metres

19 (in sports such as wrestling or judo) a move which causes one's opponent to fall to the floor

20 a decorative blanket or cover

21 a throw each: we drank our way through a couple of bottles of claret at £12.50 a throw

► See also throwaway, throwback etc throwaway adj

1 said or done incidentally: a throwaway line

2 designed to be discarded after use: throwaway cups

► vb throw away

3 to get rid of or discard: try to recycle glass bottles instead of simply throwing them away

4 to fail to make good use of: she threw away the chance of a brilliant career when she got married

throwback n

1 a person or thing that is like something that existed or was common long ago: his ideas were a throwback to old colonial attitudes

2 (informal) an occasion when someone is reminded of a past time

► vb throw back

3 to remind someone of (something he or she said or did previously) in order to upset him or her: he threw back at me everything I'd said the week before

throw up vb

1 (informal) to vomit

2 to give up or abandon: he would threaten to throw up his job

3 to construct (a building or structure) hastily

4 to produce: these links are throwing up fresh opportunities thrush¹ n any of a large group of songbirds, esp. one having a brown plumage with a spotted breast, such as the mistle thrush and song thrush thrush² n

1 a fungal disease, esp. of infants, in which whitish spots form on the mouth, throat, and lips

2 a genital infection caused by the same fungus thrust vb thrusting, thrust

1 to push (someone or something) with force: he took him by the arm and thrust him towards the door

◇ SYNONYMS: push, force, shove, drive, plunge, jam, ram, propel

2 to force (someone) into some condition or situation: unemployed people have been thrust into the front line of politics

3 to force (one's way) through a crowd, forest, etc.: Edward thrust his way towards them

4 to stick out or up: she thrust out her lower lip

► n

5 a forceful drive, push, stab, or lunge: the thrust of his spear

◇ SYNONYMS: push, shove, poke, prod

6 a force, esp. one that produces motion

◇ SYNONYMS: momentum, impetus, drive

7 the propulsive force produced by the pressure of air and gas forced out of a jet engine or rocket engine

8 the essential or most forceful part: the main thrust of the report

9 (physics) a continuous pressure exerted by one part of an object against another

10 (informal) intellectual or emotional drive; forcefulness: thanks to the ingenuity and enterprising thrust of this company

thud n

1 a dull heavy sound

2 a blow or fall that causes such a sound

► vb thudding, thudded

3 to make or cause to make such a sound thug n a tough and violent man, esp. a criminal ◇ SYNONYMS: ruffian, hooligan, tough, heavy (slang), gangster, bully boy, bruiser (informal), tsotsi (S African) > thuggery n

> thuggish adj

thumb n

1 the short thick finger of the hand, set apart from the others

2 the part of a glove shaped to fit the thumb

3 all thumbs very clumsy

4 thumbs down an indication of refusal or disapproval

5 thumbs up an indication of encouragement or approval

6 under someone's thumb completely under someone else's control

► vb

7 to touch, mark, or move with the thumb: he thumbed the volume switch to maximum

8 to attempt to obtain (a lift in a motor vehicle) by signalling with the thumb: he thumbed a lift to the station

9 thumb one's nose at to behave in a way that shows one's contempt or disregard for: her mother had always thumbed her nose at convention

10 thumb through to flip the pages of (a book or magazine) in order to glance at the contents thump n

1 the sound of something heavy hitting a comparatively soft surface

◇ SYNONYMS: thud, crash, bang, clunk, thwack

2 a heavy blow with the hand

◇ SYNONYMS: blow, knock, punch, rap, smack, clout (informal), whack, swipe (informal)

► vb

3 to place (something) on or bang against (something) with a loud dull sound: thumping the table is aggressive

4 to hit or punch (someone): stop that at once or I'll thump you!

◇ SYNONYMS: strike, hit, punch, pound, beat, knock, smack, clout (informal)

5 to throb or beat violently: he could feel his heart thumping thunder n

1 a loud cracking or deep rumbling noise caused by the rapid expansion of atmospheric gases that are suddenly heated by lightning

2 any loud booming sound: the thunder of heavy gunfire

◇ SYNONYMS: rumble, crash, boom, explosion

3 steal someone's thunder to lessen the effect of someone's idea or action by anticipating it

► vb

4 to make a loud noise like thunder: an explosion thundered through the shaft

◇ SYNONYMS: rumble, crash, boom, roar, resound, reverberate, peal

5 to speak in a loud, angry manner: 'Get out of here this instant!' he thundered

◇ SYNONYMS: shout, roar, yell, bark, bellow

6 to move fast, heavily, and noisily: a lorry thundered by > thundery adj

thunderbolt n

1 a flash of lightning accompanying thunder

2 something sudden and unexpected: his career has been no thunderbolt

3 (myth) a weapon thrown to earth by certain gods

4 (sport) a very fast-moving shot or serve thunderclap n

1 a loud outburst of thunder

2 something as violent or unexpected as a clap of thunder thunderous adj

1 resembling thunder in loudness: thunderous applause

2 threatening or angry: a thunderous scowl thunderstruck adj amazed or shocked

Thursday n the fifth day of the week

thus adv

1 as a result or consequence: the platforms provided a new floor and thus improved and enlarged the premises

◇ SYNONYMS: therefore, so, hence, consequently, accordingly, for this reason, ergo, on that account

2 in this manner: I sat thus for nearly half an hour

◇ SYNONYMS: in this way, so, like this, as follows

3 to such a degree: the competition has been almost bereft of surprise thus far

thwack vb

1 to beat with something flat

► n

2

A a blow with something flat

B the sound made by it thwart vb

1 to prevent or foil: they inflicted such severe losses that they thwarted the invasion

◇ SYNONYMS: frustrate, foil, prevent, snooker, hinder, obstruct, outwit, stymie

► n

2 the seat across a boat where the rower sits thy adj (old-fashioned) belonging to or associated in some way with you (thou): love thy neighbour

thyme (time) n a small shrub with white, pink, or red flowers and scented leaves used for seasoning food thymus (thigh-muss) n, pl -muses or -mi (-my) (anatomy) a small gland situated near the base of the neck thyroid (anatomy) adj

1 of or relating to the thyroid gland

2 of or relating to the largest cartilage of the larynx, which forms the Adam's apple in men

► n

3 the thyroid gland thyroid gland n (anatomy) an endocrine gland that secretes hormones that control metabolism and body growth thyself pron (old-fashioned) the reflexive form of thou tiara n

1 a semicircular jewelled headdress worn by some women on formal occasions

2 the triple-tiered crown sometimes worn by the pope tibia (tib-ee-a) n, pl tibiae (tib-ee-ee) or tibias the inner and thicker of the two bones of the human leg below the knee; shinbone > tibial adj

tic n a spasmodic muscular twitch tick¹ n

1 a mark (✓) used to check off or indicate the correctness of something

◇ SYNONYMS: check mark, mark, line, stroke, dash

2 a recurrent metallic tapping or clicking sound, such as that made by a clock

◇ SYNONYMS: click, tapping, clicking, ticktock

3 (informal) a moment or instant: won't be a tick

◇ SYNONYMS: moment, second, minute, flash, instant, twinkling, split second, trice

► vb

4 to mark or check with a tick

◇ SYNONYMS: mark, indicate, check off

5 to produce a recurrent tapping sound or indicate by such a sound: the clock ticked away

◇ SYNONYMS: click, tap, ticktock

6 what makes someone tick (informal) the basic motivation of a person

► See also tick off, tick over tick² n a small parasitic creature typically living on the skin of warm-blooded animals and feeding on the blood and tissues of their hosts: a sheep tick

tick³ n (Brit & NZ informal) account or credit: a spending spree that was financed on tick ticket n

1 a printed piece of paper or cardboard showing that the holder is entitled to certain rights, such as travel on a train or bus or entry to a place of public entertainment

◇ SYNONYMS: voucher, pass, coupon, card, slip, certificate, token, chit

2 a label or tag attached to an article showing information such as its price and size

◇ SYNONYMS: label, tag, marker, sticker, card, slip, tab, docket (Brit)

3 an official notification of a parking or traffic offence

4 the declared policy of a political party

5 that's (just) the ticket (informal) that's the right or appropriate thing

► vb -eting, -eted

6 to issue or attach a ticket or tickets to ticking n a strong cotton fabric, often striped, used esp. for mattress and pillow covers tickle vb -ling, -led 1 to touch or stroke (someone), so as to produce laughter or a twitching sensation

2 to itch or tingle

3 to amuse or please

4 tickled pink or to death (informal) greatly pleased

5 tickle someone's fancy to appeal to or amuse someone

► n

6 a sensation of light stroking or itching: a tickle in the throat

7 the act of tickling

8 (Canad) (in the Atlantic Provinces) a narrow strait ticklish adj

1 sensitive to being tickled

2 delicate or difficult: a ticklish problem tick off vb

1 to mark with a tick, esp. to show that an item on a list has been dealt with 2 (informal) to reprimand or scold (someone) > ticking-off n

tick over vb

1 (of an engine) to run at low speed with the transmission disengaged

2 to run smoothly without any major changes: the business is just ticking over ticktack n (Brit & Austral) a system of sign language, mainly using the hands, by which bookmakers transmit their odds to each other at race courses tidal adj

1 (of a river, lake, or sea) having tides

2 of or relating to tides: a tidal surge tidal wave n

1 (not in technical use) same as tsunami

2 an unusually large incoming wave, often caused by high winds and spring tides

3 a forceful and widespread movement in public opinion, action, etc.: a tidal wave of scandals and embezzlement tiddler n (informal)

1 a very small fish, esp. a stickleback

2 a small child tiddly¹ adj -dlier, -dliest (Brit) very small tiddly² adj -dlier, -dliest (informal, chiefly Brit) slightly drunk tiddlywinks n a game in which players try to flick discs of plastic into a cup tide n

1 the alternate rise and fall of sea level caused by the gravitational pull of the sun and moon

◇ SYNONYMS: current, flow, stream, ebb, undertow, tideway

2 the current caused by these changes in level: I got caught by the tide and almost drowned

◇ SYNONYMS: current, flow, stream, ebb, undertow, tideway

3 a widespread tendency or movement: the rising tide of nationalism

◇ SYNONYMS: course, direction, trend, movement, tendency, drift

4 (literary, or old-fashioned) a season or time: Yuletide tide over vb tiding, tided to help (someone) to get through a period of difficulty or distress: they need some form of Social Security to tide them over tidings pl n information or news tidy adj -dier, -diest

1 neat and orderly

◇ SYNONYMS: neat, orderly, clean, spruce, well-kept, well-ordered, shipshape

2 (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) quite large: a tidy sum of money

◇ SYNONYMS: considerable, large, substantial, goodly, healthy, generous, handsome, ample

► vb -dies, -dying, -died

3 to put (things) in their proper place; make neat: I've tidied up the toys under the bed

◇ SYNONYMS: neaten, straighten, order, clean, groom, spruce up

► n, pl -dies

4 a small container for odds and ends > tidily adv

> tidiness n

tie vb tying, tied

1 to fasten or be fastened with string, rope, etc.: a parcel tied with string

◇ SYNONYMS: fasten, bind, join, link, connect, attach, knot

2 to make a knot or bow in (something): hang on while I tie my laces

3 to restrict or limit: they had children and were consequently tied to the school holidays

◇ SYNONYMS: restrict, limit, confine, bind, restrain, hamper, hinder

4 to equal the score of a competitor or fellow candidate: three players tied for second place

◇ SYNONYMS: draw, be level, match, equal

► n

5 a long narrow piece of material worn, esp. by men, under the collar of a shirt, tied in a knot close to the throat with the ends hanging down the front

6 a bond or link: he still has close ties to the town where he grew up

◇ SYNONYMS: bond, relationship, connection, commitment, liaison, allegiance, affiliation

7 a string, wire, etc., with which something is tied ◇ SYNONYMS: fastening, binding, link, bond, knot, cord, fetter, ligature

8 (Brit, sport) a match in a knockout competition: whoever wins the tie will play Australia in the semi-finals

9

A a result in a match or competition in which the scores or times of some of the competitors are the same: a tie for second place

◇ SYNONYMS: draw, dead heat, deadlock, stalemate

B the match or competition in which the scores or results are equal

◇ SYNONYMS: draw, dead heat, deadlock, stalemate

10 a regular commitment that limits a person's freedom: it's a bit of a tie having to visit him every day

11 something which supports or links parts of a structure

12 (US & Canad) a sleeper on a railway track

13 (music) a curved line connecting two notes of the same pitch indicating that the sound is to be prolonged for their joint time value tied adj (Brit)

1 (of a public house) allowed to sell beer from only one particular brewery

2 (of a house) rented out to the tenant for as long as he or she is employed by the owner tier n one of a set of rows placed one above and behind the other, such as theatre seats

◇ SYNONYMS: row, bank, layer, line, level, rank, storey, stratum tiff n a minor quarrel tiger n

1 a large Asian mammal of the cat family which has a tawny yellow coat with black stripes

2 a dynamic, forceful, or cruel person

3 a country, esp. in E Asia, that is achieving rapid economic growth tiger lily n a lily of China and Japan with black-spotted orange flowers tiger snake n a highly venomous brown-and-yellow Australian snake tight adj

1 stretched or drawn taut: loosening-up of tight muscles

◇ SYNONYMS: taut, stretched, rigid

2 closely fitting: wearing a jacket that was too tight for him

◇ SYNONYMS: close-fitting, narrow, cramped, snug, constricted, close

3 made, fixed, or closed firmly and securely: a tight band

◇ SYNONYMS: secure, firm, fast, fixed

4 constructed so as to prevent the passage of water, air, etc.: watertight; airtight

5 cramped and allowing very little room for movement: they squeezed him into the tight space

6 unyielding or stringent: tight security

7 (of a situation) difficult or dangerous

8 allowing only the minimum time or money for doing something: we have been working to a tight schedule

9 (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) mean or miserly

◇ SYNONYMS: miserly, mean, stingy, grasping, parsimonious, niggardly, tightfisted

10 (of a match or game) very close or even ◇ SYNONYMS: close, even, well-matched, hard-fought, evenly-balanced

11 (old-fashioned, informal) drunk

◇ SYNONYMS: drunk, intoxicated, plastered (slang), under the influence (informal), tipsy, paralytic (informal), inebriated, out to it (Austral & NZ slang)

12 (of a corner or turn) turning through a large angle in a short distance: the boat skidded round in a tight turn

► adv

13 in a close, firm, or secure way: they held each other tight > tightly adv

> tightness n

tighten vb to make or become tight or tighter

◇ SYNONYMS: close, narrow, strengthen, squeeze, harden, constrict tightrope n a rope stretched taut on which acrobats perform tights pl n a one-piece clinging garment covering the body from the waist to the feet tigress n

1 a female tiger

2 a fierce, cruel, or passionate woman tiki (tee-kee) n a Māori greenstone neck ornament in the form of a fetus tikka adj (Indian cookery) (of meat) marinated in spices and then dry-roasted: chicken tikka

tilde n a mark (˜) used in some languages to indicate that the letter over which it is placed is pronounced in a certain way, as in Spanish señor

tile n

1 a thin piece of ceramic, plastic, etc., used with others to cover a surface, such as a floor or wall

2 a rectangular block used as a playing piece in mah jong and other games

3 on the tiles (informal) out having a good time and drinking a lot

► vb tiling, tiled

4 to cover (a surface) with tiles > tiled adj

> tiler n

tiling n

1 tiles collectively

2 something made of or surfaced with tiles till¹ conj, prep same as until till² vb to cultivate (land) for the raising of crops: a constant round of sowing, tilling and harvesting

◇ SYNONYMS: cultivate, dig, plough, work > tillable adj

> tiller n

till³ n a box or drawer into which money taken from customers is put, now usually part of a cash register

◇ SYNONYMS: cash register, cash box tillage n

1 the act, process, or art of tilling

2 tilled land tiller n (naut) a handle used to turn the rudder when steering a boat tilt vb

1 to move into a sloping position with one end or side higher than the other: Dave tilted his chair back on two legs

◇ SYNONYMS: slant, tip, slope, list, lean, heel, incline

2 to move (part of the body) slightly upwards or to the side: Marie tilted her head back

3 to become more influenced by a particular idea or group: the party is tilting more and more to the right

4 to compete against someone in a jousting contest

► n

5 a slope or angle: a tilt to one side

◇ SYNONYMS: slope, angle, inclination, list, pitch, incline, slant, camber

6 the act of tilting

7

A a jousting contest, esp. in medieval Europe

◇ SYNONYMS: joust, fight, tournament, lists, combat, duel

B a thrust with a lance delivered during a medieval tournament

8 an attempt to win a contest: a tilt at the world title

9 at full tilt at full speed or force timber n

1 wood as a building material

◇ SYNONYMS: wood, logs

2 trees collectively

3 a wooden beam in the frame of a house, boat, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: beams, boards, planks

► adj

4 made out of timber: timber houses

5 of or involved in the production or sale of wood as a building material: a timber merchant > timbered adj

> timbering n timber line n the geographical limit beyond which trees will not grow timbre (tam-bra) n the distinctive quality of sound produced by a particular voice or musical instrument time n

1 the past, present, and future regarded as a continuous whole. RELATED ADJECTIVE: temporal

◇ SYNONYMS: period, term, space, stretch, spell, span, time frame, timeline

2 (physics) a quantity measuring duration, measured with reference to the rotation of the earth or from the vibrations of certain atoms

3 a specific point in time expressed in hours and minutes: what time are you going?

4 a system of reckoning for expressing time: the deadline is 5:00 Eastern Time today

5 an unspecified interval; a while: some recover for a time and then relapse

◇ SYNONYMS: period, term, space, stretch, spell, span, time frame, timeline

6 an instance or occasion: when was the last time you saw it?

◇ SYNONYMS: occasion, point, moment, stage, instance, point in time, juncture

7 a sufficient interval or period: I need time to think

◇ SYNONYMS: period, term, space, stretch, spell, span, time frame, timeline

8 an occasion or period of specified quality: they'd had a lovely time

9 a suitable moment: the time has come to make peace

◇ SYNONYMS: occasion, point, moment, stage, instance, point in time, juncture
10 a period or point marked by specific attributes or events: in Victorian times

◇ SYNONYMS: age, duration

11 (Brit) the time at which licensed premises are required by law to stop selling alcoholic drinks

12 the rate of pay for work done in normal working hours: you get double time for working on a Sunday

13

A the system of combining beats in music into successive groupings by which the rhythm of the music is established

◇ SYNONYMS: tempo, beat, rhythm, measure

B a specific system having a specific number of beats in each grouping or bar: duple time

◇ SYNONYMS: tempo, beat, rhythm, measure

14 against time in an effort to complete something in a limited period

15 ahead of time before the deadline

16 at one time

A once or formerly

B simultaneously

17 at the same time

A simultaneously

B nevertheless or however

18 at times sometimes

19 beat time to indicate the tempo of a piece of music by waving a baton, hand, etc.

20 do time (informal) to serve a term in jail

21 for the time being for the moment; temporarily

22 from time to time at intervals; occasionally

23 have no time for to have no patience with 24 in no time very quickly

25 in one's own time

A outside paid working hours

B at the speed of one's choice

◇ SYNONYMS: period, term, space, stretch, spell, span, time frame, timeline

26 in time

A early or at the appointed time: he made it to the hospital in time for the baby's arrival

B eventually: in time, the children of intelligent parents will come to dominate

C (music) at a correct metrical or rhythmic pulse

27 make time to find an opportunity

28 on time at the expected or scheduled time

29 pass the time to occupy oneself when there is nothing else to do: they pass the time watching game shows on television

30 pass the time of day to have a short casual conversation (with someone)

31 time and again frequently

32 time of one's life a memorably enjoyable time

33 time out of mind from long before anyone can remember ► vb timing, timed

34 to measure the speed or duration of: my Porsche was timed at 128 mph

35 to set a time for: the attack was timed for 6 am

◇ SYNONYMS: schedule, set, plan, book, programme, set up, fix, arrange

36 to do (something) at a suitable time: her entry could not have been better timed

◇ SYNONYMS: schedule, set, plan, book, programme, set up, fix, arrange

► adj

37 operating automatically at or for a set time: an electrical time switch

► interj

38 the word called out by a publican signalling that it is closing time time-honoured adj having been used or done for a long time and established by custom timeless adj

1 unaffected by time or by changes in fashion, society, etc.: the timeless appeal of tailored wool jackets

◇ SYNONYMS: eternal, lasting, permanent, enduring, immortal, everlasting, ageless, changeless

2 eternal and everlasting: the timeless universal reality behind all religions

◇ SYNONYMS: eternal, lasting, permanent, enduring, immortal, everlasting, ageless, changeless

> timelessness n

timely adv at the right or an appropriate time

◇ SYNONYMS: opportune (formal), appropriate, well-timed, suitable, convenient, judicious, propitious, seasonable timepiece n a device, such as a clock or watch, which measures and indicates time timeserver n a person who changes his or her views in order to gain support or favour time sharing n

- 1 a system of part ownership of a property for use as a holiday home whereby each participant owns the property for a particular period every year
- 2 a system by which users at different terminals of a computer can communicate with it at the same time

timetable n

- 1 a plan of the times when a job or activity should be done: the timetable for the Royal Visit ◇ SYNONYMS: schedule, programme, agenda, list, diary, calendar
 - 2 a list of departure and arrival times of trains or buses: a timetable hung on the wall beside the ticket office
 - 3 a plan of the times when different subjects or classes are taught in a school or college: a heavy timetable of lectures and practical classes
◇ SYNONYMS: syllabus, course, curriculum, programme, teaching programme
- vb -tabling, -tabled
- 4 to set a time when a particular thing should be done: the meeting is timetabled for 3 o'clock

timid adj

- 1 lacking courage or self-confidence: a timid youth
 - 2 indicating shyness or fear: a timid and embarrassed smile
- > timidity n > timidly adv

timorous (tim-mor-uss) adj (literary) lacking courage or self-confidence: a reclusive timorous creature > timorously adv

timpani or tympani (tim-pan-ee) pl n a set of kettledrums > timpanist or tympanist n

tin n

- 1 a soft silvery-white metallic element. SYMBOL: Sn
 - 2 a sealed airtight metal container used for preserving and storing food or drink: a cupboard full of packets and tins
 - 3 any metal container: a tin of paint
 - 4 the contents of a tin
 - 5 (Brit & Austral & NZ) galvanized iron, used to make roofs
- vb tinning, tinned
- 6 to put (food) into tins tincture n a medicine consisting of a small amount of a drug dissolved in alcohol tinder n dry wood or other easily-burning material used to start a fire > tindery adj

tinderbox n (formerly) a small box for tinder, esp. one fitted with a flint and steel which could be used to make a spark

tine n a slender prong of a fork or a deer's antler > tined adj

ting n a high metallic sound such as that made by a small bell tinge n

- 1 a slight tint or colouring: his skin had an unhealthy greyish tinge ◇ SYNONYMS: tint, colour, shade
- 2 a very small amount: both goals had a tinge of fortune ◇ SYNONYMS: trace, bit, drop, touch, suggestion, dash, sprinkling, smattering

► vb tingeing or tinging, tinged

3 to colour or tint faintly: the sunset tinged the lake with pink

◇ SYNONYMS: tint, colour

4 tinged with having a small amount of a particular quality: the victory was tinged with sadness

tingle vb -gling, -gled

1 to feel a mild prickling or stinging sensation, as from cold or excitement

► n

2 a mild prickling or stinging feeling > tingling adj

> tingly adj

tinker n

1 (esp. formerly) a travelling mender of pots and pans

2 (Scot & Irish, usually derogatory) a traveller

3 a mischievous child

► vb

4 tinker with to try to repair or improve (something) by making lots of minor adjustments

◇ SYNONYMS: meddle, play, potter, fiddle (informal), dabble, mess about tinkle vb -kling, -kled

1 to ring with a high tinny sound like a small bell

► n

2 a high clear ringing sound

3 (Brit old-fashioned, informal) a telephone call > tinkly adj

tinned adj (of food) preserved by being sealed in a tin tinny adj -nier, -niest (of a sound) high, thin, and metallic: the tinny sound of a transistor radio

tinpot adj (informal) worthless or unimportant: a tinpot dictator tinsel n

1 a decoration consisting of a piece of metallic thread with thin strips of metal foil attached along its length

2 anything cheap, showy, and gaudy: all their tinsel and show counts for nothing

► adj

3 made of or decorated with tinsel

4 cheap, showy, and gaudy > tinselly adj

tint n

1 a shade of a colour, esp. a pale one: his eyes had a yellow tint

◇ SYNONYMS: shade, colour, tone, hue

2 a colour that is softened by the addition of white: a room decorated in pastel tints

3 a dye for the hair

◇ SYNONYMS: dye, wash, rinse, tinge, tincture

► vb

4 to give a tint to (something, such as hair)

◇ SYNONYMS: dye, colour tiny adj tinier, tiniest very small ◇ SYNONYMS: small, little, minute, slight, miniature, negligible, microscopic, diminutive tip¹ n

1 a narrow or pointed end of something: the northern tip of Japan

◇ SYNONYMS: end, point, head, extremity, sharp end, nib, prong

2 a small piece attached to the end or bottom of something: boot tips keep boots from getting scuffed

► vb tipping, tipped

3 to make or form a tip on: the long strips that hang down are tipped with silver cones

◇ SYNONYMS: cap, top, crown, surmount (formal), finish > tipped adj

tip² n

1 an amount of money given to someone, such as a waiter, in return for service

◇ SYNONYMS: gratuity, gift, reward, present, sweetener (informal)

2 a helpful hint or warning: here are some sensible tips to help you avoid sunburn

◇ SYNONYMS: hint, suggestion, piece of advice, pointer, heads up (US & Canad)

3 a piece of inside information, esp. in betting or investing

◇ SYNONYMS: hint, suggestion, piece of advice, pointer, heads up (US & Canad)

► vb tipping, tipped

4 to give a tip to ◇ SYNONYMS: reward, remunerate (formal), give a tip to, sweeten (informal) tip³ vb tipping, tipped

1 to tilt: he tipped back his chair

2 tip over to tilt so as to overturn or fall: the box tipped over and the clothes in it spilled out

3 (Brit) to dump (rubbish)

◇ SYNONYMS: dump, empty, unload, pour out

4 to pour out (the contents of a container): he tipped the water from the basin down the sink

◇ SYNONYMS: pour, drop, empty, dump, drain, discharge, unload, jettison

► n

5 a rubbish dump

◇ SYNONYMS: dump, midden, rubbish heap, refuse heap tipping point n a moment or event that marks a decisive change tipple vb -pling, -pled

1 to drink alcohol regularly, esp. in small quantities

► n

2 an alcoholic drink > tippler n

tipster n a person who sells tips to people betting on horse races or speculating on the stock market tipsy adj -sier, -siest slightly drunk > tipsiness n

tiptoe vb -toeing, -toed

1 to walk quietly with the heels off the ground

► n

2 on tiptoe on the tips of the toes or on the ball of the foot and the toes: I stood on tiptoe

tiptop adj, adv of the highest quality or condition tirade n a long angry speech or denunciation tire vb tiring, tired

1 to reduce the energy of, as by exertion: she could still do things that would tire people half her age

◇ SYNONYMS: exhaust, drain, fatigue, weary, wear out

2 to become wearied or bored: he simply stopped talking when he tired of my questions

◇ SYNONYMS: flag, become tired, fail > tiring adj

tired adj

1 weary or exhausted: they were tired after their long journey

◇ SYNONYMS: exhausted, fatigued, weary, flagging, drained, sleepy, worn out, drowsy, tuckered out (Austral & NZ informal)

2 bored with or no longer interested in something: I'm tired of staying in watching TV every night

◇ SYNONYMS: bored, fed up, weary, sick (informal), hoha (NZ)

3 having been used so often as to be no longer interesting: you haven't fallen for that tired old line, have you?

◇ SYNONYMS: hackneyed, stale, well-worn, old, corny (slang), threadbare, trite, clichéd > tiredness n

tireless adj energetic and determined: a tireless worker for charity > tirelessly adv

tiresome adj boring and irritating tissue n

1 a group of cells in an animal or plant with a similar structure and function: muscular tissue forms 42% of the body tissue

2 a thin piece of soft absorbent paper used as a disposable handkerchief, towel, etc.

3 an interwoven series: a tissue of lies tit¹ n any of various small European songbirds, such as the bluetit, that feed on insects and seeds tit² n

1 (slang) a female breast

2 a teat or nipple titanic adj having or requiring colossal strength: a titanic struggle titanium n (chem) a strong white metallic element used in the manufacture of strong lightweight alloys, esp. aircraft parts. SYMBOL: Ti

titbit or (esp US) tidbit n

1 a tasty small piece of food

2 a pleasing scrap of scandal: an interesting titbit of gossip

tit-for-tat adj done in return or retaliation for a similar act: a spate of tit-for-tat killings

tithe n

1 one tenth of one's income or produce paid to the church as a tax

2 a tenth or very small part of anything: he had accomplished only a tithe of his great dream

► vb tithing, tithed

3 to demand a tithe from 4 to pay a tithe or tithes > tithable adj

Titian (tish-un) adj (of hair) reddish-yellow titillate vb -lating, -lated to arouse or excite pleasurably, esp. in a sexual way > titillating adj

> titillation n

titivate vb -vating, -vated to make smarter or neater > titivation n

title n

1 the distinctive name of a book, film, record, etc.: his first album bore the title 'Safe as Milk'

2 a descriptive name or heading of a section of a book, speech, etc.

3 a book or periodical: publishers were averaging a total of 500 new titles annually

4 a name or epithet signifying rank, office, or function: the job bears the title Assistant Divisional Administrator

◇ SYNONYMS: name, designation, term, handle (slang), moniker or monicker (slang)

5 a formal designation, such as Mrs or Dr

◇ SYNONYMS: name, designation, term, handle (slang), moniker or monicker (slang)

6 (sport) a championship: the Italians have won the title

◇ SYNONYMS: championship, trophy, bays, crown, honour

7 (law) the legal right to possession of property

◇ SYNONYMS: ownership, right, claim, privilege, entitlement, tenure, prerogative, freehold titled adj having a title such as 'Lady' or 'Sir' which indicates a high social rank title deed n a document containing evidence of a person's legal right or title to property, esp. a house or land titter vb

1 to snigger, esp. derisively or in a suppressed way

► n

2 a suppressed laugh or snigger tittle-tattle n

1 idle chat or gossip

- vb -tattling, -tattled 2 to chatter or gossip titular adj

- 1 in name only: titular head of state 2 of or having a title tizzy n, pl -zies (informal) a state of confusion or excitement

TNT n 2,4,6-trinitrotoluene: a type of powerful explosive to prep

- 1 used to indicate the destination of the subject or object of an action: he went to the theatre 2 used to introduce the indirect object of a verb: talk to him
3 used to introduce the infinitive of a verb: I'm going to lie down 4 as far as or until: from September 11 to October 25
5 used to indicate that two things have an equivalent value: there are 16 ounces to the pound 6 against or onto: I put my ear to the door 7 before the hour of: 17 minutes to midnight 8 accompanied by: dancing to a live band 9 as compared with: four goals to nil 10 used to indicate a resulting condition: burnt to death 11 working for or employed by: Chaplain to the Nigerian Chaplaincy in Britain 12 in commemoration of: a memorial to the victims of the disaster
► adv
13 towards a closed position: push the door to toad n

- 1 an amphibian which resembles a frog, but has a warty skin and spends more time on dry land 2 a loathsome person toad-in-the-hole n a traditional British dish made of sausages baked in a batter toadstool n any of various poisonous funguses consisting of a caplike top on a stem toady n, pl toadies

1 a person who flatters and ingratiates himself or herself in a fawning way: a spineless political toady

► vb toadies, toadying, toadied

2 to fawn on and flatter (someone) > toadyism n

to and fro adv, adj also to-and-fro

1 back and forth: he moved his head to and fro as if dodging blows

2 from one place to another then back again: the ferry sailed to and fro across the river

> toing and froing n toast¹ n

1 sliced bread browned by exposure to heat

► vb

2 to brown (bread) under a grill or over a fire

◇ SYNONYMS: brown, grill, crisp, roast

3 to warm or be warmed: toasting his feet at the fire

◇ SYNONYMS: warm (up), heat (up), thaw, bring back to life

toast² n

1 a proposal of health or success given to a person or thing and marked by people raising glasses and drinking together

◇ SYNONYMS: tribute, compliment, salute, health, pledge, salutation (formal)

2 a person or thing that is honoured: his success made him the toast of the British film industry

◇ SYNONYMS: favourite, celebrity, darling, talk, pet, focus of attention, hero or heroine, blue-eyed boy or girl (Brit informal)

► vb

3 to propose or drink a toast to (a person or thing)

◇ SYNONYMS: drink to, honour, salute, drink (to) the health of toaster n an electrical device for toasting bread tobacco n, pl -cos or -coes an American plant with large leaves which are dried for smoking, or chewing, or made into snuff tobacconist n (Brit & Austral) a person or shop that sells tobacco, cigarettes, pipes, etc.

toboggan n

1 a long narrow sledge used for sliding over snow and ice

► vb

2 to ride on a toboggan

toby jug n (chiefly Brit) a beer mug or jug in the form of a stout seated man wearing a three-cornered hat and smoking a pipe toccata (tok-kah-ta) n a piece of fast music for the organ, harpsichord, or piano, usually in a rhythmically free style today n

1 this day, as distinct from yesterday or tomorrow

2 the present age: in today's world

► adv

3 during or on this day: I hope you're feeling better today

4 nowadays: this is one of the most reliable cars available today

toddle vb -dling, -dled

1 to walk with short unsteady steps, like a young child

2 toddle off (humorous) to depart: he toddled off to bed

► n

3 the act or an instance of walking with short unsteady steps toddler n a young child who has only just learned how to walk toddy n, pl -dies a drink made from spirits, esp. whisky, hot water, sugar, and usually lemon juice to-do n, pl -dos (Brit & Austral & NZ) a commotion, fuss, or quarrel toe n

1 any one of the digits of the foot

2 the part of a shoe or sock covering the toes

3 on one's toes alert

4 tread on someone's toes to offend a person, esp. by trespassing on his or her field of responsibility

► vb toeing, toed

5 to touch or kick with the toe

6 toe the line to conform to expected attitudes or standards toff n (Brit slang) a well-dressed or upper-class person toffee n

1 a sticky chewy sweet made by boiling sugar with water and butter

2 can't (do something) for toffee (informal) is not competent or talented at (doing something): she couldn't dance for toffee tofu n a food with a soft cheeselike consistency made from unfermented soya-bean curd tog n unit for measuring the insulating power of duvets toga (toe-ga) n a garment worn by citizens of ancient Rome, consisting of a piece of cloth draped around the body > togaed adj

together adv

1 with cooperation between people or organizations: we started a company together

◇ SYNONYMS: collectively, jointly, as one, with each other, in conjunction, side by side, mutually, in partnership

2 in or into contact with each other: he clasped his hands together

3 in or into one place: the family gets together to talk

4 at the same time: 'Disgusting,' said Julie and Alice together

◇ SYNONYMS: at the same time, simultaneously, concurrently, contemporaneously, at one fell swoop

5 considered collectively: the properties together were worth more as a unit

6 (old-fashioned) continuously: working for eight hours together

7 together with in addition to

► adj

8 (slang) self-possessed, competent, and well-organized

◇ SYNONYMS: self-possessed, composed, well-balanced, well-adjusted, grounded toggle n

1 a bar-shaped button inserted through a loop for fastening coats, etc.

2 (computers) a key on a keyboard which, when pressed, will turn a function or feature on if it is currently off, and turn it off if it is currently on toil n

1 hard or exhausting work: hours of toil beneath the Catalan sun

◇ SYNONYMS: hard work, effort, application, sweat, graft (informal), slog, exertion, drudgery

► vb

2 to work hard: workers toiling in the fields to produce tea for westerners to drink

◇ SYNONYMS: labour, work, struggle, strive, sweat (informal), slave, graft (informal), slog

3 to move slowly and with difficulty, for instance because of exhaustion or the steepness of a slope: Joanna toiled up the steps to the church

◇ SYNONYMS: struggle, trek, slog, trudge, fight your way, footslog toilet n

1

A a bowl fitted with a water-flushing device and connected to a drain, for receiving and disposing of urine and faeces

◇ SYNONYMS: lavatory, bathroom, loo (Brit informal), privy (obsolete), cloakroom (Brit), urinal, latrine, washroom, dunny (Austral & NZ old-fashioned, informal), bogger (Austral slang), brasco (Austral slang)

B a room with such a fitment

◇ SYNONYMS: bathroom, gents or ladies (Brit informal), privy, latrine, water closet, ladies' room, W.C.

2 (old-fashioned) the act of dressing and preparing oneself toiletary n, pl -ries an object or cosmetic used in making up, dressing, etc.

toilet water n liquid perfume lighter than cologne token n

1 a symbol, sign, or indication of something: as a token of respect

◇ SYNONYMS: symbol, mark, sign, note, expression, indication, representation, badge

2 a gift voucher that can be used as payment for goods of a specified value

3 a metal or plastic disc, such as a substitute for currency for use in a slot machine

4 by the same token in the same way as something mentioned previously

► adj

5 intended to create an impression but having no real importance: as a token gesture of goodwill

◇ SYNONYMS: nominal, symbolic, minimal, hollow, superficial, perfunctory tokenism n the practice of making only a token effort or doing no more than the minimum, esp. in order to comply with a law > tokenist adj told vb the past of tell tolerable adj

- 1 able to be put up with; bearable
- 2 (informal) fairly good
- > tolerably adv

tolerance n

- 1 the quality of accepting other people's rights to their own opinions, beliefs, or actions
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: broad-mindedness, indulgence, forbearance, permissiveness, open-mindedness
- 2 capacity to endure something, esp. pain or hardship
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: endurance, resistance, stamina, fortitude, resilience, toughness, staying power, hardiness
- 3 the ability of a substance to withstand heat, stress, etc., without damage
- 4 (med) the capacity to endure the effects of a continued or increasing dose of a drug, poison, etc.
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: resistance, immunity, resilience, non-susceptibility
- 5 an acceptable degree of variation in a measurement or value: the bodywork of the car is precision-engineered with a tolerance of 0.01 millimetres

tolerant adj

- 1 accepting of the beliefs, actions, etc., of other people
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: broad-minded, understanding, open-minded, catholic, long-suffering, permissive, forbearing, unprejudiced
- 2 tolerant of able to withstand (heat, stress, etc.) without damage tolerate vb -ating, -ated

- 1 to allow something to exist or happen, even though one does not approve of it: you must learn to tolerate opinions other than your own

◇ SYNONYMS: allow, accept, permit, take, brook, put up with (informal), condone

2 to put up with (someone or something): he found the pain hard to tolerate

◇ SYNONYMS: endure, stand, take, stomach, put up with (informal) > toleration n

toll¹ vb

1 to ring (a bell) slowly and regularly

◇ SYNONYMS: ring, sound, strike, chime, knell, clang, peal

2 to announce by tolling: the bells tolled the Queen's death

► n

3 the slow regular ringing of a bell

◇ SYNONYMS: ringing, chime, knell, clang, peal toll² n

1 a charge for the use of certain roads and bridges: the Skye Bridge toll

◇ SYNONYMS: charge, tax, fee, duty, payment, levy, tariff

2 loss or damage from a disaster: the annual death toll on the roads is about 4500

◇ SYNONYMS: damage, cost, loss, roll, penalty, sum, number, roster

3 take a or its toll to have a severe and damaging effect: the continued stress had taken a toll on her health

tom n

1 a male cat

► adj

2 (of an animal) male: a tom turkey tomahawk n a fighting axe used by the Native Americans of N America tomato n, pl -toes

1 a red fleshy juicy fruit with many edible seeds, eaten in salads, as a vegetable, etc.

2 the plant, originally from South America, on which this fruit grows tomb n

1 a place for the burial of a corpse

◇ SYNONYMS: grave, vault, crypt, mausoleum, sarcophagus, catacomb, sepulchre

2 a monument over a grave

3 the tomb (poetic) death tombola n (Brit) a type of lottery, in which tickets are drawn from a revolving drum tomboy n a girl who behaves or dresses in ways that are traditionally considered to be like a boy tombstone n a gravestone tome n a large heavy book tomfoolery n foolish behaviour

Tommy gun n a type of light sub-machine-gun tomorrow n

1 the day after today: tomorrow's meeting has been cancelled

2 the future: the struggle to build a better tomorrow

► adv

3 on the day after today: the festival starts tomorrow

4 at some time in the future: they live today as millions more will live tomorrow

tom-tom n a long narrow drum beaten with the hands ton n

1 (Brit) a unit of weight equal to 2240 pounds or 1016.046 kilograms

2 (US & Canad) a unit of weight equal to 2000 pounds or 907.184 kilograms

3 come down on someone like a ton of bricks to scold someone very severely

► adv

4 tons a lot: I've got tons of things to do before going on holiday tonal adj

1 (music) written in a key

2 of or relating to tone or tonality tonality n, pl -ties

1 (music) the presence of a musical key in a composition

2 the overall scheme of colours and tones in a painting tone n

1 sound with reference to its pitch, timbre, or volume

◇ SYNONYMS: volume, timbre

2 (US & Canad) same as note

3 (music) an interval of two semitones, such as that between doh and ray in tonic sol-fa

4 the quality or character of a sound: her tone was angry

◇ SYNONYMS: volume, timbre

5 general aspect, quality, or style: the tone of the conversation made him queasy

◇ SYNONYMS: character, style, feel, air, spirit, attitude, manner, mood

6 high quality or style: my car with its patches of rust lowered the tone of the neighbourhood

7 the quality of a given colour, as modified by mixture with white or black; shade or tint

◇ SYNONYMS: colour, shade, tint, tinge, hue

8 (physiol) the natural firmness of the tissues and normal functioning of bodily organs in health

► vb toning, toned

9 to be of a matching or similar tone

◇ SYNONYMS: harmonize, match, blend, suit, go well with 10 to give a tone to or correct the tone of > toneless adj

> tonelessly adv

tone-deaf adj unable to distinguish subtle differences in musical pitch tone down vb to moderate in tone: I sensed some reserve in his manner, so I toned down my enthusiasm

◇ SYNONYMS tone something down: moderate, temper, soften, restrain, subdue, play down tongs pl n a tool for grasping or lifting, consisting of two long metal or wooden arms, joined with a hinge or flexible metal strip at one end tongue n

1 a movable mass of muscular tissue attached to the floor of the mouth, used for tasting, eating, and speaking

2 a language, dialect, or idiom: the Scots tongue

◇ SYNONYMS: language, speech, dialect, parlance

3 the ability to speak: taken aback, she could not find her tongue

4 a manner of speaking: a sharp tongue

5 the tongue of certain animals used as food

6 a narrow strip of something that extends outwards: a narrow tongue of flame

7 a flap of leather on a shoe

8 the clapper of a bell

9 a projecting strip along an edge of a board that is made to fit a groove in another board

10 hold one's tongue to keep quiet

11 on the tip of one's tongue about to come to mind

12 with (one's) tongue in (one's) cheek with insincere or ironical intent tonic n

1 a medicine that improves the functioning of the body or increases the feeling of wellbeing

◇ SYNONYMS: stimulant, boost, pick-me-up (informal), fillip, shot in the arm (informal), restorative

2 anything that enlivens or strengthens: his dry humour was a stimulating tonic

◇ SYNONYMS: stimulant, boost, pick-me-up (informal), fillip, shot in the arm (informal), restorative

3 Also called: tonic water a carbonated beverage containing quinine and often mixed with alcoholic drinks: gin and tonic

4 (music) the first note of a major or minor scale and the tonal centre of a piece composed in a particular key

► adj

5 having an invigorating or refreshing effect: a tonic bath

6 (music) of the first note of a major or minor scale tonic sol-fa n a method of teaching music, by which syllables are used as names for the notes of the major scale in any key tonight n

1 the night or evening of this present day: tonight's edition

► adv

2 in or during the night or evening of this day: I want to go out dancing tonight tonnage n

1 the capacity of a merchant ship expressed in tons

2 the weight of the cargo of a merchant ship

3 the total amount of shipping of a port or nation tonne (tunn) n a unit of mass equal to 1000 kg or 2204.6 pounds tonsil n either of two small oval lumps of spongy tissue situated one on each side of the back of the mouth > tonsillar adj

tonsillectomy n, pl -mies surgical removal of the tonsils tonsillitis n inflammation of the tonsils, causing a sore throat and fever tonsure n

1

A (in certain religions and monastic orders) the shaving of the head or the crown of the head only

B the part of the head left bare by such shaving

► vb -suring, -sured

2 to shave the head of > tonsured adj

too adv

1 as well or also: I'll miss you, too

◇ SYNONYMS: also, as well, further, in addition, moreover, besides, likewise, to boot

2 in or to an excessive degree: it's too noisy in here

◇ SYNONYMS: excessively, very, extremely, overly, unduly, unreasonably, inordinately, immoderately

3 extremely: you're too kind

4 (US & Canad & Austral informal) used to emphasize contradiction of a negative statement: You didn't! – I did too!

took vb the past tense of take

tool n

1

A an implement, such as a hammer, saw, or spade, that is used by hand to help do a particular type of work

◇ SYNONYMS: implement, device, appliance, machine, instrument, gadget, utensil, contraption (informal)

B a power-driven instrument: machine tool

◇ SYNONYMS: implement, device, appliance, machine, instrument, gadget, utensil, contraption (informal)

2 the cutting part of such an instrument

3 a person used to perform dishonourable or unpleasant tasks for another: the government is acting as a tool of big business

◇ SYNONYMS: puppet, creature, pawn, stooge (slang), minion, lackey, flunkey, hireling

4 any object, skill, etc., used for a particular task or in a particular job: a skilled therapist can use photographs as tools

► vb

5 to work, cut, or form (something) with a tool toolbar n a row or column of buttons displayed on a computer screen, allowing the user to select a variety of functions toot n

1 a short hooting sound

► vb

2 to give or cause to give a short blast, hoot, or whistle: motorists tooted their car horns

tooth n, pl teeth

1 one of the bonelike projections in the jaws of most vertebrates that are used for biting, tearing, or chewing 2 one of the sharp projections on the edge of a comb, saw, zip, etc.

3 long in the tooth old or ageing

4 a sweet tooth a liking for sweet food

5 tooth and nail with great vigour and determination: the union would oppose compulsory redundancies tooth and nail

► See also teeth

toothless adj

1 having no teeth

2 having no real power: the proposed Commission will not be as toothless as scoffers suggest toothpaste n a paste used for cleaning the teeth, applied with a toothbrush toothpick n a small wooden or plastic stick used for extracting pieces of food from between the teeth top¹ n

1 the highest point or part of anything: the top of the stairs

◇ SYNONYMS: peak, summit, head, crown, height, ridge, brow, crest

2 the most important or successful position: at the top of the agenda

◇ SYNONYMS: first place, head, peak, lead, high point

3 a lid or cap that fits onto one end of something, esp. to close it: he unscrewed the top from a quart of ale

◇ SYNONYMS: lid, cover, cap, plug, stopper, bung

4 the highest degree or point: the two people at the top of the Party

5 the most important person or people in an organization: the top of the military establishment

6 the loudest or highest pitch: she cheered and sang at the top of her voice

7 a garment, esp. for a woman, that extends from the shoulders to the waist or hips

8 the part of a plant that is above ground: nettle tops

9 off the top of one's head without previous preparation or careful thought

10 on top of

A in addition to: the average member of staff will get 25% on top of salary

B (informal) in complete control of: we're on top of our costs and expenses and looking for other opportunities

11 over the top

A lacking restraint or a sense of proportion: you went over the top when you called her a religious maniac

B (military) over the edge of a trench

► adj

12 at, of, or being the top: men still hold most of the top jobs in industry

◇ SYNONYMS: prime, best, select, first-class, quality, choice, excellent, premier ► vb topping, topped

13 to put on top of (something): top your salad with a mild dressing

◇ SYNONYMS: cover, garnish, finish, crown, cap

14 to reach or pass the top of 15 to be at the top of: her biggest hit topped the charts for six weeks

◇ SYNONYMS: lead, head, be at the top of, be first in 16 to exceed or surpass: his estimated fortune tops £2 billion

◇ SYNONYMS: surpass, better, beat, improve on, cap, exceed, eclipse, excel

17 top and tail

A to trim off the ends of (fruit or vegetables) before cooking

B to wash only a baby's face and bottom top² n

1 a toy that is spun on its pointed base

2 sleep like a top to sleep very soundly topaz (toe-pazz) n a hard glassy yellow, pink, or colourless mineral used in making jewellery top brass pl n the most important or high-ranking officials or leaders topee or topi (toe-pee) top hat n a man's hat with a tall cylindrical crown and narrow brim, now only worn for some formal occasions top-heavy adj unstable through being overloaded at the top topiary (tope-yar-ee) n

1 the art of trimming trees or bushes into artificial decorative shapes

2 trees or bushes trimmed into decorative shapes

► adj

3 of or relating to topiary > topiarist n

topic n a subject of a speech, book, conversation, etc.
◇ SYNONYMS: subject, point, question, issue, matter, theme, subject matter topical adj of or relating to current affairs ◇ SYNONYMS: current, popular, contemporary, up-to-date, up-to-the-minute, newsworthy > topicality n > topically adv

topless adj of or relating to women wearing costumes that do not cover the breasts: topless beaches topmost adj at or nearest the top top-notch adj (informal) excellent or superb: top-notch entertainment topography n, pl -phies

- 1 the surface features of a region, such as its hills, valleys, or rivers: the islands are fragile, with a topography constantly changed by wind and wave
- 2 the study or description of such surface features
- 3 the representation of these features on a map > topographer n > topographical adj topology n a branch of geometry describing the properties of a figure that are unaffected by continuous distortion > topological adj

topping n a sauce or garnish for food topple vb -pling, -pled

1 to fall over or cause (something) to fall over, esp. from a height: he staggered back against the railing and toppled over into the river

◇ SYNONYMS: knock over

2 to overthrow or oust: few believe the scandal will topple the government

◇ SYNONYMS: overthrow, overturn, bring down, oust, unseat, bring low topsoil n the surface layer of soil topsy-turvy adj

1 upside down

2 in a state of confusion

► adv

3 in a topsy-turvy manner toque (tuke) n a small round brimless hat tor n (chiefly Brit) a high hill, esp. a bare rocky one

Torah n the whole body of traditional Jewish teaching, including the Oral Law torch n

1 a small portable electric lamp powered by batteries

2 a wooden shaft dipped in wax or tallow and set alight

3 anything regarded as a source of enlightenment, guidance, etc.: a torch of hope

4 carry a torch for to be in love with (someone), esp. unrequitedly

► vb

5 (informal) to deliberately set (a building) on fire tore vb the past tense of tear toreador (torr-ee-a-dor) n a bullfighter, esp. one on horseback torment vb

1 to cause (someone) great pain or suffering

◇ SYNONYMS: torture, distress, rack, crucify

2 to tease or pester (a person or animal) in an annoying or cruel way

◇ SYNONYMS: tease, annoy, bother, irritate, harass, hassle (informal), pester, vex

► n

3 physical or mental pain

◇ SYNONYMS: suffering, distress, misery, pain, hell (informal), torture, agony, anguish

4 a source of pain or suffering > tormentor n

torn vb

1 the past participle of tear

► adj

2 split or cut

◇ SYNONYMS: cut, split, rent, ripped, ragged, slit, lacerated

3 divided or undecided, as in preference: torn between two lovers

◇ SYNONYMS: undecided, uncertain, unsure, wavering, vacillating, in two minds (informal), irresolute tornado n, pl -dos or -does a rapidly whirling column of air, usually characterized by a dark funnel-shaped cloud causing damage along its path ◇ SYNONYMS: whirlwind, storm, hurricane, gale, cyclone, typhoon, tempest (literary), squall torpedo n, pl -does

1 a cylindrical self-propelled weapon carrying explosives that is launched from aircraft, ships, or submarines and follows an underwater path to hit its target

► vb -doing, -doed

2 to attack or hit (a ship) with one or a number of torpedoes

3 to destroy or wreck: the Prime Minister warned his party against torpedoing the bill torpid adj

1 sluggish or dull: he has a rather torpid intellect

2 (of a hibernating animal) dormant torpor n drowsiness and apathy torque (tork) n

1 a force that causes rotation around a central point such as an axle

2 an ancient Celtic necklace or armband made of twisted metal torrent n

1 a fast or violent stream, esp. of water

2 a rapid flow of questions, abuse, etc.

torrential adj (of rain) very heavy torrid adj

1 (of weather) so hot and dry as to parch or scorch

2 (of land) arid or parched

3 highly charged emotionally: a torrid affair

torsion n the twisting of a part by equal forces being applied at both ends but in opposite directions > torsional adj

torso n, pl -sos

1 the trunk of the human body

2 a statue of a nude human trunk, esp. without the head or limbs tort n (law) a civil wrong or injury, for which an action for damages may be brought tortilla n (in Mexican cooking) a kind of thin pancake made from corn meal tortoise n a land reptile with a heavy dome-shaped shell into which it can withdraw its head and legs tortoiseshell n

1 the horny yellow-and-brown mottled shell of a sea turtle, used for making ornaments and jewellery

2 a domestic cat with black, cream, and brownish markings

3 a butterfly which has orange-brown wings with black markings

► adj

4 made of tortoiseshell tortuous adj

1 twisted or winding: a tortuous route

2 devious or cunning: months of tortuous negotiations torture vb -turing, -tured

1 to cause (someone) extreme physical pain, esp. to extract information, etc.: suspects were regularly tortured and murdered by the secret police

◇ SYNONYMS: torment, abuse, persecute, afflict, scourge, molest, crucify, mistreat

2 to cause (someone) mental anguish

◇ SYNONYMS: distress, torment, worry, trouble, rack, afflict, harrow, inflict anguish on

► n

3 physical or mental anguish

◇ SYNONYMS: agony, suffering, anguish, distress, torment, heartbreak

4 the practice of torturing a person

◇ SYNONYMS: ill-treatment, abuse, torment, persecution, maltreatment, harsh treatment

5 something which causes great mental distress: she was going through the torture of a collapsing marriage > tortured adj

> torturer n

> torturous adj

Tory n, pl -ries

1 a member or supporter of the Conservative Party in Great Britain or Canada

2 (history) a member of the English political party that supported the Church and Crown and traditional political structures and opposed the Whigs

► adj

3 of or relating to a Tory or Tories

> Toryism n

toss vb

1 to throw (something) lightly

◇ SYNONYMS: throw, pitch, hurl, fling, launch, cast, flip, sling (informal)

2 to fling or be flung about, esp. in a violent way: the salty sea breeze tossing the branches of the palms

3 to coat (food) with a dressing by gentle stirring or mixing: her technique for tossing Caesar salad

◇ SYNONYMS: shake

4 (of a horse) to throw (its rider)

◇ SYNONYMS: throw, pitch, lob (informal)

5 to move (one's head) suddenly backwards, as in impatience

6 to throw up (a coin) to decide between alternatives by guessing which side will land uppermost

7 toss and turn to be restless when trying to sleep

◇ SYNONYMS: thrash (about), twitch, wriggle, squirm, writhe

► n

8 the act or an instance of tossing

◇ SYNONYMS: throw, pitch, lob (informal)

9 the act of deciding between alternatives by throwing up a coin and guessing which side will land uppermost: Essex won the toss and decided to bat first

10 argue the toss to waste time and energy arguing about an unimportant point

11 not give a toss (informal) not to care at all toss up vb

1 to spin (a coin) in the air in order to decide between alternatives by guessing which side will land uppermost

► n toss-up

2 an instance of tossing up a coin

3 (informal) an even chance or risk: it's a toss-up whether prices will go up or down over the days ahead

tot n

1 a very young child

◇ SYNONYMS: infant, child, baby, toddler, mite, little (Austral informal), ankle-biter (Austral slang), tacker (Austral slang)

2 a small drink of spirits

◇ SYNONYMS: measure, shot (informal), finger, nip, slug, dram, snifter (informal) total n

1 the whole, esp. regarded as the sum of a number of parts

◇ SYNONYMS: sum, entirety, grand total, whole, aggregate, totality, full amount, sum total

2 in total overall: the company employs over 700 people in total

► adj

3 complete: a total ban on alcohol

◇ SYNONYMS: complete, absolute, utter, whole, entire, undivided, overarching, thoroughgoing

4 being or related to a total: the total number of deaths

► vb -talling, -talled (US) -taling, -taled

5 to amount to: the firm's losses totalled more than $2 billion

◇ SYNONYMS: amount to, make, come to, reach, equal, run to, number, add up to 6 to add up: purchases are totalled with a pencil and a notepad

◇ SYNONYMS: add up, work out, compute, reckon, tot up > totally adv

totalitarian adj

1 of a political system in which there is only one party, which allows no opposition and attempts to control everything: a totalitarian state

► n

2 a person who is in favour of totalitarian policies > totalitarianism n

totality n, pl -ties

1 the whole amount

2 the state of being total totalizator or totalizer or totalisator or totaliser n a machine to operate a system of betting on a racecourse in which money is paid out to the winners in proportion to their stakes tote¹ vb toting, toted (informal)

1 to carry or wear (a gun)

2 to haul or carry tote² n the tote (trademark) short for totalizator totem n

1 (esp. among Native Americans) an object or animal symbolizing a clan or family

2 a representation of such an object > totemic adj

> totemism n

totem pole n a pole carved or painted with totemic figures set up by certain Native Americans as a tribal symbol totter vb

1 to move in an unsteady manner

2 to sway or shake as if about to fall

3 to be failing, unstable, or precarious: the world was tottering on the edge of war toucan n a tropical American fruit-eating bird with a large brightly coloured bill touch vb

1 to cause or permit a part of the body to come into contact with (someone or something): the baking tin is too hot to touch

◇ SYNONYMS: come into contact, meet, contact, border, graze, adjoin, be in contact, abut

2 to tap, feel, or strike (someone or something): he touched me on the shoulder

◇ SYNONYMS: tap

3 to come or bring (something) into contact with (something else): the plane's wheels touched the runway

◇ SYNONYMS: tap

4 to move or disturb by handling: we shouldn't touch anything before the police arrive

5 to have an effect on: millions of people's lives had been touched by the music of the Beatles

◇ SYNONYMS: affect, influence, inspire, impress

6 to produce an emotional response in: the painful truth of it touched her

◇ SYNONYMS: move, stir, disturb

7 to eat or drink: she hardly ever touched alcohol

◇ SYNONYMS: consume, take, drink, eat, partake of 8 to compare to in quality or attainment; equal or match: nothing can touch them for scope and detail

◇ SYNONYMS: match, rival, equal, compare with, parallel, hold a candle to (informal)

9 (Brit & Austral & NZ slang) to ask (someone) for a loan or gift of money

10 to fondle in a sexual manner: I wouldn't let him touch me unless I was in the mood

11 to strike, harm, or molest: I never touched him!

12 touch on or upon to allude to briefly or in passing: these two issues may be touched upon during the talks

◇ SYNONYMS touch on something: refer to, cover, raise, deal with, mention, bring in, speak of, hint at

► n

13 the sense by which the texture and other qualities of objects can be experienced when they come in contact with a part of the body surface, esp. the tips of the fingers. RELATED ADJECTIVE: tactile

◇ SYNONYMS: feeling, handling, physical contact

14 the feel or texture of an object as perceived by this sense: she enjoyed the touch of the damp grass on her feet

15 the act or an instance of something coming into contact with the body: he remembered the touch of her hand

16 a gentle push, tap, or caress: the switch takes only the merest touch to operate

◇ SYNONYMS: contact, push, stroke, brush, press, tap, poke, nudge

17 a small amount; trace: a touch of luxury

◇ SYNONYMS: bit, spot (Brit), trace, drop, dash, small amount, jot, smattering

18 a particular manner or style of doing something: his songs always reveal his keen melodic touch

◇ SYNONYMS: style, method, technique, way, manner, trademark

19 a detail of some work: final touches were now being put to the plans

20 a slight attack: a touch of dysentery

21 (in sports such as football or rugby) the area outside the lines marking the side of the pitch: he kicked the ball into touch

22 the technique of fingering a keyboard instrument

23 a touch slightly or marginally: it's nice, but a touch expensive

24 in touch

A regularly speaking to, writing to, or visiting someone

B having up-to-date knowledge or understanding of a situation or trend

25 lose touch

A to gradually stop speaking to, writing to, or visiting someone

B to stop having up-to-date knowledge or understanding of a situation or trend

26 out of touch

A no longer speaking to, writing to, or visiting someone

B no longer having up-to-date knowledge or understanding of a situation or trend touch and go adj risky or critical: it was touch and go whether the mission would succeed

◇ SYNONYMS touch and go: risky, close, near, critical, precarious, nerve-racking touché (too-shay) interj

1 an acknowledgment that a remark or witty reply has been effective

2 an acknowledgment of a scoring hit in fencing touched adj

1 moved to sympathy or emotion: I was touched by her understanding

2 (informal) slightly mad: she's a bit touched touching adj

1 arousing tender feelings

◇ SYNONYMS: moving, affecting, sad, stirring, pathetic, poignant, emotive, pitiable

► prep

2 relating to or concerning: she might talk about matters touching both of them

touchline n either of the lines marking the side of the playing area in certain games, such as rugby touchscreen n a visual display unit screen that allows the user to give commands to the computer by touching parts of the screen instead of using the keyboard touchstone n a standard by which judgment is made: this restaurant is the touchstone for genuine Italian cookery in Leeds touch-type vb -typing, -typed to type without looking at the keyboard > touch-typist n

touchy adj touchier, touchiest

- 1 easily upset or irritated: he is a touchy and quick-tempered man
 - 2 requiring careful and tactful handling: a touchy subject
- > touchiness n

tough adj

- 1 strong and difficult to break, cut, or tear: this fabric is tough and water-resistant

◇ SYNONYMS: resilient, hard, resistant, durable, strong, solid, rugged (US & Canad), sturdy

- 2 (of meat or other food) difficult to cut and chew; not tender

- 3 physically or mentally strong and able to cope with hardship: a tough uncompromising woman, unwilling to take no for an answer

◇ SYNONYMS: hardy, strong, seasoned, strapping, vigorous, sturdy, stout

- 4 rough or violent: a tough and ruthless mercenary

◇ SYNONYMS: violent, rough, ruthless, pugnacious, hard-bitten

- 5 strict and firm: the country's tough drugs laws

◇ SYNONYMS: strict, severe, stern, hard, firm, resolute, merciless, unbending

- 6 difficult or troublesome to do or deal with: a tough task

◇ SYNONYMS: hard, difficult, troublesome, uphill, strenuous, arduous, laborious

- 7 tough luck! (informal) an expression of lack of sympathy for someone else's problems

► n

- 8 a rough, vicious, or violent person

◇ SYNONYMS: ruffian, bully, thug, hooligan, bruiser (informal), roughneck (slang), tsotsi (S African)

► vb

- 9 tough it out (informal) to endure a difficult situation until it improves: criticism of his performance has reinforced his desire to tough it out

> toughness n

toughen vb to make or become tough or tougher toupee (too-pay) n a hairpiece worn by men to cover a bald place tour n

1 an extended journey visiting places of interest along the route

◇ SYNONYMS: journey, expedition, excursion, trip, outing, jaunt, junket

2 a trip, by a band, theatre company, etc., to perform in several places

3 an overseas trip made by a cricket team, rugby team, etc., to play in several places

4 (military) a period of service, esp. in one place: the regiment has served several tours in Northern Ireland

► vb

5 to make a tour of (a place)

◇ SYNONYMS: visit, explore, go round, inspect, walk round, drive round, sightsee tour de force n, pl tours de force a masterly or brilliant stroke or achievement tourism n tourist travel, esp. when regarded as an industry tourist n

1 a person who travels for pleasure, usually sightseeing and staying in hotels

◇ SYNONYMS: traveller, voyager, tripper (Brit), globetrotter, holiday-maker, sightseer, excursionist

2 a member of a sports team which is visiting a country to play a series of matches: the tourists were bowled out for 135

3 the lowest class of accommodation on a passenger ship

► adj

4 of or relating to tourists or tourism: a popular tourist attraction

5 of the lowest class of accommodation on a passenger ship or aircraft touristy adj (informal, often derogatory) full of tourists or tourist attractions tournament n

1 a sporting competition in which contestants play a series of games to determine an overall winner

◇ SYNONYMS: competition, meeting, event, series, contest

2 Also: tourney (medieval history) a contest in which mounted knights fought for a prize tourniquet (tour-nick-kay) n (med) a strip of cloth tied tightly round an arm or leg to stop bleeding from an artery tout (rhymes with shout) vb

1 to seek (business, customers, etc.) or try to sell (goods), esp. in a persistent or direct manner: he went from door to door touting for business

2 to put forward or recommend (a person or thing) as a good or suitable example or candidate: the plant was once touted as a showcase factory

► n

3 a person who sells tickets for a heavily booked event at inflated prices tow¹ vb

1 to pull or drag (a vehicle), esp. by means of a rope or cable

◇ SYNONYMS: drag, draw, pull, haul, tug, yank, lug

► n

2 the act or an instance of towing

3 in tow (informal) in one's company or one's charge or under one's influence: she had a reporter and a photographer in tow

4 on tow (of a vehicle) being towed tow² n fibres of hemp, flax, jute, etc., prepared for spinning towards or (US) toward prep

1 in the direction of: towards the lake

◇ SYNONYMS: in the direction of, to, for, on the way to, en route for 2 with regard to: hostility towards the President

◇ SYNONYMS: regarding, about, concerning, respecting, in relation to, with regard to, with respect to, apropos

3 as a contribution to: the profits will go towards three projects

4 just before: towards evening

towbar n a rigid metal bar attached to the back of a vehicle, from which a trailer or caravan can be towed towel n

1 a piece of absorbent cloth or paper used for drying things

► vb -elling, -elled (US) -eling, -eled

2 to dry or wipe with a towel towelling or (US) toweling n a soft, fairly thick fabric used to make towels and dressing gowns tower n

1 a tall, usually square or circular structure, sometimes part of a larger building and usually built for a specific purpose

◇ SYNONYMS: column, pillar, turret, belfry, steeple, obelisk

2 tower of strength a person who supports or comforts someone else at a time of difficulty

► vb

3 tower over to be much taller than: sheer walls of limestone towered over us

town n

1 a large group of houses, shops, factories, etc., smaller than a city and larger than a village. RELATED ADJECTIVE: urban

2 the nearest town or the chief town of an area: people from town rarely went out to the farm

3 the central area of a town where most of the shops and offices are: we're going to a pub in town tonight

4 the people of a town: the town is split over the plans for a bypass

5 built-up areas in general, as opposed to the countryside: migration from the country to the town

6 go to town to make a supreme or unrestricted effort

7 on the town visiting nightclubs, restaurants, etc.: we had a night on the town to celebrate her promotion town hall n a large building in a town often containing the council offices and a hall for public meetings township n

1 a small town

2 (in South Africa) a planned urban settlement of Black people or people of mixed racial descent

3 (in the US and Canada) a small unit of local government, often consisting of a town and the area surrounding it

4 (in Canada) a land-survey area, usually 36 square miles (93 square kilometres) towpath n a path beside a canal or river, formerly used by horses pulling barges toxaemia or (US) toxemia (tox-seem-ya) n

1 a form of blood poisoning caused by toxins released by bacteria at a wound or other site of infection

2 a condition in pregnant women characterized by high blood pressure > toxaemic or (US) toxemic adj toxic adj

1 poisonous: toxic fumes

◇ SYNONYMS: poisonous, deadly, lethal, harmful, pernicious (formal), noxious, septic, pestilential

2 caused by poison: toxic effects

◇ SYNONYMS: poisonous, deadly, lethal, harmful, pernicious (formal), noxious, septic, pestilential > toxicity n

toxicology n the branch of science concerned with poisons and their effects > toxicological adj

> toxicologist n

toxin n

1 any of various poisonous substances produced by microorganisms and causing certain diseases

2 any other poisonous substance of plant or animal origin toy n

1 an object designed for children to play with, such as a doll or model car

◇ SYNONYMS: plaything, game, doll

2 an object that adults use for entertainment rather than for a serious purpose:

I do use my computer: it's not just a toy

► adj

3 being an imitation or model of something for children to play with: a toy aeroplane

4 (of a dog) of a variety much smaller than is normal for that breed: a toy poodle toy-toy or toyi-toyi (S African) n

1 a dance expressing defiance and protest

► vb

2 to dance in this way

toy with vb

1 to consider an idea without being serious about it or being able to decide about it: I've been toying with the idea of setting up my own firm

◇ SYNONYMS toy with something: play with, consider, trifle with, dally with, entertain the possibility of, amuse yourself with, think idly of

2 to keep moving (an object) about with one's fingers, esp. when thinking about something else: Jessica sat toying with her glass

trace vb tracing, traced

1 to locate or work out (the cause or source of something): he traced the trouble to a faulty connection

◇ SYNONYMS: search for, track, unearth, hunt down

2 to find (something or someone that was missing): the police were unable to trace her missing husband

◇ SYNONYMS: find, track (down), discover, detect, unearth, hunt down, ferret out, locate

3 to discover or describe the progress or development of (something): throughout the 19th century we can trace the development of more complex machinery

◇ SYNONYMS: outline, sketch, draw

4 to copy (a design, map, etc.) by putting a piece of transparent paper over it and following the lines which show through the paper with a pencil

◇ SYNONYMS: copy, map, draft, outline, sketch, reproduce, draw over

5 to make the outline of (a shape or pattern): his index finger was tracing circles on the arm of the chair

► n

6 a mark, footprint, or other sign that shows that a person, animal, or thing has been in a particular place: the police could find no trace of the missing van

◇ SYNONYMS: track, trail, footstep, path, footprint, spoor, footmark, electronic footprint

7 an amount of something so small that it is barely noticeable: I detected a trace of jealousy in her voice

◇ SYNONYMS: bit, drop, touch, shadow, suggestion, hint, suspicion, tinge

8 a remnant of something: traces of an Iron-Age fort remain visible

◇ SYNONYMS: remnant, sign, record, mark, evidence, indication, vestige, footprint, electronic footprint

9 a pattern made on a screen or a piece of paper by a device that is measuring or detecting something: a baffling radar trace

> traceable adj

trace element n a chemical element that occurs in very small amounts in soil, water, etc. and is essential for healthy growth tracer n

1 a projectile that can be observed when in flight by the burning of chemical substances in its base

2 (med) an element or other substance introduced into the body to study metabolic processes tracery n, pl -eries

- 1 a pattern of interlacing lines, esp. one in a stained-glass window
- 2 any fine lacy pattern resembling this traces pl n

- 1 the two side straps that connect a horse's harness to the vehicle being pulled
- 2 kick over the traces to escape or defy control trachea (track-kee-a) n, pl -cheae (-kee-ee) (anatomy, zool) the tube that carries inhaled air from the throat to the lungs tracheotomy (track-ee-ot-a-mee) n, pl -mies surgical incision into the trachea, as performed when the air passage has been blocked tracing n

- 1 a copy of something, such as a map, made by tracing
- 2 a line traced by a recording instrument track n

- 1 a rough road or path: a farm track
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: path, way, road, route, trail, pathway, footpath
- 2 the mark or trail left by something that has passed by: the fox didn't leave any tracks
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: course, line, path, orbit, trajectory
- 3 a rail or pair of parallel rails on which a vehicle, such as a train, runs
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: line, tramline
- 4 a course for running or racing on: a running track
- 5 a separate song or piece of music on a recording: Dolphy switches back to bass clarinet for the final track
- 6 a course of action, thought, etc.: I don't think you're on the right track at all

7 an endless band on the wheels of a tank, bulldozer, etc. to enable it to move across rough ground

8 keep or lose track of to follow or fail to follow the course or progress of 9 off the beaten track in an isolated location: the village where she lives is a bit off the beaten track

► vb

10 to follow the trail of (a person or animal)

◇ SYNONYMS: follow, pursue, chase, trace, tail (informal), shadow, trail, stalk

11 to follow the flight path of (a satellite, etc.) by picking up signals transmitted or reflected by it

12 (films) to follow (a moving object) while filming > tracker n

track down vb to find (someone or something) by tracking or pursuing ◇ SYNONYMS track something or someone down: find, discover, trace, unearth, dig up, hunt down, sniff out, run to earth or ground track event n a competition in athletics, such as sprinting, that takes place on a running track track record n (informal) the past record of the accomplishments and failures of a person or organization tracksuit n a warm loose-fitting suit worn by athletes, etc., esp. during training tract¹ n

1 a large area, esp. of land: an extensive tract of moorland

◇ SYNONYMS: area, region, district, stretch, territory, extent, plot, expanse

2 (anatomy) a system of organs or glands that has a particular function: the urinary tract tract² n a pamphlet, esp. a religious one ◇ SYNONYMS: treatise, essay, booklet, pamphlet, dissertation, monograph, homily

tractable adj (formal) easy to control, manage, or deal with: he could easily manage his tractable and worshipping younger brother > tractability n

traction n

- 1 pulling, esp. by engine power: the increased use of electric traction
- 2 (med) the application of a steady pull on an injured limb using a system of weights and pulleys or splints: he was in traction for weeks following the accident
- 3 the grip that the wheels of a vehicle have on the ground: four-wheel drive gives much better traction in wet or icy conditions
- 4 the quality of being influential or popular: her ideas are gaining traction with the public traction engine n a heavy steam-powered vehicle used, esp. formerly, for drawing heavy loads along roads or over rough ground tractor n a motor vehicle with large rear wheels, used to pull heavy loads, esp. farm machinery trade n

1 the buying and selling of goods and services

◇ SYNONYMS: commerce, business, transactions, dealing, exchange, traffic, truck, barter

2 a person's job, esp. a craft requiring skill: he's a plumber by trade

◇ SYNONYMS: job, employment, business, craft, profession, occupation, line of work, métier

3 the people and practices of an industry, craft, or business

4 amount of custom or commercial dealings: a brisk trade in second-hand weapons

◇ SYNONYMS: commerce, business, transactions, dealing, exchange, traffic, truck, barter

5 a specified market or business: the wool trade

◇ SYNONYMS: job, employment, business, craft, profession, occupation, line of work, métier

6 trades the trade winds

► vb trading, traded

7 to buy and sell (goods)

◇ SYNONYMS: deal, do business, traffic, truck, bargain, peddle, transact, cut a deal

8 to exchange: he traded a job in New York for a life as a cowboy

◇ SYNONYMS: exchange, switch, swap, barter

9 to engage in trade

◇ SYNONYMS: operate, run, deal, do business

10 to deal or do business (with)

◇ SYNONYMS: deal, do business, traffic, truck, bargain, peddle, transact, cut a deal

> tradable or tradeable adj > trader n

> trading n

trade-in n

1 a used article given in part payment for the purchase of a new article

► vb trade in

2 to give (a used article) as part payment for a new article trademark n

1

A the name or other symbol used by a manufacturer to distinguish his or her products from those of competitors

B Registered Trademark one that is officially registered and legally protected

2 any distinctive sign or mark of a person or thing: the designer bars which have become the trademark of the city trade-off n an exchange, esp. as a compromise: there is often a trade-off between manpower costs and computer costs

tradesman or (fem) tradeswoman n, pl -men or -women

1 a skilled worker, such as an electrician or painter

2 a shopkeeper

trade union or trades union n a society of workers formed to protect and improve their working conditions, pay, etc.

> trade unionism or trades unionism n

> trade unionist or trades unionist n trade wind n a wind blowing steadily towards the equator either from the northeast in the N hemisphere or the southeast in the S hemisphere tradition n

1 the handing down from generation to generation of customs, beliefs, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: customs, institution, ritual, folklore, lore, tikanga (NZ)

2 the unwritten body of beliefs, customs, etc. handed down from generation to generation

◇ SYNONYMS: customs, institution, ritual, folklore, lore, tikanga (NZ)

3 a custom or practice of long standing

◇ SYNONYMS: established practice, custom, convention, habit, ritual

4 in the tradition of having many features similar to those of a person or thing in the past: a thriller writer in the tradition of Chandler

traditional adj of, relating to, or being a tradition

◇ SYNONYMS: old-fashioned, old, established, conventional, usual, accustomed, customary, time-honoured > traditionally adv

traduce vb -ducing, -duced (formal) to speak badly of (someone) > traducement n

> traducer n

traffic n

1 the vehicles travelling on roads

◇ SYNONYMS: transport, vehicles, transportation, freight

2 the movement of vehicles or people in a particular place or for a particular purpose: air traffic

◇ SYNONYMS: transport, vehicles, transportation, freight

3 trade, esp. of an illicit kind: drug traffic

◇ SYNONYMS: trade, commerce, business, exchange, truck, dealings, peddling

4 the exchange of ideas between people or organizations: a lively traffic in ideas

► vb -ficking, -ficked

5 to carry on trade or business, esp. of an illicit kind: he confessed to trafficking in gold and ivory

◇ SYNONYMS: trade, deal, exchange, bargain, do business, peddle, cut a deal, have dealings > trafficker n traffic warden n (Brit) a person employed to supervise road traffic and report traffic offences tragedian (traj-jee-dee-an) or (fem) tragedienne (traj-jee-dee-enn) n

1 an actor who specializes in tragic roles

2 a writer of tragedy tragedy n, pl -dies

1 a shocking or sad event

◇ SYNONYMS: disaster, catastrophe, misfortune, adversity, calamity

2 a serious play, film, or opera in which the main character is destroyed by a combination of a personal failing and adverse circumstances tragic adj

1 sad and distressing because it involves death or suffering: she was blinded in a tragic accident

◇ SYNONYMS: distressing, sad, appalling, deadly, unfortunate, disastrous, dreadful, dire

2 of or like a tragedy: a tragic hero

3 sad or mournful: a tragic melody

◇ SYNONYMS: sad, miserable, pathetic, mournful > tragically adv

tragicomedy n, pl -dies a play or other written work having both comic and tragic elements > tragicomic adj

trail n

1 a rough path across open country or through a forest

◇ SYNONYMS: path, track, route, way, course, road, pathway, footpath

2 a route along a series of roads or paths that has been specially planned to let people see or do particular things: a nature trail through the woods

3 a print, mark, or scent left by a person, animal, or object: a trail of blood was found down three flights of stairs

◇ SYNONYMS: tracks, path, marks, wake, trace, scent, footprints, spoor

4 something that trails behind: a vapour trail

◇ SYNONYMS: wake, stream, tail

5 a sequence of results from an event: a trail of mishaps

► vb

6 to drag or stream along the ground or through the air behind someone or something: part of her sari trailed behind her on the floor

◇ SYNONYMS: drag, draw, pull, sweep, haul, tow, dangle, droop

7 to lag behind (a person or thing): Max had arrived as well, trailing behind the others

◇ SYNONYMS: lag, follow, drift, wander, linger, trudge, plod, meander

8 to follow or hunt (an animal or person), usually secretly, by following the marks or tracks he, she, or it has made: the police had trailed him the length and breadth of the country

◇ SYNONYMS: follow, track, chase, pursue, dog, hunt, shadow, trace

9 to be falling behind in a race, match or competition: they trailed 2–1 at half-time

10 to move wearily or slowly: we spent the afternoon trailing round the shops

◇ SYNONYMS: lag, follow, drift, wander, linger, trudge, plod, meander

trailer n

1 a road vehicle, usually two-wheeled, towed by a motor vehicle and used for carrying goods, transporting boats, etc.: ahead of us was a tractor, drawing a trailer laden with dung

2 the rear section of an articulated lorry

3 an extract or series of extracts from a film, TV, or radio programme, used to advertise it

4 (US & Canad) same as caravan train vb

1 to instruct (someone) in a skill: soldiers are trained to obey orders unquestioningly

◇ SYNONYMS: instruct, school, prepare, coach, teach, guide, educate, drill

2 to learn the skills needed to do a particular job or activity: she was training to be a computer programmer

3 to do exercises and prepare for a specific purpose: he was training for a marathon

◇ SYNONYMS: exercise, prepare, work out, practise, do exercise, get into shape

4 to focus on or aim at (something): the warship kept its guns trained on the trawler

◇ SYNONYMS: aim, point, level, position, direct, focus, sight, zero in

5 to discipline (an animal) to obey commands or perform tricks

6 to tie or prune (a plant) so that it grows in a particular way: he had trained the roses to grow up the wall

► n

7 a line of railway coaches or wagons coupled together and drawn by an engine

8 a sequence or series: following an earlier train of thought

◇ SYNONYMS: sequence, series, chain, string, set, cycle, trail, succession

9 the long back section of a dress that trails along the floor

10 in its train as a consequence: economic mismanagement brought unemployment and inflation in its train

11 in train actually happening or being done: the programme of reforms set in train by the new government

► adj

12 of or by a train: the long train journey North trainee n

1 a person undergoing training

► adj

2 (of a person) undergoing training: a trainee journalist trainer n

1 a person who coaches a person or team in a sport

◇ SYNONYMS: coach, manager, guide, adviser, tutor, instructor, counsellor, guru

2 a person who trains racehorses

3 an aircraft used for training pilots

4 (Brit) a flat-soled sports shoe of the style used by athletes when training traipse (informal) vb traipsing, traipsed

1 to walk heavily or tiredly

► n

2 a long or tiring walk trait n a characteristic feature or quality of a person or thing ◇ SYNONYMS: characteristic, feature, quality, attribute, quirk, peculiarity, mannerism, idiosyncrasy traitor n a person who betrays friends, country, a cause, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS: betrayer, deserter, turncoat, renegade, defector, Judas, quisling, apostate, fizgig (Austral slang)

- > traitorous adj
- > traitress fem n trajectory n, pl -ries the path described by an object moving in air or space, esp. the curved path of a projectile tram n an electrically driven public transport vehicle that runs on rails laid into the road and takes its power from an overhead cable tramlines pl n

- 1 the tracks on which a tram runs
- 2 the outer markings along the sides of a tennis or badminton court tramp vb

- 1 to walk long and far; hike
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: trudge, stump, toil, plod, traipse (informal)
- 2 to walk heavily or firmly across or through (a place): she tramped slowly up the beach
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: trudge, stump, toil, plod, traipse (informal)
- n
 - 3 a homeless person who travels about on foot, living by begging or doing casual work
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: vagrant, derelict, drifter, down-and-out, derro (Austral slang)
 - 4 a long hard walk; hike: we went for a long tramp over the downs
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: hike, march, trek, ramble, slog
 - 5 the sound of heavy regular footsteps: we could hear the tramp of the marching soldiers
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: tread, stamp, footstep, footfall
 - 6 a small cargo ship that does not run on a regular schedule
 - 7 (US & Canad & Austral & NZ derogatory, slang) a woman considered promiscuous trample vb -pling, -pled

- 1 Also: trample on to tread on and crush: three children were trampled to death when the crowd panicked and ran ◇ SYNONYMS: stamp, crush, squash, tread, flatten, run over, walk over

2 trample on to treat (a person or his or her rights or feelings) with disregard or contempt trampoline n

1 a tough canvas sheet suspended by springs or cords from a frame, which acrobats, gymnasts, etc., bounce on

► vb -lining, -lined

2 to exercise on a trampoline trance n

1 a hypnotic state resembling sleep in which a person is unable to move or act of his or her own will

◇ SYNONYMS: daze, dream, abstraction, rapture, reverie, stupor, unconsciousness

2 a dazed or stunned state

◇ SYNONYMS: daze, dream, abstraction, rapture, reverie, stupor, unconsciousness

tranche (trahnsh) n an instalment or portion, esp. of a loan or share issue: the new shares will be offered in four tranches around the world

tranquil adj calm, peaceful, or quiet > tranquilly adv

tranquillity or (US, sometimes) tranquility n a state of calmness or peace tranquillize or -lize or (US) tranquilize vb -lizing, -lized or -lising, -lised

1 to make or become calm or calmer

2 to give (someone) a drug to make them calm or calmer > tranquillization or -lisation or (US) tranquilization n > tranquillizing or -lising or (US) tranquilizing adj tranquillizer or -liser or (US) tranquilizer n a drug that calms someone experiencing anxiety, tension, etc.

trans adj short for transgender trans- prefix

1 across, beyond, crossing, or on the other side of: transnational

2 changing thoroughly: transliterate transact vb to do, conduct, or negotiate (a business deal) transaction n

1 something that is transacted, esp. a business deal

◇ SYNONYMS: deal (informal), negotiation, business, enterprise, bargain, undertaking

2 transactions the records of the proceedings of a society, etc.: an article on land use in the Niagara area taken from the 'Transactions of the Royal Canadian Institute'

transatlantic adj

1 on or from the other side of the Atlantic

2 crossing the Atlantic transceiver n a device which transmits and receives radio or electronic signals transcend vb

1 to go above or beyond what is expected or normal: a vital party issue that transcends traditional party loyalties

◇ SYNONYMS: surpass, exceed, go beyond, rise above, eclipse, excel, outstrip, outdo

2 to overcome or be superior to: to transcend all difficulties

◇ SYNONYMS: surpass, exceed, go beyond, rise above, eclipse, excel, outstrip, outdo transcendent adj

- 1 above or beyond what is expected or normal
- 2 (theol) (of God) having existence outside the created world
- > transcendence n

transcendental adj

- 1 above or beyond what is expected or normal
- 2 (philosophy) based on intuition or innate belief rather than experience
- 3 supernatural or mystical
- > transcendentally adv

transcendentalism n any system of philosophy that seeks to discover the nature of reality by examining the processes of thought rather than the things thought about, or that emphasizes intuition as a means to knowledge > transcendentalist n, adj transcribe vb -scribing, -scribed

- 1 to write, type, or print out (a text) fully from a speech or notes
- 2 to make an electrical recording of (a programme or speech) for a later broadcast
- 3 (music) to rewrite (a piece of music) for an instrument other than that originally intended
- > transcriber n

transcript n

- 1 a written, typed, or printed copy made by transcribing
- ◇ SYNONYMS: copy, record, manuscript, reproduction, duplicate, transcription
- 2 (chiefly US & Canad) an official record of a student's school progress transducer n any device, such as a microphone or electric motor, that converts one form of energy into another transept n either of the two shorter wings of a cross-shaped church transfer vb -ferring, -ferred

1 to change or move from one thing, person, place, etc., to another: he was transferred from prison to hospital

◇ SYNONYMS: move, transport, shift, relocate, transpose, change, download, upload

2 to move (money or property) from the control of one person or organization to that of another: the money has been transferred into your account

3 (of a football club) to sell or release (a player) to another club: he was transferred to Juventus for a world record fee

4 to move (a drawing or design) from one surface to another

► n

5 the act, process, or system of transferring, or the state of being transferred

◇ SYNONYMS: transference, move, handover, change, shift, transmission, translation, relocation

6 a person or thing that transfers or is transferred

7 a design or drawing that is transferred from one surface to another

8 the moving of (money or property) from the control of one person or organization to that of another > transferable or transferrable adj > transference n

transfer station n (NZ) a depot where rubbish is sorted for recycling transfiguration n a transfiguring or being transfigured transfigure vb -guring, -gured

1 to change or cause to change in appearance

2 to become or cause to become more exalted transfix vb -fixing, -fixed or -fixt

1 to make (someone) motionless, esp. with horror or shock: they stood transfixed and revolted by what they saw

2 to pierce (a person or animal) through with a pointed object: the Pharaoh is shown transfixing enemies with arrows from a moving chariot

transform vb

1 to change completely in form or function: the last forty years have seen the country transformed from a peasant economy to a major industrial power

◇ SYNONYMS: change, convert, alter, transmute

2 to change so as to make better or more attractive: most religions claim to be able to transform people's lives

◇ SYNONYMS: make over, remodel, revolutionize

3 to convert (one form of energy) to another

4 (maths) to change the form of (an equation, expression, etc.) without changing its value

5 to change (an alternating current or voltage) using a transformer transformation n

1 a change or alteration, esp. a radical one

◇ SYNONYMS: revolution, sea change

2 the act of transforming or the state of being transformed

◇ SYNONYMS: revolution, sea change

3 (S African) a political slogan for demographic change in the power struggle transformer n a device that transfers an alternating current from one circuit to one or more other circuits, usually with a change of voltage transfuse vb -fusing, -fused

1 to inject (blood or other fluid) into a blood vessel

2 (literary) to transmit or instil transfusion n

1 the injection of blood, blood plasma, etc., into the blood vessels of a patient

2 the act of transferring something: a transfusion of new funds transgender adj having a gender identity that does not fully correspond to the gender assigned to one at birth transgress vb (formal)

1 to break (a law or rule)

2 to overstep (a limit): he had never before been known to transgress the very slowest of walks > transgression n

> transgressor n

transient adj

1 lasting for a short time only: she had a number of transient relationships with fellow students

2 (of a person) not remaining in a place for a long time: the transient population of the inner city

► n

3 a transient person or thing > transience n

transistor n

1 a semiconductor device used to amplify and control electric currents

2 (informal) a small portable radio containing transistors transit n

1 the moving or carrying of goods or people from one place to another

◇ SYNONYMS: movement, transfer, transport, passage, crossing, transportation, carriage, conveyance

2 a route or means of transport: transit by road

3 (astron) the apparent passage of a celestial body across the meridian

4 in transit while travelling or being taken from one place to another: in transit the fruit can be damaged

► adj

5 indicating a place or building where people wait or goods are kept between different stages of a journey: a transit lounge for passengers who are changing planes

transition n

1 the process of changing from one state or stage to another: the transition from dictatorship to democracy

◇ SYNONYMS: change, passing, development, shift, conversion, alteration, progression, metamorphosis

2 (music) a movement from one key to another

► vb

3 to change from one state or stage to another

4 to undergo a process of changing from one gender to another > transitional adj

transitive adj (grammar) denoting a verb that requires a direct object: 'to find' is a transitive verb

transitory adj lasting only for a short time translate vb -lating, -lated

1

A to change (something spoken or written in one language) into another

◇ SYNONYMS: render, put, change, convert, interpret, decode, construe (old-fashioned), paraphrase

B to be capable of being changed from one language into another: puns do not translate well

2 to express (something) in a different way, for instance by using a different measurement system or less technical language: the temperature is 30° Celsius, or if we translate into Fahrenheit, 86°

3 to transform or convert, for instance by putting an idea into practice: cheap crops translate into lower feed prices

4 to interpret the significance of (a gesture, action, etc.): I gave him what I hoped would be translated as a thoughtful look

5 to act as a translator: I had to translate for a party of visiting Greeks > translatable adj > translator n

translation n

1 a piece of writing or speech that has been translated into another language

◇ SYNONYMS: interpretation, version, rendering, rendition, decoding, paraphrase

2 the act of translating something

3 the expression of something in a different way or form: the book's plot was radically altered during its translation to film

4 (maths) a transformation in which the origin of a coordinate system is moved to another position so that each axis retains the same direction

> translational adj

transliterate vb -rating, -rated to write or spell (a word, etc.) into corresponding letters of another alphabet > transliteration n

translucent adj allowing light to pass through, but not transparent > translucency or translucence n transmigrate vb -grating, -grated (of a soul) to pass from one body into another at death > transmigration n transmission n

1 the sending or passing of something, such as a message or disease from one place or person to another

◇ SYNONYMS: transfer, spread, spreading, passing on, circulation, dispatch, relaying, mediation

2 something that is transmitted, esp. a radio or television broadcast

◇ SYNONYMS: programme, broadcast, show, production, telecast, podcast

3 a system of shafts and gears that transmits power from the engine to the driving wheels of a motor vehicle transmit vb -mitting, -mitted

1 to pass (something, such as a message or disease) from one place or person to another

◇ SYNONYMS: pass on, carry, spread, send, bear, transfer, hand on, convey

2

A to send out (signals) by means of radio waves

◇ SYNONYMS: broadcast, televise, relay, air, radio, send out, disseminate, beam out, stream, podcast

B to broadcast (a radio or television programme)

◇ SYNONYMS: broadcast, televise, relay, air, radio, send out, disseminate, beam out, stream, podcast

3 to allow the passage of (particles, energy, etc.): water transmits sound better than air

4 to transfer (a force, motion, etc.) from one part of a mechanical system to another: the chain of the bike transmits the motion of the pedals to the rear wheel

> transmittable adj

transmitter n

1 a piece of equipment used for broadcasting radio or television programmes

2 a person or thing that transmits something transmogrify vb -fies, -fying, -fied (humorous) to change or transform (someone or something) into a different shape or appearance, esp. a grotesque or bizarre one > transmogrification n

transmute vb -muting, -muted to change the form or nature of: self-contempt is transmuted into hatred of others > transmutation n

transom n

1 a horizontal bar across a window

2 a horizontal bar that separates a door from a window over it transparency n, pl -cies

1 the state of being transparent

2 a positive photograph on transparent film, usually mounted in a frame or between glass plates, which can be viewed with the use of a slide projector transparent adj

1 able to be seen through; clear

◇ SYNONYMS: clear, sheer, see-through, lucid, translucent, crystalline, limpid, diaphanous

2 easy to understand or recognize; obvious: transparent honesty

◇ SYNONYMS: obvious, plain, patent, evident, explicit, manifest, recognizable, unambiguous > transparently adv

transpire vb -spiring, -spired

1 to come to light; become known

2 (not standard) to happen or occur

3 (physiol) to give off (water or vapour) through the pores of the skin, etc.

4 (of plants) to lose (water vapour) through the stomata > transpiration n transplant vb

1 (surgery) to transfer (an organ or tissue) from one part of the body or from one person to another

◇ SYNONYMS: implant, transfer, graft

2 to remove or transfer (esp. a plant) from one place to another ◇ SYNONYMS: transfer, take, bring, carry, remove, transport, shift, convey

► n

3 (surgery)

A the procedure involved in transferring an organ or tissue

B the organ or tissue transplanted > transplantation n

transport vb

1 to carry or move (people or goods) from one place to another, esp. over some distance

◇ SYNONYMS: convey, take, move, bring, send, carry, bear, transfer

2 (history) to exile (a criminal) to a penal colony

◇ SYNONYMS: exile, banish, deport

3 to have a strong emotional effect on: transported by joy

◇ SYNONYMS: enrapture, move, delight, entrance, enchant, captivate, ravish

► n

4 the business or system of transporting goods or people: public transport

◇ SYNONYMS: vehicle, transportation, conveyance (old-fashioned)

5 (Brit) freight vehicles generally

6 a vehicle used to transport troops

7 a transporting or being transported

◇ SYNONYMS: transference, carrying, delivery, distribution, transportation, shipment, freight, haulage

8 ecstasy or rapture: transports of delight

◇ SYNONYMS: ecstasy, delight, heaven (informal), bliss, euphoria, rapture, enchantment, ravishment > transportable adj

transportation n

1 a means or system of transporting

2 the act of transporting or the state of being transported

3 (history) deportation to a penal colony transporter n a large vehicle used for carrying cars from the factory to garages for sale transpose vb -posing, -posed

1 to change the order of (letters, words, or sentences)

2 (music) to play (notes, music, etc.) in a different key

3 (maths) to move (a term) from one side of an equation to the other with a corresponding reversal in sign: transposing 3 in $x - 3 = 6$ gives $x = 6 + 3$

> transposition n

transsexual or transexual n

1 a person who believes that his or her true identity is of the opposite sex

2 a person who has had medical treatment to alter his or her sexual characteristics to those of the opposite sex transubstantiation n (Christianity) the doctrine that the bread and wine consecrated in Communion changes into the substance of Christ's body and blood transuranic (tranz-yoor-ran-ik) adj (chem) (of an element) having an atomic number greater than that of uranium transverse adj crossing from side to side: the transverse arches in the main hall of the college

transvestite n a person, esp. a man, who seeks sexual pleasure from wearing clothes of the opposite sex > transvestism n

trap n

1 a device or hole in which something, esp. an animal, is caught: a fox trap

◇ SYNONYMS: snare, net, gin, pitfall, noose

2 a plan for tricking a person into being caught unawares

◇ SYNONYMS: trick, set-up (informal), deception, ploy, ruse, trickery, subterfuge, stratagem

3 a situation from which it is difficult to escape: caught in the poverty trap

4 a bend in a pipe that contains standing water to prevent the passage of gases

5 a boxlike stall in which greyhounds are enclosed before the start of a race

6 a device that hurls clay pigeons into the air to be fired at 7 See trap door

8 a light two-wheeled carriage: a pony and trap

9 (Brit & Austral & NZ slang) the mouth: shut your trap!

► vb trapping, trapped

10 to catch (an animal) in a trap

◇ SYNONYMS: catch, snare, ensnare, entrap, take, corner, bag, lay hold of 11 to catch (someone) by a trick: the police trapped the drug dealers by posing as potential customers

◇ SYNONYMS: capture, catch, arrest, seize, take, secure, collar (informal), apprehend

12 to hold or confine in an unpleasant situation from which it is difficult to escape: trapped in the rubble of collapsed buildings

trap door n a hinged door in a ceiling, floor, or stage trap-door spider n a spider that builds a silk-lined hole in the ground closed by a hinged door of earth and silk trapeze n a horizontal bar suspended from two ropes, used by circus acrobats trapezium n, pl -ziums or -zia

1 a quadrilateral having two parallel sides of unequal length

2 (chiefly US & Canad) a quadrilateral having neither pair of sides parallel > trapezial adj

trapezoid (trap-piz-zoid) n

1 a quadrilateral having neither pair of sides parallel

2 (US & Canad) same as trapezium trapper n a person who traps animals, esp. for their furs or skins trappings pl n

1 the accessories that symbolize a condition, office, etc.: the trappings of power

2 a ceremonial harness for a horse or other animal

Trappist n a member of an order of Christian monks who follow a rule of strict silence trash n

1 foolish ideas or talk; nonsense

◇ SYNONYMS: nonsense, rubbish, rot, drivel, twaddle, tripe (informal), moonshine, hogwash (informal), kak (S African vulgar, slang), bizzo (Austral slang), bull's wool (Austral & NZ slang)

2 (US & Canad & NZ & S African) unwanted objects; rubbish

◇ SYNONYMS: litter, refuse, waste, rubbish, junk (informal), garbage (chiefly US), dross

3 (chiefly US & Canad & NZ) a worthless person or group of people

► vb

4 (slang) to attack or destroy maliciously: we've never trashed a hotel room

> trashy adj

trauma (traw-ma) n

1 (psychol) an emotional shock that may have long-lasting effects

◇ SYNONYMS: shock, suffering, pain, torture, ordeal, anguish

2 (pathol) any bodily injury or wound

◇ SYNONYMS: injury, damage, hurt, wound, agony > traumatic adj

> traumatically adv

> traumatize or -ise vb

travail n (literary) painful or exceptionally hard work travel vb -elling, -elled (US) -eling, -eled

1 to go or move from one place to another

◇ SYNONYMS: go, journey, move, tour, progress, wander, trek, voyage

2 to go or journey through or across (an area, region, etc.): Margaret travelled widely when she was in New Zealand

◇ SYNONYMS: go, journey, move, tour, progress, wander, trek, voyage

3 to go at a specified speed or for a specified distance: the car was travelling at 30 mph

4 to go from place to place as a salesperson

5 (of perishable goods) to withstand a journey: not all wines travel well

6 (of light or sound) to be transmitted or carried from one place to another: sound travels a long distance in these conditions

7 (of a machine or part) to move in a fixed path

8 (informal) (of a vehicle) to move rapidly

► n

9 the act or a means of travelling: air travel has changed the way people live

10 a tour or journey: his travels took him to Dublin

◇ SYNONYMS: journey, wandering, expedition, globetrotting, tour, trip, voyage, excursion

11 the distance moved by a mechanical part, such as the stroke of a piston traveller or (US) traveler n

1 a person who travels, esp. habitually

◇ SYNONYMS: voyager, tourist, explorer, globetrotter, holiday-maker, wayfarer

2 a travelling salesman or saleswoman

3 a member of a people with a nomadic lifestyle travelogue or (US) travelog n a film or lecture on travels and travelling traverse vb -versing, -versed

1 to move over or back and forth over; cross: he once traversed San Francisco harbour in a balloon

2 to reach across

3 to walk, climb, or ski diagonally up or down a slope

► n

4 something being or lying across, such as a crossbar

5 the act or an instance of traversing or crossing

6 a path or road across

► adj

7 being or lying across > traversal n

travesty n, pl -ties

1 a grotesque imitation or mockery: a travesty of justice

► vb -ties, -tying, -tied

2 to make or be a travesty of trawl n

1 a large net, usually in the shape of a sock or bag, dragged at deep levels behind a fishing boat

► vb

2 to fish using such a net trawler n a ship used for trawling tray n

1 a flat board of wood, plastic, or metal, usually with a rim, on which things can be carried

2 an open receptacle for office correspondence treacherous adj

1 disloyal and untrustworthy: he was cruel, treacherous, and unscrupulous

2 unreliable or dangerous, esp. because of sudden changes: the tides here can be very treacherous > treacherously adv

treachery n, pl -eries the act or an instance of wilful betrayal treacle n a thick dark syrup obtained during the refining of sugar > treachly adj

tread vb treading, trod, trodden or trod

1 to set one's foot down on or in something: he trod on some dog's dirt

◇ SYNONYMS: step, walk, march, pace, stamp, stride, hike

2 to crush or squash by treading (on): treading on a biscuit

3 to walk along (a path or road)

◇ SYNONYMS: step, walk, march, pace, stamp, stride, hike

4 tread carefully or warily to proceed in a delicate or tactful manner

5 tread water to stay afloat in an upright position by moving the legs in a walking motion

► n

6 a way of walking or the sound of walking: he walked, with a heavy tread, up the stairs

◇ SYNONYMS: step, walk, pace, stride, footstep, gait, footfall

7 the top surface of a step in a staircase

8 the pattern of grooves in the outer surface of a tyre that helps it grip the road

9 the part of a shoe that is generally in contact with the ground treadle (tred-dl) n a lever operated by the foot to turn a wheel treadmill n

1 (formerly) an apparatus turned by the weight of men or animals climbing steps on a revolving cylinder or wheel

2 a dreary routine: they are chained to the treadmill of a job

3 an exercise machine that consists of a continuous moving belt on which to walk or jog treason n

1 betrayal of one's sovereign or country, esp. by attempting to overthrow the government

◇ SYNONYMS: disloyalty, mutiny, treachery, duplicity, sedition, perfidy (literary), lese-majesty, traitorousness

2 any treachery or betrayal

◇ SYNONYMS: disloyalty, mutiny, treachery, duplicity, sedition, perfidy (literary), lese-majesty, traitorousness

> reasonable adj

> treasonous adj

treasure n

1 a collection of wealth, esp. in the form of money, precious metals, or gems

◇ SYNONYMS: riches, money, gold, fortune, wealth, valuables, jewels, cash

2 a valuable painting, ornament, or other object: the museum has many art treasures

3 (informal) a person who is highly valued: she can turn her hand to anything, she's a perfect treasure

◇ SYNONYMS: angel, darling, jewel, gem, paragon, nonpareil

► vb -suring, -sured

4 to cherish (someone or something)

◇ SYNONYMS: prize, value, esteem, adore, cherish, revere, hold dear, love treasurer n a person appointed to look after the funds of a society or other organization treasure-trove n (law) any articles, such as coins or valuable objects found hidden and without any evidence of ownership treasury n, pl -uries

1 a storage place for treasure

◇ SYNONYMS: storehouse, bank, store, vault, hoard, cache, repository

2 the revenues or funds of a government or organization

Treasury n (in various countries) the government department in charge of finance treat vb

1 to deal with or regard in a certain manner: they treat each other abominably

◇ SYNONYMS: behave towards, deal with, handle, act towards, use, consider, serve, manage

2 to attempt to cure or lessen the symptoms of (an illness or injury or a person experiencing it): the drug is prescribed to treat asthma

◇ SYNONYMS: take care of, minister to, attend to, give medical treatment to, doctor (informal), nurse, care for, prescribe medicine for

3 to subject to a chemical or industrial process: the wood should be treated with a preservative

4 to provide (someone) with something as a treat: I'll treat you to an ice cream

◇ SYNONYMS: provide, stand (informal), entertain, lay on, regale

5 treat of to deal with (something) in writing or speaking: this book treats of a most abstruse subject

► n

6 a celebration, entertainment, gift, or meal given for or to someone and paid for by someone else

◇ SYNONYMS: entertainment, party, surprise, gift, celebration, feast, outing, excursion

7 any delightful surprise or specially pleasant occasion

◇ SYNONYMS: pleasure, delight, joy, thrill, satisfaction, enjoyment, source of pleasure, fun > treatable adj

treatise (treat-izz) n a formal piece of writing that deals systematically with a particular subject treatment n

1 the medical or surgical care given to a patient

◇ SYNONYMS: cure, remedy, medication, medicine

2 a way of handling a person or thing: the party has had unfair treatment in the press

◇ SYNONYMS: handling, dealings with, behaviour towards, conduct towards, management, manipulation, action towards treaty n, pl -ties

1 a formal written agreement between two or more states, such as an alliance or trade arrangement: the Treaty of Rome established the Common Market

◇ SYNONYMS: agreement, pact, contract, alliance, convention, compact, covenant, entente

2 an agreement between two parties concerning the purchase of property

◇ SYNONYMS: agreement, pact, contract, alliance, convention, compact, covenant, entente

treble adj

1 three times as much or as many

2 of or denoting a soprano voice or part or a high-pitched instrument

3 of the highest range of musical notes: these loudspeakers give excellent treble reproduction

► n

4 a soprano voice or part or a high-pitched instrument

► vb -bling, -bled

5 to make or become three times as much or as many: sales have trebled in three years

> trebly adv

tree n

1 any large woody perennial plant with a distinct trunk and usually having leaves and branches. RELATED ADJECTIVE: arboreal

2 at the top of the tree in the highest position of a profession > treeless adj tree kangaroo n a tree-living kangaroo of New Guinea and N Australia tree surgery n the treatment of damaged trees by filling cavities, applying braces, etc.

> tree surgeon n

trefoil (tref-foil) n

1 a plant, such as clover, with leaves divided into three smaller leaves

2 (archit) a carved ornament with a shape like such leaves > trefoiled adj

trek n

1 a long and often difficult journey, esp. on foot

◇ SYNONYMS: journey, hike, expedition, safari, march, odyssey

2 (S African) a journey or stage of a journey, esp. a migration by ox wagon

► vb trekking, trekked

3 to make a trek

◇ SYNONYMS: trudge, traipse (informal), footslog, slog trellis n a frame made of vertical and horizontal strips of wood, esp. one used to support climbing plants > trelliswork n

tremble vb -bling, -bled

1 to shake with short slight movements: her hands trembled uncontrollably; he felt the ground trembling beneath him

◇ SYNONYMS: vibrate, shake, quake, wobble

2 to experience fear or anxiety: his parents trembled with apprehension about his future

3 (of the voice) to sound uncertain or unsteady, for instance through pain or emotion

◇ SYNONYMS: vibrate, shake, quake, wobble

► n

4 the act or an instance of trembling

◇ SYNONYMS: shake, shiver, quake (informal), shudder, wobble, tremor, quiver, vibration > trembling adj

tremendous adj

1 very large or impressive: a tremendous amount of money

◇ SYNONYMS: huge, great, enormous, terrific, formidable, immense, gigantic, colossal

2 very exciting or unusual: a tremendous feeling of elation

3 very good or pleasing: my wife has given me tremendous support

◇ SYNONYMS: excellent, great, wonderful, brilliant, amazing, extraordinary, fantastic, marvellous, booshit (Austral slang), exo (Austral slang), sik (Austral slang), rad (informal), phat (slang), schmick (Austral informal) > tremendously adv

tremolo n, pl -los (music)

1 (in playing the violin or other stringed instrument) the rapid repetition of a note or notes to produce a trembling effect

2 (in singing) a fluctuation in pitch tremor n

1 an involuntary shudder or vibration: the slight tremor of excitement

2 a minor earthquake tremulous adj (literary) trembling, as from fear or excitement: I managed a tremulous smile

> tremulously adv

trench n

1 a long narrow ditch in the ground, such as one for laying a pipe in

◇ SYNONYMS: ditch, channel, drain, gutter, trough, furrow, excavation

2 a long deep ditch used by soldiers for protection in a war: my grandfather fought in the trenches in the First World War

◇ SYNONYMS: ditch, channel, drain, gutter, trough, furrow, excavation

► adj

3 of or involving military trenches: trench warfare

trenchant adj

1 keen or incisive: a trenchant screenplay

2 vigorous and effective: the prime minister's trenchant adoption of this issue > trenchancy n

trench coat n a belted raincoat similar in style to a military officer's coat trencher n (history) a wooden board on which food was served or cut trencherman n, pl -men a person who enjoys food; hearty eater trend n

1 general tendency or direction: a trend towards flexible working hours

◇ SYNONYMS: tendency, swing, drift, inclination, current, direction, flow, leaning

2 fashionable style: she set a trend for wearing lingerie as outer garments

◇ SYNONYMS: fashion, craze, fad (informal), mode, thing, style, rage, vogue

► vb

3 to take a certain trend

4 to be widely discussed on a social media site trendy (informal) adj trendier, trendiest

1 consciously fashionable: a flat in Glasgow's trendy West End

◇ SYNONYMS: fashionable, with it (old-fashioned, informal), stylish, in fashion, in vogue, modish, voguish, schmick (Austral informal), funky

► n, pl trendies

2 a trendy person: a media trendy > trendily adv

> trendiness n

trepidation n (formal) a state of fear or anxiety trespass vb

1 to go onto somebody else's property without permission

► n

2 the act or an instance of trespassing

3 (old-fashioned) a sin or wrongdoing > trespasser n

trespass on or trespass upon vb (formal) to take unfair advantage of (someone's friendship, patience, etc.): I won't trespass upon your hospitality any longer tresses pl n a woman's long flowing hair trestle n

1 a support for one end of a table or beam, consisting of two rectangular frameworks or sets of legs which are joined at the top but not the bottom

2 Also called: trestle table a table consisting of a board supported by a trestle at each end trevally (trih-val-lee) n, pl -lies (Austral & NZ) any of various food and game fishes trews pl n (chiefly Brit) close-fitting trousers of tartan cloth tri- combining form

1 three or thrice: trilingual

2 occurring every three: triweekly triad n

1 a group of three

2 (music) a three-note chord consisting of a note and the third and fifth above it > triadic adj

Triad n a Chinese secret society involved in criminal activities, such as drug trafficking trial n

1 (law) an investigation of a case in front of a judge to decide whether a person is innocent or guilty of a crime by questioning him or her and considering the evidence

◇ SYNONYMS: hearing, case, court case, inquiry, tribunal, lawsuit, appeal, litigation

2 the act or an instance of trying or proving; test or experiment: the new drug is undergoing clinical trials

◇ SYNONYMS: test, experiment, evaluation, audition, dry run (informal), assessment, probation, appraisal

3 an annoying or frustrating person or thing: young children can be a great trial at times

4 a motorcycling competition in which the skills of the riders are tested over rough ground

5 trials a sporting competition for individual people or animals: horse trials

6 on trial

A undergoing trial, esp. before a court of law

B being tested, for example before a commitment to purchase: I only have the car out on trial

► adj

7 on a temporary basis while being tried out or tested: a trial run

► vb trialling, trialled

8 to test or make experimental use of: the idea has been trialled in several schools triangle n

1 a geometric figure with three sides and three angles

2 any object shaped like a triangle: a triangle of streets running up from the river

3 (music) a percussion instrument that consists of a metal bar bent into a triangular shape, played by striking it with a metal stick

4 any situation involving three people or points of view: a torrid sex triangle > triangular adj

tribalism n loyalty to a tribe, esp. as opposed to a modern political entity such as a state tribe n

1 a group of families or clans believed to have a common ancestor

◇ SYNONYMS: race, people, family, clan, hapu (NZ), iwi (NZ)

2 (informal) a group of people who do the same type of thing: a tribe of German yachtsmen

> tribal adj tribulation n great distress: the tribulations of a deserted wife tribunal n

1 a special court or committee that is appointed to deal with a particular problem: an industrial tribunal investigating allegations of unfair dismissal

◇ SYNONYMS: hearing, court, trial

2 a court of justice

◇ SYNONYMS: hearing, court, trial

tribune n

1 a person who upholds public rights

2 (in ancient Rome) an officer elected by the plebs to protect their interests tributary n, pl -taries

1 a stream or river that flows into a larger one: Frankfurt lies on the River Main, a tributary of the Rhine

2 a person, nation, or people that pays tribute

► adj

3 (of a stream or river) flowing into a larger stream

4 paying tribute: Egypt was formerly a tributary province of the Turkish Empire tribute n

1 something given, done, or said as a mark of respect or admiration

◇ SYNONYMS: accolade, testimonial, eulogy, recognition, compliment, commendation, panegyric

2 a payment by one ruler or state to another, usually as an acknowledgment of submission

3 something that shows the merits of a particular quality of a person or thing: the car's low fuel consumption is a tribute to the quality of its engine

tribute band n a rock or pop group that plays the music and copies the style of another, much more famous, group trice n in a trice in a moment: she was back in a trice triceps n, pl -ceps the muscle at the back of the upper arm trichology (trick-ol-a-jee) n the branch of medicine concerned with the hair and its diseases > trichologist n

trick n

1 a deceitful or cunning action or plan: she was willing to use any dirty trick to get what she wanted

◇ SYNONYMS: deception, trap, fraud, manoeuvre, ploy, hoax, swindle, ruse, fastie (Austral slang)

2 a joke or prank: he loves playing tricks on his sister

◇ SYNONYMS: joke, stunt, spoof (informal), prank, practical joke, antic, jape, leg-pull (Brit informal)

3 a clever way of doing something, learned from experience: an old campers' trick is to use three thin blankets rather than one thick one

◇ SYNONYMS: secret, skill, knack, hang (informal), technique, know-how (informal)

4 an illusory or magical feat or device

◇ SYNONYMS: sleight of hand, stunt, legerdemain

5 a simple feat learned by an animal or person

6 a deceptive illusion: a trick of the light

7 a habit or mannerism: she had a trick of saying 'oh dear'

◇ SYNONYMS: mannerism, habit, characteristic, trait, quirk, peculiarity, foible, idiosyncrasy

8 (cards) a batch of cards played in turn and won by the person playing the highest card

9 do the trick (informal) to produce the desired result

10 how's tricks? (slang) how are you?

► vb

11 to defraud, deceive, or cheat (someone)

◇ SYNONYMS: deceive, trap, take someone in (informal), fool, cheat, con (informal), kid (informal), mislead, scam (slang) > trickery n

trickle vb -ling, -led

1 to flow or cause to flow in a thin stream or drops: tears trickled down her cheeks

◇ SYNONYMS: dribble, run, drop, stream, drip, ooze, seep, exude

2 to move slowly or in small groups: voters trickled to the polls

► n

3 a thin, irregular, or slow flow of something: a trickle of blood

◇ SYNONYMS: dribble, drip, seepage, thin stream trickster n a person who deceives or plays tricks tricky adj trickier, trickiest

1 involving snags or difficulties: a tricky task

◇ SYNONYMS: difficult, sensitive, complicated, delicate, risky, hairy (informal), problematic, thorny

2 needing careful handling: a tricky situation

◇ SYNONYMS: difficult, sensitive, complicated, delicate, risky, hairy (informal), problematic, thorny

3 sly or wily: a tricky customer

◇ SYNONYMS: crafty, scheming, cunning, slippery, sly, devious, wily, artful > trickily adv

> trickiness n

tricolour or (US) tricolor (trick-kol-lor) n a flag with three equal stripes in different colours, esp. the French or Irish national flags tricycle n a three-wheeled cycle > tricyclist n

trident n a three-pronged spear triennial adj occurring every three years > triennially adv

trifle¹ n

1 a thing of little or no value or significance

◇ SYNONYMS: knick-knack, toy, plaything, bauble, bagatelle

2 (Brit & Austral & NZ) a cold dessert made of sponge cake spread with jam or fruit, soaked in sherry, covered with custard and cream

3 a trifle to a small extent or degree; slightly: he is a trifle eccentric trifle² vb trifling, trifled > trifle with to treat (a person or his or her feelings) with disdain or disregard trifling adj insignificant, petty, or frivolous: a trifling misunderstanding

◇ SYNONYMS: insignificant, trivial, worthless, negligible, unimportant, paltry, measly trigger n

1 a small lever that releases a catch on a gun or machine

2 any event that sets a course of action in motion: his murder was the trigger for a night of rioting

► vb

3 Also: trigger off to set (an action or process) in motion: various factors can trigger off a migraine

◇ SYNONYMS: bring about, start, cause, produce, generate, prompt, provoke, set off trigger-happy adj (informal) too ready or willing to use guns or violence: trigger-happy border guards trigonometry n the branch of mathematics concerned with the relations of sides and angles of triangles, which is used in surveying, navigation, etc.

trike n (informal) a tricycle trilateral adj having three sides trilby n, pl -bies a man's soft felt hat with an indented crown trill n

- 1 (music) a rapid alternation between a note and the note above it
- 2 a shrill warbling sound made by some birds: the canary's high trills
▶ vb
- 3 (of a bird) to make a shrill warbling sound
- 4 (of a person) to talk or laugh in a high-pitched musical voice trillion n -lions or -lion

- 1 the number represented as one followed by twelve zeros (10^{12}); a million million
- 2 (in Britain, originally) the number represented as one followed by eighteen zeros (10^{18}); a million million million
▶ adj
- 3 amounting to a trillion: a trillion dollars > trillionth n, adj trilobite (trile-oh-bite) n a small prehistoric marine arthropod, found as a fossil trilogy (trill-a-jee) n, pl -gies a series of three books, plays, etc., which form a related group but are each complete works in themselves trim adj trimmer, trimmest

- 1 neat and spruce in appearance: trim lace curtains ◇ SYNONYMS: neat, smart, tidy, spruce, dapper, natty (informal), well-groomed, shipshape
- 2 attractively slim: his body was trim and athletic ◇ SYNONYMS: slender, fit, slim, sleek, streamlined, shapely, svelte, willowy ▶ vb trimming, trimmed
- 3 to make (something) neater by cutting it slightly without changing its basic shape: his white beard was neatly trimmed ◇ SYNONYMS: cut, crop, clip, shave, tidy, prune, pare, even up
- 4 to adorn or decorate (something, such as a garment) with lace, ribbons, etc.:

a cotton camisole neatly trimmed with lace

◇ SYNONYMS: decorate, dress, array, adorn, ornament, embellish, deck out, beautify

5

A to adjust the balance of (a ship or aircraft) by shifting cargo, etc.

B to adjust (a ship's sails) to take advantage of the wind

6 to reduce or lower the size of: the company has trimmed its pretax profits forecast by $2.3 million

7 to alter (a plan or policy) by removing parts which seem unnecessary or unpopular: the government would rather trim its policies than lose the election

8 trim off or away to cut so as to remove: trim off most of the fat before cooking the meat

► n

9 a decoration or adornment: a black suit with scarlet trim

◇ SYNONYMS: decoration, edging, border, piping, trimming, frill, embellishment, adornment

10 the upholstery and decorative facings of a car's interior

11 good physical condition: he had always kept himself in trim

◇ SYNONYMS: condition, health, shape (informal), fitness, wellness, fettle

12 a haircut that neatens but does not alter the existing hairstyle

◇ SYNONYMS: cut, crop, clipping, shave, pruning, shearing, tidying up trimaran (trime-a-ran) n a boat with one smaller hull on each side of the main hull trimming n

1 an extra piece added to a garment for decoration: a pink nightie with lace trimming

◇ SYNONYMS: decoration, edging, border, piping, frill, embellishment, adornment, ornamentation

2 trimmings usual or traditional accompaniments: bacon and eggs with all the trimmings

◇ SYNONYMS: extras, accessories, ornaments, accompaniments, frills, trappings, paraphernalia trinitrotoluene n the full name for TNT trinity n, pl -ties a group of three people or things

◇ SYNONYMS: threesome, trio, triad, triumvirate

Trinity n (Christianity) the union of three persons, the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, in one God trinket n a small or worthless ornament or piece of jewellery trio n, pl trios

1 a group of three people or things

◇ SYNONYMS: threesome, trinity, trilogy, triad, triumvirate

2 a group of three instrumentalists or singers

3 a piece of music for three performers trip n

1 a journey to a place and back, esp. for pleasure: they took a coach trip round the island

◇ SYNONYMS: journey, outing, excursion, day out, run, drive, tour, spin (informal)

2 a false step; stumble

◇ SYNONYMS: stumble, fall, slip, misstep

3 the act of causing someone to stumble or fall by catching his or her foot with one's own

4 (informal) a hallucinogenic drug experience

5 a catch on a mechanism that acts as a switch

► vb tripping, tripped

6 Also: trip up to stumble or cause (someone) to stumble

◇ SYNONYMS: stumble, fall, fall over, slip, tumble, topple, stagger, misstep

7 Also: trip up to trap or catch (someone) in a mistake

◇ SYNONYMS trip someone up: catch out, trap, wrongfoot

8 to walk lightly and quickly, with a dancelike motion: I could see Amelia tripping along beside him

◇ SYNONYMS: skip, dance, hop, gambol

9 (informal) to experience the effects of a hallucinogenic drug tripe n

- 1 the stomach lining of a cow or pig used as a food
- 2 (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) nonsense or rubbish triple adj

- 1 made up of three parts or things: a triple murder ◇ SYNONYMS: three-way, threefold, tripartite
 - 2 (of musical time or rhythm) having three beats in each bar
 - 3 three times as great or as much: a triple brandy ◇ SYNONYMS: treble, three times
- vb -pling, -pled
- 4 to make or become three times as much or as many: the company has tripled its sales over the past five years
◇ SYNONYMS: treble, increase threefold
- n
- 5 something that is, or contains, three times as much as normal
 - 6 a group of three
- > triply adv

triple jump n an athletic event in which the competitor has to perform a hop, a step, and a jump in a continuous movement

triplet n

- 1 one of three children born at one birth
- 2 a group of three musical notes played in the time that two would normally take
- 3 a group or set of three similar things triplicate adj

- 1 triple
- vb -cating, -cated
- 2 to multiply or be multiplied by three
- n
- 3 in triplicate written out three times: my request to interview the commander had to be made in triplicate

> triplication n

tripod (tripe-pod) n

- 1 a three-legged stand to which a camera can be attached to hold it steady
- 2 a three-legged stool, table, etc.

tripos (tripe-poss) n (Brit) the final honours degree examinations at Cambridge University tripper n (chiefly Brit) a tourist triptych (trip-tick) n a set of three pictures or panels, usually hinged together and often used as an altarpiece trite adj (of a remark or idea) commonplace and unoriginal tritium n a radioactive isotope of hydrogen. SYMBOL: T, ³H triumph n

- 1 the feeling of great happiness resulting from a victory or major achievement

◇ SYNONYMS: joy, pride, happiness, rejoicing, elation, jubilation, exultation

- 2 an outstanding success, achievement, or victory: the concert was a musical triumph

◇ SYNONYMS: success, victory, accomplishment, achievement, coup, feat, conquest, attainment

- 3 (in ancient Rome) a procession held in honour of a victorious general

► vb

- 4 to gain control or success: triumphing over adversity

◇ SYNONYMS: succeed, win, overcome, prevail, prosper, vanquish (literary)

- 5 to rejoice over a victory

◇ SYNONYMS: rejoice, celebrate, glory, revel, gloat, exult, crow > triumphal adj

triumphant adj

1 feeling or displaying triumph: her smile was triumphant

◇ SYNONYMS: victorious, winning, successful, conquering

2 celebrating a victory or success: the general's triumphant tour round the city

◇ SYNONYMS: celebratory, jubilant, proud, elated, exultant, cock-a-hoop (old-fashioned) > triumphantly adv

triumvirate (try-umm-vir-rit) n

1 a group of three people in joint control of something: the triumvirate of great orchestras which dominates classical music in Europe

2 (in ancient Rome) a board of three officials jointly responsible for some task trivet (triv-vit) n

- 1 a three-legged stand for holding a pot, kettle, etc., over a fire
- 2 a short metal stand on which hot dishes are placed on a table trivia n petty and unimportant things or details trivial adj of little importance: a trivial matter

◇ SYNONYMS: unimportant, small, minor, petty, meaningless, worthless, trifling, insignificant > triviality n

> trivially adv

trivialize or -lize vb -lizing, -lized or -lising, -lised to make (something) seem less important or complex than it is trod vb the past tense and a past participle of tread trodden vb a past participle of tread troglodyte n a person who lives in a cave troika n

- 1 a Russian coach or sleigh drawn by three horses abreast
- 2 a group of three people in authority: a troika of European foreign ministers

Trojan adj

- 1 of ancient Troy or its people

► n

- 2 a person from ancient Troy

3 a hard-working person

Trojan Horse n

1 (Greek myth) the huge wooden hollow figure of a horse used by the Greeks to enter Troy

2 a trap or trick intended to undermine an enemy troll¹ n (in Scandinavian folklore) a supernatural dwarf or giant that dwells in a cave or mountain troll² vb

1 to post deliberately provocative messages on an internet discussion board

► n

2 a person who posts deliberately provocative messages on an internet discussion board trolley n

1 a small table on casters used for carrying food or drink

2 a wheeled cart or stand used for moving heavy items, such as shopping in a supermarket or luggage at a railway station

3 (Brit) See trolley bus

4 a device, such as a wheel that collects the current from an overhead wire, to drive the motor of an electric vehicle

5 (Brit & Austral) a low truck running on rails, used in factories, mines, etc.

trolley bus n a bus powered by electricity from two overhead wires but not running on rails trollop n (derogatory) a woman who is considered promiscuous or slovenly trombone n a brass musical instrument with a sliding tube which is moved in or out to alter the note played > trombonist n

troop n

1 a large group: a troop of dogs

◇ SYNONYMS: group, company, team, body, unit, band, crowd, squad

2 troops soldiers: troops have been maintaining an unusually high profile

◇ SYNONYMS: soldiers, men, armed forces, service personnel, army, soldiery

3 a subdivision of a cavalry or armoured regiment

4 a large group of Scouts made up of several patrols

► vb

5 to move in a crowd: we trooped into the room after her

◇ SYNONYMS: flock, march, stream, swarm, throng, traipse (informal)

6 (military, chiefly Brit & Austral) to parade (a flag or banner) ceremonially: trooping the colour

trooper n

1 a soldier in a cavalry regiment

2 (US & Austral) a mounted police officer

3 (US) a state police officer

4 a cavalry horse

5 (informal, chiefly Brit) a troopship trope n

1 a word or expression used in a figurative sense

2 a recurring theme or idea trophy n, pl -phies

1 a cup, shield, etc., given as a prize

◇ SYNONYMS: prize, cup, award, laurels

2 a memento of success, esp. one taken in war or hunting: stuffed animal heads and other hunting trophies

◇ SYNONYMS: souvenir, spoils, relic, memento, booty, keepsake

► adj

3 (informal) regarded as a highly desirable symbol of wealth or success: a trophy wife

tropic n

1 either of the lines of latitude at about $23\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}\text{N}$ (tropic of Cancer) and $23\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}\text{S}$ (tropic of Capricorn) of the equator

2 the tropics that part of the earth's surface between the tropics of Cancer and Capricorn: the intense heat and humidity of the tropics

tropical adj belonging to, typical of, or located in, the tropics: tropical rainforests

◇ SYNONYMS: hot, stifling, steamy, torrid, sultry, sweltering > tropically adv

trot vb trotting, trotted

1 (of a horse) to move in a manner faster than a walk but slower than a gallop, in which diagonally opposite legs come down together

2 (of a person) to move fairly quickly, with small quick steps

◇ SYNONYMS: run, jog, scamper, lope, canter

► n

3 a medium-paced gait of a horse, in which diagonally opposite legs come down together

4 a steady brisk pace

◇ SYNONYMS: run, jog, lope, canter

5 on the trot (informal) one after the other: ten years on the trot

6 the trots (slang) diarrhoea troth (rhymes with growth) n (archaic)

1 a pledge of fidelity, esp. a betrothal

2 in troth truly trot out vb (informal) to repeat (old information or ideas) without fresh thought: the government trots out the same excuse every time

trotter n

1 the foot of a pig

2 a horse that is specially trained to trot fast troubadour (troo-bad-oor) n a travelling poet and singer in S France or N Italy from the 11th to the 13th century who wrote chiefly on courtly love trouble n

1 difficulties or problems: I'd trouble finding somewhere to park

◇ SYNONYMS: bother, problems, concern, worry, stress, difficulty, anxiety, distress

2 a cause of distress, disturbance, or pain: we must be sensitive to the troubles of other people

◇ SYNONYMS: distress, problem, worry, pain, anxiety, grief, torment, sorrow

3 disease or a problem with one's health: ear trouble

◇ SYNONYMS: ailment, disease, failure, complaint, illness, disorder, defect, malfunction

4 a state of disorder, ill-feeling, or unrest: the police had orders to intervene at the first sign of trouble

◇ SYNONYMS: disorder, fighting, conflict, bother, unrest, disturbance, to-do (informal), furore, biff (Austral slang), boilover (Austral)

5 effort or exertion to do something: they didn't even take the trouble to see the film before banning it

◇ SYNONYMS: effort, work, thought, care, labour, pains, hassle (informal), inconvenience

6 a personal weakness or cause of annoyance: his trouble is that he's constitutionally jealous

7 in trouble

A likely to be punished for something one has done: in trouble with the public prosecutor

B (old-fashioned) pregnant when not married

8 more trouble than it's worth involving a lot of time or effort for very little reward: making your own pasta is more trouble than it's worth

► vb -bling, -bled

9 to cause trouble to ◇ SYNONYMS: bother, worry, upset, disturb, distress, plague, pain, sadden

10 to make an effort or exert oneself: he dismissed the letters as forgeries without troubling to examine them

◇ SYNONYMS: take pains, take the time, make an effort, exert yourself

11 to cause inconvenience or discomfort to: sorry to trouble you!

◇ SYNONYMS: inconvenience, disturb, burden, put out, impose upon, incommode > troubled adj

troubleshooter n a person employed to locate and deal with faults or problems > troubleshooting n, adj troublesome adj causing trouble

◇ SYNONYMS: disorderly, violent, turbulent, rebellious, unruly, rowdy, undisciplined, uncooperative trough (troff) n

1 a long open container, esp. one for animals' food or water

◇ SYNONYMS: manger, water trough

2 a narrow channel between two waves or ridges

3 a low point in a pattern that has regular high and low points: the trough of the slump in pupil numbers was in 1985

4 (meteorol) a long narrow area of low pressure

5 a narrow channel or gutter trounce vb trouncing, trounced to defeat (someone) utterly troupe (troop) n a company of actors or other performers trouper n

1 a member of a troupe

2 an experienced person: Bette plays a showbiz trouper

trouser adj

1 of or relating to trousers: trouser legs

► vb

2 (Brit slang) to take (something, esp. money), often surreptitiously or unlawfully trousers pl n a garment that covers the body from the waist to the ankles or knees with a separate tube-shaped section for each leg trousseau (troo-so) n, pl -seaux (-so) the clothes, linen, and other possessions collected by a bride for her marriage trout n, pl trout or trouts any of various game fishes related to the salmon and found chiefly in fresh water in northern regions

trowel n

1 a hand tool resembling a small spade with a curved blade, used by gardeners for lifting plants, etc.

2 a similar tool with a flat metal blade, used for spreading cement or plaster on a surface troy weight or troy n a system of weights used for precious metals and gemstones in which one pound equals twelve ounces truant n

1 a pupil who stays away from school without permission

2 play truant to stay away from school without permission

► adj

3 being or relating to a truant: a truant schoolkid > truancy n

truce n a temporary agreement to stop fighting or quarrelling ◇ SYNONYMS: ceasefire, peace, moratorium, respite, lull, cessation, let-up (informal), armistice truck¹ n

- 1 (Brit) a railway wagon for carrying freight
- 2 a large motor vehicle for transporting heavy loads
- 3 any wheeled vehicle used to move goods
- vb
- 4 (chiefly US) to transport goods in a truck

truck² n

- 1 (history) the payment of wages in goods rather than in money
- 2 have no truck with to refuse to be involved with: the opposition will have no truck with the planned cut in pensions

trucker n a long-distance lorry driver truculent (truck-yew-lent) adj defiantly aggressive or bad-tempered

- > truculence n
- > truculently adv

trudge vb trudging, trudged

- 1 to walk or plod heavily or wearily
- n
- 2 a long tiring walk

true adj truer, truest

- 1 in accordance with the truth or facts; factual: not all of the stories about her are true
- ◇ SYNONYMS: correct, right, accurate, precise, factual, truthful, veracious
- 2 real or genuine: he didn't want to reveal his true feelings
- ◇ SYNONYMS: actual, real, genuine, proper, authentic, dinkum (Austral & NZ informal), dinky-di (Austral & NZ informal)
- 3 faithful and loyal: a true friend
- ◇ SYNONYMS: faithful, loyal, devoted, dedicated, steady, reliable, staunch, trustworthy
- 4 accurate or precise: he looked through the telescopic sight until he was convinced his aim was true

◇ SYNONYMS: exact, perfect, accurate, precise, spot-on (Brit informal), on target, unerring

5 (of a compass bearing) according to the earth's geographical rather than magnetic poles: true north

6 come true to actually happen: fortunately his gloomy prediction didn't come true

► n

7 in or out of true in or not in correct alignment

► adv

8 truthfully or rightly: I'd like to move to Edinburgh, true, but I'd need to get a job there first truffle n

1 a round fungus which grows underground and is regarded as a delicacy

2 Also called: rum truffle a sweet flavoured with chocolate or rum trug n (Brit) a long shallow basket for carrying garden tools, flowers, etc. truism n a statement that is clearly true and well known truly adv

1 in a true, just, or faithful manner

◇ SYNONYMS: faithfully, steadily, sincerely, staunchly, dutifully, loyally, devotedly

2 really: a truly awful poem

◇ SYNONYMS: genuinely, correctly, truthfully, rightly, precisely, exactly, legitimately, authentically trump¹ vb

1 (cards) to beat a card by playing a card which belongs to a suit which outranks it

2 to outdo or surpass: she trumped his news by announcing that she had been picked for the Olympic team trump² n (archaic, literary)

1 a trumpet or the sound produced by one

2 the last trump the final trumpet call on the Day of Judgment trumpet n

1 a valved brass musical instrument consisting of a narrow tube ending in a flare

◇ SYNONYMS: horn, clarion, bugle

2 a loud sound such as that of a trumpet: the elephant gave a loud trumpet

3 blow one's own trumpet to boast about one's own skills or good qualities

► vb -peting, -peted

4 to proclaim or state forcefully: almost every one of the party's loudly trumpeted election claims is untrue

◇ SYNONYMS: proclaim, advertise, tout (informal), announce, broadcast, shout from the rooftops

5 (of an elephant) to make a loud cry > trumpeter n

truncate vb -cating, -cated to shorten by cutting > truncated adj

> truncation n

truncheon n (chiefly Brit) a small club, esp one carried by a police officer trundle vb -dling, -dled to move heavily on or as if on wheels: a bus trundled along the drive

trunk n

1 the main stem of a tree

◇ SYNONYMS: stem, stalk, bole

2 a large strong case or box used to contain clothes when travelling and for storage

◇ SYNONYMS: chest, case, box, crate, coffer, casket

3 a person's body excluding the head, neck, and limbs; torso

◇ SYNONYMS: body, torso

4 the long nose of an elephant ◇ SYNONYMS: snout, nose, proboscis

5 (US) the boot of a car trunk call n (chiefly Brit & Austral) a long-distance telephone call trunk road n (Brit) a main road, esp. one maintained by the central government truss vb

1 to tie or bind (someone) up

2 to bind the wings and legs of (a fowl) before cooking

► n

3 (med) a device for holding a hernia in place

4 a framework of wood or metal used to support a roof, bridge, etc.

5 a cluster of flowers or fruit growing at the end of a single stalk trust vb

1 to believe that (someone) is honest and means no harm: my father warned me never to trust strangers

◇ SYNONYMS: believe in, have faith in, depend on, count on, bank on, rely upon

2 to feel that (something) is safe and reliable: I don't trust those new gadgets

◇ SYNONYMS: believe in, have faith in, depend on, count on, bank on, rely upon

3 to entrust (someone) with important information or valuables: she's not somebody I would trust with this sort of secret

◇ SYNONYMS: entrust, commit, assign, confide (formal), consign, put into the hands of, allow to look after, hand over

4 to believe that (someone) is likely to do something safely and reliably: I wouldn't trust anyone else to look after my child properly

◇ SYNONYMS: believe in, have faith in, depend on, count on, bank on, rely upon

5 to believe (a story, account, etc.)

◇ SYNONYMS: believe in, have faith in, depend on, count on, bank on, rely upon

6 to expect, hope, or suppose: I trust you've made your brother welcome here

◇ SYNONYMS: expect, hope, suppose, assume, presume, surmise

► n

7 confidence in the truth, worth, reliability, etc., of a person or thing; faith: he knew that his father had great trust in him

◇ SYNONYMS: confidence, credit, belief, faith, expectation, conviction, assurance, certainty

8 the obligation of someone in a responsible position: he was in a position of trust as her substitute father

9

A a legal arrangement whereby one person looks after property, money, etc., on another's behalf

B property that is the subject of such an arrangement

10 (in England and Wales) a self-governing hospital, group of hospitals, or other body that operates as an independent commercial unit within the National Health Service

11 (chiefly US & Canad) a group of companies joined together to control the market for any commodity

► adj

12 of or relating to a trust or trusts: trust status trustee n

1 a person who administers property on someone else's behalf

2 a member of a board that manages the affairs of an institution or organization trustful or trusting adj characterized by a readiness to trust others

◇ SYNONYMS: unsuspecting, naive, gullible, unwary, credulous, unsuspicious > trustfully or trustingly adv

trustworthy adj (of a person) honest, reliable, or dependable trusty adj trustier, trustiest

1 faithful or reliable: his trusty steed

► n, pl trusties

2 a trustworthy convict to whom special privileges are granted truth n

1 the quality of being true, genuine, or factual: there is no truth in the allegations

◇ SYNONYMS: truthfulness, fact, accuracy, precision, validity, legitimacy, veracity, genuineness

2 something that is true: he finally learned the truth about his parents' marriage

3 a proven or verified fact, principle, etc.: some profound truths about biology have come to light truthful adj

1 telling the truth; honest

2 true; based on facts: a truthful answer > truthfully adv

> truthfulness n

try vb tries, trying, tried

1 to make an effort or attempt: you must try to understand

◇ SYNONYMS: attempt, seek, aim, strive, struggle, endeavour, have a go, make an effort

2 to sample or test (something) to see how enjoyable, good, or useful it is: I tried smoking once but didn't like it

◇ SYNONYMS: experiment with, try out, put to the test, test, taste, examine, investigate, sample

3 to put strain or stress on (someone's patience)

4 to give pain, affliction, or vexation to: sometimes when I've been sorely tried, my temper gets a little out of hand

5

A to investigate (a case) in a court of law

B to hear evidence in order to determine the guilt or innocence of (a person)

► n, pl tries

6 an attempt or effort

◇ SYNONYMS: attempt, go (informal), shot (informal), effort, crack (informal), stab (informal), bash (informal), whack (informal)

7 (rugby) a score made by placing the ball down behind the opposing team's goal line trying adj upsetting, difficult, or annoying

◇ SYNONYMS: annoying, hard, taxing, difficult, tough, stressful, exasperating, tiresome tryst n (archaic, or literary)

1 an arrangement to meet, esp. secretly

2 a meeting, esp. a secret one with a lover, or the place where such a meeting takes place

Ts tennessine

tsar or czar (zahr) n (until 1917) the emperor of Russia. Also: tzar > tsarist or czarist n tsetse fly or tzetze fly (tset-see) n a bloodsucking African fly whose bite transmits disease, esp. sleeping sickness

T-shirt or tee-shirt n a short-sleeved casual shirt or top tsp. teaspoon

T-square n a T-shaped ruler used for drawing horizontal lines and to support set squares when drawing vertical and inclined lines

tsunami n a large, often destructive, sea wave, usually caused by an earthquake under the sea

TT

- 1 teetotal
- 2 teetotaller
- 3 tuberculin-tested tuatara (too-ah-tah-rah) n a large lizard-like New Zealand reptile tub n

- 1 a low wide, usually round container
- 2 a small plastic or cardboard container for ice cream, etc.
- 3 (chiefly US) same as bath
- 4 Also called: tubful the amount a tub will hold
- 5 a slow and uncomfortable boat or ship tuba (tube-a) n a low-pitched brass musical instrument with valves tubby adj -bier, -biest (of a person) fat and short > tubbiness n

tube n

- 1 a long hollow cylindrical object, used for the passage of fluids or as a container
 - 2 a flexible cylinder of soft metal or plastic closed with a cap, used to hold substances such as toothpaste
 - 3 (anatomy) any hollow cylindrical structure: the Fallopian tubes
 - 4 the Tube (Brit, trademark) the underground railway system in London
 - 5 (slang, chiefly US) a television set
- > tubeless adj

tuber (tube-er) n a fleshy underground root of a plant such as a potato tubercle (tube-er-kl) n

1 a small rounded swelling

2 any abnormal hard swelling, esp. one characteristic of tuberculosis tubercular (tube-berk-yew-lar) or tuberculous adj

1 of or symptomatic of tuberculosis

2 of or relating to a tubercle tuberculin (tube-berk-yew-lin) n a sterile liquid prepared from cultures of the tubercle bacillus and used in the diagnosis of tuberculosis tuberculosis (tube-berk-yew-lohss-iss) n an infectious disease characterized by the formation of tubercles, esp. in the lungs tuberous (tube-er-uss) adj (of plants) forming, bearing, or resembling a tuber or tubers tubing (tube-ing) n

1 a length of tube

2 a system of tubes tubular (tube-yew-lar) adj

1 having the shape of a tube or tubes

2 of or relating to a tube or tubing

TUC (in Britain and South Africa) Trades Union Congress tuck vb

1 to push or fold into a small space or between two surfaces: she tucked the letter into her handbag

◇ SYNONYMS: push, stick, stuff, slip, ease, insert, pop (informal)

2 to thrust the loose ends or sides of (something) into a confining space, so as to make it neat and secure: he tucked his shirt back into his trousers

◇ SYNONYMS: push, stick, stuff, slip, ease, insert, pop (informal)

3 to make a tuck or tucks in (a garment)

► n

4 a pleat or fold in a part of a garment, usually stitched down

◇ SYNONYMS: fold, gather, pleat, pinch

5 (Brit informal) food, esp. cakes and sweets

◇ SYNONYMS: food, grub (slang), kai (NZ informal), nosh (slang) tuck away vb (informal)

1 to eat (a large amount of food)

2 to store (something) in a safe place: we knew he had some money tucked away somewhere

3 to have a quiet, rarely disturbed or visited location: the chapel is tucked away in a side street

tucker n

1 a detachable yoke of lace, linen, etc., formerly worn over the breast of a low-cut dress

2 (Austral & NZ informal) food

3 one's best bib and tucker (informal) one's best clothes

Tudor adj

1 of or in the reign of the English royal house ruling from 1485 to 1603

2 denoting a style of architecture characterized by half-timbered houses: a Tudor cottage

Tuesday n the third day of the week

tufa (tew-fa) n a porous rock formed of calcium carbonate deposited from springs tuffet n a small mound or low seat tuft n a bunch of feathers, grass, hair, threads, etc., held together at the base > tufted adj

> tufty adj

tug vb tugging, tugged

1 to pull or drag with a sharp or powerful movement: she tugged at my arm

◇ SYNONYMS: drag, pull, haul, tow, lug, heave, draw

2 to tow (a ship or boat) by means of a tug

► n

3 a strong pull or jerk

◇ SYNONYMS: pull, jerk, yank

4 Also called: tugboat a boat with a powerful engine, used for towing barges, ships, etc.

tuition n

1 instruction, esp. that received individually or in a small group

◇ SYNONYMS: training, schooling, education, teaching, lessons, instruction, tutoring, tutelage (formal)

2 the payment for instruction, esp. in colleges or universities tulip n

1 a plant which produces bright cup-shaped flowers in spring

2 the flower or bulb tulle (tewl) n a fine net fabric of silk, rayon, etc., used to make evening dresses tumble vb -bling, -bled

1 to fall or cause to fall, esp. awkwardly or violently: chairs tumbled over

◇ SYNONYMS: fall, drop, topple, plummet, stumble, flop

2 to roll or twist, esp. in playing: they rolled and tumbled as wild beasts

3 to decrease in value suddenly: interest rates tumbled

4 to move in a quick and uncontrolled manner: the crowd tumbled down the stairs

5 to disturb, rumple, or toss around: she was all tumbled by the fall

6 to perform leaps or somersaults

► n

7 a fall, esp. an awkward or violent one: he took a tumble down the stairs

◇ SYNONYMS: fall, drop, trip, plunge, spill (informal), stumble

8 a somersault > tumbled adj

tumbledown adj (of a building) falling to pieces; dilapidated tumble dryer or tumble drier n an electrically-operated machine that dries wet laundry by rotating it in warmed air inside a metal drum tumbler n

1

A a flat-bottomed drinking glass with no handle or stem

B the amount a tumbler will hold

2 a person who performs somersaults and other acrobatic feats

3 a part of the mechanism of a lock tumble to vb to understand or become aware of: how did he tumble to this?

tumbril n a farm cart that tilts backwards to empty its load, which was used to take condemned prisoners to the guillotine during the French Revolution

tumescant (tew-mess-ent) adj swollen or becoming swollen tummy n, pl -mies an informal or childish word for stomach tumour or (US) tumor (tew-mer) n (pathol)

A any abnormal swelling

B a mass of tissue formed by a new growth of cells ◇ SYNONYMS: growth, cancer, swelling, lump, carcinoma (pathol), sarcoma (med)

> tumorous adj

tumult (tew-mult) n

1 a loud confused noise, such as one produced by a crowd

2 a state of confusion and excitement: a tumult of emotions tumultuous (tew-mull-tew-uss) adj

1 exciting, confused, or turbulent: this week's tumultuous events

2 unruly, noisy, or excited: a tumultuous welcome tumulus (tew-myew-luss) n, pl -li (-lie) (archaeol, not in technical use) a burial mound tun n a large beer cask tuna (tune-a) n, pl -na or -nas

1 a large marine spiny-finned fish

2 the flesh of this fish, often tinned for food tundra n a vast treeless Arctic region with permanently frozen subsoil tune n

1 a melody, esp. one for which harmony is not essential

◇ SYNONYMS: melody, air, song, theme, strain(s), jingle, ditty, choon (slang)

2 the correct musical pitch: many of the notes are out of tune

◇ SYNONYMS: harmony, pitch, euphony

3 call the tune to be in control of the proceedings

4 change one's tune to alter one's attitude or tone of speech

5 in or out of tune with in or not in agreement or sympathy with: in tune with public opinion

6 to the tune of (informal) to the amount or extent of ► vb tuning, tuned

7 to adjust (a musical instrument) so each string, key, etc., produces the right note

◇ SYNONYMS: tune up, adjust

8 to make small adjustments to (an engine, machine, etc.) to obtain the proper or desired performance

◇ SYNONYMS: regulate, adapt, modulate, harmonize, attune, pitch

9 to adjust (a radio or television) to receive a particular station or programme: the radio was tuned to the local station

> tuner n

tuneful adj having a pleasant tune > tunefully adv

tune in vb

1 to adjust (a radio or television) to receive (a station or programme)

2 tuned in to (slang) aware of or knowledgeable about: tuned in to European cinema tuneless adj having no melody or tune tungsten n (chem) a hard greyish-white metallic element. SYMBOL: W tunic n

1 a close-fitting jacket forming part of some uniforms

2 a loose-fitting knee-length garment tunnel n

1 an underground passageway, esp. one for trains or cars

◇ SYNONYMS: passage, underpass, passageway, subway, channel, hole, shaft

2 any passage or channel through or under something: the carpal tunnel

◇ SYNONYMS: passage, underpass, passageway, subway, channel, hole, shaft

► vb -nelling, -nelled (US) -neling, -neled

3 to make one's way through or under (something) by digging a tunnel: ten men succeeded in tunnelling out of the prisoner-of-war camp

◇ SYNONYMS: dig, burrow, mine, bore, drill, excavate

4 to dig a tunnel (through or under something): the idea of tunnelling under the English Channel had been around for a long time

◇ SYNONYMS: dig, burrow, mine, bore, drill, excavate

tunny n, pl -nies or -ny same as tuna tup n (chiefly Brit) a male sheep turban n

1 a head-covering worn by a Muslim, Hindu, or Sikh man, consisting of a long piece of cloth wound round the head

2 any head-covering resembling this > turbaned adj

turbid adj (literary) (of water or air) full of mud or dirt, and frequently swirling around: the turbid stream of the Loire

> turbidity n

turbine n a machine in which power is produced by a stream of water, air, etc., that pushes the blades of a wheel and causes it to rotate turbot n, pl -bot or -bots a European flatfish, highly valued as a food fish turbulence n

1 a state or condition of confusion, movement, or agitation

2 (meteorol) instability in the atmosphere causing gusty air currents turbulent adj

1 involving a lot of sudden changes and conflicting elements: the city has had a turbulent history

2 (of people) wild and unruly: a harsh mountain land inhabited by a score of turbulent tribes

3 (of water or air) full of violent unpredictable currents: the turbulent ocean

◇ SYNONYMS: stormy, rough, raging, tempestuous, furious, foaming, agitated, tumultuous tureen n a large deep dish with a lid, used for serving soups turf n, pl turfs or turves

1 a layer of thick even grass with roots and soil attached: a short turf rich in wild flowers

◇ SYNONYMS: grass, sward

2 a piece cut from this layer: we spent the afternoon digging turves

◇ SYNONYMS: sod

3 (informal)

A the area where a person lives and feels at home: my boyhood turf of east Cork

B a person's area of knowledge or influence: when Kate is at work, she's on her own turf

4 the turf

A a track where horse races are run

B horse racing as a sport or industry

◇ SYNONYMS the turf: horse-racing, the flat, racing

5 same as peat

► vb

6 to cover (an area of ground) with pieces of turf turf accountant n (Brit) same as bookmaker turf out vb (informal) to throw (someone or something) out: the residents fear a new landlord might push up rents and turf them out of their homes

turgid (tur-jid) adj

1 (of language) pompous, boring, and hard to understand

2 (of water or mud) unpleasantly thick and brown > turgidity n

turkey n, pl -keys or -key

1 a large bird of North America bred for its meat

2 (informal, chiefly US & Canad) something, esp. a theatrical production, that fails

3 cold turkey (slang) a method of curing drug addiction by abrupt withdrawal of all doses

4 talk turkey (informal, chiefly US & Canad) to discuss, esp. business, frankly and practically

Turkish adj

1 of Turkey

► n

2 the language of Turkey

Turkish bath n

1 a type of bath in which the bather sweats freely in hot dry air, is then washed, often massaged, and has a cold plunge or shower

2 Turkish baths an establishment for such baths

Turkish delight n a jelly-like sweet flavoured with flower essences, usually cut into cubes and covered in icing sugar

turmeric n

1 a tropical Asian plant with yellow flowers and an aromatic underground stem

2 a yellow spice obtained from the root of this plant turmoil n disorder, agitation, or confusion: a period of political turmoil and uncertainty

◇ SYNONYMS: confusion, disorder, chaos, upheaval, disarray, uproar, agitation, commotion turn vb

1 to move to face in another direction

◇ SYNONYMS: change course, swing round, wheel round, veer, move, switch, shift, swerve

2 to rotate or move round

◇ SYNONYMS: rotate, spin, go round (and round), revolve, roll, circle, twist, spiral

3 to operate (a switch, key, etc.) by twisting it

4 to aim or point (something) in a particular direction: they turned their guns on the crowd

5 to change in course or direction: the van turned right into Victoria Road

6 (of a road, river, etc.) to have a bend or curve in it

7 to perform or do (something) with a rotating movement: a small boy was turning somersaults

8 to change so as to become: he turned pale

◇ SYNONYMS: change, transform, shape, convert, alter, mould, remodel, mutate

9 to reach, pass, or progress beyond in age, time, etc.: she had just turned fourteen

10 to find (a particular page) in a book: turn to page 78

11 to look at the other side of: turning the pages of a book

12 to shape (wood, metal, etc.) on a lathe

◇ SYNONYMS: shape, form, fashion, cast, frame, mould, make 13 (of leaves) to change colour in autumn

14 to make or become sour: the milk is starting to turn

◇ SYNONYMS: make rancid, spoil, sour, taint

15 to affect or be affected with nausea or giddiness: that would turn the strongest stomach

16 (of the tide) to start coming in or going out 17 turn against to stop liking (something or someone one previously liked):

people turned against her because she became so dictatorial

18 turn into to become or change into: my mother turned our house into four apartments

19 turn loose to set (an animal or a person) free

20 turn someone's head to affect someone mentally or emotionally

21 turn to

A to direct or apply (one's attention or thoughts) to

B to stop doing or using one thing and start doing or using (another): I turned to photography from writing

C to appeal or apply to (someone) for help, advice, etc.

► n

22 the act of turning

◇ SYNONYMS: change of direction, shift, departure, deviation

23 a movement of complete or partial rotation: a turn of the dial

24 a change of direction or position

◇ SYNONYMS: direction, course, tack, tendency, drift

25 same as turning

26 the right or opportunity to do something in an agreed order or succession: it was her turn to play next

◇ SYNONYMS: opportunity, go, time, try, chance, crack (informal), stint

27 a change in something that is happening or being done: events took an unhappy turn

◇ SYNONYMS: direction, course, tack, tendency, drift

28 a period of action, work, etc.

29 a short walk, ride, or excursion

30 natural inclination: a liberal turn of mind

31 distinctive form or style: she'd a nice turn of phrase

32 a deed that helps or hinders someone: I'm trying to do you a good turn

◇ SYNONYMS: deed, service, act, action, favour, gesture

33 a twist, bend, or distortion in shape

34 a slight attack of an illness: she's just having one of her turns

35 (music) a melodic ornament that alternates the main note with the notes above and below it, beginning with the note above, in a variety of sequences

36 a short theatrical act: tonight's star turn

37 (informal) a shock or surprise: you gave me rather a turn

38 done to a turn (informal) cooked perfectly

39 turn and turn about one after another; alternately

► See also turn down, turn in etc > turner n

turncoat n a person who deserts one cause or party to join an opposing one turn down vb

1 to reduce (the volume, brightness, or temperature of something): turn the heat down

◇ SYNONYMS turn something down: lower, soften, mute, lessen, muffle, quieten

2 to reject or refuse: the invitation was turned down

◇ SYNONYMS turn something down: refuse, decline, reject, spurn, rebuff, repudiate

3 to fold down (sheets, etc.) turn in vb (informal)

1 to go to bed for the night

2 to hand in: turning in my essay

◇ SYNONYMS turn something in: hand in, return, deliver, give up, hand over, submit, surrender, tender

3 to hand (a suspect or criminal) over to the police: his own brother turned him in turning n

1 a road, river, or path that turns off the main way

◇ SYNONYMS: bend, turn, curve

2 the point where such a way turns off

◇ SYNONYMS: turn-off, turn, junction, crossroads, side road, exit

3 the process of turning objects on a lathe turning point n a moment when a decisive change occurs ◇ SYNONYMS: crossroads, change, crisis, crux, moment of truth, tipping point turnip n a vegetable with a large yellow or white edible root turn off vb

1 to leave (a road or path): turning off the main road

2 (of a road or path) to lead away from (another road or path): a main street with alleys twisting and turning off it

3 to cause (something) to stop operating by turning a knob, pushing a button, etc.

◇ SYNONYMS turn something off: switch off, turn out, put out, stop, cut out, shut down, unplug, flick off

4 (informal) to cause disgust or disinterest in (someone): keeping kids from getting turned off by mathematics

► n turn-off

5 a road or other way branching off from the main thoroughfare

6 (informal) a person or thing that causes dislike turn on vb

1 to cause (something) to operate by turning a knob, pushing a button, etc.: turn on the radio, please

◇ SYNONYMS turn something on: switch on, activate, start, start up, ignite, kick-start

2 to attack (someone), esp. without warning: the Labrador turned on me

3 (informal) to produce suddenly or automatically: turning on that bland smile

4 (slang) to arouse emotionally or sexually

◇ SYNONYMS turn someone on: arouse, attract, excite, thrill, stimulate, please, titillate

5 to depend or hinge on: the match turned on a contentious decision

► n turn-on

6 (slang) a person or thing that causes emotional or sexual arousal turn out vb

1 to cause (something, esp. a light) to stop operating by moving a switch

2 to produce or create: turning out two hits a year

3 to force (someone) out of a place or position: turned out of office

4 to empty the contents of (something): the police ordered him to turn out his pockets

5 to be discovered or found (to be or do something): he turned out to be a Finn

6 to end up or result: how interesting to see how it all turned out!

7 to dress and groom: she is always very well turned out

8 to assemble or gather: crowds turned out to see him

9 turn out for (informal) to make an appearance, esp. in a sporting competition: he was asked to turn out for Liverpool

► n turnout

10 a number of people attending an event: there has been a high turnout of voters in elections in Bulgaria

◇ SYNONYMS: attendance, crowd, audience, gate, assembly, congregation, number, throng

11 the quantity or amount produced turn over vb

1 to change position, esp. so as to reverse top and bottom

2 to shift position, for instance by rolling onto one's side: he turned over and went straight to sleep

3 to consider carefully: as I walked, I turned her story over

4 to give (something) to someone who has a right to it or to the authorities: the police ordered him to turn over the files to them

5 (of an engine) to start or function correctly: when he pressed the starter button, the engine turned over at once

6 (slang) to rob: the house had been turned over while they were out

► n turnover

7

A the amount of business done by a company during a specified period

◇ SYNONYMS: output, business, productivity

B the rate at which stock in trade is sold and replenished

8 a small pastry case filled with fruit or jam: an apple turnover

9 the number of workers employed by a firm in a given period to replace those who have left

◇ SYNONYMS: movement, coming and going, change turnpike n

1 (history) a barrier across a road to prevent vehicles or pedestrians passing until a charge (toll) had been paid

2 (US) a motorway for use of which a toll is charged turnstile n a mechanical barrier with arms that are turned to admit one person at a time turntable n

- 1 the circular platform in a record player that rotates the record while it is being played
- 2 a circular platform used for turning locomotives and cars turn up vb

- 1 to arrive or appear: few people turned up ◇ SYNONYMS turn up: arrive, come, appear, show up (informal), attend, put in an appearance, show your face
 - 2 to find or discover or be found or discovered: a medical checkup has only turned up a sinus infection ◇ SYNONYMS turn something up: find, reveal, discover, expose, disclose, unearth, dig up
 - 3 to increase the flow, volume, etc., of: he turned up the radio ◇ SYNONYMS turn something up: increase, raise, boost, enhance, intensify, amplify
- n turn-up
- 4 (Brit) the turned-up fold at the bottom of some trouser legs
 - 5 a turn-up for the books (informal) an unexpected happening turpentine n

- 1 a strong-smelling colourless oil distilled from the resin of some coniferous trees, and used for thinning paint, for cleaning, and in medicine
- 2 a semisolid mixture of resin and oil obtained from various conifers, which is the main source of commercial turpentine
- 3 (not in technical use) any one of a number of thinners for paints and varnishes, consisting of fractions of petroleum

turps n short for turpentine turquoise adj

- 1 greenish-blue

► n

2 a greenish-blue precious stone turret n

1 a small tower that projects from the wall of a building, esp. a castle

2 (on a tank or warship) a rotating structure on which guns are mounted

3 (on a machine tool) a turret-like steel structure with tools projecting from it that can be rotated to bring each tool to bear on the work

> turreted adj

turtle n

1 an aquatic reptile with a flattened shell enclosing the body and flipper-like limbs adapted for swimming

2 turn turtle (of a boat) to capsize turtledove n an Old World dove noted for its soft cooing and devotion to its mate turtleneck n a round high close-fitting neck on a sweater or a sweater with such a neck tusk n a long pointed tooth in the elephant, walrus, and certain other mammals > tusked adj

tussle n

1 an energetic fight, struggle, or argument: she resigned following a protracted boardroom tussle

► vb -sling, -sled

2 to fight or struggle energetically tussock n a dense tuft of grass or other vegetation > tussocky adj

tutelage (tew-till-lij) n (formal)

- 1 instruction or guidance, esp. by a tutor
- 2 the state of being supervised by a guardian or tutor tutelary (tew-till-lar-ee) adj (literary)

- 1 having the role of guardian or protector
- 2 of a guardian

tutor n

- 1 a teacher, usually one instructing individual pupils
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: teacher, coach, instructor, educator, guide, guardian, lecturer, guru
- 2 (at a college or university) a member of staff responsible for the teaching and supervision of a certain number of students
 - vb
 - 3 to act as a tutor to (someone)
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: teach, educate, school, train, coach, guide, drill, instruct
 - > tutorship n

tutorial n

- 1 a period of intensive tuition given by a tutor to an individual student or to a small group of students
 - adj
 - 2 of or relating to a tutor tutu n a very short skirt worn by ballerinas, made of projecting layers of stiffened material tuxedo n, pl -dos a dinner jacket

TV television

twaddle n

1 silly, trivial, or pretentious talk or writing

► vb -dling, -dled

2 to talk or write in a silly or pretentious way twang n

1 a sharp ringing sound produced by or as if by the plucking of a taut string

2 a strongly nasal quality in a person's speech: a high-pitched Texas twang

► vb

3 to make or cause to make a twang: a bunch of angels twanging harps

> twangy adj

tweak vb

1 to twist or pinch with a sharp or sudden movement: she tweaked his ear

2 (informal) to make a minor alteration

► n

3 the act of tweaking

4 (informal) a minor alteration tweed n

1 a thick woollen cloth produced originally in Scotland

2 tweeds a suit made of tweed tweedy adj tweedier, tweediest

1 of, made of, or resembling tweed

2 showing a fondness for a hearty outdoor life, often associated with wearers of tweeds tweet n

1 an imitation of the thin chirping sound made by small birds

2 a short message posted on the Twitter website

► vb

3 to make this sound

4 to post a short message on the Twitter website

tweeter n a loudspeaker used in high-fidelity systems for the reproduction of high audio frequencies tweezers pl n a small pincer-like tool used for tasks such as handling small objects or plucking out hairs twelfth adj

1 of or being number twelve in a series

► n

2 number twelve in a series

3 one of twelve equal parts of something twelve n

1 the cardinal number that is the sum of ten and two

2 a numeral, 12 or XII, representing this number

3 something representing or consisting of twelve units

► adj

4 amounting to twelve: twelve months

twenty n, pl -ties

1 the cardinal number that is the product of ten and two

2 a numeral, 20 or XX, representing this number

3 something representing or consisting of twenty units

► adj

4 amounting to twenty: twenty minutes > twentieth adj, n

twenty-four-seven or 24/7 adv (informal) constantly or all the time:
consultants would no longer be available 24/7 twerp or twirp n (informal) a silly, stupid, or contemptible person twice adv

- 1 two times; on two occasions or in two cases: I've met her only twice
- 2 double in degree or quantity: twice as big twiddle vb -dling, -dled

- 1 to twirl or fiddle, often in an idle way: twiddling the knobs of a radio
- 2 twiddle one's thumbs
 - A to rotate one's thumbs around one another, when bored or impatient
 - B to be bored, with nothing to do
- n
- 3 an unnecessary decoration, esp. a curly one twig¹ n a small branch or shoot of a tree

- ◇ SYNONYMS: branch, stick, sprig, shoot, spray
- > twiggy adj

twig² vb twigging, twigged (informal) to realize or understand: I should have twigged it earlier

twilight n

- 1 the soft dim light that occurs when the sun is just below the horizon after sunset
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: half-light, gloom, dimness, semi-darkness
- 2 the period in which this light occurs: soon after twilight we started marching again
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: dusk, evening, sunset, early evening, nightfall, sundown, gloaming (Scot poetic), close of day, evo (Austral slang)
- 3 a period in which strength, importance, etc., is gradually declining: the twilight of his political career
- adj
- 4 of or relating to the period towards the end of the day: the twilight shift
- 5 of or being a period of decline: he spent most of his twilight years working on a history of France
- 6 denoting irregularity and obscurity: a twilight existence
- > twilit adj

twill n a fabric woven to produce an effect of parallel diagonal lines or ribs in the cloth

twin n

1 one of a pair of people or animals conceived at the same time

◇ SYNONYMS: double, counterpart, mate, match, fellow, clone, duplicate, lookalike

2 one of a pair of people or things that are identical or very similar

◇ SYNONYMS: double, counterpart, mate, match, fellow, clone, duplicate, lookalike

► vb twinning, twinned

3 to pair or be paired together

◇ SYNONYMS: pair, match, join, couple, link, yoke twine n

1 string or cord made by twisting fibres together

► vb twining, twined

2 to twist or wind together: she twined the flowers into a garland

3 twine round or around to twist or wind around: she twined her arms around her neck twinge n

1 a sudden brief darting or stabbing pain

2 a sharp emotional pang: a twinge of conscience twinkle vb -kling, -kled

1 to shine brightly and intermittently; sparkle

◇ SYNONYMS: sparkle, flash, shine, glitter, gleam, blink, flicker, shimmer

2 (of the eyes) to sparkle, esp. with amusement or delight

◇ SYNONYMS: sparkle, flash, shine, glitter, gleam, blink, flicker, shimmer

► n

3 a flickering brightness; sparkle

◇ SYNONYMS: sparkle, flash, spark, gleam, flicker, shimmer, glimmer twirl vb

- 1 to move around rapidly and repeatedly in a circle
- 2 to twist, wind, or twiddle, often idly: twirling the glass in her hand
- n
- 3 a whirl or twist
- 4 a written flourish twist vb

- 1 to turn one end or part while the other end or parts remain still or turn in the opposite direction: never twist or wring woollen garments
◇ SYNONYMS: coil, curl, wind, wrap, screw, twirl
- 2 to distort or be distorted ◇ SYNONYMS: distort, screw up, contort, mangle, mangle (Austral slang)
- 3 to wind or twine: the wire had been twisted twice ◇ SYNONYMS: intertwine
- 4 to force or be forced out of the natural form or position: I twisted my knee
- 5 to change the meaning of; distort: he'd twisted the truth to make himself look good
- 6 to revolve or rotate: he twisted the switch to turn the radio off
- 7 to wrench with a turning action: he twisted the wheel sharply
- 8 to follow a winding course: the road twisted as it climbed
- 9 to dance the twist
- 10 twist someone's arm to persuade or coerce someone
- n
- 11 the act of twisting: she gave a dainty little twist to her parasol
◇ SYNONYMS: wind, turn, spin, swivel, twirl
- 12 something formed by or as if by twisting: there's a twist in the cable
- 13 a decisive change of direction, aim, meaning, or character: the latest revelations give a new twist to the company's boardroom wranglings ◇ SYNONYMS: development, emphasis, variation, slant
- 14 an unexpected development in a story, play, or film ◇ SYNONYMS: surprise, change, turn (informal), development, revelation, reveal
- 15 a bend: a twist of the mountain road ◇ SYNONYMS: curve, turn, bend, loop, arc, kink, zigzag, dog-leg
- 16 a distortion of the original shape or form
- 17 a jerky pull, wrench, or turn
◇ SYNONYMS: wind, turn, spin, swivel, twirl

18 the twist a dance popular in the 1960s, in which dancers vigorously twist the hips

19 round the twist (slang) mad or eccentric > twisty adj

twisted adj (of a person) cruel or perverted twister n (Brit) a swindling or dishonest person twit¹ vb twitting, twitted (Brit) to poke fun at (someone) twit² n (informal) a foolish or stupid person twitch vb

1 (of a person or part of a person's body) to move in a jerky spasmodic way: his left eyelid twitched involuntarily

◇ SYNONYMS: jerk, flutter, jump, squirm

2 to pull (something) with a quick jerky movement: she twitched the curtains shut

◇ SYNONYMS: pull (at), tug (at), pluck (at), yank (at)

► n

3 a sharp jerking movement, esp. one caused by a nervous condition

◇ SYNONYMS: jerk, tic, spasm, jump, flutter twitter vb

1 (esp. of a bird) to utter a succession of chirping sounds

2 to talk rapidly and nervously in a high-pitched voice: novelists who twittered about how much they admired him

3 to post a short message on the Twitter website

► n

4 the act or sound of twittering

5 in a twitter in a state of nervous excitement > twitterer n

- > twittering n
- > twittery adj

Twitter n (trademark) a website where people can post short messages two n

- 1 the cardinal number that is the sum of one and one
- 2 a numeral, 2 or II, representing this number
- 3 something representing or consisting of two units
- 4 in two in or into two parts: cut the cake in two and take a bit each
- 5 put two and two together to reach an obvious conclusion by considering the evidence available
- 6 that makes two of us the same applies to me
- ▶ adj
- 7 amounting to two: two years

two-edged adj

- 1 (of a remark) having both a favourable and an unfavourable interpretation, such as she looks nice when she smiles
- 2 (of a knife, saw, etc.) having two cutting edges two-faced adj deceitful or hypocritical: he's a two-faced liar and opportunist two-time vb -timing, -timed (informal) to deceive (a lover) by having an affair with someone else

- > two-timer n

tycoon n a businessperson of great wealth and power

- ◇ SYNONYMS: magnate, capitalist, baron, industrialist, financier, fat cat (slang), mogul, plutocrat

tyke or tike n

- 1 (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) a small or cheeky child 2 (Brit dialect) a rough ill-mannered person type n

- 1 a kind, class, or category of things, all of which have something in common ◇ SYNONYMS: kind, sort, class, variety, group, order, style, species 2 a subdivision of a particular class; sort: it is more alcoholic than most wines of this type
◇ SYNONYMS: kind, sort, class, variety, group, order, style, species
3 the general characteristics distinguishing a particular group: the old-fashioned type of nanny
◇ SYNONYMS: kind, sort, class, variety, group, order, style, species 4 (informal) a person, esp. of a specified kind: a seagoing type 5 a block with a raised character on it used for printing 6 text printed from type; print ► vb typing, typed
7 to write using a typewriter or word processor 8 to be a symbol of or typify 9 to decide the type of; classify typecast vb -casting, -cast to cast (an actors) in the same kind of role continually typewriter n a machine which prints a letter or other character when the appropriate key is pressed typhoid fever n an acute infectious disease characterized by high fever, spots, abdominal pain, etc. It is spread by contaminated food or water typhoon n a violent tropical storm, esp. one in the China Seas or W Pacific typhus n an acute infectious disease transmitted by lice or mites and characterized by high fever, skin rash, and severe headache typical adj

1 being or serving as a representative example of a particular type; characteristic: a typical working day

◇ SYNONYMS: archetypal, standard, model, normal, stock, representative, usual, regular

2 considered to be an example of some undesirable trait: it was typical that he should start talking almost before he was inside the room

◇ SYNONYMS: characteristic > typically adv

typify vb -fies, -fying, -fied

1 to be typical of or characterize: the beers made here typify all that is best about the independent brewing sector

2 to symbolize or represent: a number of dissident intellectuals, typified by Andrei Sakharov typist n a person who types letters, reports, etc., esp. for a living typography n

1 the art or craft of printing

2 the style or quality of printing and layout in a book, magazine, etc.

> typographical adj

> typographically adv

tyrannical adj of or like a tyrant; unjust and oppressive tyrannize or -nise vb -nizing, -nized or -nising, -nised to rule or exercise power (over) in a cruel or oppressive manner: he dominated and tyrannized his younger brother tyrannosaurus (tirr-ran-oh-sore-uss) or tyrannosaur n a large two-footed flesh-eating dinosaur common in North America in Cretaceous times tyranny n, pl -nies

1

A government by a tyrant

B oppressive and unjust government by more than one person

◇ SYNONYMS: oppression, cruelty, dictatorship, authoritarianism, despotism, autocracy, absolutism, high-handedness

2 the condition or state of being dominated or controlled by something that makes unpleasant or harsh demands: the tyranny of fashion drives many people to diet

> tyrannous adj

tyrant n

1 a person who governs oppressively, unjustly, and arbitrarily

2 any person who exercises authority in a tyrannical manner: a domestic tyrant tyre or (US) tire n a ring of rubber, usually filled with air but sometimes solid, fitted round the rim of a wheel of a road vehicle to grip the road

Uu

ubiquitous (yew-bik-wit-uss) adj being or seeming to be everywhere at once ◇ SYNONYMS: ever-present, pervasive, omnipresent, everywhere, universal > ubiquity n

udder n the large baglike milk-producing gland of cows, sheep, or goats, with two or more teats

UEFA Union of European Football Associations

UFO unidentified flying object ugly adj uglier, ugliest

1 so unattractive as to be unpleasant to look at ◇ SYNONYMS: unattractive, homely (chiefly US), plain, unsightly, unlovely, unprepossessing, ill-favoured

2 very unpleasant and involving violence or aggression: an ugly incident in which one man was stabbed

◇ SYNONYMS: unpleasant, shocking, terrible (informal), nasty, distasteful, horrid (informal), objectionable, disagreeable

3 repulsive or displeasing: ugly rumours

◇ SYNONYMS: unpleasant, shocking, terrible (informal), nasty, distasteful, horrid (informal), objectionable, disagreeable

4 bad-tempered or sullen: an ugly mood

◇ SYNONYMS: bad-tempered, dangerous, menacing, sinister, baleful > ugliness n

UHF (radio) ultrahigh frequency

UHT ultra-heat-treated (milk or cream)

UK United Kingdom

ukulele or ukelele (yew-kal-lay-lee) n a small four-stringed guitar ulcer n an open sore on the surface of the skin or a mucous membrane

◇ SYNONYMS: sore, abscess, peptic ulcer, gumboil ulcerated adj made or becoming ulcerous > ulceration n

ulcerous adj of, like, or characterized by ulcers ulna n, pl -nae or -nas the inner and longer of the two bones of the human forearm or of the forelimb in other vertebrates > ulnar adj

ulterior (ult-ear-ee-or) adj (of an aim, reason, etc.) concealed or hidden: an ulterior motive ultimate adj

1 final in a series or process: predictions about the ultimate destination of modern art

◇ SYNONYMS: final, last, end

2 highest, supreme, or unchallengeable: he has the ultimate power to dismiss the Prime Minister

◇ SYNONYMS: supreme, highest, greatest, paramount, superlative

3 fundamental or essential: a believer in the ultimate goodness of people

4 most extreme: genocide is the ultimate abuse of human rights

◇ SYNONYMS: worst, greatest, utmost, extreme

5 final or total: she should be able to estimate the ultimate cost

► n

6 the ultimate in the best example of: the ultimate in luxury holidays

> ultimately adv

ultimatum (ult-im-may-tum) n a final warning to someone that they must agree to certain conditions or requirements, or else action will be taken against them: Britain declared war after the Nazis rejected the ultimatum to withdraw from Poland

ultra- prefix

1 beyond a specified extent, range, or limit: ultrasonic

2 extremely: ultraleftist ultrahigh frequency n a radio frequency between 3000 and 300 megahertz ultramarine n

1 a blue pigment originally made from lapis lazuli

► adj

2 vivid blue ultrasonic adj of or producing sound waves with higher frequencies than humans can hear > ultrasonically adv

ultrasound n ultrasonic waves, used in echo sounding, medical diagnosis, and therapy ultraviolet n

1 the part of the electromagnetic spectrum with wavelengths shorter than light but longer than X-rays

► adj

2 of or consisting of radiation lying in the ultraviolet: ultraviolet light ululate (yewl-yew-late) vb -lating, -lated (literary) to howl or wail > ululation n umber n

1 a type of dark brown earth containing ferric oxide (rust)

► adj

2 dark brown to reddish-brown umbilical (um-bill-ik-kl) adj of or like the navel or the umbilical cord umbilical cord n the long flexible cordlike structure that connects a fetus to the placenta umbrage n take umbrage to take offence umbrella n

1 a portable device used for protection against rain, consisting of a light canopy supported on a collapsible metal frame mounted on a central rod

2 a single organization, idea, etc., that contains or covers many different organizations or ideas

3 anything that has the effect of a protective screen or general cover: under the umbrella of the Helsinki security conference

► adj

4 containing or covering many different organizations, ideas, etc.: an umbrella group of nationalists and anti-communists > umbrella-like adj

umpire n

1 an official who ensures that the people taking part in a game follow the rules; referee

◇ SYNONYMS: referee, judge, arbiter, arbitrator, umpie (Austral slang)

► vb -piring, -pired

2 to act as umpire in a game

◇ SYNONYMS: referee, judge, adjudicate, arbitrate umpteen adj (informal) very many: the centre of umpteen scandals > umpteenth n, adj

UN United Nations

un⁻¹ prefix (freely used with adjectives, participles, and their derivative adverbs and nouns: less frequently used with certain other nouns) not; contrary to; opposite of: uncertain; untidiness; unbelief; untruth

un⁻² prefix

1 denoting reversal of an action or state: uncover; untie

2 denoting removal from, release, or deprivation: unharness unable adj unable to not having the power, ability, or authority to; not able to ◇ SYNONYMS: incapable, powerless, unfit, impotent, unqualified, ineffectual unaccountable adj

1 without any sensible explanation: for some unaccountable reason I got on the wrong bus

2 not having to justify or answer for one's actions to other people: the secret service remains unaccountable to the public

> unaccountably adv

unadulterated adj

1 completely pure, with nothing added: fresh unadulterated spring water

2 (of an emotion) not mixed with anything else: a look of unadulterated terror unanimous (yew-nan-im-uss) adj

1 in complete agreement

◇ SYNONYMS: agreed, united, in agreement, harmonious, like-minded, of the same mind

2 characterized by complete agreement: unanimous approval

◇ SYNONYMS: united, common, concerted, solid, consistent, harmonious, undivided, congruent > unanimity n

> unanimously adv

unannounced adv without warning: she turned up unannounced unarmed adj

1 not carrying any weapons: they were shooting unarmed peasants

◇ SYNONYMS: defenceless, helpless, unprotected

2 not using any weapons: unarmed combat unassailable adj not able to be destroyed or overcome: an unassailable lead unassuming adj modest or unpretentious unaware adj

1 not aware or conscious: unaware of my surroundings

◇ SYNONYMS: ignorant, unconscious, oblivious, uninformed, unknowing, not in the loop (informal)

► adv

2 (not standard) same as unawares unawares adv

1 by surprise: death had taken him unawares

2 without knowing: had he passed her, all unawares?

unbalanced adj

1 lacking balance

2 mentally disturbed

3 biased; one-sided: his unbalanced summing-up unbearable adj not able to be endured ◇ SYNONYMS: intolerable, insufferable, too much (informal), unacceptable > unbearably adv

unbeknown adv (foll. by to) without the knowledge of (a person): unbeknown to her family she had acquired modern ways Also (esp. Brit): unbeknownst

unbend vb -bending, -bent to become less strict or more informal in one's attitudes or behaviour unbending adj rigid or inflexible: an unbending routine unbidden adj (literary) not ordered or asked; voluntary or spontaneous: unbidden thoughts came into Catherine's mind

unborn adj not yet born

◇ SYNONYMS: expected, awaited, embryonic unbosom vb to relieve oneself of secrets or feelings by telling someone unbridled adj (of feelings or behaviour) not restrained or controlled in any way: unbridled passion unburden vb to relieve one's mind or oneself of a worry or trouble by telling someone about it uncalled-for adj unnecessary or unwarranted: uncalled-for comments uncanny adj

- 1 weird or mysterious: an uncanny silence
- 2 beyond what is normal: an uncanny eye for detail
- > uncannily adv
- > uncanniness n

unceremonious adj

- 1 relaxed and informal: she greeted him with unceremonious friendliness
- 2 abrupt or rude: the answer was an unceremonious 'no'
- > unceremoniously adv

uncertain adj

- 1 not able to be accurately known or predicted: an uncertain future
- 2 not definitely decided: they are uncertain about the date
- ◇ SYNONYMS: unsure, undecided, vague, unclear, dubious, hazy, irresolute
- 3 not to be depended upon: an uncertain career
- 4 changeable: an uncertain sky
- > uncertainty n

unchristian or un-Christian adj not in accordance with Christian principles uncle n

- 1 a brother of one's father or mother
- 2 the husband of one's aunt
- 3 a child's term of address for a male friend of its parents
- 4 (slang) a pawnbroker unclean adj lacking moral, spiritual, or physical cleanliness uncomfortable adj

- 1 not physically relaxed: he was forced to sit in an uncomfortable cross-

legged position

2 not comfortable to be in or use: an uncomfortable chair

◇ SYNONYMS: painful, awkward, rough

3 causing discomfort or unease: the uncomfortable truth

◇ SYNONYMS: uneasy, troubled, disturbed, embarrassed, awkward, discomfited > uncomfortably adv

uncommon adj

1 not happening or encountered often

◇ SYNONYMS: rare, unusual, odd, novel, strange, peculiar, scarce, queer (old-fashioned)

2 in excess of what is normal: an uncommon amount of powder

◇ SYNONYMS: extraordinary, remarkable, special, outstanding, distinctive, exceptional, notable uncommonly adv

1 in an unusual manner or degree

2 extremely: an uncommonly good humour uncompromising adj not prepared to compromise; inflexible

◇ SYNONYMS: inflexible, strict, rigid, firm, tough, inexorable, intransigent, unbending > uncompromisingly adv

unconcerned adj

1 not interested in something and not wanting to become involved

2 not worried or troubled > unconcernedly (un-kon-sern-id-lee) adv

unconditional adj without conditions or limitations: an unconditional ceasefire

◇ SYNONYMS: absolute, full, complete, total, positive (informal), entire, outright, unlimited > unconditionally adv

unconscionable adj

1 unscrupulous or unprincipled: an unconscionable charmer

2 excessive in amount or degree: an unconscionable number of social obligations

unconscious adj

1 unable to notice or respond to things which one would normally be aware of through the senses; insensible or comatose

◇ SYNONYMS: senseless, knocked out, out cold (informal), out, stunned, dazed, in a coma, stupefied

2 not aware of one's actions or behaviour: unconscious of his failure

◇ SYNONYMS: unaware, ignorant, oblivious, unknowing

3 not realized or intended: unconscious duplicity

◇ SYNONYMS: unintentional, unwitting, inadvertent, accidental

4 coming from or produced by the unconscious: unconscious mental processes

► n

5 (psychoanalysis) the part of the mind containing instincts, impulses, and ideas that are not available for direct examination > unconsciously adv

> unconsciousness n

uncooperative adj not willing to help other people with what they are trying to do uncouth adj lacking in good manners, refinement, or grace uncover vb

1 to remove the cover or top from ◇ SYNONYMS: open, unveil, unwrap, show, strip, expose, bare, lay bare

2 to reveal or disclose: they have uncovered a plot to overthrow the government

◇ SYNONYMS: reveal, expose, disclose, divulge, make known > uncovered adj

unction n

- 1 (chiefly RC Church, Eastern churches) the act of anointing with oil in sacramental ceremonies
- 2 oily charm
- 3 an ointment
- 4 anything soothing unctuous adj pretending to be kind and concerned but obviously not sincere undecided adj

- 1 not having made up one's mind
- 2 (of an issue or problem) not agreed or decided upon undeniable adj

- 1 unquestionably true
 - 2 of unquestionable excellence: of undeniable character
- > undeniably adv

under prep

- 1 directly below; on, to, or beneath the underside or base of: under the bed ◇ SYNONYMS: below, beneath, underneath
 - 2 less than: in just under an hour
 - 3 lower in rank than: under a general ◇ SYNONYMS: subordinate to, subject to, governed by, secondary to
 - 4 subject to the supervision, control, or influence of: under communism for 45 years
 - 5 in or subject to certain circumstances or conditions: the bridge is still under construction; under battle conditions
 - 6 in (a specified category): he had filed Kafka's 'The Trial' under crime stories
 - 7 known by: under their own names
 - 8 planted with: a field under corn
 - 9 powered by: under sail
- adv
- 10 below; to a position underneath ◇ SYNONYMS: below, down, beneath under- prefix

- 1 below or beneath: underarm; underground
- 2 insufficient or insufficiently: underemployed
- 3 of lesser importance or lower rank: undersecretary
- 4 indicating secrecy or deception: underhand underage adj below the required or standard age, usually below the legal age for voting or for drinking alcohol: underage sex

underarm adj

- 1 (sport) denoting a style of throwing, bowling, or serving in which the hand is swung below shoulder level
- 2 below the arm
- adv
- 3 in an underarm style

undercarriage n

- 1 the wheels, shock absorbers, and struts that support an aircraft on the ground and enable it to take off and land
- 2 the framework supporting the body of a vehicle underclass n a class beneath the usual social scale consisting of the most disadvantaged people, such as the long-term unemployed undercoat n

- 1 a coat of paint applied before the top coat
- 2 (zool) a layer of soft fur beneath the outer fur of animals such as the otter
- vb
- 3 to apply an undercoat to a surface undercover adj done or acting in secret: an undercover investigation

◇ SYNONYMS: secret, covert, private, hidden, concealed undercurrent n

- 1 a current that is not apparent at the surface
- 2 an underlying opinion or emotion undercut vb -cutting, -cut

- 1 to charge less than a competitor in order to obtain trade
- 2 to undermine or render less effective: the latest fighting undercuts diplomatic attempts to find a peaceful solution
- 3 to cut away the under part of something underdog n a person or team in a weak or underprivileged position

- ◇ SYNONYMS: weaker party, little fellow (informal), outsider underdone adj insufficiently or lightly cooked underestimate vb -mating, -mated

- 1 to make too low an estimate of: the trust had underestimated the cost of work
- ◇ SYNONYMS: underrate, undervalue, belittle
- 2 to not be aware or take account of the full abilities or potential of: the police had underestimated him
- ◇ SYNONYMS: undervalue, understate, diminish, play down, minimize, downgrade, miscalculate, trivialize
- n
- 3 too low an estimate
- > underestimation n

underfoot adv

- 1 underneath the feet; on the ground
- 2 trample or crush underfoot
- A to damage or destroy by stepping on
- B to treat with contempt undergarment n a garment worn under clothes undergo vb -goes, -going, -went, -gone to experience, endure, or sustain: he underwent a three-hour operation

◇ SYNONYMS: experience, go through, stand, suffer, bear, sustain, endure undergraduate n a person studying in a university for a first degree underground adv

1 below ground level: moles digging underground

2 secretly: several political parties had to operate underground for many years

► adj

3 beneath the ground: an underground bunker

◇ SYNONYMS: subterranean, basement, lower-level, sunken, covered, buried, subterrestrial

4 secret; clandestine: an underground organization

◇ SYNONYMS: secret, covert, hidden, guerrilla, revolutionary, confidential, dissident, closet

5 (of art, film, music, etc.) avant-garde, experimental, or subversive

► n

6 a movement dedicated to overthrowing a government or occupation forces

◇ SYNONYMS the underground: the Resistance, partisans, freedom fighters

7 (often preceded by the) an electric passenger railway operated in underground tunnels

◇ SYNONYMS the underground: the tube (Brit), the subway, the metro undergrowth n small trees and bushes growing beneath taller trees in a wood or forest underhand adj also underhanded

1 sly, deceitful, and secretive

2 (sport) same as underarm

► adv

3 in an underhand manner or style underlie vb -lying, -lay, -lain

1 to lie or be placed under

2 to be the foundation, cause, or basis of: the basic unity which underlies all religion underline vb -lining, -lined

1 to put a line under

◇ SYNONYMS: underscore, mark

2 to emphasize

◇ SYNONYMS: emphasize, stress, highlight, accentuate underling n (derogatory) a subordinate underlying adj

1 not obvious but detectable: the deeper and underlying aim of her travels

2 fundamental; basic: an underlying belief

◇ SYNONYMS: fundamental, basic, prime, primary, elementary, intrinsic

3 lying under: the underlying layers of the skin undermine vb -mining, -mined

1 to weaken gradually or insidiously: morphia had undermined his grasp of reality

◇ SYNONYMS: weaken, sabotage, subvert, compromise, disable

2 (of the sea or wind) to wear away the base of cliffs underneath prep

1 under or beneath: a table underneath an olive tree

► adv

2 under or beneath: the chest of drawers was scratched underneath

► adj

3 lower

► n

4 a lower part or surface underpants pl n a man's undergarment covering the body from the waist or hips to the thighs underpass n

1 a section of a road that passes under another road or a railway line

2 a subway for pedestrians underpin vb -pinning, -pinned

1 to give strength or support to: the principles that underpin his political convictions

2 to support from beneath with a prop: to underpin a wall > underpinning n

underprivileged adj

1 lacking the rights and advantages of other members of society; deprived

► n

2 the underprivileged underprivileged people regarded as a group underrate vb -rating, -rated to not be aware or take account of the full abilities or potential of > underrated adj

underseal n

1 a special coating applied to the underside of a motor vehicle to prevent corrosion

► vb

2 to apply such a coating to a motor vehicle underside n the bottom or lower surface understand vb -standing, -stood

1 to know and comprehend the nature or meaning of: I understand what you are saying

◇ SYNONYMS: comprehend, get, take in, perceive, grasp, see, follow, realize

2 to know what is happening or why it is happening: in order to understand the problems that can occur

◇ SYNONYMS: comprehend, get, take in, perceive, grasp, see, follow, realize

3 to assume, infer, or believe: I understand he is based in this town

◇ SYNONYMS: believe, gather, think, see, suppose, notice, assume, fancy

4 to know how to translate or read: don't you understand Russian?

5 to be sympathetic to or compatible with: she needed him to understand her completely > understandable adj > understandably adv

understanding n

1 the ability to learn, judge, or make decisions

◇ SYNONYMS: perception, knowledge, grasp, sense, know-how (informal), judgment, awareness, appreciation

2 personal opinion or interpretation of a subject: my understanding of what he said

◇ SYNONYMS: belief, view, opinion, impression, interpretation, feeling, idea, notion

3 a mutual agreement, usually an informal or private one

◇ SYNONYMS: agreement, deal (informal), promise, arrangement, accord, contract, bond, pledge

► adj

4 kind, sympathetic, or tolerant towards people

◇ SYNONYMS: sympathetic, kind, compassionate, considerate, patient, sensitive, tolerant understate vb -stating, -stated

1 to describe or portray something in restrained terms, often to obtain an ironic effect

2 to state that something, such as a number, is less than it is > understatement n

understudy n, pl -studies

1 an actor who studies a part so as to be able to replace the usual actor if necessary

2 anyone who is trained to take the place of another if necessary

► vb -studies, -studying, -studied

3 to act as an understudy to undertake vb -taking, -took, -taken

1 to agree to or commit oneself to something or to do something: I undertook the worst job in gardening

2 to promise to do something

◇ SYNONYMS: agree, promise, contract, guarantee, engage, pledge undertaker n a person whose job is to look after the bodies of people who have died and to organize funerals undertaking n

1 a task or enterprise

◇ SYNONYMS: task, business, operation, project, attempt, effort, affair, venture

2 an agreement to do something

◇ SYNONYMS: promise, commitment, pledge, word, vow, assurance

3 (informal) the practice of overtaking on an inner lane a vehicle which is travelling in an outer lane undertone n

1 a quiet tone of voice

2 something which suggests an underlying quality or feeling: an undertone of anger undertow n a strong undercurrent flowing in a different direction from the surface current, such as in the sea underwater adj

1 situated, occurring, or for use under the surface of the sea, a lake, or a river

► adv

2 beneath the surface of the sea, a lake, or a river underwear n clothing worn under other garments, usually next to the skin ◇ SYNONYMS: underclothes, lingerie, undies (informal), undergarments, underthings, broekies (S African informal), underdaks (Austral slang) underworld n

1 criminals and their associates

◇ SYNONYMS: criminals, gangsters, organized crime, gangland (informal)

2 (classical myth) the regions below the earth's surface regarded as the abode of the dead

◇ SYNONYMS: nether world, Hades, nether regions underwrite vb -writing, -wrote, -written

1 to accept financial responsibility for a commercial project or enterprise

◇ SYNONYMS: finance, back, fund, guarantee, sponsor, insure, ratify, subsidize

2 to sign and issue an insurance policy, thus accepting liability

3 to support

> underwriter n

undesirable adj

1 not desirable or pleasant; objectionable

◇ SYNONYMS: unwanted, unwelcome, disagreeable, objectionable, unacceptable, unsuitable, unattractive, distasteful

► n

2 a person considered undesirable undisclosed adj not made known or revealed: the family business was sold for an undisclosed sum undo vb -does, -doing, -did, -done

1 to open, unwrap or untie

◇ SYNONYMS: open, unfasten, loose, untie, unbutton, disentangle

2 to reverse the effects of: all the work of the congress would be undone

◇ SYNONYMS: reverse, cancel, offset, neutralize, invalidate, annul

3 to cause the downfall of ◇ SYNONYMS: ruin, defeat, destroy, wreck, shatter, upset, undermine, overturn undoing n

1 ruin; downfall

2 the cause of someone's downfall: his confidence was his undoing undone¹ adj not done or completed; unfinished

◇ SYNONYMS: unfinished, left, neglected, omitted, unfulfilled, unperformed undone² adj

1 ruined; destroyed

2 unfastened; untied undoubted adj beyond doubt; certain or indisputable > undoubtedly adv

undue adj greater than is reasonable; excessive: undue attention

undulate vb -lating, -lated

1 to move gently and slowly from side to side or up and down

2 to have a wavy shape or appearance > undulation n

unduly adv excessively undying adj never ending; eternal unearth vb

1 to discover by searching

◇ SYNONYMS: discover, find, reveal, expose, uncover

2 to dig up out of the earth

◇ SYNONYMS: dig up, excavate, exhume, dredge up (informal) unearthly adj

1 strange, unnatural, or eerie: unearthly beauty

◇ SYNONYMS: eerie, strange, supernatural, ghostly, weird, phantom, uncanny, spooky (informal)

2 ridiculous or unreasonable: the unearthly hour of seven in the morning

> unearthliness n

unease n

1 anxiety or nervousness: my unease grew when she was not back by midnight

2 dissatisfaction or tension: unease about the government's handling of the affair uneasy adj

1 (of a person) anxious or apprehensive

◇ SYNONYMS: anxious, worried, troubled, nervous, disturbed, uncomfortable, edgy, perturbed

2 (of a condition) precarious or insecure: an uneasy peace

◇ SYNONYMS: precarious, strained, uncomfortable, tense, awkward, shaky, insecure

3 (of a thought or feeling) disquieting > uneasily adv

> uneasiness n

unemployed adj

1 without paid employment; out of work

◇ SYNONYMS: out of work, redundant, laid off, jobless, idle

2 not being used; idle

► pl n

3 people who are out of work: the long-term unemployed unemployment n

1 the condition of being unemployed

2 the number of unemployed workers: unemployment rose again last month unequivocal adj completely clear in meaning; unambiguous > unequivocally adv

unerring adj never mistaken; consistently accurate unfailing adj continuous or reliable: his unfailing enthusiasm

> unfailingly adv

unfair adj

1 unequal or unjust

◇ SYNONYMS: biased, prejudiced, unjust, one-sided, partial, partisan, bigoted

2 dishonest or unethical

◇ SYNONYMS: unscrupulous, dishonest, unethical, wrongful, unsporting > unfairly adv

> unfairness n

unfaithful adj

1 having sex with someone other than one's regular partner

2 not true to a promise or vow > unfaithfulness n unfeeling adj without sympathy; callous unfit adj

1 unqualified for or incapable of a particular role or task: an unfit mother; he was unfit to drive

◇ SYNONYMS: incapable, inadequate, incompetent, no good, useless (informal), unqualified

2 unsuitable: this meat is unfit for human consumption

◇ SYNONYMS: unsuitable, inadequate, useless, unsuited

3 in poor physical condition

◇ SYNONYMS: out of shape, feeble, unhealthy, flabby, in poor condition unflappable adj (informal) (of a person) not easily upset > unflappability n

unfold vb

1 to open or spread out from a folded state

◇ SYNONYMS: open, spread out, undo, expand, unfurl, unwrap, unroll

2 to reveal or be revealed: a terrible truth unfolds

◇ SYNONYMS: reveal, tell, present, show, disclose, uncover, divulge, make known

3 to develop or be developed: the novel unfolds through their recollections unfollow vb to stop following (a person) on a social networking site unforgettable adj making such a strong impression that it is impossible to forget > unforgettably adv

unfortunate adj

1 caused or accompanied by bad luck: an unfortunate coincidence

◇ SYNONYMS: disastrous, calamitous, adverse, ill-fated

2 having bad luck: my unfortunate daughter

◇ SYNONYMS: unlucky, unhappy, doomed, cursed, unsuccessful, hapless, wretched

3 regrettable or unsuitable: an unfortunate choice of phrase

◇ SYNONYMS: regrettable, deplorable, lamentable, unsuitable, unbecoming

► n

4 an unlucky person

> unfortunately adv

unfounded adj (of ideas, fears, or allegations) not based on facts or evidence unfrock vb to deprive (a person in holy orders) of the status of a priest ungainly adj -lier, -liest lacking grace when moving > ungainliness n ungodly adj -lier, -liest 1 wicked or sinful 2 (informal) unreasonable or outrageous: at this ungodly hour > ungodliness n

ungrateful adj not showing or offering thanks for a favour or compliment unguarded adj

1 unprotected
2 open or frank: one unguarded briefing 3 incautious or careless: an unguarded moment unhappy adj -pier, -piest 1 sad or depressed ◇ SYNONYMS: sad, depressed, miserable, blue, melancholy, mournful, dejected, despondent 2 unfortunate or wretched ◇ SYNONYMS: unlucky, unfortunate, hapless, cursed, wretched, ill-fated > unhappily adv > unhappiness n

unhealthy adj -healthier, -healthiest 1 likely to cause illness or poor health: unhealthy foods such as hamburger and chips ◇ SYNONYMS: harmful, detrimental, unwholesome, insanitary, insalubrious

2 not very fit or well

◇ SYNONYMS: sick, sickly, unwell, delicate, crook (Austral & NZ informal), ailing, frail, feeble, invalid

3 caused by or looking as if caused by poor health: a thin unhealthy look about him

4 morbid or unwholesome: an unhealthy interest in computer fraud > unhealthiness n

unhinge vb -hinging, -hinged to make a person mentally unbalanced > unhinged adj

uni n (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) short for university

uni- combining form of, consisting of, or having only one: unilateral unicorn n a legendary creature resembling a white horse with one horn growing from its forehead uniform n

1 a special identifying set of clothes for the members of an organization, such as soldiers

◇ SYNONYMS: regalia, suit, livery, colours, habit

► adj

2 regular and even throughout: the mixture must be beaten to a uniform consistency

◇ SYNONYMS: consistent, unvarying, similar, even, same, matching, regular, constant

3 alike or like: uniform green metal filing cabinets

◇ SYNONYMS: alike, similar, like, same, equal > uniformity n

> uniformly adv

unify vb -fies, -fying, -fied to make or become one; unite

◇ SYNONYMS: unite, join, combine, merge, consolidate, confederate, amalgamate > unification n unilateral adj made or done by only one person or group: unilateral action > unilaterally adv

> unilateralism n

unimpeachable adj completely honest and reliable uninterested adj having or showing no interest in someone or something union n

1 the act of merging two or more things to become one, or the state of being merged in such a way

◇ SYNONYMS: joining, uniting, unification, combination, coalition, merger, mixture, blend

2 short for trade union

3 an association of individuals or groups for a common purpose: the Scripture Union

◇ SYNONYMS: alliance, league, association, coalition, federation, confederacy

4

A an association or society: the Students' union

B the buildings of such an organization

5 marriage or sexual intercourse

6 (maths) a set containing all the members of two given sets

7 (in 19th-century England) a workhouse maintained by a number of parishes

► adj

8 of a trade union unionize or -ise vb -izing, -ized or -ising, -ised to organize workers into a trade union > unionization or -isation n

Union Jack or Union flag n the national flag of the United Kingdom, combining the crosses of Saint George, Saint Andrew, and Saint Patrick unique (yew-neek) adj

1 being the only one of a particular type

◇ SYNONYMS: distinct, special, exclusive, peculiar, only, single, lone, solitary

2 unique to concerning or belonging to a particular person, thing, or group: certain dishes are unique to this restaurant

3 without equal or like

◇ SYNONYMS: unparalleled, unmatched, unequalled, matchless, without equal

4 (informal) remarkable > uniquely adv

unisex adj designed for use by both men and women unison n

1 in unison at the same time as another person or other people: smiling and nodding in unison

2 (usually preceded by in) complete agreement: to act in unison

3 (music) a style, technique, or passage in which all the performers sing or play the same notes at the same time unit n

1 a single undivided entity or whole

◇ SYNONYMS: entity, whole, item, feature

2 a group or individual regarded as a basic element of a larger whole: the clan was the basic unit of Highland society

◇ SYNONYMS: part, section, segment, class, element, component, constituent

3 a mechanical part or small device that does a particular job: a waste disposal unit

4 a team of people that performs a specific function, and often also their buildings and equipment: a combat unit

◇ SYNONYMS: section, company, group, force, detail, division, cell, squad

5 a standard amount of a physical quantity, such as length or energy, used to express magnitudes of that quantity: the year as a unit of time

◇ SYNONYMS: measure, quantity, measurement

6 (maths) the digit or position immediately to the left of the decimal point

7 a piece of furniture designed to be fitted with other similar pieces: bedroom units

8 (NZ) a self-propelled railcar

Unitarian n

1 a person who believes that God is one being and rejects the Trinity

► adj

2 of Unitarians or Unitarianism

> Unitarianism n

unitary adj

1 consisting of a single undivided whole: a unitary state

2 of a unit or units unite vb uniting, united

1 to make or become an integrated whole: conception occurs when a sperm unites with the egg

◇ SYNONYMS: join, link, combine, couple, blend, merge, unify, fuse

2 to form an association or alliance: the opposition parties united to fight against privatization

◇ SYNONYMS: cooperate, ally, join forces, band, pool, collaborate

3 to possess (a combination of qualities) at the same time: he manages to unite charm and ruthlessness

◇ SYNONYMS: join, link, combine, couple, blend, merge, unify, fuse

unit trust n an investment trust that issues units for public sale and invests the money in many different businesses unity n, pl -ties

1 the state of being one

◇ SYNONYMS: wholeness, integrity, oneness, union, entity, singleness

2 mutual agreement: unity of intention

◇ SYNONYMS: agreement, accord, consensus, harmony, solidarity, unison, assent, concord

3 the state of being a single thing that is composed of separate parts, organizations, etc.: moves towards church unity

◇ SYNONYMS: union, unification, coalition, federation, integration, confederation, amalgamation

4 (maths) the number or numeral one universal adj

1 of or relating to everyone in the world or everyone in a particular place or society: the introduction of universal primary education

◇ SYNONYMS: widespread, general, common, whole, total, unlimited, overarching

2 of, relating to, or affecting the entire world or universe: the universal laws of physics

◇ SYNONYMS: global, worldwide, international, pandemic

3 true and relevant at all times and in all situations: there may be no single universal solution

► n

4 something which exists or is true in all places and all situations: universals such as beauty and justice > universality n

> universally adv

universe n

1 the whole of all existing matter, energy, and space

◇ SYNONYMS: cosmos, space, creation, nature, heavens, macrocosm, all existence

2 the world university n, pl -ties

1 an institution of higher education with authority to award degrees

2 the buildings, members, staff, or campus of a university unkempt adj

1 (of the hair) uncombed or dishevelled

2 untidy or slovenly: an unkempt appearance unknown adj

1 not known, understood, or recognized

◇ SYNONYMS: strange, new, undiscovered, uncharted, unexplored, virgin, remote, alien

2 not famous: a young and then unknown actor

◇ SYNONYMS: obscure, humble, unfamiliar

3 unknown quantity a person or thing whose action or effect is unknown or unpredictable

► n

4 an unknown person, quantity, or thing

► adv

5 unknown to someone without someone being aware: unknown to him, the starboard engine had dropped off

unleaded adj (of petrol) containing less tetraethyl lead, in order to reduce environmental pollution unleash vb to set loose or cause (something bad): to unleash war unless conj except under the circumstances that; except on the condition that: you can't get in unless you can prove you're over eighteen

unlike adj

1 not similar; different

► prep

2 not like or typical of: unlike his brother, he could not control his weight

◇ SYNONYMS: different from, dissimilar to, distinct from, unequal to > unlikeness n

unlikely adj not likely; improbable

◇ SYNONYMS: improbable, doubtful, remote, slight, faint > unlikeliness n

unload vb

1 to remove cargo from a ship, lorry, or plane

◇ SYNONYMS: empty, clear, unpack, dump, discharge

2 to express worries or problems by telling someone about them

◇ SYNONYMS: unburden

3 to remove the ammunition from a gun unmanned adj

1 having no personnel or crew: the border posts were unmanned

2 (of an aircraft or spacecraft) operated by automatic or remote control unmask vb

1 to remove the mask or disguise from 2 to expose or reveal the true nature or character of unmentionable adj unsuitable as a topic of conversation unmistakable or unmistakeable adj clear or unambiguous > unmistakably or unmistakeably adv

unmitigated adj

1 not reduced or lessened in severity or intensity

2 total and complete: unmitigated boredom unmoved adj not affected by emotion; indifferent unnatural adj

1 strange and slightly frightening because it is not usual; abnormal: an unnatural silence

◇ SYNONYMS: abnormal, odd, strange, unusual, extraordinary, perverted, queer (old-fashioned), irregular

2 not in accordance with accepted standards of behaviour: an unnatural relationship

3 affected or forced: a determined smile which seemed unnatural

◇ SYNONYMS: false, forced, artificial, affected, stiff, feigned, stilted, insincere

4 inhuman or monstrous: unnatural evils > unnaturally adv

unnerve vb -nerving, -nerved to cause to lose courage, confidence, or self-control: he unnerves me

> unnerving adj

unnumbered adj

- 1 countless; too many to count
- 2 not counted or given a number unorthodox adj

- 1 (of ideas, methods, etc.) unconventional and not generally accepted
- 2 (of a person) not conventional in beliefs, behaviour, etc.

unpack vb

- 1 to remove the packed contents of a case
- 2 to take something out of a packed container unparalleled adj not equalled; supreme unpick vb to undo the stitches of a piece of sewing unpleasant adj not pleasant or agreeable

- ◇ SYNONYMS: nasty, bad, horrid (informal), distasteful, displeasing, objectionable, disagreeable
- > unpleasantly adv
- > unpleasantness n unprecedented adj never having happened before: an unprecedented decision unprintable adj unsuitable for printing for reasons of obscenity, libel, or indecency unprofessional adj not behaving according to the standards expected of a member of a particular profession unqualified adj

- 1 lacking the necessary qualifications
- 2 having no conditions or limitations: an unqualified denial
- 3 total or complete: unqualified admiration unravel vb -velling, -velled (US) -veling, -veled

- 1 to separate something knitted or woven into individual strands
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: undo, separate, disentangle, free, unwind, untangle
- 2 to become separated into individual strands
- 3 to explain or solve: we unravelled the secrets
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: solve, explain, work out, resolve, figure out (informal) unreasonable adj

- 1 unfair and excessive: an unreasonable request
- 2 refusing to listen to reason
 - > unreasonably adv

unremitting adj never slackening or stopping unrequited adj (of love) not returned unrest n

- 1 a rebellious state of discontent
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: discontent, rebellion, protest, strife, agitation, discord, sedition, dissension
- 2 an uneasy or troubled state unrivalled or (US) unrivalled adj having no equal; matchless unroll vb

- 1 to open out or unwind: I unrolled the map
- 2 (of a series of events or period of time) to happen or be revealed or remembered one after the other unruly adj -lier, -liest difficult to control or organize; disobedient or undisciplined > unruliness n

unsavoury or (US) unsavory adj objectionable or distasteful: an unsavoury divorce unscathed adj not harmed or injured unscrupulous adj prepared to act in a dishonest or immoral manner unseat vb

- 1 to throw or displace from a seat or saddle
- 2 to depose from office or position unsettled adj

- 1 lacking order or stability: an unsettled time ◇ SYNONYMS: unstable, shaky, insecure, disorderly, unsteady
- 2 disturbed and restless: your child will feel unsettled and insecure ◇ SYNONYMS: restless, tense, shaken, confused, disturbed, anxious, agitated, flustered, adrenalized
- 3 constantly changing or moving from place to place: his wandering unsettled life ◇ SYNONYMS: inconstant, changing, variable, uncertain
- 4 (of an argument or dispute) not resolved
- 5 (of a debt or bill) not yet paid unsightly adj unpleasant to look at; ugly > unsightliness n unsociable adj (of a person) not fond of the company of other people unsocial adj

1 not fond of the company of other people

2 (of the hours of work of a job) falling outside the normal working day unsound adj

1 unhealthy or unstable: of unsound mind

2 based on faulty ideas: unsound judgment

3 not firm: unsound foundations

4 not financially reliable: his business plan was unsound unspeakable adj

1 incapable of expression in words: unspeakable gratitude

2 indescribably bad or evil: unspeakable atrocities > unspeakably adv

unstable adj

1 not firmly fixed and likely to wobble or fall: an unstable pile of books

◇ SYNONYMS: insecure, shaky, precarious, unsettled, wobbly, tottering, unsteady

2 likely to change suddenly and create difficulties or danger: the unstable political climate

◇ SYNONYMS: changeable, volatile, unpredictable, variable, fluctuating, fitful, inconstant

3 (of a person) having abrupt changes of mood or behaviour

◇ SYNONYMS: unpredictable, irrational, erratic, inconsistent, temperamental, capricious, changeable

4 (chem, physics) readily decomposing unstinting adj generous and gladly given: unstinting praise unsubscribe vb -scribing, -scribed to cancel a subscription, esp. to an online service unsuitable adj not right or appropriate for a particular purpose unsuited adj

1 not appropriate for a particular task or situation: a likeable man unsuited to a military career

2 (of a couple) having different personalities or tastes and unlikely to form a lasting relationship: they are totally unsuited to each other

unsung adj not appreciated or honoured: an unsung hero unswerving adj not turning aside; constant unsympathetic adj

1 not feeling or showing sympathy

2 unpleasant and unlikeable

3 (foll. by to) opposed or hostile to unthinkable adj

1 so shocking or unpleasant that one cannot believe it to be true

◇ SYNONYMS: impossible, out of the question, inconceivable, absurd, unreasonable

2 unimaginable or inconceivable

◇ SYNONYMS: inconceivable, incredible, unimaginable untidy adj -dier, -diest not neat; messy and disordered > untidily adv

> untidiness n

untie vb -tying, -tied to unfasten or free something that is tied until conj

1 up to a time that: he lifted the wire until it was taut

◇ SYNONYMS: till, up to, up till, up to the time, as late as

2 before (a time or event): I won't speak to him until he apologizes

► prep

3 (often preceded by up) in or throughout the period before: up until then I'd never thought about having kids

◇ SYNONYMS: till, up to, up till, up to the time, as late as

4 before: Baker does not get to Israel until Sunday

◇ SYNONYMS: before, up to, prior to, in advance of, previous to, pre-untimely adj

1 occurring before the expected or normal time: his untimely death

2 inappropriate to the occasion or time: an untimely idea to raise at the United Nations

> untimeliness n

unto *prep (archaic) tountold adj

1 incapable of description: untold misery

◇ SYNONYMS: indescribable, unthinkable, unimaginable, undreamed of, unutterable, inexpressible

2 incalculably great in number or quantity: untold millions

◇ SYNONYMS: countless, incalculable, innumerable, myriad, numberless, uncountable

3 not told untouchable adj

1 above criticism, suspicion or punishment

2 unable to be touched

► n (offensive)

3 a member of the lowest class in India untoward adj

1 causing misfortune or annoyance

2 unfavourable: untoward reactions

3 out of the ordinary; out of the way: nothing untoward had happened untrue adj

1 incorrect or false

◇ SYNONYMS: false, lying, wrong, mistaken, incorrect, inaccurate, dishonest, deceptive

2 disloyal or unfaithful

◇ SYNONYMS: unfaithful, disloyal, deceitful, treacherous, faithless, false, untrustworthy, inconstant untruth n a statement that is not true; lie unusual adj uncommon or extraordinary ◇ SYNONYMS: rare, odd, strange, extraordinary, different, curious, queer (old-fashioned), uncommon > unusually adv

unutterable adj incapable of being expressed in words > unutterably adv

unvarnished adj not elaborated upon; plain: an unvarnished account of literary life

unveil vb

1 to ceremonially remove the cover from a new picture, statue, plaque, etc.

2 to make public a secret

3 to remove the veil from one's own or another person's face unveiling n

- 1 a ceremony involving the removal of a veil covering a statue
- 2 the presentation of something for the first time unwarranted adj not justified or necessary unwieldy adj too heavy, large, or awkward to be easily handled unwind vb -winding, -wound

- 1 to slacken, undo, or unravel: Paul started to unwind the bandage
- 2 to relax after a busy or tense time: we go out to unwind after work unwitting adj

- 1 not intentional
 - 2 not knowing or conscious
- > unwittingly adv

unwonted adj out of the ordinary; unusual unworthy adj

- 1 not deserving or meriting: a person deemed unworthy of membership
 - 2 (often foll. by of) beneath the level considered befitting (to): unworthy of a prime minister
 - 3 lacking merit or value
- > unworthiness n

unwrap vb -wrapping, -wrapped to remove the wrapping from something or (of something wrapped) to have the covering removed unwritten adj

- 1 not printed or in writing
- 2 operating only through custom: an unwritten code of conduct

unzip vb -zipping, -zipped

1 to unfasten the zip of a garment or (of a zip or a garment with a zip) to become unfastened

2 to open (a data file that has been compressed) up prep

1 indicating movement to a higher position: go up the stairs

2 at a higher or further level or position in or on: a shop up the road

► adv

3 to an upward, higher, or erect position: the men straightened up from their digging

4 indicating readiness for an activity: up and about

5 indicating intensity or completion of an action: he tore up the cheque

6 to the place referred to or where the speaker is: a man came up to me

7

A to a more important place: up to the city

B to a more northerly place: pensioners who were going up to Norway

C to or at university

8 above the horizon: the sun came up

9 appearing for trial: up before the judge

10 having gained: ten pounds up on the deal

11 higher in price: beer has gone up again

12 all up with someone (informal) over for or hopeless for someone

13 something's up (informal) something strange is happening

14 up against having to cope with: look what we're up against now

15 up for being a candidate or applicant for: he's up for the job

16 up to

A occupied with; scheming: she's up to no good

B dependent upon: the decision is up to you

C equal to or capable of: are you up to playing in the final?

D as far as: up to his neck in mud

E as many as: up to two years' credit

F comparable with: not up to my usual standard

17 what's up? (informal)

A what is the matter?

B what is happening?

► adj

18 of a high or higher position

19 out of bed: aren't you up yet?

20 (of a period of time) over or completed: the examiner announced that their time was up

21 of or relating to a train going to a more important place: the up platform

► vb upping, upped

22 to increase or raise

23 up and (informal) to do something suddenly: he upped and left her

► n

24 a high point: when the ups come along you have to enjoy them

25 on the up and up

A (Brit & Austral & NZ) on an upward trend: our firm's on the up and up

B (US) trustworthy or honest upbeat adj

1 (informal) cheerful and optimistic: the upbeat atmosphere of a thriving metropolis

◇ SYNONYMS: cheerful, positive, optimistic, encouraging, hopeful, cheery

► n

2 (music)

A an unaccented beat

B the upward gesture of a conductor's baton indicating this upbraid vb to scold or reproach upbringing n the education of a person during his or her formative years

◇ SYNONYMS: education, training, rearing, raising update vb -dating, -dated

1 to bring up to date

◇ SYNONYMS: bring up to date, improve, correct, renew, revise, upgrade, amend, overhaul, refresh

2 inform; relay the most recent information to upend vb to turn or set or become turned or set on end upfront adj

1 open and frank

2 (of money) paid at the beginning of a business arrangement

► adv up front

3 at the front; (in sport) in attack: Liverpool's strikers dominated up front

4 at the beginning of a business arrangement; in advance: we charge up front upgrade vb -grading, -graded

1 to promote a person or job to a higher rank

◇ SYNONYMS: promote, raise, advance, boost, move up, elevate, kick upstairs (informal), give promotion to

2 to raise in value, importance, or esteem

◇ SYNONYMS: improve, better, update, reform, add to, enhance, refurbish, renovate upheaval n a strong, sudden, or violent disturbance

◇ SYNONYMS: disturbance, revolution, disorder, turmoil, disruption uphill adj

1 sloping or leading upwards

◇ SYNONYMS: ascending, rising, upward, mounting, climbing

2 requiring a great deal of effort: an uphill struggle

◇ SYNONYMS: arduous, hard, taxing, difficult, tough, exhausting, gruelling, strenuous

► adv

3 up a slope

► n

4 (S African) a difficulty uphold vb -holding, -held

1 to maintain or defend against opposition

◇ SYNONYMS: confirm, endorse

2 to give moral support to ◇ SYNONYMS: support, back, defend, aid, champion, maintain, promote, sustain > upholder n

upholster vb to fit chairs or sofas with padding, springs, and covering > upholstered adj

> upholsterer n upholstery n the padding, springs, and covering of a chair or sofa upkeep n

1 the act or process of keeping something in good repair

2 the cost of maintenance upland adj of or in an area of high or relatively high ground: an upland wilderness uplands pl n an area of high or relatively high ground: the uplands of Nepal uplift vb

1 to raise or lift up

2 to raise morally or spiritually

◇ SYNONYMS: improve, better, raise, advance, inspire, refine, edify

3 (Scot) to collect or pick up

► n

4 the act or process of bettering moral, social, or cultural conditions

◇ SYNONYMS: improvement, enlightenment, advancement, refinement, enhancement, enrichment, edification

► adj

5 (of a bra) designed to lift and support the breasts > uplifting adj

upload vb

1 to transfer (data or a program) from one computer's memory into that of another

► n

2 a file transferred in such a way upon prep

1 on

2 up and on: they climbed upon his lap for comfort upper adj

1 higher or highest in physical position, wealth, rank, or status

◇ SYNONYMS: topmost, top

2 Upper (geol) denoting the late part of a period or formation: Upper Cretaceous

► n

3 the part of a shoe above the sole

4 on one's uppers (Brit & Austral & NZ) very poor; penniless upper-case adj denoting capital letters as used in printed or typed matter upper class n

1 the highest social class; aristocracy

► adj upper-class

2 of the upper class

◇ SYNONYMS: aristocratic, noble, high-class, patrician, blue-blooded, highborn (old-fashioned) upper crust n (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) the upper class upper hand n the position of control: the hardliners have gained the upper hand

uppermost adj

1 highest in position, power, or importance

► adv

2 in or into the highest place or position uppish adj (Brit informal) uppity uppity adj (informal) snobbish, arrogant, or presumptuous upright adj

1 vertical or erect

◇ SYNONYMS: vertical, straight, standing up, erect, perpendicular, bolt upright

2 honest or just

◇ SYNONYMS: honest, good, principled, just, ethical, honourable, righteous, conscientious

► adv

3 vertically or in an erect position

► n

4 a vertical support, such as a post

5 the state of being vertical > uprightness n

uprising n a revolt or rebellion

◇ SYNONYMS: rebellion, rising, revolution, revolt, disturbance, mutiny, insurrection, insurgence uproar n

1 a commotion or disturbance characterized by loud noise and confusion

◇ SYNONYMS: commotion, noise, racket, riot, turmoil, mayhem, din, pandemonium

2 angry public criticism or debates: the decision to close the railway led to an uproar

◇ SYNONYMS: protest, outrage, complaint, objection, fuss, stink (informal), outcry, furore uproarious adj

- 1 very funny
- 2 (of laughter) loud and boisterous uproot vb

- 1 to pull up by or as if by the roots
- 2 to displace (a person or people) from their native or usual surroundings
- 3 to remove or destroy utterly: we must uproot all remnants of feudalism ups and downs pl n alternating periods of good and bad luck or high and low spirits upscale (informal) adj (up-skale)

- 1 of or for the upper end of an economic or social scale; upmarket
 - vb (up-skale) -scaling, -scaled
- 2 to increase the scale of upset adj

- 1 emotionally or physically disturbed or distressed
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: distressed, shaken, disturbed, worried, troubled, hurt, bothered, unhappy
 - vb -setting, -set
- 2 to turn or tip over
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: tip over, overturn, capsize, knock over, spill
- 3 to disrupt the normal state or progress of: bad weather upset their plans
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: mess up, spoil, disturb, change, confuse, disorder, unsettle, disorganize
- 4 to disturb mentally or emotionally
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: distress, trouble, disturb, worry, alarm, bother, grieve, agitate
- 5 to make physically ill: it still seems to upset my stomach
 - n
- 6 an unexpected defeat or reversal, as in a contest or plans
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: reversal, shake-up (informal), defeat
- 7 a disturbance or disorder of the emotions, mind, or body
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: illness, complaint, disorder, bug (informal), sickness, malady > upsetting adj

upshot n the final result or conclusion; outcome upside down adj

1 with the bottom where the top would normally be; inverted

◇ SYNONYMS: inverted, overturned, upturned

2 (informal) confused or jumbled

◇ SYNONYMS: confused, disordered, chaotic, muddled, topsy-turvy, higgledy-piggledy (informal)

► adv

3 in an inverted fashion

◇ SYNONYMS: wrong side up

4 in a chaotic manner or into a chaotic state: recent events have turned many people's lives upside down

◇ SYNONYMS: wrong side up

upstage adv

1 on, at, or to the rear of the stage

► adj

2 at the back half of the stage

► vb -staging, -staged

3 to move upstage of another actor, forcing him or her to turn away from the audience

4 (informal) to draw attention to oneself and away from someone else upstairs adv

1 to or on an upper floor of a building

2 (informal) to or into a higher rank or office

► n

3 an upper floor

► adj

4 situated on an upper floor: an upstairs bedroom upstanding adj

1 of good character

2 upright and vigorous in build upstart n a person who has risen suddenly to a position of power and behaves arrogantly upstream adv, adj in or towards the higher part of a stream; against the current upsurge n a rapid rise or swell uptake n

1 quick or slow on the uptake (informal) quick or slow to understand or learn

2 the use or consumption of something by a machine or part of the body: the uptake of oxygen into the blood

uptight adj (informal)

1 nervously tense, irritable, or angry

2 unable to express one's feelings up-to-date adj modern or fashionable: an up-to-date kitchen

◇ SYNONYMS: modern, fashionable, trendy (Brit informal), current, stylish, in vogue, up-to-the-minute upturn n

1 an upward trend or improvement

► vb

2 to turn or cause to turn over or upside down upward adj

1 directed or moving towards a higher place or level

► adv also upwards

2 from a lower to a higher place, level, or condition

3 upward or upwards of more than (the stated figure): a crowd estimated at upward of one hundred thousand people uranium (yew-rain-ee-um) n (chem) a radioactive silvery-white metallic element of the actinide series. It is used chiefly as a source of nuclear energy by fission of the radioisotope uranium 235. SYMBOL: U

Uranus n

1 (Greek myth) a god; the personification of the sky

2 the seventh planet from the sun urban adj

1 of or living in a city or town

◇ SYNONYMS: civic, city, town, metropolitan, municipal, dorp (S African)

2 relating to modern pop music of African-American origin, such as hip-hop urbane adj polite, elegant, and sophisticated in manner urbanity n the quality of being urbane urbanize or -nise vb -nizing, -nized or -nising, -nised to make a rural area more industrialized and urban > urbanization or -nisation n urchin n

1 a mischievous child

2 See sea urchin

Urdu (oor-doo) n an Indic language of the Indo-European family which is an official language of Pakistan and is also spoken in India urethra (yew-reeth-ra) n the tube that in most mammals carries urine from the bladder out of the body urge n

1 a strong impulse, inner drive, or yearning

◇ SYNONYMS: impulse, longing, wish, desire, drive, yearning, itch (informal), thirst

► vb urging, urged

2 to plead with or press someone to do something: he urged his readers to do the same

◇ SYNONYMS: beg, exhort (formal), plead, implore, beseech, entreat

3 to advocate earnestly and persistently: I have long urged this change

◇ SYNONYMS: advocate, recommend, advise, support, counsel

4 (often foll. by on) to force or hasten onwards: something very powerful urged him on urgent adj

1 requiring speedy action or attention: an urgent inquiry

◇ SYNONYMS: crucial (informal), desperate, pressing, great, important, crying, critical, immediate

2 earnest and forceful: she heard loud urgent voices in the corridor > urgency n

> urgently adv

urinal n

1 a sanitary fitting, used by men for urination

2 a room containing urinals urinary adj (anatomy) of urine or the organs that secrete and pass urine urinate vb -nating, -nated to excrete urine > urination n

urine n the pale yellow fluid excreted by the kidneys, containing waste products from the blood. It is stored in the bladder and discharged through the urethra

URL uniform resource locator: a standardized address of a location on the internet urn n

- 1 a vaselike container, usually with a foot and a rounded body
- 2 a vase used as a container for the ashes of the dead
- 3 a large metal container, with a tap, used for making and holding tea or coffee ursine adj of or like a bear us pron (objective)

- 1 refers to the speaker or writer and another person or other people: the bond between us
- 2 refers to all people or people in general: this table shows us the tides
- 3 (informal) me: give us a kiss!
- 4 (formal) same as me used by monarchs

US or U.S. United States

USA or U.S.A. United States of America usable adj able to be used > usability n

usage n

1 regular or constant use: a move to reduce pesticide usage

◇ SYNONYMS: use, operation, employment, running, control, management, handling

2 the way in which a word is actually used in a language

3 a particular meaning or use that a word can have

USB Universal Serial Bus: a standard for connection sockets on computers and other electronic equipment

USB drive n (computers) a small portable data storage device with a USB connection use vb using, used

1 to put into service or action; employ for a given purpose: use a garden fork to mix them together

◇ SYNONYMS: employ, utilize, work, apply, operate, exercise, practise, resort to

2 to choose or employ regularly: what sort of toothpaste do you use?

3 to take advantage of; exploit: I used Jason and he used me

◇ SYNONYMS: take advantage of, exploit, manipulate

4 to consume or expend: a manufacturing plant uses 1000 tonnes of steel a month

◇ SYNONYMS: consume, exhaust, spend, run through, expend

► n

5 the act or fact of using or being used: large-scale use of pesticides

◇ SYNONYMS: usage, employment, operation, application

6 the ability or permission to use

7 need or opportunity to use: the Colombian government had no use for them

◇ SYNONYMS: purpose, end, reason, object

8 usefulness or advantage: there is no use in complaining

◇ SYNONYMS: good, point, help, service, value, benefit, profit, advantage

9 the purpose for which something is used

◇ SYNONYMS: purpose, end, reason, object

10 have no use for

A to have no need of

B to have a contemptuous dislike for 11 make use of

A to employ; use

B to exploit (a person) > user n

use-by date n the date on packaged food after which it should not be sold used adj second-hand: it was a used car

◇ SYNONYMS: second-hand, cast-off, nearly new, shopsoiled, preloved (informal) used to adj

1 accustomed to: I am used to being a medical guinea pig

◇ SYNONYMS: accustomed to, familiar with

► vb

2 used as an auxiliary to express habitual or accustomed actions or states taking place in the past but not continuing to be the case in the present: he used to vanish into his studio for days

useful adj

1 able to be used advantageously or for several purposes

◇ SYNONYMS: helpful, effective, valuable, practical, profitable, worthwhile, beneficial, fruitful

2 (informal) commendable or capable: a useful hurdler > usefully adv

> usefulness n

useless adj

1 having no practical use

◇ SYNONYMS: pointless, futile, vain

2 (informal) ineffectual, weak, or stupid: I'm useless at most things

◇ SYNONYMS: worthless, valueless, impractical, fruitless, unproductive, ineffectual, unsuitable

- > uselessly adv
- > uselessness n

user-friendly adj easy to familiarize oneself with, understand, and use username n (computers) a name that someone uses for identification purposes when logging onto a computer or certain computer applications

usher n

1 an official who shows people to their seats, as in a church

◇ SYNONYMS: attendant, guide, doorman, escort, doorkeeper

2 a person who acts as doorkeeper in a court of law

◇ SYNONYMS: attendant, guide, doorman, escort, doorkeeper

► vb

3 to conduct or escort

◇ SYNONYMS: escort, lead, direct, guide, conduct

4 (foll. by in) to happen immediately before something or cause it to happen; herald: the French Revolution ushered in a new age

usherette n a woman assistant in a cinema, who shows people to their seats

USSR Union of Soviet Socialist Republics: a former state in E Europe and N Asia, covering the area now composed of Russia, Ukraine, Kazakhstan, and a number of smaller states usual adj

1 of the most normal, frequent, or regular type: the usual assortment of stories

◇ SYNONYMS: normal, customary, regular, general, common, standard, ordinary, typical

► n

2 ordinary or commonplace events: the dirt was nothing out of the usual

3 as usual as happens normally

4 the usual (informal) the habitual or usual drink > usually adv

usurp (yewz-zurp) vb to seize a position or power without authority > usurpation n

> usurper n

usury (yewz-yoor-ree) n, pl -ries (old-fashioned)

1 the practice of loaning money at an exorbitant rate of interest

2 an unlawfully high rate of interest > usurer n

ute n (Austral & NZ informal) a utility truck utensil n a tool or container for practical use: cooking utensils uterine adj of or affecting the womb uterus (yew-ter-russ) n, pl uteri (yew-ter-rye) (anatomy) a hollow muscular organ in the pelvic cavity of female mammals, which houses the developing fetus; womb utilitarian adj

1 useful rather than beautiful

2 of utilitarianism

► n

3 an advocate of utilitarianism utilitarianism n (ethics) the doctrine that the right thing to do is that which brings about the greatest good for the greatest number utility n, pl -ties

1 usefulness

◇ SYNONYMS: usefulness, benefit, convenience, practicality, efficacy, serviceableness

2 something useful

3 a public service, such as water or electricity

► adj

4 designed for use rather than beauty: utility fabrics utility room n a room with equipment for domestic work like washing and ironing utility truck n (Austral & NZ) a small truck with an open body and low sides utilize or -lise vb -lizing, -lized or -lising, -lised to make practical or worthwhile use of ◇ SYNONYMS: use, employ, deploy, take advantage of, make use of, put to use, bring into play, avail yourself of > utilization or -lisation n utmost adj

1 of the greatest possible degree or amount: the utmost seriousness

◇ SYNONYMS: greatest, highest, maximum, supreme, paramount, pre-eminent

2 at the furthest limit: the utmost point

◇ SYNONYMS: farthest, extreme, last, final

► n

3 the greatest possible degree or amount: I was doing my utmost to comply

◇ SYNONYMS: best, greatest, maximum, highest, hardest

Utopia (yew-tope-ee-a) n any real or imaginary society, place, or state considered to be perfect or ideal

> Utopian adj

utter¹ vb

1 to express something in sounds or words: she hadn't uttered a single word

◇ SYNONYMS: say, state, speak, voice, express, deliver, declare, mouth

2 (criminal law) to put counterfeit money or forged cheques into circulation utter² adj total or absolute: utter amazement

◇ SYNONYMS: absolute, complete, total, sheer, outright, thorough, downright (derogatory), unmitigated > utterly adv

utterance n

1 something expressed in speech or writing

2 the expression in words of ideas, thoughts, or feelings uttermost adj, n same as utmost

U-turn n

1 a turn, made by a vehicle, in the shape of a U, resulting in a reversal of direction

2 a complete change in policy

UV ultraviolet

uvula (yew-view-la) n the small fleshy part of the soft palate that hangs in the back of the throat > uvular adj

uxorious (ux-or-ee-uss) adj excessively fond of or dependent on one's wife

Vv

V

- 1 (chem) vanadium
- 2 volt
- 3 the Roman numeral for five

v.

- 1 verb
- 2 verse
- 3 versus
- 4 volume

vacancy n, pl -cies

- 1 an unoccupied job or position: he had heard of a vacancy for a librarian ◇ SYNONYMS: opening, job, post, place, position, role, situation, opportunity
- 2 an unoccupied room in a hotel or guesthouse: the last hotel we tried had a vacancy ◇ SYNONYMS: room, space, available accommodation, unoccupied room
- 3 the state of being unoccupied vacant adj

- 1 (of a toilet, room, etc.) unoccupied or not being used: I sat down in a vacant chair ◇ SYNONYMS: empty, free, available, abandoned, deserted, for sale, on the market, void
 - 2 (of a job or position) unfilled at the present time ◇ SYNONYMS: unfilled, unoccupied
 - 3 having or suggesting a lack of interest or understanding: he sat there staring at me with a vacant look ◇ SYNONYMS: blank, vague, dreamy, empty, abstracted, idle, vacuous, inane
 - 4 (of a period of time) not set aside for any particular activity: two slots in his programme have been left vacant
- > vacantly adv

vacate vb -cating, -cated

1 to cause (something) to be empty by leaving: do you wish us to vacate the room?

2 to give up (a job or position) vacation n

1 (Brit & S African) a time of the year when the universities or law courts are closed

2 (US & Canad & Austral) same as holiday vaccinate vb -nating, -nated to give (someone) a vaccine, usually by injection, in order to protect them against a disease: children vaccinated against meningitis

> vaccination n

vaccine n

1 (med) a substance made from the germs that cause a disease which is given to people to prevent them getting the disease

2 (computers) a piece of software that detects and removes computer viruses from a system vacillate (vass-ill-late) vb -lating, -lated to keep changing one's mind or opinions about something: he vacillated between republican and monarchist sentiments

> vacillation n

vacuity n an absence of intelligent thought or ideas: I suggested to one of his advisers that his vacuity was a handicap in these debates

vacuous adj

1 lacking in intelligent ideas

2 showing no sign of intelligence or understanding: her smile was vacuous but without malice vacuum n, pl vacuums or vacua

1 a space which contains no air or other gas

◇ SYNONYMS: emptiness, space, void, gap, nothingness, vacuity

2 a vacant place or position that needs to be filled by someone or something else: the army moved in to fill the power vacuum

◇ SYNONYMS: gap, lack, absence, space, deficiency, void

3 short for vacuum cleaner

► vb

4 to clean (something) with a vacuum cleaner vacuum cleaner n an electric machine which sucks up dust and dirt from carpets and upholstery > vacuum cleaning n

vacuum flask n a double-walled flask with a vacuum between the walls that keeps drinks hot or cold vacuum-packed adj (of food) packed in an airtight container in order to preserve freshness vagabond n a person who travels from place to place and has no fixed home or job vagary (vaig-a-ree) n, pl -garies an unpredictable change in a situation or in someone's behaviour: I was unused to the vagaries of the retailer's world

vagina (vaj-jine-a) n the passage in most female mammals that extends from the neck of the womb to the external genitals > vaginal adj

vagrant (vaig-rant) n

1 a person who moves from place to place and has no regular home or job

► adj

2 wandering about > vagrancy n

vague adj

1 not expressed or explained clearly: he thought of his instructions, so vague and imprecise

◇ SYNONYMS: unclear, indefinite, hazy, confused, loose, uncertain, unsure, superficial

2 deliberately withholding information: she was rather vague about the whole deal

◇ SYNONYMS: imprecise, unspecified, generalized, rough, loose, ambiguous, hazy, equivocal

3 (of a sound or shape) unable to be heard or seen clearly: he heard some vague sound from downstairs

◇ SYNONYMS: indistinct, unclear, faint, hazy, indeterminate, nebulous, ill-defined

4 (of a person) not concentrating or thinking clearly: she was mumbling to herself in a vague way

◇ SYNONYMS: absent-minded, distracted, vacant, preoccupied, oblivious, inattentive

5 not clearly established or known: it was a vague rumour which would fade away and be forgotten > vaguely adv

> vagueness n

vain adj

1 excessively proud of one's appearance or achievements

◇ SYNONYMS: conceited, narcissistic, proud, arrogant, swaggering, egotistical, self-important

2 senseless or unsuccessful: he made a vain attempt to lighten the atmosphere

◇ SYNONYMS: futile, useless, pointless, unsuccessful, idle, worthless, senseless, fruitless

► n

3 in vain without achieving the desired effects or results: the old man searched in vain for his son

◇ SYNONYMS in vain: useless, to no avail, unsuccessful, fruitless, vain > vainly adv

vainglorious adj boastful or proud: his vainglorious posturing had earned him numerous powerful enemies valance (val-lenss) n a short piece of decorative material hung round the edge of a bed or above a window vale n (literary) a valley valediction (val-lid-dik-shun) n a farewell speech > valedictory adj

valence (vale-enss) n (chem) the ability of atoms and chemical groups to form compounds valency or (esp US & Canad) valence n, pl -cies or -ces (chem) the number of atoms of hydrogen that an atom or chemical group is able to combine with in forming compounds valentine n

1 a card sent, often anonymously, as an expression of love on Saint Valentine's Day, February 14

2 the person to whom one sends such a card valerian n a plant with small white or pinkish flowers and a medicinal root valet n

1 a male servant employed to look after another man

► vb -eting, -eted

2 to act as a valet (for)

3 to clean the bodywork and interior of (a car) as a professional service valetudinarian (val-lit-yew-din-air-ee-an) n

1 a person who is chronically sick

2 a person who continually worries about his or her health > valetudinarianism n valiant adj very brave: it was a valiant attempt to rescue the struggling victim > valiantly adv

valid adj

1 based on sound reasoning: I think that's a very valid question

◇ SYNONYMS: sound, good, reasonable, telling, convincing, rational, logical, viable

2 legally acceptable: she must produce a valid driving licence

◇ SYNONYMS: legal, official, legitimate, genuine, authentic, lawful, bona fide

3 important or serious enough to say or do: religious broadcasting has a valid purpose > validity n

validate vb -dating, -dated

1 to prove (a claim or statement) to be true or correct

2 to give legal force or official confirmation to > validation n

valise (val-leez) n (old-fashioned) a small suitcase

Valium n (trademark) a drug used as a tranquillizer valley n a long stretch of land between hills, often with a river flowing through it ◇ SYNONYMS: hollow, dale, glen, vale, depression, dell valour or (US) valor n (literary) great bravery, esp. in battle > valorous adj

valuable adj

1 worth a large amount of money: his house was furnished with valuable antique furniture

◇ SYNONYMS: precious, expensive, costly, dear, high-priced, priceless, irreplaceable

2 of great use or importance: the investigations will provide valuable information

◇ SYNONYMS: useful, important, profitable, worthwhile, beneficial, helpful
► n

3 valuables valuable articles of personal property, such as jewellery

◇ SYNONYMS: treasures, prized possessions, precious items, heirlooms, personal effects, costly articles valuation n

1 a formal assessment of how much something is worth: they will arrange a valuation on your house

2 the price arrived at by the process of valuing value n

1 the desirability of something, often in terms of its usefulness or exchangeability

◇ SYNONYMS: importance, benefit, worth, merit, point, service, sense, profit

2 an amount of money considered to be a fair exchange for something: scrap metal with a value of £100

◇ SYNONYMS: cost, price, worth, rate, market price, face value, asking price, selling price

3 something worth the money it cost: the set meal was great value

4 values the moral principles and beliefs of a person or group

◇ SYNONYMS: principles, morals, ethics, mores, standards of behaviour, (moral) standards

5 (maths) a particular number or quantity represented by a figure or symbol

► vb -uing, -ued

6 to assess the worth or desirability of (something)

◇ SYNONYMS: evaluate, price, estimate, rate, cost, assess, set at, appraise

7 to hold (someone or something) in high regard ◇ SYNONYMS: appreciate, rate (slang), prize, regard highly, respect, admire, treasure, esteem > valued adj

> valueless adj

> valuer n

value-added tax n (Brit & S African) See VAT value judgment n a personal opinion about something based on an individual's beliefs and not on facts which can be checked or proved valve n

1 a part attached to a pipe or tube which controls the flow of gas or liquid

2 (anatomy) a small flap in a hollow organ, such as the heart, that controls the flow and direction of blood

3 a closed tube through which electrons move in a vacuum

4 (zool) one of the hinged shells of an oyster or clam

5 (music) a device on some brass instruments by which the effective length of the tube may be varied valvular adj of or relating to valves: valvular heart disease

vamp¹ (informal) n

1 a sexually attractive woman who seduces men

► vb

2 (of a woman) to seduce (a man) vamp² vb vamp up to make (a story, piece of music, etc.) seem new by inventing additional parts vampire n (in European folklore) a corpse that rises nightly from its grave to drink the blood of living people vampire bat n a bat of Central and South America that feeds on the blood of birds and mammals van¹ n

1 a road vehicle with a roof and no side windows used to transport goods

2 (Brit) a closed railway wagon used to transport luggage, goods, or mail van² n short for vanguard vanadium n (chem) a silvery-white metallic element used to toughen steel.

SYMBOL: V

vandal n someone who deliberately causes damage to personal or public property > vandalism n vandalize or -lize vb -lizing, -lized or -lising, -lised to cause damage to (personal or public property) deliberately vane n one of the blades forming part of the wheel of a windmill, a screw propeller, etc.

vanguard n

1 the leading division or units of an army

2 the most advanced group or position in scientific research, a movement, etc.:

a distinguished architect in the vanguard of her profession vanilla n

1 a flavouring for food such as ice cream, which comes from the pods of a tropical plant

2 a flavouring extract prepared from the beans of this plant and used in cooking

► adj

3 flavoured with vanilla: vanilla essence

4 (slang) ordinary or conventional: a vanilla kind of guy vanish vb

1 to disappear suddenly: the choppers vanished from radar screens at dawn yesterday

◇ SYNONYMS: disappear, dissolve, evaporate, fade away, melt away, evanesce (formal)

2 to cease to exist: the old landmarks had vanished

◇ SYNONYMS: die out, disappear, pass away, end, fade, dwindle, cease to exist, become extinct vanity n

1 a feeling of pride about one's appearance or ability

◇ SYNONYMS: pride, arrogance, conceit, narcissism, egotism, conceitedness

2 pl -ties something about which one is vain: it's one of my vanities that I can guess scents

vanquish vb (literary) to defeat (someone) in a battle, contest, or argument vantage n a state, position, or opportunity offering advantage vape vb vaping, vaped (informal) to inhale vapour from an e-cigarette vapid adj dull and uninteresting: their publications were vapid and amateurish > vapidity n

vapor n (US) same as vapour vaporize or -rise vb -rizing, -rized or -rising, -rised (of a liquid or solid) to change into vapour > vaporization or -risation n vaporous adj resembling or full of vapour vapour or (US) vapor n

1 a mass of tiny drops of water or other liquids in the air, which appear as a mist

2 the gaseous form of a substance that is usually a liquid or a solid

3 the vapours (old-fashioned) a feeling of faintness, dizziness, and depression

VAR video assistant referee: an official at a football match who examines important incidents using video replay equipment variable adj

1 likely to change at any time: variable weather

◇ SYNONYMS: changeable, unstable, fluctuating, shifting, flexible, uneven, temperamental, unsteady

2 (maths) having a range of possible values

► n

3 something that is subject to variation

4 (maths) an expression that can be assigned any of a set of values > variability n

> variably adv

variant adj

1 differing from a standard or type: variant spellings

◇ SYNONYMS: different, alternative, modified, divergent

► n

2 something that differs from a standard or type

◇ SYNONYMS: variation, form, version, development, alternative, adaptation, revision, modification variation n

1 something presented in a slightly different form: his books are all variations on a basic theme

◇ SYNONYMS: alternative, variety, modification, departure, innovation, variant

2 a change in level, amount, or quantity: there was a variation in the figures

◇ SYNONYMS: variety, change, deviation, difference, diversity, diversion (Brit), novelty

3 (music) the repetition of a simple tune with the addition of new harmonies or a change in rhythm: Variations on a Hussar's Song

varicose veins pl n veins, usually in the legs, which have become knotted, swollen, and sometimes painful varied adj of different types, sizes, or quantities: these young men and women would be of varied backgrounds

◇ SYNONYMS: different, mixed, various, diverse, assorted, miscellaneous, sundry, motley variegated adj having patches or streaks of different colours: variegated holly > variegation n

variety n, pl -ties

1 the state of being diverse or various ◇ SYNONYMS: diversity, change, variation, difference, diversification, heterogeneity, multifariousness

2 different things of the same kind: I'm cooking the mince with a variety of vegetables

◇ SYNONYMS: range, selection, assortment, mix, collection, line-up, mixture, array

3 a particular type of something in the same general category: this variety of pear is extremely juicy

◇ SYNONYMS: type, sort, kind, class, brand, species, breed, strain

4 (taxonomy) a race whose distinct characters do not justify classification as a separate species

5 a type of entertainment consisting of short unrelated acts, such as singing, dancing, and comedy various adj

1 several different: there are various possible answers to this question

◇ SYNONYMS: many, numerous, countless, several, abundant, innumerable, sundry, profuse

2 of different kinds: the causes of high blood pressure are various and complicated

◇ SYNONYMS: different, assorted, miscellaneous, varied, distinct, diverse, disparate, sundry > variously adv

varnish n

1 a liquid painted onto a surface to give it a hard glossy finish

◇ SYNONYMS: lacquer, polish, glaze, gloss

2 a smooth surface, coated with or as if with varnish

3 an artificial, superficial, or deceptively pleasing manner or appearance: those who aspired to become civil servants acquired a varnish of university education

4 (chiefly Brit) short for nail varnish

► vb

5 to apply varnish to

◇ SYNONYMS: lacquer, polish, glaze, gloss

6 to try to make (something unpleasant) appear more attractive: when did we start equivocating, camouflaging, varnishing the truth?

varsity n, pl -ties (old-fashioned, or informal) short for university vary vb varies, varying, varied

1 to change in appearance, character, or form

2 to be different or cause to be different: the age of appearance of underarm and body hair varies greatly from person to person

◇ SYNONYMS: differ, be different, be dissimilar, disagree, diverge

3 to give variety to: you can vary the type of exercise you do

◇ SYNONYMS: alternate

4 to change in accordance with another variable: an individual's calorie requirement varies with age, sex, and physical activity

◇ SYNONYMS: change, shift, swing, alter, fluctuate, oscillate, seesaw > varying adj

vascular adj (biol, anatomy) of or relating to the vessels that conduct and circulate body fluids such as blood or sap vas deferens n, pl vasa deferentia (anatomy) either of the two ducts that convey sperm from the testicles to the penis vase n a glass or pottery jar used as an ornament or for holding cut flowers vasectomy n, pl -mies surgical removal of all or part of the vas deferens as a method of contraception

Vaseline n (trademark) petroleum jelly, used as an ointment or a lubricant vassal n

1 (in feudal society) a man who gave military service to a lord in return for protection and often land

2 a person, nation, or state dominated by another > vassalage n

vast adj unusually large in size, degree, or number ◇ SYNONYMS: huge, massive, enormous, great, wide, immense, gigantic, monumental (informal) > vastly adv

> vastness n

vat n a large container for holding or storing liquids

VAT (in Britain and S Africa) value-added tax: a tax levied on the difference between the cost of materials and the selling price of a commodity or service

Vatican n

1 the Pope's palace, in Rome

2 the authority of the Pope vaudeville n variety entertainment consisting of short acts such as song-and-dance routines and comic turns vault¹ n

1 a secure room where money and other valuables are stored safely

◇ SYNONYMS: strongroom, repository, depository

2 an underground burial chamber

◇ SYNONYMS: crypt, tomb, catacomb, cellar, mausoleum, charnel house, undercroft

3 an arched structure that forms a roof or ceiling

4 a cellar for storing wine vault² vb

1 to jump over (something) by resting one's hands on it or by using a long pole

◇ SYNONYMS: jump, spring, leap, clear, bound, hurdle

► n

2 the act of vaulting > vaulter n

vaulted adj being or having an arched roof: an atmospheric vaulted dining room

vaunt vb

1 to describe or display (one's success or possessions) boastfully

► n

2 a boast

> vaunted adj

VC

1 Vice Chancellor

2 Victoria Cross

3 (history) Vietcong: the Communist-led guerrilla force of South Vietnam

VD venereal disease

VDU visual display unit

veal n the meat from a calf, used as food vector n

1 (maths) a variable quantity, such as force, that has magnitude and direction

2 (pathol) an animal, usually an insect, that carries a disease-producing microorganism from person to person veer vb

1 to change direction suddenly: the plane veered off the runway and careered through the perimeter fence

◇ SYNONYMS: change direction, turn, swerve, shift, sheer, change course

2 to change from one position or opinion to another: her feelings veered from tenderness to sudden spurts of genuine love

► n

3 a change of course or direction vegan (vee-gan) n a person who does not eat meat, fish, or any animal products such as cheese, butter, etc.

vegetable n

1 a plant, such as potato or cauliflower, with parts that are used as food

2 (offensive) someone who is unable to move or think, as a result of brain damage

► adj

3 of or like plants or vegetables vegetarian n

1 a person who does not eat meat or fish

► adj

2 excluding meat and fish: a vegetarian diet

> vegetarianism n

vegetate vb -tating, -tated to live in a dull and boring way with no mental stimulation vegetation n plant life as a whole veg out vb vegges, vegging, vegged (slang) to relax in a passive way vehement adj

1 expressing strong feelings or opinions

2 (of actions or gestures) performed with great force or energy > vehemence n > vehemently adv

vehicle n

1 a machine such as a bus or car for transporting people or goods

◇ SYNONYMS: conveyance (old-fashioned), machine, motor vehicle

2 something used to achieve a particular purpose or as a means of expression:

the newspaper was a vehicle for explaining government policies

◇ SYNONYMS: medium, means, channel, mechanism, organ, apparatus

3 (pharmacol) an inactive substance mixed with the active ingredient in a medicine

4 a liquid, such as oil, in which a pigment is mixed before it is applied to a surface > vehicular adj

veil n

1 a piece of thin cloth, usually as part of a hat or headdress, used to cover a woman's face

◇ SYNONYMS: mask, cover, shroud, film, curtain, cloak

2 something that conceals the truth: a veil of secrecy

◇ SYNONYMS: screen, mask, disguise, blind

3 take the veil to become a nun

► vb

4 to cover or conceal with or as if with a veil

◇ SYNONYMS: cover, screen, hide, mask, shield, disguise, conceal, obscure veiled adj (of a comment or remark) presented in a disguised form: it was a thinly veiled criticism

◇ SYNONYMS: disguised, implied, hinted at, covert, masked, concealed, suppressed vein n

1 any of the tubes that carry blood to the heart

◇ SYNONYMS: blood vessel

2 a thin line in a leaf or in an insect's wing

3 a clearly defined layer of ore or mineral in rock

◇ SYNONYMS: seam, layer, stratum, course, current, bed, deposit, streak

4 an irregular streak of colour in marble, wood, or cheese

5 a distinctive trait or quality in speech or writing: critics have exposed a strong vein of moralism in the poem

6 a temporary mood: we're in a very humorous vein tonight

◇ SYNONYMS: mood, style, note, tone, mode, temper, tenor > veined adj

Velcro n (trademark) a type of fastening consisting of one piece of fabric with tiny hooked threads and another with a coarse surface that sticks to it

veld or veldt n the open country of South Africa including landscapes which are grassy, bushy, or thinly forested veldskoen or velskoen (felt-skoon) n (S African) a sturdy ankle boot vellum n

1 a fine calf, kid, or lamb parchment

2 a strong good-quality paper that resembles this velocity (vel-loss-it-ee) n, pl -ties the speed at which something is moving in a particular direction

◇ SYNONYMS: speed, pace, rapidity, quickness, swiftness velour or velours (vel-loor) n a silk or cotton cloth similar to velvet velvet n

1 a fabric with a thick close soft pile on one side

2 the furry covering of the newly formed antlers of a deer

► adj

3 made of velvet

4 soft or smooth like velvet

5 an iron fist or hand in a velvet glove determination concealed by a gentle manner > velvety adj

velveteen n a cotton fabric that resembles velvet venal (vee-nal) adj

1 willing to accept bribes in return for acting dishonestly: venal politicians

2 associated with corruption or bribery: venal greed > venality n

vend vb to sell (goods)

vendetta n

1 a long-lasting quarrel between people or organizations in which they attempt to harm each other: it's an inexplicable vendetta against the firm and its directors

2 a private feud between families in which members of one family kill members of the other family in revenge for earlier murders vending machine n a machine that automatically dispenses food, drinks, etc. when money is inserted vendor n

1 a person who sells goods such as newspapers or hamburgers from a stall or cart

2 (chiefly law) a person who sells property veneer n

1 a thin layer of wood or plastic used to cover the surface of something made of cheaper material

2 a deceptive but convincing appearance: nobody penetrated his veneer of modest charm venerable adj

1 (of a person) entitled to respect because of great age or wisdom

- 2 (of an object) impressive because it is old or important historically 3 (RC Church) a title given to a dead person who is going to be declared a saint 4 (Church of England) a title given to an archdeacon venerate vb -ating, -ated to hold (someone) in deep respect > venerator n

veneration n a feeling of awe or great respect: George Gershwin is worthy of the veneration accorded his classical counterparts venereal disease n a disease, such as syphilis, transmitted by sexual intercourse

Venetian adj
1 of Venice, a port in NE Italy
► n
2 a person from Venice

Venetian blind n a window blind made of thin horizontal slats vengeance n

1 the act of killing, injuring, or harming someone for revenge ◇ SYNONYMS: revenge, retaliation, reprisal, retribution, requital 2 with a vengeance to a much greater extent or with much greater force than expected: my career was beginning to take off with a vengeance vengeful adj wanting revenge venial (veen-ee-al) adj easily excused or forgiven: venial sins venison n the flesh of a deer, used as food venom n

1 a feeling of great bitterness or anger towards someone

2 the poison that certain snakes and scorpions inject when they bite or sting > venomous adj

> venomously adv

venous (vee-nuss) adj of or relating to veins vent¹ n

1 a small opening in something through which fresh air can enter and fumes can be released

◇ SYNONYMS: outlet, opening, aperture, duct, orifice

2 the shaft of a volcano through which lava and gases erupt

3 the anal opening of a bird or other small animal

4 give vent to to release (an emotion) in an outburst: she gave vent to her misery and loneliness

► vb

5 to release or express freely: consumers vented their anger on the group by boycotting its products

◇ SYNONYMS: express, release, voice, air, discharge, utter, emit, pour out

6 to make vents in vent² n a vertical slit in the lower hem of a jacket ventilate vb -lating, -lated

1 to let fresh air into (a room or building)

2 to discuss (ideas or feelings) openly: people need a safe place to ventilate their feelings > ventilation n ventilator n an opening or device, such as a fan, used to let fresh air into a room or building

ventral adj relating to the front part of the body > ventrally adv

ventricle n (anatomy)
1 a chamber of the heart that pumps blood to the arteries 2 any one of the four main cavities of the brain > ventricular adj ventriloquism n the ability to speak without moving the lips so that the words appear to come from another person or from another part of the room > ventriloquist n venture n

1 a project or activity that is risky or of uncertain outcome ◇ SYNONYMS: undertaking, project, enterprise, campaign, risk, operation, activity, scheme 2 a business operation in which there is the risk of loss as well as the opportunity for profit ► vb -turing, -tured
3 to do something that involves risk or danger: I thought it wise to venture into foreign trade
4 to dare to express (an opinion) ◇ SYNONYMS: put forward, volunteer 5 to go to an unknown or dangerous place ◇ SYNONYMS: go, travel, journey, set out, wander, stray, plunge into, rove 6 to dare (to do something): you have asked me so often to come to your place that I ventured to drop in ◇ SYNONYMS: dare, presume, have the courage to, be brave enough, hazard, go out on a limb (informal), take the liberty, go so far as > venturer n

venturesome adj willing to take risks venue n a place where an organized gathering, such as a concert or a sporting event, is held

Venus n

- 1 the Roman goddess of love
- 2 the planet second nearest to the sun veracious adj habitually truthful veracity n

- 1 habitual truthfulness
- 2 accuracy

verandah or veranda n

- 1 an open porch attached to a house
- 2 (NZ) a continuous overhead canopy outside shops that gives shelter to pedestrians verb n a word that is used to indicate the occurrence or performance of an action or the existence of a state, for example run, make, or do

verbal adj

- 1 of or relating to words: verbal skills
 - 2 spoken rather than written: a verbal agreement
- ◇ SYNONYMS: spoken, oral, word-of-mouth, unwritten
- 3 (grammar) of or relating to a verb
- > verbally adv

verbalize or -lize vb -lizing, -lized or -lising, -lised to express (an idea or feeling) in words verbatim (verb-bait-im) adv

1 using exactly the same words: I'll repeat it verbatim

► adj

2 using exactly the same words: a verbatim account

verbena n a plant with red, white, or purple sweet-smelling flowers verbiage n the excessive use of words verbose (verb-bohss) adj using more words than is necessary > verbosity n

verdant adj (literary) covered with green vegetation verdict n

1 the decision made by a jury about the guilt or innocence of a defendant

◇ SYNONYMS: decision, finding, judgment, opinion, sentence, conclusion, conviction, adjudication

2 an opinion formed after examining the facts

◇ SYNONYMS: decision, finding, judgment, opinion, sentence, conclusion, conviction, adjudication

verdigris (ver-dig-reess) n a green or bluish coating which forms on copper, brass, or bronze that has been exposed to damp verdure n (literary) flourishing green vegetation verge n

1 a grass border along a road

2 on the verge of having almost reached (a point or condition)

3 an edge or rim

◇ SYNONYMS: border, edge, margin, limit, boundary, threshold, brim

► vb verging, verged

4 verge on to be near to: she was verging on hysteria

◇ SYNONYMS verge on something: come near to, approach, border on, resemble, incline to, be similar to, touch on, be more or less verger n (chiefly Church of England)

1 a church official who acts as caretaker

2 an official who carries the rod of office before a bishop or dean in ceremonies and processions verify vb -fies, -fying, -fied

1 to check the truth of (something) by investigation

◇ SYNONYMS: check, make sure, examine, monitor, inspect

2 to prove (something) to be true

◇ SYNONYMS: confirm, prove, substantiate, support, validate, bear out, corroborate, authenticate > verifiable adj

> verification n

verily adv (literary) truly: for verily, this was their destiny verisimilitude n the appearance of truth or reality veritable adj rightly called; real: a veritable mine of information

> veritably adv

verity n, pl -ties a true statement or principle vermicelli (ver-me-chell-ee) n

1 very fine strands of pasta, used in soups

2 tiny chocolate strands used as a topping for cakes or ice cream vermiform adj shaped like a worm vermiform appendix n (anatomy) same as appendix vermilion adj

1 orange-red

► n

2 mercuric sulphide, used as an orange-red pigment; cinnabar vermin pl n

1 small animals collectively, such as insects and rodents, that spread disease and damage crops

2 unpleasant people > verminous adj

vermouth (ver-muth) n a wine flavoured with herbs vernacular (ver-nak-yew-lar) n

1 the commonly spoken language or dialect of a particular people or place

► adj

2 in or using the vernacular vernal adj of or occurring in spring > vernally adv

vernier (ver-nee-er) n a small movable scale in certain measuring instruments such as theodolites, used to obtain a fractional reading of one of the divisions on the main scale veronica n a plant with small blue, pink, or white flowers verruca (ver-roo-ka) n (pathol) a wart, usually on the sole of the foot versatile adj having many different skills or uses

◇ SYNONYMS: adaptable, flexible, all-round, resourceful, multifaceted > versatility n

verse n

1 a division of a poem or song

2 poetry as distinct from prose

3 one of the short sections into which chapters of the books of the Bible are divided

4 a poem version n

1 a form of something, such as a piece of writing, with some differences from other forms

◇ SYNONYMS: form, variety, variant, sort, class, design, style, model

2 an account of something from a certain point of view: so far there's been no official version of the incident

◇ SYNONYMS: account, report, description, record, reading, story, view, understanding

3 an adaptation, for example of a book or play into a film

◇ SYNONYMS: adaptation, edition, interpretation, form, copy, rendering, reproduction, portrayal verso n, pl -sos

1 the left-hand page of a book

2 the back of a sheet of printed paper versus prep

1 (in a sporting competition or lawsuit) against

2 in opposition to or in contrast with: peace versus war vertebra (ver-tib-bra) n, pl -brae (-bree) one of the bony segments of the spinal column > vertebral adj

vertebrate n

1 an animal with a backbone, such as a fish, amphibian, reptile, bird, or mammal

► adj

2 having a backbone vertex (ver-tex) n, pl -tices (-tiss-seez)

1 the highest point

2 (maths)

A the point on a geometric figure where the sides form an angle

B the highest point of a triangle vertical adj

1 at right angles to the horizon: the vertical cliff

◇ SYNONYMS: upright, sheer, perpendicular, straight (up and down), erect, plumb, on end, precipitous, vertiginous

2 straight up and down: a vertical cut

◇ SYNONYMS: upright, sheer, perpendicular, straight (up and down), erect, plumb, on end, precipitous, vertiginous

3 (econ) of or relating to associated or consecutive, though not identical, stages of industrial activity: the purchase of a chain of travel agents by a leading tour operator will increase vertical integration in the holiday industry

► n

4 a vertical line or direction > vertically adv

vertiginous adj producing dizziness vertigo n (pathol) a sensation of dizziness felt because one's balance is disturbed, sometimes experienced when looking down from a high place vervain n a plant with long slender spikes of purple, blue, or white flowers verve n great enthusiasm or liveliness very adv

1 used to add emphasis to adjectives and adverbs that are able to be graded:

I'm very happy; he'll be home very soon

◇ SYNONYMS: extremely, highly, greatly, really, deeply, unusually, profoundly, decidedly

► adj

2 used with nouns to give emphasis or exaggerated intensity: the very end of his visit; the very thing I need

◇ SYNONYMS: exact, precise, selfsame vesicle n (biol)

1 a small sac or cavity, esp. one filled with fluid

2 a blister vespers n an evening service in some Christian churches vessel n

1 a ship or large boat

◇ SYNONYMS: ship, boat, craft

2 an object used as a container for liquid

◇ SYNONYMS: container, receptacle, can, bowl, tank, pot, drum, barrel

3 (biol) a tubular structure in animals and plants that carries body fluids, such as blood and sap vest n

1 (Brit) an undergarment covering the top half of the body

2 (US & Canad & Austral) a waistcoat

► vb

3 vest in to settle (power or property) on: by the power vested in me, I pronounce you married

◇ SYNONYMS vest in something or someone: place, invest, entrust, settle, confer, endow, bestow, consign

4 vest with to bestow on: the sponsorship has vested these matches with a new interest

◇ SYNONYMS vest with something: endow with, entrust with vested interest n

1 a strong personal interest someone has in a matter because he or she might benefit from it

2 (property law) an existing right to the immediate or future possession of property vestibule n a small entrance hall vestige (vest-ij) n

1 a small amount or trace

2 (biol) an organ or part that is a small nonfunctional remnant of a functional organ in an ancestor vestigial (vest-ij-ee-al) adj remaining after a larger or more important thing has gone: a strong seam of vestigial belief

vestments pl n

1 ceremonial clothes worn by the clergy at religious services

2 robes that show authority or rank vestry n, pl -tries a room in a church used as an office by the priest or minister vet¹ n

1 short for veterinary surgeon

◇ SYNONYMS: veterinary surgeon, veterinarian (US), animal doctor

► vb vetting, vetted

2 to make a careful check of (a person or document) for suitability: guests have to be vetted and vouched for

◇ SYNONYMS: check, examine, investigate, review, appraise, scrutinize vet² n (US & Canad & Austral & NZ) short for veteran vetch n

1 a climbing plant with blue or purple flowers

2 the beanlike fruit of the vetch, used as fodder veteran n

1 a person who has given long service in some capacity

◇ SYNONYMS: old hand, past master, warhorse (informal), old stager

2 a soldier who has seen a lot of active service

3 a person who has served in the military forces

► adj

4 long-serving: the veteran American politician

◇ SYNONYMS: long-serving, seasoned, experienced, old, established, qualified, mature, practised veterinarian n (US & Canad & Austral) a veterinary surgeon veterinary adj relating to veterinary science veterinary surgeon n (Brit) a person qualified to practise veterinary medicine veto (vee-toe) n, pl -toes

1 the power to prevent legislation or action proposed by others: no single state has a veto

◇ SYNONYMS: ban, dismissal, rejection, vetoing, boycott, embargo, prohibiting, prohibition

2 the exercise of this power

◇ SYNONYMS: ban, dismissal, rejection, vetoing, boycott, embargo, prohibiting, prohibition

► vb -toing, -toed

3 to refuse consent to (a proposal, such as a government bill)

◇ SYNONYMS: ban, block, reject, rule out, turn down, forbid, boycott, prohibit

4 to prohibit or forbid: the minister vetoed the appointments

◇ SYNONYMS: ban, block, reject, rule out, turn down, forbid, boycott, prohibit vex vb to cause (someone) to feel annoyance or irritation > vexing adj

> vexation n

vexatious adj vexing

VHF or vhf (radio) very high frequency via prep

1 by way of; through: they fled to London via Crete

2 by means of: we keep in touch via email viable adj

1 able to be put into practice: the party has failed to propose a viable alternative

◇ SYNONYMS: workable, practical, feasible, suitable, realistic, operational, applicable, usable

2 (of seeds or eggs) capable of growth

3 (of a fetus) sufficiently developed to survive outside the uterus > viability n

viaduct n a bridge for carrying a road or railway across a valley

Viagra n (trademark) a drug that allows increased blood flow into the penis, used to treat impotence in men vial n same as phial viands pl n (old-fashioned) food vibes pl n (informal)

- 1 the emotional reactions between people
- 2 the atmosphere of a place
- 3 short for vibraphone vibrant (vibe-rant) adj

- 1 full of energy and enthusiasm
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: energetic, dynamic, sparkling, vivid, spirited, storming, alive, vigorous
 - 2 (of a voice) rich and full of emotion
 - 3 (of a colour) strong and bright
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: vivid, bright, brilliant, intense, clear, rich, glowing
- > vibrancy n

vibraphone n a musical instrument with metal bars that resonate electronically when hit vibrate vb -brating, -brated

- 1 to move backwards and forwards rapidly
 - 2 to have or produce a quivering or echoing sound
 - 3 (physics) to undergo or cause to undergo vibration
- > vibratory adj

vibration n

- 1 a vibrating

2 (physics)

A a periodic motion about an equilibrium position, such as in the production of sound

B a single cycle of such a motion vibrato n, pl -tos (music) a slight rapid fluctuation in the pitch of a note vibrator n a device for producing a vibratory motion, used for massage or as a sex aid

Vic. Victoria (Australian state) vicar n

- 1 (Church of England) a priest who is in charge of a parish
 - 2 (RC Church) a church officer acting as deputy to a bishop
- > vicarial adj

vicarage n the house where a vicar lives vicarious (vik-air-ee-uss) adj

- 1 felt indirectly by imagining what another person experiences: vicarious satisfaction
 - 2 undergone or done as the substitute for another: vicarious adventures
 - 3 delegated: vicarious power
- > vicariously adv

vice¹ n

- 1 an immoral or evil habit or action: greed is only one of their vices
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: fault, failing, weakness, limitation, defect, deficiency, flaw, shortcoming
- 2 a habit regarded as a weakness in someone's character: his only vice is an obsession with gadgets
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: fault, failing, weakness, limitation, defect, deficiency, flaw, shortcoming
- 3 criminal activities involving sex, drugs, or gambling
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: wickedness, evil, corruption, sin, depravity, immorality, iniquity, turpitude (formal)

vice² or (US) vise² n a tool with a pair of jaws for holding an object while work is done on it vice³ adj serving in the place of; being next in importance to: the vice captain vice chancellor n the chief executive or administrator at a number of universities vice president n an officer ranking immediately below a president and serving as his or her deputy > vice-presidency n

viceregal adj

1 of a viceroy

2 (chiefly Austral & NZ) of a governor or governor general viceroy n a governor of a colony or country who represents the monarch vice versa adv the other way round: there were attacks on northerners by southerners and vice versa

◇ SYNONYMS: the other way round, conversely, in reverse, contrariwise vicinity (viss-in-it-ee) n the area immediately surrounding a place vicious adj

1 cruel or violent: vicious attacks

◇ SYNONYMS: savage, brutal, violent, cruel, ferocious, barbarous

2 forceful or ferocious: she gave the chair a vicious jerk

3 intended to cause hurt or distress: vicious letters

◇ SYNONYMS: malicious, vindictive, spiteful, mean, cruel, venomous

4 (of an animal) fierce or hostile

◇ SYNONYMS: savage, brutal, violent, cruel, ferocious, barbarous > viciously adv

> viciousness n

vicious circle n a situation in which an attempt to resolve one problem creates new problems that re-create the original one vicissitudes (viss-iss-it-yewds) pl n changes in circumstance or fortune victim n

1 a person or thing that suffers harm or death

◇ SYNONYMS: casualty, sufferer, fatality

2 a person who is tricked or swindled

3 a living person or animal sacrificed in a religious rite victimize or -mise vb -mizing, -mized or -mising, -mised to punish or discriminate against (someone) selectively or unfairly > victimization or -misation n victor n

1 a person or nation that has defeated an enemy in war

◇ SYNONYMS: winner, champion, conqueror, vanquisher, prizewinner

2 the winner of a contest or struggle

◇ SYNONYMS: winner, champion, conqueror, vanquisher, prizewinner

Victoria Cross n the highest decoration for bravery in battle awarded to the British and Commonwealth armed forces

Victoria Day n the Monday preceding May 24: observed in Canada as a national holiday

Victorian adj

1 of or in the reign of Queen Victoria of Great Britain and Ireland (1837–1901)

2 characterized by prudery or hypocrisy

3 of or relating to Victoria (the state or any of the cities)

► n

4 a person who lived during the reign of Queen Victoria

5 an inhabitant of Victoria (the state or any of the cities) victorious adj

1 having defeated an enemy or opponent: the victorious allies

◇ SYNONYMS: winning, successful, triumphant, first, champion, conquering, vanquishing, prizewinning

2 of or characterized by victory: a victorious smile victory n, pl -ries

1 the winning of a war or battle

◇ SYNONYMS: win, success, triumph, conquest, walkover (informal)

2 success attained in a contest or struggle

◇ SYNONYMS: win, success, triumph, conquest, walkover (informal)

victuals (vit-tals) pl n (old-fashioned) food and drink vicuna (vik-kew-na) n

1 a S American mammal like the llama

2 the fine cloth made from its wool video n, pl -os

1 the recording and broadcasting of moving images using digital technology or (esp. formerly) video tape

2 a recording of moving images

3 short for video cassette

4 short for video cassette recorder

► vb videoing, videoed

5 to record (moving images)

► adj

6 relating to or used in recording moving images video cassette n a cassette containing video tape video cassette recorder n a device for recording and playing back television programmes and films video tape n

1 magnetic tape used mainly for recording the video-frequency signals of a television programme or film

► vb video-tape-taping, -taped

2 to record (a film or programme) on video tape vie vb vying, vied to compete (with someone): the sisters vied with each other to care for her

◇ SYNONYMS: compete, struggle, contend, strive

Vietnamese adj

1 of Vietnam

► n

2 pl -ese a person from Vietnam

3 the language of Vietnam view n

1 opinion, judgment, or belief: in my view that doesn't really work

◇ SYNONYMS: opinion, belief, feeling, attitude, impression, conviction, point of view, sentiment

2 an understanding of or outlook on something: a specific view of human history

3 everything that can be seen from a particular place or in a particular direction: there was a beautiful view from the window

◇ SYNONYMS: scene, picture, sight, prospect, perspective, landscape, outlook, spectacle

4 vision or sight, esp. range of vision: as they turned into the drive, the house came into view

◇ SYNONYMS: vision, sight, visibility, perspective, eyeshot

5 a picture of a scene

6 the act of seeing or observing

7 in view of taking into consideration

8 on view exhibited to the public

9 take a dim or poor view of to regard (something) unfavourably

10 with a view to with the intention of

► vb

11 to consider in a specified manner: they viewed the visit with hardly disguised apprehension

◇ SYNONYMS: regard, see, consider, perceive, treat, estimate, reckon, deem

12 to examine or inspect (a house or flat) carefully with a view to buying it

13 to look at 14 to watch (television, videos, etc.)

viewer n a person who views something, esp. television

◇ SYNONYMS: watcher, observer, spectator, onlooker viewfinder n a device on a camera that lets the user see what will be included in the photograph vigil (vij-ill) n

1 a night-time period of staying awake to look after a sick person, pray, etc.

2 (RC Church, Church of England) the eve of certain major festivals vigilance n careful attention vigilant adj on the watch for trouble or danger vigilante (vij-ill-ant-ee) n a person who takes it upon himself or herself to enforce the law vignette (vin-yet) n

- 1 a short description of the typical features of something
- 2 a small decorative illustration in a book
- 3 a photograph or drawing with edges that are shaded off vigorous adj

- 1 having physical or mental energy
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: spirited, lively, energetic, active, dynamic, animated, forceful, feisty (informal)
- 2 displaying or performed with vigour: vigorous exercise
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: strenuous, energetic, arduous, hard, taxing, active, rigorous
 - > vigorously adv

vigour or (US) vigor n

- 1 physical or mental energy: the vigour of his invective astonished MPs
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: energy, vitality, power, spirit, strength, animation, verve, gusto
- 2 strong healthy growth

Viking n any of the Scandinavians who raided by sea most of N and W Europe from the 8th to the 11th centuries vile adj

- 1 morally wicked: a vile regime
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: wicked, evil, corrupt, perverted, degenerate, depraved, nefarious
- 2 disgusting: the vile smell of the room
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: disgusting, foul, revolting, offensive, nasty, sickening, horrid (informal), repulsive, yucko (Austral slang)
- 3 unpleasant or bad: I had a vile day at work
 - > vilely adv
 - > vileness n vilify (vill-if-fie) vb -fies, -fying, -fied to speak very badly of (someone)

- > vilification n

villa n

- 1 a large house with gardens
- 2 (Brit) a house rented to holiday-makers village n

- 1 a small group of houses in a country area
 - 2 the inhabitants of such a community
- > villager n

villain n

- 1 a wicked or evil person
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: evildoer, criminal, rogue, scoundrel (old-fashioned), wretch, reprobate, miscreant, blackguard, wrong 'un (slang)
- 2 the main wicked character in a novel or play
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: baddy (informal), antihero villainous adj of or like a villain villainy n, pl -lainies evil or vicious behaviour villein (vill-an) n (in medieval Europe) a peasant who was directly subject to his lord, to whom he paid dues and services in return for his land > villeinage n

vinaigrette n salad dressing made from oil and vinegar with seasonings vindicate vb -cating, -cated

- 1 to clear (someone) of guilt or suspicion
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: clear, acquit, exonerate, absolve, let off the hook, exculpate
 - 2 to provide justification for: the arrests may vindicate the strong-arm tactics
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: support, defend, excuse, justify
- > vindication n

vindictive adj

- 1 maliciously seeking revenge
- 2 characterized by spite or ill will
- > vindictively adv
- > vindictiveness n

vine n

- 1 a plant, such as the grapevine, with long flexible stems that climb by clinging to a support
- 2 the stem of such a plant
- > viny adj

vinegar n

- 1 a sour-tasting liquid made by fermentation of beer, wine, or cider, used for salad dressing or for pickling
- 2 bad temper or spitefulness: the vinegar in her pen is often a welcome seasoning to duller news
- > vinegary adj vineyard (vinn-yard) n an area of land where grapes are grown vino (vee-noh) n, pl -nos (informal) wine vintage n

- 1 the wine obtained from a particular harvest of grapes
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: harvest
- 2 the harvest from which such a wine is obtained
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: harvest
- 3 a time of origin: an open-necked shirt of uncertain vintage
 - adj
- 4 (of wine) of an outstandingly good year
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: high-quality, best, prime, quality, choice, select, superior
- 5 representative of the best and most typical: a vintage Saint Laurent dress
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: classic, old, veteran, historic, heritage, enduring, antique, timeless vintage car n a car built between 1919 and 1930 vintner n a wine merchant vinyl (vine-ill) n

1 any of various strong plastics made by the polymerization of vinyl compounds, such as PVC

2 musical records produced on vinyl discs

► adj

3 (chem) of or containing the monovalent group of atoms $\text{CH}_2\text{CH}-$: vinyl chloride

4 of or made of vinyl: vinyl tiles

viol (vie-oll) n a stringed musical instrument that preceded the violin viola¹ (vee-oh-la) n a bowed stringed instrument of the violin family, slightly larger and lower in pitch than the violin viola² (vie-ol-la) n a variety of pansy violate vb -lating, -lated

1 to break (a law or agreement): he violated export laws

◇ SYNONYMS: break, infringe, disobey, transgress, ignore, defy, disregard, flout

2 to disturb rudely or improperly: these men who were violating her privacy

◇ SYNONYMS: invade, infringe on, disturb, upset, shatter, disrupt, impinge on, encroach on

3 to treat (a sacred place) disrespectfully

◇ SYNONYMS: desecrate, profane, defile, abuse, pollute, deface, dishonour, vandalize

4 to rape

◇ SYNONYMS: rape, sexually assault, abuse > violation n

> violator n

violence n

1 the use of physical force, usually intended to cause injury or destruction

◇ SYNONYMS: brutality, bloodshed, savagery, fighting, terrorism

2 great force or strength in action, feeling, or expression ◇ SYNONYMS: force, power, strength, might, ferocity, forcefulness, powerfulness violent adj

1 using or involving physical force with the intention of causing injury or destruction: violent clashes with government supporters

◇ SYNONYMS: brutal, aggressive, savage, wild, fierce, bullying, cruel, vicious

2 very intense: I took a violent dislike to him

◇ SYNONYMS: passionate, uncontrollable, unrestrained

3 sudden and forceful: a violent explosion > violently adv

violet n

1 a plant with bluish-purple flowers

► adj

2 bluish-purple

violin n a musical instrument, the highest member of the violin family, with four strings played with a bow violinist n a person who plays the violin

VIP very important person viper n a type of poisonous snake virago (vir-rah-go) n, pl -goes or -gos (archaic) an aggressive woman viral (vie-ral) adj

1 of or caused by a virus

► adv

2 go viral (of an image, video, story, etc.) to spread quickly and widely among internet users

► n

3 an image, video, story, etc. that is spread quickly and widely via the internet virgin n

1 a person who has never had sexual intercourse

◇ SYNONYMS: maiden (archaic, literary), girl (archaic)

2 a person who is inexperienced in a specified field: a ski virgin

► adj

3 not having had sexual intercourse

◇ SYNONYMS: pure, chaste, immaculate, virginal, vestal, uncorrupted, undefiled

4 fresh and unused: he found a scrap of virgin paper in a sea of memoranda

5 not yet cultivated, explored, or exploited by people: virgin territory

virginal¹ adj

1 like a virgin

2 extremely pure or fresh virginal² n an early keyboard instrument like a small harpsichord virginity n the condition or fact of being a virgin virile adj

- 1 having the traditional male characteristics of physical strength and a high sex drive 2 forceful and energetic: a virile Highland fling > virility n

virology n the branch of medicine concerned with the study of viruses > virological adj

virtual adj

- 1 having the effect but not the appearance or form of: the investigation has now come to a virtual standstill
◇ SYNONYMS: practical, essential, in all but name 2 (computers) designed so as to extend the potential of a finite system beyond its immediate limits: virtual memory
3 of or relating to virtual reality virtually adv almost or nearly: he is virtually a prisoner in his own palace ◇ SYNONYMS: practically, almost, nearly, in effect, in essence, as good as, in all but name virtual reality n a computer-generated environment that seems real to the user virtue n

- 1 moral goodness
◇ SYNONYMS: goodness, integrity, worth, morality, righteousness, probity (formal), rectitude, incorruptibility 2 a positive moral quality: the virtue of humility ◇ SYNONYMS: merit, strength, asset, plus (informal), attribute, good point, strong point 3 an advantage or benefit: the added virtue of being harmless ◇ SYNONYMS: advantage, benefit, merit, credit, usefulness, efficacy 4 chastity, esp. in women 5 by virtue of by reason of; because of: they escaped execution by virtue of their high rank virtuoso n, pl -si or -sos

1 a person with exceptional musical skill

2 a person with exceptional skill in any area

► adj

3 showing exceptional skill or brilliance: a virtuoso performance > virtuosity n virtuous adj morally good > virtuously adv

virulent (vir-yew-lent) adj

1 extremely bitter or hostile

2

A (of a microorganism) very infectious

B (of a disease) having a violent effect

3 extremely poisonous or harmful: the most virulent poison known to humanity > virulence n

virus n

1 a microorganism that is smaller than a bacterium and can cause disease in humans, animals, or plants

2 (informal) a disease caused by a virus

3 (computers) an unsanctioned and self-replicating program which, when activated, corrupts a computer's data and disables its operating system visa n an official stamp in a passport permitting its holder to travel into or through the country of the government issuing it visage (viz-zij) n (chiefly literary)

1 face

2 appearance vis-à-vis (veez-ah-vee) prep in relation to viscera (viss-er-a) pl n (anatomy) the large internal organs of the body collectively visceral adj

1 of or affecting the viscera

2 instinctive rather than rational: visceral hatred of the neighbours viscid (viss-id) adj sticky viscose n

1 a sticky solution obtained by dissolving cellulose

2 rayon made from this material viscosity n, pl -ties

1 the state of being viscous

2 (physics) the extent to which a fluid resists a tendency to flow viscount (vie-count) n (in the British Isles) a nobleman ranking below an earl and above a baron > viscountcy n viscountess (vie-count-iss) n

1 a woman holding the rank of viscount

2 the wife or widow of a viscount viscous adj (of liquids) thick and sticky visé n (US) same as vice visibility n

- 1 the range or clarity of vision: visibility was good, despite rain
- 2 the condition of being visible visible adj

- 1 able to be seen
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: perceptible, observable, clear, apparent, evident, manifest, in view, discernible
 - 2 able to be perceived by the mind: a visible and flagrant act of aggression
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: perceptible, observable, clear, apparent, evident, manifest, in view, discernible
- > visibly adv

vision n

- 1 the ability to see
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: sight, seeing, eyesight, view, perception
- 2 a vivid mental image produced by the imagination: I kept having visions of her getting lost
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: image, idea, dream, plans, hopes, prospect, ideal, concept
- 3 a hallucination caused by divine inspiration, madness, or drugs: visions of angels
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: hallucination, illusion, apparition, revelation, delusion, mirage, chimera
- 4 great perception of future developments: what he had instead of charisma was vision
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: foresight, imagination, perception, insight, awareness, inspiration, innovation, creativity
- 5 the image on a television screen
- 6 a person or thing of extraordinary beauty visionary adj

- 1 showing foresight: a visionary leader
- 2 idealistic but impractical
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: idealistic, romantic, unrealistic, utopian, speculative, impractical, unworkable, quixotic
- 3 given to having visions

◇ SYNONYMS: prophetic, mystical, predictive, oracular, sibylline

4 of or like visions

► n, pl -naries

5 a visionary person

◇ SYNONYMS: idealist, romantic, dreamer, daydreamer visit vb -siting, -sited

1 to go or come to see (a person or place)

◇ SYNONYMS: call on, drop in on (informal), stop by, look up, go see (US), swing by (informal)

2 to stay with (someone) as a guest

◇ SYNONYMS: stay at, stay with, spend time with

3 (old-fashioned) (of a disease or disaster) to afflict

4 visit on or upon to inflict (punishment) on 5 visit with (US informal) to chat with (someone)

► n

6 the act or an instance of visiting

◇ SYNONYMS: call, social call

7 a professional or official call

8 a stay as a guest

◇ SYNONYMS: trip, stop, stay, break, tour, holiday, vacation, stopover visitation n

1 an official visit or inspection

2 a punishment or reward from heaven

3 an appearance of a supernatural being visitor n a person who visits a person or place

◇ SYNONYMS: guest, caller, company, manu(w)hiri (NZ)

visor (vize-or) n

1 a transparent flap on a helmet that can be pulled down to protect the face

2 a small movable screen attached above the windscreen in a vehicle, used as protection against the glare of the sun

3 a peak on a cap vista n

1 an extensive view

◇ SYNONYMS: view, scene, prospect, landscape, panorama, perspective

2 a wide range of possibilities or future events: the vista of opportunity visual adj

1 done by or used in seeing

◇ SYNONYMS: optical, optic, ocular

2 capable of being seen

◇ SYNONYMS: observable, visible, perceptible, discernible > visually adv

visual display unit n (computers) a device with a screen for displaying data held in a computer visualize or -lise vb -lizing, -lized or -lising, -lised to form a mental image of (something not at that moment visible) > visualization or -lisation n vital adj

1 essential or highly important: marriage isn't such a vital part of his life

◇ SYNONYMS: essential, important, necessary, key, basic, significant, critical, crucial (informal)

2 energetic or lively: the epitome of vital youthful manhood

◇ SYNONYMS: lively, vigorous, energetic, spirited, dynamic, animated, vibrant, vivacious

3 necessary to maintain life: the vital organs

► n

4 vitals the bodily organs, such as the brain and heart, that are necessary to maintain life > vitally adv

vitality n physical or mental energy

◇ SYNONYMS: energy, vivacity, life, strength, animation, vigour, exuberance, liveliness

vital statistics pl n

1 population statistics, such as the numbers of births, marriages, and deaths

2 (informal) the measurements of a woman's bust, waist, and hips vitamin n one of a group of substances that occur naturally in certain foods and are essential for normal health and growth vitiate (vish-ee-ate) vb -ating, -ated

1 to spoil or weaken the effectiveness of (something)

2 to destroy the legal effect of (a contract) > vitiation n viticulture n the cultivation of grapevines vitreous adj

1 of or like glass

2 of or relating to the vitreous humour vitreous humour or vitreous body n a transparent gelatinous substance that fills the eyeball between the lens and the retina vitriol n

1 language expressing bitterness and hatred

2 sulphuric acid vitriolic adj (of language) severely bitter or harsh vituperative (vite-tyew-pra-tiv) adj bitterly abusive > vituperation n

viva¹ interj long live (a specified person or thing) viva² (Brit) n

1 an examination in the form of an interview

► vb vivaing, vivaed

2 to examine (a candidate) in a spoken interview vivace (viv-vah-chee) adj (music) to be performed in a lively manner vivacious adj full of energy and enthusiasm vivacity n the quality of being vivacious viva voce (vive-a voh-chee) adv, adj

1 by word of mouth

► n

2 same as viva

vivid adj

1 very bright: a vivid blue sky

◇ SYNONYMS: bright, brilliant, intense, clear, rich, glowing, colourful

2 very clear and detailed: vivid memories

◇ SYNONYMS: clear, detailed, realistic, telling, moving, affecting, arresting, powerful

3 easily forming lifelike images: a vivid imagination > vividly adv

> vividness n vivisection n the performing of experiments on living animals, involving cutting into or dissecting the body > vivisectionist n

vixen n

1 a female fox

2 (Brit & Austral & NZ informal, derogatory) a spiteful woman viz adv namely: used to specify items: I had only one object, viz, to win the trophy

vizier (viz-zeer) n a high official in certain Muslim countries vizor n same as visor vocabulary n, pl -laries

1 all the words that a person knows

◇ SYNONYMS: language, words, lexicon

2 all the words contained in a language

◇ SYNONYMS: language, words, lexicon

3 the specialist terms used in a given subject

4 a list of words in another language with their translations

◇ SYNONYMS: wordbook, dictionary, glossary, lexicon

5 a range of symbols or techniques as used in any of the arts or crafts: the building's vocabulary of materials, textures, and tones

vocal adj

1 of or relating to the voice: vocal pitch

◇ SYNONYMS: spoken, voiced, uttered, oral, said

2 expressing one's opinions clearly and openly: a vocal minority with racist views

◇ SYNONYMS: outspoken, frank, forthright, strident, vociferous, articulate, expressive, eloquent

► n

3 vocals the singing part of a piece of jazz or pop music > vocally adv

vocal cords pl n either of two pairs of membranous folds in the larynx, of which the lower pair can be made to vibrate and produce sound by forcing air from the lungs over them vocalist n a singer with a pop group vocalize or -lise vb -lizing, -lized or -lising, -lised

1 to express with or use the voice

2 to make vocal or articulate: vocalize your discontent

3 (phonetics) to articulate (a speech sound) with voice > vocalization or -lisation n vocation n

1 a specified profession or trade

◇ SYNONYMS: profession, calling, job, trade, career, mission, pursuit

2

A a special urge to a particular calling or career, esp. a religious one

B such a calling or career vocational adj directed towards a particular profession or trade: vocational training vociferous adj loud and forceful: a vociferous minority > vociferously adv

VOD video on demand: a system that allows a television viewer to select content and view it at a time of his or her own choosing vodka n a clear alcoholic spirit originating in Russia, made from potatoes or grain voetsak or voetsek (foot-sak) interj (S African offensive, informal) an expression of dismissal or rejection vogue n

1 the popular style at a given time

◇ SYNONYMS: fashion, trend, craze, style, mode, passing fancy, dernier cri (French)

2 in vogue fashionable

► adj

3 fashionable: a vogue word

> voguish adj

voice n

1 the sound made by the vibration of the vocal cords, esp. when modified by the tongue and mouth

◇ SYNONYMS: tone, sound, articulation

2 a distinctive tone of the speech sounds characteristic of a particular person: he can recognize her voice

3 the ability to speak or sing: he had at last found his voice

◇ SYNONYMS: utterance

4 the condition or quality of a person's voice: her voice was kind

5 the musical sound of a singing voice: what I have is a good voice and a great love of lyrics

6 the expression of feeling or opinion: there was a chorus of dissenting voices

◇ SYNONYMS: opinion, will, feeling, wish, desire

7 a right to express an opinion: the party should now move towards a system which will give every member an equal voice

◇ SYNONYMS: say, view, vote, comment, input

8 (grammar) a category of the verb that expresses whether it is active or passive

9 (phonetics) the sound characterizing the articulation of several speech sounds, that is produced when the vocal cords are vibrated by the breath

10 with one voice unanimously

► vb voicing, voiced

11 to express verbally: anyone with an objection has a chance to voice it

◇ SYNONYMS: express, declare, air, raise, reveal, mention, mouth, pronounce

12 to articulate (a speech sound) with voice voiceless adj

1 without a voice

2 (phonetics) articulated without accompanying vibration of the vocal cords, for example 'p' in English voice mail n an electronic system for the transfer and storage of telephone messages, which can then be dealt with by the user at his or her convenience voice-over n the voice of an unseen commentator heard during a film void n

1 a feeling or condition of loneliness or deprivation

◇ SYNONYMS: gap, space, lack, hole, emptiness

2 an empty space or area

◇ SYNONYMS: emptiness, space, vacuum, oblivion, blankness, nullity, vacuity

► adj

3 having no official value or authority, because the terms have been broken or have not been fulfilled: the race was declared void and rerun

◇ SYNONYMS: invalid, null and void, inoperative, useless, ineffective, worthless

4 (old-fashioned, or literary) empty: behold, the tomb is void!

5 void of devoid of or without: the fact of being punished becomes void of all moral significance

► vb

6 to make ineffective or invalid

◇ SYNONYMS: invalidate, nullify, cancel, withdraw, reverse, undo, repeal, quash

7 to empty

8 to discharge the contents of (the bowels or bladder) voile (voyl) n a light semitransparent dress fabric

vol. volume volatile (voll-a-tile) adj

1 (of circumstances) liable to sudden change

◇ SYNONYMS: changeable, shifting, variable, unsettled, unstable, explosive, unreliable, unsteady

2 (of people) liable to sudden changes of mood and behaviour

◇ SYNONYMS: temperamental, erratic, mercurial, up and down (informal), fickle, overemotional

3 (of a substance) changing quickly from a solid or liquid form to a vapour > volatility n

vol-au-vent (voll-oh-von) n a very light puff pastry case with a savoury filling volcanic adj

1 of or relating to volcanoes: volcanic ash

2 displaying sudden violence or anger: their boisterous and often volcanic behaviour

volcano n, pl -noes or -nos

1 an opening in the earth's crust from which molten lava, ashes, dust, and gases are ejected from below the earth's surface

2 a mountain formed from volcanic material ejected from a vent vole n a small rodent with a stocky body and a short tail volition n

1 the ability to decide things for oneself

2 of one's own volition through one's own choice > volitional adj volley n

1 the simultaneous firing of several weapons

◇ SYNONYMS: barrage, blast, burst, shower, hail, bombardment, salvo, fusillade

2 the bullets fired

3 a burst of questions or critical comments

4 (sport) a stroke or kick at a moving ball before it hits the ground

► vb

5 to fire (weapons) in a volley

6 (sport) to hit or kick (a moving ball) before it hits the ground volleyball n a game in which two teams hit a large ball backwards and forwards over a high net with their hands volt n the SI unit of electric potential; the potential difference between two points on a conductor carrying a current of 1 ampere, when the power dissipated between these points is 1 watt voltage n an electromotive force or potential difference expressed in volts volte-face (volt-fass) n, pl volte-face a reversal of opinion voltmeter n an instrument for measuring voltage voluble adj talking easily and at length > volubility n

> volubly adv

volume n

1 the magnitude of the three-dimensional space enclosed within or occupied by something ◇ SYNONYMS: capacity, size, mass, extent, proportions, dimensions, bulk, measurements

2 an amount or total: the volume of trade between the two countries; the volume of military traffic

◇ SYNONYMS: amount, quantity, level, body, total, measure, degree, mass

3 loudness of sound

◇ SYNONYMS: loudness, sound, amplification

4 the control on a radio, etc. for adjusting the loudness of sound

5 a book: a slim volume

◇ SYNONYMS: book, work, title, opus, publication, manual, tome, treatise

6 one of several books that make up a series

◇ SYNONYMS: book, work, title, opus, publication, manual, tome, treatise

7 a set of issues of a magazine over a specified period volumetric adj of or using measurement by volume: a simple volumetric measurement voluminous adj

1 (of clothes) large and roomy

2 (of writings) extensive and detailed voluntary adj

1 done or undertaken by free choice: voluntary repatriation

◇ SYNONYMS: intentional, deliberate, planned, calculated, wilful

2 done or maintained without payment: voluntary work

◇ SYNONYMS: unpaid, free, willing, pro bono (law)

3 (of muscles) having their action controlled by the will

► n, pl -taries

4 (music) a composition, usually for organ, played at the beginning or end of a church service > voluntarily adv

volunteer n

1 a person who offers voluntarily to do something

2 a person who freely undertakes military service

► vb

3 to offer (oneself or one's services) by choice and without being forced

◇ SYNONYMS: offer, step forward

4 to enlist voluntarily for military service

5 to give (information) willingly

6 to offer the services of (another person) voluptuary n, pl -aries a person devoted to luxury and sensual pleasures voluptuous adj

1 (of a woman) sexually alluring because of the fullness of her figure

2 pleasing to the senses: voluptuous yellow peaches > voluptuously adv

> voluptuousness n

volute n a spiral or twisting shape or object, such as a carved spiral scroll on an Ionic capital vomit vb -iting, -ited

1 to eject (the contents of the stomach) through the mouth

◇ SYNONYMS: be sick, throw up (informal), spew, chuck (Austral & NZ informal), heave (slang), retch

2 to eject or be ejected forcefully

► n

3 the partly digested food and drink ejected in vomiting voodoo n

1 a religion involving ancestor worship and witchcraft, practised by some people in the West Indies, esp. in Haiti

► adj

2 of or relating to voodoo: a voodoo curse voracious adj

1 eating or craving great quantities of food

2 very eager or insatiable in some activity: a voracious collector

> voraciously adv

> voracity n

vortex (vor-tex) n, pl -tices (-tiss-seez)

1 a whirling mass or motion, such as a whirlpool or whirlwind

2 a situation which draws people into it against their will: the vortex of other people's problems

> vortical adj

vote n

1 a choice made by a participant in a shared decision, esp. in electing a candidate

◇ SYNONYMS: poll, election, ballot, referendum, popular vote, plebiscite, straw poll, show of hands

2 the right to vote

3 the total number of votes cast

4 the opinion of a group of people as determined by voting: the draft should be put to the vote at a meeting of the Council

5 a body of votes or voters collectively: the youth vote

► vb voting, voted

6 to make a choice by vote

◇ SYNONYMS: cast your vote

7 to authorize or allow by voting: the organizing committee voted itself controversial new powers

8 to declare oneself as being (something or in favour of something) by voting: I've always voted Labour

9 (informal) to declare by common opinion: he was voted hotelier of the year for the third time voter n a person who can or does vote votive adj done or given to fulfil a vow vouch vb vouch for

A to give personal assurance about: I can vouch for the man, he's a relative by marriage

B to give supporting evidence for or be proof of: his presence alone vouches for the political nature of the trip

voucher n

1 a ticket or card used instead of money to buy specified goods: a gift voucher

◇ SYNONYMS: ticket, token, coupon, pass, slip, chit, docket

2 a document recording a financial transaction vouchsafe vb -safing, -safed

1 (old-fashioned) to give or grant: she has powers vouchsafed to few

2 to offer assurances about; guarantee: he absolutely vouchsafed your integrity vow n

1 a solemn and binding promise

◇ SYNONYMS: promise, commitment, pledge, oath, profession, avowal

2 take vows to enter a religious order and commit oneself to its rule of life by the vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience

► vb

3 to promise or decide solemnly: she vowed to fight on; I solemnly vowed that some day I would return to live in Europe

◇ SYNONYMS: promise, pledge, swear, commit, engage, affirm, avow, bind yourself

vowel n

A a voiced speech sound made with the mouth open and the stream of breath unobstructed by the tongue, teeth, or lips, for example a or e

B a letter representing this vox pop n (Brit) interviews with members of the public on a radio or television programme vox populi n public opinion voyage n

1 a long journey by sea or in space

◇ SYNONYMS: journey, trip, passage, expedition, crossing, sail, cruise, excursion

► vb -aging, -aged

2 to go on a voyage: in this story he voyages to Ireland

◇ SYNONYMS: travel, journey, tour, cruise, steam, take a trip, go on an expedition > voyager n

voyeur n a person who obtains sexual pleasure from watching people undressing or having sexual intercourse > voyeurism n > voyeuristic adj

VS versus

V-sign n

1 (in Britain and Australia) an offensive gesture made by sticking up the index and middle fingers with the palm of the hand inwards

2 a similar gesture with the palm outwards meaning victory or peace

VSO (in Britain) Voluntary Service Overseas

VSOP very special (or superior) old pale: used of brandy or port

VTOL vertical takeoff and landing vulcanize or -nise vb -nizing, -nized or -nising, -nised to treat (rubber) with sulphur under heat and pressure to improve elasticity and strength > vulcanization or -nisation n vulgar adj

1 showing lack of good taste, decency, or refinement: vulgar tabloid sensationalism

◇ SYNONYMS: tasteless, common

2 denoting a form of a language spoken by the ordinary people, rather than the literary form > vulgarly adv

vulgar fraction n same as simple fraction vulgarian n a vulgar person, usually one who is rich vulgarity n, pl -ties

1 the condition of being vulgar

2 a vulgar action or phrase

Vulgate n the fourth-century Latin version of the Bible vulnerable adj

1 able to be physically or emotionally hurt

◇ SYNONYMS: susceptible, helpless, unprotected, defenceless, exposed, weak, sensitive, tender

2 easily influenced or tempted

3 (military) exposed to attack

◇ SYNONYMS: exposed, open, unprotected, defenceless, accessible, wide open, assailable

4 financially weak and likely to fail: this company could be vulnerable in a prolonged economic slump

5 (bridge) (of a side that has won one game towards rubber) subject to increased bonuses or penalties > vulnerability n

vulpine adj

1 of or like a fox

2 clever and cunning vulture n

1 a very large bird of prey that feeds on flesh of dead animals

2 a person who profits from the misfortune and weakness of others vulva n the external genitals of human females vuvuzela n (S African) an elongated plastic instrument that football fans blow to make a loud trumpeting noise vying vb the present participle of vie

Ww

W

- 1 (chem) tungsten
- 2 watt
- 3 West(ern)

WA

- 1 Washington (state)
- 2 Western Australia

wacky adj wackier, wackiest (slang) odd, eccentric, or slightly crazy: a wacky idea > wackiness n

wad n

- 1 a small mass of soft material, such as cotton wool, used for packing or stuffing
- 2 a roll or bundle of banknotes or papers wadding n a soft material used for padding or stuffing waddle vb -d~~l~~ing, -dled

- 1 to walk with short steps, rocking slightly from side to side ◇ SYNONYMS: shuffle, totter, toddle, sway, wobble
- n
2 a swaying walk

waddy n, pl -dies a heavy wooden club used by Australian Aborigines

wade vb wading, waded

1 to walk slowly and with difficulty through water or mud

◇ SYNONYMS: paddle, splash, splash about, slop

2 wade in or into to begin doing (something) in an energetic way: wading into the fray

3 wade through to proceed with difficulty through: a stack of literature to wade through wader n a long-legged bird, such as the heron or stork, that lives near water and feeds on fish. Also called: wading bird wadi (wod-dee) n, pl -dies a river in N Africa or Arabia, which is dry except in the rainy season wafer n

1 a thin crisp sweetened biscuit, often served with ice cream

2 (Christianity) a round thin piece of unleavened bread used at Communion

3 (electronics) a small thin slice of germanium or silicon that is separated into numerous individual components or circuits waffle¹ n a square crisp pancake with a gridlike pattern waffle² (informal, chiefly Brit & Austral & NZ) vb -fling, -fled

1 to speak or write in a vague and wordy manner

► n

2 vague and wordy speech or writing waft vb

1 to move gently through the air as if being carried by the wind: the scent of summer flowers gently wafting through my window

► n

2 a scent carried on the air wag¹ vb wagging, wagged

1 to move rapidly and repeatedly from side to side or up and down: Franklin wagged his tail

◇ SYNONYMS: wave, shake, waggle, stir, quiver, vibrate, wiggle

► n

2 an instance of wagging

◇ SYNONYMS: wave, shake, quiver, vibration, wiggle, waggle wag² n (old-fashioned) a humorous or witty person

Wag n (informal) the wife or girlfriend of a famous sportsperson wage n

1 Also: wages the money paid in return for a person's work, esp. when paid weekly or daily rather than monthly: a campaign for higher wages

◇ SYNONYMS: payment, pay, remuneration, fee, reward, income, allowance, recompense

► vb waging, waged

2 to engage in (a campaign or war)

◇ SYNONYMS: engage in, conduct, pursue, carry on, undertake, practise, prosecute, proceed with wager n

1 a bet on the outcome of an event or activity

► vb

2 to bet (something, esp. money) on the outcome of an event or activity waggle vb -gling, -gled to move with a rapid shaking or wobbling motion wagon or waggon n

1 a four-wheeled vehicle used for carrying heavy loads, sometimes pulled by a horse or tractor

2 an open railway freight truck

3 a lorry

4 on the wagon (informal) abstaining from alcoholic drink > wagoner or waggoner n wagtail n a small songbird of Eurasia and Africa with a very long tail that wags up and down when it walks wahoo n a large food and game fish of tropical seas waif n a person, esp. a child, who is, or who looks as if he or she might be, homeless or neglected wail vb

1 to utter a prolonged high-pitched cry of pain or sorrow

◇ SYNONYMS: cry, weep, grieve, lament, howl, bawl, yowl

► n

2 a prolonged high-pitched cry of pain or sorrow

◇ SYNONYMS: cry, moan, howl, lament, yowl > wailing n, adj

wain n (poetic) a farm cart wainscot n a wooden covering on the lower half of the walls of a room. Also: wainscoting waist n

1 (anatomy) the narrow part of the body between the ribs and the hips

2 the part of a garment covering the waist waistband n a band of material sewn onto the waist of a garment to strengthen it waistcoat n a sleeveless upper garment which buttons up the front and is usually worn by men over a shirt and under a jacket waistline n

- 1 an imaginary line around the body at the narrowest part of the waist
- 2 the place where the upper and lower part of a garment are joined together wait vb

- 1 to stay in one place or remain inactive in expectation of something: the delegates have to wait for a reply
◇ SYNONYMS: stay, remain, stop, pause, rest, linger, loiter, tarry
- 2 to be temporarily delayed: the celebrations can wait ◇ SYNONYMS: be postponed, be suspended, be delayed, be put off, be put back, be deferred, be put on hold (informal), be shelved
- 3 (of a thing) to be ready or be in store: waiting for her on the library table was the latest Jilly Cooper novel

► n

- 4 the act or a period of waiting ◇ SYNONYMS: delay, gap, pause, interval, stay, rest, halt, hold-up
- 5 lie in wait for A to prepare an ambush for B to be ready or be in store for Waitangi Day n February 6, the national day of New Zealand commemorating the Treaty Of Waitangi in 1840 waiter n a person, esp. a man, who serves people with food and drink in a restaurant

◇ SYNONYMS: attendant, server, flunkey, steward, servant waitress n

- 1 a woman who serves people with food and drink in a restaurant

◇ SYNONYMS: attendant, server, stewardess, servant

► vb

2 to work as a waitress waive vb waiving, waived to refrain from enforcing or claiming (a rule or right)

◇ SYNONYMS: give up, relinquish, renounce, forsake, drop, abandon, set aside, dispense with waiver n the act or an instance of voluntary giving up a claim or right waka n (NZ) a Māori canoe wake¹ vb waking, woke, woken

1 Also: wake up to become conscious again or bring (someone) to consciousness again after a sleep

◇ SYNONYMS: awake, stir, awaken, come to, arise, get up, rouse, get out of bed

2 wake up to make (someone) more alert after a period of inactivity

3 wake up to to become aware of: the world did not wake up to this tragedy until many people had died

4 waking hours the time when a person is awake: he often used his waking hours to write music

► n

5 a watch or vigil held over the body of a dead person during the night before burial

◇ SYNONYMS: vigil, watch, funeral, deathwatch, tangi (NZ)

wake² n

1 the track left by a ship moving through water

◇ SYNONYMS: slipstream, wash, trail, backwash, train, track, waves, path

2 in the wake of following soon after: the arrests come in the wake of the assassination

◇ SYNONYMS in the wake of: in the aftermath of, following, because of, as a result of, on account of, as a consequence of wakeful adj

- 1 unable to sleep
- 2 without sleep: wakeful nights
- 3 alert: wakeful readiness
- > wakefulness n

waken vb to become conscious again or bring (someone) to consciousness again after a sleep walk vb

- 1 to move on foot at a moderate rate with at least one foot always on the ground
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: travel on foot
- 2 to pass through, on, or over on foot: to walk a short distance
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: stride, stroll, go, move, step, march, pace, hike
- 3 to walk somewhere with (a person or a dog)
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: escort, take, see, show, partner, guide, conduct, accompany
- 4 walking on air very happy and excited
- 5 walk the streets to wander about, esp. when looking for work or when homeless
 - n
- 6 a short journey on foot, usually for pleasure
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: stroll, hike, ramble, march, trek, trudge, promenade, saunter
- 7 the action of walking rather than running
- 8 a manner of walking: a proud slow walk
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: gait, step, bearing, carriage, tread
- 9 a place or route for walking
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: path, footpath (Austral & NZ), track, way, road, lane, trail, avenue, berm (NZ)
- 10 walk of life social position or profession: people from all walks of life were drawn to her
 - ◇ SYNONYMS walk of life: area, calling, business, line, trade, class, field, career
 - See also walk into, walk out etc
 - > walker n

walkabout n

1 an occasion when royalty, politicians, or other celebrities walk among and meet the public

2 go walkabout (Austral)

A to wander through the bush as a nomad

B (informal) to be lost or misplaced

C (informal) to lose one's concentration walkie-talkie n a small combined radio transmitter and receiver that can be carried around by one person walking stick n a stick or cane carried in the hand to assist walking walk into vb to encounter unexpectedly: the troop reinforcements had walked into a trap

walk out vb

1 to leave suddenly and without explanation, usually in anger

2 (of workers) to go on strike

3 walk out on (informal) to abandon or desert

► n walkout

4 a strike by workers walkover n

1 (informal) an easy victory

► vb walk over

2 to mistreat or bully; take advantage of: if you don't make your mark early, people will walk all over you

wall n

1 a vertical structure made of stone, brick, or wood, with a length and height much greater than its thickness, used to enclose, divide, or support. RELATED

ADJECTIVE: mural

◇ SYNONYMS: partition, screen, barrier, enclosure

2 anything that suggests a wall in function or effect: a wall of elm trees; a wall of suspicion

◇ SYNONYMS: barrier, obstacle, barricade, obstruction, check, bar, fence, impediment

3 (anatomy) any lining or membrane that encloses a bodily cavity or structure: cell walls

4 drive someone up the wall (slang) to make someone angry or irritated

5 go to the wall (informal) to be financially ruined

6 have one's back to the wall (informal) to be in a very difficult situation, with no obvious way out of it

► vb

7 to surround or enclose (an area) with a wall

8 wall in or up to enclose (someone or something) completely in a room or place > walled adj

wallaby n, pl -bies a marsupial of Australia and New Guinea that resembles a small kangaroo wallaroo n a large stocky Australian kangaroo of rocky regions wallet n a small folding case, usually of leather, for holding paper money and credit cards

◇ SYNONYMS: purse, pocketbook, pouch, case, holder, moneybag, e-wallet or eWallet walleye n a North American pikeperch with large opaque eyes wallflower n

1 a plant grown for its clusters of yellow, orange, red, or purple fragrant flowers

2 (informal) a person who does not get involved in dancing or talking at a social event because they are shy wallop (informal) vb

1 to hit hard

► n

2 a hard blow

walloping (informal) n

1 a severe physical beating

► adj

2 large or great: a walloping amount of sodium wallow vb

1 to indulge oneself in some emotion: they wallow in self-pity

2 to lie or roll about in mud or water for pleasure

► n

3 the act or an instance of wallowing

4 a muddy place where animals wallow wallpaper n

1 a printed or embossed paper for covering the walls of a room

► vb

2 to cover (walls) with wallpaper wally n, pl -lies (Brit slang) a stupid or foolish person walnut n

1 an edible nut with a hard, wrinkled, light brown shell

2 a tree on which walnuts grow

3 the light brown wood of a walnut tree, used for making furniture walrus n, pl -ruses or -rus a mammal of cold northern seas, with two tusks that hang down from the upper jaw, tough thick skin, and coarse whiskers waltz n

1 a ballroom dance in triple time in which couples spin round as they progress round the room

2 music for this dance

► vb

3 to dance a waltz

4 (informal) to move in a relaxed and confident way: he waltzed over to her table to say hello

wampum (wom-pum) n (formerly) money used by Native Americans of N America, made of shells strung or woven together wan (rhymes with swan) adj wanner, wannest very pale, as a result of illness or unhappiness

> wanly adv

WAN (computers) wide area network wand n

1 a rod supposed to have magical properties, used to perform conjuring tricks or casting spells

2 a hand-held electronic device which is pointed at or passed over an item to read the data stored there wander vb

1 to walk about in a place without any definite purpose or destination

◇ SYNONYMS: roam, walk, drift, stroll, range, stray, ramble, prowl

2 (often foll. by off) to leave a place where one is supposed to stay: kids wander off

3 (of the mind) to lose concentration

► n

4 the act or an instance of wandering

◇ SYNONYMS: excursion, walk, stroll, cruise, ramble, meander, promenade, mosey (informal)

- > wanderer n
- > wandering adj, n

wanderlust n a great desire to travel wane vb waning, waned

1 to decrease gradually in size, strength, or power: the influence of the extremists is waning

◇ SYNONYMS: decline, weaken, diminish, fail, fade, decrease, dwindle, lessen

2 (of the moon) to show a gradually decreasing area of brightness from full moon until new moon

◇ SYNONYMS: diminish, decrease, dwindle

► n

3 on the wane decreasing in size, strength, or power: his fame was on the wane

> waning adj

wangle vb -gling, -gled (informal) to get (something) by cunning or devious methods: I've wangled you both an invitation

want vb

1 to feel a need or longing for: I want a job

◇ SYNONYMS: wish for, desire, long for, crave, covet, hope for, yearn for, thirst for

2 to wish or desire (to do something): we did not want to get involved

3 (Brit & Austral & NZ) to have need of or require (doing or being something): what will you do when it wants cleaning?

◇ SYNONYMS: need, demand, require, call for 4 should or ought (to do something): the last person you want to hire is someone who is desperate for a job

◇ SYNONYMS: should, need, must, ought

5 want for to be lacking or deficient in: they were convinced I was wealthy and wanted for nothing

◇ SYNONYMS: lack, need, require, miss

► n

6 something that is needed, desired, or lacked: attempts to satisfy a number of wants

◇ SYNONYMS: wish, will, need, desire, requirement, longing, appetite, craving

7 a lack, shortage, or absence: for want of opportunity

◇ SYNONYMS: lack, need, absence, shortage, deficiency, famine, scarcity, dearth

8 in want of needing or lacking: the Chinese peasant farmer may be in want of a roof, a job, a doctor nearby wanted adj being searched for by the police in connection with a crime that has been committed wanting adj

1 lacking: I would be wanting in charity if I did not explain the terms

◇ SYNONYMS: lacking, missing, absent, incomplete, short, shy

2 not meeting requirements or expectations: she compares herself to her sister and finds herself wanting

◇ SYNONYMS: deficient, poor, inadequate, insufficient, faulty, defective, imperfect, unsound, bodger or bodgie (Austral slang) wanton adj

1 without motive, provocation, or justification: sheer wanton destruction

2 (of a person) maliciously and unnecessarily cruel

3 (old-fashioned, derogatory) (of a woman) sexually unrestrained or immodest

► n

4 (old-fashioned, derogatory) a sexually unrestrained or immodest woman

WAP n Wireless Application Protocol: a system that allows mobile phone users to access the internet and other information services wapiti (wop-pit-tee) n, pl -tis a large North American deer, now also found in New Zealand war n

1 open armed conflict between two or more countries or groups: this international situation led to war

◇ SYNONYMS: conflict, drive, attack, fighting, fight, operation, battle, movement

2 a particular armed conflict: the American war in Vietnam

◇ SYNONYMS: campaign, drive, attack, operation, movement, push (informal), mission, offensive, cyberwar

3 any conflict or contest: a trade war

◇ SYNONYMS: campaign, drive, attack, operation, movement, push (informal), mission, offensive, cyberwar

4 have been in the wars (informal) to look as if one has been in a fight

► adj

5 relating to war or a war: the war effort; a war correspondent

► vb warring, warred

6 to conduct a war

◇ SYNONYMS: fight, battle, clash, wage war, campaign, combat, do battle, take up arms > warring adj

waratah n an Australian shrub with crimson flowers warble vb -bling, -bled to sing in a high-pitched trilling voice warbler n any of various small songbirds war crime n a crime committed in wartime in violation of the accepted customs, such as ill-treatment of prisoners > war criminal n

ward n

1 a room in a hospital for patients requiring similar kinds of care: the maternity ward

◇ SYNONYMS: room, department, unit, quarter, division, section, apartment

(US), cubicle

2 one of the districts into which a town, parish, or other area is divided for administration or elections

◇ SYNONYMS: district, constituency, area, division, zone, parish, precinct

3 Also called: ward of court (law) a person, esp. a child whose parents are dead, who is placed under the control or protection of a guardian or of a court

◇ SYNONYMS: dependant, charge, pupil, minor, protégé

► See also ward off

> wardship n

warden n

1 a person who is in charge of a building, such as a youth hostel, and its occupants

◇ SYNONYMS: steward, guardian, administrator, superintendent (US), caretaker, curator, custodian

2 a public official who is responsible for the enforcement of certain regulations: a game warden

◇ SYNONYMS: ranger, keeper, guardian, protector, custodian, official

3 the chief officer in charge of a prison

◇ SYNONYMS: governor, head, leader, director, manager, chief, executive, commander warder or (fem) wardress n (chiefly Brit) a prison officer ward off vb to prevent (something unpleasant) from happening or from causing harm: to ward off the pangs of hunger; to ward off cancer cells

◇ SYNONYMS ward something off: avert, fend off, stave off, avoid, frustrate, deflect, repel wardrobe n

1 a tall cupboard, with a rail or hooks on which to hang clothes

◇ SYNONYMS: clothes cupboard, cupboard, closet (US), cabinet

2 the total collection of articles of clothing belonging to one person: your autumn wardrobe

◇ SYNONYMS: clothes, apparel (old-fashioned), attire

3 the collection of costumes belonging to a theatre or theatrical company wardroom n the quarters assigned to the officers of a warship, apart from the captain ware n articles of the same kind or material: crystal ware warehouse n a place where goods are stored prior to their sale or distribution ◇ SYNONYMS: store, depot, storehouse, repository, depository, stockroom warfare n

1 the act of conducting a war

◇ SYNONYMS: war, fighting, battle, conflict, combat, hostilities, enmity

2 a violent or intense conflict of any kind: class warfare

◇ SYNONYMS: war, fighting, battle, conflict, combat, hostilities, enmity

warhead n the front section of a missile or projectile that contains explosives warlike adj

1 of or relating to war: warlike stores and equipment

2 hostile and eager to have a war: a warlike nation warlock n a man who practises black magic warm adj

1 feeling or having a moderate degree of heat

◇ SYNONYMS: balmy, mild, temperate, pleasant, fine, bright, sunny, agreeable

2 giving heat: warm clothing

◇ SYNONYMS: thermal, winter, thick, chunky, woolly

3 (of colours) predominantly red or yellow in tone

◇ SYNONYMS: mellow, relaxing, pleasant, agreeable, restful

4 kindly or affectionate: warm embraces

◇ SYNONYMS: affable, kindly, friendly, affectionate, loving, tender, amicable, cordial

5 (informal) near to finding a hidden object or guessing facts, for example in a children's game

◇ SYNONYMS: near, close, hot, near to the truth

► vb

6 to make warm

◇ SYNONYMS: warm up, heat, thaw (out), heat up

7 warm to

A to become fonder of: I warmed to him when he defended me

B to become more excited or enthusiastic about: he had warmed to his theme

► See also warm up > warmly adv

> warmness n

warmonger n a person who encourages warlike ideas or advocates war > warmongering n

warmth n

1 the state of being warm

◇ SYNONYMS: heat, snugness, warmness, comfort, homeliness, hotness

2 affection or cordiality: the warmth of their friendship

◇ SYNONYMS: affection, feeling, love, goodwill, kindness, tenderness, cordiality, kindness warm up vb

1 to make or become warm or warmer

◇ SYNONYMS warm something or someone up: heat, thaw, heat up

2 to prepare for a race, sporting contest, or exercise routine by doing gentle exercises immediately beforehand

3 (of an engine or machine) to be started and left running until the working temperature is reached

4 to become more lively: wait until things warm up

5 to reheat (food that has already been cooked)

◇ SYNONYMS warm something or someone up: heat, thaw, heat up

► n warm-up

6 a preparatory exercise routine warn vb

1 to make (someone) aware of a possible danger or problem

◇ SYNONYMS: notify, tell, remind, inform, alert, tip off, give notice, make someone aware

2 to inform (someone) in advance: you'd better warn your girlfriend that you'll be working at the weekend

◇ SYNONYMS: notify, tell, remind, inform, alert, tip off, give notice, make someone aware

3 warn off to advise (someone) to go away or not to do something warning n

1 a hint, threat, or advance notice of a possible danger or problem

◇ SYNONYMS: notice, notification, sign, alarm, announcement, alert, tip-off (informal), heads up (US & Canad)

2 advice not to do something

◇ SYNONYMS: caution, information, advice, injunction, notification

► adj

3 giving or serving as a warning: warning signs > warningly adv

warp vb

1 (esp. of wooden objects) to be twisted out of shape, for example by heat or damp

◇ SYNONYMS: distort, bend, twist, buckle, deform, disfigure, contort, malform

2 to distort or influence in a negative way: love warps judgment

◇ SYNONYMS: pervert, twist, corrupt, degrade, deprave, debase, debauch, lead astray

► n

3 a fault or an irregularity in the shape or surface of an object

◇ SYNONYMS: twist, bend, defect, flaw, distortion, imperfection, kink, contortion

4 a fault or deviation in someone's character

5 the yarns arranged lengthways on a loom through which the weft yarns are woven > warped adj

warrant n

1 an official authorization for some action or decision: Scotland Yard today issued a warrant for the arrest of this man

◇ SYNONYMS: authorization, permit, licence, permission, authority, sanction

2 a document that certifies or guarantees something, such as a receipt or licence

► vb

3 to make necessary: we've no hard evidence to warrant a murder investigation

◇ SYNONYMS: call for, demand, require, merit, rate, earn, deserve, permit warrant officer n an officer in certain armed services with a rank between those of commissioned and noncommissioned officers warranty n, pl -ties a guarantee or assurance that goods meet a specified standard or that the facts in a legal document are as stated

◇ SYNONYMS: guarantee, promise, contract, bond, pledge, certificate, assurance, covenant warren n

1 a series of interconnected underground tunnels in which rabbits live

2 an overcrowded building or area of a city with many narrow passages or streets: a mountainous concrete warren of apartments

warrigal (Austral) n

1 a dingo

► adj

2 wild

warrior n a person who is engaged in or experienced in war ◇ SYNONYMS: soldier, combatant, fighter, gladiator, trooper, man-at-arms (history) warship n a ship designed for naval warfare wart n

1 a firm abnormal growth on the skin caused by a virus

2 warts and all including faults: she loves him warts and all

> warty adj

wary (ware-ree) adj warier, wariest cautious or on one's guard: be wary of hitchhikers

◇ SYNONYMS: suspicious, sceptical, guarded, distrustful, chary > warily adv

> wariness n

was vb (with 'I', 'he', 'she', 'it', or a singular noun as subject) the past tense of be wash vb

1 to clean (oneself, part of one's body, or a thing) with soap or detergent and water

◇ SYNONYMS: clean, scrub, sponge, rinse, scour, cleanse

2 (of a garment or fabric) to be capable of being washed without damage or loss of colour

3 to move or be moved in a particular direction by water: houses may be washed away in floods

4 (of waves) to flow or sweep against or over (a surface or object), often with a lapping sound

5 (informal) to be acceptable or believable: that excuse won't wash

◇ SYNONYMS: be plausible, stand up, hold up, pass muster, hold water, stick, carry weight, be convincing

► n

6 the act or process of washing

◇ SYNONYMS: laundering, cleaning, clean, cleansing

7 all the clothes, etc. to be washed together on one occasion

8 a thin layer of paint or ink: a pale wash of blue

◇ SYNONYMS: coat, film, covering, layer, coating, overlay

9 the disturbance in the air or water produced at the rear of an aircraft, boat, or other moving object: we were hit by the wash of a large vessel

◇ SYNONYMS: backwash, slipstream, path, trail, train, track, waves, aftermath

10 come out in the wash (informal) to become known or apparent in the course of time

► See also wash out, wash up > washable adj

washer n

1 a flat ring of rubber, felt, or metal used to provide a seal under a nut or bolt or in a tap or valve

2 (informal) a washing machine

3 a person who washes things, esp. as a job: chief cook and bottle washer

4 (Austral) a small piece of towelling cloth used to wash the face washing n all the clothes, etc. to be washed together on one occasion washing-up n the act of washing used dishes and cutlery after a meal wash out vb

1 Also: wash off to remove or be removed by washing: the rain washes the red dye out of the cap

2 to wash the inside of (a container)

► n washout

3 a total failure or disaster

4 (NZ) a part of a road or railway washed away by floodwaters wash up vb

1 to wash used dishes and cutlery after a meal

2 (US & Canad) to wash one's face and hands wasp n a common stinging insect with a slender black-and-yellow striped body waspish adj bad-tempered or spiteful: waspish comments wastage n

1 the act of wasting something or the state of being wasted: wastage of raw materials

2 reduction in the size of a workforce by retirement, redundancy, etc.

waste vb wasting, wasted

1 to use up thoughtlessly, carelessly, or unsuccessfully

◇ SYNONYMS: squander, throw away, blow (slang), lavish, misuse, dissipate, fritter away

2 to fail to take advantage of: let's not waste an opportunity to see the children

◇ SYNONYMS: squander, throw away, blow (slang), lavish, misuse, dissipate, fritter away

3 be wasted on to be too good for; not be appreciated by: fine brandy is wasted on you

4 waste away to lose one's strength or health: wasting away from unrequited love

◇ SYNONYMS waste away: decline, dwindle, wither, fade, crumble, decay, wane, wear out

► n

5 the act of wasting something or the state of being wasted: a waste of time

◇ SYNONYMS: squandering, misuse, extravagance, frittering away, dissipation, wastefulness, prodigality

6 something that is left over because it is in excess of requirements

7 rubbish: toxic waste

◇ SYNONYMS: rubbish, refuse, debris, scrap, litter, garbage (chiefly US), trash (chiefly US & Canad), leftovers

8 (physiol) matter discharged from the body as faeces or urine

9 wastes a region that is wild or uncultivated

◇ SYNONYMS: desert, wilderness, wasteland

► adj

10 rejected as being useless, unwanted, or worthless: waste products

◇ SYNONYMS: unwanted, useless, worthless, unused, leftover, superfluous, unusable, supernumerary

11 not cultivated or productive: waste ground

◇ SYNONYMS: uncultivated, wild, bare, barren, empty, desolate, unproductive, uninhabited

12 (physiol) discharged from the body as faeces or urine: waste matter

13 lay waste or lay waste to to devastate or destroy: the Bikini atoll, laid waste by nuclear tests wasteful adj causing waste: wasteful expenditure > wastefully adv

wastepaper basket n a container for paper discarded after use waster n (informal) a lazy or worthless person watch vb

1 to look at or observe closely and attentively

◇ SYNONYMS: look at, observe, regard, eye, see, view, contemplate, eyeball (slang)

2 to look after (a child or a pet)

◇ SYNONYMS: guard, keep, mind, protect, tend, look after, shelter, take care of

3 to maintain a careful interest in or control over: it reminds me to watch my diet

4 watch for to be keenly alert to or cautious about: the vigilant night watchman hired to watch for thieves

5 watch it! be careful!

► n

6 a small portable timepiece worn strapped to the wrist or in a waistcoat pocket

◇ SYNONYMS: wristwatch, timepiece, chronometer

7 the act or an instance of watching

◇ SYNONYMS: guard, surveillance, observation, vigil, lookout

8 (naut) any of the periods, usually of four hours, during which part of a ship's crew are on duty

9 keep a close watch on to maintain a careful interest in or control over: he keeps a close watch on party opinion

10 keep watch to be keenly alert to danger; keep guard

11 on the watch on the lookout > watcher n

watchable adj interesting, enjoyable, or entertaining: watchable films watchdog n

1 a dog kept to guard property

◇ SYNONYMS: guard dog

2 a person or group that acts as a guard against inefficiency or illegality

◇ SYNONYMS: guardian, monitor, protector, custodian, scrutineer watchful adj

1 carefully observing everything that happens

2 under the watchful eye of being closely observed by > watchfully adv

> watchfulness n

watchman n, pl -men a man employed to guard buildings or property watchword n a slogan or motto: quality, not quantity, is the watchword

water n

1 a clear colourless tasteless liquid that is essential for plant and animal life, that falls as rain, and forms seas, rivers, and lakes. RELATED ADJECTIVES:

aquatic, aqueous

◇ SYNONYMS: liquid, H₂O, wai (NZ)

2 any area of this liquid, such as a sea, river, or lake

◇ SYNONYMS: sea, main, waves, ocean, depths, briny (informal)

3 the surface of such an area of water: four-fifths of an iceberg's mass lie below water

4 the level of the tide: at high water

5 (physiol)

A any fluid discharged from the body, such as sweat, urine, or tears

B the fluid surrounding a fetus in the womb

6 hold water (of an argument or idea) to be believable or reasonable

7 of the first water of the highest quality or the most extreme degree: he's a scoundrel of the first water

8 pass water to urinate

9 water under the bridge events that are past and done with

► vb

10 to moisten or soak with water: keep greenhouse plants well watered

◇ SYNONYMS: sprinkle, spray, soak, irrigate, hose, dampen, drench, douse, fertigate (Austral)

11 to give (an animal) water to drink

12 (of the eyes) to fill with tears: our eyes were watering from the fumes

◇ SYNONYMS: get wet, cry, weep, become wet, exude water

13 (of the mouth) to fill with saliva in anticipation of food ► See also water down > waterless adj

water buffalo n a large black oxlike draught animal of S Asia, with long backward-curving horns water closet n (old-fashioned) a toilet. Abbrev: WC watercolour or (US) watercolor n

1 a kind of paint that is applied with water rather than oil

2 a painting done in watercolours watercourse n the channel or bed of a river or stream watercress n a plant that grows in ponds and streams, with strong-tasting leaves that are used in salads and as a garnish water down vb

1 to weaken (a drink or food) with water

◇ SYNONYMS water something down: dilute, weaken, water, doctor, thin

2 to make (a story, plan, or proposal) weaker and less controversial > watered-down adj

waterfall n a cascade of falling water where there is a vertical or almost vertical step in a river

◇ SYNONYMS: cascade, fall, cataract waterfront n the area of a town or city next to an area of water, such as a harbour or dockyard water lily n a plant with large leaves and showy flowers that float on the surface of an area of water watermark n

1 a mark impressed on paper during manufacture, visible when the paper is held up to the light

2 a line marking the level reached by an area of water watermelon n a large round melon with a hard green rind and sweet watery reddish flesh water polo n a game played in water by two teams of seven swimmers in which each side tries to throw a ball into the opponents' goal waterproof adj

1 not allowing water to pass through: waterproof trousers

► n

2 (chiefly Brit) a waterproof garment, such as a raincoat

► vb

3 to make waterproof: the bridge is having its deck waterproofed watershed n

- 1 the dividing line between two adjacent river systems, such as a ridge
- 2 an important period or factor that serves as a dividing line: a watershed in history

watersider n (NZ) a person employed to load and unload ships watertight adj

- 1 not letting water through: watertight compartments
- 2 without loopholes or weak points: a watertight system

water wheel n a large wheel with vanes set across its rim, which is turned by flowing water to drive machinery watery adj

- 1 of, like, or containing water: a watery discharge
- 2 (of eyes) filled with tears
- 3 insipid, thin, or weak: a watery sun had appeared watt (wott) n the SI unit of power, equal to the power dissipated by a current of 1 ampere flowing across a potential difference of 1 volt wattage n the amount of electrical power, expressed in watts, that an appliance uses or generates wattle (wott-tl) n

- 1 a frame of rods or stakes interwoven with twigs or branches used to make fences
- 2 a loose fold of brightly coloured skin hanging from the throat of certain birds and lizards

3 an Australian acacia tree with dense golden, yellow or cream flowers

► adj

4 made of, formed by, or covered with wattle: a wattle fence wave vb waving, waved

1 to move (one's hand) to and fro as a greeting

◇ SYNONYMS: signal, sign, gesture, gesticulate

2 to direct (someone) to move in a particular direction by waving: I waved him on

◇ SYNONYMS: guide, point, direct, indicate, signal, motion, gesture, nod

3 to hold (something) up and move it from side to side in order to attract attention

◇ SYNONYMS: brandish, swing, flourish, wag, shake

4 to move freely to and fro: flowers waving in the wind

◇ SYNONYMS: flutter, flap, stir, shake, swing, wag, oscillate

► n

5 one of a sequence of ridges or undulations that moves across the surface of the sea or a lake

◇ SYNONYMS: ripple, breaker, swell, ridge, roller, billow

6 a curve in the hair

7 a sudden rise in the frequency or intensity of something: a wave of sympathy

◇ SYNONYMS: outbreak, rash, upsurge, flood, surge, groundswell

8 a widespread movement that advances in a body: a new wave of refugees

◇ SYNONYMS: stream, flood, surge, spate, current, flow, rush, tide

9 a prolonged spell of some particular type of weather: a heat wave

10 the act or an instance of waving

◇ SYNONYMS: gesture, sign, signal, indication, gesticulation

11 (physics) an energy-carrying disturbance travelling through a medium or space by a series of vibrations without any overall movement of matter

12 make waves to cause trouble wavelength n

1 (physics) the distance between two points of the same phase in consecutive cycles of a wave

2 the wavelength of the carrier wave used by a particular broadcasting station

3 on the same wavelength (informal) having similar views, feelings, or thoughts waver vb

1 to hesitate between possibilities; be indecisive

◇ SYNONYMS: hesitate, dither (chiefly Brit), vacillate, falter, fluctuate, seesaw, hum and haw

2 to swing from one thing to another: she wavered between annoyance and civility

◇ SYNONYMS: hesitate, dither (chiefly Brit), vacillate, falter, fluctuate, seesaw, hum and haw

3 (of a voice or stare) to become unsteady

4 to move back and forth or one way and another: the barrel of the gun began to waver

◇ SYNONYMS: flicker, shake, tremble, wobble, quiver, totter > wavering adj

wavy adj wavier, waviest having curves: wavy hair; a wavy line

wax¹ n

1 a solid fatty or oily substance used for making candles and polish, which softens and melts when heated

2 (physiol) a brownish-yellow waxy substance secreted by glands in the ear

► vb

3 to coat or polish with wax > waxed adj

> waxy adj

wax² vb

1 to increase gradually in size, strength, or power: trading has waxed and waned with the economic cycle

◇ SYNONYMS: increase, grow, develop, expand, swell, enlarge, magnify

2 (of the moon) to show a gradually increasing area of brightness from new moon until full moon

◇ SYNONYMS: become fuller, enlarge

3 to become: he waxed eloquent on the disadvantages of marriage

waxen adj

- 1 resembling wax in colour or texture: his face is waxen and pale
- 2 made of, treated with, or covered with wax: a waxen image

waxwork n a life-size lifelike wax figure of a famous person way n

- 1 a manner, method, or means: a new way of life; a tactful way of finding out ◇ SYNONYMS: method, means, system, process, technique, manner, procedure, mode
- 2 a characteristic style or manner: we are all special in our own way ◇ SYNONYMS: manner, style, fashion, mode
- 3 ways habits or customs: he had a liking for British ways ◇ SYNONYMS: custom, manner, habit, style, practice, nature, personality, wont, tikanga (NZ)
- 4 an aspect or detail of something: the tourist industry is in many ways a success story
- 5 a choice or option, for example in a vote: he thought it could go either way
- 6 a route or direction: the shortest way home ◇ SYNONYMS: route, direction, course, road, path
- 7 a journey: you could buy a magazine to read on the way ◇ SYNONYMS: journey, approach, passage
- 8 distance: they are a long way from Paris ◇ SYNONYMS: distance, length, stretch
- 9 space or room for movement or activity: you won't be in his way
- 10 by the way incidentally: by the way, I've decided to leave
- 11 by way of A serving as: by way of explanation
B by the route of: I went by way of my family home
- 12 get one's own way to have things exactly as one wants them to be
- 13 give way
A to collapse or break
B to yield or concede: I tried to make him understand but he did not give way an inch
- 14 give way to
A to be replaced by: my first feelings of dismay have given way to comparative complacency

B to show (an emotion) unrestrainedly

C to slow down or stop when driving to let (another driver) pass

15 go out of one's way to take considerable trouble: he had gone out of his way to reassure me

16 have it both ways to enjoy two things that would normally be mutually exclusive

17 in a bad way (informal) in a poor state of health or a poor financial state

18 in a way in some respects

19 in no way not at all

20 make one's way to proceed or go: he decided to make his way back in the dark

21 on the way out (informal) becoming unfashionable

22 out of the way

A removed or dealt with so as to be no longer a hindrance

B remote

23 under way having started moving or making progress

► adv

24 (informal) far or by far: that is way out of line wayfarer n (old-fashioned) a traveller waylay vb -laying, -laid

1 to lie in wait for and attack

2 to intercept (someone) unexpectedly wayside adj

1 (old-fashioned) situated by the side of a road: wayside shrines

► n

2 fall by the wayside to be unsuccessful or stop being successful: thousands of new diets are dreamed up yearly – many fall by the wayside

wayward adj erratic, selfish, or stubborn

◇ SYNONYMS: erratic, unruly, unmanageable, unpredictable, capricious, ungovernable, inconstant > waywardness n

WC or wc n a toilet we pron (used as the subject of a verb)

- 1 the speaker or writer and another person or other people: we arrived in Calais
- 2 all people or people in general: it's an unfair world we live in
- 3 (formal) same as I used by monarchs and editors weak adj

- 1 lacking in physical or mental strength
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: feeble, frail, debilitated, fragile, sickly, puny, unsteady, infirm
 - 2 (of a part of the body) not functioning as well as is normal: a weak heart
 - 3 liable to collapse or break: weak bridges
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: fragile, brittle, flimsy, fine, delicate, frail, dainty, breakable
 - 4 lacking in importance, influence, or strength: a weak government
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: unsafe, exposed, vulnerable, helpless, unprotected, defenceless, unguarded
 - 5 (of a currency or shares) falling in price or characterized by falling prices
 - 6 lacking in moral strength; easily influenced
 - 7 not convincing: weak arguments
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: unconvincing, unsatisfactory, lame, flimsy, pathetic
 - 8 lacking strength or power: his voice was weak
 - 9 not having a strong flavour: weak coffee
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: tasteless, thin, diluted, watery, runny, insipid
- > weakly adv

weaken vb to become or make weak or weaker

- ◇ SYNONYMS: reduce, undermine, moderate, diminish, lessen, sap weakling n (derogatory) a person who is considered lacking in physical or mental strength weakness n

- 1 the state of being weak

◇ SYNONYMS: frailty, fatigue, exhaustion, fragility, infirmity, feebleness, decrepitude

2 a failing in a person's character: his weakness is his impetuosity

◇ SYNONYMS: failing, fault, defect, deficiency, flaw, shortcoming, blemish, imperfection

3 a self-indulgent liking: a weakness for gin

◇ SYNONYMS: liking, appetite, penchant, soft spot, passion, inclination, fondness, partiality weal n a raised mark on the skin produced by a blow wealth n

1 the state of being rich

◇ SYNONYMS: riches, fortune, prosperity, affluence, money, opulence

2 a large amount of money and valuable material possessions: redistribution of wealth

◇ SYNONYMS: property, capital, fortune

3 a great amount or number: a wealth of detail

◇ SYNONYMS: abundance, plenty, richness, profusion, fullness, cornucopia, copiousness wealthy adj wealthier, wealthiest

1 having a large amount of money and valuable material possessions

◇ SYNONYMS: rich, prosperous, affluent, well-off, flush (informal), opulent, well-heeled (informal), well-to-do, minted (Brit slang)

2 wealthy in having a great amount or number of: a continent exceptionally wealthy in minerals wean vb

1 to start giving (a baby or young mammal) food other than its mother's milk

2 to cause (oneself or someone else) to give up a former habit: they are unable to wean themselves from the tobacco habit

> weaning n

weapon n

1 an object used in fighting, such as a knife or gun

2 anything used to get the better of an opponent: having a sense of humour is a weapon of self-defence

weaponry n weapons regarded collectivelywear vb wearing, wore, worn

1 to carry or have (a garment or jewellery) on one's body as clothing or ornament

◇ SYNONYMS: be dressed in, have on, sport (informal), put on

2 to have (a particular facial expression): she wore a scowl of frank antagonism

◇ SYNONYMS: show, present, bear, display, assume, put on, exhibit

3 to style (the hair) in a particular way: she wears her hair in a braid

4 to deteriorate or cause to deteriorate by constant use or action

◇ SYNONYMS: deteriorate, fray, wear thin

5 (informal) to accept: he won't be given a top job – the Party wouldn't wear it

6 wear thin to lessen or become weaker: his patience began to wear thin

7 wear well to remain in good condition for a long time

► n

8 clothes that are suitable for a particular time or purpose: evening wear; beach wear

◇ SYNONYMS: clothes, things, dress, gear (informal), attire, costume, garments, apparel (old-fashioned)

9 deterioration from constant or normal use

◇ SYNONYMS: damage, wear and tear, erosion, deterioration, attrition, corrosion, abrasion

10 the quality of resisting the effects of constant use ► See also wear off > wearer n

wearable adj

1 (of a garment) comfortable and practical

2 (of an electronic device) designed to be worn on the body wearisome adj causing fatigue and irritation wear off vb to have a gradual decrease in effect or intensity: the novelty began to wear off

◇ SYNONYMS wear off: subside, disappear, fade, diminish, decrease, dwindle, wane, peter out wear on vb (of time) to pass slowly weary adj -rier, -riest

1 very tired; lacking energy

◇ SYNONYMS: tired, exhausted, drained, worn out, done in (informal), flagging, fatigued, sleepy, clapped out (Austral & NZ informal)

2 caused by or suggestive of weariness: he managed a weary smile

3 causing exhaustion: a long weary struggle

◇ SYNONYMS: tiring, arduous, tiresome, laborious, wearisome

4 weary of discontented or bored with: he was weary of the war

► vb -ries, -rying, -ried

5 to make weary

6 weary of to become discontented or bored with: he seems to have wearied of her possessiveness

◇ SYNONYMS: grow tired, tire, become bored > wearily adv

> weariness n

> wearying adj

weasel n, pl -sels or -sel

1 a small meat-eating mammal with reddish-brown fur, a long body and neck, and short legs

2 (informal) a sly or treacherous person weather n

1 the day-to-day atmospheric conditions, such as temperature, cloudiness, and rainfall, affecting a specific place

◇ SYNONYMS: climate, conditions, temperature, forecast, outlook, meteorological conditions, elements

2 make heavy weather of (informal) to carry out (a task) with great difficulty or needless effort

3 under the weather (informal) feeling slightly ill

► vb

4 to undergo or cause to undergo changes, such as discoloration, due to the action of the weather

5 to come safely through (a storm, problem, or difficulty)

◇ SYNONYMS: withstand, stand, survive, overcome, resist, brave, endure, come through weather-beaten adj

1 tanned by exposure to the weather: a crumpled weather-beaten face

2 worn or damaged as a result of exposure to the weather weave vb weaving, wove or weaved, woven or weaved

1 to form (a fabric) by interlacing yarn on a loom

◇ SYNONYMS: knit, intertwine, plait, braid, entwine, interlace

2 to make (a garment or a blanket) by this process

3 to construct (a basket or fence) by interlacing cane or twigs

4 to compose (a story or plan) by combining separate elements into a whole ◇ SYNONYMS: create, tell, recount, narrate, build, relate, make up, spin (informal)

5 to move from side to side while going forward: to weave in and out of lanes

◇ SYNONYMS: zigzag, wind, crisscross

6 get weaving (informal) to hurry

► n

7 the structure or pattern of a woven fabric: the rough weave of the cloth > weaver n

> weaving n

web n

1 a mesh of fine tough threads built by a spider to trap insects

◇ SYNONYMS: cobweb, spider's web

2 anything that is intricately formed or complex: a web of relationships

◇ SYNONYMS: tangle, network

3 a membrane connecting the toes of some water birds and water-dwelling animals such as frogs

4 the web (often cap) short for World Wide Web

► adj

5 of or situated on the World Wide Web: a web server; web pages

> webbed adj

Web 2.0 n the internet viewed as a medium in which interactive experience plays a more important role than simply accessing information

webbing n a strong fabric that is woven in strips and used under springs in upholstery or for straps webcam n a camera that transmits still or moving images over the internet webcast n a broadcast of an event over the internet weblog n a person's online journal webmail n an email system that allows account holders to access mail via an internet site rather than by downloading it onto a computer website n a group of connected pages on the World Wide Web situated under a single domain name

wed vb wedding, wedded or wed

1 (old-fashioned) to take (a person) as a husband or wife; marry

◇ SYNONYMS: get married to, be united to 2 to unite closely: to wed folklore and magic

◇ SYNONYMS: unite, combine, join, link, ally, blend, merge, interweave wedding n

1 a marriage ceremony

◇ SYNONYMS: marriage, nuptials, wedding ceremony, marriage service, wedding service

2 a special wedding anniversary, esp. the 25th (silver wedding) or 50th (golden wedding)

wedge n

1 a block of solid material, esp. wood or metal, that is shaped like a narrow V in cross section and can be pushed or driven between two objects or parts of an object in order to split or secure them

◇ SYNONYMS: block, lump, chunk

2 a slice shaped like a wedge: a wedge of quiche

◇ SYNONYMS: block, lump, chunk

3 (golf) a club with a wedge-shaped face, used for bunker or pitch shots

4 drive a wedge between to cause a split between (people or groups)

5 the thin end of the wedge anything unimportant in itself that implies the start of something much larger

► vb wedging, wedged

6 to secure (something) with a wedge

7 to squeeze into a narrow space: a book wedged between the bed and the table

◇ SYNONYMS: squeeze, force, lodge, jam, crowd, stuff, pack, thrust wedge-tailed eagle n a large brown Australian eagle with a wedge-shaped tail wedlock n

1 the state of being married

2 born out of wedlock born when one's parents are not legally married

Wednesday n the fourth day of the week wee¹ adj (Brit & Austral & NZ) small or short wee² (informal) n

1 an instance of urinating

► vb weeing, weed

2 to urinate. Also: wee-wee weed n

1 any plant that grows wild and profusely, esp. among cultivated plants

2 (slang)

A marijuana

B the weed or the evil weed tobacco

3 (informal) a thin weak person

► vb

4 to remove weeds from (a garden) weed out vb to separate out, remove, or eliminate (an unwanted element): to weed out the thugs weedy adj weedier, weediest

1 (informal) thin or weak: sick and weedy children

2 full of weeds: weedy patches of garden week n

1 a period of seven consecutive days, esp. one beginning with Sunday

2 a period of seven consecutive days from a specified day: a week from today

3 the period of time within a week that is spent at work weekday n any day of the week other than Saturday or Sunday weekend n Saturday and Sunday weekly adj

1 happening once a week or every week: a weekly column

2 determined or calculated by the week: weekly earnings

► adv

3 once a week or every week: report to the police weekly

► n, pl -lies

4 a newspaper or magazine issued every week weep vb weeping, wept

1 to shed tears; cry

◇ SYNONYMS: cry, shed tears, sob, whimper, mourn, lament, blubber, snivel

2 to ooze liquid: the skin cracked and wept; the label is weeping black ink in the rain

► n

3 a spell of weeping: together we had a good weep weeping willow n a willow tree with graceful drooping branches weepy (informal) adj weepier, weepiest

1 liable or tending to weep

► n, pl weepies

2 a sentimental film or book weevil n a beetle with a long snout that feeds on plants weft n the yarns woven across the width of the fabric through the lengthways warp yarns weigh vb

1 to have weight as specified: the tree weighs nearly three tons

◇ SYNONYMS: have a weight of, tip the scales at (informal)

2 to measure the weight of 3 to consider carefully: the President now has to weigh his options

◇ SYNONYMS: consider, examine, contemplate, evaluate, ponder, think over, reflect upon, meditate upon

4 to be influential: the authorities did not enter my mind or weigh with me

◇ SYNONYMS: matter, carry weight, count

5 weigh anchor to raise a ship's anchor

6 weigh out to measure out by weight weighbridge n a machine for weighing vehicles by means of a metal plate set into a road weight n

1 the heaviness of an object, substance, or person

◇ SYNONYMS: heaviness, mass, poundage, load, tonnage

2 (physics) the vertical force experienced by a mass as a result of gravitation

3

A a system of units used to express weight: metric weight

B a unit used to measure weight: the kilogram is the weight used in the metric system

4

A an object of known heaviness used for weighing objects, substances, or people

B an object of known heaviness used in weight training or weightlifting to strengthen the muscles

5 any heavy load: with a weight of fish on their backs

6 force, importance, or influence: they want their words to carry weight

◇ SYNONYMS: importance, force, power, value, authority, influence, impact, import (formal), mana (NZ)

7 an oppressive force: the weight of expectation

8 pull one's weight (informal) to do one's full share of a task 9 throw one's weight about (informal) to act in an aggressive authoritarian manner

► vb

10 to add weight to; make heavier

◇ SYNONYMS: load

11 to slant (a system) so that it favours one side rather than another

◇ SYNONYMS: bias, load, slant, unbalance weightless adj

1 seeming to have very little weight or no weight at all

2 seeming not to be affected by gravity, as in the case of astronauts in an orbiting spacecraft > weightlessness n

weighty adj weightier, weightiest

1 important or serious: weighty matters

2 very heavy weir n

1 a low dam that is built across a river to divert the water or control its flow

2 a fencelike trap built across a stream for catching fish in weird adj

1 strange or bizarre

◇ SYNONYMS: bizarre, odd, strange, unusual, queer (old-fashioned), unnatural, creepy (informal), freakish

2 suggestive of the supernatural; uncanny

◇ SYNONYMS: strange, odd, unusual, bizarre, mysterious, queer (old-fashioned), eerie, unnatural > weirdly adv

> weirdness n

weirdo n, pl -dos (informal) a person whose behaviour or dress is considered bizarre or eccentric welch vb same as welsh welcome vb -coming, -comed

1 to greet the arrival of (a guest) cordially

◇ SYNONYMS: greet, meet, receive, embrace, hail, karanga (NZ), mihi (NZ), haeremai (NZ)

2 to receive or accept (something) gladly: I would welcome a chance to speak to him

◇ SYNONYMS: accept gladly, appreciate, embrace, approve of, be pleased by, give the thumbs up to (informal), be glad about, express pleasure or satisfaction at

► n

3 the act of greeting or receiving someone or something in a specified manner: the President was given a warm welcome

◇ SYNONYMS: greeting, welcoming, reception, acceptance, hail, hospitality, salutation (formal), haeremai (NZ)

► adj

4 gladly received or admitted: I wouldn't want to stay where I'm not welcome

◇ SYNONYMS: wanted

5 encouraged or invited: you are welcome to join us at one of our social events

◇ SYNONYMS: free

6 bringing pleasure: a welcome change

◇ SYNONYMS: pleasing, appreciated, acceptable, pleasant, desirable, refreshing, delightful, gratifying

7 you're welcome an expression used to acknowledge someone's thanks > welcoming adj

weld vb

1 to join (two pieces of metal or plastic) by softening with heat and hammering or by fusion

◇ SYNONYMS: join, link, bond, bind, connect, fuse, solder

2 to unite closely: the diverse ethnic groups had been welded together by the anti-Fascist cause

◇ SYNONYMS: unite, combine, blend, unify, fuse

► n

3 a joint formed by welding > welder n

welfare n

1 health, happiness, prosperity, and general wellbeing

◇ SYNONYMS: wellbeing, good, interest, health, security, benefit, safety, protection

2 financial and other assistance given, usually by the government, to people in need

◇ SYNONYMS: state benefit, support, benefits, pensions, dole (slang), social security, unemployment benefit, state benefits, poge (Canada)

welfare state n a system in which the government undertakes responsibility for the wellbeing of its population, through unemployment insurance, retirement pensions, and other social-security measures well¹ adv better, best

1 satisfactorily or pleasingly: well proportioned

◇ SYNONYMS: satisfactorily, nicely, smoothly, successfully, pleasantly, splendidly, agreeably

2 skilfully: I played well for the last six holes

◇ SYNONYMS: skilfully, expertly, adeptly, professionally, correctly, properly, efficiently, adequately

3 thoroughly: make sure the chicken is well cooked

◇ SYNONYMS: thoroughly, completely, fully, carefully, effectively, efficiently, rigorously

4 comfortably or prosperously: he has lived well from his various nautical exploits

◇ SYNONYMS: prosperously, comfortably, splendidly, in comfort, in (the lap of) luxury, without hardship

5 suitably or fittingly: you can't very well refuse

◇ SYNONYMS: decently, right, kindly, fittingly, fairly, properly, politely, suitably

6 intimately: darling Robert, I know him so well

◇ SYNONYMS: intimately, deeply, fully, profoundly

7 favourably: it will go down very well with all the people who support him

◇ SYNONYMS: favourably, highly, kindly, warmly, enthusiastically, approvingly, admiringly, with admiration

8 by a considerable margin: well over half; she left well before tea

◇ SYNONYMS: considerably, easily, very much, significantly, substantially, markedly

9 very likely: the claim may well be true

◇ SYNONYMS: possibly, probably, certainly, reasonably, conceivably, justifiably

10 (informal) extremely: well cool

◇ SYNONYMS: fully, highly, greatly, amply, very much, thoroughly, considerably, substantially

11 all very well used ironically to express discontent or annoyance: that's all very well, but I'm left to pick up the pieces

12 as well

A in addition

B with equal effect: used to express indifference or reluctance: I might as well go out

13 as well as in addition to 14 just as well fortunate or appropriate: it's just as well I didn't spend all my money

► adj

15 in good health: I'm not feeling well

◇ SYNONYMS: healthy, sound, fit, blooming, in fine fettle, in good condition

16 satisfactory or acceptable: all was well in the aircraft

◇ SYNONYMS: satisfactory, right, fine, pleasing, proper, thriving

► interj

17

A an expression of surprise, indignation, or reproof: well, what a cheek!

B an expression of anticipation in waiting for an answer or remark: well, what do you think?

well² n

1 a hole or shaft bored into the earth to tap a supply of water, oil, or gas

◇ SYNONYMS: hole, bore, pit, shaft

2 an open shaft through the floors of a building, used for a staircase

► vb

3 to flow upwards or outwards: tears welled up into my eyes

◇ SYNONYMS: flow, spring, pour, jet, surge, gush, spurt, spout well-being n the state of being contented and healthy: a sense of well-being well-disposed adj inclined to be sympathetic, kindly, or friendly towards a person or idea well-heeled adj (informal) wealthy wellies pl n (Brit & NZ & Austral informal) Wellington boots

Wellington boots or wellingtons pl n long rubber boots, worn in wet or muddy conditions well-meaning adj having or indicating good intentions, usually with unfortunate results well-spoken adj having a clear, articulate, and socially acceptable accent and way of speaking well-worn adj

1 (of a word or phrase) having lost its meaning or force through being overused

2 having been used so much as to show signs of wear: well-worn leather welsh or welch vb welsh on to fail to pay (a debt) or fulfil (an obligation)

Welsh adj

1 of Wales

► n

2 a Celtic language spoken in some parts of Wales

► pl n

3 the Welsh the people of Wales

Welsh rarebit n melted cheese, sometimes mixed with milk or seasonings, served on hot toast. Also called: Welsh rabbit

welt n

1 a raised mark on the skin produced by a blow

2 a raised or strengthened seam in a garment welter n a confused mass or jumble: a welter of facts welterweight n a professional boxer weighing up to 147 pounds (66.5 kg) or an amateur boxer weighing up to 67 kg wen n (pathol) a cyst on the scalp wench n (old-fashioned)

1 (facetious) a girl or young woman

2 a prostitute or female servant

wend vb to make (one's way) in a particular direction: it's time to wend our way back home went vb the past tense of go wept vb the past of weep were vb the form of the past tense of be used after we, you, they, or a plural noun, or as a subjunctive in conditional sentences we're we are weren't were not werewolf n, pl -wolves (in folklore) a person who can turn into a wolf

west n

1 one of the four cardinal points of the compass, at 270° clockwise from north; the direction along a line of latitude towards the sunset

2 the west any area lying in or towards the west

► adj

3 situated in, moving towards, or facing the west

4 (esp. of the wind) from the west

► adv

5 in, to, or towards the west

West n

1 the West

A the western part of the world contrasted historically and culturally with the East

B (esp. formerly) the non-Communist countries of Europe and America contrasted with the Communist states of the East

► adj

2 of or denoting the western part of a country or region westerly adj

1 of or in the west

► adv, adj

2 towards the west

3 from the west: a westerly wind

western adj

1 situated in or towards the west

2 facing or moving towards the west

3 (sometimes cap) of or characteristic of the west or West

► n

4 a film or book about cowboys in the western states of the US in the 19th century

> westernmost adj

Western adj (esp. formerly) of or characteristic of the Americas and the parts of Europe not under Communist rule westernize or -nise vb -nizing, -nized or -nising, -nised to influence or make familiar with the customs or practices of the West > westernization or -nisation n westward adj, adv also westwards

1 towards the west

► n

2 the westward part or direction wet adj wetter, wettest

1 moistened, covered, or soaked with water or some other liquid

◇ SYNONYMS: damp, soaking, saturated, moist, watery, soggy, sodden, waterlogged

2 not yet dry or solid: wet paint

3 rainy: the weather was cold and wet

◇ SYNONYMS: rainy, damp, drizzly, showery, raining, pouring, drizzling, teeming

4 (Brit & NZ informal) feeble or foolish

◇ SYNONYMS: feeble, soft, weak, ineffectual, weedy (informal), spineless, effete, timorous

5 wet behind the ears (informal) immature or inexperienced

► n

6 rainy weather

◇ SYNONYMS: rain, drizzle

7 (Brit informal) a feeble or foolish person

► vb wetting, wet or wetted

8 to make wet: wet the brush before applying the paint

◇ SYNONYMS: moisten, spray, dampen, water, soak, saturate, douse, irrigate, fertigate (Austral)

9 to urinate in (one's clothes or bed)

10 wet oneself to urinate in one's clothes > wetly adv

> wetness n

wet blanket n (informal) a person whose low spirits or lack of enthusiasm have a depressing effect on others wetland n an area of marshy land wet nurse n (esp. formerly) a woman hired to breast-feed another woman's baby wet room n a type of waterproofed room with a drain in the floor often serving as an open-plan shower wet suit n a close-fitting rubber suit used by skin-divers and yachtsmen to retain body heat whack vb

1 to hit hard: that lad whacked him over the head with a bottle

◇ SYNONYMS: strike, hit, belt (informal), bang, smack, thrash, thump, swipe (informal)

2 (usually foll. by in or on) (informal) to put something onto or into (something else) with force or abandon: whack on some sunscreen

► n

3 a hard blow or the sound of one: a whack with a blunt instrument

◇ SYNONYMS: blow, hit, stroke, belt (informal), bang, smack, thump, swipe (informal)

4 (informal) a share: he took his whack of that money

◇ SYNONYMS: share, part, cut (informal), bit, portion, quota

5 have a whack to make an attempt

6 out of whack (informal) out of order or out of condition: my body is just a little out of whack whacked adj (informal) completely exhausted whacking n

1 (old-fashioned) a severe beating

► adv

2 (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) extremely: a whacking great elm whale n

1 a very large fishlike sea mammal that breathes through a blowhole on the top of its head

2 have a whale of a time (informal) to enjoy oneself very much whaler n

1 a ship used for hunting whales

2 a person whose job is to hunt whales whaling n the activity of hunting and killing whales for food or oil wharf n, pl wharves or wharfs a platform along the side of a waterfront for docking, loading, and unloading ships

◇ SYNONYMS: dock, pier, berth, quay, jetty, landing stage wharfie n (Austral & NZ) a dock labourer what pron

1 used in requesting further information about the identity or categorization of something: what was he wearing?; I knew what would happen

2 the person, thing, people, or things that: all was not what it seemed

3 used in exclamations to add emphasis: what a creep!

4 what for? for what reason?

5 what have you other similar or related things: qualifications, interests, profession, what have you

► adj

6 used with a noun in requesting further information about the identity or categorization of something: what difference can it make now?

7 to any degree or in any amount: they provided what financial support they could whatever pron

1 everything or anything that: I can handle whatever comes up

2 no matter what: whatever you do, keep your temper

3 (informal) other similar or related things: a block of wood, rock, or whatever

4 an intensive form of what, used in questions: whatever gave you that impression?

► adj

5 an intensive form of what: I can take whatever actions I deem necessary

6 at all: there is no foundation whatever for such opinions

► interj

7 an expression of indifference whatnot n (informal) other similar or related things: groceries, wines, and whatnot

whatsoever adj at all: used for emphasis after a noun phrase that uses words such as none or any: there is nothing whatsoever wrong with your heart; it can be used at any time and under any circumstances whatsoever

wheat n

1 a kind of grain used in making flour and pasta

2 the plant from which this grain is obtained wheatear n a small northern songbird with a white rump wheaten adj made from the grain or flour of wheat: wheaten bread

wheedle vb -dling, -dled

1 to try to persuade (someone) by coaxing or flattery: wheeling you into giving them their way

2 to obtain (something) in this way: she wheedled money out of him

> wheeling adj, n

wheel n

1 a circular object mounted on a shaft around which it can turn, fixed under vehicles to enable them to move

◇ SYNONYMS: disc, ring, hoop

2 anything like a wheel in shape or function: the steering wheel; a spinning wheel

◇ SYNONYMS: disc, ring, hoop

3 something that is repeated in cycles: the wheel of fashion would turn, and the clothes would be back in style

4 at or behind the wheel driving a vehicle

► vb

5 to push (a bicycle, wheelchair, or pram) along

◇ SYNONYMS: push, trundle, roll

6 to turn in a circle

◇ SYNONYMS: turn, swing, spin, revolve, rotate, whirl, swivel

7 wheel and deal to operate shrewdly and sometimes unscrupulously in order to advance one's own interests

8 wheel round to change direction or turn round suddenly wheelbarrow n a shallow open box for carrying small loads, with a wheel at the front and two handles wheelbase n the distance between the front and back axles of a motor vehicle wheelchair n a special chair on large wheels, for use by people who cannot walk properly wheel clamp n a device fixed onto one wheel of an illegally parked car to prevent the car being driven off wheeze vb wheezing, wheezed

1 to breathe with a rasping or whistling sound

► n

2 a wheezing breath or sound

3 (Brit old-fashioned, slang) a trick or plan: a money-making wheeze > wheezy adj

whelk n an edible sea creature with a strong snail-like shell whelp n

1 a young wolf or dog

2 (offensive) a youth

► vb

3 (of an animal) to give birth when adv

1 at what time?: when are they leaving?

► conj

2 at the time at which: he was twenty when the war started

3 although: he drives when he could walk

4 considering the fact that: how did you pass the exam when you hadn't studied for it?

► pron

5 at which time: she's at the age when girls get interested in boys whence conj (old-fashioned, or poetic) from what place, cause, or origin: he would then ask them whence they came

whenever conj

1 at every or any time that: the filly was trained to stop whenever a jockey used a whip

► adv

2 no matter when: I am eager to come whenever you suggest

3 (informal) at an unknown or unspecified time: the 16th, 17th, or whenever 4 an intensive form of when, used in questions: if we can't exercise restraint now, whenever can we?

where adv

1 in, at, or to what place, point, or position?: where are we going?; I know where he found it

► pron

2 in, at, or to which place: he found a sandwich bar where he could get a snack

► conj

3 in the place at which: he should have stayed where he was doing well whereabouts pl n

1 the place, esp. the approximate place, where a person or thing is: the whereabouts of the president are unknown

◇ SYNONYMS: position, situation, site, location

► adv

2 approximately where: whereabouts will you go?

whereas conj but by contrast: she was crazy about him, whereas for him it was just another affair whereby pron by or because of which: the process whereby pests become resistant to pesticides

wherefore n

1 the whys and wherefores the reasons or explanation: the whys and wherefores of the war

► conj

2 (old-fashioned, formal) for which reason whereupon conj at which point: they sentenced him to death, whereupon he fainted wherever pron

1 at, in, or to every place or point which: I got a wonderful reception wherever I went

► conj

2 in, to, or at whatever place: wherever they went, the conditions were harsh

► adv

3 no matter where: we're going to find him, wherever he is

4 (informal) at, in, or to an unknown or unspecified place: the jungles of Borneo or wherever

5 an intensive form of where, used in questions: wherever have you been?

wherewithal n the wherewithal the necessary funds, resources, or equipment: the wherewithal for making chemical weapons

whet vb whetting, whetted

1 whet someone's appetite to increase someone's desire for or interest in something: she gave him just enough information to whet his appetite

2 (old-fashioned) to sharpen (a knife or other tool)

whether conj

1 used to introduce an indirect question: he asked him whether he had seen the hunter

2 used to introduce a clause expressing doubt or choice: you are entitled to the assistance of a lawyer, whether or not you can afford one; we learn from experience, whether good or bad

whetstone n a stone used for sharpening knives or other tools whhey (way) n the watery liquid that separates from the curd when milk is clotted, for example in making cheese which adj

1 used with a noun in requesting that the particular thing being referred to is further identified or distinguished: which way had he gone?; a questionnaire to find out which shops local consumers use

2 any out of several: you have to choose which goods and services you want

► pron

3 used in requesting that the particular thing being referred to is further identified or distinguished: which of these occupations would be suitable for you?

4 used in relative clauses referring to a thing rather than a person: a discovery which could have lasting effects

5 and that: her books were all over the dining table, which meant we had to eat in the kitchen

whichever adj

1 any out of several: choose whichever line you feel more comfortable with

2 no matter which: whichever bridge you take, pause mid-stream for a look up and down the river

► pron

3 any one or ones out of several: delete whichever is inapplicable

4 no matter which one or ones: whichever you choose, you must be consistent throughout whiff n

1 a passing odour: I got a whiff of her perfume

◇ SYNONYMS: smell, hint, scent, sniff, aroma, odour

2 a trace or hint: the first whiff of jealousy

Whig n

1 a member of a British political party of the 18th–19th centuries that sought limited political and social reform and provided the core of the Liberal Party

► adj

2 of or relating to Whigs

> Whiggism n

while conj

1 at the same time that: anti-inflammatory remedies may be used to alleviate the condition while background factors are investigated

2 at some point during the time that: her father had died while she was gone

3 although or whereas: while she tossed and turned, he fell into a dreamless sleep

► n

4 a period of time: I'd like to stay a while while away vb whiling, whiled to pass (time) idly but pleasantly whilst conj (chiefly Brit) same as while whim n a sudden, passing, and often fanciful idea

◇ SYNONYMS: impulse, caprice, fancy, urge, notion whimper vb

1 to cry, complain, or say (something) in a whining plaintive way

► n

2 a soft plaintive whine whimsical adj unusual, playful, and fanciful: a whimsical story > whimsically adv

whimsy n

1 pl -sies a fanciful or playful idea: they thought sparing the rod a foolish whimsy

2 capricious or playful behaviour: sudden flights of whimsy whin n (chiefly Brit) same as gorse whine n

1 a long high-pitched plaintive cry or moan

◇ SYNONYMS: cry, moan, sob, wail, whimper

2 a peevish complaint

◇ SYNONYMS: complaint, moan (informal), grumble, grouse, gripe (informal), whinge (informal), grouch (informal)

► vb whining, whined

3 to whinge or complain

◇ SYNONYMS: complain, grumble, gripe (informal), whinge (informal), moan, grouse, grizzle (informal, chiefly Brit), grouch (informal)

4 to issue a long high-pitched moan

◇ SYNONYMS: cry, sob, wail, whimper, sniffle, snivel, moan > whiner n

> whining adj, n

whinge (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) vb whingeing, whinged

1 to complain in a moaning manner

► n

2 a complaint

> whinger n

whinny vb -nies, -nying, -nied

1 (of a horse) to neigh softly or gently

► n, pl -nies

2 a gentle or low-pitched neigh whip n

1 a piece of leather or rope attached at one end to a stiff handle, used for hitting people or animals

◇ SYNONYMS: lash, cane, birch, crop, scourge, cat-o'-nine-tails

2

A a member of a political party who is responsible for urging members to attend Parliament to vote on an important issue

B a notice sent to members of a political party by the whip, urging them to attend Parliament to vote in a particular way on an important issue

3 a dessert made from egg whites or cream beaten stiff: raspberry whip

► vb whipping, whipped

4 to hit with a whip

◇ SYNONYMS: lash, cane, flog, beat, strap, thrash, birch, scourge

5 to hit sharply: strands of hair whipped across her cheeks

6 (informal) to move or go quickly and suddenly: machine-gun bullets whipped past him

◇ SYNONYMS: dash, shoot, fly, tear, rush, dive, dart, whisk

7 to beat (cream or eggs) with a whisk or fork until frothy or stiff

◇ SYNONYMS: whisk, beat, mix vigorously, stir vigorously

8 to rouse (someone) into a particular condition: politicians have whipped themselves into a panic about never-ending recession

◇ SYNONYMS: incite, drive, stir, spur, work up, get going, agitate, inflame

9 (informal) to steal (something)

► See also whip-round > whipping n

whip bird n (Austral) a bird with a whistle ending in a note like the crack of a whip whiplash injury n an injury to the neck resulting from the head being suddenly thrust forward and then snapped back, for example in a car crash whippet n a small slender dog similar to a greyhound whip-round n (informal) an impromptu collection of money whir n, vb whirring, whirred same as whirr whirl vb

1 to spin or turn round very fast

◇ SYNONYMS: spin, turn, twist, rotate, twirl

2 to seem to spin from dizziness or confusion: my mind whirled with half-formed thoughts

◇ SYNONYMS: feel dizzy, swim, spin, reel, go round

► n

3 the act or an instance of whirling: he grasps her by the waist and gives her a whirl

◇ SYNONYMS: revolution, turn, roll, spin, twist, swirl, rotation, twirl

4 a round of intense activity: the social whirl of Paris

◇ SYNONYMS: bustle, round, series, succession, flurry, merry-go-round

5 a confused state: my thoughts are in a whirl

◇ SYNONYMS: confusion, daze, dither (chiefly Brit), giddiness

6 give something a whirl (informal) to try something new whirlpool n a powerful circular current of water, into which objects floating nearby are drawn whirlwind n

1 a column of air whirling violently upwards in a spiral

► adj

2 done or happening much more quickly than usual: a whirlwind tour of France

whirr or whir n

1 a prolonged soft whizz or buzz: the whirr of the fax machine

► vb whirring, whirred

2 to produce a prolonged soft whizz or buzz > whirring n, adj

whisk vb

1 to move or take somewhere swiftly: I was whisked away in a police car

2 to brush away lightly: the waiter whisked the crumbs away with a napkin

◇ SYNONYMS: flick, whip, sweep, brush

3 to beat (cream or eggs) with a whisk or fork until frothy or stiff

◇ SYNONYMS: beat, mix vigorously, stir vigorously, whip, fluff up

► n

4 the act or an instance of whisking: a whisk of a scaly tail

◇ SYNONYMS: flick, sweep, brush, whip

5 a utensil for beating cream or eggs until frothy or stiff

◇ SYNONYMS: beater, mixer, blender whisker n

1 any of the long stiff hairs that grow out from the sides of the mouth of a cat or other mammal

2 any of the hairs growing on a man's face, esp. on the cheeks or chin

3 by a whisker by a very small distance or amount: we missed him by a whisker > whiskered or whiskery adj whiskey n Irish or American whisky whisky n, pl -kies a strong alcoholic drink made by distilling fermented cereals whisper vb

1 to speak or say (something) very softly, using the breath instead of the vocal cords

◇ SYNONYMS: murmur, breathe

2 to make a low soft rustling sound: the leaves whispered

◇ SYNONYMS: rustle, sigh, hiss, swish

► n

3 a low soft voice: her voice sank to a whisper

◇ SYNONYMS: murmur, mutter, mumble, undertone

4 (informal) a rumour: I just picked up a whisper on this killing

◇ SYNONYMS: rumour, report, gossip, goss (informal), innuendo, insinuation

5 a low soft rustling sound: a whisper of breeze in the shrubbery

◇ SYNONYMS: rustle, sigh, hiss, swish

> whispered adj

whist n a card game for two pairs of players whistle vb -tling, -tled

- 1 to produce a shrill sound by forcing breath between pursed lips
- 2 to produce (a tune) by making a series of such sounds
- 3 to signal (to) by whistling or blowing a whistle: the doorman whistled a cruising cab
- 4 to move with a whistling sound: a shell whistled through the upper air
- 5 (of a kettle or train) to produce a shrill sound caused by steam being forced through a small opening
- 6 (of a bird) to give a shrill cry
- 7 whistle in the dark to try to keep up one's confidence in spite of being afraid
- n
- 8 the act or sound of whistling: he gave a whistle of astonishment
- 9 a metal instrument that is blown down its end to produce a tune, signal, or alarm: he played the tin whistle; the referee's whistle
- 10 a device in a kettle or a train that makes a shrill sound by means of steam under pressure
- 11 blow the whistle on (informal) to reveal and put a stop to (wrongdoing or a wrongdoer): to blow the whistle on corrupt top-level officials
- 12 wet one's whistle (informal) to have a drink whit n not a whit not at all: it does not matter a whit white adj

- 1 having no hue, owing to the reflection of all or almost all light; of the colour of snow
- 2 pale, because of illness, fear, shock, or another emotion: white with rage
- ◇ SYNONYMS: pale, wan, pasty, pallid, ashen
- 3 (of hair) having lost its colour, usually from age
- 4 (of coffee or tea) with milk or cream
- 5 (of wine) made from pale grapes or from black grapes separated from their skins
- 6 denoting flour, or bread made from flour, that has had part of the grain removed
- n
- 7 the lightest colour; the colour of snow
- 8 the clear fluid that surrounds the yolk of an egg
- 9 (anatomy) the white part of the eyeball

10 anything white, such as white paint or white clothing: a room decorated all in white > whiteness n

> whitish adj

White n

1 a member of a light-skinned race

► adj

2 of or relating to a White or Whites whitebait n

1 the young of herrings, sprats, or pilchards, cooked and eaten whole

2 any of various small silvery fishes of Australia and New Zealand and of North American coastal regions of the Pacific white-collar adj denoting workers employed in professional and clerical occupations

◇ SYNONYMS: clerical, professional, salaried, nonmanual white elephant n a possession that is unwanted by its owner white flag n a signal of surrender or to request a truce white goods pl n large household appliances, such as refrigerators and cookers white-hot adj

1 at such a high temperature that white light is produced

2 (informal) in a state of intense emotion: white-hot agony white lie n a small lie, usually told to avoid hurting someone's feelings whiten vb to make or become white or whiter > whitener n

> whitening n

white paper n an official government report which sets out the government's policy on a specific matter whitewash n

1 a mixture of lime or chalk in water, for whitening walls and other surfaces

2 an attempt to conceal the unpleasant truth: the report was a whitewash

▶ vb

3 to cover with whitewash

4 to conceal the unpleasant truth about > whitewashed adj

whither conj (old-fashioned, or poetic) to what place or for what purpose: they knew not whither they went

whiting (white-ing) n

1 a white-fleshed food fish of European seas

2 (Austral) any of several marine food fishes

Whitsun n

1 short for Whitsuntide

▶ adj

2 of Whit Sunday or Whitsuntide

Whit Sunday n the seventh Sunday after Easter Whitsuntide n the week that begins with Whit Sunday whittle vb -tling, -tled

1 to make (an object) by cutting or shaving pieces from (a piece of wood) with a small knife

◇ SYNONYMS: carve, cut, hew (old-fashioned), shape, trim, shave, pare

2 whittle down or away to reduce in size or effectiveness gradually: my self-confidence had been whittled away to almost nothing

◇ SYNONYMS whittle something away: undermine, reduce, consume, erode, eat away, wear away, cut down, cut, decrease, prune, scale down

whizz or whiz vb whizzing, whizzed

1 to move with a loud humming or buzzing sound: the bullets whizzed overhead

2 (informal) to move or go quickly: the wind surfers fairly whizzed along the water

► n, pl whizzes

3 a loud humming or buzzing sound

4 (informal) a person who is extremely good at something: he's a whizz on finance

5 (slang) amphetamine

whizz kid or whiz kid n (informal) a person who is outstandingly able and successful for his or her age who pron

1 which person: who are you?; he didn't know who had started it

2 used at the beginning of a relative clause referring to a person or people already mentioned: he is a man who can effect change

whodunnit or whodunit (hoo-dun-nit) n (informal) a novel, play, or film about the solving of a murder mystery

whoever pron

1 the person or people who: whoever bought it for you has to make the claim

2 no matter who: I pity him, whoever he is

3 (informal) other similar or related people or person: your best friend, your neighbours, or whoever 4 an intensive form of who, used in questions: whoever thought of such a thing?

whole adj

1 constituting or referring to all of something: I'd spent my whole allowance by Saturday afternoon

◇ SYNONYMS: complete, full, total, entire, uncut, undivided, unabridged

2 unbroken or undamaged

◇ SYNONYMS: undamaged, intact, unscathed, unbroken, untouched, unharmed, in one piece

► adv

3 in an undivided or unbroken piece: truffles are cooked whole

4 (informal) completely or entirely: a whole new theory of treatment

► n

5 all there is of a thing: the whole of my salary

6 a collection of parts viewed together as a unit: taking Great Britain as a whole

◇ SYNONYMS: unit, ensemble, entirety, totality

7 on the whole

A taking all things into consideration: on the whole he has worked about one year out of twelve

◇ SYNONYMS on the whole: all in all, altogether, all things considered, by and large

B in general: on the whole they were not successful

◇ SYNONYMS on the whole: generally, in general, as a rule, chiefly, mainly, mostly, principally, on average > wholeness n

wholefood n

1 food that has been refined or processed as little as possible

► adj

2 of or relating to wholefood: a wholefood diet wholehearted adj done or given with total sincerity or enthusiasm:

wholehearted support > wholeheartedly adv

wholemeal adj (Brit & Austral)

- 1 (of flour) made from the entire wheat kernel
- 2 made from wholemeal flour: wholemeal bread whole number n (maths) a number that does not contain a fraction, such as 0, 1, or 2 wholesale n

- 1 the business of selling goods in large quantities and at lower prices to retailers for resale
 - ▶ adj
- 2 relating to such business: wholesale prices
- 3 extensive or indiscriminate: the wholesale destruction of forests
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: extensive, total, mass, sweeping, broad, comprehensive, wide-ranging, blanket
 - ▶ adv
- 4 by or through the wholesale business: we buy beef wholesale
- 5 extensively or indiscriminately: buffalo were slaughtered wholesale
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: extensively, comprehensively, across the board, indiscriminately
 - > wholesaler n

wholesome adj

- 1 physically beneficial: wholesome food
- 2 morally beneficial: a wholesome attitude of the mind wholly adv completely or totally

- ◇ SYNONYMS: completely, totally, perfectly, fully, entirely, altogether, thoroughly, utterly whom pron the objective form of who: whom will you tell?; he was devoted to his wife, whom he married in 1960

whoop vb

1 to cry out in excitement or joy

2 whoop it up (informal) to indulge in a noisy celebration

► n

3 a loud cry of excitement or joy whoopee (old-fashioned, informal) interj

1 an exclamation of joy or excitement

► n

2 make whoopee

A to indulge in a noisy celebration

B to make love whopper n (informal)

1 an unusually large or impressive example of something: Deauville's beach is a whopper

2 a big lie whopping (informal) adj

1 unusually large: a whopping 40 per cent

► adv

2 extremely: it's a whopping great gamble

whore (hore) n a prostitute or promiscuous woman: often a term of abuse

◇ SYNONYMS: prostitute, streetwalker, call girl whorl n

1 (botany) a circular arrangement of leaves or flowers round the stem of a plant

2 (zool) a single turn in a spiral shell

3 anything shaped like a coil whose pron

1 of whom? belonging to whom?: used in direct and indirect questions: whose idea was it?; I wondered whose it was

2 of whom or of which: used as a relative pronoun: Gran had sympathy for anybody whose life had gone wrong

why adv

1 for what reason?: why did he marry her?; she avoided asking him why he was there

► pron

2 for or because of which: you can think of all kinds of reasons why you should not believe it

► n, pl whys

3 the whys and wherefores See wherefore

► interj

4 an exclamation of surprise, indignation, or impatience: why, I listen to you on the radio twice a week

wick n

1 a cord through the middle of a candle, through which the fuel reaches the flame

2 get on someone's wick (Brit & Austral slang) to annoy someone wicked adj

1 morally bad: the wicked queen in 'Snow White'

2 playfully mischievous or roguish: let's be wicked and go skinny-dipping

3 dangerous or unpleasant: there was a wicked cut over his eye

4 (slang) very good > wickedly adv

> wickedness n

wicker adj made of wickerwork: a wicker chair wickerwork n a material consisting of slender flexible twigs woven together wicket n (cricket)

- 1 either of two sets of three stumps stuck in the ground with two wooden bails resting on top, at which the batsman stands
- 2 the playing space between these
- 3 the act or instance of a batsman being got out wide adj

- 1 having a great extent from side to side: the wide main street ◇ SYNONYMS: spacious, broad, extensive, roomy, commodious
 - 2 having a specified extent from side to side: three metres wide
 - 3 covering or including many different things: a wide range of services ◇ SYNONYMS: broad, extensive, wide-ranging, large, sweeping, vast, immense, expansive
 - 4 covering a large distance or extent: the proposal was voted down by a wide margin ◇ SYNONYMS: large, broad, vast, immense
 - 5 (of eyes) opened fully ◇ SYNONYMS: expanded, dilated, distended
- adv
- 6 to a large or full extent: he swung the door wide ◇ SYNONYMS: fully, completely
 - 7 far and wide See far
- n
- 8 (cricket) a ball bowled outside the batsman's reach, which scores a run for the batting side > widely adv

widen vb to make or become wide or wider

- ◇ SYNONYMS: broaden, expand, enlarge, dilate, spread, extend, stretch widescreen adj (of a television set) having a screen whose width is much greater than its height widespread adj affecting an extensive area or a large number of people:

widespread damage; widespread public support

◇ SYNONYMS: common, general, popular, broad, extensive, universal, far-reaching, pervasive widgeon n same as widgeon widget n

1 (informal) any small device, the name of which is unknown or forgotten

2 a small device in a beer can which, when the can is opened, releases nitrogen gas into the beer, giving it a head

3 (in the graphical user interface of a computer or mobile phone) an element of interaction, such as a scroll bar or button widow n a woman whose spouse has died and who has not remarried > widowhood n

widowed adj denoting a person whose spouse has died and who has not remarried widower n a man whose spouse has died and who has not remarried width n

1 the extent or measurement of something from side to side

◇ SYNONYMS: breadth, extent, span, scope, diameter, compass, thickness, girth

2 the distance across a rectangular swimming bath, as opposed to its length wield vb

1 to handle or use (a weapon or tool)

◇ SYNONYMS: brandish, flourish, manipulate, swing, use, manage, handle, employ

2 to exert or maintain (power or influence)

◇ SYNONYMS: exert, maintain, exercise, have, possess wife n, pl wives the woman to whom a person is married ◇ SYNONYMS: spouse, partner, mate, bride, better half (humorous), vrou (S African), wahine (NZ), wifey (informal)

> wifely adj

Wi-Fi n (trademark) (computers) a system of wireless access to the internet wig n an artificial head of hair wigeon or widgeon n a wild marshland duck wiggle vb -gling, -gled

1 to move with jerky movements from side to side or up and down: she wiggled her toes in the cool water

► n

2 a wiggling movement or walk wigwam n a Native American's tent, made of animal skins wiki (computers) n

1 a website, or page within one, whose content can be edited freely by anyone with access to a web browser

► adj

2 of or relating to the software which facilitates such open editing: wiki technology wild adj

1 (of animals or birds) living in natural surroundings; not domesticated or tame

- ◇ SYNONYMS: untamed, fierce, savage, ferocious, unbroken, feral, undomesticated, free, warrigal (Austral literary)
- 2 (of plants) growing in a natural state; not cultivated
- ◇ SYNONYMS: uncultivated, natural
- 3 uninhabited and desolate: wild country
- 4 living in a savage or uncivilized way: a wild mountain man
- ◇ SYNONYMS: uncivilized, fierce, savage, primitive, ferocious, barbaric, brutish, barbarous
- 5 lacking restraint or control: a wild party
- ◇ SYNONYMS: uncontrolled, disorderly, turbulent, wayward, unruly, rowdy, unfettered, riotous
- 6 stormy or violent: a wild windy October morning
- ◇ SYNONYMS: stormy, violent, rough, raging, choppy, tempestuous, blustery
- 7 in a state of extreme emotional intensity: wild with excitement
- ◇ SYNONYMS: excited, crazy (informal), enthusiastic, raving, hysterical
- 8 without reason or substance: wild accusations
- 9 wild about (informal) very enthusiastic about: his colleagues aren't all that wild about him
- adv
- 10 run wild to behave without restraint: she was allowed to run completely wild
- n
- 11 the wild a free natural state of living: creatures of the wild
- 12 the wilds a desolate or uninhabited region: the wilds of Africa
- ◇ SYNONYMS the wilds: wilderness, desert, wasteland, middle of nowhere (informal), backwoods, back of beyond (informal)
- > wildly adv
- > wildness n

wildcat n, pl -cats or -cat

- 1 a wild European cat that looks like a domesticated cat but is larger and has a bushy tail
- 2 (informal) a quick-tempered person
- adj
- 3 (chiefly US) risky and financially unsound: a wildcat operation wildcat strike n a strike begun by workers spontaneously or without union approval

wildebeest n, pl -beests or -beest same as gnu wilderness n

1 a wild uninhabited uncultivated region

◇ SYNONYMS: wilds, desert, wasteland, uncultivated region

2 a confused mass or tangle: a wilderness of long grass and wild flowers

3 a state of being no longer in a prominent position: a long spell in the political wilderness wildfire n spread like wildfire to spread very quickly or uncontrollably wild-goose chase n a search that has little or no chance of success wildlife n wild animals and plants collectively wiles pl n artful or seductive tricks or ploys wilful or (US) willful adj

1 determined to do things in one's own way: a wilful and insubordinate child

2 deliberate and intentional: wilful misconduct > wilfully adv

will¹ vb, past tense would

1 used as an auxiliary to make the future tense: he will go on trial on October 7

2 to express resolution: they will not consider giving up territories

3 to express a polite request: will you please calm Mummy and Daddy down

4 to express ability: many essential oils will protect clothing from moths

5 to express probability or expectation: his followers will be relieved to hear that

6 to express customary practice: boys will be boys!

7 to express desire: go in very small steps, if you will will² n

1 a strong determination: a fierce will to survive

◇ SYNONYMS: determination, drive, purpose, commitment, resolution, resolve, spine, backbone

2 desire or wish: a referendum to determine the will of the people

◇ SYNONYMS: wish, mind, desire, intention, fancy, preference, inclination

3 a document setting out a person's wishes regarding the disposal of his or her property after death

◇ SYNONYMS: testament, bequest(s), last wishes, last will and testament

4 at will when and as one chooses: customers can withdraw money at will

► vb willing, willed

5 to try to make (something) happen by wishing very hard for it: she willed herself not to cry

6 to wish or desire: if he wills it, we will meet again

◇ SYNONYMS: wish, want, prefer, desire, see fit

7 to leave (property) in one's will: the farm had been willed to her

◇ SYNONYMS: bequeath, give, leave, transfer, gift, hand on, pass on, confer willing adj

1 favourably disposed or inclined: I'm willing to hear what you have to say

◇ SYNONYMS: inclined, prepared, consenting, agreeable, compliant, amenable

2 keen and obliging: willing volunteers

◇ SYNONYMS: ready, game (informal) > willingly adv

> willingness n

will-o'-the-wisp n

1 someone or something that is elusive or deceptively alluring: their freedom was just a will-o'-the-wisp

2 a pale light that is sometimes seen over marshy ground at night willow n a tree that grows near water, with thin flexible branches used in weaving baskets and wood used for making cricket bats willowy adj slender and graceful willpower n strong self-disciplined determination to do something willy-nilly adv

1 in a haphazard fashion; indiscriminately: spending taxpayers' money willy-nilly

2 whether desired or not willy wagtail n (Austral) a black-and-white flycatcher willy-willy n (Austral) a small tropical dust storm wilt vb

1 (of a flower or plant) to become limp or drooping

◇ SYNONYMS: droop, wither, sag, shrivel

2 (of a person) to lose strength or confidence

◇ SYNONYMS: weaken, languish, droop wily adj wilier, wiliest sly or crafty wimp (informal) n

1 a feeble ineffective person

► vb

2 wimp out of to fail to do (something) through lack of courage > wimpish or wimpy adj wimple n a piece of cloth draped round the head to frame the face, worn by women in the Middle Ages and now by some nuns win vb winning, won

1 to achieve first place in (a competition or race)

◇ SYNONYMS: be victorious in, succeed in, prevail in, come first in, be the victor in

2 to gain (a prize or first place) in a competition or race

◇ SYNONYMS: gain, get, land (informal), achieve, earn, secure, obtain, acquire

3 to gain victory in (a battle, argument, or struggle)

◇ SYNONYMS: be victorious in, succeed in, prevail in, come first in, be the victor in

4 to gain (sympathy, approval, or support)

◇ SYNONYMS: gain, get, land (informal), achieve, earn, secure, obtain, acquire

► n

5 (informal) a success, victory, or triumph: three consecutive wins

◇ SYNONYMS: victory, success, triumph, conquest

► See also win over > winnable adj

wince vb wincing, winced

1 to draw back slightly, as if in sudden pain

◇ SYNONYMS: flinch, start, shrink, cringe, quail, recoil, cower, draw back

► n

2 the act of wincing

◇ SYNONYMS: flinch, start, cringe winch n

1 a lifting or hauling device consisting of a rope or chain wound round a barrel or drum

► vb

2 to haul or lift using a winch: two men were winched to safety by a helicopter

wind¹ (rhymes with pinned) n

1 a current of air moving across the earth's surface

◇ SYNONYMS: air, blast, hurricane, breeze, draught, gust, zephyr

2 a trend or force: the chill wind of change

3 the power to breathe normally, esp. during or after physical exercise: if you feel tired during the exercise, persevere – you'll soon get a second wind

◇ SYNONYMS: breath, puff, respiration

4 gas in the stomach or intestines

◇ SYNONYMS: flatulence, gas

5 (informal) foolish or empty talk: political language is designed to give an appearance of solidity to pure wind

◇ SYNONYMS: nonsense, talk, boasting, hot air, babble, bluster, humbug, twaddle (informal), bizzo (Austral slang), bull's wool (Austral & NZ slang)

6 break wind to release intestinal gas through the anus

7 get wind of (informal) to find out about: the media finally got wind of her disappearance

◇ SYNONYMS get wind of something: hear about, learn of, find out about, become aware of, be told about, be informed of, be made aware of, hear tell of

► adj

8 (music) of or relating to wind instruments: the wind section

► vb winding, winded

9 to cause (someone) to be short of breath: he fell with a thud that left him winded

10 to cause (a baby) to bring up wind after feeding > windless adj

wind² (rhymes with pined) vb winding, wound

1 to twist (something flexible) round some object: a sweatband was wound round his head

◇ SYNONYMS: wrap, twist, reel, curl, loop, coil

2 to tighten the spring of (a clock or watch) by turning a key or knob

3 to follow a twisting course: a narrow path wound through the shrubbery

◇ SYNONYMS: meander, turn, bend, twist, curve, snake, ramble, twist and turn

► See also wind up > winding adj, n

windfall n

1 a piece of unexpected good fortune, esp. financial gain

◇ SYNONYMS: godsend, find, jackpot, bonanza, manna from heaven

2 a fruit blown off a tree by the wind wind farm n a large group of wind-driven generators for electricity supply wind instrument n a musical instrument, such as a flute, that is played by having air blown into it windlass n a machine for lifting heavy objects by winding a rope or chain round a barrel or drum driven by a motor windmill n

1 a building containing machinery for grinding corn or for pumping, driven by sails that are turned by the wind

2 (Brit) a toy consisting of a stick with plastic vanes attached, which revolve in the wind window n

1 an opening in a building or a vehicle containing glass within a framework, which lets in light and enables people to see in or out

2 the display area behind a glass window in a shop

3 a transparent area in an envelope which reveals the address on the letter inside

4 an area on a computer screen that can be manipulated separately from the rest of the display area, for example so that two or more files can be displayed at the same time

5 a period of unbooked time in a diary or schedule window-dressing n

1 the art of arranging goods in shop windows in such a way as to attract customers

2 an attempt to make something seem better than it is by stressing only its attractive features: do you think that the president's calling for an investigation is window-dressing, or do you think he actually means to do something?

> window-dresser n

window-shopping n looking at goods in shop windows without intending to buy anything windpipe n a nontechnical name for trachea windscreen n (Brit & Austral & NZ) the sheet of glass that forms the front window of a motor vehicle windscreen wiper n (Brit & Austral & NZ) an electrically operated blade with a rubber edge that wipes a windscreen clear of rain windsock n a cloth cone mounted on a mast, used esp. at airports to indicate the direction of the wind windsurfing n the sport of riding on water using a surfboard steered and propelled by an attached sail > windsurfer n

wind up vb

1 to bring to a conclusion: we want to wind this conflict up as quickly as possible

◇ SYNONYMS wind something up: end, finish, settle, conclude, tie up, wrap up, finalize

2 (informal) to dissolve (a company) and divide its assets among creditors

◇ SYNONYMS wind something up: close down, close, dissolve, terminate, put something into liquidation

3 to tighten the spring of (a clockwork mechanism) by turning a key or knob

4 to move (a car window) upwards by turning a handle

5 (informal) to end up: to wind up in the hospital

◇ SYNONYMS wind up: end up, be left, finish up, fetch up (informal), land up

6 (informal) to make nervous or tense: as crisis after crisis broke, I became increasingly wound up

◇ SYNONYMS wind someone up: irritate, excite, anger, annoy, exasperate, nettle, work someone up, pique

7 (Brit & Austral & NZ slang) to tease or annoy: that really used to wind my old man up something rotten

◇ SYNONYMS wind someone up: tease, kid (informal), have someone on (informal), annoy, rag (informal), rib (informal), josh (informal), vex

► adj wind-up

8 operated by clockwork: a wind-up toy

► n wind-up

9 a light-hearted hoax

10 the finish

windward (chiefly naut) adj

1 of or in the direction from which the wind blows

► n

2 the windward direction

► adv

3 towards the wind windy adj windier, windiest

1 denoting a time or conditions in which there is a strong wind: a windy day

◇ SYNONYMS: breezy, wild, stormy, windswept, blustery, gusty, squally, blowy

2 exposed to the wind: the windy graveyard

3 long-winded or pompous: his speeches are long and windy

4 (old-fashioned, slang) frightened wine n

1

A an alcoholic drink produced by the fermenting of grapes with water and sugar

B an alcoholic drink produced in this way from other fruits or flowers:

dandelion wine

► adj

2 dark purplish-red

► vb wining, wined

3 wine and dine to entertain (someone) with wine and fine food wing n

1 one of the limbs or organs of a bird, bat, or insect that are used for flying

2 one of the two winglike supporting parts of an aircraft

3 a projecting part of a building: converting the unused east wing into a suitable habitation

4 a faction or group within a political party or other organization: the youth wing of the African National Congress

◇ SYNONYMS: faction, group, arm, section, branch

5 (Brit) the part of a car body surrounding the wheels

6 (sport)

A either of the two sides of the pitch near the touchline

B same as winger

7 wings (theatre) the space offstage to the right or left of the acting area

8 in the wings ready to step in when needed

9 on the wing flying

10 spread one's wings to make fuller use of one's abilities by trying new experiences: he increasingly spread his wings abroad

11 take someone under one's wing to look after someone

12 take wing to fly away

► vb

13 to fly: a lone bird winging its way from the island

◇ SYNONYMS: fly, soar, glide, take wing

14 to move through the air: sending a shower of loose gravel winging towards the house

15 to shoot or wound in the wing or arm

◇ SYNONYMS: wound, hit, clip

16 to provide with wings > winged adj

> wingless adj

winger n (sport) a player positioned on a wing wink vb

1 to close and open one eye quickly as a signal

◇ SYNONYMS: blink, bat, flutter

2 (of a light) to shine brightly and intermittently; twinkle

◇ SYNONYMS: twinkle, flash, shine, sparkle, gleam, shimmer, glimmer

► n

3 the act or an instance of winking, esp. as a signal

◇ SYNONYMS: blink, flutter

4 a twinkling of light

5 (informal) the smallest amount of sleep: I didn't sleep a wink last night

6 tip someone the wink (Brit & Austral & NZ informal) to give someone a hint or warning winkle n

1 an edible shellfish with a spirally coiled shell

► vb -kling, -kled

2 winkle out (informal, chiefly Brit)

A to obtain (information) from someone who is not willing to provide it: try to winkle the real problem out of them

B to coax or force out: he somehow managed to winkle him out of his room winner n

1 a person or thing that wins

◇ SYNONYMS: victor, champion, master, champ (informal), conqueror, prizewinner

2 (informal) a person or thing that seems sure to be successful winning adj

1 gaining victory: the winning side

◇ SYNONYMS: victorious, first, top, successful, unbeaten, conquering, triumphant, undefeated

2 charming or attractive: her winning smiles

◇ SYNONYMS: charming, pleasing, attractive, engaging, cute, disarming, enchanted, endearing winnings pl n the money won in a competition or in gambling ◇ SYNONYMS: spoils, profits, gains, prize, proceeds, takings winnow vb

1 to separate (grain) from (chaff) by a current of air

2 (often foll. by out) to separate out (an unwanted element): the committee will need to winnow out the nonsense

win over vb to gain the support or consent of: his robust performance won over his critics

◇ SYNONYMS win someone over or round: convince, influence, persuade, convert, sway, prevail upon, bring or talk round winsome adj (literary) charming or attractive: a winsome smile

winter n

1 the coldest season of the year, between autumn and spring

► vb

2 to spend the winter in a specified place: wintering in Rome winter sports pl n sports held on snow or ice, such as skiing and skating wintry adj -trier, -triest

1 of or characteristic of winter: a cold wintry day

2 cold or unfriendly: a wintry smile win-win adj guaranteeing a favourable outcome for everyone involved: a win-win situation for NATO

wipe vb wiping, wiped

1 to rub (a surface or object) lightly with a cloth or the hand, in order to remove dirt or liquid from it

◇ SYNONYMS: clean, polish, brush, rub, sponge, mop, swab

2 to remove by wiping: she made a futile attempt to wipe away her tears

◇ SYNONYMS: erase, remove

3 to erase a recording from (a video or audio tape)

► n

4 the act or an instance of wiping: a quick wipe

◇ SYNONYMS: rub, brush wipe out vb to destroy or get rid of completely: a hail storm wipes out a wheat crop in five minutes

◇ SYNONYMS wipe something or someone out: destroy, massacre, erase, eradicate, obliterate, annihilate, exterminate, expunge (formal)

wire n

1 a slender flexible strand of metal

2 a length of this used to carry electric current in a circuit

3 a long continuous piece of wire or cable connecting points in a telephone or telegraph system

4 (old-fashioned, informal) a telegram

► vb wiring, wired

5 to fasten with wire

6 to equip (an electrical system, circuit, or component) with wires

7 (informal) to send a telegram to 8 to send by telegraph: they wired the money for a train ticket wire-haired adj (of a dog) having a rough wiry coat wireless n

1 (old-fashioned) same as radio

► adj

2 (computers) communicating without connecting wires: wireless application protocol wiring n the network of wires used in an electrical system, device, or circuit wiry adj wirier, wiriest

- 1 (of a person) slim but strong
- 2 coarse and stiff: wiry grass wisdom n

- 1 the ability to use one's experience and knowledge to make sensible decisions or judgments ◇ SYNONYMS: understanding, learning, knowledge, intelligence, judgment, insight, enlightenment, erudition
- 2 accumulated knowledge or learning: the wisdom of Asia and of Africa wisdom tooth n any of the four molar teeth, one at the back of each side of the jaw, that are the last of the permanent teeth to come through wise¹ adj

- 1 possessing or showing wisdom: a wise move ◇ SYNONYMS: sage, clever, intelligent, sensible, enlightened, discerning, perceptive, erudite, grounded
- 2 none the wiser knowing no more than before: I left the conference none the wiser
- 3 wise to (informal) aware of or informed about: they'll get wise to our system; he put him wise to the rumour > wisely adv

wise² n (old-fashioned) way, manner, or respect: in no wise

-wise suffix forming adverbs

- 1 indicating direction or manner: crabwise
- 2 with reference to: moneywise wiseacre n a person who wishes to seem wise wisecrack (informal) n

1 a clever, amusing, sometimes unkind, remark

► vb

2 to make such remarks > wisecracking adj

wish vb

1 to want or desire (something impossible or improbable): he wished he'd kept quiet

2 to desire or prefer to be or do something: the next person who wished to speak

◇ SYNONYMS: want, feel, choose, please, desire, think fit

3 to feel or express a hope concerning the welfare, health, or success of: we wished him well

4 to greet as specified: I wished her a Merry Christmas

► n

5 a desire, often for something impossible or improbable: a desperate wish to succeed as a professional artist

◇ SYNONYMS: desire, want, hope, urge, intention, fancy (informal), ambition, yen (informal)

6 something desired or wished for: your wishes will come true

7 the expression of a hope for someone's welfare, health, or success: give him our best wishes wishbone n the V-shaped bone above the breastbone of a chicken or turkey wishful adj desirous or longing: she seemed wishful of prolonging the discussion wishy-washy adj (informal) lacking in character, force, or colour wisp n

- 1 a thin, delicate, or filmy piece or streak: little wisps of cloud
- 2 a small untidy bundle, tuft, or strand: a wisp of hair
- 3 a slight trace: a wisp of a smile

wispy adj wispier, wispiest thin, fine, or delicate: grey wispy hair wisteria n a climbing plant with large drooping clusters of blue, purple, or white flowers wistful adj sadly wishing for something lost or unobtainable

- > wistfully adv
- > wistfulness n

wit n

- 1 the ability to use words or ideas in a clever, amusing, and imaginative way ◇ SYNONYMS: humour, quips, banter, puns, repartee, wordplay, witticisms, badinage
- 2 a person possessing this ability ◇ SYNONYMS: humorist, card (informal), comedian, wag, joker, dag (NZ informal)
- 3 practical intelligence: do credit me with some wit ◇ SYNONYMS: cleverness, sense, brains, wisdom, common sense, intellect, ingenuity, acumen witch n

- 1 (in former times) a woman believed to possess evil magic powers ◇ SYNONYMS: enchantress, magician, hag, crone, sorceress, Wiccan
- 2 a person who practises magic or sorcery, esp. black magic
- 3 (derogatory) an ugly or wicked old woman witchcraft n the use of magic, esp. for evil purposes

- ◇ SYNONYMS: magic, voodoo, wizardry, black magic, enchantment, occultism, sorcery, Wicca, makutu (NZ) witch doctor n a man in certain tribal societies who is believed to possess magical powers, which can be used to cure sickness or to harm people witchetty grub n a wood-boring edible Australian caterpillar witch-hunt n a rigorous campaign to expose and discredit people considered to hold unorthodox views on the pretext of safeguarding the public welfare with prep

1 accompanying; in the company of: the captain called to the sergeant to come with him

2 using; by means of: unlocking the padlock with a key

3 possessing or having: a woman with black hair; the patient with angina

4 concerning or regarding: be gentle with me

5 in a manner characterized by: I know you will handle it with discretion

6 as a result of: his voice was hoarse with nervousness

7 following the line of thought of: are you with me so far?

8 having the same opinions as; supporting: are you with us or against us?

withdraw vb -drawing, -drew, -drawn

1 to take out or remove: he withdrew an envelope from his pocket

◇ SYNONYMS: remove, take off, pull out, extract, take away, pull back, draw out, draw back

2 to remove (money) from a bank account or savings account

◇ SYNONYMS: take out, extract, draw out

3 to leave one place to go to another, usually quieter, place: he withdrew into his bedroom

4 (of troops) to leave or be pulled back from the battleground

5 to take back (a statement) formally

6 withdraw from to give up: they withdrew from the competition withdrawal n

1 the act or an instance of withdrawing

◇ SYNONYMS: removal, ending, stopping, taking away, abolition, elimination, cancellation, termination

2 the period that a drug addict goes through after stopping using drugs, during which he or she may experience symptoms such as tremors, sweating, and vomiting

► adj

3 of or relating to withdrawal from an addictive drug: withdrawal symptoms withdrawn vb

1 the past participle of withdraw

► adj

2 extremely reserved or shy

◇ SYNONYMS: uncommunicative, reserved, retiring, distant, shy, taciturn, introverted, unforthcoming wither vb

1 to make or become dried up or shrivelled: the leaves had withered but not fallen

◇ SYNONYMS: wilt, decline, decay, disintegrate, perish, shrivel

2 to fade or waste: deprived of the nerve supply the muscles wither

◇ SYNONYMS: waste, decline, shrivel

3 to humiliate (someone) with a scornful look or remark > withered adj

withering adj (of a look or remark) extremely scornful

◇ SYNONYMS: scornful, devastating, humiliating, snubbing, hurtful, mortifying withers pl n the highest part of the back of a horse, between the shoulders withhold vb -holding, -held to keep back (information or money)

◇ SYNONYMS: keep secret, refuse, hide, reserve, retain, conceal, suppress, hold back within prep

1 in or inside: within the hospital grounds

2 before (a period of time) has passed: within a month

3 not beyond: within the confines of a low budget; he positioned a low table within her reach

► adv

4 (formal) inside or internally: a glimpse of what was hidden within without prep

1 not accompanied by: I can't imagine going through life without him

2 not using: our Jeep drove without lights

3 not possessing or having: four months without a job; a lot of them came across the border without shoes

4 in a manner showing a lack of: without reverence

5 while not or after not: she sat without speaking for some while

► adv

6 (formal) outside: seated on the graveyard without withstand vb -standing, -stood to resist or endure successfully: our ability to withstand stress

◇ SYNONYMS: resist, suffer, bear, sustain, oppose, cope with, endure, tolerate, stand up to witless adj

1 (formal) lacking intelligence or sense

2 scared witless extremely frightened witness n

1 a person who has seen or can give first-hand evidence of some event: the only witness to a killing

◇ SYNONYMS: observer, viewer, spectator, looker-on, watcher, onlooker, eyewitness, bystander

2 a person who gives evidence in a court of law: a witness for the defence

◇ SYNONYMS: testifier

3 a person who confirms the genuineness of a document or signature by adding his or her own signature

4 evidence proving or supporting something: the Church of England, that historic witness to the power of the Christian faith

5 bear witness to to be evidence or proof of: the high turn-out bore witness to the popularity of the contest

► vb

6 to see, be present at, or know at first hand: I have witnessed many motor-racing accidents

◇ SYNONYMS: see, view, watch, note, notice, observe, perceive

7 to be the scene or setting of: the 1970s witnessed an enormous increase in international lending

8 to confirm the genuineness of (a document or signature) by adding one's own signature

◇ SYNONYMS: countersign, sign, endorse, validate

9 witness to (formal) to confirm: our aim is to witness to the fact of the empty tomb witter vb (chiefly Brit informal) to chatter or babble pointlessly or at unnecessary length witticism n a witty remark wittingly adv intentionally and knowingly witty adj -tier, -tiest clever and amusing

◇ SYNONYMS: humorous, funny, clever, amusing, sparkling, whimsical, droll, piquant > wittily adv

wives n the plural of wife wizard n

1 a man in fairy tales who has magic powers

◇ SYNONYMS: magician, witch, shaman, sorcerer, occultist, magus, conjuror, warlock, tohunga (NZ)

2 a person who is outstandingly gifted in some specified field: a financial wizard wizardry n

1 magic or sorcery

2 outstanding skill or accomplishment in some specified field: technological wizardry wizened (wiz-zend) adj shrivelled, wrinkled, or dried up with age

WMD n weapon(s) of mass destruction woad n a blue dye obtained from a European plant, used by the ancient Britons as a body dye wobbegong n an Australian shark with brown-and-white skin wobble vb -bling, -bled

1 to move or sway unsteadily

◇ SYNONYMS: shake, rock, sway, tremble, teeter, totter

2 to shake: she was having difficulty in controlling her voice, which wobbled about

◇ SYNONYMS: tremble, shake

► n

3 a wobbling movement or sound

◇ SYNONYMS: unsteadiness, shake, tremble wobbly adj -blier, -bliest

1 unsteady

2 trembling

► n

3 throw a wobbly (Brit slang) to become suddenly angry or upset wodge n (informal) a thick lump or chunk: my wodge of Kleenex was a sodden ball woe n

1 (literary) intense grief

◇ SYNONYMS: misery, distress, grief, agony, gloom, sadness, sorrow, anguish

2 woes misfortunes or problems: economic woes

◇ SYNONYMS: problem, grief, misery, sorrow

3 woe betide someone someone will or would experience misfortune: woe betide anyone who got in his way woebegone adj sad in appearance woeful adj

1 extremely sad

2 pitiful or deplorable: a woeful lack of understanding > woefully adv

wok n a large bowl-shaped metal Chinese cooking pot, used for stir-frying woke vb the past tense of wake

► adj (informal) alert to social and political injustice woken vb the past participle of wake wold n a large area of high open rolling country wolf n, pl wolves

1 a predatory doglike wild animal which hunts in packs

2 (old-fashioned, informal) a man who habitually tries to seduce women

3 cry wolf to give false alarms repeatedly: if you cry wolf too often, people will take no notice

► vb

4 wolf down to eat quickly or greedily: they will wolf down kidneys but refuse tongue

wolf whistle n

1 a whistle expressing admiration of a person's appearance

► vb wolf-whistle-whistling, -whistled

2 to produce such a whistle wolverine n a large meat-eating mammal of Eurasia and North America with very thick dark fur woman n, pl women

1 an adult female human being

◇ SYNONYMS: lady, girl, female (sometimes derogatory), sheila (Austral & NZ informal), vrou (S African), adult female, femme, wahine (NZ)

2 adult female human beings collectively: the very image of woman pared of the trappings of 'femininity'

3 an adult female human being with qualities associated with the female, such as tenderness or maternalism: she's more woman than you know

4 a female servant or domestic help

5 (informal) a wife or girlfriend

► adj

6 female: a woman doctor womanhood n

1 the state of being a woman: young girls approaching womanhood

2 women collectively: Asian womanhood

womanish adj (of a man) looking or behaving like a woman womanizer or -niser n a man who has casual affairs with many women womanizing or -nising n (of a man) the practice of indulging in casual affairs with women womanly adj possessing qualities generally regarded as typical of, or appropriate to, a woman

◇ SYNONYMS: feminine, motherly, female, matronly, ladylike womb n the nontechnical name for uterus wombat n a furry heavily-built plant-eating Australian marsupial

Women's Liberation n a movement promoting the removal of inequalities based upon the assumption that men are superior to women. Also called: women's lib

won vb the past of win wonder vb

1 to think about something with curiosity or doubt: I wonder why she did that

◇ SYNONYMS: think, question, puzzle, speculate, query, ponder, meditate, conjecture

2 to be amazed: I did wonder at her leaving valuable china on the shelves

◇ SYNONYMS: be amazed, stare, marvel, be astonished, gape

► n

3 something that causes surprise or awe: it's a wonder she isn't speechless with fright

◇ SYNONYMS: phenomenon, sight, miracle, spectacle, curiosity, marvel, prodigy, rarity

4 the feeling of surprise or awe caused by something strange: the wonder of travel

◇ SYNONYMS: amazement, surprise, admiration, awe, fascination, astonishment, bewilderment, wonderment

5 do or work wonders to achieve spectacularly good results

6 no or small wonder it is not surprising: no wonder you're going broke

► adj

7 causing surprise or awe because of spectacular results achieved: a new wonder drug for treating migraine

> wonderingly adv

> wonderment n

wonderful adj

1 extremely fine; excellent: I've been offered a wonderful job

◇ SYNONYMS: excellent, great (informal), brilliant, outstanding, superb, fantastic (informal), tremendous, magnificent, booshit (Austral slang), exo (Austral slang), sik (Austral slang), rad (informal), phat (slang), schmick (Austral informal)

2 causing surprise, amazement, or awe: a strange and wonderful phenomenon

◇ SYNONYMS: remarkable, amazing, extraordinary, incredible (informal), astonishing, staggering, startling, phenomenal > wonderfully adv

wondrous adj (old-fashioned, or literary) causing surprise or awe; marvellous wonky adj -kier, -kiest (Brit & Austral & NZ slang)

1 shaky or unsteady: wonky wheelbarrows; wonky knees

2 insecure or unreliable: his marriage is looking a bit wonky wont (rhymes with don't) (old-fashioned) adj

1 accustomed: most murderers, his police friends were wont to say, were male

► n

2 a usual practice: she waded straight in, as was her wont won't will not woo vb wooing, wooded

1 to coax or urge: it will woo people back into the kitchen

2 (old-fashioned) to attempt to gain the love of (a person)

◇ SYNONYMS: court, pursue > wooing n

wood n

1 the hard fibrous substance beneath the bark in trees and shrubs, which is used in building and carpentry and as fuel. RELATED ADJECTIVE: ligneous

◇ SYNONYMS: timber, planks, planking, lumber (US)

2 an area of trees growing together that is smaller than a forest: a track leading into a wood RELATED ADJECTIVE: sylvan

◇ SYNONYMS: woodland, forest, grove, thicket, copse, coppice, bushland

3 (golf) a long-shafted club with a wooden head

► adj

4 made of, using, or for use with wood: wood fires woodbine n a wild honeysuckle with sweet-smelling yellow flowers woodcock n a large game bird with a long straight bill woodcut n a print made from a block of wood with a design cut into it wooded adj covered with woods or trees

◇ SYNONYMS: tree-covered, forested, timbered, sylvan (poetic), tree-clad wooden adj

1 made of wood

◇ SYNONYMS: made of wood, timber, woody, ligneous

2 lacking spirit or animation: the man's expression became wooden

◇ SYNONYMS: expressionless, lifeless, deadpan, unresponsive > woodenly adv

woodland n

1 land that is mostly covered with woods or trees

► adj

2 living in woods: woodland birds

woodlouse n, pl -lice a very small grey creature with many legs that lives in damp places woodpecker n a bird with a strong beak with which it bores into trees for insects woodwind (music) adj

1 of or denoting a type of wind instrument, such as the oboe

► n

2 the woodwind instruments of an orchestra woodworm n

1 a beetle larva that bores into wooden furniture or beams

2 the damage caused to wood by these larvae woody adj woodier, woodiest

1 (of a plant) having a very hard stem

2 (of an area) covered with woods or trees woof¹ n same as weft woof² n an imitation of the bark of a dog woofer n a loudspeaker used in high-fidelity systems for the reproduction of low audio frequencies wool n

1 the soft curly hair of sheep and some other animals

◇ SYNONYMS: fleece, hair, coat

2 yarn spun from this, used in weaving and knitting

◇ SYNONYMS: yarn

3 cloth made from this yarn

4 pull the wool over someone's eyes to deceive someone woollen or (US) woolen adj

1 made of wool or of a mixture of wool and another material

2 relating to wool: woollen mills

► n

3 woollens woollen clothes, esp. knitted ones woolly or (US) wooly adj -lier, -liest

1 made of or like wool

2 confused or indistinct: woolly ideas

► n, pl -lies

3 a woollen garment, such as a sweater woomera n a notched stick used by Australian Aborigines to aid the propulsion of a spear woozy adj woozier, wooziest (informal) feeling slightly dizzy wop-wops pl n (NZ informal) remote rural areas word n

1 the smallest single meaningful unit of speech or writing. RELATED ADJECTIVE:

lexical

◇ SYNONYMS: term, name, expression

2 a brief conversation: I would like a word with you

◇ SYNONYMS: chat, tête-à-tête, talk, discussion, consultation, confab (informal), heart-to-heart, powwow (informal)

3 a brief statement: a word of warning

◇ SYNONYMS: comment, remark, utterance

4 news or information: let me know if you get word of my wife

◇ SYNONYMS: message, news, report, information, notice, intelligence, dispatch, communiqué, heads up (US & Canada)

5 a solemn promise: he had given his word as a rabbi

◇ SYNONYMS: promise, guarantee, pledge, vow, assurance, oath

6 a command or order: he had only to say the word and they'd hang him

◇ SYNONYMS: command, order, decree, bidding, mandate

7 (computers) a set of bits used to store, transmit, or operate upon an item of information in a computer

8 by word of mouth by spoken rather than by written means: their reputation spreads by word of mouth

9 in a word briefly or in short: in a word, we've won

10 my word! Also: upon my word! (old-fashioned) an exclamation of surprise or amazement

11 take someone at his or her word to accept that someone really means what he or she says: they're willing to take him at his word when he says he'll change

12 take someone's word for it to believe what someone says

13 the last word the closing remark of a conversation or argument, often regarded as settling an issue

14 the last word in the finest example of: the last word in comfort

15 word for word using exactly the same words: he repeated almost word for word what had been said

16 word of honour a solemn promise

► vb

17 to state in words: the questions have to be carefully worded

◇ SYNONYMS: express, say, state, put, phrase, utter, couch, formulate wording n the way in which words are used to express something: the exact wording of the regulation has still not been worked out

◇ SYNONYMS: phraseology, words, language, phrasing, terminology word processing n the creation, organization, and storage of text on a computer or word processor word processor n a computer program or electronic machine for the creation, organization, and storage of text entered from a keyboard and providing a means for printing out such text wordy adj wordier, wordiest using too many words, esp. long words: wordy explanations wore vb the past tense of wear work n

1 physical or mental effort directed to doing or making something

◇ SYNONYMS: effort, industry, labour, sweat, toil, exertion, drudgery, elbow grease (facetious)

2 paid employment at a job, trade, or profession

◇ SYNONYMS: employment, business, job, trade, duty, profession, occupation, livelihood

3 duties or tasks: I had to delegate as much work as I could

◇ SYNONYMS: task, jobs, projects, commissions, duties, assignments, chores, yakka (Austral & NZ informal)

4 something done or made as a result of effort: a work by a major artist

◇ SYNONYMS: creation, piece, production, opus, achievement, composition, handiwork

5 the place where a person is employed: accidents at work

6 (physics, old-fashioned) the transfer of energy occurring when a force is applied to move a body

7 at work working or in action: the social forces at work in society

► adj

8 of or for work: work experience

► vb

9 to do work; labour: no-one worked harder than Arnold

◇ SYNONYMS: labour, sweat, slave, toil, slog (away), drudge, peg away, exert yourself

10 to be employed: she worked as a waitress

◇ SYNONYMS: be employed, be in work

11 to make (a person or animal) labour

12 to operate (a machine or a piece of equipment)

◇ SYNONYMS: operate, use, move, control, drive, manage, handle, manipulate

13 (of a machine or a piece of equipment) to function, esp. effectively: he doesn't have to know how things work

◇ SYNONYMS: function, go, run, operate, be in working order

14 (of a plan or system) to be successful

◇ SYNONYMS: succeed, work out, pay off (informal), be successful, be effective, do the trick (informal), do the business (informal), get results

15 to cultivate (land)

◇ SYNONYMS: cultivate, farm, dig, till, plough

16 to move gradually into a specific condition or position: he picked up the shovel, worked it under the ice, and levered

17 to make (one's way) with effort: he worked his way to the top

18 (informal) to manipulate to one's own advantage: they could see an angle and they'd know how to work it workable adj

1 able to operate efficiently: a workable solution

2 able to be used: a workable mine workaholic n a person who is obsessed with work worker n

1 a person who works in a specified way: a hard worker

2 a person who works at a specific job: a government worker

◇ SYNONYMS: employee, hand, labourer, workman or woman or person, craftsman or woman or person, artisan, tradesperson

3 an employee, as opposed to an employer

4 a sterile female bee, ant, or wasp, that works for the colony workhorse n a person or thing that does a lot of work, esp. dull or routine work: this plane is the workhorse of most short-haul airlines workhouse n (formerly, in England) a public institution where very poor people did work in return for food and accommodation working class n

1 the social group that consists of people who earn wages, esp. as manual workers

► adj working-class

2 of or relating to the working class: a working-class neighbourhood working party n a committee established to investigate a problem workman n, pl -men a man who is employed to do manual work ◇ SYNONYMS: labourer, hand, worker, employee, mechanic, operative, craftsman or woman or person, artisan workmanship n the degree of skill with which an object is made: shoddy workmanship workshop n

1 a room or building where manufacturing or other manual work is carried on

◇ SYNONYMS: factory, plant, mill

2 a group of people engaged in intensive study or work in a creative or practical field: a writers' workshop worktop n a surface in a kitchen, usually the top of a fitted kitchen unit, which is used for food preparation. Also: work surface work-to-rule n a form of industrial action in which employees keep strictly to their employers' rules, with the result of reducing the work rate

world n

1 the earth as a planet

◇ SYNONYMS: earth, planet, globe

2 the human race; people generally: providing food for the world

◇ SYNONYMS: humankind, mankind, man, everyone, the public, everybody, humanity

3 any planet or moon, esp. one that might be inhabited

4 a particular group of countries or period of history, or its inhabitants: the Arab world; the post-Cold War world

5 an area, sphere, or realm considered as a complete environment: the art world; the world of nature

◇ SYNONYMS: sphere, area, field, environment, realm, domain

6 the total circumstances and experience of a person that make up his or her life: there may not ever be a place for us in your world

7 bring into the world to deliver or give birth to (a baby)

8 come into the world to be born

9 for all the world exactly or very much: they looked for all the world like a pair of newly-weds

10 in the world used to emphasize a statement: she didn't have a worry in the world

11 man or woman of the world a man or woman who is experienced in social or public life

12 worlds apart very different from each other: this man and I are worlds apart

► adj

13 of or concerning the entire world: the world championship worldly adj -lier, -liest

1 not spiritual; earthly or temporal: as a simple monk he had no interest in politics and other worldly affairs

◇ SYNONYMS: earthly, physical, secular, terrestrial, temporal, profane

2 of or relating to material things: all his worldly goods

3 wise in the ways of the world; sophisticated: a suave, worldly, charming Frenchman

◇ SYNONYMS: worldly-wise, knowing, experienced, sophisticated, cosmopolitan, urbane, blasé > worldliness n

world-weary adj no longer finding pleasure in life

World Wide Web n (computers) a vast network of hypertext files, stored on computers throughout the world, that can provide a computer user with information on a huge variety of subjects worm n

1 a small invertebrate animal with a long thin body and no limbs

2 an insect larva that looks like a worm

3 a despicable or weak person

4 a slight trace: a worm of doubt

5 a shaft on which a spiral thread has been cut, for example in a gear arrangement in which such a shaft drives a toothed wheel

6 (computers) a type of virus

► vb

7 to rid (an animal) of worms in its intestines

8 worm one's way

A to go or move slowly and with difficulty: I had to worm my way out sideways from the bench

B to get oneself into a certain situation or position gradually: worming your way into my good books

9 worm out of to obtain (information) from someone who is not willing to provide it: it took me weeks to worm the facts out of him

worm-eaten adj eaten into by worms: worm-eaten beams wormwood n a plant from which a bitter oil formerly used in making absinthe is obtained wormy adj wormier, wormiest infested with or eaten by worms worn vb

1 the past participle of wear

► adj

2 showing signs of long use or wear: the worn soles of his boots

◇ SYNONYMS: ragged, frayed, shabby, tattered, tatty (Brit), threadbare, the worse for wear

3 looking tired and ill: that worn pain-creased face worried adj concerned and anxious about things that may happen

◇ SYNONYMS: anxious, concerned, troubled, afraid, frightened, nervous, tense, uneasy > worriedly adv

worry vb -ries, -rying, -ried

1 to be or cause to be anxious or uneasy

◇ SYNONYMS: be anxious, be concerned, be worried, obsess, brood, fret, agonize, get in a lather (informal)

2 to annoy or bother: don't worry yourself with the details

◇ SYNONYMS: trouble, upset, bother, disturb, annoy, unsettle, pester, vex

3 (of a dog) to frighten (sheep or other animals) by chasing and trying to bite them

4 worry away at to struggle with or work on (a problem)

► n, pl -ries

5 a state or feeling of anxiety: he was beside himself with worry

◇ SYNONYMS: anxiety, concern, fear, trouble, unease, apprehension, misgiving, trepidation (formal)

6 a cause for anxiety: having a premature baby is much less of a worry these days

◇ SYNONYMS: problem, care, trouble, bother, hassle (informal) > worrier n worrying adj causing concern and anxiety worse adj

1 the comparative of bad

2 none the worse for not harmed by (adverse events or circumstances)

3 the worse for wear (informal) in a poor condition; not at one's best:

returning the worse for wear from the pub

► n

4 for the worse into a worse condition: taking a turn for the worse

► adv

5 the comparative of badly

6 worse off in a worse condition, esp. financially worsen vb to make or become worse

◇ SYNONYMS: deteriorate, decline, sink, decay, get worse, degenerate, go downhill (informal) > worsening adj, n worship vb -shipping, -shipped (US) -shipping, -shipped

1 to show profound religious devotion to (one's god), for example by praying

◇ SYNONYMS: revere, praise, honour, adore, glorify, exalt, pray to, venerate

2 to have intense love and admiration for (a person)

◇ SYNONYMS: love, adore, idolize, put on a pedestal

► n

3 religious adoration or devotion

◇ SYNONYMS: reverence, praise, regard, respect, honour, glory, devotion, adulation

4 formal expression of religious adoration, for example by praying

5 intense love or devotion to a person

◇ SYNONYMS: reverence, praise, regard, respect, honour, glory, devotion, adulation

> worshipper n

Worship n Your or His or Her Worship (chiefly Brit) a title for a mayor or magistrate worshipful adj feeling or showing reverence or adoration worst adj, adv

1 the superlative of bad, badly

► n

2 the least good or the most terrible person, thing, or part: the worst is yet to come

3 at one's worst in the worst condition or aspect of a thing or person: the British male is at his worst in July and August

4 at worst in the least favourable interpretation or conditions: all the questions should ideally be answered 'no', or at worst 'sometimes'

► vb

5 (old-fashioned) to defeat or beat worsted (wooss-tid) n a close-textured woollen fabric used to make jackets and trousers worth prep

1 having a value of: the fire destroyed property worth $200 million

2 worthy of; meriting or justifying: if a job is worth doing, it's worth doing well

3 worth one's weight in gold extremely useful or helpful; very highly valued

4 worth one's while worthy of spending one's time or effort on something: they needed a wage of at least £140 a week to make it worth their while returning to work

► n

5 monetary value: the corporation's net worth

◇ SYNONYMS: value, price, rate, cost, estimate, valuation

6 high quality; value: the submarine proved its military worth during the Second World War

◇ SYNONYMS: merit, value, quality, importance, excellence, goodness, worthiness

7 the amount of something that can be bought for a specified price: $10 billion worth of property

worthless adj

1 without value or usefulness: worthless junk bonds

◇ SYNONYMS: valueless, rubbishy, negligible

2 without merit: he sees himself as a worthless creature

◇ SYNONYMS: good-for-nothing, vile, despicable, contemptible > worthlessness n worthwhile adj sufficiently important, rewarding, or valuable to justify spending time or effort on it ◇ SYNONYMS: useful, valuable, helpful, profitable, productive, beneficial, meaningful, constructive worthy adj -thier, -thiest

1 deserving of admiration or respect: motives which were less than worthy

◇ SYNONYMS: praiseworthy, deserving, valuable, worthwhile, admirable, virtuous, creditable, laudable

2 worthy of deserving of: he would practise extra hard to be worthy of such an honour

► n, pl -thies

3 (often facetious) an important person > worthily adv

> worthiness n

would vb

1 used as an auxiliary to form the past tense or subjunctive mood of will: he asked if she would marry him; that would be delightful

2 to express a polite offer or request: would you like some lunch?

3 to describe a habitual past action: sometimes at lunch time I would choose a painting to go and see would-be adj wanting or pretending to be: would-be brides

◇ SYNONYMS: budding, self-styled, wannabe (informal), unfulfilled, self-appointed wouldn't would not wound¹ n

1 an injury to the body such as a cut or a gunshot injury

◇ SYNONYMS: injury, cut, hurt, trauma (pathol), gash, lesion, laceration

2 an injury to one's feelings or reputation

◇ SYNONYMS: trauma, offence, slight, insult

► vb

3 to cause an injury to the body or feelings of ◇ SYNONYMS: injure, cut, wing, hurt, pierce, gash, lacerate > wounding adj

wound² vb the past of wind wove vb a past tense of weave woven vb a past participle of weave wow interj

1 an exclamation of admiration or amazement

► n

2 (slang) a person or thing that is amazingly successful: he would be an absolute wow on the chat shows

► vb

3 (slang) to be a great success with: the new Disney film wowed festival audiences wowser n (Austral & NZ slang)

1 a fanatically puritanical person

2 a teetotaller

wpm words per minute wraith n (literary) a ghost > wraithlike adj

wrangle vb -gling, -gled

1 to argue noisily or angrily

◇ SYNONYMS: argue, fight, row, dispute, disagree, contend, quarrel, squabble

► n

2 a noisy or angry argument

◇ SYNONYMS: argument, row, dispute, quarrel, squabble, bickering, tiff, altercation wrap vb wrapping, wrapped

1 to fold a covering round (something) and fasten it securely: a small package wrapped in brown paper

◇ SYNONYMS: cover, enclose, shroud, swathe, encase, enfold, bundle up

2 to fold or wind (something) round a person or thing: she wrapped a handkerchief around her bleeding palm

◇ SYNONYMS: bind, swathe

3 to fold, wind, or coil: she wrapped her arms around her mother

◇ SYNONYMS: bind, swathe

4 to complete the filming of (a motion picture or television programme)

► n

5 (old-fashioned) a garment worn wrapped round the shoulders

◇ SYNONYMS: cloak, cape, stole, mantle (archaic), shawl

6 (in the filming of a motion picture or television programme) the end of a day's filming or the completion of filming

7 a type of sandwich consisting of filling rolled up in a flour tortilla

8 (Brit slang) a small packet of an illegal drug in powder form: a wrap of heroin

9 keep something under wraps to keep something secret wrapper n a paper, foil, or plastic cover in which a product is wrapped: a single sweet wrapper wrapping n a piece of paper, foil, or other material used to wrap something in wrap up vb

1 to fold paper, cloth, or other material round (something)

- ◇ SYNONYMS wrap something up: giftwrap, pack, package, bundle up
- 2 to put warm clothes on: remember to wrap up warmly on cold or windy days
- 3 (informal) to finish or settle: he will need 60 to 90 days to wrap up his current business dealings
- ◇ SYNONYMS wrap something up: end, conclude, wind up, terminate, finish off, round off, polish off
- 4 (slang) to stop talking
- 5 wrapped up in giving all one's attention to: wrapped up in her new baby

wrasse n a brightly coloured sea fish wrath (roth) n (old-fashioned, or literary) intense anger

- ◇ SYNONYMS: anger, rage, temper, fury, resentment, indignation, ire, displeasure
- > wrathful adj

wreak vb

- 1 wreak havoc to cause chaos or damage: this Australian sun will wreak havoc with your complexions
- 2 wreak vengeance on to take revenge on wreath n, pl wreaths

- 1 a ring of flowers or leaves, placed on a grave as a memorial or worn on the head as a garland or a mark of honour
- 2 anything circular or spiral: a wreath of smoke

wreck vb

- 1 to break, spoil, or destroy completely
- ◇ SYNONYMS: destroy, break, smash, ruin, devastate, shatter, spoil, demolish, kennet (Austral slang), jeff (Austral slang)
- 2 to cause the accidental sinking or destruction of (a ship) at sea
- n
- 3 something that has been destroyed or badly damaged, such as a crashed car or aircraft

4 a ship that has been sunk or destroyed at sea

◇ SYNONYMS: shipwreck, hulk

5 a person in a poor mental or physical state wreckage n the remains of something that has been destroyed or badly damaged, such as a crashed car or aircraft wrecker n

1 a person who destroys or badly damages something: a marriage wrecker

2 (formerly) a person who lured ships onto rocks in order to plunder them

3 (chiefly US & Canad & NZ) a person whose job is to demolish buildings or dismantle cars

4 (US & Canad) a breakdown van wren n a very small brown songbird

Wren n (informal) (formerly, in Britain and certain other nations) a member of the former Women's Royal Naval Service wrench vb

1 to twist or pull (something) violently, for example to remove it from something to which it is attached: he grabbed the cable and wrenched it out of the wall socket

◇ SYNONYMS: twist, force, pull, tear, rip, tug, jerk, yank

2 to move or twist away with a sudden violent effort: she wrenched free of his embrace

3 to injure (a limb or joint) by a sudden twist

◇ SYNONYMS: sprain, strain, rick

► n

4 a violent twist or pull

◇ SYNONYMS: twist, pull, rip, tug, jerk, yank

5 an injury to a limb or joint, caused by twisting it

◇ SYNONYMS: sprain, strain, twist

6 a feeling of sadness experienced on leaving a person or place: it would be a wrench to leave Essex after all these years

◇ SYNONYMS: blow, shock, upheaval, pang

7 a spanner with adjustable jaws

◇ SYNONYMS: spanner, adjustable spanner wrest vb

1 to take (something) away from someone with a violent pull or twist

2 to seize forcibly by violent or unlawful means: she must begin to wrest control of the army and the police wrestle vb -tling, -tled

1 to fight (someone) by grappling and trying to throw or pin him or her to the ground, often as a sport

◇ SYNONYMS: fight, battle, struggle, combat, grapple, tussle, scuffle

2 wrestle with to struggle hard with (a person, problem, or thing): I wrestled with my conscience > wrestler n

wrestling n a sport in which each contestant tries to overcome the other either by throwing or pinning him or her to the ground or by forcing a submission wretch n (old-fashioned)

1 a despicable person

2 a person pitied for his or her misfortune wretched (wretch-id) adj

1 in poor or pitiful circumstances: a vast wretched slum

2 feeling very unhappy

3 of poor quality: the wretched state of the cabbages

4 (informal) undesirable or displeasing: what a wretched muddle > wretchedly adv

> wretchedness n

wriggle vb -gling, -gled

1 to twist and turn with quick movements: he wriggled on the hard seat

2 to move along by twisting and turning

3 wriggle out of to avoid (doing something that one does not want to do): he wriggled out of donating blood

► n

4 a wriggling movement or action wring vb wringing, wrung

1 Also: wring out to squeeze water from (a cloth or clothing) by twisting it tightly

2 to twist (a neck) violently

3 to clasp and twist (one's hands) in anguish

4 to grip (someone's hand) vigorously in greeting

5 to obtain by forceful means: to wring concessions from the army

6 wring someone's heart to make someone feel sorrow or pity wrinkle n

1 a slight ridge in the smoothness of a surface, such as a crease in the skin as a result of age

◇ SYNONYMS: line, fold, crease, furrow, crow's-foot, corrugation

► vb -kling, -kled

2 to develop or cause to develop wrinkles

◇ SYNONYMS: crease, gather, fold, crumple, furrow, rumple, pucker, corrugate > wrinkled or wrinkly adj wrist n

1 the joint between the forearm and the hand

2 the part of a sleeve that covers the wrist wristwatch n a watch worn strapped round the wrist writ n a formal legal document ordering a person to do or not to do something ◇ SYNONYMS: summons, document, decree, indictment, court order, subpoena, arraignment write vb writing, wrote, written

1 to draw or mark (words, letters, or numbers) on paper or a blackboard with a pen, pencil, or chalk

◇ SYNONYMS: record, scribble, inscribe, set down, jot down

2 to describe or record (something) in writing: he began to write his memoirs

◇ SYNONYMS: compose, draft, pen, draw up

3 to be an author: he still taught writing, but he didn't write

4 to write a letter to or correspond regularly with someone: don't forget to write!

◇ SYNONYMS: correspond, get in touch, keep in touch, write a letter, drop a line, drop a note, email or e-mail

5 (informal, chiefly US & Canad) to write a letter to (someone): I wrote him several times

6 to say or communicate in a letter or a book: in a recent letter a friend wrote that everything costs more in Russia now

7 to fill in the details for (a cheque or document)

8 (computers) to record (data) in a storage device

9 write down to record in writing: write it down if you find it too embarrassing to talk about writer n

1 a person whose job is writing; author

◇ SYNONYMS: author, novelist, hack, scribbler, scribe, wordsmith, penpusher

2 the person who has written something specified: the writer of this letter is pretty dangerous writhe vb writhing, writhed to twist or squirm in pain: writhing in agony writing n

1 something that has been written: the writing on the outer flap was faint

2 written form: permission in writing

3 short for handwriting

◇ SYNONYMS: script, hand, printing, fist (informal), scribble, handwriting, scrawl, calligraphy

4 a kind or style of writing: creative writing

5 the work of a writer: Wilde never mentioned chess in his writing wrong adj

1 not correct or accurate: the wrong answers

◇ SYNONYMS: incorrect, mistaken, false, inaccurate, untrue, erroneous, wide of the mark, fallacious

2 acting or judging in error; mistaken: do correct me if I'm wrong

◇ SYNONYMS: incorrect, mistaken, false, inaccurate, untrue, erroneous, wide of the mark, fallacious

3 not in accordance with correct or conventional rules or standards; immoral: this group argues that even gently slapping a child is wrong

◇ SYNONYMS: bad, criminal, illegal, evil, unlawful, immoral, unjust, dishonest

4 not intended or appropriate: I ordered the wrong things; you've picked the wrong time to ask such questions

◇ SYNONYMS: inappropriate, incorrect, unsuitable, unacceptable, undesirable, incongruous, unseemly, unbecoming

5 being a problem or trouble: come on, I know when something's wrong

◇ SYNONYMS: amiss, faulty, unsatisfactory, not right, defective, awry

6 not functioning properly: there's something wrong with the temperature sensor

◇ SYNONYMS: defective, faulty, awry, askew

7 denoting the side of cloth that is worn facing inwards

► adv

8 in a wrong manner: I guessed wrong

◇ SYNONYMS: incorrectly, badly, wrongly, mistakenly, erroneously, inaccurately

9 get someone wrong to misunderstand someone: don't get me wrong, I'm not making threats

10 get something wrong to make a mistake about something: he had got his body language wrong

11 go wrong

A to turn out badly or not as intended

B to make a mistake

C (of a machine) to stop functioning properly: pilots must be able to react instantly if the automatic equipment suddenly goes wrong

► n

12 something bad, immoral, or unjust: how can such a wrong be redressed?

◇ SYNONYMS: offence, injury, crime, error, sin, injustice, misdeed, transgression

13 in the wrong mistaken or guilty

► vb

14 to treat (someone) unjustly

◇ SYNONYMS: mistreat, abuse, hurt, harm, cheat, take advantage of, oppress, malign

15 to think or speak unfairly of (someone) > wrongly adv

wrongdoing n immoral or illegal behaviour > wrongdoer n

wrongful adj unjust or illegal: wrongful imprisonment > wrongfully adv

wrote vb the past tense of write wrought (rawt) vb

1 (old-fashioned) a past of work

► adj

2 (metallurgy) shaped by hammering or beating: wrought copper and brass wrought iron n a pure form of iron with a low carbon content, often used for decorative work wrung vb the past of wring wry adj wrier, wriest or wryer, wryest

1 drily humorous; sardonic: wry amusement

2 (of a facial expression) produced by twisting one's features to denote amusement or displeasure: a small wry smile twisted the corner of his mouth > wryly adv

wt. weight

WWW World Wide Web

wych-elm or witch-elm n a Eurasian elm with long pointed leaves

Xx

X

1 indicating an error, a choice, or a kiss

2 indicating an unknown, unspecified, or variable factor, person, or thing:

Miss X

3 the Roman numeral for ten

4 (formerly) indicating a film that may not be publicly shown to anyone under 18: since 1982 replaced by symbol 18 xenon n (chem) a colourless odourless gas found in minute quantities in the air.

SYMBOL: Xe

xenophobia (zen-oh-fobe-ee-a) n hatred or fear of foreigners or strangers > xenophobic adj

Xerox (zeer-ox) n (trademark)

1 a machine for copying printed material

2 a copy made by a Xerox machine

► vb

3 to produce a copy of (a document) using such a machine

Xmas (eks-mass) n (informal) short for Christmas

XML extensible markup language: a computer language used in text formatting

X-ray or x-ray n

1 a stream of electromagnetic radiation of short wavelength that can pass through some solid materials

2 a picture produced by exposing photographic film to X-rays: used in medicine as a diagnostic aid, since parts of the body, such as bones, absorb X-

rays and so appear as opaque areas on the picture

◇ SYNONYMS: radiograph, X-ray image

► vb

3 to photograph, treat, or examine using X-rays

xylem (zile-em) n (botany) a plant tissue that conducts water and mineral salts from the roots to all other parts xylophone (zile-oh-fone) n (music) a percussion instrument consisting of a set of wooden bars played with hammers > xylophonist n

ya interj (S African) yes yabby n, pl -bies (Austral)

1 a small freshwater crayfish

2 a marine prawn used as bait yacht (yott) n

1 a large boat with sails or an engine, used for racing or pleasure cruising

► vb

2 to sail or cruise in a yacht > yachting n, adj

yachtsman or (fem) yachtswoman n, pl -men or -women a person who sails a yacht yak¹ n a Tibetan ox with long shaggy hair yak² (slang) n

1 noisy, continuous, and trivial talk

► vb yakking, yakked

2 to talk continuously about unimportant matters yakka n (Austral & NZ informal) work yam n

1 a twining plant of tropical and subtropical regions, cultivated for its starchy roots, which are eaten as a vegetable

2 the sweet potato

yank vb

1 to pull (someone or something) with a sharp movement: I yanked myself out of the water

◇ SYNONYMS: pull, tug, jerk, seize, snatch, pluck, hitch, wrench

► n

2 a sudden pull or jerk

◇ SYNONYMS: pull, tug, jerk, snatch, hitch, wrench, tweak

Yy

Yank n (slang) a person from the United States

Yankee n

- 1 (slang) same as Yank
- 2 a person from the Northern United States
- adj
- 3 of or characteristic of Yankees

yap vb yapping, yapped

- 1 to bark with a high-pitched sound
- 2 (informal) to talk at length in an annoying or stupid way
- n
- 3 a high-pitched bark
- 4 (slang) annoying or stupid speech
- > yappy adj

yard¹ n

- 1 a unit of length equal to 3 feet (0.9144 metre)
- 2 (naut) a spar slung across a ship's mast to extend the sail yard² n

- 1 a piece of enclosed ground, often adjoining or surrounded by a building or buildings
- 2 an enclosed or open area where a particular type of work is done: a shipbuilding yard
- 3 (US & Canad & Austral) the garden of a house
- 4 (US & Canad) the winter pasture of deer, moose, and similar animals yardstick n

- 1 a measure or standard used for comparison: there's no yardstick for judging

a problem of this sort

2 a graduated measuring stick one yard long yarmulke (yar-mull-ka) n a skullcap worn by Jewish men yarn n

1 a continuous twisted strand of natural or synthetic fibres, used for knitting or making cloth

◇ SYNONYMS: thread, fibre, cotton, wool

2 (informal) a long involved story

◇ SYNONYMS: story, tale, anecdote, account, narrative, fable, reminiscence, urban myth

3 spin a yarn (informal) to tell such a story yashmak n a veil worn by some Muslim women to cover the face in public yaw vb

1 (of an aircraft or ship) to turn to one side or from side to side while moving

► n

2 the act or movement of yawing yawl n

1 a two-masted sailing boat

2 a ship's small boat yawn vb

1 to open one's mouth wide and take in air deeply, often when sleepy or bored

2 to be open wide as if threatening to engulf someone or something: the doorway yawned blackly open at the end of the hall

► n

3 the act or an instance of yawning > yawning adj

yd yard (measure)

ye (yee) pron (old-fashioned, or dialect) you year n

1 the time taken for the earth to make one revolution around the sun, about 365 days

2 the twelve months from January 1 to December 31

3 a period of twelve months from any specified date

4 a specific period of time, usually occupying a definite part or parts of a twelve-month period, used for some particular activity: the financial year

5 a group of people who have started an academic course at the same time

6 year in, year out regularly or monotonously, over a long period

7 years

A a long time: the legal case could take years to resolve

B age, usually old age: a man of his years yearling n an animal that is between one and two years old yearly adj

1 occurring, done, or appearing once a year or every year

◇ SYNONYMS: annual, each year, every year, once a year

2 lasting or valid for a year: the yearly cycle

► adv

3 once a year

◇ SYNONYMS: annually, every year, by the year, once a year, per annum yearn vb

1 to have an intense desire or longing: he often yearned for life in a country town

◇ SYNONYMS: long, desire, hunger, ache, crave, covet, itch, hanker after

2 to feel tenderness or affection: I yearn for you > yearning n, adj

yeast n a yellowish fungus used in fermenting alcoholic drinks and in raising dough for bread > yeasty adj

yebo interj (S African informal) yes yell vb

1 to shout, scream, or cheer in a loud or piercing way

◇ SYNONYMS: scream, shout, cry out, howl, call out, wail, shriek, screech

► n

2 a loud piercing cry of pain, anger, or fear

◇ SYNONYMS: scream, cry, shout, roar, howl, shriek, whoop, screech yellow n

1 the colour of a lemon or an egg yolk

◇ SYNONYMS: lemon, gold, amber

2 anything yellow, such as yellow clothing or yellow paint: painted in yellow

► adj

3 of the colour yellow; of the colour of a lemon or an egg yolk

4 (informal) cowardly or afraid

5 having a yellowish complexion

► vb

6 to make or become yellow or yellower > yellowish or yellowy adj yellow fever n an acute infectious tropical disease causing fever and jaundice, caused by certain mosquitoes yellowhammer n a European songbird with a yellowish head and body

Yellow Pages pl n (trademark) a telephone directory that lists businesses under the headings of the type of business or service they provide yelp vb

1 to utter a sharp or high-pitched cry of pain

► n

2 a sharp or high-pitched cry of pain yen¹ n, pl yen the standard monetary unit of Japan yen² (informal) n

1 a longing or desire

◇ SYNONYMS: longing, desire, craving, yearning, passion, hunger, ache, itch

► vb yenning, yenned

2 to have a longing yeoman (yo-man) n, pl -men (history) a farmer owning and farming his own land yeoman of the guard n a member of the ceremonial bodyguard (Yeomen of the Guard) of the British monarch

yes interj

1 used to express consent, agreement, or approval, or to answer when one is addressed

2 used to signal someone to speak or keep speaking, enter a room, or do something

► n

3 an answer or vote of yes

4 a person who answers or votes yes yes man n a person who always agrees with his or her superior in order to gain favour yesterday n

- 1 the day before today
- 2 the recent past
- ▶ adv
- 3 on or during the day before today
- 4 in the recent past yet conj

- 1 nevertheless or still: I'm too tired to work, yet I have to go on
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: nevertheless, still, however, for all that, notwithstanding, just the same, be that as it may
- ▶ adv
- 2 up until then or now: this may be her most rewarding book yet
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: so far, until now, up to now, still, as yet, even now, thus far, up till now
- 3 still: yet more work to do
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: still, in addition, besides, to boot, into the bargain
- 4 now (as contrasted with later): not ready for that yet
 - ◇ SYNONYMS: now, right now, just now, so soon
- 5 eventually in spite of everything: I'll break your spirit yet!
- 6 as yet up until then or now yeti n same as abominable snowman yew n an evergreen tree with needle-like leaves, red berries, and fine-grained elastic wood

Yiddish n

- 1 a language derived from High German, spoken by Jews in Europe and elsewhere by Jewish emigrants, and usually written in the Hebrew alphabet
- ▶ adj
- 2 of this language

yield vb

- 1 to produce or bear

- ◇ SYNONYMS: produce, give, provide, return, supply, bear, net, earn
- 2 to give as a return: some of his policies have yielded large savings
- ◇ SYNONYMS: produce, give, provide, return, supply, bear, net, earn
- 3 to give up control of; surrender
- ◇ SYNONYMS: relinquish, resign, hand over, surrender, turn over, make over, give over, bequeath
- 4 to give way, submit, or surrender, through force or persuasion: the players finally yielded to the weather
- ◇ SYNONYMS: bow, submit, give in, surrender, succumb, cave in (informal), capitulate
- 5 to agree (to): governments too weak to say no repeatedly yielded to petitions for charters
- 6 to grant or allow: to yield right of way
- n
- 7 the amount produced
- ◇ SYNONYMS: produce, crop, harvest, output yielding adj

- 1 compliant or submissive
- ◇ SYNONYMS: submissive, obedient, compliant, docile, flexible, accommodating, pliant, acquiescent
- 2 soft or flexible: he landed on a yielding surface rather than rock or board
- ◇ SYNONYMS: soft, pliable, springy, elastic, supple, spongy, unresisting

YMCA Young Men's Christian Association

- yob or yobbo n, pl yobs or yobbos (Brit & Austral & NZ slang) a bad-mannered aggressive youth
- ◇ SYNONYMS: thug, hooligan, lout, hoon (Austral & NZ informal), ruffian, roughneck (slang), tsotsi (S African), cougan (Austral slang), scozza (Austral slang), bogan (Austral slang)
- > yobbish adj

yodel vb -delling, -delled (US) -deling, -deled

- 1 to sing with abrupt changes back and forth between the normal voice and false alto, as in folk songs of the Swiss Alps

► n

2 the act or sound of yodelling > yodeller or (US) yodeler n

yoga n

1 a Hindu system of philosophy aiming at spiritual, mental, and physical wellbeing by means of deep meditation, prescribed postures, and controlled breathing

2 a system of exercising involving such meditation, postures, and breathing yogi n a person who practises or is a master of yoga yogurt or yoghurt n a slightly sour custard-like food made from milk curdled by bacteria, often sweetened and flavoured with fruit yoke n, pl yokes or yoke

1 a wooden frame with a bar put across the necks of two animals to hold them together so that they can be worked as a team

2 a pair of animals joined by a yoke

3 a frame fitting over a person's shoulders for carrying buckets

4 an oppressive force or burden: people are still suffering under the yoke of slavery

5 a fitted part of a garment to which a fuller part is attached

► vb yoking, yoked

6 to put a yoke on

7 to unite or link yokel n (derogatory) a person who lives in the country, esp. one who appears simple and old-fashioned yolk n the yellow part in the middle of an egg that provides food for the developing embryo

Yom Kippur n an annual Jewish holiday celebrated as a day of fasting, with prayers of penitence yonder adv

1 over there

► adj

2 situated over there: a tree at yonder waterfall yonks pl n (informal) a very long time: he must have been planning this for yonks

yore n of yore a long time ago: in days of yore

Yorkshire pudding n a baked pudding made from a batter of flour, eggs, and milk, often served with roast beef

you pron

1 (refers to) the person or people addressed: can I get you a drink?

2 (refers to) an unspecified person or people in general: just keep it simple and you can't go wrong

► n

3 (informal) the personality of the person being addressed: that hat isn't really you young adj

1 having lived or existed for a relatively short time

◇ SYNONYMS: immature, juvenile, youthful, little, green, junior, infant, adolescent

2 having qualities associated with youth: their innovative approach and young attitude appealed to him

3 of or relating to youth: he'd been a terrorist himself in France in his young days

4 of a group representing the younger members of a larger organization:

Young Conservatives

► n

5 young people in general: that never seems very important to the young

6 offspring, esp. young animals: a deer suckling her young

◇ SYNONYMS: offspring, baby, litter, family, issue, brood, progeny > youngish adj

youngster n a young person

◇ SYNONYMS: youth, girl, boy, kid (informal), lad, teenager, juvenile, lass your adj

1 of, belonging to, or associated with you: ask your doctor to make the necessary calls

2 of, belonging to, or associated with an unspecified person or people in general: it is not right to take another baby to replace your own

3 (informal) used to indicate all things or people of a certain type: these characters are not your average housebreakers

yours pron

1 something belonging to you: my reputation is better than yours

2 your family: a blessed Christmas to you and yours

3 used in closing phrases at the end of a letter: yours sincerely; yours faithfully

4 of yours belonging to you: that husband of yours yourself pron, pl -selves

1

A the reflexive form of you

B used for emphasis: you've stated publicly that you yourself use drugs

2 your normal self: you're not yourself today youth n

1 the period between childhood and maturity

◇ SYNONYMS: immaturity, adolescence, boyhood or girlhood, salad days

2 the quality or condition of being young, immature, or inexperienced: his youth told against him in the contest

3 a young man or boy

◇ SYNONYMS: boy, lad, youngster, kid (informal), teenager, young man, adolescent, teen (informal)

4 young people collectively: there is still hope for today's youth

5 the freshness, vigour, or vitality associated with being young youth club n a club that provides leisure activities for young people youthful adj

1 vigorous or active: the intermediate section was won by a youthful grandmother

2 of, relating to, possessing, or associated with youth: youthful good looks

◇ SYNONYMS: young, juvenile, childish, immature, boyish, girlish > youthfully adv

> youthfulness n

youth hostel n an inexpensive lodging place for young people travelling cheaply yowl vb

1 to produce a loud mournful wail or cry

► n

2 a wail or howl

yo-yo n, pl -yos

1 a toy consisting of a spool attached to a string, the end of which is held while it is repeatedly spun out and reeled in

► vb yo-yoing, yo-yoed

2 to change repeatedly from one position to another yttrium (it-ree-um) n (chem) a silvery metallic element used in various alloys and in lasers. SYMBOL: Y

yucca n a tropical plant with spiky leaves and white flowers yucky or yukky adj yuckier, yuckiest or yukkier, yukkiest (slang) disgusting or nasty

Yule n (literary, or old-fashioned) Christmas or the Christmas season: Yuletide yuppie n

1 a young highly-paid professional person, esp. one who has a fashionable way of life

► adj

2 typical of or reflecting the values of yuppies: a yuppie accessory

YWCA Young Women's Christian Association

Zz

zany (zane-ee) adj zanier, zaniest comical in an endearing way zap vb zapping, zapped (slang)

1 to kill, esp. by shooting

2 to change television channels rapidly by remote control

3 to move quickly zeal n great enthusiasm or eagerness, esp. for a religious movement

◇ SYNONYMS: enthusiasm, passion, zest, spirit, verve, fervour, eagerness, gusto zealot (zel-lot) n a fanatic or an extreme enthusiast > zealotry n

zealous (zel-luss) adj extremely eager or enthusiastic > zealously adv

zebra n, pl -ras or -ra a black-and-white striped African animal of the horse family zebra crossing n (Brit) a pedestrian crossing marked by broad black and white stripes: once on the crossing the pedestrian has right of way

zebu (zee-boo) n a domesticated ox of Africa and Asia, with a humped back and long horns

Zen n a Japanese form of Buddhism that concentrates on learning through meditation and intuition zenith n

- 1 the point in the sky directly above an observer
 - 2 the highest or most successful point of anything: he was at the zenith of his military career
- > zenithal adj

zephyr (zef-fer) n a soft gentle breeze

Zeppelin n a large cylindrical rigid German airship of the early 20th century zero n, pl -ros or -roes

- 1 the cardinal number between +1 and -1 ◇ SYNONYMS: nought, nothing (informal), nil
- 2 the symbol, 0, representing this number
- 3 the line or point on a scale of measurement from which the graduations commence
- 4 the lowest point or degree: my credibility is down to zero ◇ SYNONYMS: rock bottom, the bottom, an all-time low, a nadir, as low as you can get
- 5 nothing or nil
- 6 the temperature, pressure, etc., that registers a reading of zero on a scale
▶ adj
- 7 amounting to zero: zero inflation
- 8 (meteorol) (of visibility) limited to a very short distance ▶ vb -roing, -roed
- 9 to adjust (an instrument or scale) so as to read zero zero in on vb

- 1 to aim a weapon at (a target)
- 2 to concentrate one's attention on zest n

- 1 invigorating or keen excitement or enjoyment: she has a zest for life and a quick intellect
 - 2 added interest, flavour, or charm: he said that she would provide a new zest for his government
 - 3 the peel of an orange or lemon, used as flavouring
- > zestful adj

zigzag n

- 1 a line or course having sharp turns in alternating directions
- adj
- 2 formed in or proceeding in a zigzag
- adv
- 3 in a zigzag manner
- vb -zagging, -zagged
- 4 to move in a zigzag zinc n (chem) a brittle bluish-white metallic element that is used in alloys such as brass, to form a protective coating on metals, and in battery electrodes.

SYMBOL: Zn

zing n

- 1 (informal) the quality in something that makes it lively or interesting
- 2 a short high-pitched buzzing sound, like the sound of a bullet or vibrating string

Zionism n a political movement for the establishment and support of a national homeland for Jews in what is now Israel > Zionist n, adj

zip n

- 1 Also called: zip fastener a fastener with two parallel rows of metal or plastic teeth, one on either side of a closure, which are interlocked by a sliding tab

2 (informal) energy or vigour

◇ SYNONYMS: energy, drive, vigour, verve, zest, gusto, liveliness

3 a short sharp whizzing sound, like the sound of a passing bullet

► vb zipping, zipped

4 (often foll. by up) to fasten with a zip

5 to move with a sharp whizzing sound: bullets zipped and ricocheted all around us

◇ SYNONYMS: speed, shoot, fly, flash, zoom, whizz (informal)

6 to hurry or rush

◇ SYNONYMS: speed, shoot, fly, flash, zoom, whizz (informal)

7 to compress (a data file) prior to transmission zipline or zipwire n a cable mechanism used for transportation across a river, gorge, etc.

zircon n (mineralogy) a hard mineral consisting of zirconium silicate, used as a gemstone and in industry zirconium n (chem) a greyish-white metallic element, occurring chiefly in zircon, that is exceptionally corrosion-resistant. SYMBOL: Zr zither n a musical instrument consisting of numerous strings stretched over a flat box and plucked to produce notes > zitherist n

zodiac n

1 an imaginary belt in the sky within which the sun, moon, and planets appear to move, and which is divided into 12 equal areas called signs of the zodiac, each named after the constellation which once lay in it

2 (astrol) a diagram, usually circular, representing this belt > zodiacal adj

zombie or zombi n, pl -bies or -bis

1 a person who appears to be lifeless, apathetic, or totally lacking in independent judgment

2 a corpse brought to life by witchcraft zone n

1 a region, area, or section characterized by some distinctive feature or quality: a demilitarized zone

◇ SYNONYMS: area, region, section, sector, district, territory, belt, sphere

2 (geog) one of the divisions of the earth's surface according to temperature

3 a section on a transport route

4 (maths) a portion of a sphere between two parallel lines intersecting the sphere

5 (NZ) a catchment area for a specific school

► vb zoning, zoned

6 to divide (a place) into zones for different uses or activities > zonal adj

> zoning n

zoo n, pl zoos a place where live animals are kept, studied, bred, and exhibited to the public zoological garden n the formal term for zoo zoology n the study of animals, including their classification, structure, physiology, and history > zoological adj

> zoologist n

zoom vb

1 to move very rapidly: the first rocket zoomed into the sky

◇ SYNONYMS: speed, shoot, fly, rush, flash, dash, whizz (informal), hurtle

2 to increase or rise rapidly: stocks zoomed on the American exchange

3 to move with or make a continuous buzzing or humming sound

► n

4 the sound or act of zooming

5 a zoom lens zoom lens n a lens system that can make the details of a picture larger or smaller while keeping the picture in focus zucchini (zoo-keen-ee) n, pl -ni or -nis (chiefly US & Canad & Austral) a courgette

Zulu n

1 pl -lus or -lu a member of a people of Southern Africa

2 the language of this people

Zumba n (trademark) a system of exercises performed to Latin American dance music zygote n the cell resulting from the union of an ovum and a spermatozoon